The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

MONDAY WAS TEXAS Independence Day, and it was a pleasure to attend the third annual Texas Day Dinner at the Cisco Delphian Club. The affair was held at 7 p. m. Monday at the Victor Hotel. Having featured South Texas and West Texas in previous years, this year's program was devoted to East Texas.

The decorations were outstanding — the work of a committee headed by Mrs. J. V. Heyser, Sr., and including Mrs. Don Choate, Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. Fleming Waters, Mrs. John Kleiner and Mrs. Guy Brogdon.

Mrs. Davis made a rose for each plate out of paper, and the roses were place cards. They were very pretty.

As a part of the program, they saluted ten cities. And each of the cities was represented in the table decorations. Gilmer, the sweet potato capital; Marshall, a railroad center; Henderson, pine forests and vegetable growing region; Kilgore, a city of oil derricks; Longview, an oil and industrial center; Tyler, the rose capital; Dallas, home of the state fair and the cotton bowl; Fort Worth, cattle and aircraft center; Weatherford, the watermelon center, and Cisco were the cities saluted in a talk by Mrs. Heyser and in the table decorations.

The Cisco table piece was a replica of Williamson Dam at Lake Cisco. It was a clever arrangement with water flowing over the dam. Mrs. Heyser pointed out that the highest water had ever been at the lake was about four feet under the top of the spillway and "we wanted water to flow over it once."

Saw Dr. Paul Woods at the dinner and he told us that an attractive puppy showed up Monday at their house. If you've lost one, check with the Woodses.

Mrs. Paul Woods gave a reading, "The Rose Window of San Jose," as an entertainment feature, and it was outstanding.

Mr. Jack Chambliss, accompanied by Miss Jane Huestis, sang "Treet." It was super.

Elsewhere in today's Press is a story about the talk of Mayor Jim Wright of Weatherford. He is a gifted young speaker.

ONE OF OUR Scouts reported that the only Texas Flag she saw flying in town Monday was one at the East Ward School. This was a tribute to Texas Independence won in 1836.

RAN INTO MR. W. J. Foxworth yesterday, and he was out for the first time since undergoing an operation down at Temple recently. He reports that he had his nose worked over and that he's doing very nicely. His appetite is such that he's well on the road to regaining the weight he lost during several weeks of illness.

THIS IS TEXAS Public School week, and all of you are invited to visit the schools. We've accepted Mr. Roy Killingsworth's invitation to eat at the Junior High Cafeteria today.

Today is Junior Highs Open House day, and they're having a program tonight. You will want to drop by the gymnasium tonight to hear their fine choir sing.

Out at Cisco Junior College, they're getting ready for the Beta Upsilon Chapter's opening meeting Friday at 7:30 p. m. A fine program has been arranged and you will want to attend.

WENT UP TO Fort Worth and Dallas over the weekend to see how the other folks are getting along. They're all talking about the need of rain, and the folks at Dallas are worrying about drinking water. Being an old airplane driver, we went out to Love Field in Dallas and spent an hour watching the planes takeoff and land. It was good to hear the roar of the big motors again.

GOT TO GO UP to the news stand now and get a copy of the new Esquire. They've got an article that suggests that the U. S. had oughta give Texas back to the Texans, and several people, including Mrs. Jim Gorman and Mrs. Paul Woods, are fighting mad about it. Will give you a report.

DIFFERENCE IN SIZES—Ballad singer Burl Ives is wearing a 10-gallon hat as he feeds two pets on his mother's farm near Hunt City, Ill. TRIBUTE PAID TEXAS PIONEERS IN ADDRESS TO DELPHIAN CLUB

The growth and prosperity of Texas and its place of prominence in the nation is due largely to zeal with which its pioneer citizens fought for their rights and freedom, Mayor Jim Wright of Weatherford told the Cisco Delphian Club in a Texas Independence Day address Monday night at a Victor Hotel dinner.

The fight for freedom in Texas has no parallel in history, Mr. Wright said. Success of the Texans in laying the foundation for the state was due to their love of freedom, their love of the land, and to the fact that they were not afraid to die for their ideals, the youthful speaker said.

Mr. Wright, who is president of the Texas League of Municipalities, urged that Texans today depend considerably on the land for prosperity. He saw an urgent need for conservation movements and practices, noting that "our land is our most valuable asset." The United States represents six percent of the world's people and seven percent of the land area, "and we have half of all the highways, 89 percent of the automobiles, 91 percent of electric appliances, 87 percent of all the telephones, 85 percent of all radios and 95 percent of all bath-tubs," he said.

The only reason for a condition of this kind, Mr. Wright said, is the principles of freedom on which this country was founded.

Mr. Wright was introduced by Mrs. J. V. Heyser, Sr., program leader. Mrs. Don Choate, president of the Delphian Club, presided over the meeting.

ROSENTHAL ANNOUNCES HE IS CANDIDATE FOR RE-ELECTION

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal has authorized The Press to announce that he will be a candidate for re-election in the annual city election on Tuesday, April 7.

A resident of Cisco for more than 30 years, Mr. Rosenthal is a retired Humble Pipe Line Company engineer and has held the office of mayor for two terms. He has long been active in civic affairs and club work in Cisco.

In connection with his decision to seek re-election, Mr. Rosenthal issued the following statement:

"After careful thought and consideration, I have decided to place my name on the ballot for re-election as Mayor of Cisco. I have endeavored to do what I thought was most advantageous for Cisco and, if elected, will continue this policy.

"The doors of the city hall and record therein are open to the public. Your ideas and suggestions are always appreciated and acted on whenever practical. Your cooperation will be of mutual benefit as this is our city. Let us all work to improve it.

"I am grateful for your past support, and I ask for its continu-

Girls Basketball Teams Will Play At Gym Tonight

The Brownwood Sweethearts, sponsored by the Bluebonnet Buick Company of Brownwood, will be at the community gym tonight for a game with the Cisco Junior College Wranglerettes. It was announced by Coach Paul Mosley.

Game time has been set at 8:30 p. m. at the request of the Brownwood club.

The two teams have not met this season but they played last year with each team winning a game.

Saturday night the Wranglers and the Wranglerettes won games over the boys and girls teams of Weatherford Junior College. The boys won over the Coyotes 61-58 and the girls won 59-16.

In the boys game Coach Red Lewis started the senior members of his squad. The Coyotes jumped into a 14-4 lead early in the first period and held on during the first half. At the beginning of the second quarter Coach Lewis sent in his regulars and they overcame the lead as the half ended.

Peck Hall was high point player for the Wranglers with 19. Bud Miller was in second place with 15, but both Cisco players trailed Walker of Weatherford who made 23. It was the final game of the season for the Wranglers.

In the girls game Jim Birch and Wylene Bint took scoring honors with 15 points each. Coach Mosley shifted his lineup every way possible to keep the score as low as possible.

MUCH INTEREST BEING SHOWN IN JUNIOR BASEBALL PROGRAM

Applications for participation in the Little League Baseball program being sponsored here by the ABC Club were coming in at a sufficient rate to assure a successful program for Cisco, it was reported Tuesday by D. N. Morrison, president of the ABC Club.

The Little League program is limited to boys in the eight to 12 year old group and will be played according to rules set forth by the National organization.

Boys desiring to participate in Little League play were asked to fill out the application blank found on the front page of the Press and mail it or take it to D. N. Morrison, 1209 Bliss. Applications must be in by March 16.

A meeting of players, parents and ABC Club officials will be held later in March to explain the requirements for play in the league. Parents were requested to purchase equipment for their boys prior to that meeting as the rules of play set out certain requirements on equipment.

General rules governing play in the Little League follow: A league shall be composed of 4 teams. More than 4 teams in a league must be approved by National Headquarters.

Each team must register 12 players and not more than 15 players. At no time shall a team have on its roster more than 5 players age 12, or less than 5 players, age 10 or younger. The normal team would have 5 players age 12, 5 players age 11, and 5 players age 10 or younger.

Any boy who will not attain the age of 13 years before August 1 of 1953 will be eligible to compete in Little League Baseball.

Each team shall have a minimum of five eligible pitchers. Their names must be registered with such officials as the local league may designate at least 24 hours before the teams first league game of the season.

Each team may have no more than two pitchers age 12 or less than one pitcher age 10 or younger. The normal pitching staff would have two pitchers age 12, two pitchers age 11 and one pitcher age 10 or younger. No player shall be permitted to pitch unless he is registered as a pitcher. A pitcher shall not pitch more than nine full innings in any one calendar week. A pitcher shall not pitch on two consecutive days under any condition. A pitcher shall not pitch more than nine full innings in any one day. A pitcher, having pitched four or more innings in a game, shall be ineligible for further pitching duty until he has had three calendar days rest. Thus, a pitcher who pitches four or more innings on Monday, may not pitch again until Friday. A manager shall not use more than 5 pitchers in any one game. Violation of any of the pitching rules result in forfeiture of the game in which such violation occurred.

Each team shall play at least two games per week and not less than 18 games per season exclusive of exhibition, championship series and tournament games. All players must be in uniform.

All players must use batting helmets while batting. Shoes with metal cleats are prohibited.

Minor leagues will be set up on the same basis of the major league in order for all boys to have a chance to play.

The ABC Club will apply for a franchise and become a member of the national set up called Little League Baseball, Inc.

No all star games will be played until tournament play begins as set out by National Headquarters which will be in August.

Young Musicians To Give Program

A program by the junior choir and band at the Junior High School at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night (tonight) will be a feature of Texas Public School Week observance in Cisco, Superintendent of Schools Arlin Birt reported today.

The junior high open house will begin at 7 o'clock, followed by the musical program. Arrangements were being made to seat a large crowd expected for the occasion.

The week's program began Monday with open house at the high school. Parents were invited to visit the school and observe the work of the various classes. Parents were welcomed Tuesday at the junior high school.

Wednesday will be East Ward open house day, followed by West Ward Day on Thursday. The colored school will have open house Friday.

John H. Lovelady of Austin, assistant director of field service of the Texas State Teachers Association, will speak and lead a discussion of educational legislation at an open meeting at the Cisco Junior College auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Friday.

The college program has been arranged by Beta Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma and the Eastland County Teachers Association. Entertainment features will include musical numbers by Mrs. Cyrus Frost, Jr., and Mrs. George Bledsoe, violinists of Eastland, and Miss Florence Ashcraft, pianist of Ranger.

The public has been invited to take part in all of the special events of the week, Mr. Birt said.

Band Will Enter Brady Festival

The Cisco High School Lobo Band, Director Kenneth St. Clair, and some of the band members plan to leave Cisco Friday afternoon for Brady where they will participate in an Invitation Competition Festival Friday night and Saturday.

The Lobo Band will compete in marching, playing and sight reading with bands from Brady, McCamey, Andrews, Caldwell, Cross Plains, Breckenridge and two other schools. The contests will have no bearing on Inter-scholastic League standings.

Band members will stay in private homes in Brady Friday night and will return home Saturday night.

STAMEY TO SPEAK

O. L. Stamey, president of Cisco Junior College, will speak Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. at the mid-week fellowship dinner of the First Methodist Church, it was announced today by the Rev. E. H. Lightfoot, pastor. Following the dinner and talk, a motion picture, "The End of Darkness," will be shown.

Seeds Need Help in Their Struggle to Reach Surface

This infant bean plant has just broken through to the sunlight.

Experiments with soil conditions accent the importance of the top one-inch of garden soils. They are proving that for crops grown from seed, the soil texture on the surface is more important than any other section. The seed is dropped in this top layer, and before your garden begins to grow it must overcome the hazards that beset garden seeds, to send a sprout through the soil covering to reach the fresh air and sunshine above.

Most of us accept with little thought our American citizenship and the rights and privileges it bestows. We might do well to reflect upon what it takes to become a citizen of the United States under our present laws. Many of us would probably be unable to pass at least two of the requirements if called upon to do so.

One of these requirements is that the applicant for citizenship may be able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the court a knowledge of the Constitution of the United States and the principles which it affirms. In addition, he must show a fairly comprehensive knowledge of the workings and organization of the American government.

But that is only a small part of the process of becoming a naturalized citizen. To begin with, an applicant for citizenship (if he is an ordinary case) must have been lawfully admitted to the United States for permanent residence. Then he must be entered on the registry of the Commissioner of Immigration, acquire an alien registration card, and receive a certificate of arrival from the Immigration Department.

Some time later he will receive a letter from the government telling him where he must file a declaration to become a citizen — commonly known as "first papers." He may file this declaration shortly after he arrives in this country but not before he is 18 years of age.

After he has lived in the United States five years, and his first paper is at least two years old, the future citizen may file a petition for naturalization, known as "second papers." He must have lived in the state in which he filed for at least six months.

He will then be called for two hearings — one before the immigration authorities, and the second in federal court. At this time he must be able to speak and understand the English language, and he will be questioned regarding the Constitution, history of the United States and the government organization.

After 30 days the applicant will be notified to appear at the court for a final hearing on his petition. When the court grants a petition for naturalization, the applicant takes the oath of renunciation and allegiance — he renounces allegiance to the foreign state of which he is a subject or citizen, and promises to bear allegiance to the United States.

The court may deny the application. The laws relating to the granting of citizenship are strictly observed. Omissions, oversights, mistakes — all doubts in relation to the application are decided in favor of the government.

Some classes of applicants are exempted from several of the usual naturalization requirements. Certain requirements are waived for aliens married to citizens of the United States; for certain veterans of the armed forces; for former citizens who lost their citizenship by serving in Allied armed forces during the two world wars, and others.

DRAFT LAWS AND REGULATIONS

(Editor's note: This is one of a series of 10 short articles on the draft law and its rules and regulations.) It is a local draft board's responsibility, under law and regulations, to decide, subject to appeal, the class in which each man registered with it shall be placed.

Each registrant is considered as available for military service until his eligibility for deferment or exemption from military service is clearly established to the satisfaction of the local board. The board is obligated to receive all pertinent information on classification presented to it, says Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state draft director.

Mailing by the local board of a classification questionnaire to the latest address furnished by a registrant is notice to the registrant that he will be classified in I-A, unless information is presented to the local board, within the time specified for return of the questionnaire, which will justify his deferment or exemption. Unless the local board gives him added time, the registrant must return the questionnaire

From Page One. now exists. This leaves only one item of expense where the abolishment of the Court could show a saving to Eastland County. This would be in connection with the salary of a court reporter. At the present, the 91st Court employs a report whose salary is paid by Eastland County. Should this court be abolished and Eastland County added to the 90th District, under the law, Eastland County would be required to pay its proportion of the reporter's salary based on population. (Articles 2326h and 2327a R. C. S.) In addition to the reporter's salary (Article 2326a) provides for the payment of expenses of the court reporter, including mileage traveling between courts, and hotel expenses when away from their home county. Under the present setup, the court reporter of Eastland County is not entitled to an expense account of any nature.

ACC Receives $400,000 Estate. ABILENE, Feb. (Spl.) - Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bozeman of Amherst have willed their entire estate, valued at $400,000, to Abilene Christian College. Announcement of the will was made here by B. Sherrod of Lubbock, president of the ACC Board of Trustees. The Bozeman were in Abilene this week attending the 34th annual Abilene Christian College Bible Lectureship. The Amherst couple has extensive land holdings in West Texas and New Mexico as well as 526 acres in oil royalty. "We thought about giving something so our efforts in life might live on after we have gone. To say the least, we hope and trust that this will be the means of giving a host of boys and girls some good from our efforts," Mr. Bozeman said in signing the will. Don H. Morris, college president, termed the will "one of the most magnanimous things that has happened to the school." A native of Coleman County, Mr. Bozeman was reared in West Texas and Oklahoma. He farmed throughout Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. Oil was struck in 1947 on Levelland property - of which Mr. Bozeman controlled the mineral rights. Since that time he and his wife have lived most of the time at Amherst.

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

Right after Mother arrives home from the hospital with the new baby, she usually has her hands full. If he is the first in the line of heirs, she needs to learn new routines of baby care, as well as to keep the household running and to look after her own welfare. Her mother, a good neighbor, or servant may be able to help her over the hump, or she can enlist her husband's help.

Together the new parents will have to learn to put first things first; even though there may be dust on the furniture, the baby's care should be the best. They'll have to find out they can't always go by rules in a book or a friend's advice but instead must adapt a routine so it'll be easy to follow, without endangering the quality of care. They'll have to learn how to work with the doctor: to report important departures from normal but not to be alarmed over minor troubles experienced by most babies, such as spitting up after a feeding once in awhile.

Housework should be cut to a minimum and unnecessary trips of the mother up and down stairs avoided. Perhaps friend husband can be persuaded that his talents lie in the kitchen. Until formula making is almost as automatic as meal getting, it might be done in the afternoon or evening, not run in with the baby's bath, which at this point probably is unfamiliar too. A short cut is to wash all formula equipment and put it on to boil, then wash the dishes in the same water.

To be able to cope with the additional work and responsibility, and also because she's not quite her usual self yet, the new mother must allow herself enough sleep, plus some rest during the day. Feeding the baby every three or four hours, straight on through the night, means that an early bedtime should be recommended for all the family. Too many visitors may prove tiring to the mother and a source of infection for the baby. She should follow her prescribed diet so she gets the right amount and kind of food, particularly if she is nursing her baby, and her doctor may advise certain exercises as well.

As a rule, a healthy infant sleeps about twenty of the twenty-four hours at first. With his adaptability and the natural love of the rest of the family, he soon becomes a part of the home's life.

Mrs. Ben Wende and children, Mrs. Paul Weiser, and Mrs. R. H. Dunning were visitors in Abilene Monday.
