The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

WENT DOWN TO the new Lake Whitney over the Memorial Day weekend to accept an invitation of the O. W. Hamptons, formerly of Cisco, to visit the new lake. It was a fine trip in all respects to some country we'd never seen before.

Lake Whitney isn't very old. The Brazos River was equipped with about $65,000,000 worth of concrete and earth to form the huge lake. The dam is seven miles west of the little town of Whitney. The lake is pretty big — the largest body of water entirely inside the state of Texas.

Lake Whitney is something like 40 miles long, the water having backed up the river that far. In places, it is as much as four miles wide. And it has a shore line of about 190 miles. It holds a tremendous amount of water, which is very deep in places.

While we were there, the wind blew gales all the time, and you didn't dare get out in a boat very far. And high winds make for poor fishing. At least, that's the reason they gave for us not catching any fish.

AT THE LAKE Whitney dam, we went through the power plant. Here, the government has a $4,000,000 setup to make electricity by the water wheel method. It's a small generating plant as far as generating plants go. It's a five story sort of place where visitors can climb up and down and look.

An engineer for an electric power company at Fort Worth went through with us and he explained a lot of the machinery. We gathered from listening to him that the government has spent a lot of money for a small amount of electricity making equipment. As a matter of fact, the plant would never pay out if it had to pay income taxes and property taxes and comply with the regulations that private business must face, we concluded.

SUCH A BIG lake is attracting a good many motels, cafes, bait and tackle stores and fishing camps. In the past couple of years, a total of 37 fishing camps have been built around the lake. One of these is operated by Jack McCranies, who lived in Cisco until about 18 months ago. Their camp is owned by Jack and his dad, Ed McCranies of Cisco, and Jack is the operator.

We spent Saturday and Sunday nights at the McCranies camp (Pioneer's Cove Lodge) and enjoyed it very much. Jack has eight cabins, a cafe and a bait shop. He has some 20 aluminum boats to rent. He has been a busy man getting started off, and he says they enjoy it very much. Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCranies drove down for the weekend.

THE HAMPTONS moved to Whitney about 18 months ago from Cisco. It was really a case of them returning to their old home country, for both Mr. and Mrs. Hampton were born near Whitney and they grew up there. He now has Hamp's Cafe on the Hillsboro highway near town and is doing well. They have a lovely home in Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Jones of Cisco were also weekend visitors in Whitney. Mrs. Jones is the daughter of the Hamptons. Marshall told us that if he had to make a living fishing it would be sad to look at the dinner table at his house.

LAKE WHITNEY is about a third as big as Lake Texoma, which is formed by a dam across Red River at Denison. Texoma backs some 75 miles up into Oklahoma. And it is the biggest man-made lake in the U. S. . . . At Whitney, they were letting water out, getting ready for a lot of water that was running over the spillway at Possum Kingdom Lake. Scores and scores of fishermen were lined up below the Whitney dam where fishing was reported good. . . . Many folks from Fort Worth, Dallas and elsewhere have bought and are buying lots around Lake Whitney to build cabins for weekend fishing trips.

THE DRIVE there and back was relatively free of traffic. At De Leon we saw a huge peach orchard. And in the window of a De Leon store over three peaches was this sign:

VFW Poppy Sale Is Huge Success, Official Reports

Last Saturday's sale of Buddy Poppies was the most successful ever conducted in Cisco under the auspices of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post Commander Standlee McCracken reported today.

PANTHERS DOWN TIGERS TO WIN FIRST TEENAGE LEAGUE BATTLE

The Teenage League Panthers started the Teenage season off at ABC Field Monday night by downing the Tigers 7-6 in a game that was not decided until the bottom half of the final inning.

The Tigers started things off in the first inning by pushing two runs across the plate. The Panthers struck back in the second inning to score three men to go ahead. The Tigers scored again in the third to tie it up, but the Panthers also scored one in their half of the inning to go ahead by a run. The Tigers scored three in the fifth inning to take the lead 6-4. In the sixth inning the Panthers scored two to tie it up and scored the winning run in the seventh.

Tommy Reynolds was on the mound all the way for the Panthers and was credited with the win. He allowed five hits. Jimmy Sublett went the distance on the mound for the Tigers and allowed seven hits.

In the Little League game which preceded the Teenage game the Cardinals outlasted the Giants 19-11. The Cards pounded Kenneth Taylor and David Callerman for 15 hits while Harold Weiser and David Elder were holding the Giant batters to four hits. Weiser was the winning pitcher and Taylor was the loser. Taylor hit a homerun in the third inning with two on base.

The farm team game was rained out and will be played at 5 p. m. Friday.

Score by innings in the Monday games follows:

Cardinals	0113 005—19 15 3
Giants	0 0 341—11 4 3
Panthers	031 002-1-7 7 2
Tigers	201 030 0—6 5 3

Two Calf Roping Events Planned At Cowboy Rodeo

STAMFORD, June 1.—Two calf-roping events, believed to have originated at the Texas Cowboy Reunion, will again be features of this year's competition, July 1, 2, 3, and 5. These events are the "GI" contest and the old-timers' contest.

The "GI" event had its origin during World War II and is for service men and ex-service men. How keen the competition is can be seen from the fact that it took an average of 23 seconds per animal to qualify for last year's finals.

"GIs" and other ropers enter the general contest and after the go-rounds, the finals for the general roping are held. Then the 10 service men or former service men with the best time enter the "GI" finals. However, a single contestant can win only one of the handsome trophy saddles offered.

The old-time cowboys compete during a morning and this feature is open, without charge, to public view. Entrants must be at least 55 years of age and the prize also is a fine saddle. Winning time a year ago was 20 seconds flat.

Roping for old-timers—roping for GIs — and roping for everybody else who can toss a loop with speed and skill are just one of the reasons for the popularity of the Stamford rodeo which presents also bareback and saddle bronc riding, wild cow milking and bull riding as nightly performances, with an afternoon as well as night show on the final day.

Erring Hunters Pay Heavy Fines

AUSTIN, May 31.—Scattered raids on migratory waterfowl and native game drew the heaviest fines in the latest Game and Fish Commission arrest report, according to the Director of Law Enforcement.

A Snyder man paid $200 and costs for killing a deer out of season. A Falfurrias man caught hunting paid $150 and costs for shooting a wild turkey out of season. Another $200 fine plus costs was levied against a Rockport man for illegally possessing a deer.

Night hunting prompted eighteen different cases, while there were arrests for shooting ducks, geese and mourning doves.

Several $50 fines were levied in the Houston area for using old fashioned hand cranked magnets to stun fish. Total fines and costs were $6,056.38 compared with $6,319.50 for the same month last year.

IN TRAINING—New Vietnam recruits at Quen Tre, a training camp near Saigon, Indo-China, are going through an obstacle course as part of their rigorous training. The embattled Red River Delta faced new thrusts by Vietminh Communists, as the French announced plans to bomb highways used by the Reds to move troops into that strategic section.

Plans Available At School Office

Bids on the construction of the new administration building at Cisco Junior College will be opened at the school board offices here at 2 p. m. Saturday, June 12, it has been announced by Ralph Glenn, president.

Plans may be obtained in Cisco at the school board office, Glenn said.

Much of the foundation work on the new building has been completed, it was reported. The work was done in order to assure a proper foundation and to save time on the construction project. Specifications call for the rushing of the class room portion of the building in an effort to have it completed by the time school opens for the fall term.

It was estimated that the successful bidder would be able to begin work by June 15.

Plans call for erecting a modern building complete with classrooms, offices, library, lounge and combination gym and auditorium. Also planned for the summer months is the re-decorating and repairing of the dormitories and other buildings of the college plant. It was also planned to do some work on the campus.

COLLEGES URGED TO TAKE MORE INTEREST IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS

ABILENE, May 31. — State Attorney General John Ben Shepperd today surveyed the field of higher learning and said the most urgent educational need of the day is education in the ob-many great men of learning have lost the spark of patriotism and the fire of religion. Shepperd commended Hardin-Simmons for educating "the whole individual — head, heart and backbone," and said the school "is one spire of learning that still points upward to God."

Speaking to the graduating class of Hardin-Simmons University, Shepperd said: "The common fault of most colleges and universities today is that while they refuse a sheep-skin to the student who cannot write a research paper, they graduate many a mental giant who cannot think responsibly, read an editorial, or mark a ballot."

"No man can call himself educated if he cannot recite his obvious rights under the Constitution. No man is more learned than the most ignorant of his countrymen if he cannot cast a better ballot, give better counsel to his Congressman, make better laws, dispense better justice from a jury box, and elect a better president."

These cattle are busy reducing their owner's cash expenditures for feed.

New York farmers alone spent $189,000,000 for feeds brought from outside the State in 1949, according to Richard Bradford of Cornell University. This was by far the largest cash expenditure. It was almost twice as big as their expenditure for farm labor, six times their expenditure for lime and fertilizer, and seven times the amount that they spent on their farm taxes.

AUSTIN, May 29. — The 1954 edition of the Directory of Texas Manufacturers, just published by The University of Texas Bureau of Business Research, includes descriptions of more than 10,400 manufacturing companies in the state. Deer Recovering From Effects Of Lengthy Drought

AUSTIN, May 18. — The Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission said reports from principal Texas deer areas indicate gradual slanting toward normalcy after the devastating drought.

He said the major big game range in the Edwards Plateau already is showing beneficial effects of rains which are counted on to be reflected in near average harvest conditions in the fall.

The Executive Secretary said similar reports have been received from deep South Texas and the Panhandle. Field studies indicate some doubt about parts of East Texas although prospects are good in many areas.

The observations were made as the fawning season was reported underway in some Central Texas areas. Gene Walker and Bob Ramsey, wildlife biologists, assigned generally to the Edwards Plateau, have begun deer population studies preliminary to recommending extension of the limited experimental doe harvest launched last fall.

But in other areas, where overpopulation existed in the more severe drought areas, they found considerable loss from starvation. They noted deer losses in southwest Llano, northwest Gillespie, western Kerr and western Mason counties. The overgrazing and drought effects may affect the fawn crop in some areas.

Warden Supervisor Herbert Ward at Catarina said the rains have made present prospects better than last spring, and pointed out that some deep South Texas counties had a record deer harvest last fall.

"Our brush country deer are in pretty good shape now," he said. Ernest G. Marsh, wildlife biologist assigned to the Derden Wildlife Management area in Anderson County, said the severe winter drought hit East Texas hard. Rains have sprouted the vital green stuff, and deer have begun to fatten up.

But Marsh said more time will be needed to correctly appraise the situation. "Looks now that it could be very good in many areas, but a little lean in others," he said.

Miss Jennie Douglas, hired in 1962, was the first woman employed by the U. S. Government.

MARCH OF THE BLIND—Carrying placards and tapping their way along the street in Rome, more than 100 blind men and women marched to protest the government's low pension. The group was comprised of Italians from all over the country who had lost their sight in the war. They have been objecting to the $25 a month provided in a bill before the Chamber of Deputies.

YOUNG GREETERS—Their faces reflect varying degrees of wonder and curiosity as these Swiss youngsters stand under a parking sign in Geneva to watch the participants of the five-power conference come and go. They're not quite old enough to understand the purpose of the conference, but the children do realize there's something in the wind.

END OF A STRUGGLE—Young Karey Sater has visible proof of the terrific struggle he had to put up in order to land the fish he's showing hatchery superintendent Cecil Nixon, in North-bend, Wash. No prize was awarded for the lad's catch, a cut-throat which was landed during a "Kid's Derby," but Karey derived great mental satisfaction from his prowess as a fisherman.

MODEL CLASS—Derick Griffin, center, is explaining the intricacies of a model train to Davis Somers, right, and his baby brother, John, in London, England. The model train was being exhibited at the Model Railway Club show and the lads were among those present to pick up as much knowledge as they could. It may come in handy for them some day.

Cub Scouts Appear on DAR Program at Meeting on Monday

The Charles Crawford Chapter of the D.A.R. met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Homer Slicker for their monthly meeting with Mrs. Grace Reed serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Yancey McCrea, regent, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer followed by the pledge to the flag. During the business session, the regent appointed the yearbook and program committee for the next year. Mrs. W. C. McDaniel was appointed chairman. Others appointed were Mrs. Homer Slicker, and Mrs. T. C. Williams.

Mrs. McCrea was leader of the program which was divided into two parts: 1. The Flag, which she presented to Mrs. Buck Overall and her cub scouts Den 6 who presented a skit. The boys stated that had they received home training and responsibilities of American Citizenship they would have been better able to resist communists "brain-washing." The training of boys on American citizenship should start at home.

An outline on the talk given by the president general, Miss Carraway, on "Spirit of America," was also given after which the meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. W. W. Wallace.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting to Mesdames Joseph Perkins, Frank Castleberry, Eastland; Mesdames W. W. Wallace, W. C. McDaniel, J. E. Crawford, John Elkins, Fleet Shepard, Yancey McCrea, Homer Slicker, and Grace Reed, Cisco; and a guest, Mrs. Cox of Plainview.

State Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Most discussed subject in Austin is the United States Supreme Court decision abolishing racial segregation in the public schools.

Not only are the people talking about this important ruling, but they are taking their pens and pencils in hand to let Governor Shivers know how they feel about it. There is no doubt about how Texans feel on the subject for the mail shows a 30 to 1 ratio in favor of maintaining segregation.

Governor Shivers pointed out that "the Supreme Court has indicated it will have more to say on this matter later this Fall, and there is very little that can be done until we know its final opinion."

The Texas Education Agency has advised schools in Texas to plan for continued segregation in the term starting next September.

Roy M. Hall, executive director of the Texas Association of School Boards, said that the segregation problems will be mostly a local headache and that in most instances it will be at least several years before the reality of non-segregation becomes evident.

Insurance Company Probe

Hottest news out of Austin is the insurance company probe.

Indicated by a Travis County grand jury were Leslie and Paul Lowry of Beaumont, D. H. O'Fiel, Beaumont, and Spencer Treharne of El Paso.

Nine indictments charged these four persons with criminal violations in Texas insurance laws. In addition to perjury counts against the four, Paul Lowry was charged with submitting a false statement.

All the indictments concerned submission of alleged false reports to the State Board of Insurance Commissioners regarding funds of insurance firms at Beaumont, Ennis and El Paso.

Insurance firms concerned were the Texas Mutual Insurance Co. of Beaumont; Texas Fire Insurance Co. of Ennis, a subsidiary of Texas Mutual; and Texas Western Assurance Co. of Beaumont.

Investigations which have been going on since the first week Attorney General John Ben Shepperd took office in 1953 reveal that some insurance companies have been formed in Texas with borrowed capital which banks deposited to the credit of the insurance firm, but with the understanding that the money was not to be withdrawn. Once the firm was approved by the Insurance Commission and a charter granted, the bank's money was returned, the loan canceled and the insurance company was in business. Loser in the transaction was the policy holder who was dealing with an insufficiently financed firm.

Shepperd has been working closely with Travis County District Attorney Bob Long in connection with the grand jury's investigation. One of Shepperd's top assistants, Willis Gresham, has been appointed by the attorney general's recent investigation in Duval County.

Tightening of Insurance Laws?

Legislation tightening the state's insurance laws is indicated. Acting Governor Ben Ramsey has called the Legislative council into session to begin a study of existing laws.

Court disclosures of loopholes, lack of safeguards, and loose enforcement which permit improper organization and operation of small insurance companies, prompted the move.

Executives of the 1,884 insurance companies doing business in Texas have been asked by Ramsey to submit recommendations for remedial legislation. Changes recommended by the legislative council will go to the Legislature next year.

New Duval Grand Jury

The way has been opened for the appointment of a new grand jury to look into the jumbled affairs of Duval County.

The Court of Criminal Appeals refused to set aside 79th District Judge A. S. Brod-foot's discharge of a grand jury commission the judge ruled was lax in selecting fair and impartial grand and petit jurors.

Judge Broadfoot can now appoint a new commission which in turn will set up a new grand jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill and son, Mike, of Austin spent the weekend in Cisco visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Erwin and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hill.

Mrs. W. E. Dean has returned to her home in Cisco after spending some 10 days in a Ranger hospital.

Lowest balance for one day in the U. S. Treasury was $28,239.61 on Dec. 31, 1949.

Qualified Army Reservists May Apply For Duty

AUSTIN, June 1. — Qualified enlisted members of the Army Reserve, including WAC's who volunteer and agree to serve for a period of 24 consecutive months or such other period as authorized by law, may apply for active military service and be ordered to active duty, according to Fourth Army headquarters.

Male enlisted members of the Army Reserve, who have previously served in the 1st Cavalry Division, 2d Infantry Division, 3d Infantry Division, 7th Infantry Division, 24th Infantry Division, 25th Infantry Division, 5th Regimental Combat Team, 11th Airborne Division or 82d Airborne Division, may volunteer for active duty with the unit in which previous service was performed.

Those who have not previously served with one of the foregoing units may apply for active military service and be ordered to duty on an Army-wide basis without specification as to geographical or unit assignment.

Reservists who have insufficient time remaining in current enlistment to complete 24 months of service, will be discharged and re-enlisted to meet length of service requirement of the active duty tour.

The Army said that known moral or loyalty suspects will not be accepted. Also ineligible are enlisted members of the Reserve components who are drawing disability allowance or disability compensation from the government of the United States, except that such personnel may waive or relinquish their disability allowance or compensation when such disability is of a degree as not to prevent their acceptance for active federal service.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Peiry and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bassett visited in Fort Worth over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Petty spent the weekend with friends and relatives in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Joe Wayne Farrow was brought home Sunday from a Ranger hospital where he had been for several days. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farrow.

GOLDEN TRIO—Because it garnered so many awards as the best musical comedy of the season, the cast of "The Golden Apple" went to work at RCA to record the music. Left to right are: Kaye Ballard, Priscilla Gillette and Bibi Osterwald, harmonizing on one of the hit tunes. The critics have certainly awarded their own golden apples to this production.

Texas Dairymen To Seek Larger Market Outlets

AUSTIN, June 1.—Dairymen of Texas will re-double their efforts, beginning June 1, to create a larger market for dairy foods and reduce milk surpluses, Sam E. von Rosenberg, state manager of the American Dairy Association of Texas, said today.

On that date, dairy producers will begin contributing two cents per hundred weight of the milk and one-half a cent per pound butterfat in cream they sell. Their contribution in the past has been half that amount.

The money collected, expected to exceed $150,000 annually, will go into a fund and be used to promote a greater sale of milk, butter, ice cream, cheese and other dairy products through advertising and merchandising. The dairymen's contributions will be, as in the past, collected by dairy plants and sent to State ADA headquarters in Austin.

All milk and cream produced and sold by producers is subject to the ADA setaside, von Rosenberg said. He pointed out, however, that the program is voluntary and leaves the decision for support of this effort up to each milk and cream producer.

Von Rosenberg said dairymen who do not wish to participate in this joint effort should notify him at State ADA headquarters, Perry-Brooks Building, Austin, before Saturday, June 5.

Information explaining the expanded ADA program has been distributed to all the approximate 30,000 milk producers in the state. He said he expected only a small percentage, representing only a fraction of the milk produced in Texas, to be non-participants.

Surge Of Texans To Fishing Holes Shown In Report

AUSTIN, May 29. — The surge of Texans to the state's far-flung fishing places is reflected in the latest monthly arrest report, showing that all but 48 of the 229 cases listed involved angling violations.

The Director of Law Enforcement for the Game and Fish Commission said, "Seventy-eight prosecutions were based on lack of licenses, mainly individual fishing permits. Forty of the 171 fishing cases were for taking fish illegally."

This latter category included such as poisoning water to take fish; using electrical device to shock fish; and taking fish with seines or nets.

Other charges included illegal transportation of minnows; exceeding bag limit on bass; fishing in sanctuaries; possession of undersized fish; and fishing after license suspended.

The Director suggested fishermen in doubt about the more than 600 separate state fishing laws should consult a game and fish digest or contact their game warden or both.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hagemann spent the weekend in Dallas with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hildreth. They were accompanied home by their grandson, Mark.

Mrs. Doris Jean Causey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy George, is doing nicely in a Ranger hospital following surgery Friday morning.

Distress Loans On Wheat Sought By Farm Bureau

WACO, May 31. — J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, said today he hoped the U. S. Department of Agriculture approves distress loans on wheat stored on the ground before the harvest rush on available elevator space begins.

Unless such loans are approved, wheat producers will have to find government-approved storage for their grain to be eligible for government loans under price support regulations. With large Commodity Credit Corporation stocks already in storage, the problem is expected to be acute when the 1954 wheat and grain sorghum harvests begin.

Hammond has been negotiating with USDA officials in Washington since March, trying to get approval of emergency loans for grain stored on the ground. He said he has urged them to announce approval before the harvest rush begins to avert "distasteful prices."

It was just five years ago, in 1949, that Hammond originated the idea of storing wheat on the ground. At that time, he led a one-man crusade to get his ideas approved.

Elevator operators claimed that storage space for government loans for the 1949 crop was not available. After the harvest rush began, some farmers were forced to sell at prices far below the government loan price.

Hammond appealed directly to President Truman, and the following day the government announced its approval of loans for wheat stored in the open. Elevators immediately opened their bins to farmers, and very little, if any, wheat was actually piled on the ground.

The government approved emergency loans for on-the-ground storage last year, but not until after the harvest had begun. Wheat prices shot upward immediately after the announcement.
