

The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. B.

EVERY FEW DAYS we hear something that reflects the value of Cisco Junior College to the community it serves. The other day we heard about three CJC girls whose accomplishments at the local school were sufficient to win for them complete scholarships at a senior university.

Misses Patsy King, Ruth Beatty and Jane Huestis, who were music students at CJC for the past two years, have been offered full scholarships at McMurry College, Abilene, and we understand they plan to enroll there this fall. They formed a girls' trio that sang for members of programs in these parts and with Miss Barbara Schaefer they formed a popular quartet.

Understand the girls had four or five college scholarship offers and decided on McMurry. In Abilene, Miss Huestis will be organist for the First Methodist Church. She has held this position at the Cisco church for several years.

TWO OTHER CJC graduates—Mr. Bob Womack and Mr. Bob Green—have accepted scholarship offers of Abilene-Simmons University at Abilene. They were two of 40 boys selected by Choir Director Euell Porter out of 120 who tried out for the CISU work, both boys will sing in the First Baptist Church choir at Abilene.

Both of the Bobs graduated this spring at CJC and spent their two years specializing in music. Aren't you proud that we have a junior college that can give our young people the type of training they need to win scholarships?

CISCOANS ARE making good in other fields. And we'll quote from a recent edition of the Cross Plains Review to prove our point. The story in the Callahan County paper follows:

"F. Kirk Johnson of Fort Worth and L. A. and Coy Warren of Cisco have discovered what appears to be the biggest oil pool in this area in the past 25 years.

The third flowing well has been brought in and a large scale drilling program is being planned for the area around the Fred Heysler place, located about seven miles west of Cross Plains. The oil firm of Johnson and Warren has extensive holdings in the area and present plans call for a complete development program in the area.

"Three wells have been completed to date and all are flowing producers from a depth of 1,820 feet in the Cross Plains sand."

Understand they've completed their fourth well since this item appeared in the newspaper. Mr. L. A. and Mr. Coy spend a good deal of time these days down in the new oil patch.

ANOTHER CISCOAN who has discovered a new oil pool is Mr. Jack Hailey. Two and a half miles northwest of Rising Star, Mr. Hailey has completed two producers and a third well is now being drilled. The wells are good for about 30 barrels each per day and prospects are good for a number of other producers on the Hailey lease. The oil comes from a sand at about 1,500 feet.

MR. CHARLES S. Sandler is chairman of a Lions Club Committee that looks after the local affairs of the Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville. The local club members contribute to the support of the state-wide camp, and they like to send some crippled children from the Cisco area to the camp.

The only cost is getting the children there and back, and the Cisco club will look after that item. If you know of any crippled children who would like to spend a couple of weeks at the modern, well-staffed camp, get in touch with Mr. Sandler or his assistant, Dr. C. E. Paul.

FRIDAY NIGHT'S supper party at the Cisco Country Club was just about the best family night affair we've ever attended there. There were some 125 people present, and had food left in all departments. It was great fun and the program was splendid in all respects.

Milk Sales Show Decrease During May In This Area

Handlers in the Central West Texas Milk Marketing area received 8,484,116 pounds of milk from 544 producers in May 1953. Byford W. Bain, Market Administrator, announced today. This volume represents a daily decrease of 5.5% from April and 4.57% from March.

Average daily producer receipts for May 1953 were 273,681 pounds as compared with 289,704 pounds in March. Of this total supply for May, 80%, or 6,746,769 pounds, was base milk and producers will receive $5.92 per hundredweight for such milk, subject to local differentials. Twenty percent, or 1,737,347 pounds, was excess milk, for which producers will receive $3.15 per hundredweight.

The average daily Class I sales in May were 248,082 pounds, which is a decrease of 3.70% from April and 5.05% from March. Seventy-nine percent of the producer deliveries in May were utilized to produce Class I products (fluid milk, skim milk, buttermilk, and cream).

Handlers received 1,696,653 pounds of milk, skim milk, cream, and other products from sources other than producers in May. This compares with 1,231,834 pounds of other source receipts in April and 1,389,238 pounds in March.

65 Men To Spend 2 Weeks On Duty

Some 60 enlisted men and five officers, members of Battery A, 648th Armored Field Artillery Battalion, 49th Armored Division of the Texas National Guard, all members of the Cisco unit, were to leave here about 8 a. m. Sunday for North Fort Hood where they will engage in two weeks of summer training with other members of the 49th division.

Most of the guardsmen were to make the trip by bus, while a few planned to go by car.

Accompanying the enlisted men will be Captain Frank Sayre, the company commander; Lt. J. N. Williams, battery executive officer; Lt. J. D. Farley, assistant battery executive; Lt. J. E. King, reconnaissance and survey officer, and Warrant Officer Vernon L. DeLong, administrative officer.

Sgt. Paul Hoffman and PFC Donald Foster left Thursday to attend a pre-camp mess school, and Sgts. Harvey Johnson and Perry L. Threet made up the advance and rear detachment.

The 49th Armored Division is composed of 111 units stationed in 56 Texas cities.

The training cycle will be under the supervision of the 100th Tank Battalion, 1st Armored Division, which will act as support battalion. Other units of the 1st Armored Division will furnish equipment and stage demonstrations.

Although a new division, the 49th stems from an old military organization — the 72nd Infantry Brigade, Texas National Guard.

The new headquarters of the 49th was federally recognized on February 27, 1947, in Austin. The 49th is commanded by Major General Albert S. Johnson.

Battalions and units which form the 49th are chiefly descended from pre-World War II Cavalry, Infantry and Artillery organizations in the northeastern part of the state.

The 49th's officers and non-commissioned officers wear patches and ribbons from every theater of action in World War II. These experience hardened veterans have helped train the 49th Armored's younger troops to a fine state of readiness in the past five years. Officers and men have also come from old Regular Army divisions as well as National Guard units who have distinguished themselves brilliantly in military operations.

Intensive field training periods lasting 15 days are held annually each summer when the entire division moves to a designated military reservation. Four of the past five training periods for the 49th Division have been conducted at Fort Hood.

HEALTH TALKS

Prepared by the Texas Medical Association

Since the beginning of the twentieth century, there is little doubt but that all of the medical specialties have advanced.

To put it in the words of one of the first doctors to specialize in this field, the pediatrician of a half-century ago was regarded by other physicians as little more than a "baby feeder."

mankind has benefited. There are still unsolved problems in pediatrics, such as the excessive death rate from prematurity and infantile diarrhea.

If the physical, mental, and emotional health of the child can be maintained, he is likelier to attain health in adulthood and to be a useful, happy citizen.

Miss Renabel Bible Weds Henry A. Clutz In Impressive Ceremonies

Miss Renabel Bible, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer A. Bible of Cisco, became the bride of Henry Alexander Clutz, son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Clutz of Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, in a single ring ceremony performed at the First Presbyterian Church in Cisco by the pastor, the Rev. H. Grady James, Saturday, June 6, at 7 p. m.

The couple stood before an altar of white gladiolus and stock and greenery with candelabra in the center and tall baskets of flowers and candelabra at each side.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of antique ivory white slipper satin fashioned with a high neck with scalloped drop shoulder effect, long sleeves forming a point over the hand, and fitted bodice and full bouffant skirt. The crushed sash at long waist line formed a large bustle bow ending in the train. The bodice was buttoned down the back with white satin covered buttons.

She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried her mother's point lace wedding handkerchief. Her veil of imported French illusion was waist length and fell from a brimmed half hat of lace with pleated illusion beneath the brim. She carried a shower arrangement of stephanotis and gladiolus on a white Bible.

Mrs. Glen Arnold of Fort Worth was her sister's only attendant and wore a dress of pink faille taffeta fashioned with a square neck, short sleeves, and a fitted bodice with a peplum and large bow in the back forming a bustle effect. The full skirt was attached to the long waist line. She wore long pink lace mits and a half hat of pink taffeta. She carried a cascade bouquet of asters, daisies, and stocks in pink and orchid and wore a bandeau of the same.

Miss Claudine Bridges of Salado and Miss Helen Speer of Ft. Worth were candle lighters. Bab Barnes of Fort Worth, dressed in a stratched blue organdy dress with white French embroidery trim and poke bonnet to match, was flower girl. She carried a basket of pink pom asters. Robert Glen Arnold of Fort Worth, nephew of the bride, dressed in a white linen suit with blue corn flower boutonniere, was ring bearer and carried a lace and ribbon trimmed satin pillow.

William Hartman Clutz of Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, brother of the groom, was best man and Melvin Neuman and Dan H. Olsson of Dallas and Glen Arnold, Neal Burke Sattawhite, and Billy Walker of Fort Worth were ushers.

Mrs. S. E. Hittson played "Air" from Overture in D by J. Sebastian Bach, "Meditation de Thais" by Massenet, and "Romance" by Wieniawski and accompanied Jack Chambliss who sang "O Perfect Love" by Fox and "If I Could Tell You" by Firestone.

The bride's mother wore a dress of chartreuse chiffon over taffeta trimmed with white beads and rhinestones. She wore a white lace hat and stole with short lace mits. Her corsage was of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. The couple were assisted in receiving by the bride's parents and the matron of honor.

The table was laid with a lace cloth over pink and centered with an arrangement of pink astered daisies on a dorchid stock with three tier crystal holders on either side. The three tiered wedding cake was placed at one end of the table and the crystal punch bowl at the other. Pink candles were used and pink, orchid, and white mints were served from crystal plates.

Members of the house party were Mrs. J. J. Tableman, Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. B. S. Huey, Mrs. Joe Clements, Mrs. R. E. Grantham, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Mrs. S. E. Hittson, Mrs. F. J. Borman, Mrs. N. A. Brown, Mrs. May Kleiner, Miss Bernie Ann McCrea, Miss Mona Lee Cluck, Miss Helen Speer, Miss Claudine Bridges, Miss Betty Smith Dahlin, and Miss Claudia Gafford.

As the couple left on a wedding trip to Mercersburg, Pennsylvania, Washington D. C., and New York, the bride was wearing a rose sharkskin dress with black straw sailor hat with rose trim, black patent bag and pumps, white nylon string gloves, and a corsage of white gladiolus.

The groom is a graduate of California Institute of Technology and a student member of the Society of Automotive Engineers. He is now employed as an engineer by Chance Vought Aircraft Corporation in Dallas.

Out of town guests attending were Mrs. L. E. Richardson, Mrs. L. T. Keffer, Mayor & Mrs. Jack Barnes and daughter, Babs, Mrs. A. M. Patterson and daughter, Patty, Miss Claudia Gafford, Miss Louise Terry, Miss Jean Tierney, Billy John Stiles, John Ed Francis, and Mrs. Bette Wilcox Russ, all of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Neuman and Mr. and Mrs. D. houses, and provide better drainage in the men's showers.

Last Sunday a billfold was found in the men's shower room which contained a number of individual pocket-size pictures of Moran school pupils. No one has claimed this wallet which has no identification, also no money. It is ready for its owner at the swimming pool office. A lady from Ranger left her brand-new bathing suit at the ladies' bathhouse last Thursday. A telephone call requested that the suit be forwarded to its owner, which was done promptly. Still unclaimed are a pair of ladies small or medium size white pumps. Occasionally a stray towel shows up and is held several days after which it goes with the swimming pool towels.

Dwayne Pelfrey and Gene Agnew operate the concession stand at the swimming pool. Dwayne is the son of Baptist Minister J. C. Pelfrey, and Gene is the son of Arlin Agnew. The boys received some lessons in preparing the hamburgers Thursday afternoon when a few of the sub-debs from Winters came to their aid when orders for sandwiches started to pile up.

Mothers will be glad to know that the wading pool at Lake Cisco starts to get some shade about 3:30 p. m. The whole kiddie pool is in the shade by 5:30 p. m. Two benches on the bank alongside the pool help make the mothers comfortable while watching the youngsters as they wade, swim and enjoy the big steel slide. There is no charge for children of five years and under, when an adult or elder child accompanies the child.

Cutting tall grass and mowing other grass has killed the few chiggers which made an appearance. A number of large ants nest succumbed to a powdering of chlordane. Any further signs of these insects will bring additional chlordane treatments. Insecticide spraying has eliminated practically all flies.

Power mowers are working trimming tall grass along the bank between the pool building and the golf course. It is hoped that this large plot of high grass will be in good shape by Sunday, when the pool will be opened at 9:30 a. m.

Mrs. Pearl Daniels is spending the weekend with her daughter and husband in Lubbock.

MRS. EDWIN L. JACKSON

Miss Ruby Re Corn Becomes Bride Of Edwin L. Jackson On June 7th

Miss Ruby Re Corn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Judson Corn of 4619 Glassen, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, became the bride of Edwin L. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson of Cisco, at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, June 7, in the First Baptist Church of Norman, Oklahoma.

The Rev. E. F. Hallock, pastor, officiated for the double ring ceremony before a background arrangement of palms and fern with an arch of greenery. Three branched candelabra holding white cathedral tapers were placed on either side flanked by tall baskets of white gladiolus and stock wound with greenery and tied with satin bows. Pews were marked with the same arrangement.

Miss Helen Harris, organist, played a prelude of appropriate music and accompanied Jimell Bodry who sang "I Love Thee" and "My Wonderful One." The traditional wedding marches were played for the professional and recessional.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length dress of white embroidered organza. The fitted bodice had a neckline, short sleeves, and bouffant skirt. Her lace mits were elbow length. Her finger tip veil fell from a half hat of lace trimmed with seed pearls and medallions. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses with streamers of stephanotis.

Mrs. Alvin Salisbury of Oklahoma City, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz length dress of lemon organdy with a fitted bodice and a portrait neckline. Mrs. Fred Arrington, of Ventura, California, sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid and wore an identical dress of Nile green. Both attendants carried colonial bouquets of marconi daisies.

Leon West of Lubbock was best man and Ennis Corn, brother of the bride, served as groomsmen. Ushers were Paul Stamps of Craig, Colorado, and Don Staton of Durant, Oklahoma, and Gerald Andrews and James Smalley of Norman, Oklahoma lighted the candles.

The bride's mother wore a dress of eggshell lace with black accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. The bride groom's mother chose a dress of orchid with white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

A reception was held following the ceremony in Hallock Hall with Jean Basden, Kathryn Beoty Nina Lideke, and Mrs. Ennis Corn serving the tiered wedding cake, topped with wedding bells, and punch from the beautifully appointed table.

The bride's traveling costume was a rose silk shantung suit with white accessories. She wore a yellow rosebud corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The couple went to Corpus Christi for their wedding trip. In two weeks, Edwin will report to San Francisco for active Naval duty.

Those attending from Cisco and Albany were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jackson, Helen Jackson, Lora Williams, and Celia Overton.

Other relatives of the groom attending were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cross of Weeoka, Oklahoma, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cross, Jr., of Tulsa.

Mrs. Rudolph Kamon and son Robert have returned from a weeks' visit in Houston.

Lone Star Man Is Given Advertising Coordinator Job

A Lone Star Gas Company employee, James Neal Hall, has been granted a year's leave of absence from Lone Star's advertising department to serve as an advertising coordinator for the American Gas Association.

Mr. Hall will visit gas utility companies in Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Arkansas and New Mexico to acquaint them with the promotion, advertising and research facilities which A. G. A. makes available to its member companies.

Mr. Hall joined Lone Star Gas Company in 1948, the year he graduated from the University of Texas, after majoring in advertising. His advertising assignments for Lone Star have included copy and layout production for brochures, booklets, newspaper and magazine advertisements and both radio and television commercials.

Mr. Hall served three years in the Air Force during World War II, flying P47's on combat missions over Germany. After 32 missions and one forced landing behind allied lines when his plane was damaged by enemy fire, he returned to the United States as a first lieutenant and resumed his interrupted college education.

Mrs. Hall is the former Marjorie Hieserman of Clara, Texas. The Halls have one daughter, Karen, age 4.

White Commends Farm Bureau For Warehouse Law

AUSTIN, June 13.—The Texas grain farmer now for the first time has adequate protection for his crops held in storage, according to Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White.

Because of the Public Grain Warehouse Bill, passed during the recent 53rd legislative session, a depositor of grain in a public warehouse has his commodities insured against fire, theft, misappropriation, damage due to the careless handling, or acts of God, White stated.

Also, for the first time, the farmer may use his stored grain receipts from state bonded warehouses as negotiable security.

In commenting on the bill, White said, "This was a long-needed piece of legislation. I am particularly grateful to Mr. J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation; Mr. C. H. DeVaney, vice-president; Mr. Loys Barbour, Farm Bureau director, and many others for their assistance in helping make this law a reality."

The state farm organization, representing more than 180 organized counties, maintained a legislative office in the state capital this year for the first time. This office was staffed by DeVaney and Barbour, both farmers.

The new warehouse law, introduced by Rep. W. R. Chamber of May and Senator Andy Rogers of Childress, requires that all public warehousemen, not previously licensed by the federal government, secure a license from the Texas Department of Agriculture. Insurance to fully cover all grain in storage also is required.

The warehouseman further protects his customers by obtaining a bond not less than $5,000 nor more than $50,000; the amount being at the discretion of the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shepard visited relatives in Fort Worth the first part of the week. Mr. Shepard attended the executive board meeting of the Baptist Church in Dallas Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor of Big Spring have moved back to Cisco and are at 1306 West 13th. Mrs. Taylor is the aunt of Fred Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Black and son, Geddes, and their granddaughter, Janice Graves visited in San Antonio this past week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roe. They also visited the Sunken Gardens and the Breckenridge Park and the Capital Building in Austin enroute home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wende and children returned to their home in Houston Friday after visiting a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wende.

Mrs. Gene Watson and Charlene were to leave Sunday for a ten day vacation trip to Austin, San Antonio, Corpus Christi and other towns in that area.
