THEY'RE ORGANIZING a Sheriff's Posse for Eastland county.

Sheriff J. B. Williams has taken the initiative in this matter, and the project is well underway.

Last Friday night, a group of interested citizens met with the sheriff and studied the idea. A representative of the Cow Town Sheriff's Posse of Fort Worth was present and offered suggestions and told about their fine organization.

Mr. Sutton Crofts of Cisco was named president of the temporary organization. And Mr. G. W. Wilcox and Mr. Randy Steffen of Cisco were elected to the board of directors.

Plans call for another meeting Friday, Jan. 28, at the sheriff's office in the courthouse. Purpose of the posse is to improve and promote public relations for Eastland County, to provide a mounted drill team for area shows and rodeos, to sponsor a large rodeo in the county each year, and to provide those interested with the opportunity to enjoy the program and fellowship of a Sheriff's posse.

Each town of the county will be given all the details soon. Membership data will probably be announced at the next meeting. It's a fine organization for businessmen and those interested in horses.

YOU'VE SEEN the old-fashioned iron pots used by Salvation Army units to collect funds on street corners. The March of Dimes committee now has one in Cisco. During the days (until the drive ends) the pot will be at the First National Bank, and at night it will be taken to any locations where contributions might be made to the March of Dimes.

The pot was borrowed by MOD Chairman Dizzy Dean from Magistrate Hood. Mr. Charles S. Sandler provided the materials and Mr. Harvey Huffman added some labor to finish the project. All the pot needs now is a lot of pennies and dimes and half-dollars and folded money.

Up at the Lions Club luncheon yesterday, Treasurer Doc Eggen was reading off a list of expenses for the birthday calendar project. He came to one item: 30 cents to Dizzy Dean for stamps. The tail-waiver promptly fined Dizzy 30 cents — to keep the record straight, he said.

BY ALL SIGNS the price of hogs should now go up. Mr. Franklin Myrick, the CJC student, sold his hogs recently and they always go up after he sells them. Members of the Cisco Country Club and their guests will enjoy an "eating meeting" at 7 p. m. Thursday (tonight) at the club house. Mr. E. L. Jackson, the Legionnaire, drove up to Fort Worth today, caught an airliner and will be present for a regional conference in Little Rock, Ark., tonight. He'll be back home Friday night.

THEY GOT A pretty good scare out at the Dr. E. H. Ramsey home last Monday night during the cold front electrical storm. The doctor and wife were watching television when a bolt of lightning struck an electrical transformer on a pole near their house out Lake Bernie way. The lightning came into the house via the TV aerial, burned out the machine and flashed sparks around. The transformer atop the pole caught fire and began burning brightly. The Ramseys, as you can well imagine, needed a few minutes to determine what was going on.

All is well out the lake way now.

MR. BOBBY Cluck, who was one of the best paper boys The Press ever had before he resigned a year or so ago, underwent an operation on his knee at the Hendricks Hospital (Room 624) in Abilene yesterday. And he is doing nicely. He hurt the knee and surgery was ordered to correct the situation.

Ran into Mr. Bob Cluck and Miss Nancy Cluck this morning and they were leaving for the hospital. Miss Nancy, who is home between terms at SMU, was limping with a sprained ankle. Bobby is a sophomore at CHS, a straight A student, and he plays football and basketball.

RAN INTO MR. S. H. Nance, the retired Ford dealer, and he says he works harder than ever now. He's doing a lot of things he had been saving up. And he's been working around the house since Mrs. Nance injured a knee recently. Mrs. Nance is doing nicely, he reports.

UNDERWATER SNACK—A rather unusual sight for Roberta Bassford, left, and Carol Parr is the underwater munching of bananas by two swimmers in London. It was part of their demonstration of underwater swimming equipment, but they didn't try to drink a cup of coffee.

David Williams In Fleet Exercise Of Marine Corps

Camp Lejeune, N. C. Jan 20—Marine Pvt. David L. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsey H. Williams of 907 W. Eighth st., Cisco, Tex., is scheduled to participate in a large scale amphibious training exercise in the Puerto Rican area with the Atlantic Fleet Marine Force Training Group from January to March, 1955.

The exercise is designed to familiarize Marines with the latest fighting equipment and to test their combat readiness in full scale amphibious maneuvers. Units of the 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing from Miami, Fla., are taking part.

After a six-week training phase, the Marines will board ships and storm the beaches of the island of Vieques in an amphibious attack against aggressor forces dug in on the island. While in the Area, the Marines will visit cities in Puerto Rico and other Caribbean islands.

UNDERGOES SURGERY

Arzell Hale, a Cisco High School senior, underwent an emergency appendectomy in the German hospital Wednesday afternoon. He was reported as doing nicely Thursday morning. He was one of the captains of the Lobo football team during the past season.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nance are to leave Friday for Gonzales to accompany their daughter, Patsy, home. Patsy has been a patient at the Warm Springs Foundation in Gonzales for several months.

COUNTY LEADERS DEFER ACTION ON SALARIES OF 6 CONSTABLES

The question of what to do about the constables is expected to be settled at the regular meeting of Eastland County Commissioners next Monday, according to information here today.

The court studied the matter at their meeting last Monday but deferred in action due to the absence of one commissioner.

Action of appointing a county health officer was discussed but action was deferred for the same reason. Commissioner attend.

At the first January meeting of the court did not set salaries for the county's six constables after Judge John Hart pointed out that fees collected during the past two and a half years lacked more than $20,000 of paying the officers' salaries.

Commissioner Ed McCanlies of Cisco told the court he believed that the best thing to do would be to cut out two constables and have only one for each of the commissioners' precincts.

"We are still operating in the horse and buggy days," he said. He pointed out that when six constables were set up they were

CISCO MOTHERS READY TO JOIN POLIO DRIVE FOR FIFTH YEAR

For the fifth year, Cisco mothers will join the fight against polio by participating in the annual Mothers March on Polio to collect funds necessary to maintain the research, education and treatment of victims. The Cisco event, in which 75 mothers and 10 men will participate, is scheduled for Monday night.

Winners Of WTCC Essay Contest To Be Named Jan. 27

ABILENE, Jan. 20. — Winners of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce industrial essay contest will be announced at the regional industrial conference here on January 27. E. L. Buelow of San Angelo has announced.

Buelow is chairman of the WTCC's industrial development committee, sponsoring the contest and the conference.

Hundreds of high school seniors wrote essays on the subject "What Can My Town Do To Have More Industry." Winner of the contest will be given a $250 college scholarship at ceremonies during the regional chamber's annual meeting in Lubbock in March.

The January 27 industrial development conference in Abilene is the second conducted by the WTCC. Last year's conference attracted more than 250 West Texas community leaders from 61 towns.

Speakers for the conference are from Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, Oklahoma City, Amarillo, Abilene, Odessa, College Station, and Gainesville.

Hospital News

Silas Clay, an employee of Thomas Funeral Home, is in Graham Hospital receiving treatment for a back injury. He was reported as improving Thursday.

Other patients included Mrs. Grady Laws, Mrs. G. W. Troxell, Mrs. D. I. Graves and Mrs. Raymond Jackson, all of Cisco.

Dismissed recently were Mrs. S. P. White of Moran, Mrs. O. O. Dow of Albuquerque, New Mexico, Tommy Stephens of Abilene and Mrs. Clinton Waddell and infant son and Mrs. B. J. Thompson and infant son, all of Cisco.

Mrs. C. R. Hightower, who has been a patient in the hospital here, has been released and referred to Fort Worth where she will undergo further treatment.

Mrs. Tommy Partain and baby left Tuesday for their home in McAlister, Oklahoma, after an extended visit in Cisco with her mother, Mrs. H. A. Lenz.

MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE OPENS IN MORAN; 'YOUTH DAY' HELD

By MRS. C. C. CADY

The March of Dimes Drive is under way in Moran, and it will continue during the balance of the month. Coin containers have been placed in the grade school, and in the two cafes and most business houses. Robert Brandt will be chairman of the Drive at high school and Britt Pippen, chairman of grade school. Miss Maurine McCollum will take donations at the bank.

A fine evangelistic message was brought by a high school junior, Dannie Connally.

The Sunday School attendance for the day totaled 163 with the auditorium entirely filled at the 11:00 o'clock hour. The Training Union saw 100 in their classes, training in "Winning Others to Faith in Christ Jesus." The auditorium was filled to capacity Sunday night.

Junior Quintets Will Leave Town For League Play

Three Cisco Junior High School basketball teams will go to Comanche tonight for Little Oibelt Conference games with Comanche Junior High School.

The boys "B" teams will play the first game and the girls teams will play the second game. The Midgets and the Comanche teams will play the third and final contest.

The Midgets are undefeated in conference play, and have lost only one game during the season. The Cisco girls will be seeking their first conference victory.

Coaches Bobby Zellars and Bill Tate will leave with their teams at 4:30 p. m.

Cisco Jamboree Planned Friday

Treasurer Gives Finance Report At Club Meeting

Approximately $500 was spent by the Cisco Lions Club during the past six months in community service work, Treasurer J. T. Eggen told the club in a talk at the weekly luncheon meeting at noon Wednesday at the Victor Hotel.

The club participated in the Lions Crippled Children's program by selling Christmas cards and sending the proceeds to the Kerrville camp, by contributing to the audiometer fund of the P-TA, providing glasses for under-privileged children, buying scholarships at Cisco Junior College for needy students, and other activities.

During the final quarter of 1954, the club took in from all sources, including dues and luncheons, the sum of $1,027 and spent $982, the report showed.

Mr. Eggen, noting that January is "new member month," told the club about the action necessary in enrolling members. He told how the club dues is spent and of the work of the officers.

Gene Abbott, program chairman for the year, announced that short classification talks would be made each week by club members, beginning next week. Charles S. Sandler and W. E. Dean made announcements concerning the annual March of Dimes drive.

Mr. Sandler and Dr. C. E. Paul, with Truly Carter as alternate were appointed by President Charles M. Cleveland to be escorts for March of Dimes mothers in next Monday night's program. Plans for the annual February Ladies Night Banquet were discussed.

Guests included O. F. Temple of Seymour, W. W. Wright of Cisco and David Fry of Abilene.

Brusitis Strikes More In Modern Day Of Activity

AUSTIN, Jan. 20. — "A hundred years ago nobody worried about brusitis because nobody had it," said Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer. It wasn't until about forty years ago that there was enough of it around for it to be given a name. Today an estimated two and a half million Americans suffer from the hurting joints caused by brusitis.

The reason for the big increase seems to be found in modern living. So many of the things people do — typing, working adding machines, driving, handling compressed-air tools, exercising strenuously on weekends — are the very things that can cause attacks of brusitis. Too, people live longer nowadays and brusitis most often attacks after forty when age weakens tendons.

Between the moving parts of muscles, tendons and bones there are cushions — tiny, flat sacs filled with an oily substance. These are the bursae. As the parts move, the two inside surfaces of the sacs glide against each other providing satin-smooth action.

The body has more than 140 of the little sacs. Most important is the subdeltoid bursae in the shoulder, which helps the major shoulder muscle operate. It is the most important because the human shoulder wasn't designed for the work it now has to do. The result is that though brusitis can occur in any of the 140 bursae and often does affect elbows, hips, ankles and joints, 80 per cent of the time it is in the shoulder.

If an attack of brusitis occurs, a physician should be consulted. He can control brusitis but he can't control the results of neglect. Curing brusitis takes time and patience.

Assistant Coach Is Appointed At Ranger

LESSONS IN DIPLOMACY—The better to represent this country abroad, U.S. Army attache wives may learn the language of the country to which their husbands will be assigned. Mrs. T. G. Anderson of Kendall, Fla., was the first wife to graduate from the Army Language School under the new program. She and her husband studied French, diplomatic tongue of Egypt, their new station.

Year-Round "Tree" in Gas Fields Source of Home-Making Aids

The holidays may be past and gone for another season, but here is one "Christmas tree" which is a year-round decoration in many parts of the Southwest, where most of the country's natural gas supply originates. "Christmas trees" are the array of valves and pipes on top of gas wells. Through them this clean dependable fuel flows steadily from underground pools to furnaces, hot water heaters and kitchen ranges in millions of American homes. Yet the costs of finding and producing gas account for only 10 per cent of your household gas bill.

Few housewives who cook with natural gas probably realize the risks, the expense, the technical processes and the constant vigilance that make possible an uninterrupted, day-and-night, winter-and-summer delivery of gas from well to burner tip.

There are three steps in this delivery process. The gas consumer buys his fuel from a local gas company, or distributor, who in turn buys it from an interstate pipeline (except in cases where the consumer lives in one of the gas-producing states). The pipeline receives its gas from an independent producer, who first must explore for and find gas deposits before he can gather and deliver his product.

Not every one of the producer's wells is decorated with the "Christmas tree" shown above. For the producer is somewhat like the prospector of a century ago—and gas, like gold, is where you find it. Today the combined knowledge and experience of geologist and explorer can only indicate where gas ought to be found. There is no guarantee that a deposit is actually present. The only way to find out is to drill an exploratory well. And the average today is eight unsuccessful drillings — costing about $100,000 each — for every one that yields gas. Yet the producer's total share of the consumer's gas bill is only about a dime out of every dollar — with the balance going to pipeline and distributor.

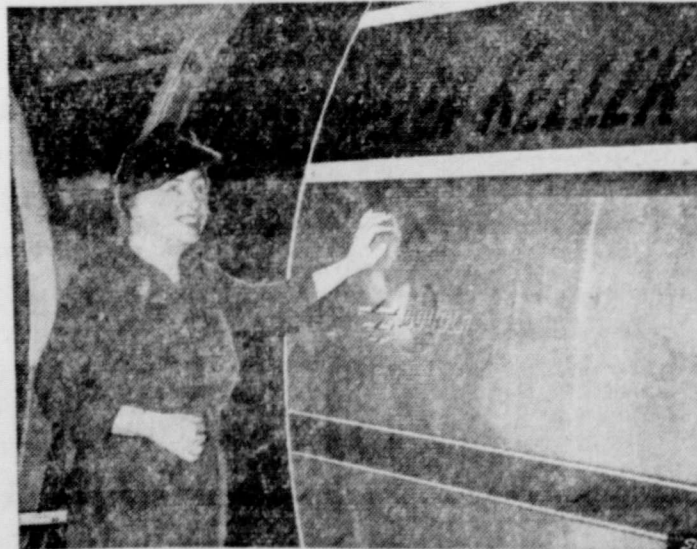

Though each step in the finding and delivery of gas is integrated and indispensable, the independent producer's operation is totally different from the other two. The pipeline and the distributor enjoy exclusive franchises in the territory they serve and so are subject, respectively, to federal interstate commerce laws and regulation by state, county or municipal governments.

But the producer has been, traditionally and logically, a private and independent operator in a highly competitive field. He is beset by the inevitable gamble of fruitless drillings which must be paid for out of the profits of producing wells — provided he is lucky enough to have them. But it is a gamble that must be taken if present needs and future demands are to be met. And future demands are great, for natural gas is the fastest-growing fuel in the United States today.

Recently the private-enterprise system of gas production and marketing has been replaced by government regulation, even though the producer sells within the boundaries of his own state and is a competitor, rather than a public utility operating in an exclusive market.

Leaders of the natural gas industry foresee that federal control of prices, profits, contracts, and general operations — which already has created confusion and uncertainty in the industry — will result inevitably in curtailed gas exploration.

America's Ambassador To The Blind

Dr. Helen Keller, who leaves the U. S. in February for a 40,000-mile good will tour in the Far East, smiles beside KLM Royal Dutch Airlines plane named at New York's International Airport in honor of her years of service to the sightless. The 74-year old writer and educator, deaf and blind from infancy, will visit India, Pakistan, Burma, the Philippines and Japan, whose governments have joined the American Foundation for Overseas Blind, New York, in sponsoring the trip. Dr. Keller hopes to inspire expansion of facilities for relief, education and rehabilitation of the blind.
