The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

DROVE OUT TO Lake Cisco Park late Friday to see how the water well was progressing. They were getting down toward 100 feet and had gone through a couple of soft places, but no water of value had been encountered. According to some old well logs, there's supposed to be a pretty good water sand at around 150 feet and another just below 300 feet.

The well is being drilled in the lower end of the park near the spot where an old spring used to flow all the time. Understand the spring provided water for herds of cattle in the old days.

The park is beginning to look green with scattered wild flowers in bloom. A few picnics were being organized. The skating rink had a big day. More than 100 school children came in from Woodson, Ranger and elsewhere in the area.

RAN INTO MR. Ray Judia, the lake custodian, at the park, and he reports that Press want-ads really do the job. He had about 50 rabbits and ran an ad about Easter bunnies for sale. He had only 10 left and business was booming. . . . Back in town, Mr. Joe Lambert had another type of story to tell about our want-ads. He ran one about wanting to buy a fox terrier dog. And nobody came forward to sell him one. Guess there's just not any fox terrier dogs for sale in these parts.

MR. BILL MITCHAM, president of the Cisco Country Club, reports that they've decided to postpone until May the 3rd the date on which they'll give away the TV set. Hold your tickets, he says. The set will be given away at the conclusion of the annual invitation golf tournament at the country club.

OUT ON THE Abilene highway, Rice and Phagan have a construction project underway. They're building a service station and a drive-in cafe. The cafe building is now going up with Garrett & Speir in charge of the work. The structure is 24x24 in size and will be modernistic in appearance. Understand they plan to drill a water well, starting about Monday, to serve the station and cafe.

HEARD ABOUT A man who picked up his little girl after an Easter egg hunt and was taking her home. She sighed and said: "Please, let's not ever again have boiled eggs to eat". . . . And another lady we know boiled up a batch of eggs for her children to color for Easter. After they got half through, coloring eggs was no longer fun. So they placed the uncolored boiled eggs back on the refrigerator with the other eggs. You can imagine the confusion.

SUDDEN MIX-UP—The cab of a tractor-trailer came to rest on top of an overturned auto in Philadelphia, after running out of control and careening into a used car lot.

Merchants Back Bill To Set Up Court Of Claims

The merchants of this area are solidly behind a bill introduced in the Texas Legislature establishing small claims courts in present justice courts, Mrs. Lucile Huffmyer, secretary of Merchants Credit Association reported Saturday.

Businessmen, large and small, have endorsed the legislation (House Bill 495 by Rep. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock) because it will enable them to collect debts of $50 or less at a minimum expense and time, she said.

Under present law, she said, the expense is often so great in collecting small debts that it sometimes costs more to gamble on settling an account than the amount of the debt.

REV. LOYD GIST

New Pastor Will Conduct Revival At Pleasant Hill

The Pleasant Hill Baptist Church has called a new pastor, the Rev. Loyd Gist, who will do the preaching for a spring revival which begins Wednesday, April 8, and continues nightly through Sunday, April 12, according to an announcement here Saturday. The services will begin at 7:30 p. m. each night.

Rev. Gist is a graduate of the University of Texas and is now attending the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth.

"Much time and effort has been spent in preparation for a great revival," Rev. Gist said. "The public has been invited to attend each service."

Merchants Back Bill To Set Up Court Of Claims

The merchants of this area are solidly behind a bill introduced in the Texas Legislature establishing small claims courts in present justice courts, Mrs. Lucile Huffmyer, secretary of Merchants Credit Association reported Saturday.

Businessmen, large and small, have endorsed the legislation (House Bill 495 by Rep. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock) because it will enable them to collect debts of $50 or less at a minimum expense and time, she said.

Under present law, she said, the expense is often so great in collecting small debts that it sometimes costs more to gamble on settling an account than the amount of the debt.

The proposed law will enable merchants, professional people and other businessmen to take the case into small claims courts at a cost of $2. The bill also sets a limit of $15 on attorneys' fees in case of trial and assures an early hearing of from five to ten days.

Mrs. Huffmyer said it is estimated that costs of judgments would be about one-fourth the present expense.

Salaries and wage earners are also given protection under the bill, Mrs. Huffmyer said, and should be overwhelmingly in favor of it, since they are permitted to obtain judgments at the same low expense in cases involving $100 or less in wages or salary.

The bill has already passed its first obstacle. The House Judiciary Committee has approved the measure, and it is now before the House as a whole for consideration.

Band Parents To Issue Birthday Calendar In City

The Cisco Band Parents Association was completing plans this week on its project of a Community Birthday Calendar adopted by the club as a means of raising needed funds for the future work of the high school and junior high school bands.

President John Popolio explained the calendar proposition at a meeting of the club held in March and at a meeting of the committee Thursday.

The calendar is a novel idea with strictly a local aspect. It serves in the capacity of a calendar and a reminder of birthdays, club meetings and a number of other special days.

It is local interest because only local names and clubs are listed on the calendar.

Mr. Popolio explained the idea at the two meetings. The calendars are to be sold to local individuals. They contain information of interest to local people such as birthdays, anniversaries, club meeting dates and important information about local events. Those desiring to have the birth dates of family members, dates of anniversaries, dates of meetings, etc., listed on the calendar may do so. The charge for each listing has been set at 25 cents. The calendar will have a picture of the band in full dress uniform.

Committees and workers will be named at the regular meeting of the club Monday, April 13. Every member was urged to attend the important meeting in order to receive the information and instructions. It is necessary that all the data on the calendar be completed during the month of May so that the printers may begin work.

Mr. Popolio explained the project as a means of raising funds for the work of the band, giving the people something for their money.

PLANS MADE FOR OPENING OF LITTLE LEAGUE PLAY MAY 1st

Tentative plans for the future operation of Little League Baseball in Cisco and for the opening of the program on May 1 were discussed and approved at a meeting of managers and officials Friday night.

Plans for an elaborate opening ceremony on May 1 were discussed, and it was decided that the highlight of the affair would be four short games of two innings each in order to allow fans to see the boys in action. All league team members and farm team members will be in full uniform for the opening night. Other plans will be announced later.

It was decided that the affairs of the opening night and future activities would be handled by a Little League Committee composed of a chairman and a member from each of the teams. Elsworth Mayer was named chairman. J. D. White was named as the representative from the Braves and Tom Smallwood was named representative of the Cardinals. Buck Overall will represent the Reds and Paul Farrow the Athletics.

A meeting of the team managers, the committee members and ABC Club officials will be held this week for the purpose of working out local rules and the selling of additional players.

Tentative plans call for the establishment of a fund for the regulation Little League park in the future. That project was discussed at the Friday meeting.

The organization will be completed prior to the opening night and full details will be announced. Each team will be required to furnish an umpire and an official scorer.

It was pointed out that there were more boys on the roster than regulations allow, and that those boys who showed the greatest interest by attending practice sessions would receive first consideration when the time came to pare the rolls.

Interest in the city golf tournament being held this month at the Cisco Country Club, was the lowest in recent years, it was reported by club officials who said that only 20 Cisco golfers had qualified at noon Saturday. Saturday night was the deadline for qualifying and match play was to begin Sunday.

Ben Tabor was still holding on to medal score with his 77. Four of the qualifiers were high school students. Paul Mosley, defending champion, was not required to post a qualifying score but will defend his title.

Golfers posting scores and paying entrance fees at noon Saturday were: Ralph Glenn, 82; Gene Abbott, 99; Buddy Deen, 78; Ben Tabor, 77; Bill Bennie, 78; David Gray, 102; Garland Lassater, 83; G. P. Mitcham, 79; M. F. Underwood, 87; Pete Nance, 84; Bill Mitcham, 83; W. E. Jenkins, 98; I. J. Henson, 80; Jack Leveridge, 97; Charles Graham, 86; Red Miller, 86; Gene Damron, 78; Jack Voss, 83; C. L. Wilson, 78 and E. P. Crawford, 96.

LUNCHEON CANCELLED

The regular luncheon for women of the Cisco Country Club scheduled for Wednesday, will not be held, it was announced Saturday. The affair was cancelled because of unavoidable conflicts, it was announced.

Several Hundred Expected To Vote

The voters of Cisco will go to the polls Tuesday, April 7, to elect a mayor and two commissioners to serve two-year terms, and everything was in readiness to hold the election. Voting will begin at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the city hall.

Several hundred voters are expected to turn out due to the fact that there is a contest in both races.

In the mayor's race, Mayor G. C. Rosenthal is opposed for re-election by City Commissioner Joe Britain. Three men are candidates for the two vacancies on the city commission — Ace Lucus, Albert A. Hansen and John Dunn.

The two retiring commissioners, James McCracken and Don Rupe, are not candidates for re-election.

Fred Grist will be the presiding judge for the election, and his assistants will include Mrs. B. S. Huey, Mrs. Lee Heltzel, Mrs. Troy Stewart, and J. V. Heysler, Sr.

The winners of the election will be installed in office at the April 28 meeting of the city commission.

The commission has three hold-over members — J. W. Slaughter, Mr. Britain and J. W. Sitton.

Red Cross Fund Nearing Quota

Eastland County Red Cross workers needed less than $600 Saturday to complete the 1953 financial quota of $7,194. Mrs. John Love, drive chairman, reported receipts totaling $6,636.95. Reports still were to come in from 35% of the rural areas.

The city of Eastland had raised $1,868.60 in a drive there. Cisco turned in $1,800 from its Community Chest funds, and Ranger paid in $1,350 through a Community Chest drive. Gorman had raised $615 — $35 short of its quota. Rising Star had turned in $585 and the rural communities had raised $418.

Mrs. Love said the campaign was being extended "until we complete the quota."

The Ides of March are past, but the national headache that occurs each March 15 when the income tax falls due lingers on. At the present time, even the smallest taxpayers (in the under-$2,000 bracket) must pay more than a fifth of their taxable income to the federal government. In the ravaged air of over $200,000 the federal tax begins taking a whopping 92 percent. And you don't have to be rich to be in the group that pays half its income to the federal government treasury — the 82 percent rate is reached when your taxable earnings pass $20,000 and it goes up exceedingly fast from there.

This fiscal year the federal tax take is expected to total almost $69,000,000,000, of which half will come from individuals and the rest from corporations and indirect sources. A great many of us are wondering just where all that money goes.

U. S. News & World Report supplied this information in its issue of March 20. Here is what happens to each tax dollar: Armed forces, 58c; interest on the debt, 8.7c; foreign aid, 7.7c; to veterans, 6c; social welfare, 3.4c; stockpiling and related security activities, 2.9c; public works, 2.9c; atomic energy, 2.7c; to farmers, 2.6c; other purposes, 5.1c.

These, of course, are general classifications. U. S. News went on to show in more detail how our federal tax dollars are spent. For instance, the government payroll is $18,700,000,000 a year, with civilian workers accounting for a little more than half of it. The states are given grants of $1,300,000,000 as part of the public-assistance program. The Post Office Department is currently spending $666,000,000 more than it takes in. The Navy is getting some new ships — bill, $900,000,000. Military airplanes are a much bigger item—$7,400,000,000 this year. Collecting taxes is a costly business in itself—the Bureau of Internal Revenue's budget is $273,000,000. Crime is another substantial expense to you, the taxpayer—the federal prisons cost $29,200,000 and the FBI $70,300,000.

The Eisenhower Administration is committed to going over all of these expenses with a fine-tooth comb, and reducing them whenever possible. It must pare billions just to balance the budget, much less to start slicing it. It's a whale of a job—but a job that practically everyone is convinced must be done.

It is likely that fairly substantial reductions will be made in the public payroll — there seem to be a great many cases where two or more people are now doing work suitable for one. Some water will probably be squeezed out of the public assistance set-up — various investigations indicate there has been much waste here. There will be a paring of work which can be abandoned or postponed, or which can be done by local government or private enterprise, such as electric power projects.

Spending for the armed forces, which accounts for much more than half of your tax dollar, will be scrutinized with extreme care. This doesn't mean that there will be blanket cuts — reports indicate that the President feels that outlays for certain military purposes must be increased rather than decreased. But it is believed that there has been some bad management in the Pentagon. As an example, Congress was strongly upset by General Van Fleet's report that there had been ammunition shortages during the whole time he commanded in Korea.

The overall goal is to balance the budget, and then to start working on tax reduction.

We Ask The Voters To Give Careful Consideration To The Following Facts Before Casting Your Vote For Mayor

1. The office of mayor requires a considerable amount of time. Mayor Rosenthal has the time required to handle the office of mayor in an efficient manner. He is a retired Humble Company executive and can devote his full time to the office. He has done that in the two terms that he has served and is willing to give of his time for two more years.
2. The office of mayor requires a man of executive ability. Mayor Rosenthal has both executive ability and experience which fits him for the office.
3. The office of mayor needs a man with a knowledge of engineering. Mayor Rosenthal has that knowledge. He attended a school of engineering in one of America's leading universities and is a registered professional Engineer. He held jobs in America and in foreign countries, giving him the experience needed in supervising the water and street departments of the city, as well as other departments.

4. The office of mayor needs a man of experience for the next two years as never before. Mayor Rosenthal has had that experience. Many things will face the new mayor for the next two years — things that will affect the welfare of every citizen. There is the probability of preparing for new industry; the establishing of a new water district to assure ample water for future growth; a strict water rationing program to conserve our supply during the present emergency. Mayor Rosenthal has already aided in instituting such programs and has the experience to carry them through.

The above are just a few reasons why we believe that Mayor Rosenthal should be returned to office. Cisco faces a most crucial time. We should leave out personalities and select the man we consider the best suited for the position. We ask that you consider the above facts and cast your ballot for Mayor G. C. Rosenthal Tuesday.

BUT REGARDLESS OF WHO YOU DESIRE FOR MAYOR WE PLEAD WITH YOU TO VOTE!

(Pol. Adv. Paid for by Friends of Mayor G. C. Rosenthal)

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

Some critics of hospital and health insurance have pointed to the fact that these types of insurance don't always cover the full cost of illness or injury.

In some cases these critics may be justified. In fact, better coverage of catastrophic illness, in which hospitalization is prolonged and expenses are high, is one area in which insurance companies are seeking improvement. However, they are slow to add risks which would run premiums up beyond the means of the average user. Statistics have shown that the average person who is hospitalized stays only 8 days a year. Even though some subscribers may be hospitalized longer, there are sufficient funds in reserve to take care of the added expenses and keep the companies on a firm financial basis.

The majority of claims are for short illnesses, but in longer ones, the need for even more complete coverage is felt because of the longer period over which the patient loses wages and is in the hospital, plus the frequent need for repeated, expensive diagnostic tests or operations. The real value of hospital or health insurance is in such cases of catastrophic illness. In many instances, unexpected, severe illness can be a major drain on family resources. Hospital and doctor services can pile up big debts which must be paid out over a long period or require such drastic measures as selling the automobile or mortgaging the home.

Sometimes the usefulness of hospital or health insurance may be limited if hospital facilities or medical personnel are limited, as in rural areas. Too, transporting the patient from a farm to a hospital some distance away may be hard or impossible. It has been difficult for companies to write policies on persons engaged in agriculture because statistics on which to base risks and premiums have not been available. However, as such problems are being solved, more people in rural areas are being enrolled in insurance plans.

Statistics on which to base premiums for individual subscribers (other than in rural areas) also have been lacking. Gradually, however, sufficient data is being gathered so that their medical care can be guaranteed through insurance.

Revenue Increase Is Reported For Liquor Agency

AUSTIN, April 4—Texas Liquor Control Board revenues for February were considerably greater than those for January of this year, the board reported today in its monthly review.

The February figure was $1,531,899.73 and for January $1,258,284.15.

After deducting operating expenses, the board turned over $1,416,710.46 to the state comptroller.

From his office the revenues were parcelled out to the available school fund, state old age assistance fund, general revenue fund, employees retirement system, and other funds.

By far the greater part of the revenue came from the excise tax on distilled spirits: $1,010,970.75. The excise tax on beer brought in $395,504.76. Other sources were the excise taxes on wine and malt liquor, taxes on alcoholic beverages brought across the international bridges from Mexico, and permit and license fees paid by beer and liquor dealers.

The board also collected $40,540.65 in fines and costs for violations of the liquor laws. This sum was retained by the counties where the convictions were made.

Four illicit stills were seized by the board's inspectors during February: two in Anderson County and one each in Red River and Fannin Counties.

Trinity County voted in February against prohibiting the sale of all alcoholic beverages.

Birds Changing Places As Spring Hits Coast Area

AUSTIN, April 4—Some feathered housekeeping places are changing hands down on the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge on the Gulf Coast, according to reports to the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

The shifting occurred unusually early this year, reports state, with the estimated 80,000 waterfowl on the refuge setting the pace undoubtedly because of open weather northward.

Even the giant Whooping Cranes presumably are poised for their long hop to the far north although they usually remain until mid-April.

As the northern nesting species leave the vast Blackjack Peninsula protectorate, some of the room they vacate is taken over by other birds which winter in the far south and summer on the coast.

Conspicuous among the birds due to begin summer housekeeping at the refuge are the Roseate Spoonbills which leave about mid-October for deep Mexico, Central America and Honduras. These exotic birds usually concentrate about this time of the year on a few ancestral coastal nesting areas, including small islands off Aransas refuge, Galveston Bay and San Benito. One favorite place is Carroll Island, off Aransas, which the National Audubon Society protects with a special watchman in the summer.

Julian Howard, manager of the Aransas Refuge, said the departure of the Whooping Cranes is very mysterious. They begin dis- out at night, he said. Howard's maximum winter census count was 21 Whoopers.
