WRANGLERS CONCLUDE SEASON WITH WIN OVER HOWARD PAYNE

The Cisco Junior College Wranglers concluded their regular basketball schedule for the season Friday night by winning a close contest over the Howard Payne "B" team from Brownwood.

The Cisco team had to come from behind to win the contest 63-69. A rally in the final 10 minutes of play gave them the win. They were trailing 35-38 at halftime. Going into the final 10 minutes of play the Brownwood team was still ahead by three points. In the final 10 minutes the Wranglers, led by Burnell Stevens, went to work and salted the game away.

Stevens and Slats Slatton paved the way for the Wrangler win. Stevens led in scoring with 30 points and Slatton made 21. Jerry Millsapps led the visitors with 18 points. Stevens made 11 of his points in the final 10 minutes of play to pull the contest out of the fire.

The game closed out a good season for the Wranglers who leave Monday for Amarillo where they will enter the National Junior College Regional Championship Tournament. The winner of the Amarillo tourney will go direct to the national tournament.

Sam Sorogins, lanky Wrangler forward, completed his eligibility with the Cisco school Friday night and will not make the trip to Amarillo. Burnell Stevens and Joe Ed Palmore will be lost to the team next year via the graduation route.

Coach Red Lewis and the Wranglers will leave early Sunday morning for the Amarillo tournament.

Thursday night the Wranglers lost their final conference game to the Decatur Indians by a 66-76 score. Burnell Stevens led in scoring with 22 points.

SKI, SNOW AND SKY—They're all combined here as Joel Sehrank, a lone skier, pauses to take in that all-white view. He's on top of Cannon Mountain, near Franconia, N. H., and it looks like a solitary, lonely world from here.

State Highway Official Speaks At Eastland Meet

EASTLAND, Feb. 18. — The continuation of the Texas Highway System to be the greatest in the nation was pledged in Eastland by Marshall Formby, member of the State Highway Commission, as he addressed guests at the Ranger-Eastland Chamber of Commerce banquet Tuesday night.

Formby was guest speaker of the banquet which honored highway officials in this area, after a ribbon cutting ceremony formally opened the Staff-Eastland Road over Lake Leon earlier in the afternoon.

During the lake ceremonies, the Highway commissioner gave Eastland Countians hope for a loop road connecting the new farm-market road to Staff direct into Ranger.

"I'd have to agree with you Mayor, you do need a little paved road toward Ranger," Formby said after Mayor Calvin Harris of Ranger had said, "I know we shall in the near future, ask Mr. Formby to help us dedicate a paved road from the dam into Ranger."

Formby quickly added that he could not make any promises since the entire commission would have to act on any approval. He also added that he hoped to see the road connected with Desdemona. He said that decisions of the Highway Commission are always unanimous and that one member could not promise any action. He pointed out that there had not been a two-to-one decision by the commission for a number of years.

At the banquet, that saw the dining room of the Connelley Hotel taxed to capacity, by nearly an even representation of Eastland and Ranger citizens, Formby said that the entire nation was going to get better roads. "There is going to be a lot more construction on roads like Highway 80 because President Eisenhower has recognized the importance of coast-to-coast roads as a military advantage," he added.

The Commissioner said that 84 miles of farm-to-market road had been built in Eastland County and about that much more is in the offing. He indicated that the Carbon-Gorman road would be rebuilt in the next two years.

Pausing temporarily to dwell upon the "true cause" of the banquet, Formby stressed, "If anybody is to be honored here tonight it should be the people of Eastland and Ranger who have, in forgetting their differences, like football, joined together in building the new dam and lake."

He said that the highway picture was bright for Eastland County as $1.5 million had been earmarked for the area in the next two years. — Eastland Telegram.

Gradual Warmup Is Due By Monday

Cold and clearing weather was forecast for most of Texas, including this section, Sunday after a severe cold wave was due to drop temperatures to near 15 degrees Saturday night. Freezing rain or snow and sleet had also been on the weatherman's forecast for Saturday afternoon and night.

The severe cold wave warning was sounded for the Texas Panhandle, the South Plains, North Central Texas and West Texas from the Pecos Valley eastward. The cold front entered the state Friday afternoon, dropping temperatures 30 to 40 degrees in its wake.

The frigid air blew into the Cisco area early Saturday morning. Temperatures fell slowly and stood at 33 degrees at noon Saturday. The thermometer was due to continue falling with a low of from 10 to 20 degrees Saturday night. Temperatures were due to be under freezing all day Sunday with a gradual warm-up to begin Monday.

A trace of rain fell here Friday as a heavy blanket of clouds hung over the region all day. The occasional drizzle continued Friday night and light rain fell as the cold front moved through the area. Rain gauges did not register the rainfall, however.

Although rains the past few months have been coming as needed to benefit cover crops and winter pastures, the total volume of moisture is behind the schedule. Lake Cisco's water level is about two feet lower than it was at the same time last year.

Garrett Is Low Bidder For Boss Company Project

Garrett Lumber and Supply has been awarded a contract to install air conditioning equipment at the Boss Manufacturing Company factory here, Manager Anton White of the glove plant reported Saturday.

Bids were opened at the Kewanee home office, and Mr. Garrett's bid was lowest of several submitted, he said.

Plans call for the installation of eight 10,000 cubic foot evaporative-type air conditioners in the huge factory building. Mr. White said the work will begin in the near future. He estimated that the entire project would cost between $4,000 and $5,000.

The Boss company recently completed moving equipment into a large addition that was built to the factory building on the Breckenridge Highway. More than 200 workers are on the company payroll here now.

Evidence That We Can Foretell Events

If the human mind can actually leap the boundaries of time and report on things that have not yet happened, a major revolution in the concept of man and the universe is in the making. The belief that such a power exists is supported by much human experience. Writing in the March Reader's Digest, Dr. J. B. Rhine, director of the Parapsychology Laboratory at Duke University, offers evidence that dreams and waking visions often have hurred time and space to foretell events.

Lincoln dreamed of his own death only a few days before it occurred; King Croesus and Julius Caesar's wife, Calpurnia, are others credited with such premonitions. "But so important a question as foreknowledge needs more than biographical anecdote to satisfy those of us who exercise a healthy skepticism," Dr. Rhine observes.

He recounts several detailed dreams, duly reported well in advance of the ensuing events which were concerned railroad wrecks and other tragedies. One, however, foretold the order in which the first four horses finished in the English Derby of 1933. The dreamer was an elderly Quaker who was not interested in horse racing and who disapproved of betting.

Not only dreams but waking visions have prophesied events with amazing accuracy. Dr. Louisa A. Rhine, wife of the author, has records of many waking visions among some 4000 classified cases in her files. Occasionally these are experienced not before but at approximately the time of the actual happening. A U. S. Army officer reported that on a recent Sunday drive his wife suddenly clutched his arm and announced that their daughter was in a wreck. Returning home they soon found that the daughter had been in an auto accident at approximately the moment her mother had the experience.

Often the event foreseen is thousands of miles away. "Any power of the mind that is not hemmed in by space should not be bound by time either," Dr. Rhine says. "The world as studied in physics is a space-time world. Hence, to be free of one aspect would imply independence of the other also."

Several decades of research in Europe and America have shown that some individuals are able to exercise extrasensory perception under well-controlled test conditions, and that neither time nor space has any relation to success in these tests.

The most significant fact to emerge, Dr. Rhine believes, is that the human personality is known to possess an aspect unbounded by the space and time of matter — "hence a nonphysical or spiritual aspect." Its boundaries and its capacity for growth may well be beyond the limits of our present powers to conceive.

Low Modern Homes Need Fine Lawns as Frame

Lawns have become more important than ever in the home landscape.

Modern home design has increased the importance of the lawn to the home landscape. The house with low spreading lines finds a harmonious frame and foreground in the flawless green carpet upon which it rests.

Without care a fine lawn is impossible, wherever it is attempted. With care, there are several fine lawn grasses available to Americans, the most widely used being blue grass. Since the earliest days, Kentucky blue grass has been the chief reliance for lawns in the northern states.

Its rugged persistence in overcoming obstacles to its growth may sometimes encourage neglect. Its beauty, hardness and quick response to favorable treatment have kept it in first place against many rivals for more than a century.

Good treatment is much the same for all lawn grasses. In soil requirements they are similar to other plants. The soil should be porous, to provide good drainage, and should contain organic matter to hold in storage water and plant food for the plants to use. These qualities should be checked, and if necessary improved, before any seed is sown.

Though late summer or early fall is the best time, most new lawns are made in the spring. As soon as the ground has thawed out and is dry enough for working, seed for a new lawn may be sown.

Ducks Beginning Northward Trek, Agency Reports

AUSTIN, Feb. 19. — As the bulk of wild ducks wintering in Texas begins moving northward, Game and Fish Commission technicians are accumulating reports on last fall's harvest, looking ahead to helping shape future hunting regulations.

He quoted reports from Wildlife Biologist Robert Singleton of Winnie, leader of Gulf coast waterfowl studies, that the present northward migration may be well above the ten-year average.

Singleton said that many ducks left wintering areas on the Texas Gulf coast by January 10 and that the mass movement has been gaining momentum daily. Some waterfowl, particularly certain species of geese will not depart for another six weeks, he added.

The waterfowl specialist said tabulations will begin before long on material obtained through questionnaires distributed to hunters on a spot check basis. This data will be used to determine the total 1955 kill, the total number of man days hunted, and the hunting pressure on the various kinds of ducks.

"This compilation," said the Director of Wildlife Restoration, "will be used to back requests for possible liberalization of the fall hunting regulations based, of course, on the summer hatch." The waterfowl studies were part of a comprehensive census made of 7,700 Texas hunters based on records of licenses issued for the 1953 fall season.

Of the 4,957, or a remarkable 64.37 percent, responding with the self addressed postal card, 4472 said they planned to hunt last fall. Of these, 2,990 said they planned to go duck or goose hunting.

Questionnaires were sent to all the waterfowl hunters-to-be and replies were received from roughly 2,600. This total included about 500 replies from a list compiled from the 2,498 persons who did not respond to the original inquiry but jumped at the chance to report on their duck and goose hunting experiences.

YOUR NEW SOCIAL SECURITY

Are you a seasonal or part time worker in agriculture? If you are, you should have a social security card because your employer is required to report your agricultural wages if you receive cash pay of as much as $100 in a calendar year. No longer do you have to worry about "qualifying" and working on a certain number of days in a quarter.

Effective January 1, 1955, the only qualification is that your cash pay from farm work is at least $100 in a year from the same employer. If you earn $90 in a year from one employer and $90 from a second employer, these wages would not count toward social security. Neither would it count if you were paid part of a crop amounting to several hundred dollars. But—if you earn $100 from one employer and $125 from another, then both employers will report your earnings for social security.

Whenever your pay from any farm employer is less than $100 in a year, he should return to you any amount he took out of your pay for social security for that year. Since at the time you start to work for a farmer, neither he nor you know exactly how much you will earn, it is best to refer deductions until $100 is reached; then if it turns out that you do not earn as much as $100 in a calendar year, there is not the problem of returning erroneous deductions.

If you are a harvest hand, or a cotton puller, your wages count just the same as if you were a regular hand. You must have cash wages of at least $100 before your employer is obligated to report you. If you are a harvest hand, you may be employed, supervised and paid by a contract harvester who may be your employer instead of the owner of the farm. But you still show your social security card to your employer so he can make the proper report. Your eligibility at age 65 or the eligibility of your survivors, in event of your death, may rest on credits for part time farm work so be sure to fulfill your obligations in this cooperative insurance plan for your benefit.

Complete details about the new Social Security coverage will be mailed you by writing Social Security Administration, Abilene, Texas.

Mrs. Paul Vogt and Carol of Alpine and Bob Anderson of Dallas are in Cisco to visit their father, J. T. Anderson, who underwent surgery recently.

A — The money, earmarked for premiums beyond the month during which death occurred, will be refunded to your beneficiary in a lump sum.

Q — I understand that veterans disabled in service after January 31, 1955, may receive disability compensation at peacetime rates — 80 percent of the wartime scale. Are there any conditions under which these veterans may get the full wartime rate?

A — Yes. Disabilities resulting directly from armed conflict, or from extra-hazardous service — including service under conditions simulating war — may warrant compensation payments at the full wartime rate.

Q — In order to get my college degree, I am supposed to take a course in public speaking. Would I have to get prior VA approval for that course, on the grounds that it may be considered "avocational or recreational" in nature?
A — No. Since your public speaking course is an integral part of your GI training program leading to a degree, prior VA approval will not be necessary. If the course were taken by itself — VA's approval would be required.
Q — Has the Presidential proclamation, ending the Establishment of entitlement for wartime GI benefits, had any effect on the cut-off date for starting Korean GI Bill training? I am a Korean veteran, already out of service.
A — The proclamation has no bearing on when you must begin your Korean GI training. Under the law, you must still start within three years from the date of your separation from military service.
