Many Schools To Send Their Teams

Some 200 track men from several schools will be in Cisco Saturday to participate in the first annual Big Dam Relays sponsored by Cisco High School, it was reported by Jay Williams, high school coach Williams said that possibly 15 schools would be represented in the meet, which is planned as an annual affair. Sure entries will be teams from Cisco, Moran, Eastland, Albany, Cross Plains, Rising Star, Baird, Eula, Gorman, Colorado City and Comanche. Glen Rose and Granbury have indicated that they would bring teams to the meet and others were expected to enter.

Preliminaries will be run off Saturday morning beginning at 10 a. m. The finals will be held Saturday afternoon, beginning at 2 or 2:30 o'clock. Coach Williams planned the and schools when the chautauqua meet for a few area schools that would be unable to attend larger Therefore it is going to be a meets. TWO DESTRUCTIVE TAXES

The Freeman magazine recently printed an important editorial in whole economy. which it pointed to the need for a sweeping revision of our system of taxation. It dealt particularly with the inequities which are involved in the capital gains tax and in the double taxation of stock dividends. It is highly significant that neither Britain nor Canada
