

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

OUR TOWN LOST a very useful citizen and a fine Christian gentleman last week in the death of Judge J. J. Callaway. A great deal of his good work was done in an anonymous manner. His contributions to worthy causes were never permitted to become public, and he was always one of the very largest contributors. Judge Callaway was an enthusiastic civic worker. He had an outstanding reputation for his work with the Masonic bodies. In fact, he was concerned and active in virtually all public fields. Yes, our town has lost a valuable citizen.

AND WE'RE LOSING another citizen in the promotion of Mr. Purdy of West Texas Utilities Company. He moves this week to Abilene for a responsible assignment in the general offices here. He came here from Cross Plains a year or so ago and now moves on to Abilene. That's what he gets for being such a good salesman.

WENT OVER to the Cisco Housing Authority's pretty brick apartments the other afternoon to see how things were going. They're in the process of providing adequate playgrounds for the many youngsters who live over there. Swings, see-saws, a basketball court, a volleyball court, and other outdoor play equipment have been secured. It's a permanent installation, too.

THERE'S SOMETHING new up at the First National Bank. Just inside the front door, they've installed a large bulletin board that is The Trading Post. They'll put up notices for you to help you in some swapping or sell a service. It's a novel board with a huge steer's head at the top. You'll want to look it over next time you're at the bank. It's a good idea.

THEY'VE HAD A big bulletin board down at Mr. J. L. Thornhill's feed mill for years. It's a black board on the outside of the building. There has been some remodeling work going on at the feed mill, including a new office.

SPEAKING OF remodeling, we're reminded that the West Texas Produce Company is finishing up a project that includes new offices, which have been moved to give more warehouse space. Hear that the Joe Ben Hamricks are building a new home out on the Lake Cisco road. The Latson Company has the contract, and Jones Electric is a subcontractor.

RAN INTO A proposition that sounded delicious the other day. Some folks took frozen turkeys and cut them into steaks on a meat saw. The turkey steaks were broiled. Turned out real good, we're told.

A DOGWOOD TREE is in bloom out at Mrs. Cate Atkins' house. It's very pretty. . . . Vice-President Tony White and Manager B. A. Butler of the Chamber of Commerce represented Cisco at the annual Coif banquet in Brownwood the other night. They report that it was a splendid affair with some 350 people in attendance.

DROPPED OUT to Cisco Junior College for the choir's program Friday night, and it was outstanding in every respect. Our town is fortunate indeed to have two top quality young musicians like Mr. Robert Clinton and Mr. Jack Chambliss. They're doing a wonderful work with the young people. Seven members of the choir are CJC football players. . . . We especially liked the choir's presentation of Scott's "The Creation," with Dan Wilkinson as the narrator. This is a narration with the choir providing background music. Very effective. . . . As master of ceremonies and announcer for the show, Mr. Clinton did a fine job. He is a gifted talker in the informal manner he uses to handle the introductions and the like. The program was well worth everybody's time. The choir is a very definite credit to our town and to the college.

SWAN LAKE—The cold, ice-filled water in Stockholm, Sweden, doesn't seem to bother the ducks and swans who swim in it. But these birds in the "Venice of the North" will probably be just as glad to see the last of winter—and that ice—as anyone else.

Prospects Good For Red Cross To Complete Quota

Prospects that Eastland County will meet its $7,194 quota for the 1953 Red Cross drive was called excellent Saturday by Mrs. John Love, fund chairman. Mrs. Love, of Ranger, said the total reported so far is $5,113.04. Of this total, Gorman has reported $122 and the rural division $276.34. "I would like to urge the fund workers to make reports promptly," said Mrs. Love. "I feel sure that when each territory is worked and all reports in, the quota will be oversubscribed."

She said that anyone not personally contacted could leave donations with herself or Mrs. E. E. Freyshlag of Eastland. Cisco has contributed $1,800 to the County Fund.

Mrs. Bill Tucker, Rt. 1, Ranger, Red Cross home nursing chairman for Eastland County, is in Fort Worth taking trainer instruction with the Tarrant County chapter. Together with Miss Loretta Norris and Mrs. Otto Marshall, Mrs. Tucker will hold classes in home nursing and care for the sick. Miss Norris is a home economics teacher in Eastland High School, and Mrs. Marshall is a registered nurse.

With the co-operation of Mrs. O. L. Hooper of Eastland and Mrs. Carl Jones, also of Eastland, a survey will be taken to determine the number of people interested in such instruction. The Eastland County Red Cross chapter will secure equipment and classrooms. "It is hoped," said Mrs. Hooper, "that at least one person for each two families in the county will take this course."

J. E. Matthews of Ranger, disaster chairman, said the Red Cross since 1945 has expended a total of $4,900,678.35 to aid disaster victims in Texas. More than 26,000 families were aided.

LITTLE LEAGUE PROGRAM TO BE EXPLAINED AT MEETING

Little League baseball got underway in Cisco last week when 122 boys in the 8 to 12 year old age group reported for practice at ABC Club Field.

The boys were divided into age groups for the initial work outs with Lefty Sublett in charge of the 12 year olds; Chesley Tipton the 11 year olds; C. E. Whitmore the 10 year olds; M. W. Cotton the nine year olds and the Rev. Bob Sanders the eight year old group.

Workouts were held at 5 p. m. each day. During the week managers were looking over the boys in all age groups in order to find out which players they wanted to bid on during the sale to be held Monday.

Because of the large number of candidates ABC Club officials decided that the player sale should be held as soon as possible in order that team play and workouts could begin early. Monday was set as the sale time so that the result of the sale could be announced at a meeting of parents, players and managers at the high school auditorium at 7 p. m. Tuesday.

At the meeting Tuesday night the Little League will be explained to parents and players in detail. At the meeting a call will be issued for volunteers to assist in operating the league in an efficient manner. The principal need at the present time is for umpires, coaches and workers to assist in taking up free will collections at the games.

It was announced that there would be no admission charge made at the gate, but that a free will donation would be taken at each game to cover the cost of balls, bats, lights and other necessities. A complete list of players in the league follows: 12 YEAR GROUP — Johnny Richardson, Jimmie McDonald, Freddie Howell, Robert Don Dunning, Milton King, Leon Johnston, John Adams, Franklin Farnsworth, Dickie Bennie, Bobby Ingram, Charles Lavery, Thos. Final Rites For Judge Callaway Planned Sunday

Final rites for James J. Callaway, 72, prominent Cisco civic and business leader, will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday at the First Methodist Church. Mr. Callaway died in a local hospital at 5:30 p. m. Thursday.

The services will be conducted by the Rev. Leslie Seymour, assisted by the Rev. E. H. Lightfoot.

Walton Baum, worshipful master of the Cisco Masonic Lodge, requested all Masons to meet at the Masonic Hall at 1 p. m. Sunday to go in a body to the church for the services. The Masons will accompany the body to its final resting place in an Abilene cemetery, and will conduct the rites at the graveside.

228 Sign Blood Donor Pledges

A total of 228 Cisco area residents have signed pledges to become blood donors when the Red Cross Bloodmobile Unit comes here on Tuesday, March 31, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, chairman, announced Saturday. Most of the cards were signed Thursday night as mothers canvassed all sections of the city.

The quota is 250 signed cards, and officials believed the full quota would be reached Saturday. A booth was set up at the old Penney Company building on Avenue D where Bloodmobile posters were on display. Rising Star was expected to provide a number of donor pledge cards to add to the total.

Mrs. A. R. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lambert are members of the committee in charge of securing pledges.

Dairymen Name Myrick Leader At County Meet

A. Z. Myrick of Cisco was re-elected president of the Eastland County Dairy Association at a meeting held in Rising Star Tuesday night. The meeting was attended by 33 members of the association.

Other officers elected were L. L. Louis, vice-president; Marshall Berry, secretary; Lloyd Freeman, Jim Sparks, Phelton Herrington, W. E. Richardson, A. F. Beck, Raymond Sprawles, J. F. Geyer, Elmer Berry and F. F. Sparks, directors.

Mr. Myrick has served as president of the organization since it was organized several years ago.

In other action at the meeting it was decided to accept the invitation of Rising Star to hold the annual Dairy Day there on Saturday, April 25. It was also voted to hold the next meeting in Rising Star on April 12 and the May meeting in Ranger.

F. F. Sparks, the new technician for the association, was introduced to the group. Mr. Sparks replaced Clyde Hickson who resigned to accept a similar position at Paris.

Mr. Sparks introduced Mr. Ames of a Dallas breeding farm, who talked on artificial insemination problems.

LOCAL SCHOOLS WILL HELP IN CHILDRENS CLOTHING CRUSADE

Cisco public schools will take part in a state-wide Children's Clothing Crusade to collect serviceable used clothing during the week of March 23rd-28th, School Superintendent Arlin Bint announced Saturday.

Known as Save-The-Childrens Bundle Week, the five day clothing collection is part of the Eleventh National Children's Clothing Crusade under auspices of a national committee of school superintendents. Leland D. Carmack, Associate Production Director of Save The Childrens Federation, has announced a goal of 500,000 pounds for Texas Schools.

Clothing obtained will be distributed by Save The Childrens Federation in its program of assistance to children in isolated rural areas of the United States, on Indian Reservations, in Western Europe, the Far East, and the Near East.

Child war victims in Korea, Finland, France, Greece, Austria, Germany, Italy and Lebanon will be overseas beneficiaries. In America, clothing is distributed in a carefully planned self-help program in needy rural areas of eight Southern states in which the Federation operates its school sponsorship program.

Two Thirds Of Money Is Raised For Organization

Stalled at the two-thirds mark by a variety of circumstances — not the least of which was income tax-paying time — the campaign to complete subscriptions to the stock of the Cisco Foundation will get under way again this week. The general committee and the subscriptions chairman will meet Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the First National Bank to map the final phase of the program, and the drive itself will get under way during the latter part of the week, Chairman James McCracken announced Saturday.

Except for the delay, nothing has been changed, either in the plans of the Foundation organizers or the industrial prospects with which the organization has been working.

"These people are still interested. And so are we," said Mr. McCracken. "We have no way of knowing whether or not we will be successful in attracting any of them to Cisco. But we do know that unless we are ready when the time comes, we probably won't. We've simply got to go over the top with our Foundation program now and be ready when the time comes."

A great many of the larger prospective subscribers have yet to make their subscriptions and some haven't been contacted at all, Chairman A. D. Anderson of the large subscription committee explained. To date, however, more than $60,000 in subscriptions has been received from a list of less than 75, he said.

"We think this is a mighty fine demonstration of community spirit and cooperation," he said. "But there are several times that many Ciscoans and those doing business in Cisco who will want to take part in this program. We intend to give them a chance to do so. Big or little, every subscription is welcome. All we ask is that each person do what he feels he can do — or should do."

"It is the conviction of the organizers of the Foundation that now is the time to make the greatest possible effort toward developing the industrial opportunities of our community," said Mr. McCracken. "While the plans of many industries have been delayed because of the government's order freezing defense contracts temporarily, the movement of industry toward South and Southwest has not stopped. Instead it is due to become more pronounced within the next few months. We are confident that some of this development will come our way if we are prepared for it."

"I would like to make clear that the Cisco Foundation is not being organized to give money away, to subsidize any industry, or to put anybody in business. Its functions are limited by its charter to providing sites and buildings at reasonable rentals to established sound enterprises. Assurance that the foundation will be managed in a businesslike manner is provided in the fact that it will be managed by a board of directors elected from among the stockholders by the stockholders themselves."

"Neither is it something 'dreamed up' by its organizers. On the contrary, it is modeled upon similar and successful organizations in other cities — organizations which have been in existence in many cases for more than a quarter of a century and have succeeded in bringing many fine payrolls into their communities. It has worked elsewhere; we firmly believe it will work in Cisco.

"That is, if our people will give it the means with which to work. We are pleased with the results so far; and we are especially pleased with the cooperative spirit and community interest of those who have already made their subscriptions. Now we hope we can complete the job by raising the remainder of the $100,000 that is our goal."

Miss Moore Laid To Rest In Last Rites Thursday

Miss Effie Jane Moore, 68, retired postal worker who lived in Cisco for the past 45 years, was laid to rest Thursday in a cemetery near Blossom, Lamar County, where she was born on August 5, 1884.

Miss Moore died at 1:30 a. m. Wednesday in a Cisco hospital after a short illness.

She came to Cisco in 1908 from Weatherford and taught in the Cisco schools until 1919. In 1920 she began working in the Cisco post office and worked there until her retirement in 1946.

Miss Moore was an active worker in the First Baptist Church and taught in the church school until ill health forced her to curtail her activities. She had been a member of the 20th Century Club. She made her home here with her sister, Miss Gertrude Moore.

The Rev. Mertzger of Hooks, Texas, was in charge of funeral services which were held in the Blossom Baptist Church at 2 p. m. Thursday. Burial was in Knights Of Honor Cemetery there. Thomas Funeral Home was in charge of all arrangements.

Survivors are three sisters, Mrs. J. H. Ragsdale of Blossom, Mrs. Fielding Lee of Colorado City and Miss Gertrude Moore of Cisco; and a brother, Rex Moore of Cisco.

Pallbearers were R. T. Pyron, George Carter, Hugh B. Eades, Reginald Crawford, E. B. Eades, and R. A. Moore, all of Blossom.

CAPACITY AUDIENCE APPLAUDS CJC CHOIR IN SPRING CONCERT

A capacity audience applauded the 4th annual spring concert of the Cisco Junior College choir at the college auditorium Friday night. The program, entitled "Youth and Music," included everything from Bach to western ballads, showing the versatility of the organization.

Director Robert Clinton, who served as master of ceremonies, announced to the audience that the choir has received invitations from three U. S. Air Force bases to present concerts for soldier audiences. Plans for a tour of military installations probably will be ready for announcement this week.

The program was divided into three parts. First, the choir offered a series of classics, featuring Jane Huestis, Ruth Beatty, Barbara Schaefer and Jack Chambliss, instructor in the music department, in solo roles.

Part two was a series of religious numbers, and the finale included several western numbers.

Special lighting and costumes added much to the effectiveness of the whole program. Staging and costumes were prepared under the direction of Mr. Chambliss, and the lighting was arranged by Chuck Odenwald and Mr. Chambliss, with Dell Wright as lighting technician and Henry Sollers as stage manager. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Browning assisted with a square dance routine.

The choir recently completed a successful concert tour of North Texas, and a similar tour is planned in South and West Texas next month.

FARM CLEANUP WEEK

The state's annual "Farm Cleanup Week", planned to reduce livestock and poultry losses from disease, injury and parasites, was set today for the week of March 29 through April 4.

The American Foundation for Animal Health said farmers can increase this year's livestock profits and reduce needless loss of animals by joining in this cleanup drive. Livestock and farm organizations throughout the nation were invited to cooperate in observing the special week.

- 1. Clean and disinfect buildings and pens, especially those used for birth or housing of young animals and birds. 2. Clean up barnyards and lots to eliminate old piles of refuse and manure which might be infested with germs and parasites.

The Foundation said a successful Farm Cleanup Week could substantially reduce the annual half-billion dollar livestock loss caused by disease and parasites.

WHEN THE TIME COMES —

... to sign the deed both buyer and seller are usually in a hurry. But alas! it is then the buyer demands an abstract and the seller discovers that he has lost his abstract or never had one. As all title work must be carefully done in these modern days, it takes time and much work. To avoid situations such as these let us suggest you place your abstract orders well in advance of an anticipated need.

SPECIAL NOTICE

A school of the Prophets will convene March 24, 25 and 26 at the Gospel Tabernacle, 1000 Ave. A, Cisco, for all factions of religion, where you are free to ask any question, and take part in the discussions.

The time has arrived for each individual to give due consideration to facts as they are in every walk of life, especially in the field of religion, for all men are religious in one way or another. The Bible spoke of vain religion. Solomon said, "There is a way that seemeth right, but the end thereof is death." Jesus said, "To know the truth is the way of life." St. John 8:32.

The great cathedrals and towering steeped churches along with various mission halls, who propagate their own conceptions of the word of God, which serves to fence in the people of God, with the ideologys and dogmas of men. Today there is up into the hundreds of sects of religions in the world. The gospel that our Lord spoke was one, and produced only one people, St. John 17:20. Is there a solution to the problem that will dissolve the ill effect of religion, and arrive at the proper conclusion in the proper way — or the Bible way? 1 Cor. 29:33.

Yes, we are proud to present to you these three days of just such services to give you the privilege with such ministerial courtesy that recognizes you as a brother, for if we fail to love our brother that we have seen, how can we love God whom we have never seen, St. John 4:20. God has qualified men who are able to carry on this type work, men such as Elder T. M. Jolly of Eldorado, Illinois, the moderator of this meeting, and many others that are among the very best of today. We are expecting quite a delegation of people from all directions of the United States. Everyone is welcome to this great Feast of Charity, regardless of color, class or creed. Services begin Tuesday, March 24. Bible study 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Evangelistic service 7:45 p. m. through March 26th.
