The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

THE PRESS received a very complimentary letter from President Anton White of the Chamber of Commerce in connection with the recent Boss building subscription campaign. And since newspapers seldom receive comments, we're going to reprint White's letter, as follows:

"The recent campaign to raise $50,000 for loan to the City of Cisco to enlarge the Boss Manufacturing Company's building was a remarkable accomplishment for the citizens of Cisco.

"The Chamber of Commerce is particularly proud of the opportunity it had to lead such a drive. The editor of the Cisco Daily Press, you did an outstanding job of forming the citizens of Cisco through the Press of this fund raising drive. I want to take this opportunity to commend you and say how proud and pleased we are over the success of the campaign. These drives are not always easy to bring to a successful conclusion.

"This fund raising drive was very important in that it benefited everyone, directly or indirectly. The City of Cisco will now be able to finance the building of a suitable factory addition. The Boss Manufacturing Company will sign a long-term lease. The citizens of Cisco will have more jobs available, creating a larger payroll. And purchasers of the city warrants will benefit investment returns."

The Press is as proud as the Chamber of Commerce of the results of the campaign. The successful project was a splendid tribute to the initiative of our people.

LET'S ALL HELP Mrs. Betty Bowden of Munday find her billfold. She has been here for several days visiting her mother, Mrs. Beatrice Guthrie, and she left her billfold downtown yesterday. She made stops at the post office and several places. If you find a billfold with her name on the papers inside, call Mrs. Guthrie.

MR. BOBBY CLUCK, son of Mr. R. N. Clucks, has graduated from a Press paper boy. He resigned the other day after being with The Press for several years. He was a dandy paper boy — the kind who wanted to give his customers good service. Understand he has a nice bank account — profits from his paper route.

Bobby is off for a few days attending the Methodist camp at Glen Rose. His dad, Mr. Bob, has his substitute on the paper route when Bobby needed a day off. If you see Mr. Cluck watering the lawn up at the home of Mrs. Leslie Seymour, the Methodist superintendent who is away several days, you'll know that Bobby's substitute is on the job. Before the Seymours left, they engaged Bobby to look after their yard while they were away.

CITY FIREMEN enjoyed a watermelon feast Monday night. A big crowd turned out to eat some delicious melons. The Press still has a number of the big books full of house plans. They're free to anybody who wants them as long as they last. "I Made It to Pike's Peak" says a sign on the car that Miss Nancy Stroebel was driving yesterday. COUNTY CLERK Johnson is expected to be ready for absentee voters to cast their second primary ballots Thursday or Friday. The state law gave the go-ahead on absentee voting on August 8 and it also gave county chairman until August 9 to get their ballot copy ready. And the county clerk didn't have any ballots on August 8. Absentee balloting will continue until three days before the election.

"Too many of our motorists are suffering from 'in a hurry' complex. This attitude is characterized by excessive speed, speed too fast for conditions, following too closely, failing to yield right of way, and improper passing," said Captain Morahan.

CITY ADVERTISES FOR BIDS TO ERECT BOSS BUILDING ANNEX

Cisco area contractors have been invited to submit bids for a contract to build a 70x160 foot Brick and tile addition to the Boss Manufacturing Company building, according to an advertisement for bidders published elsewhere in today's edition of The Press.

The City of Cisco, which owns the Boss building, will open bids Tuesday night, August 24, to award a contract on the project. Copies of the plans and specifications may be obtained by writing or calling at the City Hall.

The project calls for two separate bids. Schedule No. 1 is for erecting the building addition, and Schedule No. 2 is for equipping the property with an automatic sprinkler system.

Cisco residents recently pledged themselves to buy $40,000 worth of city warrants to finance the project. The warrants will pay 5% interest per annum and will be retired from the proceeds of a long-term rental contract with the Boss company.

City commissioners worked on details of the rental contract at their regular semi-annual meeting Tuesday night. The Boss company will be offered a 12-year contract at the rate of $400 per month. The contract will provide renewal and purchase options.

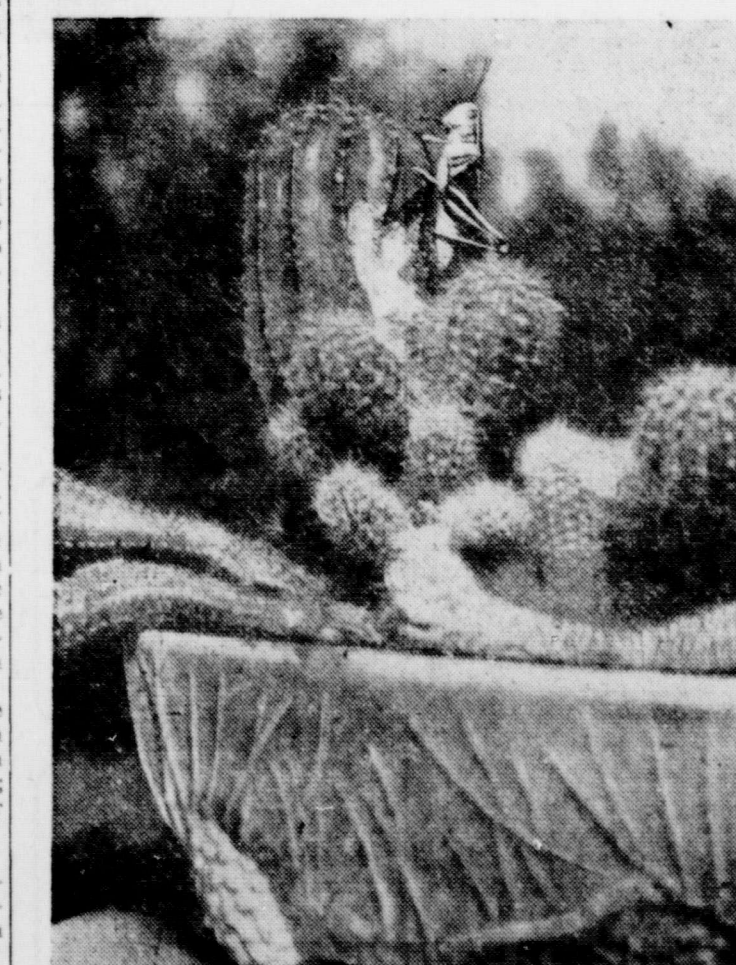

Cubs Will Meet Albany Team In Baseball Contest

The Cisco Cubs will play the Albany All-Stars at ABC Field Thursday night it was announced Wednesday by Manager M. W. Cotton. The seven inning game will begin at 8 o'clock.

Tuesday night the Cubs lost to Gorman 9-0. The Cubs were still in a hitting slump and were unable to get to the Gorman hurler for only three singles in the seven innings. Manager Cotton was working his team Wednesday afternoon sharpening up their batting attack.

Friday night De Leon will be at ABC Field for a game with the Cubs, and Saturday night the Strawn Greyhounds will be here for a seven inning game.

Manager Cotton asked all fans who had tickets for the set of silverware to be given away by the team to either mail their stub to him or to bring it to one of the games this week or next week for refund of their money.

LITTLE FEST—This is the fellow responsible for fantastic crop destruction in the grain-producing Midwest, where the loss of corn and alfalfa due to insects has reached tremendous proportions. Not only are the voracious grasshoppers content to feast on food plants, but, as this hungry character demonstrates, they have been going after the decorative cactus, too. These insects help to raise the cost of food.

Matter Is Being Studied By City

Five petitions signed by 145 persons were presented to the City Commission at the regular semi-monthly meeting Tuesday night, asking that an election be called on the question of "shall the city continue to use the parking meters."

The petitions were presented to the Commission by Robert Donovan. They were referred to the City Attorney to be checked. If the petitions are in order and if sufficient signatures are on them, an election will be ordered at the next meeting of the Commission, Mayor G. C. Rosenthal reported.

The parking meters were installed here in 1949 and half of the proceeds has gone to the manufacturer since that time in payment. The city still owes about $475 on the meters and this will be paid off in the next two months, Mr. Rosenthal said.

Several weeks ago, the city began a campaign to enforce the traffic ordinances, including the parking meters. Receipts from the meters have increased to about $150 per week. The city's share of the fund goes into the general fund.

Mr. Rosenthal explained that "we feel that we should enforce our regulations, just as they do in all of our neighboring cities." Those who fail to take violation tickets to the city hall are sent notices that warrants will be issued if they do not report and pay their fine.

The commission adopted a resolution to determine whether the city's population is more than 5,000. This was another step in the project to re-write the city charter and was recommended by the special committee named by the city to study the charter.

The population will be determined by taking the number of utility meters and multiplying it by nationally accepted figures. If it is found that the population is "5,000 or more," an ordinance will be passed calling an election to decide whether or not a commission shall be chosen to frame a new charter and to elect a commission to frame the charter.

In the last federal census, taken in 1950, the population of Cisco was determined to be 5,230 persons. Under the law, cities must have 5,000 population to adopt the kind of charter under which a city manager may be employed.

Dr. W. P. Lee, city health officer, made his monthly report. It was reported that repair work has been completed on the city spraying machine and that it will be used to combat mosquitoes. The monthly bills were ordered paid.

All members of the commission were in attendance.

COUNTY SOIL AGENCY WORKERS VISIT MODEL LEGUME PROJECT

Two members of the Eastland Soil Conservation Unit saw the result of a revolutionary new idea on building soil fertility with legumes first hand last week.

The two Eastland Soil Conservation workers were given an explanation of how the Texas farmer took a run down farm and in five years turned it into one of the best dry-land productive farms in the state. Habers produced two bales of cotton to the acre without irrigation, and 80 bushels of corn to the acre in a below-normal moisture year.

The same question that enters your mind was also topmost in Garner and Leaves' minds. How does he do it? They wondered and so they found out. Here is how they explained it to a Telegram reporter.

First he perfected a combination fertilizer and seeder. Using a Graham-Hoeme plow, he installed two fertilizer boxes, 20 inches apart. Then he attached his seeders right behind, on the back cross-bar. As he pulls the plow down the rows, a small plow point opens up a six-inch-deep small furrow; into that trench a band of fertilizer flows; thereupon another attachment covers up the fertilizer; and the planter, right behind that, opens up a shallow trench, right above the covered-up fertilizer band, drops the legume seeds in, and covers that up. It is all done in one operation.

Clinton's rows are 40 inches apart and the boxes are only 20. What he is actually doing is planting on the sides of the bed instead of on the top. The top he leaves untouched until later when he plants his cotton there.

The legumes quickly grow to the fertilizer with the top growth spreading over the top of the furrow and the bed, blanketing it completely and making his field a complete mass of green.

The top of the bed, the eventual money-crop planting area, is still free of vines. And the soil under the covering stays moist and mellow. A short while before corn-planting time, Clinton knives the roots, using a disc cultivator, with sixteen 16-inch discs to the row.

When time comes to plant corn, cotton or other crops, the farmer has a soft, mellow bed to plant in, with lots of humus to each side, and his crops kick off almost without stopping to wait on a rain.

Clinton has cut the maturity rate for cotton from the customary 180 days to around 120, and it doesn't take much post-planting rain for that kind of a crop. When he started his soil weighed 135 pounds per cubic foot. Now it weighs only 86. Then rain would soak in one inch before any runoff, now it soaks eight inches. Therein lies the secret of doing something about the weather.

Last year, on 36 acres of cotton, Clinton averaged a bale and a half an acre. His expense per acre was $63.50 and his sales totaled $275.26 an acre, making a net income per acre of $211.76 or a total income of $7,823.36 on the 36 acres of cotton.

Clinton plants his vetch in the fall and doesn't plow at all in the spring. He poisons nine times on the crop.

Garner and Leaves were impressed. And they so impressed their co-workers, E. E. McAlister, unit chief, and Paul Flinn, that both plan a trip Wednesday to the farm. J. M. Spirlen, superintendent of the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District will also visit the farm.

Will it work? Both Garner and Leaves are convinced it will. — Eastland Telegram.

Nation's 4-H'ers Seek to Cut Death Toll of Farm Folk on Rural Highways

Look out, young feller!

CHICAGO—(Special)—"Make Safety Your Number One Crop," the slogan of several million rural boys and girls throughout the nation since its introduction in 1945, continues to be fostered by more than 615,000 4-H Club members. They are taking part in the 1954 National 4-H Safety Program being conducted in 46 states for the tenth consecutive year.

Participants receive training in farm accident and fire prevention, which includes checking and removing hazards of every conceivable nature.

These surveys are credited by safety experts as being a valuable contribution to the nationwide campaign to reduce the tragic annual toll of 15,000 lives and 1,225,000 disabling injuries to farm folk.

In conducting their surveys, the 4-H'ers look for such safety hazards as loose or floppy clothing worn about moving farm machinery, cluttered stairways, oily rags, frayed electric cords, broken ladder rungs and sharp tools.

What is becoming an increasingly serious problem is that accidents to farm people caused by motor vehicles now account for nearly one-fourth of all deaths and injuries that occur on rural highways. Also, 700 of the fatal farm accidents reported last year involved wheel tractors. One-third of the fatal tractor accidents reported involve persons under 20 years of age. One case in ten was a child under 5.

To help correct this problem, the 4-H'ers are giving highway safety demonstrations before farm groups and over local radio stations, as well as putting window displays in town stores and booths at county fairs.

The 1954 National 4-H Safety Program is conducted by the Co-operative Extension Service. As incentives for outstanding records in the program, General Motors provides medals of honor which are presented to four county winners, and an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago to the state winner. Eight of the latter will be selected as national winners, each receiving a $300.00 college scholarship.

Third annual graded choir camp for Baptists of Texas will be held at Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds August 16-20.

Musicians of Baptist Churches of the state will have a week of intensive training, with fellowship, Bible study and worship services on the Clear Fork of the Brazos River.

The camp will be directed by Dr. J. D. Riddle of Dallas, executive director of the Baptist State Music Department, who will also teach daily classes in

His wife, who is a specialist in elementary choir work, will work with the primary children in the graded choir rehearsals and will also teach a class in theory.

Camp pastor will be Dr. Clifton Tennon, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church at Borger. Dr. Tennon will preach each evening and will teach a morning Bible class for all ages.

Joe Rucker of Abilene, District 17 music director, will be official host of the camp. He will teach a class in sight-reading. He has enlisted the aid of all music directors of the seven associations that compose the district as a committee on general arrangements.

LAZY AFTERNOON—A young Columbia, Mo., boy, Max Hensley, isn't exactly hiding, but he manages to stay out of sight as he takes things easy on his grandfather's farm at Stanberry, Mo. Max should be helping with the chore of shocking wheat during the harvest but it was just too nice a day to toil.

"I first used Conoco Super with TCP on a vacation trip. Right from the start I could feel the difference in my 1946 Chevy's performance. In hilly country I just sailed right over. Better mileage, too!"
Carl E. Rudsell, Farmer
Route #1, Utica, Nebraska

"I discovered Conoco Super with TCP on a trip to my daughter's in Salina, Kansas—165 miles each way. I made the round trip without refilling the tank—the first time I'd ever been able to do that!"
Lon Hall, Barber
909 Tennessee St., Lawrence, Kansas

Here are the facts proved by millions:

1. TCP boosts your car's power as much as 15% (because it neutralizes power-robbing lead deposits).
2. TCP gives you extra gas mileage (motorists report up to 3 miles more a gallon).
3. TCP is just like an engine tune-up (because it makes it possible for you to enjoy all your car's built-in power).
4. TCP is your guarantee of Top Car Performance (because only TCP gives you the full benefits of the greatest gasoline development in 31 years).
5. TCP lets you enjoy all the extra performance of Conoco Super's higher octane rating.

"My mail route runs near 90 miles. What with hills, bumpy roads and traffic, I need the best gasoline I can get. I got it with Conoco Super with TCP. It's far ahead of any I've ever bought."
A. S. Johnson, Rural Mail Carrier
1926 West Sycamore, Denton, Texas

"Conoco Super with TCP motor car the best all-around performance—quick starting, smoother running, almost 3 miles more per gallon. I never sold. They don't make a better one."
Audrey Lewis, Car Salesman
1216 McArthur, Dallas, Texas

"I switched to Conoco Super TCP hoping I could stop engine ping in my new car. Now there's no ping and the ride is much smoother. It really runs like a new car."
Wilhelmina O. Bruhn, Housewife
2233 Kearney Street, Denton, Texas
