W. B. COOK SPECIAL AGENT OF I-G. N. RY.

Mr. W. B. Cook, formerly of the A. & M. College, has been appointed as agricultural agent of the I-G. N. Ry., with headquarters at Houston

Mr. Cook will be rembered by the people of Houston county as our demonstration agent before the war, and he was a good one. Since then he has made rapid progress in his profession and has won distinction on several occasions.

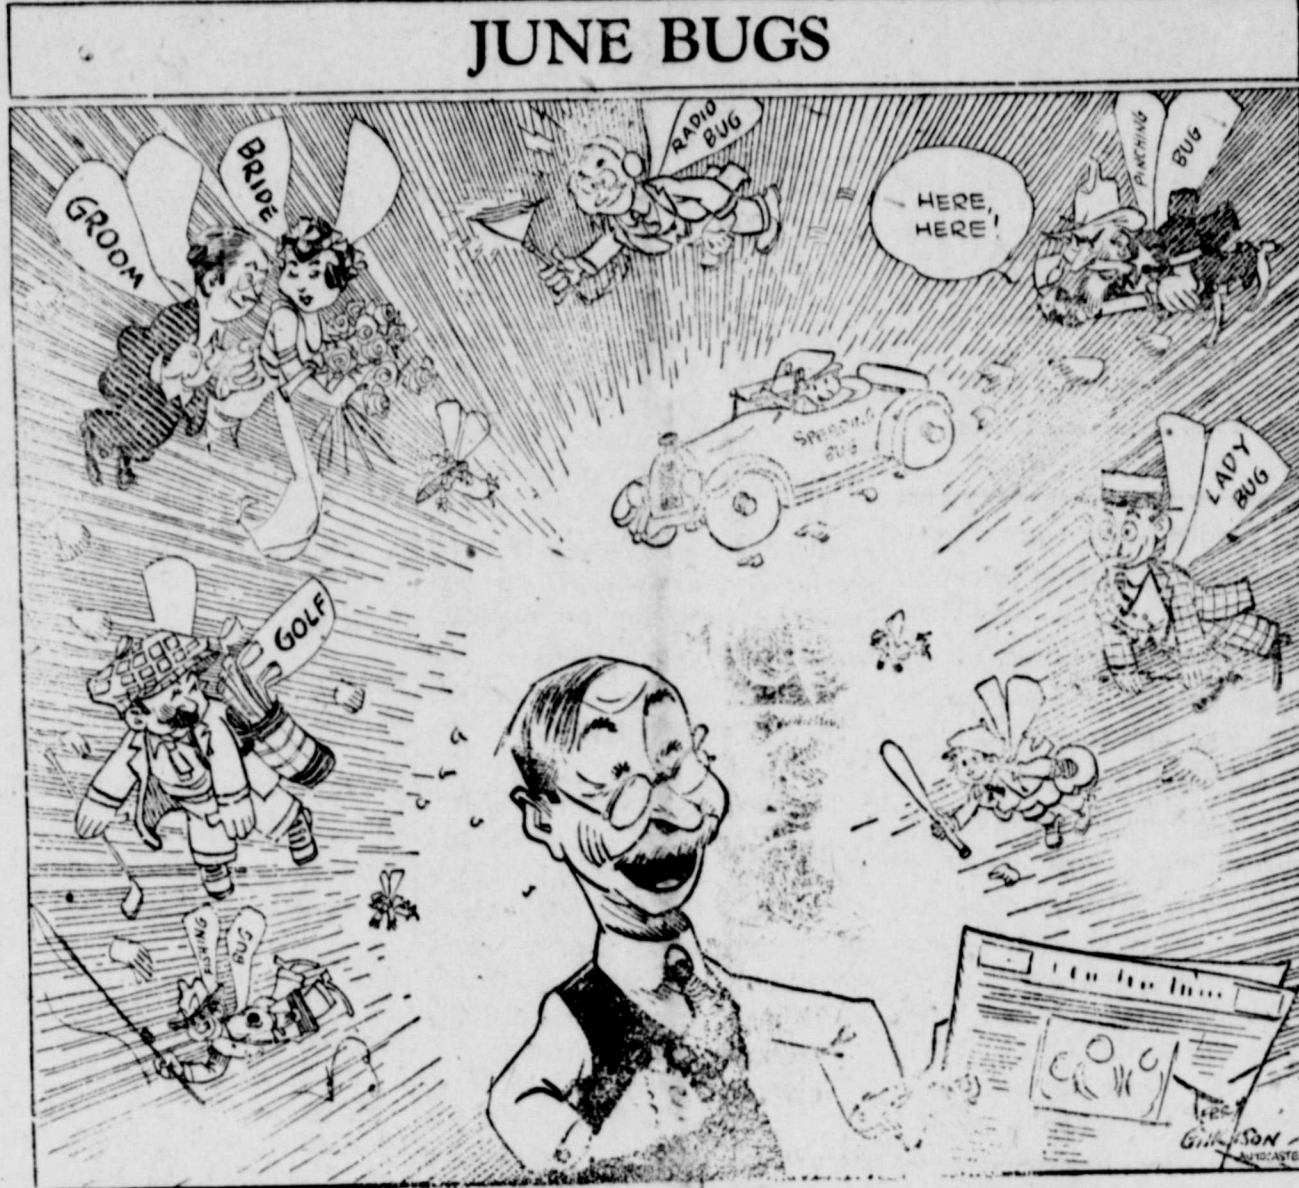

In making the appointment, T. A. Hamilton, president of the I-G. N., made the following statement:

"It is our intention to carefully investigate the soil and climatic conditions along our lines where there is room for development and also do what we can with Mr. Cook's aid in helping and assisting farmers in the solution of their problems. Mr. Cook comes to us with the highest recommendations and we have no doubt but that he will be of great service both to the railroad and to the state in fostering agricultural development in this section."

Mrs. Odell Faris and son of Lake Charles, La., are here on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Howard Mr. Faris will come a few days later and he and his family will make an auto trip to Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming.

THE CRADLE ROLL

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Reynolds, 306 Millard Ave., Houston, Texas, announce the birth of a son, Master Murdock Darsey, born May 29, 1923. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds formerly lived at Latexo. They frequently visited in Grapeland and have many friends here who congratulate them.

WANTED—Girls between the age of 18 and 25 to take up nursing. Good training school, 30 month's course. Board, room, laundry and small compensation while learning. For particulars address Dr. E. B. Parsons, President I-G. N. Ry Training School for Nurses, Palestine, Texas.

BIG ONIONS

Mr. J. R. Beeson of Livelyville community brought us two very large Bermuda onions Saturday, some of which he harvested from fall planting. They were larger than a saucer and of very fine flavor.

Mr. Beeson is one of our many farmers who "lives at home and boards at the same place." As paradoxical as it may sound, Mr. Beeson says he never really prospered until he quit raising cotton. He use to be a big cotton raiser and said he was always in debt. He turned his attention to other crops, cutting his cotton from three to five bales per year, and now is in position to pay as he goes.

Miss Lileene Brown came home Friday from Huntsville and will spend a week with home folk before returning for the summer term of school at S. H. N. I.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

The school board held a meeting Saturday night at which time the resignation of D. N. Leaverton as a member of the board was accepted and C. W. Kennedy was appointed to fill out the unexpired term.

The superintendency of the school was tendered to Mr. J. H. Rosser, former county superintendent, who now resides in Huntsville. As this is written his acceptance has not yet been received.

Mrs. J. S. Eaves and Misses Esther Darsey and Eva Gene Murchison were re-elected as grade teachers. High school teachers were elected at a former meeting. A primary teacher is yet to be elected.

Will give good home to girl or middle aged woman of good character that will help with house work. No field work required. Mrs. F. D. Luce, Elkhart, Texas, Star Route. 2t

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED ON DEATH OF ENGLISH

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a mass meeting of the citizens of Crockett, Wednesday morning, May 29th:

Whereas, on the 27th day of May, 1923, Jess English, deputy sheriff of Houston county, in the pursuit of his duty in assisting to capture two escaped state convicts near Grapeland, Texas, was shot and killed by one of said convicts.

And whereas, said Jess English was a good citizen, as well as a good and efficient officer of the law, with full conception of his duty, both as a citizen, and as such officer and was highly respected and esteemed by the citizenship of Houston county and as an expression of such feeling on the part of our citizens more than one thousand dollars has been raised by private subscription for his family, consisting of his widow, three children and aged mother, who survive him, and who were solely dependent upon him.

And whereas, we deplore the loss of a man of such character and hope that his example will be an incentive and stimulus to other officers of the law clothed with authority to enforce the law, to under all circumstances execute the same fearlessly and without favor in all stations of life.

And whereas, Jess English lost his life in the performance of a duty which he conceived to be to the state of Texas, as well as the good citizens of this county, and we think and recommend that this is a matter that the governor of the great state of Texas should take cognizance of, and if he should feel that he is not authorized as a matter of law to act in the premises, then we would respectfully ask that he submit the matter to the legislature of the state of Texas, which is now in special session for its consideration.

Where 76 Perished in School Fire

First and exclusive picture of the scene at Cleveland, South Carolina, where 76 perished when a kerosene lamp exploded at a school house amateur play. Whole families lost their lives and every family in the community suffered loss of life. Outside wooden stairs collapsed when the rush for safety was made.

AUGUSTA SUFFERS HEAVY FIRE LOSS

A big fire at Augusta last Friday morning almost wiped the business part of the town out of existence, destroying the general merchandise store of Newman Bros., the Masonic Lodge and Sidney Lively's grocery store.

The fire was discovered at about 5 o'clock Friday morning burning in Newman Bros. store. It had gained such headway that it was impossible to save any of the stock. Mr. Lively's store was just across the street and some of the goods were saved.

The Masonic Lodge was upstairs over Newman Bros. store. All the records, furniture, etc., of the lodge were a complete loss.

Newman Bros. were the heaviest losers, estimating their loss at about $7,000, partly insured. They will erect a temporary building in which to continue their grocery and feed business until fall, when they expect to rebuild an up-to-date store.

The origin of the fire is not known.

Miss Floy Boone, who has been attending school here has gone to her home at Mt. Selman.

Miss Clara Anderson left Wednesday for Denton, where she will attend school this summer.

All garden makers are expected to grow a surplus of beans for winter. They can be saved by canning, by evaporating or by drying. Drying the beans in the sun, in the old-time way, gives good baking beans, but no one wants baked beans all the time. If either string beans or shell beans are picked when they are at just the right stage for use on the table, and evaporated, they will make a most welcome addition to the winter larder. When soaked out, they are almost as good as when freshly picked.

HOMIE PHILOSOPHY for 1923

YOU can't put two quarts into a one-quart cup, so fill the cup with water and let the poison drinks run down the sewer. The waking hours of the day are fixed. There's only time for a little thinking. Here are Peace, Contentment, Love, Faith, Truth, Goodness, Harmony, Beauty, Kindness, Health, Gratitude, Success, Achievement, Happiness, Independence, Prosperity all waiting to be taken in. Let's fill the cup with these and let Spite, Revenge, Envy and Chienery wrestle with themselves on the outside. "No Admission Unless on Business" would be a good sign to pin on the head.

ANDERSON COUNTY SOON TO BUILD ROADS

Palestine, Tex., June 2.—Native crushed rock will be used in the construction of Anderson County highways, according to County Judge W. C. Quick. E. W. Davis, county engineer, has completed a survey of the proposed highways through the county and the actual work of road building will begin Aug. 1. The road leading north from Palestine through Montalba to the Henderson County line will be the first to be completed.

The attorney general's department at Austin recently approved the bond issue of $1,500,000 for good roads.

Plans of the county engineer provide for an eight-inch base of crushed rock to be topped with asphalt. Anderson County has an abundance of iron ore rock in all sections, which will afford excellent material for the construction of permanent roads.

Claims Stillman Cast Her Aside

Mrs. Florence Leeds, the woman in the case, in the sensational Stillman divorce suit now claims she has been "cut off" by the millionaire and former president of the National City Bank, N. Y. She has no money to support Jay Leeds, shown here with his mother, the son of Stillman. Mrs. Stillman now offers to assist the little boy.

SOME SCHOOL FACTS

From Superintendent Boone's annual report we take the following facts concerning the school, which will be of interest to the people:

Pupils enrolled in first 7 grades, 266; in high school 124. Total enrollment, 390.

Average daily attendance in first seven grades, 221.8; in high school, 99.6.

Amount paid out in salaries, $7,690.

Average cost per pupil based on salaries only and daily attendance, $24.

Valuation of the entire school property is placed at $34,350, which does not include the new building now under construction.

Comparing the above figures with the previous year, the school shows a very steady growth.

1921-22 the total enrollment was 327, with an average daily attendance of 272.1, as against 321.4 this year.

When corn makes a poor start and lacks a green color early in its growth a side dressing of fifty to seventy-five pounds of nitrate of soda when the plants are about two feet high will very often start the crop to growing vigorously. The Progressive Farmer.

FARM POPULATION WILL ADJUST ITSELF

The news paper editors of the country, and those who write financial reports and bulletins on business conditions, are making much ado about the decreasing farm population referred to by Department of Agriculture. City folks seem to be worried about what they are going to put in the ice box or on the pantry shelves; where it is going to come from and what they will have to pay for it if many more producers seek jobs in town. They are worrying needlessly. After awhile farm population will be reduced to the needs of the country. Then farmers will be in a position to demand and receive a just price for their products and for a time, they will prosper. However, just as soon as farming becomes profitable, most of those who moved to the city will go back to the country, taking with them their uncles and cousins, and then, unless organizations of producers have been perfected, there will be another season of overproduction, more speculation and low prices to producers and high prices to consumers. Every business, unless it be greatly complicated, or requires a large amount of capital to operate, is overdone, if by chance the pioneers in it made cost plus. So it is with farming. A high price for cotton one season is almost sure to be followed by a season of large acreage and low prices. Lack of profit in farming is reducing the number of farmers. Make farming pay cost plus and more will engage in it and prosperity will become lasting.—Farm & Ranch.

Be Ever Cheerful

The secrets of happiness and longevity, in my judgment, are to cherish and cultivate cheerful, hopeful and buoyant spirits. If you haven't them, create them. Enjoy things as they are. The raggedest person I ever saw was a Turkish peasant standing in the field, clothed in bits of old carpet. He was laughing hilariously at our well clothed party. The combination of color and humor made him a thing of beauty, if not a joy forever. Let us never lose our faith in human nature, no matter how often we are deceived. Do not let deceptions destroy confidence in the real, honest goodness, generosity, humanity and friendship that exists in the world. They are overwhelmingly in the majority.—Chaucey M. Dephew.

Mrs. Gossett and her little granddaughter, Mary Belle Hill, left Monday for Chirneo to visit relatives.

TRINITY RIVER RIPPLES

Reynard, June 4.—Every thing is looking good so far along farming lines, but lots of work to do before the tale is told, and another month before the feed bill will stop.

May goes on record as a very favorable month. June is here and is the testing time on corn. The way it will stand with out rain depends a great deal on the way it is laid by.

Cotton looks good and some are expecting blooms to open at most any time.

Douglass Beazley, styled the late corn man, has 18 or 20 acres of nice late corn and more to plant yet.

We are safe in saying Mrs. J. H. Beazley tops all in the way of gardening. We are not able to report who is leading in the chicken business, but saw a lot yesterday at Mrs. Doug Beazley's very near ready for the pan.

Our community was well represented at the New Prospect Sunday School rally and report a good time. No fall down in program or dinner.

C. C. Smith and family and the writer spent a very pleasant day at the home of Douglass Beazley yesterday.

Homer Beazley, who is working in Crockett, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his family.

Leland Chiles spent last week on the farm and walked between the plow handles, helping his brother out of his hail trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Fulgham spent a few days in Crockett last week, P. L. having some dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Beazley of Crockett are spending the week on the old camp ground, his river farm.

The writer met Mr. Joe Murray headed for his farm with a big car full of fine looking folks but did not recognize any of them but Mrs. Murray.

Ye scribe has in mind an annual July 4th celebration, where there will be lots of good eats and drink, under the shade of a big walnut tree and hopes to be there.

ROCK HILL NEWS

Rock Hill, June 4.—Rev. H. C. Funderburk came over from Rusk Saturday to fill his appointment here. We are going to have a rally at the church the first Sunday in July. The program will be announced later.

Our community was shocked and everyone made sad when at an early hour last Wednesday morning the news came that Mrs. Etta Helm was dead. Death was caused by poisoning, she having drank more than a bottle at an early hour. The boys had gone to the field to work. Later one returning for water, found his mother lying upon the floor dead. She had dressed herself for burial and by her side was found the empty bottle and a letter left to the children telling them how to carry on the work and to manage everything. She has lived in this and the Antrim communities all her life and had many friends who mourn for her. She leaves seven children, four boys and three girls, and to these as well as her father, mother, brothers and friends, we deeply sympathize. She was buried in Antrim cemetery Thursday beside her husband, who had preceded her several years. Rev. Bean, from Oak Grove who baptized her when a young woman, conducted the funeral services.

Newton Streetman and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brooks and Guy Willis attended the Children's Day exercises at New Prospect Sunday and report a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Willie Willis and two children have the mumps at this writing.

John Cook attended church Sunday at Shiloh. He is quite sick at this writing.

Limuel and Charlie Mack Streetman were here visiting relatives and attended church Saturday night and Sunday.

CONFEDERATE REUNION

The following attended the reunion of the Confederate Veterans of the U. S. A. held at Lovelady Tuesday: J. J.

Brooks, Camp Commander, H. M. Brown, J. T. Skidmore, R. H. Cook, W. S. Matthews, Hamp Huff, E. H. Darsey, E. G. Pennington, Sambo Pridden, W. R. Matthews, Leon Anderson, Mesdames J. J. Brooks, A. M. Rencher, Laura Goodson, R. H. Cook, H. M. Brown and Hudson and Miss Esther Darsey.

The veterans from Grapeland and Crockett were met by those from other parts of the county at the cemetery and a short memorial service was held prior to the opening of the reunion. After the transaction of the regular routine of business, the veterans and their friends were highly entertained by the people of Lovelady. Memorial and other services were held in the afternoon, after which the meeting adjourned.

NEW PROSPECT LOCALS

New Prospect, June 5.—Our Children's Day program, which was carried out by the Sunday school last Sunday, was attended by a large crowd. There were visitors from various places, too many to mention the names of all. We believe we noticed more visitors from Reynard than any other place. We were very glad to have all with us and hope every one went away feeling that the day was not misspent.

Miss Helen Koehl and her little niece, Vernon Cleveland, spent the week end at the home of Ed Musick, returning to their home at Riverside Monday.

Mrs. E. J. Musick, who spent several weeks at Alto, returned home last week.

The families of W. M. Caskey and J. R. Smith and several of our young people went to Guiceland to memorial services last Wednesday.

Misses Velma Chandler and Zelma Finck will go to Huntsville this week to attend the summer normal.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tucker of Monroe, La., were visitors at the homes of S. S. Rials and Ed Musick last week.

Mrs. W. J. Kyle had as her guests Saturday and Sunday, W. P. Chiles and wife of and Mrs. J. A. Allen and son of Reynard.

Mrs. N. J. Campbell spent several days last week with her daughter at Palestine.

GRAVEYARD WORKING

All interested in the Lone Star graveyard will please meet there Wednesday, June 20. Bring tools to clean the yard and a basket of dinner. Mrs. J. N. Tyer.

PERCILLA NEWS

Percilla, June 4.—Gardens and some field crops in our community are beginning to suffer for rain, but we became so sick of so much rain in the spring that it will take some more dry weather yet before we shall feel like praying for rain.

But wet or dry we shall be ready for the preachers this summer and Thanksgiving Day. Mrs. A. K. Lively has her whole premises spotted with spotted chickens, and Mrs. J. W. Furr has her whole premises speckled with young turkeys.

A number of our folks attended the Anderson County singing convention at Slocum Sunday and report a swell time.

Percilla singing class last night set on foot a move to have a normal singing school here this summer.

Non-stop Hero Wins
Bride by Flight

Miss Nellie Jay Turner of California promised Lieut. J. A. Meo ready she would marry him if he was successful in his non-stop airplane flight from New York to California. Here she is on her wedding day.

Society

Announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Thelma Lee Clewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Clewis, and Harry Richards was made Thursday evening at a reception given by Miss Melba Brock at her home. The wedding will take place the evening of June 30 and the announcement is of interest to a wide circle of friends.

Different games were played and soon afterward the announcement was made by a gipsy fortune teller. After receiving congratulations of their many friends, bits of advice were written to both by each guest.

The color scheme of white and green was charmingly carried out in the refreshments which consisted of delicious brick cream and cake. Plate favors were miniature corsages of lilacs and fern.

America's Marvels
NATURAL AND OTHERWISE

By T. T. Maxey

THE NIAGARA OF OUR NORTH-WEST

In the mountains of the Cascade range, southeast of the city of Seattle, in the state of Washington, three rollicking streams, born of melted snow, tumbling from the heights above, run together and form one larger stream. This broader, deeper stream, the Snequalme river, meanders along through peaceful valleys, fringed by heavily-timbered lands, presses onward between great hills which threaten to stop its course and then, all of a sudden, in the midst of surroundings of great beauty, flows over a sharp ledge and pours down gracefully into a deeply-carved gorge 270 feet below.

For centuries this nature-made spectacle, unknown, played its part in the general scheme of the universe. Even to this day it is practically unheard of nationally and is sought out by but a very few of the thousands of well-intentioned folks who, intent upon broadening their horizon of information and getting acquainted with their own country, journey across the continent to see what the other side is like. But the remarkable phenomenon of a river, hidden away amid the forests and mountains, deliberately dropping a straight 270 feet, and then continuing on its way to the sea, was destined to and did, eventually, come into its own as the development of our water-power resources began to claim attention.

The enormous potential power represented in this great waterfall deserved and received recognition. Engineers set to work to compel this falling water to end its wasteful and meaningless career and turn its energy to useful pursuits. And so it came to pass that an electrical generating plant was constructed a few hundred feet above the falls. Later a second power-producing plant was installed at the river's edge just below the falls. Now the force of the water which forms this great cataract is made to turn the machinery that develops hundreds of thousands of horse power of electrical energy. Much of this energy is transmitted long distances through the medium of heavily insulated high-tension cables and lights and otherwise serves the fast-growing cities of the Puget Sound region. Thus, without marring its beauty, man has made this majestic God-made waterfall serve his majesty, the American Citizen.

MR C. P. SMITH DEAD

Mr. C. P. Smith died at his home one mile east of Grapeland at an early hour Saturday morning, June 2, 1923, after an illness of several month's duration.

He was 72 years old and has been a resident of this community since 1893, moving here from Cherokee county. He was born in Alabama, but came to Texas when quite young.

The Grapeland Masonic Lodge had charge of the burial services, he having been a Mason for many years, and was just recently made an honorary member for life of the Grapeland Lodge. Rev. J. E. Bean had charge of the religious services at the grave. Interment was in Guiceland cemetery Saturday afternoon.

Surviving him is his aged wife and children, 3 boys and 3 girls: Mrs. Wade Spruill and Mrs. Eugene Walling of this city, and Mrs. W. R. Campbell of Middlethian; Will L. Smith of this city and Tumbon and Hiram Smith of Lamesa. All were present except the last two named, who could not get here on account of the distance.

"The Way, the Truth, and the Light" was the title of the Sunday School Day pageant rendered at the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday, by members from all departments of the school. The program was well gotten up and reflected great credit on its sponsors.

TRIBUTE TO THE DOG

The Almighty who gave the dog to be the companion of our pleasures and our toils, hath invested him with a nature noble and incapable of deceit. He forgets neither friend nor foe, remembers with accuracy both benefit and injury. He hath a share of man's intelligence, but no share of man's falsehood. You may bribe an assassin to slay a man, or a witness to take away his life by a false accusation, but you cannot make a dog tear his benefactor.—Sir Walter Scott.

Imagination is the key which unlocks the door to opportunity. Our job today is to get ready for to-morrow. Money is the trade token of labor. Labor is power—and power is good—when it is used with a thought of tomorrow.

The man standing behind that door is the YOU of to-morrow. Who is he and what he is depends upon you and you alone.

Initiative is the individual need today—it's the word with four "I's" in it. Put that word in your tomorrow's tool box—and use it. It will get you somewhere.

Indifference—Doubt—Lack of Self Confidence—Want of Purpose—they all lead to defeat and make labor drudgery and unprofitable.

Some Things We Must Do

We must not only feel the need of a revival, but we must be willing to meet the conditions necessary to have a revival.

And what are some of these conditions? Of course, we need a preacher, leader, and we have a good one, but he can't bring a revival and hand it over to us. We must be willing to let go for a few days the cares of the world, come together and pray earnestly for a refreshing from the presence of the Lord.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

"Slimy Taste"

"When I feel stupid, get constipated, or bilious, I take a good dose or two of Black-Draught and it sets me straight," writes Mr. George B. Haislep, of R. F. D. 2, Columbia, S. C. "It cleanses the liver and I feel all right, and have not used any other medicine as I do not see the need of it. I am a guard at the State Reformatory, and have been for three or more years. When I first heard of and the good medicine it was, I had been having a tired feeling when I'd get up in the morning. I would be stiff and sore, and had a slimy, bad taste in my mouth, but didn't think so much of it till I began to feel stupid and didn't feel like eating—then I knew I needed medicine. It was then I began Black-Draught, and I felt all made over, ready for any kind of work, ready to eat and sleep. So, for any return of this trouble, I take Black-Draught, and for 25 years it has been my medicine, and I wouldn't be without it at all. My work is constant. I am on my feet a lot. I am out of doors, and fresh air and Black-Draught are all the medicines I need. I recommend it to others for I know it is good."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

GOING COUE ONE BETTER

If you "do things," keep your body well exercised, clean and free from all contamination, get down to work and become better and better by practice, you will find it a thousand times more valuable than just telling yourself that you are getting better and better. It is action which counts. Do not be satisfied with telling yourself that you can accomplish things and obtain health and happiness. You can attain to most things that others have achieved; set right to work and practice the things that develop your character and abilities. That is the half of the truth that Coue has left out of his system.—Health and Life.

It's easy to cuss your town; it's also easy to drift down stream, but it takes a real swimmer to breast the current and swim up stream. Savvy? Just any old body can grumble.—San Augustine Tribune.

The House and the Lot

If the house as the architect designs it is too large for the lot, one of two things must be done. Either the house must be reduced to suit the lot or the lot must be increased to suit the house. To each individual has been given a nature so complex, with abilities and powers so varied, that the earthly environment in which he has been placed is disproportionately small. Either he must reduce his nature to suit his environment or he must increase his environment to suit his nature.—United Presbyterian.

Our cynical old bachelor friend says the average married man expects his wife to share his troubles with him, as she causes most of them.—Mineral Wells Index.

Mixed swimming parties are apparently getting to be more common, which means that they are getting to be more popular. But regardless of that, The Banner is wholly and unreservedly opposed to them. If the parents of this country knew even half as much about the damning influences of mixed bathing parties as this Editor does, they would put a veto upon their daughter's going out before the opposite sex clad in a one or two-piece, skin-fitting garment of not sufficient weight and thickness to wad a shot gun.—Troup Banner.

A VERSATILE BARBER

A Boston man spending his vacation in a small town entered the barber shop for a shave. As the barber worked he made several slips of the razor and each time pasted a small piece of paper over the cut to stop the bleeding. When finally he got through, the man handed him a dollar and as the barber started for change remarked: "Keep the change. It is worth a dollar to be shaved by one so gifted. Why, man, you are a barber, a butcher, and a paperhanger combined."—Capper's Weekly.

Dr. A. M. Fisher, dentist of Grapeland, was in Elkhart Wednesday meeting friends. The doctor is much interested in our highway which is now about to commence to be built, and hopes it will come in such a way that Grapeland interests will receive some of its benefits. We think it will.

Mrs. Etta Helm, widow of the late L. B. Helm, living near Elkhart, committed suicide Wednesday by taking poison. She had planned her death, taking advantage of the absence of the family while at work in the field. Family troubles and grief over the death of her husband is reported as the cause. She was buried in the Antrim cemetery today.

There are several children who survive her. She was well known by many residents of Elkhart who regret the taking of her own life.

SHEPPARD'S OPINION ON GOV. SMITH'S ACTION

"The action of Gov. Smith will in no way arrest or weaken the cause of prohibition," said Senator Morris Sheppard, author of the eighteenth amendment, discussing the signing of the bill repealing the New York State prohibition enforcement act.

"In fact, Gov. Smith's action will clear the atmosphere in the State of New York and enable us to put on guard there prohibition officials who believe thoroughly in carrying out the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act.

"The American people believe in sustaining and enforcing the law and will array themselves solidly behind our Government in making effective the prohibition statutes as well as all other duly enacted measures."
