The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

FOR SEVERAL years now, we've figured that Mr. J. M. Cooper, the farm agent of our county, was a top operator in his field. His work is high quality in all respects and every farmer and rancher of our county respects his judgment and ability. The National Association of Agricultural Agents recently nominated Mr. Cooper as one of six agents of the United States to receive their coveted Distinguished Service Award. Handsome plaques that accompany the award will be presented to the farm agents at the association's national convention in Salt Lake City, Utah, on October 10-14.

As an expression of the pleasure over his selection for the award, the Eastland County Commissioners' Court last week went on record as being highly pleased and proud of Mr. Cooper's work. And they voted to send him to the Utah meeting.

As an observer of the agent's work, we'd say that Mr. Cooper's most notable accomplishments have been in the field of boys' and girls' club work. Thousands of youngsters have gone through the 4-H Club program during his some 10 years in the county. Several hundred are enrolled in the program today.

Mr. Cooper can take much pride in the knowledge that many young people are better citizens as a result of his leadership during the years. Our county is fortunate to have a man of his ability.

CHAIRMAN COOPER, who is making arrangements, and President A. Z. Myrick are due a bouquet for the way they're setting things up for the annual Eastland County Farm Bureau barbecue next Saturday night at the City Park in Eastland.

Tickets cost adults 50 cents each. And children under 12 get in free if they're accompanied by their parents. In other words, a man with six children could take his wife and family for only $1. Where else could you feed so many on so little.

We have four extra tickets for sale at 50 cents each. And Mr. Myrick has a pocket full.

YOU CAN WISH "happy birthday" this week to a good many Ciscoans, including the following: Sept. 5 — J. D. Yowell, Mrs. J. T. Elliott and Mrs. E. E. Addy, Jr.

Sept. 6 — Robert Kamon, Marshall Jones, Alpha J. Elder, Glenda Hughes, and Mrs. Grady James.

Sept. 7 — Bob Fletcher and Mrs. W. F. Hunterman.

Sept. 8 — W. Z. Latch and Mrs. C. E. Whitaker.

Sept. 9 — Mrs. Betty Green.

Sept. 10 — Mrs. G. W. Travis and Mrs. W. D. Scarlett.

Sept. 11 — Rodney Gorman and Thomas Earl Stephens.

Among those celebrating wedding anniversaries are Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Brown, Sept. 7.

MR. PAT FEE, who recently came home after a tour of some three years with the U. S. Navy, was given a surprise farewell party Friday night. He leaves for San Diego, Calif., to enter college. . . Soldier Sonny Bosworth departs shortly for a 30-month stretch of duty in North Africa, according to reports. . . Mr. Hal Lavery, the city secretary, is on vacation. . . A card from the George Irvins says to stop their paper from going to Colorado. Guess they'll be pulling home with a load of those big mountain trout any day now.

CHRISTMAS DAY falls on Saturday this year. . . A postcard asks if it isn't about time for us to guess how the Southwest Conference will come out. We pick them to finish as follows: (1) Texas, (2) Baylor, (3) Rice, (4) SMU, (5) Texas A&M, (6) Arkansas and (7) TCU. Don't be surprised if Texas A&M proves to be a sleeper. Their new coach, some dandy junior college transfers and some fine squadmen might be better than a lot of folks think.

WEST WARD P-TA WILL BEGIN COURSES OF STUDY THIS WEEK

The West Ward Parent-Teacher Association has again reminded people of Cisco of the availability of special study courses sponsored by the association for the community.

The Red Cross Home Nursing Course is scheduled to begin Wednesday, September 8, at 9 a. m. at the home of Mrs. D. N. Morrison, 1209 Bliss. Mrs. Bill Tucker, a trained instructor of Ranger, will be in charge of the course. Everyone was invited to attend the class, but advance registration in the nursing course was requested.

The child guidance course will begin at 9 a. m. September 9 at the community room of the First National Bank. Several local women will have a part in the lectures and study. Everyone was invited to attend. No advance registration is required. At 1 p. m. on September 9 at the community room of the bank Mrs. Fleet Shepherd will begin her course in interior decorating. Everyone was invited to attend this class without advance registration.

The home nursing course will prepare those who complete it to help in case of disaster in the community, but will not compel them to do so, it was reported.

In the event the demand is sufficient, or there are those who wish to take more than one course, classes will be rescheduled for a later date.

MORRISON ELECTED PRESIDENT LITTLE LEAGUE ORGANIZATION

D. N. Morrison was elected president of the new Little League organization at the organization meeting at the First National Bank Friday night.

Elected to serve with Morrison were E. H. Cheves, vice-president and Mrs. M. W. Cotton, secretary-treasurer. Elected to the board of directors were Bill Pope, W. B. Cates, J. D. White, L. E. Sublett, M. W. Cotton and E. L. Jackson.

Following the election of officers a discussion on a new park was held and President Morrison appointed L. E. Sublett and W. B. Cates to the committee to seek a suitable location.

It was decided at the meeting to open the Little League organization to every man and woman in the community. Plans are to sell 1,000 voting memberships in the organization with the annual dues to be $2.50. Membership cards have been ordered and will go on sale soon.

The money derived from the membership dues will be used in the building of the park and financing the program.

Another meeting will be held at the bank Thursday, September 9, at 7:30 p. m., and everyone was invited to attend.

At the meeting it was announced that several Little Leaguers and Teenage Leaguers had not turned in their uniforms. All players who still have uniforms were asked to turn them in to their managers as soon as possible.

1954 Football Season To Open With 2 Games Here This Week

Things were beginning to take shape in all local football camps as the Cisco High School Lobos and the Cisco Junior College Wranglers entered the final week of practice before opening the 1954 season here Friday and Saturday nights.

The coaches were busy trying out boys at various positions to determine the best working teams and working out plays best suited for the boys they have.

At the Lobo camp the team had been worked down to two groups — the probable traveling squad and the "B" team. Coaches Jay Williams, Charles Williams and Lynn Glass had just about decided on the following boys as their best bet for the traveling squad: Ends Bill Smith, Johnny Trigg, Tommy Collier, Jerry Weiser and Jim Branton; Tackles Edward Bernie, Lavere Adams, Carrol Thames and Kenneth Penn; Guards Joe Farrow, Arzell Hale, Tex Meier, and J. Frank Walton; Centers Ronnie Qualls and Robert Fletcher and Backs Tommy Reynolds, Harold Gilpen, Marcus Gallegos, Joe Gilmore, Benji Lipsey, Buck Whitehead, Freddy Hayes, David Ewell and John Carlile.

The Lobos open their season Friday night at Chesley Field with their arch-rivals, The Eastland Mavericks. Tickets will go on sale early in the week with the places announced Tuesday.

The Wranglers open their season Saturday night at Chesley Field when they meet the Hardin-Simmons Freshmen. Tickets for that game will also go on sale early this week.

The Wranglers will probably be a little stronger than last season as the squad has more good running backs. The line will also show some improvement as most of the players are veterans from last year's squad. They have added weight and a year of college experience.

Ten of the original 43 boys reporting for practice at Cisco Junior College Wednesday have been either dropped from the squad or left of their own accord, it was reported by Coach Red Lewis.

Two other athletes were added to the group Saturday to bring the number on the squad now to 35. Added to the team Saturday were Don Carpenter of Birdville, and Gene Tankersley of Grandbury, both outstanding high school ends. Tankersley is also a top track prospect.

Dropped from the squad were Burton Owen and Howard Spivey (Turn To Page Four)

CofC Directorate To Meet Tuesday

Directors of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting at noon Tuesday at the Victor Hotel Coffee Shop, President Anton White has announced. Routine business matters will be discussed.

Three new directors — Zan Burroughs, C. W. Henry and R. J. Stevenson — will take office at the meeting. They were recently appointed to the board to fill vacancies caused by the resignations of O. L. Stamey, Coy Warren and Tom Wilson.

Mr. White asked all members of the board to be present for the meeting.

Success Of Farm Operator In Dry Area Is Reported

WEST POINT, Sept. 4. — Farmers hard-hit by dry weather this year, will be interested in learning how one Texas farmer managed to make 416 pounds of lint cotton per acre this year without a drop of irrigation and with only 3.25 inches of rain after his seed were in the ground.

The farmer is Clinton Harbers of West Point, Texas, in the Bastrop Fayette Soil Conservation District, and how he did it is told in the September issue of SOIL AND WATER magazine, now being mailed to landowners all over Texas.

Harbers' methods, as a series of articles in SOIL AND WATER have pointed out, involves no magic. Starting seven years ago and using unique legume-planting methods and other ideas he has worked out for himself, he has built up the fertility of his land and consequently the water-holding capacity to the point where it takes much less rain for him to make a crop.

Last year, with sub-normal rain but more than he got this year, Harbers made 750 pounds of lint per acre on his cotton land.

This year, with a real drought on his hands (he got only 6 inches of rain from January 1st right through his cotton season) he came out with 416 pounds of lint per acre, a phenomenal figure in a drought.

"There is no substitute or rain," Harber says, "but we can get by on a lot less than we ever dreamed."

SOIL AND WATER is a non-profit magazine published at Temple by the landowners of Texas through Texas Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors.

SURVEY OF AREA CITIES SHOWS PARKING METERS HERE TO STAY

Collections from the Cisco parking meters, amounting to about $500 per month, is in line with the average receipts from similar sources in neighboring cities, according to a survey made last week by Mayor G. C. Rosenthal.

Mr. Rosenthal wrote letters to Breckenridge, Graham, Eastland, Stephenville, Ranger, Stamford, Haskell, Mineral Wells and Weatherford.

Cisco has about 225 parking meters. For the past three months, collections have been as follows: June, $437.52; July $472.08; and, August, $576.62. In Cisco, violators of parking regulations are fined 25 cents if they report to the city hall within a hour or two after a ticket has been issued. At Breckenridge, there are 400 meters that bring in an average of $385 weekly. Fines for violations are similar to those in Cisco, and there is no thought of removing the meters and there has never been an election on the subject.

Ranger has 238 meters that bring in $150 weekly. They, too, levy fines similar to Cisco and have no idea of removing the meters. Graham has 250 meters and collections have averaged $210 per week. Parking fines average about $65 monthly. Haskell wrote that "we have no meters and are not considering them."

At Weatherford, the 470 meters bring in $425 per week. Parking fines average another $155 per month. If you get a ticket and report within an hour, your fine is 25 cents. After that, it's $2. They charge you $13.25 if you have to be summoned. Weatherford has held one election on parking meters and 75% of the people voted to keep them.

Stamford's 250 meters bring in about $125 per week, and they have held no elections on the subject. At Eastland, a total of 265 meters brought in $6,800 in the past 10 months. Fines average $150 monthly, and the fines are similar to Cisco's. They've held no elections.

In Cisco, the meters were installed in August, 1949, at a cost of $21,918. This has been paid off in full with the manufacturer getting half of the receipts as payments on account. The final payment was made this month.

The city's half of the receipts from parking meters has brought over $13,000 worth of equipment for the street department and has enabled the city to purchase tax bonds ahead of maturity schedule.

An election on whether the parking meters will be removed is scheduled here September 25. A similar election several years ago resulted in a substantial majority in favor of keeping the parking meters.

Boosters Club To Hold First Meet Of New Season

The Cisco Boosters Club will hold its first meeting of the new school year Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at the high school building, it was announced by President Bob Latson.

All members were urged to attend to help in the discussion of plans for the coming football season which opens Friday night.

Plans call for an extensive membership campaign and for other projects which call for the cooperation of all members.

At the Tuesday meeting assignments for the Friday and Saturday games will be made, and the coaches will tell of their prospects for the new season.

The club will again film some of the high school and college games for the use of the coaches in their training program, and for showing at future club meetings.

New Fabric Shop To Open Tuesday

A new fabric shop will open at 710 Avenue E Tuesday, September 7, at 8:30 a. m. it was announced Saturday by Mrs. C. C. Phippen and Mrs. W. E. Dean, owners.

The shop has been named "The Cotton Shop," and it will feature the latest in cotton materials. Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Phippen returned Friday night from a trip to the Dallas market where they purchased the remainder of their stock.

The new shop is located at the old Gift House location, and Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Phippen invited their friends in the area to visit there.

Another service of the new shop is custom made shirts and blouses.

Customers may select materials and patterns and the blouses or shirts will be made in the shop. They also plan to do alterations and clothing repairs.

VISITING STAR—Dressed for her stage role in a musical version of "Peter Pan" in Los Angeles, actress Mary Martin visited a local polo ward. Young Lee Munsel, center, and Charles Wilson seem to like the attention they're getting. Mary visited them in the interests of the emergency March of Dimes drive. She'll open her show on Broadway next month.

Prospects Bright For School Year

Plans are complete to begin registration for the fall term at Cisco Junior College on Tuesday, September 7, at 9:30 a. m., according to a report by President Carlos J. Turner.

Mr. Turner said that provisions have been made to begin classes in available space until the new administration building is completed. He said that the class rooms would be comfortable and that much new equipment had been added.

The college has unusually good accommodations for the music department this year in the new music hall just completed. Adequate practice space has been provided, and classrooms and a small auditorium complete the department. The music hall will also be used to house the English department until the new building is completed.

Prospects are bright for an over-all increase in enrollment this term. Inquiries have been coming in better than ever before, and the interest is increasing as enrollment time approaches.

Korean veterans may enroll in either day or night classes, but should process enrollment papers as early as possible in order to assure prompt payment of subsistence, Turner said.

Busses will transport students to the school each day from Eastland, Carbon, May, Owens and Rising Star.

Mr. Turner said that persons interested in attending night classes at the school should contact the registrars office as soon as possible and specify classes desired so that the necessary arrangements can be made. Night classes will be available to veterans and others, and Turner pointed out that officials of the school were anxious to serve the community in every way possible.

The Hardin-Simmons University extension division has been contacted by the Cisco college on the possibility of serving veterans who have already completed their work at Cisco Junior College. The Abilene school will also offer courses to teachers of the area, if the demand is sufficient. Complete details of the plans in connection with Hardin-Simmons will be announced after the college opens for the 1954-55 term.

Jack Chambliss, head of the music department of the school, said that prospects for a fine choir and music department were good. He said the school had already received requests from area communities for programs later in the year.

Much work has been done on other campus buildings. The boys dormitory received a complete face lifting. Walls were painted and new furniture purchased. The cafeteria received new equipment and was partially repaired.

It was believed, Mr. Turner said, that the new classroom building would be completed and in use by November 1.

SPORTSMEN ARE URGED TO USE CAUTION DURING FALL SEASON

AUSTIN, Sept. 4. — The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission cautioned Texas sportsmen against blighting the fall hunting sport by carelessness with firearms.

He said safety forces have been reducing the casualty toll in recent years, particularly in Texas in the last two years, but added that as long as loaded guns are taken into the field the hazard exists.

The Executive Secretary said deaths from firearms during the fall game harvest has been cut from thirty-two in 1951 to nineteen for both 1953 and 1952.

He pointed out that in addition to the nineteen fatal accidents from firearms reported to the Commission in 1953, there were six fatalities to duck hunters through drowning.

It was considered significant that twelve of the nineteen casualties listed for last fall, were NOT caused by the victim. In other words, the fatal accidents were from guns held by someone else.

Of the self-inflicted wounds that proved fatal, according to the Executive Secretary, most of them were from the causes "as old as man." Leading reasons given for the hunter's accidentally killing themselves included: crawling under a fence; taking loaded gun from automobile, pulling gun toward self, muzzle first. "It is urgent," he said, "that everyone treat a loaded gun with the utmost care. The hunters simply have to realize that the shotgun, which is the most common of the harvest weapons, is deadly when fired at close range."

He also cautioned hunters to be careful about keeping the gun barrels clear of foreign obstacles since earth and other obstructions often times cause guns to explode when fired, but concluded: "Hunting is as safe as any sport when done with reasonable care."

Letters

Fort Worth Mr. Editor:

So the election is over and for two more years we don't have to get mad at each other.

Meanwhile, what gives with Mac Cheshire? Has the old reactionary lost his interest in public affairs? Why don't we see his letters in the papers any more?

The heat here has been too much even for the Johnson grass. On the other hand a traveler returns from San Francisco to say she nearly froze in the foggy chill out there. Unusually damp and cold summer on the bay, she says. With the aid of irrigation, we did raise plenty of corn and small watermelons. Our neighbor eats the melons seeds and all. I don't know what to think of a man too lazy to spit out watermelon seeds. Half the fun of eating melon is to see how many seeds you can make stick on the ceiling.

We waste too much money and energy with our elections. All state, county and city elective terms should be for four years. We could rotate the time of election; for instance, the city officials might run in 1955, the county officials half in 1956 and half in 1957, and state officials half in 1957 and half in 1958; then repeat four years later. Give a man four years to show for sure whether he's a crook.

What ever went on with Cisco's and Denton's salt-paving plans? Am I going to have to drive in this 150-degree heat to find out?

By the way, I wish it were possible for Mr. Cheshire to attend one of our union meetings. He'd be amazed how democratic we are. Other day we had four motions and three amendments working at once. We sure gave it a good talking over. After the situation got hopelessly confused, we all went home while the presiding officer was still arguing parliamentary procedure with one of the directors. Everyone thought he was the only one who understood the whole business. What could be more democratic than that?

Sincerely "Grassy" P. S. If the Yankees win this year, I'm through with baseball.

A RESOLUTION ORDERING AN ELECTION SEPTEMBER 25th, 1954, TO ALLOW QUALIFIED VOTERS TO VOTE ON A SPECIAL ISSUE "FOR THE REMOVAL OF PARKING METERS" OR "AGAINST THE REMOVAL OF PARKING METERS."

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF CISCO, TEXAS,

That an election shall be held on the fourth Saturday in September, 1954, same being the 25th day of September, 1954, at which time the qualified voters of the City of Cisco will vote on this special issue — FOR or AGAINST THE REMOVAL OF PARKING METERS.

Passed, Approved and Adopted this the 24th day of August, 1954. /s/ J. W. Sitton Mayor Protem

(f) That the fact the present charter of said City of Cisco is inadequate and the importance of the proposed ordinance creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity for the suspension of the rules requiring ordinances to be read on more than one day and for the immediate taking effect of this ordinance such rules are hereby suspended and it is ordered that this ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval.

McMurry College Opens Sept. 7th For 32nd Session

ABILENE, Sept. 4. — McMurry College, sponsored by the Methodist churches of Northwest Texas and New Mexico, will open its 32nd annual school session Sept. 7, the day set for freshman registration.

Prospects at McMurry are good for a 10 per cent increase in over-all student enrollment this fall, according to Jerome Vannoy, registrar.

"Advance enrollment and dormitory reservations indicate that McMurry's student body will number well above 600 young men and women this fall," Vannoy said.

"At present, we have already received far more application blanks from new students than we had at this time last year, and 1953 itself was a peak year for freshman enrollment."

McMurry's freshman class last year showed a 30 per cent increase over the first-year students of the previous year, and Vannoy predicted a similar increase this year.

McMurry will add four new faculty members to its instructional staff this fall, and welcome another back from a year's leave of absence.

Three of the new professors are Mrs. Mildred Krejci, associate professor of biology; Carolyn Crider, assistant professor of women's physical education; and Joe Burk, assistant coach and assistant professor of men's physical education.

A new associate professor of art will also be added to the faculty, according to Dr. Harold G. Cooke, McMurry president.

Dr. W. Norton Jones Jr., head of McMurry's chemistry department since 1948, will return this fall after a year's study at the University of California on a Ford Foundation fellowship.

Night classes in intermediate and advanced accounting will be taught at McMurry by Howard Wilkins, associate professor of accounting and Certified Public Accountant. These courses are primarily for the benefit of business interests in Abilene and the surrounding area, Dr. Cooke said.

A new course in Latin has been added to the curriculum at McMurry for the coming year, as a result of student requests.

In the five instructional divisions of McMurry, more than 200 different courses are offered, according to listings in the college catalog. Eighty-one correspondence courses are available through the college's Extension Department.

After freshman registration on Sept. 7, the upperclassmen will register Sept. 10. Classes begin Sept. 13 at McMurry College.

Weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Latch are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart and baby of Levelland, Leonard Latch and family of Lubbock, Paul Latch and family of Sundown, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carey of Dallas, and Van Hill Latch, recently returned from Korea.

Coaches Lewis and Stephenson were well pleased with most of the boys on the squad and were looking forward to fielding a fine first team. They will probably need to develop depth in some of the positions, they said, before the opening game Saturday night. They were expecting additional players to report when registration begins Tuesday.

A-G Motor Co.
To Hold Mobile Clinic This Week

The public was invited to attend a Mobile Reconditioning Clinic to be held at A-G Motor Company this week, Tuesday through Friday, according to A. D. Anderson, manager of the firm.

The reconditioning clinic was arranged by the Chevrolet Motor Division as a means of showing the public the methods used in preparing used cars for the market. The unit which will be in Cisco is in charge of R. L. (Dick) Thackerson who is especially trained for the work.

Dealers from Eastland, Breckenridge, Ranger and Gorman will participate with A-G Motor Company in the holding of the clinic here. During the clinic several cars will undergo a complete reconditioning similar to that used by the dealer before he puts the OK Used Car tag on a used automobile he has for sale.

Thackerson, who will be in charge of the unit, formerly worked for A-G Motor Company in Cisco. He left the firm over a year ago to begin training for his present job with the Chevrolet company. He is one of three former A-G Motor Company employees who are now in responsible jobs with the motor firm. Bob Sanford is with the Chevrolet Company in the Dallas division and Blake Stephens is with the company in the El Paso division. All three started with the Cisco firm when they were in their teens.

Miss Anita Stroebel left Sunday for Seguin where she will enroll in the Texas Lutheran College. She was accompanied to Seguin by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stroebel, and her brother, Fred.
