ATTENDING AN old-fashioned barbecue such as the employees of the First National Bank staged Thursday afternoon late at the Country Club kind of worried us for fear that the art of becoming meat might become lost art. You don't find many people any more who can barbecue meat like R. O. Washington, local chef de luxe.

To prepare for the barbecue, O. took a big quarter of beef early Thursday morning, he prepped his pit and started cooking. He made his sauce, which is out of this world, and the cooking took all day. It was ready when the bank's employees and their families and a few friends began gathering at 6 p. m.

The menu included red beans, potato salad, delicious pecan pie and all the trimmings. The meal was planned and served by the bank's employees, with Washington in charge of the meat, assisted by Charlie Mims. And it was a grand meal.

Among the guests were 20 or more young children who thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Dr. E. E. Day, Jr., was there, sporting a new burr hair cut. The guests were pleased to note that Cisco looks much better since the rains. They ate at banquet tables on the porch with good view of the lake. The decorations were tiny clay flower pots filled with sand and cut flowers.

WILLING TO LEARN—An Italian schoolgirl in Bologna has an unexpected pupil in the family goat as she teaches her mother what she has learned in elementary school. The practice of children teaching parents is not uncommon in Italy where illiteracy is high. The goat, however, would probably prefer to "digest" the book in its tummy.

Cards Give First Setback To Brave Team Thursday

A big fifth inning gave the Little League Cardinals a 10-8 win over the Braves in a league game at ABC Field Thursday night and handed the Braves their first loss in the first half of conference play.

The Cardinals won on eight hits allowed by Adams, Braves pitcher, who was charged with the loss. Dal Elder was the winning pitcher after he relieved Bennie in the fourth inning with his team trailing 4-7.

The Cards made five hits off Adams in the big fifth inning. The Braves went ahead in the fourth when they ran six runs across the plate. Their six tallies came on four hits. Lavery and Howell were the big guns for the Cards. Each scored two to aid their team in the victory. Adams of the Braves made two runs.

The game was called at the end of the fifth on the time limit ruling which limits play to one and a half hours when there is another game scheduled.

Tonight the Athletics and the Giants meet with the first game scheduled for 5:30 o'clock.

Following the Little League contest the local National Guard team plays the Breckenridge Guard in a softball game. A game with Ranger was originally scheduled but the Ranger team cancelled.

MR. CLELL REED, of the Humble Pipe Line Company got a little something extra the other day when he was initiated into the Cisco Lions Club. After the ceremony was over, it was decided he should sing a solo. He worked out good, however, for his daughter, Rhelda Reed, is the club sweetheart and she helped him, making it a duet.

COMES A CALL to report that Mrs. O. C. Lomax of 705 Avenue B has two white kittens that need homes. She'll give them to the first two callers at their house Thursday was the hottest day we've had since Sept. 1, 1952. Our scouts report that it was 101 degrees here yesterday. The high heat plus the humidity being higher than usual made it seem hotter.

AN ARTICLE IN The Daily Texan, student newspaper at the University of Texas, for May 17 featured a former Ciscoan — Mrs. Pearl Ghormley, the night supervisor of the newspaper. In part, the article reads:

"The thin lady (I usually eat only one meal a day) was born in Cisco. And she remembers her first brush with journalism at that small Texas town.

"After she grew up, she was legal stenographer and assistant in a lawyer firm for seven years. She has two sons. One is chief engineer for the Alamo Machine Shop at Fort Worth, and her youngest son is a surgeon in Oklahoma City. Both are UofT graduates.

"In 1935, she started working at the Cisco Daily Press. When someone handed her a pair of P. headphones and told her, 'Start taking down this wire news,' she stepped over to the printing side."

Mrs. Ghormley, who visited here last summer and dropped in at the Press office, joined the journalism school staff at the UofT while her youngest son was at the university.

A meeting of local farm leaders and agricultural workers was held in the Eastland County Courthouse on Monday, May 18, to discuss the 1954 Agricultural Conservation Program and to make recommendations for Eastland County.

Walker Well Is Being Deepened

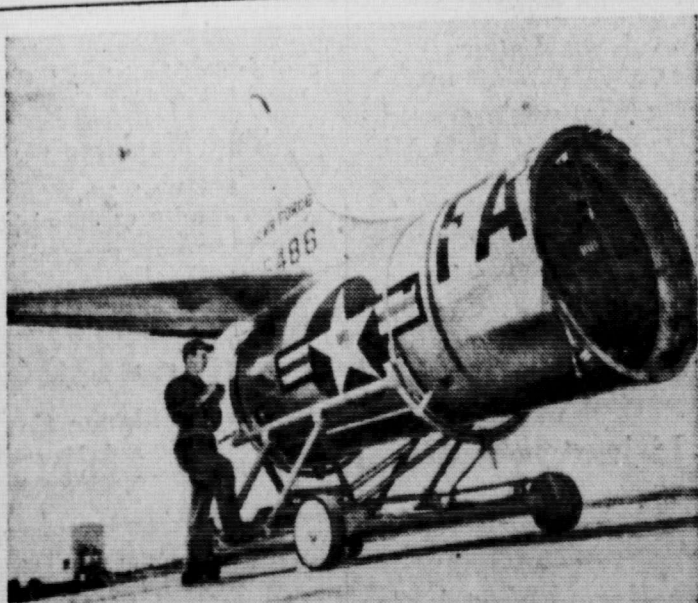

Oil activity in the Cisco area today included a deepening project for an outpost location in the West Cisco Lake Sand Pool, one and a half miles southwest of town.

The Connally-Jackson Company, Abilene, moved in early this week to deepen their No. 1 Walker Estate from 3,530 to 4,100 feet. The 3,530-foot hole was drilled several months ago. The test is a mile southwest of Lake Sand production.

The deepening project would carry the test into the Ellenberger lime.

The well is located 330 feet from the south and east lines of the northeast quarter of Section 87, Block 3, H&TC Survey.

Methodists Will Observe Special Occasion Sunday

Sunday has a very special meaning for the Methodists throughout the world — it is the anniversary of Pentecost and the anniversary of John Wesley's "strange warming of heart" experience, the Rev. E. H. Lightfoot, pastor of the First Methodist Church, reported today.

"Wesley's experience came to him on May 24, 1738, in a little Moravian chapel where this much disturbed and tired young scholar attended a Wednesday evening prayer meeting very reluctantly," Mr. Lightfoot said. "It was during the reading of Martin Luther's 'Introduction to the Book of Romans,' that Wesley said he felt his heart strangely warmed as he realized for the first time that he was a child of God and that his sins had been forgiven. Not only was his life transformed, but he went out of that meeting to launch a revival that transformed all England."

Methodists are observing this day Sunday with special emphasis and Rev. Lightfoot will preach on "Methodism's Tradition and Destiny." The choir has arranged a special program of music at 10:50 a. m.

The evening services have been set for 8 p. m. instead of 7:30 p. m. The evening service will be in preparation of the revival to be led by Dr. James T. Carlyon of SMU beginning Sunday, May 31, for a week.

Changed Expected Late This Month

J. J. Porter, a resident of Cisco for the past 30 years, has been named acting postmaster of the Cisco Post Office and probably will take over his assignment late this month, according to information from Washington today.

Mr. Porter was appointed to the post as the Post Office Department accepted the resignation of L. H. McCrea, Jr., who has held the local postmaster's position since February 14, 1934. Mr. McCrea tendered his resignation as postmaster early in March.

It was understood that the Post Office Department will send a team of inspectors here late in May to make the change of postmasters. Postal procedure calls for the inspectors to check out the retiring postmaster and check in the new postmaster.

Mr. McCrea told The Press that he had submitted his resignation in order to be free to look after personal business affairs. In addition to properties in this area, he has oil and land interests in several West Texas counties.

During his more than 21 years as postmaster, Mr. McCrea has seen considerable progress in the local post office. Several years ago, the Cisco office became a first class post office on the basis of the dollar volume.

Mr. McCrea has been a Cisco resident since 1919 when the family moved here from Roby. He has long been active in civic affairs.

Mr. Porter has been a wholesale grocery salesman during his 30-year stay in Cisco. He worked for 13 years with the old Webster Wholesale Grocery Company of Cisco before going with the C. D. Hartnett Company of Ranger and Weatherford. Mr. Porter is well known throughout this section.

Miss Scott has served as a class officer for three of her four years in high school. She was editor of the school annual, a cheer leader, lettered in basketball and was president of the Future Homemakers of America.

Miss Donawho was a member of the annual staff, a cheer leader, lettered in basketball and served as a class officer and a FHA officer.

Harber was president of his class for four years, lettered in football and was captain during his junior year and lettered in basketball.

The Rev. Melvin Mathis, pastor of the Moran Methodist Church, was the speaker at the weekly meeting of the Moran Luncheon Club Wednesday.

His talk centered on the critical period in American history from 1775 to 1800. He told of the three outstanding movements during that time which included the fight for independence.

He called for support of the United Nations and stressed that we now face a period almost parallel with that of the period mentioned.

A large number of visitors were present for the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson left Saturday for a week's vacation at Bridgeport to visit Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Ford. They plan to return on May 24.

Rains Lift Bass Hatch For State At San Angelo

AUSTIN, May 22 — Now that the rains have come again to at least some parts of West Texas, many drought-blighted activities are being resumed.

Among these, according to the Chief Aquatic Biologist of the Game and Fish Commission, is the State Fish Hatchery at San Angelo. In fact, he considers what the hatchery has recently rallied to do to be among the better wildlife success stories following the original downpour in early March.

The Chief Aquatic Biologist said the hatchery which had faced abandonment, quickly capitalized on the timely water supply so effectively that approximately five million black bass have been hatched and already distributed. And it's a near record production for that hatchery.

He credited Superintendent Luke Proctor of the San Angelo Hatchery with handling the amazing comeback.

In the face of talk about moving his parent fish to another hatchery, Proctor had been struggling to pump in enough water to preserve his precious brood bass when it began raining the second week in March. Actually, when Proctor's rearing ponds caught water, a few bass already had spawned. These comparatively few eggs were lost and Proctor now says that was a good idea since the early crop would have preyed on the later hatch.

Proctor and his crew, using pickup trucks and aerated tanks, have distributed roughly five million black bass fry to the big lakes and new lakes in the thirty-seven central west Texas counties in his district, and to some counties in adjoining districts. He soon will deliver a shipment of number one fingerling bass to the El Paso and Davis Mountain area and will retain about half a million bass to raise to the five-inch fingerling size for fall delivery.

As It Looks From Here" OMAR BURLESON Congressman 17th District

comes to a vote in the House of Representatives. If the Congress would cut out a lot of useless activities, pay more attention to strict legislative matters, and less politics, it would not be necessary for us to remain in almost continuous session every year. It would be cheaper for the individual Member of Congress and to the Nation if we did our work in six months and went home.

who spends thousands of dollars to be elected is receiving it from sources to which he will be obligated after he is in office. At least he should be if he is going to accept such contributions. Personally, I had rather have a little time off in order to attend to personal business back home than to have an increase in salary. It is true that in some parts of the United States, only rich men are elected to public office because they can spend great sums on a campaign. There are a number of millionaires in the Congress today, and I doubt if it would be good for the country if the Congress became a "rich man's club." President Eisenhower favors increasing salaries for Senators and Representatives and has said, "There is danger, conditions being what they are, that only the well-to-do could afford to serve in Congress." Another argument is used that many people in Government receive more than a Member of Congress. Many "bureaucrats" appointed by the Executive and approved by the Senate are paid more than those who have jurisdiction over them. Congressman Martin Dies has suggested that no "bureaucrat" be paid more than a Member of Congress and maybe this is a good idea. Be this as it may, I repeat, I shall oppose an increase in salaries at a time when we are making great efforts to economize and balance the Budget.

The returns from my annual Questionnaire have been exceedingly gratifying. A few are still coming, and to date, more than 7,500 have been received. A preliminary check shows that most people in the 17th Congressional District decidedly favor balancing the Budget and reducing the huge public debt before reducing taxes. People in our area also, by about 2 to 1 favor an equal percentage of reduction for all taxpayers when taxes are reduced. Overwhelmingly, those in our area believe that Governmental authority and the expenses it entails, should be turned back to the States and that Government should get out of business and not compete with private enterprise. The poll shows great favor for the continued effort at Government Reorganization. People also believe that the United States should continue Military support to the Free Nations of the World if these countries do their part towards building up strength to oppose Rus-

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

"It feels so good to get my shoes off!" The sufferer of corns likes the warm weather because if he chooses, he can traipse around the house in bare feet. Company can just stay away or go barefooted too. Hot weather brings about another problem, though. If shoes must stay on, frequently the wearer's feet swell, making things even rougher. Had he chosen his footwear wisely in the first place, he might have been spared. Sometimes corns may be the result of poor fitting stockings or shoes.

Once the corns are a fact, what are you going to do? First of all, go easy on the scissors or razor blades. It just takes a little nick to let the germs in, and if your feet are unwashed when you try the paring, so much the worse. Even if they've been washed, some germs may remain to set the grounds for a possible case of blood poisoning. Corn plasters or corn remedies may turn the trick, but the corn will return unless the conditions which caused it in the first place are corrected. Throw away that old pair of shoes you've been wearing for knockabout. Don't buy a pair of shoes, no matter how good they look on your feet, if they're too narrow or short. (By the way, loose fitting shoes can be every bit as bad and may rub blisters on the heels as well.)

Another inconvenience as far as feet go, is an ingrowing toenail. It, too, is caused by the pressure of tight or pointed shoes — or by cutting into the corner of the toenail. Good foot hygiene calls for cutting the nail straight across. A good way to treat an ingrowing toenail is the following: (1) In the late afternoon, soak the toe in warm water fifteen minutes; when the nail becomes soft and pliable, dry the foot thoroughly. (2) Gently lift the side of the nail that "grows in" with a nail file and tuck a small wisp of dry cotton under it. (3) Remove the cotton at bedtime; soak again and tuck fresh cotton under. (4) Remove the cotton the next morning. While your toe is sore, wear a loose fitting house slipper. If with home treatment a corn sian aggression and Communism. More strict immigration laws are overwhelmingly favored, and by 3 to 1, the outlawing of the "Union shop" is favored. A very great majority have also expressed themselves affirmatively requiring Labor Unions to publish financial reports. A final tabulation will be completed in the next few days and the total result will be furnished in a separate report to this newspaper. I hope everyone will find it of interest. This method of giving people the opportunity to express themselves is, in my opinion, true representative Government. I certainly feel it is my duty to know how the people whom I represent think and feel on the various issues with which I must deal. I am most grateful for the many encouraging words which have accompanied the Questionnaires.

or ingrowing toenail fails to improve, call your doctor. Patients with diabetes have to be very careful about their feet because any infection may lead to gangrene with perhaps the loss of a toe, foot, or leg.

Those attending were Mesdames J. E. Stansell, Dee Clements, D. P. King, Ernest Schaefer, M. O. Smith, George Irvine, J. E. Shirley, R. D. Guthrie, Roy Fenley, E. T. Thomas, a new member, and Misses Alice and Ellen Bacon, Willie Word, and Mildred Daniels, Home Demonstration Agent.

IT'S THE LAW

in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Included among the measures passed by the current 53rd Texas Legislature are several Concurrent Resolutions permitting various individuals to file suits against the state. Applying to local situations only, they have been attended by very little publicity, and the majority of Texans are probably not even aware of their passage.

In fact, the average individual would seldom have occasion to ponder the question of whether the State of Texas can be sued on the same basis as a person or corporation. One of the prerogatives of sovereignty carried down from ages past into our present day laws is that of immunity from being sued. The State of Texas may not be sued without its consent.

The Legislature by a proper action may permit certain general types of suits to be brought against the state, under certain conditions and restrictions. Then, if a specific situation arises which is not covered by the general rules, the legislators are authorized to pass a special measure to permit suit to be brought.

Therefore, any person seeking to enforce a claim against the state through the courts must petition the Legislature for the necessary permission, unless his claim falls within some general category or type previously recognized by our lawmakers.

Recently passed legislation will allow suits to be brought against the state in a variety of cases, ranging from an action for damages for personal injuries suffered in a collision with a State Highway Department truck to a suit for monetary damages alleged to have been incurred in connection with the securing of a right-of-way for a farm-to-market highway.

Sometimes, however, suits may be brought against individuals holding office under the State of Texas and acting as agent of the state, but where the state itself is not the principal party to the suit, without first gaining consent to sue. There are numerous situations in which an individual officer may be sued with regard to the duties and functions of his office, and in which the state is not directly or substantially a party in interest.

Suppose you do obtain legislative permission to sue the state. What happens then?

If suit is brought against the State of Texas, and the action is successfully prosecuted, you will be awarded a judgment against the state. Then, it's back to the Legislature for more legislation to appropriate the necessary money with which the state may pay off the judgment.

had all their children home for Sunday dinner. They were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Smith and Patricia, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hull and son, Ronald Lynn, of Brownwood, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Collingsworth and children of Jacksboro and Mr. and Mrs. Burette Ramsey of Putnam.

Judson Wise of Austin visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wise, in Moran Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ballard spent the weekend in Waco with their two daughters.

The Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Mathis planned to leave Wednesday for the annual conference to be held in Abilene. Rev. Mathis has been pastor of the Moran First Methodist Church for a year.

Catastrophe Kit Is Sent To Texas Cities By Agency

Come hail or high water — or a tornado like the one which shattered Waco recently — and Texas will be ready to act.

A special Catastrophe Kit, containing a blueprint of exactly what should be done when a disaster strikes, was distributed only this month to virtually every Texas community. The kits arrived in both San Angelo and Waco only hours before tragedy struck these communities but civic leaders in both cities who put the ideas to work have praised the effectiveness of the "catastrophe plan."

Chief architects of the Catastrophe Plan are more than 100-

000 Texas representatives of the capital stock insurance industry who know from experience what must be done to restore a stricken community to normalcy as quickly as possible. Their plan of action, reduced to simple terms in the Catastrophe Kit, now is available to more than 200 Texas communities.

In addition, special "disaster teams" of trained troubleshooters have set up headquarters in Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, El Paso, Lubbock, Abilene, Amarillo, and San Angelo. The teams, headed by J. C. Welch of Dallas, Chairman of the Joint Loss Committee of the Texas Stock Property Insurance Association, are on call 24 hours after the tornadoes.

We're Always Hunting Trouble

THE BEST TIME TO STOP TELEPHONE TROUBLE is before it starts, so the hunt for possible trouble goes on through the night. Wires are checked with electronic testers (above). Sensitive switching equipment is vacuum-cleaned. Every possible precaution is taken to make sure that you will have instant service whenever you want it — day or night. As a result, the average telephone gets out of order only once every 24 months. Only in America can you find such a telephone service record. And only in America can you get such a dependable service for less than the cost of a package of cigarettes a day. SOUTHWESTERN BELL . . . A TEAM OF 28,000 TEXAS PARTNERS IN TEXAS' PROGRESS.
