Lazbuddie FFA Takes Honors

Scotty Windham, FFA teacher at Lazbuddie High School, announced this week that he was most pleased with the successes of the Lazbuddie FFA boys at the 13th annual Farmer County Junior Livestock Show last week in Friona.

The Lazbuddie group won all of the hog breed championships except one Duroc and won the reserve in that breed. They won two champion awards and two reserve champions out of three breeds in the lamb division. The group also took a sixth and eighth place in the steer division.

Windham said he felt the group's major success in hogs was due to the type of hog now being produced in the Lazbuddie area. This year he said Stan Treider won the grand champion Barrow hog which makes the 9th year in a row that a Lazbuddie exhibition has won the Farmer County Hog Show.

The 10-year-old Treider won the honors with his 184-pound Hampshire, Reserve Champion Barrow was exhibited by Theresa Seaton with her cross-bred champion.

SIB Gin of Lazbuddie was high bidder on the champion barrow at $1.40 per pound. Foster Fertilizer bought the reserve champion for $1.50 per pound.

had the champion Southdown, which went for $1.55 per pound to Lazbuddie's Western 66 Company.

Other buyers from Lazbuddie included Lazbuddie Garage & Supply, Lazbuddie Grocery, Farmers Union Co-op, Ivy Fertilizer Co., North Lazbuddie Gin Co. From Muleshoe stock buyers included Muleshoe State Bank, James Sesame and Whitt-Watts Implement Co.

The Rev. Father Robert O'Leary of Immaculate Conception Catholic Church gave the closing benediction following the program.
 Planned and executed by the MAWS, decorations carried out the "Blue Ribbon Award" theme, with the speakers table stand actually made from the large award plaque Muleshoe won last year. Tables were centered with candles, with blue ribbons and fresh ivy entwined. Behind the speakers table, a panorama painting of Muleshoe's progress - past to present - was a symbol of progress.

 Dr. Allen's five points, interspersed with humor and personal testimony, included "get interested in other people; don't criticize other people; do your own work and forget who gets the credit - don't brag; take criticism with good will and a smile; and don't carry a grudge."
 The well-received speaker, author and minister of the First Methodist Church of Houston, urged his listeners "to come together in the community, to know, love and help each other and work together to make this wonderful area prosper and succeed as its history presents the opportunity."
 "It is a great privilege to live in the Southwest," Dr. Allen said as he told in his Georgian drawl of his early life in Georgia and his move to the State of Texas. "I am grateful for the past history and losses, so that we may have the opportunity of today."

 1968 and 1969 officers and directors, and their wives, were introduced at the banquet. 1969 directors include Robert Hooten, Eddie Faust, Olen Burris, Frank Ellis, Bob Jones, Harvey Bass, and new directors Clarence Jones, Bill Wimberly, Neal Dillman, Haney Poyner, Joe Harbin will serve as 1969 secretary.

Nursery News
 LANDSCAPING By A.L. Woodburn
 GARDEN CENTER NURSERY
 Clovis, N.M.

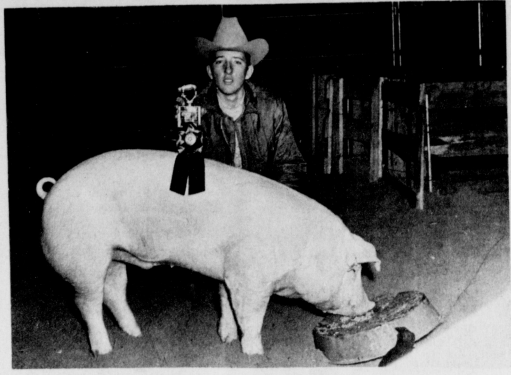

We would like to go into the trimming or pruning of the fruit trees this week. Of course most of us that have read many books remember the extent and degree that Mr. Washington found his cherry tree was trimmed after son George got through with it. Again, of course we think the pruning was rather severe and doubt that the tree bore very much fruit. There is the other extreme in that a person fails to prune enough. There is a calculated medium that produces very good results, that is what we want.
 To properly prune a tree we must give some thought to what we want the tree to do. A fruit tree that doubles for a shade tree where people can walk under it would be trimmed somewhat different than one that a person would like to reach the fruit from the ground or a short ladder. The basic principles needed to produce fruit can be achieved by both methods. Peach for example can be trimmed to make a tree that the branches start six feet above the ground and then the top pruned to produce fruit, or another method can be employed - at the start - and the peach is branched at the ground and the fruit is easily picked from the ground or a short ladder.
 Another basic fact that we must pay close attention to is the wood that produces fruit. Some plants bloom on second year wood where others bloom on first year wood. Trees that are trimmed to establish a good skeleton or support have very little trouble supporting the fruit. Trimmed to produce weak forks and improper scaffolds the tree will tend to break, split, or otherwise suffer damage.
 We have for years selected trees for the most production that we can find. Then to trim out some of the production seems silly but actually it is another way of adapting plants to do what we want them to.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Salyer

Medlin, Salyer Ceremony Read

United Methodist Church of Bula was the scene of a double ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Sheryl Medlin and Glen Salyer, February 15 at four o'clock, Rev. Harvey Whittier, pastor of the church, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Medlin Jr. of Bula and Mr. and Mrs.

G. B. Salyer of Bula. Miss Beverly Nix, organist, presented nuptial music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Patricia Grusendorf. The couple exchanged vows beneath an archway of greenery and white gladioli, flanked on either side by swirled candelabra with blue burning tapers and large blue bows. Candelights were Miss Barbara Slawson and Miss Linda McCanish. Pews were marked with blue satin streamers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of crepe and lace, fashioned with lace bodice, long petal point sleeves and high neckline, the long train falling from the waistline. A floral cluster edged in pearls held her shoulder length veil of illusion. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white carnations, showered with streamers tied in love knots atop a white Bible. She wore the traditional something blue, old, borrowed, and in each shoe a 1950 penny, year of both the bride and groom's birth.

Maid of honor was Miss Sheila Medlin, sister of the bride. Other bridal attendants were Miss Elaine Tiller and Mrs. Pat Risinger, Bula. They wore identical street-length dresses of pale blue crepe, scooped neck, with bell sleeves and empire waist, with matching shoes. They carried a single long-stemmed white carnation tied with blue ribbons.

Serving as best man was Tom Newton of College station. Groomsmen were Larry Bowers, Levelland, brother-in-law of the groom, and Merle Todd, Kermit, also brother-in-law of the groom. Serving as ushers were Rodney Claunch and Mike Richardson of Bula. Mrs. Medlin, mother of the bride, wore a two-piece doubleknit suit of yellow, with black accessories and white carnation corsage. Mrs. Salyer, mother of the groom, chose a light blue suit with complementing hat, black accessories and white corsage.

A reception was served immediately after the ceremony. White punch and bridal cake, mints and nuts were served from a table laid with white net over white, centered with a blue floral arrangement. Appointments of crystal and silver completed the table. Assisting in hospitalities were Mrs. Dennis Medlin, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Larry Bowers, the Levelland, sister of the groom.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Jim Nelson, Wallie Sanders, Mrs. Ruby Reid and daughter Jolene, all of Littlefield; Bobby Patterson, Brenda G. Feller, Linda McClelland, Rita Combs, Linda Henke, James Calloway, all of Levelland; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Landers of Pep; Mrs. Billy Gage, Lubbock; and the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gage and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Medlin of Littlefield.

Both the bride and groom are attending South Plains Junior College, where they plan to continue their studies.

Goodwill Center Has Parents Night

'Parents' Night' at the Goodwill Center Kindergarten was held February 13 with approximately 65 parents and children attending. Clyde Henry welcomed the parents, then the children of both classes sang several songs they have learned during the year with Mrs. Barry Lewis at the piano. Devotional thoughts were brought by Rev. DuBose, stressing the need to train children spiritually as well as physically. Slides, taken of the children during different activities of the kindergarten, were shown. Following the prayer parents were given the opportunity of viewing some of the work done by their children during the year.

Charlotte Davis Lazbuddie FHA Homemaker of Tomorrow

Charlotte Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Davis, has been named 1969 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Lazbuddie High School on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls here December 3.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. The national winner--the 1969 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow--will be announced at an American Table dinner in Williamsburg. The choice will be on the basis of her original test score plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, and her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Martin In Acapulco

SAN DIEGO—Boatswain's Mate Third Class Martin Jr., USN, son of Mrs. Nora Martin of Friona, visited Acapulco while serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS Saint Paul, flagship for Commander First Fleet.

During the ship's five-day stay in the Mexican port and vacation resort, crewmembers enjoyed sight-seeing and the many available sports such as deep sea fishing, skin-diving, water-skiing, and even parachute riding behind a power boat.

Some observed two of Acapulco's most famous tourist attractions: the high divers of La Quebrada who plunge from a 135 foot cliff into the sea, and the Flying Indians of Papantla who dance upon a tiny platform high above the crowd before plunging toward the ground at the end of long ropes.

Saint Paul's stop at Acapulco was a welcome break in the ship's preparations for its scheduled deployment to Vietnam this spring.

The FHA Chapters of Muleshoe High School held their annual Sweetheart Banquet, Saturday, February 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

The elaborate decorations of stars and clouds, carried out the theme "Land of Mystic Dreams."

The entertainment was provided by Mr. Bob Bodger and Mr. Bryan Maconi, who played a number of selections on their guitars.

The guest speaker was Senator Jack Hightower, who presented an interesting talk on "The Signs of the Times."

Following Senator Hightower, was the coronation. Sue Darsey was crowned as Princess, by Prince Robbie Green.

Other candidates were Penny Griffin, John Bickel, Kay Douglass, and Danny Noble.

Crowned as Queen was Lindy Kerr. Bob Bomer was named King.

son. She was accompanied by Deborah Williams. The Future Homemakers of America felt the banquet was a big success.

MOD-ISH CHEERLEADER... Our team will win won't they -- seems to be the expression on faculty cheerleader at the Faculty-Jaycee Basketball game.

'OUT JUMP HM' -- With the crowd ready at the start of the Faculty vs 'M' Club game, the ball tossed up to Coach Raymond Schroeder and John Woodard, with Coach Royce Baynes, Ricky Botkin and John Elliott ready for action.

J. C. SLAUGHTER jumps high to tip the ball to one of his team-mates in the 'M' Club vs Faculty Game Monday. The large turn-out crowd watched the faculty down the varsity 71-67.

Mod Cheerleaders Vie for Attention

Muleshoe High School students were joined by Junior High School students Monday afternoon, February 17, at 3 p.m. to watch "the thrills and spills" of the Faculty vs Varsity Basketball benefit game.

In reality, the game was a hippie haven for faculty members, particularly the members of the pep squad and other enthusiasts.

Proceeds from the matched Hippie Faculty and "M" Club game will go to the "M" Club for new athletic equipment.

As to the scoring, the faculty succeeded in "slipping" by the Varsity by just 71 to 67 - points, that is.

Coach Gibson now holds the record for playing with the most fouls ever, it is reported by score-keepers. The game provided the many spectators with an enjoyable time.

Mrs. Rice Presents Assembly

by Vickie Street
Mrs. Don Rice presented a program for the student body Thursday, February 13. The topic of the program was "Light".

She began by showing several different types of lights. The first was a very powerful one that lit up the auditorium. Another looked much like a candle glowing in the dark. Yet, the most fascinating was an ultraviolet light which picked up all of the white in the room and made it look like neon signs.

Mrs. Rice pointed out that all colors are present in white light. When white light is shone on an object, the object becomes multi-colored.

Everyone enjoyed the program, which was informative as well as entertaining, and though most of the students went away "seeing spots," they went away a little wiser also.

Raymond Schroeder.

COLLEGE STATION -- Spanish is well entrenched into the 1969 home furnishings picture, according to an Extension home furnishings specialist. It has out-charmed all except Early American - Colonial - Federal designs. Bonny Lay says Spanish style will be seen in modified forms in every price bracket and in every category from juvenile to living room to outdoor furniture. Some call it Spanish others call it Mediterranean, says the Texas A&M spec-alist. Consumers find it romantic; designs are "rich and woody"--free and fanciful in interpretation, she adds. Early American gains ground with a new updating design and with some small-seated groups for rooms with space limitations, Miss Lay says. Oriental re-asserts itself at the market, mostly as a feeling or motif combined with the new contemporary. Woods, in order of popularity, will be pecan, hickory, walnut and oak. Others to make an appearance will be cherry, maple, birch, elm, ash, mahogany and in rare instances, persimmon.

pine, teak, acacia and wormy chestnut. Miss Lay says super finishes on fine hardwoods will make them resistant to household hazards. Most popular finishes will be the medium browns in both cool and warm tones. Molded plastics for decorations and imprints of wood graining will replace wood veneers and become more prevalent this year, she continues. In fabrics, velvets will be seen most frequently as covers for Mediterranean, traditional and some modern designs. Imported Belgium velvets in plain, striped, crushed, printed, and in cut and uncut versions will be prevalent. Making style news will be the suedes--real and simulated--the new chenille-type fabrics, simulated camel hair, heavy textured linens, the new end and end nylon warp - matelasses in leaf pattern and the Vectra (an olefin fiber which has built-in resistance), important in vinyl are the new crushed leather look and the reptile - skin appearance, says Miss Lay.

RECLUSE LEAVES FORTUNE Delmon, Pa. - Miss Ann McQuiken Keppie died recently leaving a fortune of $1,250,000. The 89-year-old recluse used a flashlight to save electricity and had no toilet facilities indoors. Her will directed her fortune to go to 20 educational institutions in Switzerland. Follow The Signs Imagine yourself in a train depot in a foreign country, and the signs are in a language unfamiliar to you. You know that the signs are there to direct you, and you try to figure them out, but despite your best efforts you are not sure of your interpretation. The natural thing to do then, is to check with an attendant and have him explain things to you. The Bible is a sign given to us, and directs us in a pathway of living. Interpreting these directions is not always easy, so the natural thing to do, should be to seek someone to help us. Our churches have many trained personnel who are familiar with the language of the Bible. Attend Church this week and follow God's way of life.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this groundin in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny. The truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

STAINS REMOVED
The sweeter things in life - such as chocolate covered cherries, creamy bon-bons and lollipops - may end up on the car upholstery, clothes, sofa cushions, or carpet as well as in the child's mouth. However, these familiar candy stains can be safely removed with soap or detergent suds.

Go to work on those sticky fingermarks and chocolate smears as soon as possible, so they won't be transferred to other surfaces and so that all traces of discoloration can be washed away easily.

Some of the most "popular" candy stains may be pretreated as follows:
CHOCOLATE: Wash with hot soap or detergent suds. Treat any remaining stain with a weak solution of household bleach or hydrogen peroxide if the fabric or surface permits. Then launder fabric or rewash area with warm to hot suds.
LOLLIPOPS, HARD CANDIES: Sponge with cool water, then wash, or launder with hot suds. Sponge sticky smudges from woodwork, mirrors, and other hard surfaces with warm suds, followed by a rinse-wiping with a clean damp sponge or cloth.
CREAMY FILLINGS, MIXED CANDIES: Stains consisting largely of sugar, milk or cream should be sponged with cool water to remove sugar and protein. Then wash with warm suds to remove grease. If any stain remains, treat it with a weak solution of household bleach or peroxide if suitable for the fabric or surface. Wash again with hot suds.

FRUIT - FILLED CANDIES: Sponge the stains with cool water and rub lightly with glycerine. After a few hours, apply a few drops of vinegar to the fabric, rinse this away after a minute or two, then wash with warm suds and rinse.

Whatever the stain, the quicker you get to work on it the better chance you have for success.

The History Of The Cross

New York (NAPS)-- You see it in churches. It adorns monuments, flags, and heroes' medals. Six million listeners of an internationally known radio broadcast wear it as an emblem in their lapels. There are many fascinating stories behind the symbol of the cross.

Centuries before Christ died, it was a symbol widely known throughout the ancient world. The Egyptians called it "canob," after a T-shaped instrument used to measure the annual rise of the Nile on whose bounty the life of the nation depended. For other nations of the East, it was an "urani" and took the shape of two pieces of wood with handles. By rubbing the two sticks together, the ancients kindled sacred fire.

As early as 1225 B.C., Greek worshippers of Baecus offered cakes of flour with a figure of the cross imprinted on them. The swastika, or twisted cross, which became a symbol of terror in the 20th Century, appears on the oldest medallions of the Buddhists and was a mystical good omen in many Hindu sects.

In the New World, the Spaniards conquered New Spain in the name of the cross. But they were astonished to find the holy emblem of their faith in the temples of the Aztecs. Colossal stone monuments throughout Mexico attest to an Indian civilization which adored crosses similar in design to the Greek, Latin, and Maltese forms.

The cross of Lorraine, which Joan of Arc wore into battle, became General Charles de Gaulle's symbol in leading the French resistance movement during World War II. A Swiss welfare agency which adopted as its emblem a red cross on a white field--reversing the color scheme in the Swiss flag--in 1864 organized a conference to help the sick and wounded soldiers of the world. Sixteen nations attended and established the International Red Cross.

A plain gold cross, worn in the lapel and given free to those who wish it is the emblem adopted by the largest radio mission in the world, The Lutheran Hour. More than six million gold crosses have been issued since the sponsoring Lutheran Laymen's League presented the first broadcast of this internationally known program more than 30 years ago. The emblems are now being requested by people in Communist-controlled lands, according to noted theologian Dr. Oswald Hoffmann of The Lutheran Hour. The program is aired in English and more than 35 other languages over more than 1,200 outlets, including 600 Mutual, NBC and independent stations in the U.S.

The cross was used as the instrument of national punishment in the time of Abraham. As a gallows, it was familiar to the Egyptians, Africans, Macedonians, Greeks and Romans. To various people it has meant a symbol of eternal life, productive power, or the life-giving quality of the sun.

For Christians around the world, the cross is a symbol of their faith. It was on a cross like an X; The Roman cross at Golgotha, where Christ died, only to rise again three days later, so is the cross.

"whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life,"

The early Christians portrayed Christ as the Good Shepherd, sometimes carrying a cross instead of a crook. From this evolved the custom of representing His people as sheep or lambs. At the end of the Sixth Century, the first form of crucifixion was used when St. Francis was praying, a voice from the crucifix told him, "Repair my house." At first he took "house" to mean church; when he later learned that it meant his own spiritual life, he renounced his worldly goods and took up orders. And the old wives' tale still persists in some quarters that the Gypsies are accursed because one of them, a wayfaring metalsmith, made the nails that were used at the Crucifixion!

LEGENDS OF THE CROSS

The rich history of the cross is shrouded in legend and superstition. A crucifix was said to have shed blood in 1512 during an Easter Day battle between the French and Spanish. A statue of Christ on the cross reportedly formed healing wonders during the Plague of Malaga in 1649. Legend also has it that when St. Francis of Assisi was praying, a voice from the crucifix told him, "Repair my house." At first he took "house" to mean church; when he later learned that it meant his own spiritual life, he renounced his worldly goods and took up orders. And the old wives' tale still persists in some quarters that the Gypsies are accursed because one of them, a wayfaring metalsmith, made the nails that were used at the Crucifixion!

CAR ROBBERIES DROP

New York--The owners of the 6,800 fleet taxicabs here reported there had been a sharp decline in assaults and robberies on cab drivers the last half of 1968. About 4,000 policemen received taxi licenses and drove cabs during off-duty hours and the installation of partitions helped to reduce the assaults.
