The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

THE CISCO HIGH School football team will be playing in pretty fast company this year, according to the conference schedule. District AA-9 is composed of Cisco, Graham, Mineral Wells, Ranger, Stephenville and Weatherford.

Besides the conference tilts, the Lobos will play Eastland, Brady, Rotan, Coleman and Colorado City.

The Cisco Junior College has one new member in their Texas Junior College Athletic Conference this season — Paris Junior College. Other conference teams on the Wrangler schedule include Henderson County Junior College of Athens, Blinn Junior College of Brenham, Navarro County Junior College of Corsicana and Allen Academy of Bryan.

In addition to the conference foes, the Wranglers will meet the Hardin-Simmons freshmen, John Tarleton, Ranger Junior College and Goodfellow Air Force Base.

ONE WEEK FROM tonight at 8 p. m. the referee's whistle will usher in the new season at Chesley Field in Cisco. The Eastland High Mavericks will be here to tangle with our Lobos and, if our memory serves us correctly, our Lobos have a 7-0 defeat from last season to avenge.

One week from Saturday (tomorrow) night, the Wranglers open their schedule. They'll meet the H-SU Frosh in a game here. And as we recall it, the Wranglers need to get some revenge, too.

The football field looks right dandy. The south stands have been re-built, and improvements have been made on the north side. The school system has done some work annually at the stadium for several years, and you can well notice the improvement.

GUESS YOU CAN say that Mr. Standlee McCracken, the grocer, is now an educated man — complete with diploma. A year or so back, he finished his junior college courses out at CJC.

When the diploma finally arrived, it went up in flames in the fire last winter. In due time, another diploma was ordered. Yesterday morning, Roy Huffmyer went by the McCracken store and invited Standlee out for coffee.

They went over to the Savoy Cafe. President Carlos Turner of CJC, Mayor G. C. Rosenthal and several other college teachers and officials, plus a goodly collection of spectators, were there. Standlee's diploma was presented in proper ceremonies, presided over jointly by President Turner and Mayor Rosenthal.

And if you don't believe he's educated, he can show you his diploma.

WE'RE ASKED TO remind members of the Cisco Country Club that there will be a family night supper at the club house at 7 p. m. Friday (tonight). Members were asked to bring a dish of food and, if they like, some guests. Mrs. Ernest Lennon has three attractive kittens that need homes. Give her a call. The Dr. Jim Lawrence's, the Ralph Glenns and the Aaron Robinsons are spending the Labor Day weekend at Cloudford, New Mexico. Donna Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Byrd of Cisco, will appear on the Abilene TV program "Ann Harper's What's New" at 7 p. m. Friday (tonight).

RUMORS THAT the McCullough Tool Co. would close their Cisco branch are absolutely untrue and unfounded, we're advised. The Cisco branch of the McCullough Tool Co., located at 1112 Avenue D, will remain in our town and that's official.

Manager J. L. Northcutt of the local branch is moving to Abilene to open a new store for the company in about three weeks. His replacement will come here from Wichita Falls. The McCullough company has been in Cisco for over seven years and the firm has five local employees.

All of you will want to wish the Northcutts well as they leave to become residents of Abilene.

Mrs. Betty McMinn and granddaughter, Patsy of Abilene visited her sister, Mrs. J. H. Spoon, and other relatives in Cisco Thursday.

HOME IN A CASTLE—Few Americans live in a castle, but the family of Captain Henry M. Rodney, of Spokane, Wash., is one exception. For $150 a month they live in seven rooms in turreted Sommersdorf Castle, near Ansbach, Germany. Built in 1787, the castle is surrounded by a deep moat, left, with a clanking drawbridge to give admittance. At right, two of the Rodney youngsters row on the moat. The family must move out before winter, however, for there's no central heating.

Service Veterans Given Extension On College Dates

Service veterans, who under Public Law 550 were to have started their college programs by Aug. 20, 1954, now have one more year to start their work according to President Carlos Turner of Cisco Junior College.

The original law, passed in 1952, was amended by the 83rd Congress to move the "delimiting date" back one full year, Mr. Turner pointed out.

"By the terms of the law a veteran having eligibility under Title II, Public Law 550, may initiate a program of education or training thereunder not later than Aug. 20, 1954, or the date three years after his discharge or release from active service, whichever is earlier," according to the notice received from the Veterans Administration.

Previously the provision had read "two years after his discharge."

The amended law also provides that "no education or training benefits may be afforded any person thereunder beyond the date eight years following the end of the basic service period or the date eight years following his discharge or release from active duty, whichever is earlier."

Previously this provision had read "seven years" in both places. "The effect of this amendment is to give veterans another year to start work or until Aug. 20, 1955," Mr. Turner pointed out. "This will permit many veterans who delayed their decision for one reason or another to take advantage of the fine opportunity. We feel that many of them will."

Mrs. Turner pointed out that registration at CJC is set for September 7.

24 FHA GIRLS WORKED DURING SUMMER ON SPECIAL PROJECTS

Twenty-four members of the Cisco High School homemaking class worked on summer projects, completing them for a half credit in the course, it was reported by Mrs. O. O. Odum, homemaking teacher.

During the month of June the class went on field trips, carried on group projects, helped with the V. F. W. poppy sale and climaxed the month with camp party at Lake Cisco.

Field trips took the group to a ceramic plant in Eastland, the Boss Manufacturing Company plant in Cisco and the Coca Cola Bottling Company plant, Meads Bakery and Leddy's Boot Shop in Abilene.

As their group projects the girls made leather purses, bags, belts, billfolds, moccasins, hand carved jewelry boxes and aluminum trays.

At the camp party the group spent the night at the lake with Mrs. Odum and Mrs. Arlin Bint as the sponsors.

VA PROVIDES INFORMATION FOR VETS ENTERING SCHOOL IN FALL

A check-list for veterans planning to go to school this fall under the Korea GI Bill was issued today by the Veterans Administration.

The first item is the choice of a goal, and of a training program that will lead to the goal. VA explained that since the law allows a veteran only one change of program, he should make sure he chooses the correct program.

The second item is for veterans who are not sure about their GI training goals. These veterans may request vocational counseling to help them make a decision about training by checking the appropriate space on their applications. Since counseling takes time, veterans who wish help should apply well in advance of their cut-off dates.

The third point is to be certain the course under consideration has been approved for Korea GI training by the state in which the school is located. The VA Regional Office has this information. It is not available in Washington, D. C.

Fourth on the check-list is a suggestion to complete arrangements for admittance to the school of choice before filing application with VA. Veterans must know beforehand whether they can meet admission requirements.

The fifth and sixth points urge veterans to fill out applications completely and send them to VA as soon as possible. Each application must be accompanied by a photostat or certified copy of the veteran's separation paper. Documents should be sent to the nearest VA Regional Office and not to Washington, D. C.

Veterans with dependents should have necessary proof ready when VA requests it. For a wife, this would mean a photostat of the marriage certificate, and, for a child, a photostat of the birth certificate.

Finally, VA urged veterans to take along enough money of their own to tide them over the first two months of training. It takes that long, under the law, for a veteran's first GI allowance check to reach him.

Veterans who already have started training were reminded that they and their schools must submit the monthly certification of training to VA as soon as possible after the end of each month so VA may pay allowances.

Nazarene Church Homecoming Will Be Held Sunday

Invitations have gone out to all former members and pastors of the local Church of the Nazarene to attend the annual homecoming here Sunday.

Many members and former pastors have informed the committee of their intentions of attending the annual affair.

Former pastors, members who at one time attended the local church, special speakers and local talent will be on the program at different times during the day, it was reported.

Dinner will be served on the church lawn with the local members serving as hosts. Everyone was invited to attend.

Sunday school will begin at 9:45 a. m. and the morning worship service will begin at 11 o'clock. The afternoon service will be held at 2 p. m. and the evening worship at 7:30 p. m. The N.Y.P.S. will meet at 8:45 p. m. The memorial roll will be read at the morning service.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Funk and children, Marshall and Sandy, of Dallas spent the weekend in Cisco in the home of Mrs. Funk's mother, Mrs. M. E. Goldberg, and with her sister, Mrs. Charles Sandler and husband.

Auto Insurance Problems Listed In Rotary Talk

Clinto Montgomery, claims attorney for the Commercial Standard Insurance Company of Fort Worth, told members of the Cisco Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon held at the Victor Hotel at noon Thursday, that in order to reduce automobile insurance rates the number of accidents must also be reduced below present levels and jury verdicts and settlements must be held to fair and reasonable amounts.

"Insurance rates for bodily injury," Mr. Montgomery said, "are made up of (1) the frequency of accidents; (2) the severity of injuries; and (3) the size of jury verdicts and the size of settlements which are based upon the jury verdicts."

Mr. Montgomery added, "The motor vehicle code violator seems to be set apart by the public in a class by himself. The General Public, as well as some lower court judges, look upon him as an offender who merely contributes to the motor vehicle code violation records — records of death and injury in the state — and needs only to be as lightly punished as possible; as a contributor to the City and County treasuries throughout the state, must not be made to see the error of his ways. He is an offender, not a culprit, and he helps to provide the millions of dollars which accumulate in the courts from motor vehicle violation cases each year. So with no stern hand laid against him, merely a slight withdrawal from his bank account, he goes on his way and offends again."

The claims attorney said, "We must stop making light of motor vehicle violations. If Texas is to be taken off the spot as one of the worst States in the Nation from the standpoint of danger on the highways, justice must be handed out by all of our courts. This means that the defendant of the future in a motor vehicle violation case will know that if found guilty, or if he pleads guilty, he will receive punishment that will not only deter him in his highway driving, but will serve as an example to all others in the State."

Mr. Montgomery is a resident of Fort Worth and has been associated with the insurance industry for several years. E. J. Poe, program chairman, arranged the program.

Visitors at the meeting were Rotarians Marcial Moore, A. B. Youngblood, Henry Denning, Bob Gilchrist and Herbert Bilhartz of Abilene; John Cornell of Mineral Wells and Guy Parker of Eastland. Other visitors were Mrs. W. W. Fewell and C. E. Higginbotham of Cisco.

Mrs. Vada Louder of Lueders visited briefly Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Phama Travis, and other relatives.

Home Demonstration Agent Assumes Post

Miss Minnie Mae Billingsley, a recent graduate of North Texas State College, is the new Eastland County Home Demonstration Agent, according to an announcement this week. She took over the duties on September 1.

A native of Tuscola, Miss Billingsley grew up on a ranch and graduated from high school there. She majored in vocational home economics at NTSC.

DOING ALL RIGHT—James Henfage, nine, has come into a tidy inheritance in Louth, England, from a man he met only once. A distant cousin of James' grandfather willed the boy an estate worth $980,000, plus three villages and an Elizabethan mansion. It all goes into trust until he is 21.

Lions Hear Grid Coaches In Talks At Weekly Meet

Coach Jay Williams of Cisco High School and Coach Red Lewis of Cisco Junior College were the program speakers at the weekly meeting of Lions Club at noon Wednesday at the Victor Hotel Coffee Shop. Carlos Turner was in charge of the program.

The grid coaches discussed the outlook for the coming season, noting that it was a little early to anticipate their strength. Assistant Coach Charles Williams of the high school was introduced.

Paul Brashear was initiated as a new member of the club. Band Director Harold Thomas was a guest. Miss Carlene Holder was acting club sweetheart for the day.

Motorists Urged To Use Caution

Monday, Sept. 6, — Labor Day — will be observed as a full holiday by virtually all public institutions and private business firms of the Cisco area, according to a survey conducted today. The holiday is one of six planned by Cisco business firms for the year.

City schools will not hold classes on Monday to give students and teachers a holiday. The U. S. Post Office here will operate on a regular Sunday or holiday schedule, according to Acting Postmaster J. J. Porter.

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal has announced that city offices would be closed, and County Judge John Hart reported that the courthouse would remain closed all day Monday.

In the absence of planned activities, most Cisco holiday observers likely will either leave town for the weekend or have a quiet holiday at home. Labor Day usually marks the end of summer vacation season.

Highway patrolmen, anticipating heavy travel, have issued a warning to all motorists to drive with caution. Several hundred deaths have been forecast for the state and nation over the holiday weekend in traffic accidents.

After Labor Day, the city has two holidays left on the calendar for the year — Thanksgiving Day on November 25 and Christmas Day on December 25.

DISTRICT SEMINAR

Little League Fans Invited To Meeting Tonight

Little League fans and business men of the community were reminded of a meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the community room of the First National Bank for the purpose of reorganizing the Little League program.

Everyone was invited to attend the meeting, at which time the officers and directors for the coming year will be named. Plans call for the organization of a Little League Committee to handle the details of future play. The ABC Club, originator of the program for Cisco, voted at the last meeting to hand over the program to a special committee.

Also to be discussed tonight will be plans for a new Little League park.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sandler left today for a vacation in Oklahoma City, Lawrence, Kansas, and the Ozark mountains.

Mrs. W. L. Darr, district deputy grand chief, made her official visit to the Abilene Temple No. 44 of the Order of Pythian Sisters in Abilene Thursday evening. She was accompanied to Abilene by her husband, W. L. Darr, and Mrs. F. C. Williamson, Mrs. Crabb, Mrs. Grissam, Mrs. Nichols, and Mrs. Campbell, all of Eastland.

Mr. and Mrs. Vol Latson of San Diego, California, are visiting in the home of her father and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Maner and daughter, Gail, of Sweetwater are visiting in the home of his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Maner.

WHAT'S THIS?—West African beauties wear their nails long, if one can judge by this rare pangolin brought back from Spanish Guinea by George Wyman Carroll. A mammal with a reptilian body, the pangolin can pull a five-inch log apart with those claws. Shown at a zoo near Columbia, N. J., its six-foot body is covered with matted hair scales that stick out like blades when it curls all 80 pounds of itself into a ball.

FOOTBALL RADIO ANNOUNCERS STUDY FOR OPENING OF PLAY

Do you know the difference between the "split" or "sliding" T-formation and the "standard" or "Bear" T-formation? Last week Southwest Conference football announcers attended a unique school in San Antonio to refresh themselves on how to simply and expertly explain these formations and many others to football fans listening to games on the radio.

Little Jobs or Big Jobs. It makes no difference. We are equipped to handle them - and handle them better. If you need Extra shelves - a bookcase - furniture - cabinets or other built-ins for your home or business - head coach Ed Price and his staff of assistants and Kern Tips, who heads Humble's announcing staff. "The main purpose of the school," Tips said, "was to get back to the fundamentals of football. We just wanted to review all rule changes and basic football plays to try and make our broadcasts more interesting."

Attending the school besides Tips were Alec Chessner of Houston; Ves Box, Eddie Barker and Jerry Doggett of Dallas; Bob Walker of Waco; Dave Russell of Beaumont and John Ferguson of Baton Rouge. Coach Price and his assistants diagramed and explained many basic formations and plays used both offensively and defensively. Later his staff carefully explained variations in the plays and some complicated formations sometimes used during games.

After Coach Price's explanation of football tactics, Kern Tips reviewed practices used in broadcasts of the games. "Never editorialize, just report what is happening and remember, teams are penalized, not individuals, even though the foul may be personal," Tips told the announcers. "And," he added, "always remember to emphasize team play. No one player makes the touchdown. He couldn't do it if the whole team didn't play together."

As a part of the school the announcers attended the Southwest Football Officials Association meeting. During the meeting all rule changes for the season were carefully explained. This year Humble will bring 54 separate broadcasts of Southwest Conference games into hundreds of thousands of Texas living rooms. Announcers and broadcast crews will travel to such distant points as Los Angeles, California and Athens, Georgia, to bring first hand reports of the games to Texans. This involves a lot of travel. For instance, last season Humble announcers traveled some 148,000 miles to broadcast Southwest Conference games.

And these announcers really work. As an example, Kern Tips broadcasts 13 games a season. The games average some 2 3/4 hours in length or a total of about 29 3/4 hours. Since Tips talks about 150 words a minute, he speaks some 264,250 words during a football season - and they all come out of his head, not one is read from a script.

IN A HUDDLE—Some snow-white pelicans appear to be discussing life in general at the London Zoo. They're among the younger set there and it might well be they're talking over the size of their beaks and fluffiness of their dazzling feathers.

VERY EARLY START—At two weeks of age, tiny Edward Alvin Williamson has developed his own system of crawling in Cleveland, O. The photos show, top to bottom, how the tot flattens out and takes a low look at his destination; then he warms up and grabs a toehold before kicking out and getting under way. Doctors say he's about four months ahead of normal crawlers.

YOUNG IN ART—Six-year-old Jean Carlyle, and her brother, Robert, seven, are shown arriving at a playground in London, England, where they exhibited their paintings in a children's art show. Jean's painting is the portrait of a playmate and Robert's is a rocket arriving at the moon.

How Often Have I Wondered -

... why so many other people get along better than I. Ever have that feeling? If so, it's time for us to do a little soul-searching together. If we are day-dreaming or drifting along aimlessly without thought or reason, let's stop and about face. Let's begin to do things wisely. Let's guard against buying property with faulty titles. Investing in good titles is a sure way to get along better financially - better than those who don't. I will if you will!

NICE GOING—No wonder that German correspondent was fascinated by what looks like an Indian rope trick with a heavy chain in Murnau, Bavaria. The links were welded together by a GI in his fifth week of training in the U. S. Army's Engineering School there, and it wasn't an easy stunt to do.

Changes Made In Revenue Service Executive Staff

DALLAS, Sept. 3.—Three important changes of executive personnel in the national office of the Internal Revenue Service at Washington have been announced District Director Ellis Campbell, Jr. of the Dallas District Office of the agency said today.

Commissioner T. Coleman Andrews has appointed Paul K. Webster, former president of the California Society of Certified Public Accountants and veteran practitioner in that field, as Assistant Commissioner of Internal Revenue in charge of operations effective September 27, Mr. Campbell said.

Justin F. Winkle, who presently holds this office, will become Assistant Commissioner in charge of research and planning, succeeding Dr. Thomas C. Atkeson, who is leaving government service to head the newly established school of taxation at the College of William and Mary.

Harry J. Trainor has been named Assistant Commissioner in charge of the agency's inspection division, in which post he has served in an acting capacity since July 1, 1953. ## Children Enjoy Better Health Than Ever Before America's children returning to school this fall are enjoying better health than ever before in the country's history, statisticians for a life insurance Company reported from a study of prevailing mortality.

 Extraordinary gains have been made over the past 20 years in reducing mortality at the school ages. In the experience of the insurance company's industrial policyholders at ages 5 to 14 years, the death rate for boys dropped nearly two thirds, from 158 to 57 per 100,000 between 1933 and 1935, and the rate for girls has declined even more sharply, from 126 to 37 per 100,000. In each sex decreases of 85 percent or more were recorded over the 20-year period in the death rates for a number of diseases, including the principal communicable diseases of childhood, appendicitis, pneumonia and influenza, and tuberculosis.
 Despite this progress, there are still about 15,000 deaths among children at school ages in the general population of the United States, and a considerable part of the loss of life is amenable to control, according to the statisticians.

Accidents are the greatest single menace to child life, accounting for more than two fifths of the total mortality among boys, and for more than one quarter of the mortality among girls. Second in rank as a cause of death are the cancers, which twenty years ago were a minor cause of death at the school ages. The leukemias account for nearly a half of all the deaths attributed to malignancy among school-age children.

Although spectacular progress has been made in the control of the infectious diseases, they are still responsible for an appreciable loss of life among children. Pneumonia and influenza, and acute poliomyelitis continue to be among the leading killers at ages 5 to 14, but the death toll from these diseases varies from year to year with their prevalence and virulence.

Much can be done, according to the statisticians, to bring about further reductions in childhood mortality, and also to aid the millions of youngsters handicapped by orthopedic defects, impaired sight or hearing, rheumatic fever, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, or emotional disturbance.

"Large numbers of these children, through treatment and education, can be rehabilitated to become useful and productive citizens," the statisticians comment.
