The Gay Philosopher

EASTLAND COUNTY'S home demonstration agents, Miss Mildred Daniel and Miss Rozelle Winston, were over Cisco way early Monday to pick up the lamps that local 4-H Club members have entered in the county contest. And they found themselves with a pretty big task when they called at the West Texas Utilities Company offices to pick up the lamps. A total of 64 lamps had been bought in — all made by 4-H club members. It was one of the prettiest displays we've ever seen. The lamps were very attractive, good enough to compete with professional manufacturers of lamps. You will want to attend the county contest and show over Eastland. The boys at West Texas Utilities normally are closed on Saturday afternoon. Late Saturday, one of them dropped by the office for a minute. People started coming in to see the lamps and it was an hour or more before he could get the place empty again.

THE WORK OF the 4-H Clubs and the Future Farmers of America is doing much for our youngsters. They're enthusiastic about the programs and are learning lessons through practical experience.

WENT OUT TO the Dr. F. E. Clark ranch, southwest of Cisco, Monday to see the oil well. It was being drilled in, and a goodly crowd was there. Didn't get to see the finish, as it was too early.

The countryside look green everywhere, and the cows are pretty. Across the road from the park place is the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Thomas. And Dr. Thomas must have 15 headland ponies in a pasture here. They're little beauties.

ENJOYED THE barbecue staged by the Brotherhood of the Cisco District of Baptist churches Tuesday night at the First Baptist Church here. Some 300 men from this section attended and were well satisfied with the barbecue they could eat. We sat beside Mr. W. L. Lewis of the Home Furniture Company, and he reports that the Calvary Mission here is doing splendidly. He's the Sunday school superintendent there, and Rev. J. C. Pelfrey is the pastor. It was a fine meeting in all respects.

MR. BOB ELLIOTT of the Man's Store underwent an operation at the Graham Hospital yesterday, and he is doing nicely. The Carl Lambs visited out west in Texas and New Mexico last week, and they reported seeing considerable sand in the air.

A GOOD CROWD turned out Saturday night for the big Jambooree at the City Hall Auditorium to hear a fine program of music. Firemen, who sponsor the show, were called out by a fire alarm just as the show opened. The alarm was false, however, and the firemen got back in time for the show. A child's red coat was left in the auditorium, and it is now at the fire station. And we have a huge pearl button that somebody lost there. It's at our office.

GOLFERS WHO want to take part in the annual city tournament should play their qualifying rounds this week, President Bill Mitcham tells us. It was a little windy for golf last Sunday, so there wasn't much play. They plan to place eight players to the flight and they want all qualifying to be finished by Saturday night. They're having a Scotch foursome tourney at the club this Thursday afternoon. And a family night covered dish supper is planned for Friday night.

MR. AUSTIN FLINT, manager of the J. C. Penney Store here, was due to undergo major surgery in a Temple hospital this morning, and we're all hopeful that all will be well and that he will soon be back home.

Mrs. Glenn Dunbar of Santa Barbara, California, and Henry Skipper of Midland were the weekend guests of Mrs. Myrtle Anderson.

IF THE HAT FITS—A Rose Monday parade in Mainz, Germany, finds this oversize statue rolling along on a float as attendants try to fit helmets on its head. Along the railing of the float are a peaked Soviet Army cap, a French officer's hat, and an American hat decorated with stars and stripes. The parade climaxed the Carnival on the Rhine.

300 Men Attend Brotherhood Meet At Local Church

More than 300 members of the Brotherhood of Baptist churches of the Cisco association attended a meeting at the First Baptist Church here Monday night. The program opened with a barbecue supper.

Dr. L. G. Ball, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Lamesa and widely known as a minister and speaker, addressed the gathering after the barbecue. An entertainment feature was a number by the First Baptist Church quartet, composed of Harry Schaefer, Felton Underwood, Dr. H. M. Ward and Stanley Webb. Churches represented at the meeting included Stamford, Caddo, Mexia, Carbon, East Cisco Baptist, Cisco First Baptist, Corinth, Eastland, Harmony, Mangum, Midway, Moran, New Hope No. 2, New Hope No. 3, Olden, Pleasant Hill, Ranger and Rising Star.

Dr. Ward, host pastor, described the meeting as a success from all standpoints. The next meeting will be held at Eastland.

WRANGLER BREAKS LEG

Jerry Cade, Cisco Junior College student from Trent, suffered a broken leg in spring football drills late last week. Cade broke his leg early last football season and was unable to play with the Wrangler team. The break received last week was at the same spot as was the break in September of 1952.

Lynn Gandy and son, Abb, of Big Spring and Alvin Gandy of Eden spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McClelland and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Pogue.

Mrs. Elsie Brooks of Moran visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. McClelland Sunday afternoon.

JUNIOR VOLLEYBALL TEAMS ARE WINNERS OF TOURNAMENT SATURDAY

The boys and girls volleyball teams of Cisco Junior High School won their own tournament Saturday in the junior high gym by completely outclassing all their opponents in every game.

The girls won in the finals Saturday night over May but outscoring the Brown County entry 15-3 and 15-6. They advanced to the finals by defeating Rising Star, Carbon, and Elmdale two games each. Rising Star won consolation honors by winning over Gorman in the Saturday night finals. Playing on the Cisco teams were Bonnie Owens, Donnie Owens, Treacia Edwards, Janice Johnson, Venita McLester, and Joyce Lancaster starters, and Martha Ann Martin, Leta Fay Keller, Betty Joe Laird, Beverly Ann Killingsworth and Reta Sue Burroughs, substitutes.

The boys won the tournament by defeating Williams in the finals 15-4 and 15-12. They ousted Rising Star and Elmdale to advance to the finals. Eastland won consolation honors by defeating May Saturday night.

Starters for Cisco were Johnnie Trigg, Bobby Joe Johnson, Herbie Gallegos, Bobby Cluck, Harold Donica, and Bobby Joe Laird. Substitutes are Ace Lucas and Roy Lee Page.

The trophies won in the tournament were presented to the school for placing in the trophy case at an assembly program Tuesday morning.

Services Planned For Mrs. Higgins

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Starr were in Fort Worth Tuesday where they attended funeral services for Mrs. Alma M. Higgins, 65, who died early Sunday at her residence there. She was the mother-in-law of Mrs. John D. Higgins, Jr., the former Miss Hope Starr.

Funeral services were to be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at Harverson-Cole Chapel. Burial was to be in Garden of Memories. Mr. Starr was to serve as one of the pallbearers.

Mrs. Higgins, who had lived in Fort Worth for 21 years, is survived by her husband, J. D. Higgins, of Fort Worth; a son, John D. Higgins, Jr., of Fort Worth; a sister, Mrs. Vesta L. Jones of Long Beach, California, and two grandchildren.

Dr. and Mrs. N. A. Brown were in Breckenridge Monday on business.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS READY FOR BUSY WEEK OF WORK, PLAY

A full week of work and play of Cisco Junior High School, it was in prospect today for students was announced by Principal Roy Killingsworth at an hour long assembly program Tuesday morning. At the assembly program the awards won in the volleyball tournament were presented to the school and a general review of the accomplishments was given. It was pointed out that the Middlets had tied for district football honors, and that the girls had won the district basketball championship. The high scholastic standard of the school, as evidenced by recent achievement tests, was pointed out and the general behavior charts received commendation.

Letter sweaters were awarded to all 13 girls who were on the championship cage team, and the coaches. Mrs. Bill Bledsoe was awarded a sweater by the school for her work with the team this year, and Mrs. Bill Bragg for her work last year. The Mothers Club presented each of the girls and the coaches a sterling silver basketball as a reward for winning the championship.

Three boys on the Midget cage team who had not lettered in football were presented sweaters at the assembly program. They were John Trigg, Herbie Gallegos and Ronnie Reed.

It was announced that the Eastland track team would be at the local track Tuesday afternoon for a dual meet with the Middlets, and that the volleyball teams would be in the district tournament in Stephenville Tuesday afternoon and night.

Wednesday the school will work on the clothing drive in connection with the Save the Children Federation. Thursday the school census will be held.

Friday the school's entries in the district literary events will go to Stephenville for the district meet. Teams are entered in spelling contests and the arithmetic or number sense contests.

Linda Lucas and Freda Plumlee are entered in the sixth grade spelling competition and Vonda Yeager and Rose Mary Berry in the seventh and eighth grade competition. Pat Donohoe and Beverly Ann Killingsworth are the school entries in the arithmetic contests.

King And Queen Lobo XXI

Pictured are Jim Webb and Mary Scott, who were crowned King and Queen Lobo XXI to reign over the realm of Cisco High School for the school year, in coronation ceremonies held in the community gym Friday night, March 13.

Both are senior students at Cisco High School and have been active in school affairs. King Webb is an outstanding football, basketball and track man. He is president of the student council and active in other school affairs. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Webb.

Queen Mary Scott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Scott. She was one of the cheer leaders, a former band member, one of the leaders of the senior class and on the editorial staff of the high school annual.

JIM WEBB SETS NEW RECORD AS LOBOES ENTER TRACK CONTESTS

Jim Webb, Cisco High School track man, set a new meet record in the 180 yard low hurdles, and piled up 10 points for his team in the annual Tarleton State College Invitation Track Meet held in Stephenville Saturday.

Webb set the meet record of 20.4 seconds in the low hurdles in the preliminaries, but lost by a matter of inches in the final race. The loss in the finals kept him from being high point man of the meet.

The Cisco star took second place in the 180 yard low hurdles, second in the 120 yard high hurdles, tied for second in the high jump and took third in the discus throw.

Jim Reynolds was the only other Cisco man to win a place in the meet. He took fourth place in the 880 yard dash which had 32 entries. Reynolds ran the distance in 2 minutes and 10 seconds, which was his best time of the year.

Webb and Reynolds gave Cisco enough points to take fifth place in the meet which was won by Comanche. There were 20 teams entered, including schools in all classifications from Class B to AAAAA.

The Cisco team is entered in the Bluebonnet Relays to be held in Brownwood Saturday. Some of the leading teams in the state will be entered in the annual event, including Abilene who won the high school division in the West Texas Relays held in Odessa Saturday.

Ciscoan Finishes Officer Training

Second Lieutenant John T. Patterson, colored, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Patterson of 301 Franklin St., Cisco, was graduated from the USAF Officer Candidate School March 20 and will be commissioned active duty as a commissioned Air Force officer.

The graduation ceremonies were held at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas, site of the Air Force's OCS. Principal speaker for the class of approximately 600 new second lieutenants was Admiral Alan G. Kirk, former ambassador to Russia. Diplomats were presented to the Class 53 A members by Brigadier General Wycliffe E. Steele, the school commandant and base commander.

Most graduates will enjoy brief home leaves before reporting to new technical training, flying training or duty assignments at bases throughout the Air Force. Customary tour of duty for the OCS graduate is three years.

Judge Callaway Is Laid To Rest In Rites Sunday

Final rites for James J. Callaway, 72, prominent Cisco attorney and civil leader, were conducted Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist Church here, followed by burial in an Abilene Cemetery. Judge Callaway died unexpectedly last Thursday afternoon.

The Rev. Leslie W. Seymour, superintendent of Cisco District Methodist Churches, paid tribute to Judge Callaway in the services. The veteran civic leader was described as "a good citizen in every respect, who concerned himself with the welfare of the people and who discharged all obligations of citizenship."

The Rev. E. H. Lightfoot, pastor of the church, opened the service with a prayer and scripture reading. "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Jack Chambliss, accompanied by Miss Jane Huestis.

Following the church service, members of the Cisco Masonic Lodge were in charge of graveside rites. Judge Callaway had been active in Masonic work for many years and was active in all Cisco Masonic bodies. He formerly was deputy grand master of Texas, serving in the 73rd district.

Pallbearers were Jack Frost of Eastland, Con Collins, Pete Nance, Bill Wright, Walton Baum, Tom B. Stark, Stanley Webb and Bill Hogue. Honorary pallbearers included all members of the Eastland County Bar Association, the Masonic bodies and the Cisco Rotary Club.

An unusually large floral offering bespoke the esteem which the community held for Judge Callaway.

Surviving are his wife and two sisters, Miss Sallie Callaway of St. Petersburg, Florida, and Mrs. U. J. Boston of Amarillo.

A resident of Cisco for 15 years, Judge Callaway was prominent as an oil man as well as an attorney and civic leader. He was a director of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce. He was born in Johnson County on March 31, 1881, and was graduated from high school in Fort Worth. He obtained his law education at the University of Wisconsin.

A veteran of World War I, Judge Callaway first entered law practice at Mineral Wells. Later, he practiced at Rising Star, at Mexia and elsewhere before coming to Cisco. It was at Mexia that he first entered the oil business. His oil and land holdings were extensive.

Out-of-town relatives here for the funeral included Mrs. Emmett E. Callaway, Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. U. J. Boston and sons, Bob and Dan and wives, Amarillo; Miss Sally Callaway, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Guy Beasley, McLean; Dr. J. S. Beasley, Mexico City; Mrs. Sam J. THE CATTLE BUSINESS

"The cattle business is at a major turning point. Around the corner are lower cattle prices, less profit for cattlemen, and more for customers." That's what two farm economists, L. H. Simerl and L. F. Stice, told feeders last September. Their predictions proved so accurate that they again have been asked to answer questions vital to cattle feeders today. They begin their statement in a farm magazine with this summary: "If you are a recent starter in the feeding game, you may have to learn the business anew. In the period of heavy marketings just ahead, you'll not be able to

Women Are On Increase In All Parts Of World

Females are increasing more rapidly in number than males in most areas of the world, statisticians of a life insurance company report. This trend is seen not only in countries where males are still in the majority, but also where females have long had superiority in numbers. Females now outnumber males in almost all the European countries, the statisticians point out. This is particularly true in the Iron Curtain countries, where Eastern Germany, with 743 males for every 1,000 females, has the greatest imbalance of the sexes in Europe and probably in the world. The other satellite countries, except Bulgaria, also show relatively low rates of males to females.

No postwar figures are available for the Soviet Union, but there is good reason to believe that it has a considerable deficit of males. In 1939, the ratio there was 920 males for every 1,000 females. With the heavy losses suffered by the Soviet Union in World War II, it is likely that the ratio is even lower now. On our side of the Iron Curtain, Austria and western Germany have the largest deficit of males. In Finland, France, Spain and the British Isles the number of men is also well below that for women.

Emigration has been one of the major historic factors in depleting Europe's male population, at the same time building up surpluses of men in the New World. At the turn of the century there were 1,044 males for every 1,000 females in the United States, and males maintained their numerical superiority until recent years. In Austria and New Zealand, relatively newly settled areas, men are still in the majority by a slight margin.

The situation in Africa and Asia is more difficult to determine, the statisticians conclude, since large parts of these continents have never been fully enumerated. The countries for which figures are available show a mixed picture. Egypt, Japan and Korea have more females than males. On the other hand, the Union of South Africa, India, Pakistan, and the Philippine Islands have more males than females. In some of the Far Eastern countries the female population is reduced by infanticide and by a very high maternal mortality. There is also a tendency in that part of the world to under-enumerate females in their censuses.

How Does It Feel To Give Blood?

Miss Anita E. Montgomery

Nurse's Aide Asks a Question of Three Americans at Her Local Blood Donor Center

"I've seen miracles at the hospital where I'm on volunteer duty. I remember this one man recently who had been badly injured working in a defense plant. He came out of the operating room 'doing well.' Minutes later he went gray as ashes before my eyes. No surgery, no wonder drug could help him. Only blood. And it took 5 pints.

"So I know what it means to receive blood. And I know how important it is for our hospitals to have all the blood they can obtain. What made me curious was... how it feels to give blood...

"I found out quickly enough at our local blood donor center. People wanted to talk about this painless, anonymous gift they were making. Their voices sounded proud and yet humble... as they told me how it feels to give blood..."

"Silently Thanking An Unknown American..."

SARAH SIMMONS, an Army Nurse, spoke up: "The men we're more likely to forget are those whose combat days are over now. But they're still fighting for their lives, still needing blood as desperately as the day they were hit. When you ask what it feels like to give blood, I think of them... lying in ward after ward, silently thanking an unknown American for saving his life."

"It Feels Great!"

CLYDE DONNELLY, Marine Sgt. back from 14 months' service in Korea, told Miss Montgomery: "I'm giving back some that I 'borrowed' after the landing at Inchon. How does it feel? It feels great. It feels like I'm almost talking to those guys still out there. That's what's important—for them to feel you haven't forgotten about them... and that's what you're saying when you give blood."

"This City Could Be The Front Lines"

HAROLD MARTINS, a man with an important Civil Defense job, joined in: "Combat areas... service hospitals... civilian hospitals... sure they've got to have all we can give them. But, as I see it, one all-out enemy attack and this city could be the front lines, with our own families among the casualties. In other words, let's make sure we have all the blood we need, wherever and whenever we need it."

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

A patient's hospital chart is one of his best friends — not in flesh and blood, of course, but measured by the service it allows him and other patients, it is invaluable.

It is born as soon as he is admitted to the hospital. On it are written the doctor's orders, his notes on the patient's progress throughout the hospital period, the nurse's temperature record and nursing notes, and reports from the laboratory, x-ray department, operating or delivery room, and the like. Step by step it takes form. An up-to-date, accurately kept record enables any trained person to find out the patient's condition quickly and to review treatment he has had. It is a safeguard against not enough, too much, or the wrong kind of treatment.

Finally, with the doctor's order for dismissal and the patient's actual discharge, his chart is completed and sent to the hospital's record room. Even there its life is not over, for it is subject to review by the patient's own physician, hospital personnel, or other doctors interested in particular research problems. Statistics may be compiled on a large number of like cases to determine even better ways of treatment for future patients, or if a case is unusual, the doctor may want to give a report of it at a medical meeting or write an account for a medical journal so that other doctors may benefit from his experience.

MAJESTIC STAGE SHOW

The Lee Grabel Show of television fame will be presented on the stage at the Majestic Theater in Eastland on Wednesday, March 25. The program will include Grabel's famous Floating Piano performance. On the same program, a young lady will be shot from a cannon.

In any instance, precautions are taken to assure that the patient will not be recognized or submitted to ridicule because of his illness; the purpose of a case report or any medical article is to advance medical science. Sometimes photographs of the patient are taken, and the doctor may ask the patient's consent (often written) to use them in the case report, again using safeguards against his recognition.

Persons who work in a hospital record room, like other hospital personnel, are bound not to reveal the contents of hospital records to any except authorized hospital staff unless required to by law. By carrying out their jobs conscientiously, they serve doctors and their patients and help add to the stockpile of medical knowledge.

WHEN THE TIME COMES —

... to sign the deed both buyer and seller are usually in a hurry. But alas! it is then the buyer demands an abstract and the seller discovers that he has lost his abstract or never had one. As all title work must be carefully done in these modern days, it takes time and much work. To avoid situations such as these let us suggest you place your abstract orders well in advance of an anticipated need.

DESERT LEGION

Poor Little Hill!

You're looking at a very discouraged hill! Ever since that ribbon of paving outlined it, it has been a challenge to motor cars.

For miles and miles it winds up the side of a mountain; and it has sharp curves, and steep grades that spring out of the curves so a driver can't get a start.

Half-way up, there's a watering place—put there so drivers can stop and refill their radiators.

Yes—it has been quite a hill. But not any more! The driver of the car in the picture above took off at the base and sailed right up to the top—and never gave it a thought.

You see, he's driving a 1953 Cadillac—with its great high compression 210-horsepower engine—and its vastly improved Hydra-Matic Drive.

We heard recently of two men who drove from Florida to Detroit—in a 1953 Cadillac.

The driver had made this trip before—and as they left Knoxville he said to his passenger: "Man, are we going to find a hill between here and Lexington!"

After an hour or so, the passenger said: "Where is the hill?"

And the driver said: "Just wait!"

So they waited—and presently they saw a sign which read: "Lexington."

The driver was dumbfounded.

"I can't understand it!" he said. "There used to be a hill there—a big one! I know from experience."

Naturally, this great car gives you more than the ability to master hills.

When you float along with a tremendous reserve like this, you have the easiest ride imaginable.

It gives you confidence, too—and helps you to relax—for you know you have the power for any emergency that may arise.

It makes the whole car a symphony in motion. In fact, the ride is so smooth and soothing that, not infrequently, passengers sleep as they ride.

Come in and try it for yourself. The car is waiting—and it's an experience you ought not to forego.
