Comanche Trail Scout Council Names Executive

Joe O. Galbraith of Dallas has been named executive of the Comanche Trail Council of the Boy Scouts of America and will begin duties here October 1. He replaces Guy N. Quirl who has accepted a position with the Last Frontier Scout Council at Oklahoma City.

Galbraith is currently serving as a district field man and as a publicity director in the Boy Scout program at Dallas.

A former Eagle Scout at Hillsboro, he has been a professional Scout leader some 17 years, having begun his career at Beaumont and Port Arthur. Galbraith's work with Boy Scouts has included duties at Roanoke, Va., San Angelo, Uvalde and Del Rio.

Scout officials also announced this week that Robert Mayer, 22, of La Grange, a summer graduate of Southwest Texas State College, San Marcos, has been employed as field executive for the North District of the Comanche Trail Council. He will begin duties Nov. 15, after attending the National Scout Training School at Mendham, N. J.

Mayer will live in Eastland and will serve Comanche, Erath, Eastland and Stephens counties.

FATE OF PARKING METERS AT STAKE IN SATURDAY ELECTION

The fate of the some 260 parking meters, including 80 in storage, will be at stake Saturday when voters of Cisco go to the polls in an election on the proposition of whether to remove or to keep the machines.

Another proposition on a separate ballot in Saturday's election will be that of whether or not the citizens of Cisco want the City Charter rewritten. The ballot will also contain a list of 15 names of men proposed as a Charter Commission in the event the proposition is approved.

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal reported today that "the parking meters are now ours — the final payment has been made."

The parking meters were installed in August, 1949, for the sum of $21,918. This was paid off this month. The company that installed them took half the weekly proceeds until the meters were paid for.

During the five years the meters have been in use, the city has used its half of the receipts to (1) buy a tractor-loader at a cost of $8,238, (2) buy a street grader costing $5,334, (3) purchased several thousand dollars worth of city tax and revenue bonds at dis-

MIDGETS BATTLE COMANCHE TO SCORELESS TIE IN GRID GAME

Neither team could muster sufficient offensive strength for a win Tuesday night at Chesley Field as the Cisco Junior High School Midgets and the Comanche Junior High School Paposes fought to a 0-0 deadlock in their conference contest, the first of the season for both teams.

Both Comanche and Cisco fielded heavy teams for junior high competition, but the visitors had a slight advantage over the home club.

The Midgets looked sharp on defense but appeared a little weak on blocking. On several occasions the heavy and fleet footed backs would have gone all the way with a little blocking aid. The defensive play of the ends and linebackers was particularly good.

The Paposes also were sharp on defense, but a little weak in the blocking department.

Cisco won the toss and elected to receive. Benton Porter took the opening kick on the Midget 30 and returned it to the 41. Runs by the Bostick twins, Porter and Quarterback Johnny Choate carried to the Comanche 41 where they failed on a fourth down try and the ball went over. Comanche carried to the Cisco 46 and lost the ball at that point on a fumble. The Midgets took over and worked to the Comanche 28 where they returned the favor and gave the ball to Comanche on a fumble as the first quarter ended.

The Paposes worked the ball back to Cisco territory, but were forced to kick on the 46. Following the kick Cisco put the ball in play on their own 39. Comanche held for downs and Cisco kicked to the visitors 44. Cisco held and Comanche was forced to kick. The ball went out of bounds on the Cisco 31. Comanche got possession of the ball on a pass interception and took possession on the Cisco 25. They worked the ball to the five where the Midget defense stiffened and held the visitors for downs. On the first play from scrimmage time ran out in the first half.

To begin the second half Cisco kicked to Comanche on the 15. The ball was brought out to the 24 where it was put in play. On three successive downs the Paposes lost ground to the nine and were forced to kick to the Midgets, who put the ball in play on the 18 yard line. Comanche held for downs and took the ball on the 12 yard line. On five plays they netted 11 yards but were held for a fourth and nine at the 29. Comanche kicked to midfield and on the first play Choate was trapped for a seven yard loss. Comanche held the Midgets on their own 43 and Choate kicked out as the third quarter ended. Comanche took the ball on their own 35 and on three plays netted five yards. They were stopped on a fourth down try and Cisco took over. On the series of plays Cisco lost two yards and were faced with fourth down and 12. On the attempted punt Comanche broke through and blocked the kick to wind up with the ball on the Midget 26. After a loss of several yards Comanche fumbled and Cisco recovered the ball on their own 46.

A pass and a long run put the ball deep in Comanche territory but time ran out with the Midgets knocking at the visitors door.

Seeing action for the Midgets were Billy Hammer, Gene Thetford, Johnny Richardson, John Adams, Jerry Slaughter, Billy Swindle, Joe Tom Johnson, Frank Farnsworth, Dickie Bennie, Johnny Choate, Robert Bostick, Ronnie Bostick, Rudy Archer, Delbert Schaefer, Benton Porter, Duane Hale and Wayne Brown.

Area Youth Wins A&M Scholarship

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 22. — Jimmy Dean Dye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graden Dye, Route 3, Cisco, has enrolled at Texas A. and M., one of more than 300 students currently attending the college on opportunity awards scholarships.

The scholarships are awarded each May, following competitive examinations given Texas high school seniors. The Cisco boy was notified in June that he had qualified.

Direct aid of from $200 to $400 plus a part time job is given each student each year under the plan. After that, he can renew such aid yearly until graduation, so long as he maintains a satisfactory college record.

More than 200 upperclassmen, previous winners of opportunity awards, are now at Texas A. and M. College.

The program was started at the college in 1946, with 16 boys. A goal of 100 scholarships a year for entering freshmen, set at that time, was realized with the beginning of this semester's work.

Funds for the scholarships come from private individuals, former students, alumni associations, corporations, and organizations interested in seeing above-average Texas boys get a chance at a college education.

Community Chest Directorate Adopts Tentative 1954 Budget

PAUL BRASHEAR IS APPOINTED AS MANAGER OF CISCO CofC

Paul Brashear, who was recently elected as a member of the Texas House of Representative from the 76th District, was appointed manager of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the organization's board of directors Tuesday night.

President Anton White reported that the appointment was on a temporary basis as Mr. Brashear will go to Austin in January for the 120-day legislative session.

Mr. Brashear took over the duties today after conferring with a committee of directors Wednesday morning. The committee was composed of James P. McCracken, J. L. Stafford and Gene Abbott.

A resident of Cisco for some three years, Mr. Brashear has been associated with his wife in the operation of Helen's Flower Shop. He is a native of Callahan County and has lived in Eastland County for many years. He spent several years as a soil conservation service technician at Rising Star before moving to Cisco.

Mr. Brashear is well known in Austin. He attended a business college there and was an employee of the Legislature during several sessions. He won the house seat in the recent second and primary election. The 76th district is composed of Eastland, Shackelford and Callahan Counties.

The post of Chamber of Commerce manager had been vacant for several months — since the resignation of B. A. Butler, who is now publisher of the Rising Star newspaper. Mr. Butler held the position 10 years.

Mr. Brashear said that he would spend a few days getting acquainted with the duties of the office. He expects to be in Abilene on Friday and Saturday to attend a short course for managers and secretaries under the auspices of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Peggy Gallagher, who has been office secretary at the Chamber of Commerce for several years, will continue in that capacity.

"You can be sure that I will work hard at the job and that I will endeavor to do a good job as manager of the Chamber of Commerce," Mr. Brashear said. "Although my appointment is temporary, I expect to do everything possible to serve our community in any way that a Chamber of Commerce official can serve."

"I will appreciate the suggestions of the public and the help of all our citizens in this work."

$8,730 Would Be Raised In Drive

A budget calling for $8,730 to provide working funds for 11 public supported agencies was tentatively adopted Tuesday afternoon as directors of the Cisco Community Chest held a special meeting, according to an announcement by the Rev. Sidney Spain, president.

The annual finance drive will be conducted here during October in connection with Community Chest campaigns throughout the nation, Rev. Spain said. The definite dates are due to be announced soon.

The 1954 budget, as prepared by the Budget Committee, provides for funds as follows:

Cisco Welfare Ass'n.	$1,500
ABC Club	1,000
Girl Scouts	1,000
Boy Scouts	1,000
USO	500
Heart Association	100
Cisco Hobby Club	250
Salvation Army	600
Cancer Society	730
American Red Cross	1,900
Gonzales Warm Springs	150
Total	$8,730

Rev. Spain pointed out that this year's budget provides about $300 less than the budget adopted last year, which lacked about $300 of being raised.

The Cisco Lions Club, which is scheduled to provide the leadership for this year's finance drive, was scheduled to study the project at a meeting Wednesday afternoon. In most instances, the 1954 budget provides the same amounts that were sought last year.

The Community Chest method of raising budget funds for public organizations has been used here for the past four years, Rev. Spain said. "Our people have come to appreciate the Community Chest plan of giving once for all as the best method," he added. "In this way, we eliminate a dozen drives during the year."

Rev. Spain asked all Cisco area residents to "begin thinking of this important proposition and be ready to help."

Season Is Closed On White Winged Doves Of Valley

AUSTIN, Sept. 22. — The Assistant Director of Wildlife Restoration for the Texas Game and Fish Commission believes that sparing the white-winged doves an open season this fall may help assure returning the fleet game birds to a substantial population status.

The whitewings, which are hunted mainly in the Rio Grande Valley, were protected this fall for the first time in several years after a dangerous population drop was detected.

The whitewings had been gradually slumping, according to the Assistant Director of Wildlife Restoration, and then got a knockout blow when a hurricane in late June destroyed from 80 to 90 per cent of the eggs and young whitewings in the deep South Texas nesting area.

"We know that under normal conditions," he said, "hunting pressure does NOT hurt the population. We can harvest at least 25 per cent of the population and still maintain a shootable number of birds. But, things are long ways from normal and every one that is killed cuts the whitewings' chances of regaining its former abundance."

"Last year when the hunt started, there were approximately 53,000 white-winged doves scattered over the hunting areas of the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Yet, even as scattered as they were, hunters killed over 37,000 or about 71 per cent of them during the three-day season."

"This year, if all the birds stayed in the Valley until the hunt and should happen to concentrate in one or two areas, look what could happen to them. The kill could be so great that the population could not recover. In this instance, hunting pressure could be 'the straw that broke the camel's back.'"

ENDORSEMENT IS GIVEN FIVE PROPOSED STATE AMENDMENTS

AUSTIN — The Board of Directors of the Texas Public Employees Association is giving its complete endorsement to the passage of Constitutional Amendments numbers 2, 3, 4, 5, and 8, Henry Rothell, TPEA president, announced today.

President Rothell said that the Texas Public Employees Association has worked diligently to correct the injustice resulting because many state employees and teachers, although they have not changed positions, are losing years of retirement credit by their positions being transferred from one system to the other.

Too, TPEA has long been an advocate of an increase in salary for both constitutional officers of our State and members of the Legislature, said Rothell.

The Board of Directors of TPEA also feels, continued Rothell, "that passage of Amendments Numbers 3, 4 and 8 will greatly increase the efficiency and stability of the government in Texas from the local through the state level."

"This endorsement of a few of the eleven amendments does not mean our Association is against the other amendments," cautioned Rothell. "We do feel the passage of these specific amendments to be so essential to the progress of our state government as to warrant our public endorsement."

Amendment No. 2 permits the interchange of retirement benefits between the State Employees Retirement and the Teachers' Retirement Systems.

Amendment No. 3 is to extend Social Security coverage to proprietary employees of local units of government.

Amendment No. 4 allows the use of the surplus of the Confederate Pension Fund for state buildings and historical memorials.

Amendment No. 5 provides that the legislature may fix salaries of the Governor and other constitutional officers; provides per diem of $25 for 120 days for members of the legislature.

Amendment No. 8 provides a four-year term of office for elective district, county and precinct officers.

Heavy Grazing Checks Growth of Grass Roots

When Deillah cropped Samson's locks, the Biblical hero lost his strength till his hair grew out again. The same thing happens to grasses, according to Crider of S.C.S. If you remove too much of the grass' top growth by grazing or mowing it closely, the roots will quit growing until the tops recover.

He found this true in testing both cool-season and warm-season grass species. Taking off half or more of the foliage during the growing season caused root growth to halt for a time after each clipping. An exception was orchardgrass after the first clipping. A single cutting that removed most of the foliage stopped root growth—usually within 24 hours—for periods ranging from 6 to 18 days. The root growth didn't resume till the top growth was well advanced. Repeating these severe clippings periodically, as in a system of rotation grazing, prevented root growth of all grasses for 25 to 45 days.

The percentage of roots that stopped growing varied with the amount of top that was taken off. With a single clipping of 50 percent of the foliage, 2 to 4 percent of the grass roots stopped growing for 14 days. After that, all the roots were growing again, and the plants were also producing some new roots. But removing 90 percent of the foliage halted root growth completely for 17 days, and 40 percent of the roots were still inactive at the conclusion of the 33-day experimental period.

But removing 40 percent or less of the foliage didn't halt root growth. And clipping parts of bunchgrass plants stopped root growth for only those parts. This characteristic would seem to make cattle's "patchy" grazing a desirable habit.

Crider believes the damage from repeated heavy clippings is significant in soil conservation and pasture management; reducing the top more than half upsets the functioning of the root system and the plant as a whole. Because of continuous suppression of aboveground growth, the grass can't replenish its food reserves. So the effects of root inactivity are lasting. The plant thus weakened is less able to resist erosion and grazing, as well as drought, cold and disease.

This is striking evidence that close grazing or mowing during the growing season—especially in periods of stress or in the late fall—may be practiced at the expense of stand establishment and maintenance.

Cheves Hostess Baptist Circle

Five of the First Baptist W. M. U. was held at the home of Mrs. E. Cheves with the president, Mrs. Pippen, in charge. C. E. Whitnire, W.M.U. opened the meeting with prayer. A short business session was held with routine business matters being transacted.

Mrs. Harry Schaefer gave the devotional from Luke 10 followed by the lesson by Mrs. Cheves from the last two chapters of the book, "Alcohol and Christian Responsibility."

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting to a visitor, Mrs. C. E. Whitnire, a new member, Mrs. Harold Thomas, and Mesdames A. B. Cooper, W. C. Clements, W. L. Hussey, Robert Greer, Lee McDonald, Roy Pippen, J. T. Richardson, C. W. Reed, Harry Schaefer, J. B. Sinton, and the hostess, Mrs. Cheves. The group was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Schaefer.

Michael Plemons Is Honored On Birthday

A birthday party honoring Michael Plemons on his fifth birthday was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bybee.

The Cowboy and Indian birthday cake and ice cream were served to David and Karen Taylor, Mary and Linda Spigall, Paula Schaefer, Linda Bybee, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Spigall, Jean Schaefer, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Plemons.

Weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Woodridge were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Smith and their daughter, Mrs. Allen Hunt and Carolen, and a friend, June Everett, all of Austin. Mr. Smith is a nephew of Mrs. Woodridge and is employed by the public schools in Austin.

Mrs. Dee Cobb has been dismissed from the Hendricks Memorial Hospital and is reported as slowly improving. She is staying with a daughter, Mrs. M. L. Greggs, at 1349 San Jose St. in Abilene.

SHE'S KIDDIN'—Thelma Pelish, left, shed those crocodile tears because she had lost the title of "Miss Pajamas" to Mary Stanton in a contest in Manhattan. The girls are appearing in the hit musical comedy, "Pajama Game," so they were likely candidates for the title even if Thelma did wear a nightie.

Local Club Women Attend Abilene Meet

The sixth district board meeting of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs was held in the Coca Cola Bottling Company building in Abilene Monday for the purpose of planning the work of departments, divisions, and committees for 1954-1955.

A business session was held in the morning where reports were heard and plans read. A luncheon was served at noon presided over by Mrs. T. H. Patton, safety chairman. The invocation was given by Mrs. W. C. Neal of Abilene.

Driver Education in Abilene High Schools was discussed by Shorty Lawson, driver-instructor for the Abilene schools. In his address to the group he told of the percentage of improvement in driving since the course was started. He stated that in all the years he has taught the course that only one of his driver graduates has had an accident.

J. Ross Kemp, Texas Highway Patrol safety officer, spoke to the group on driver education in the schools. He gave a resume of how it could be brought into high schools where it is not taught and stated that the American Automobile Association furnishes the dual control car for the driver education course.

A report on the General Federation Convention held in Colorado was heard and an in memoriam resolution was passed and sent to the family of Mrs. John J. Perry of Sweetwater who passed away recently.

Miss Eudora Hawkins spoke on conservation and Miss Ethel Foster, chairman of the program planning counsel of international clubs, General Federation of Women's Clubs, spoke on the work of international clubs.

At the close of the day the group was entertained with a Coke party given by Mrs. L. E. Dudley, state president, and Mrs. Hart Shoemaker, sixth district president.

Those attending from Cisco were Miss Marie Winston and Mrs. J. J. Porter of the Twentieth Century Club; Mrs. Rex Moore, Mrs. E. L. Jackson, and Mrs. Raby Miller, Mrs. Leo Clinton and Mrs. B. C. Huey of the Delphin Club; First Industrial Arts Club;

Miss Marie Winston, District Chairman of the Landmarks and Dwelling Division of the Texas Heritage Department; Mrs. Raby Miller, State Chairman Epsilon Sigma Omicron, a division of the Department of Education; and Mrs. B. S. Huey, District Chairman of Communications, are members of the board.
