Christmas Music Feature Planned

Robert Clinton of Snyder, former head of the music department at Cisco Junior College, will appear as tenor soloist in the annual Christmas concert of the Cisco Community Chorus, according to an announcement by Director Jack Chambliss. The choir will present "Elijah," an oratario by Felix Mendelssohn, at 3 p. m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church auditorium.

The presentation will feature solos, small ensembles and the chorus telling the story of Elijah, the prophet as he restored life to the widow's son; and how, in contest with the prophets of Baal, demonstrated the power of the Lord Jehovah, and restored Israel to the worship of God. Under the direction of Jack Chambliss of the Cisco Junior College Music Department, the Chorus is made up of some 50 local and area singers. Accompanists are Mrs. W. O. Wylie, pianoist, and Mrs. A. L. Thomas, organist.

Other soloists will include Miss Simmons faculty, Mrs. R. B. Gregory of Dallas, and James Worrell of North Texas State College, who will sing the title roll.

Mr. Clinton is well known in the Cisco area, having taught in the college for several years before accepting the post as music director of the Snyder schools. He sang with the Cisco chorus last December.
