The Gay Philosopher
By J. W. S.

THE ONLY THING wrong with the Cisco-Ranger football game was the score. The Bulldogs were the team and they'll go far in the state championship league this year if misfortune doesn't hurt them. The Bulldogs are the best high school football team we have in this season.

Everybody got a big laugh out of the half-time stunt of the Ranger band. They started marching and playing some pretty covers. A long, tall lad wearing a coveralls was walking around on the field, carrying a sign that said: "I'm a Lobo." He got in the way of the band. And suddenly all 40 or 50 members of the band ran toward him and surrounded him in a circle. In a moment, the lad reformed and marched away. There was no sign of the lad or his "I'm a Lobo" sign, except they just "lobbered" him. The half-time ceremony of the band was splendid. The boys were seated in Mr. Dickerson's handsome Chevrolet convertible for a ride around the field. A story on the coronation appears elsewhere in today's Press. Saw a lot of ex-Lobos stands. The Roy Killworths of Ozona were there.

The crowd was a little smaller than we had expected. About 30 people paid $1050 for admission. The Ranger delegation isn't as large as Colorado City's 3 weeks ago.

MET UP WITH Sgt. F. W. Warkman in town the other afternoon. He was en route from Augusta, Ga., to his army base at El Paso and stopped to pick up his family and to visit relatives and friends. Sgt. Warkman, who is an investigator with the military police, had been attending a special Lie Detector School. In fact, graduated from the 9-week course in 4th in his class.

We inquired if the lie detectors they work. And Sgt. Warkman says they're just about 100% accurate. You got to have a confidence for the machine to do a really accurate job, he said. This requirement might eliminate some people. Two minority groups that are the machine trouble are (1) people with a guilty complex who act to everything, and (2) people who are pathological liars — people who tell lies so often they believe themselves.

DOWN AT THE West Ward school the other day, they were recess and the 2nd graders were marching out to play. A snake that measured four feet and six inches was spotted near the building. Little girls shrieked and little boys opened their eyes wide.

David Waters, young son of the Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Waters, was the man of the hour. He grabbed the snake by the tail and popped it head first out of its mouth. He tossed the snake aside and resumed his place in the line as little girls and little boys cast admiring glances at him.

But he could even take his own head off the hooks.

YOU CAN WISH "happy birthday" this week to a number of youngsters, including: Oct. 24 — Standlee McCracken, Annie Plumlee and Patricia Isbell. Oct. 26 — Mrs. H. M. Bassett and Robert Donovan. Oct. 28 — Vicki Mosley, Ralph Lynn, Dianne Clay and Dorothy Garrett. Mr. and Mrs. Alpha Clark and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Crawford are observing anniversaries.

Oct. 30 — J. W. Slaughter, Mrs. Edna Lee, Edessa Pingree and Mrs. Sam Kimmell. This is also celebrating anniversary date for Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Duckett.

SOMEHOW ONE of the committees for the annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce got off to the other day in a Press report about the committees being named. Inadvertently omitted was the program committee composed of James McCracken, chairman, Ken Russ, Rev. Leslie Seymour, Jack Chambliss, Mrs. W. O. Lytle and Paul Brashear.

The publicity committee was named, too, but it was inadvertently omitted. Editors just don't put their own names in the paper if they can help it, do they?

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Webb of Brownwood visited in Cisco Friday night.

MANNEKIN MURDER—The gruesome sight of a pile of legs, arms and bodies on a Berlin street brought photographers on the run. The mass "murder" turned out to be just a heap of dummies discarded by a textile firm when the company moved to a new location.

Amendments To Be Discussed At Monday Meeting

All in the Cisco area were reminded Saturday by members of Beta Upsilon Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, of the open forum to be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the junior high school building, for the purpose of learning more of the 11 proposed amendments to the Constitution of Texas, which will be voted on at the general election to be held on November 2.

Judge Virgil T. Seaberry, Sr., of Eastland will lead the discussion and will answer questions regarding the proposal. The forum is offered as a public service by the educational society.

Culwell Baby Is Buried Saturday

The infant granddaughter of a Cisco couple was buried in Oakwood Cemetery Saturday morning following short services in Satterwhite Funeral Chapel in Breckenridge.

She was Betty Jo Culwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Culwell of Breckenridge and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kimmell of Cisco. She died at birth Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Culwell formerly resided in Cisco where both taught in the Cisco schools. Mrs. Culwell is the former Miss Elsie Kimmell. At the present time Mr. Culwell is superintendent of the Breckenridge public schools.

Survivors are her parents; a sister, Caren Ann; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Culwell of Clifton and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kimmell of Cisco.

Miss Martha June Morehead is spending the weekend at home with her mother, Mrs. B. E. Morehart.

Strong Ranger Eleven Scores Impressive Win Over Loboes

The militant Bulldogs of Ranger High School served notice that they expected to be in the thick of the 1954 AA-9 football championship race here Friday night as they scored a well-earned 23-to-6 victory over the Cisco High School Loboes at Chesley Field.

The Loboes were considerable out-weighted and were unable to halt a grid machine that made 20 first downs on 339 yards rushing and 24 yards passing. It was a clean, hard-fought game and the outcome was never in doubt after the Ranger offense gave its first demonstration.

Benji Lipsey, 130-pound Lobo speedster, electrified the fans with a 90-yard touchdown run with the game's opening kickoff. He scooped up the ball on his 10-yard line and a couple of key

DESDEMONA BOY WINS HONORS IN COUNTY SEARS SWINE SHOW

Bobby Koonce, Desdemona 4-H Club boy, showed his Sears gilt to the number one place in the annual County Sears Swine Show held Wednesday, October 20th, at the Eastland County Show Barn. Koonce won out over a field of eight entered in the contest.

The next step for the gilt and Bobby was to be the district Sears Swine show to be held in Breckenridge on October 23rd. The district show was for the champion gilts from Palo Pinto, Stephens, Young, Throckmorton, Jack and Eastland Counties. The boar from each county was also to compete.

Bob Lavender, agricultural representative for Texas Electric Co., gave two prizes to the outstanding showman and the runner-up. The prizes were won by Robert Bostick, Nimrod, best showman, and Willie Paul Johnson, Desdemona, the runner-up.

The boar pig, exhibited by Robert Bell, Nimrod, was praised very highly by Jack Willingham, judge for the show. The boar was not competing in the county show but was only present for the people to see the progress that it had made. The boar will compete in the district show.

FARM BUREAU TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

The Eastland County Farm Bureau will elect officers and make changes in the constitution and by-laws at the annual membership meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday, Oct. 25, at the First Methodist Church basement in Eastland, it was announced Saturday.

Nominations for officers will be made from the floor, it was reported, and all members were urged by President A. Z. Myrick to attend "for it is a duty and a privilege for every Farm Bureau member to be present and help choose their leaders for the coming year."

Resolutions which the farmers have drafted will be adopted or rejected at the session, and changes in the constitution and by-laws will be offered. Any resolutions adopted will be sent to the state committee for the consideration of the state convention in Galveston next Monday.

The delegates for the state convention will also be named at the county meeting Monday night. Besides Mr. Myrick, retiring officers include Jimmy Sparks of Desdemona, vice president, and Ray Norris of Eastland, secretary and treasurer.

The Loboes had several star performers. Johnny Trigg, a sophomore end, suffered a hard blow in the face. It was feared that his nose might be broken, but reports Saturday indicated that it was just badly bruised. Fred Hayes, Bill Smith, Ronnie Qualls and others played good defensive games.

Ranger's Scott Forney was one of the game's stars. As the quarterback, he did a fine job in all respects. Jerry Wharton, Bennie Robinson, Jim Littlefield and G. Rush were wheel-horses in the offensive attack. End Jerry Cantrell was a defensive star, along with Tackle Archie Robinson and Center John Hagaman.

The first Ranger touchdown came midway in the opening period. After Cisco's opening score, (Turn To Page Four)

GRID QUEEN, BAND SWEETHEART CROWNED IN GAME CEREMONIES

In impressive between-half ceremonies at the Lobo-Ranger game at Chesley Field Friday night, Carlene Holder was crowned football Queen for the 1954 season and Jean White was presented as band sweetheart for the year.

Both girls are members of the senior class and were selected by popular vote of the grid squad and the band. Miss Holder is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Holder, and Miss White is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvie White.

Prior to the presentation of the football queen and the band sweetheart, the Lobo Band marched down the field to the strains of the Victory March. At mid-field they formed a huge football. Faye Redwine, drum major, kicked the ball and the band went into a heart formation.

As the queen and sweetheart entered the field riding in a Chevrolet convertible driven by Dick Anderson, five high school girls went to the microphone to sing "Because of You." The five singers were Jan Latson, Charlotte Collins, Pat Mayer, Norma Schaefer and Linda Pirtle. They were accompanied by the band.

The two honorees were driven to the north side of the playing field and were escorted into the heart, which was formed by the band. Miss Holder was escorted by Football Captains Arzell Hale and Marcus Gallegos. Miss White was escorted by Johnny Turner, band vice-president.

Both Miss Holder and Miss White were presented huge bouquets of giant crysanthemums.

The band concluded the half-time activities by forming a "C" and playing the school victory song.

Mrs. McClure Joins CJC Music Department
Jack Chambliss, head of the music department of Cisco Junior College, announced Saturday the affiliation of Mrs. Frances McClure of Breckenridge with the department.

Mrs. McClure has taken over the piano department at the school and has her studios in the new music building.

Piano students in Cisco, who desire to take music with Mrs. McClure, were asked to contact Mr. Chambliss.

47% Of City Taxes Are Reported Paid

A total of $37,676.47 in 1954 city taxes had been paid at the close of business Friday, City Secretary Hal Lavery reported. This represented 47% of the total amount to be collected.

Taxpayers are being given a 3% discount for paying their city taxes during the month of October.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet Monday evening at seven o'clock at the American Legion Hall for a business meeting. All members have been urged to attend.

BOOSTERS TO MEET

The Cisco Boosters Club will meet at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the high school building to discuss business matters and possibly show films of various football games. All members were urged to attend the meeting.

Hospital News

Patients at Graham Hospital Saturday included Mrs. J. S. Hulley of Rising Star, Mrs. Lawrence Alvey of Route 1, Mrs. J. B. Wyatt, J. T. Anderson and J. E. Stephens, all of Cisco, and B. P. Notgrass of Nimrod.

Dismissed recently were Mrs. C. E. Abernathy of Abilene, George Stephens of Moran, and Don Reynolds, Mrs. Frank Walton, Jr., Juan Johnson and Mrs. B. E. Lohman and baby, all of Cisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Warren of San Antonio and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Williams and children of Abilene are the weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Dobbins.

Bob Qualls, student at Texas Tech in Lubbock, is spending the weekend in Cisco with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Qualls.

Miss Anita Stroebel, student at Texas Lutheran College at Seguin, is spending the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Stroebel.

The Ranger High School band presented a clever skit during their part of the activities. Following a snappy marching routine they gathered around one member who was dressed in coveralls and carrying a sign, "I am a Lobo." When they formed again the "Lobo" had completely disappeared.

Moslah Temple's Variety Show To Appear In Ranger

A variety show to beat the drums for one of the world's greatest indoor events, Moslah Temple's Shrine Circus, will come to Ranger on Tuesday, November 2. Moslah Temple's Circus will play in Fort Worth's Will Rogers Coliseum, November 19-28.

The variety show, which will play at the Auditorium at 7:30 p. m., November 2, consists of a traveling unit under the guidance of R. M. Stovall, chairman of the Shrine Circus of 1954. Herschell Gibbs is producer of the show and Ken Vaughan will direct the 16-piece Moslah Temple orchestra. Its cast boasts stars of stage, radio and TV such as Nan Roy, vivacious blond songstress; Marvin Montgomery, banjo artist supreme; and the Hancock-Hutchinson Girls, a famous line of dancers under the leadership of Pat Hutchinson, famous impressionistic dancer.

Also featured will be Bill Wright with his inimitable ukulele novelties. This star is currently appearing with the Russ Morgan Orchestra in New Orleans and was formerly with Paul Whiteman's band.

Other attractions of the star-studded variety show will be Rex, the performing Chicaouha dog; Bob Bohn, accordionist; Cherry Maddux, "Miss Magic," Joe Felix, boogie-woogie piano player; Harvey and Bob, clowns deluxe; and Janet McEntire, wonder acrobat.

The 16-piece orchestra's closing number on the show will be a rousing Dixieland version of one of Jazzdom's greatest songs, "South Rampart Street Parade." Fort Worth's Moslah Temple feels that it is bringing one of its best shows to Ranger with this pre-show attraction for the Shrine Circus of 1954. The date of the variety show is November 2, the place, the high school auditorium, and the time, 7:30 p. m.

City Officials To Attend Convention

Mayor G. C. Rosenthal, City Secretary Hal Lavery and one or more members of the City Commission are expected to attend the annual convention of the League of Texas Municipalities in Fort Worth on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

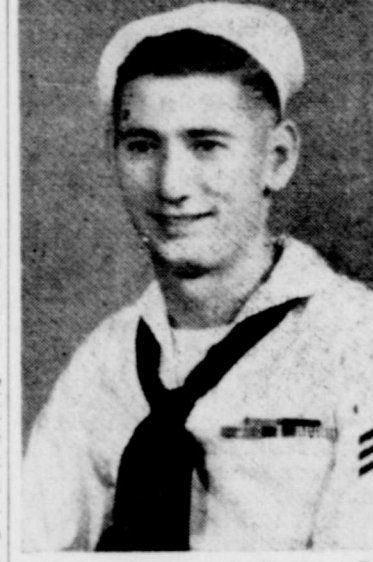

Mr. Rosenthal went to Fort Worth Saturday to attend the TCU-Penn State football game. He planned to remain for the three days. Mr. Lavery and Commissioner Albert Hansen expected to go to Fort Worth Sunday afternoon. It was not definitely known whether other city commissioners would attend.

The League is composed of 572 member cities and towns of the state. The convention program will be devoted to study of city problems.

Miss Dellie Smith was a visitor in Fort Worth Saturday.

KENNETH ST. CLAIR, JR.
Friends here have been advised of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth St. Clair of Albuquerque, New Mexico. The son was born October 11 and weighed six pounds and six ounces. He was named James Kenneth, Jr. Mr. St. Clair was director of the Lobo band here for several years, and their Albuquerque address is 3518 Eastern Avenue.

Coffee Prices Cut Again By A&P Stores

Price reductions of from four cents to six cents a pound on all three of its own brands of premium quality coffee were announced today by A&P Food Store. These reductions, which become effective Thursday in all the company's stores throughout the Nation, bring all three brands below the dollar mark for the first time since increased wholesale cost sent retail prices surging upward more than six months ago.

TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

Ollie Reynolds, Cisco carpenter who was injured Tuesday when struck in the eye by a flying nail, will be released from an Eastland hospital this week and will return to his home here. Specialists were hopeful that the sight would not be lost, it was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Crozby of Seagraves spent the weekend in the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Harper. The Crozbys, the Harpers, and Mrs. Effie Mayhew visited the Jim Nortons in Comanche Sunday.

Luncheon To Open Special Training Program Monday

Forty persons, about half the expected total number, had enrolled Saturday for a sales training course to be offered here this week by the Division of Extension of the University of Texas. The first meeting of store owners, managers and employees who wish to participate in the retail sales training and management course will be held at noon Monday at the Victor Hotel Coffee Shop.

E. A. Willeford, retail training specialist of the University of Texas extension division, will be the instructor for the course. The classes, which will continue through Friday, Oct. 29, will meet each night from 7 to 9 o'clock at the First National Bank.

Enrollment fee is $2 and the course is open to anyone interested. It is being offered under the auspices of the Merchants Credit Association.

In the sales training course, Mr. Willeford will emphasize the importance of merchandise information as an aid in helping customers to buy. He will present a plan which is designed to help sales people become better acquainted with the products they will sell. Other points which will be covered during the sales courses are personality development, determining customer needs, public relations in business, bringing out hidden features of merchandise, making customers feel at home and building a permanent repeat business.

The management courses will deal with the importance of personnel handling. All of the three courses will emphasize techniques of supervision which are designed to pay the biggest dividends to employer and employee. These management courses have been conducted on a nation-wide scale since the end of the war, and they are equally applicable and valuable to big and little business establishments alike.

All courses are eight hours in length and they are scheduled in four two-hour class sessions.

"There is a great need for well trained personnel in both the retail and wholesale fields today," said Bob Hammett, who is chairman of the committee making the arrangements for the course, and he has been assisted by A. D. Anderson and W. B. Cates. "The retail and wholesale trade in our community constitutes a large portion of our business and good practical training for those who come in from our trade territory should result in benefits to the employer, the employee and the consumer alike," he added. Further information concerning the institute may be obtained by calling the Merchants Credit Association office.

Community Choir To Rehearse On Monday

The Community choir will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the First Baptist Church for rehearsal on their coming presentation of Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

Director Jack Chambliss said Saturday that there were still vacancies to be filled and that anyone wanting to sing with the group would have plenty of time to learn the parts. He asked new members and old to be at the church Monday night for practice.

What The New Housing Act Means To You

Lower down payments on both old and new homes is now possible for the would-be home owner as a result of the Housing Act of 1934, the most complete rewriting of such law in twenty years.

The October issue of Better Homes & Gardens Magazine tells how the next act prevents profiteering and other abuses of government-backed housing projects. Important, too, is the creation of a committee to step up F.H.A. mortgages in smaller communities where this financing hasn't existed in the past.

The new Act is expected to bring home ownership within immediate reach of millions of homeowners. On the purchase of a new home, the law increases mortgage amounts insured by F.H.A. to 95 percent of the first nine-thousand dollars of value plus seventy-five percent of the remainder up to a maximum amount of twenty-thousand dollars.

While the purchase of a new home still is an advantage in the Act's terms, the recent new law greatly narrows the difference that existed under previous F.H.A. regulations.

The new law also gives a shot-in-the-arm to home improvement. Homeowners who have remodeling in mind for a home bought on either F.H.A. or V.A. mortgage can now finance the improvements on terms identical to their first mortgage. This is the first time that so-called "open end" mortgaging has had government backing.

At the first glance, it appears that the liberalized terms for older houses might hold down new building. Most housing authorities feel, however, that instead it will give new construction added impetus, and have a direct effect on the all-time record high construction forecast for 1935.

Many Hunters File Applications To Shoot 50 Bucks; Season Opens Soon

AUSTIN, Oct. 22. — The Chief Clerk for the Game and Fish Commission said applications for permits to help harvest fifty buck deer on the Kerr Wildlife Management Area are being received "at the rate of almost 600 a day."

The Commission recently decided to reduce an over-population of deer on the experimental demonstration plot through a free hunt with participants to be decided by drawing.

The hunt will be held for four days — November 16, 17, 18 and 19, under supervision of game wardens and wildlife biologists. The deadline for sending application for the drawing is October 29.

Meanwhile, Llano, Gillespie and Mason Counties are going ahead with final arrangements for the antlerless deer season in those three counties. These special periods are designed to eliminate surplus deer which face possible die-off next winter.

These local harvests are being handled on the local level and arrangements for obtaining the special permits as well as other details will be announced by those counties later.

Applicants for the drawing for the taking of fifty buck deer on the Kerr Area are being sent acknowledgements by the Game Commission in Austin. Their names will be placed in the pot for the final drawing of sixty names on November 1.

Special permits will be promptly mailed to the sixty persons whose names are drawn along with detailed instructions for the hunt which will be over a four-day period. The extra ten names will be drawn to assure the full quota of fifty bucks will be taken, since a certain percentage of successful drawees are expected to cancel their hunting plans for assorted reasons.

In his letter to the applicants, the Chief Clerk writes: "Because of the small number of permits available, and the large number of requests anticipated, permits will be assigned strictly by a fair and impartial drawing. All requests will be handled on an individual basis; neither couples nor larger groups can be considered. Also, we can make no provisions for any particular day preference on the part of applicants. Each permit will be for one day only. Each successful applicant must have a resident big game license. Should you NOT find the above stipulations acceptable, please advise us so that we may remove your name from the drawing. Permits will not be transferable and no future priority can be given persons who return unused permits."

ing Ranger only one touchdown and that came late in the final period. It resulted from a drive that began on the Ranger 29 with Forney scoring. Forney kicked all four extra points.

Midway in the third period, a Ranger drive ended on the Cisco 8-yard line when the Lobos held and took over on downs. Three plays netted Cisco nine and a half yards and on fourth down, Reynolds dived over to produce the other Lobo first down.

Lobos -- (From page one)

the Bulldogs took the kickoff and returned it to their 41. Eight plays netted a touchdown. Wharton went over.

The Lobos took a kickoff and had to punt, Ranger returning to the Lobo 42. Six plays produced another touchdown for the visitors.

Cisco took another kick and couldn't go, so they punted to the Ranger 43. As the second quarter opened Ranger used five plays to score, with Littlefield making the touchdown.

The Bulldogs got the ball when Cisco failed to make a first down and started from midfield. They drove to the Lobo 18 where Hayes recovered a fumble to end a drive. The Lobos punted out to the 35 and Catfish Thames promptly recovered another Bulldog miscue.

On fourth down, Reynolds ran
