REVIVAL MEETING AT AUGUSTA

A two weeks Methodist revival meeting closed at Augusta last Sunday night, which was under the leadership of Rev. W. O. Bucy, an evangelist from Greenville who was assisted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Stewart. This was pronounced by many as the best meeting held at Augusta in years as was evidenced by the large crowds who filled the house at every service, many from outside communities attending. Six members were added to the Methodist Church on profession and a total of about twenty five conversions and reclamations is reported.

Rev. Bucy is a forceful preacher and choir director and an efficient organizer. He and the pastor are in similar campaign at Liberty Hill, having started a meeting in that community last Monday night.

BAPTISTS OBSERVE HOME COMING DAY

The membership of the Baptist church had a great day last Sunday, the occasion being home-coming day for all members of the church. A special program had been arranged and a very pleasant day was spent. Dinner was spread under trees near the church.

Miss Hudson of Palestine, prominent in Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. work, was present and gave an interesting lecture and demonstration of the work.

The church expects to call a pastor for full time within the next few weeks.

Dr. Shelfer has arranged to be with me again Wednesday and Thursday, October 10th and 11th. Keep in mind the long winter nights will soon be with us again and one should have good glasses to enjoy reading and sewing without injuring their eyes. Do not neglect the children in school; many of them are badly in need of good glasses. Remember the dates and call as early as possible.

J. H. Ryan, Druggist.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET WAS ENJOYED

Last Friday night in the large study hall at the high school building the Grapeland Chamber of Commerce staged their first banquet.

It was a very elaborate and enjoyable affair. Covers were laid for 100 and every seat was taken. Quite a number were turned away for lack of room.

The banquet was in charge of the Parent-Teachers Association, who prepared and served the food, and the profit they made, which was a very neat sum, will be applied in buying curtains and scenery for the stage in the auditorium.

Mr. W. A. Riall, President of the Chamber of Commerce, was toast master, and kept the audience in a very happy mood. All speeches were limited to two and one-half minutes, and no speaker exceeded the time, but everyone responded in a happy optimistic vein. The theme of all speeches was "a greater and better Grapeland."

Music was furnished throughout the entire time by Miss Frances Stafford at the piano and Miss Dora Johnston with the violin. Mrs. Wade L. Smith rendered a very beautiful solo and Miss Lucile Howard gave two splendid readings.

Sunday School Home Coming

A happy occasion of unusual interest has been planned by the Methodist Sunday School of Crockett for Oct. 14th in the celebration of an old fashion "Home Coming" at which time it is desired that every person who attended that Sunday School in the past, if possible, be present. Invitations have been mailed to all people whose addresses we have been able to secure and those pupils of former days whose addresses are unknown to us are just as welcome, so be sure and come. If you have taught a class in that Sunday School in the past come and meet your pupils and let's have an enjoyable time together.

A special program has been arranged for your enjoyment and to let you see how the present day school is conducted compared with the school you attended. It will be our pleasure to welcome you. Sincerely,
Leroy L. Moore,
Supt. Methodist S. S.

NEXT MONDAY IS CLEAN UP DAY

At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce next Monday October 15, was set apart as clean up day in Grapeland and all citizens are called upon to put their premises in a neat appearance. We want to clean the old town here from center to circumference, up an down and all around, make it spick and span for the hundreds of visitors who will be here during the fair.

Provisions will be made to haul off all trash in the down town district, if it will be raked and piled in a convenient place.

Mr. Glenn, the section foreman, will bring his section crew in town Saturday morning and clean the weeds from the railroad right of way. Mr. Glenn assured us he would take pride in keeping the right of way clean if the people would stop dumping trash out there. Furthermore, he said they had no right to use the railroad right of way as dumping ground for filth, as it was private property. He is right, and for decency's sake the practice ought to be stopped.

So bright and early Monday morning let us begin to rake and burn and rid the town of all rubbish.

A. H. Luker,
Sec. Chamber of Commerce.

We certainly appreciate the generous patronage the people have been giving us lately. We can account for it from the fact that we have complete lines of shoes, dry goods, groceries and hardware and charge very reasonable prices for our stuff. Keep coming to see us and we will keep saving you money. Lively & Kellam, Percilla, Tex.

"More per acre—smaller acreage," should be adopted as a slogan for Southwestern farmers. The cost of production is quite as important in figuring profit and loss as is the price received for any commodity. Generally speaking, the larger acre production, the better the quality of the product, and the less cost per pound or bushel. Better seed beds, better seed and better cultural methods are required to increase acre production. In other words, better farming on a smaller acreage will decrease production cost, which is half the battle.—Farm & Ranch.

Joe—Is your wife a good cook?
Charlie—You bet! She's the best little can opener in America!"

Our specialists in agriculture are advising early cleaning up of fields, the turning under of all stubble, weeds and cotton stalks, not only for the purpose of destroying insect life, but to add organic matter to the soil. In doing this, the farmers kill more than the proverbial two birds with one stone. They destroy insect life, add organic matter to the soil and, in addition, have their fields in condition to absorb winter moisture, and ready for early planting.—Farm & Ranch.

COLORED MAN DROPPED DEAD

Ed Coleman, colored, about 50 years of age, dropped dead last Friday at his home in the Hays Spring community.

He was in apparently good health, and had just returned from a neighbor's house and walked into the dining room of his home when members of his family saw him fall. He was dead by the time they reached him.

Esq. John A. Davis went out and held the inquest, rendering a verdict that death was caused from natural causes.

Texas claims to have the largest pecan tree in the United States, probably the largest in the world, standing near Lampasas, and because of its fame the nuts are sold to individuals who want to plant trees, some sales having been made for as much as $500 where the nut was extremely large and promising. The owner is very proud of the tree and its fame and income. He cares for it scientifically and has it sprayed by the state inspector of pecan trees, who used on the last spray over 100 gallons of spray and reported that the topmost branches of the tree reached a height of more than 100 feet, that the tree was growing and doubtless would add materially to its height.—Honey Grove Signal.

FAIR NOTES

Anything you have to exhibit in the way of farm products, canned goods, art needle work, or curios, please bring them to the school building and turn them over to Mr. Boone. He will receive, tag and store them until they are put on display by the committees. They will be safe; kept under lock and key until the fair.

Quite a number of people have told us they are going to have some good poultry in the fair. The poultry show ought to be the best feature of the fair.

If you want to be represented in the parade communicate with the committee: W. H. Long, W. D. Granberry and Bob Scarborough.

A. C. Casey informs us that Augusta will have a community exhibit. Those people out there have lots of good stuff to exhibit and no doubt will carry off a prize.

The entertainment feature of the fair will be great. The Texas Kid Rodo show is one of the best on the road. They carry about 28 bucking horses, and in addition to the rodeo have a ferris wheel, hobby horses and a number of shows and concessions. There will be no end of entertainment.

The Grapeland Gun Club will hold a shoot on the Selkirk field two days of the fair, Wednesday and Thursday. Invitations have been mailed out to prominent shooters all over the state. They are making an effort to get Adolph Topperwein to come and give an exhibition of fancy pistol and rifle shooting. He is the best fancy shot in the state.

A place will be provided to shelter and feed all livestock exhibited, at night, so exhibitors will not have to carry them home. Nearby lots have been secured for this purpose.

ROCK HILL NEWS

Rock Hill, Oct. 8.—Cotton picking is about over; little more remnants then it will soon be sold for the nice price its now bringing. Some are purchasing cars, then all aboard for the "Grapeland Fair" just three weeks off. Some of our folks are preparing exhibits for the fair.

Our teachers came in yesterday and school opened up this morning with a good enrollment. Everything seems to be starting off nicely and we're hoping for a successful term.

A nice crowd attended church yesterday. The business finished up for the past year, Rev. H. C. Funderburk, who has been the faithful and loyal pastor for two years, declined to serve the church again and his father, Rev. L. D. Funderburk of Elkhart was called as pastor.

Mr. Henry Weisinger from West Texas is visiting at the home of his brother, Z. W. Weisinger. "Uncle" Edd Weisinger is very sick at this writing. Also W. R. Matthews is on the sick list.

Albert Thomas, who has been in the army for three years is now at home with his father, M. C. Thomas.

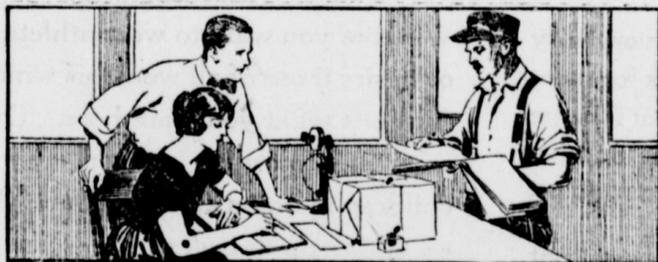

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McDonald of Palestine visited home folks here Sunday.

Willie Willis had the misfortune of losing a very valuable Jersey cow last week, this making the second one he has lost lately.

"What can I preach about next Sunday that will please the entire congregation?" asked the new minister.

"Preach about the evil of riches," replied the old deacon. "There isn't a member of the congregation that is worth over $2,000."—Chicago News

BUY AT HOME

From time to time The Messenger has urged the people to buy everything they can at home. We grant that a man has the right to spend his money where he chooses, but at the same time we believe it is to his interest to spend his money with his home town merchant, all things being equal. The biggest objection we can urge against mail order houses is that they never contribute one cent in the communities where they get their business to the upkeep of churches, schools, roads or anything of that character. It's all coming in and nothing going out with them.

To combat the mail order evil, merchants of small towns like Grapeland must learn that in waging their fight for existence they must adopt new methods in fighting mail order concerns and induce people to trade at home. They must adopt the same methods and fight fire with fire, as the western settler does with prairie and forest fires.

The great mail order houses are the great consuming flames which threaten to wipe out many small retail merchants, unless these, realizing their danger, take steps to remove the menace. The merchants in Grapeland are beginning to realize that they must fight fire with fire and to save themselves they must build a "backfire."

Advertising is the modern weapon with which the mail order houses conduct their warfare on the retail merchants of the smaller communities and towns. They do their own advertising through their catalogues and other media. They spend thousands of dollars advertising, while local merchants stand idly by and do not spend a cent because, they say, "everybody knows me."

We are glad to say that a majority of Grapeland merchants are endeavoring to make it well worth the while of the people of this section to purchase from them, and special inducements are being offered from time to time.

These are stirring times. And you must keep stirring if you expect to have any time at all.

We are going to have the biggest fair in the world for the size of the town. You come and see.

Hundreds of people are being attracted to Grapeland this fall to do their trading who have been going elsewhere. Let's treat them right, make friends with them and they will keep coming.

NEFF SAYS PRISON CROPS WILL EXCEED EXPENSES

Austin, Texas, Oct. 8.—Gov. Neff has completed his inspection tour of the State prison farms and returned to Austin Monday after an absence of ten days. Discussing his trip, the Governor said:

"During the last ten days I visited the penitentiary farms, consisting of 40,000 acres of land in cultivation.

"It will be remembered that these farms are widely scattered, one bordering the Gulf of Mexico, while another is washed by the waters of the Red River. The crops, consisting of cotton, corn and cane, are unusually good this year. These farms will produce about 200,000 bushels of corn, 6,000 bales of cotton, 3,000 tons of cotton seed, 200 tons of milo maize and a considerable crop of sugar cane, which will produce, at the present market value, about $85,000 worth of sugar.

"The penitentiary system this year will make considerably more than operating expenses. It is conservatively estimated that the cotton, corn and cane raised on the farms will exceed in value by far $1,000,000. This is in excess, considerably, of the running expenses of the penitentiary system during the year."

LIBERTY HILL NEWS

Liberty Hill, Oct. 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tims and children motored through to Huntsville Friday. They will make that place their future home. Their absence will be missed in many ways. They were our friends and neighbors and both were influential Church and Sunday School workers.

Miss Ruby Young of Huntsville has spent the week end in our community but we waved her good-bye just now while on her way to Weches. She will hold a position in the school at that place.

Rayford and Marshall Moore of this place have gone to take charge of their schools. We wish them great success.

Albert Holcomb of Alto has been over on business this past week.

Eugene Holcomb and family of Alto were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ramey Sunday. They were accompanied home by Grandma Ramey.

J. B. Young of Huntsville is here on business for a few days. We always welcome him and wish he could make an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Gale visited Mrs. Jot Wright of Percilla Saturday night.

WALTON AND MOBS SCORED BY JUDGE

Tulsa, Ok.,—Oct. 8.—Instructing the first Federal grand jury convened in Oklahoma since martial law was declared by Gov. J. C. Walton, Judge Albert L. Williams referred Monday to both Gov. Walton and members of masked mobs as "trampling the law under foot."

"You stand in the presence of your country and the God of hosts in making these investigations," Judge Williams told the grand jurors, "and if there ever was a time when a grand jury should consider the law carefully it is a time like this in Oklahoma, where, on one side the executive has tramped it under foot and on the other the mob has done the same thing".

The court ordered the grand jury to investigate particularly liquor law violations and transgressions of the Federal banking statutes.

Judge Williams is a former Governor of Oklahoma.

ness at that place. We wish them well.

Our teachers are giving satisfaction so far and we feel and trust that they are capable of leading our children by example as well as precept to high ideals. If the parents in general will cooperate with them we are sure the community will be enlivened and made better by having them here with us.

We had a Farmers Union man to meet with us Saturday night. The community was well represented.

We are told that Mr. Jim Langham has purchased him a new car and will say further that all of us who don't own a car want one.

NO BOY SCOUTS IN PRISON

Although it would take a large sized library to house the volumes on crime that have been published during the last fifty years, there is not one of them accepted as authoritative. The criminal has been weighed, measured, examined physiologically and psychologically, and subjected to all manner of experimentation without revealing the exact proportions of the forces responsible for his tendencies.

In no given case has it been possible to say precisely how much was due to heredity, training or environment. But out of the conflict of theories arise a few definite truths, and among these is that early training is of vital importance as determining good or evil behavior. This belief is materially strengthened by the statement of Warden James A. Johnston of San Quentin, California, state penitentiary that the crime problem is a boy problem, and Boy Scouts are not found in prison.

It is a striking tribute to the Boy Scout movement. And the thousands of citizens who have had opportunity to observe its workings are not hard to convince that it is fully warranted.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

An enterprising coal dealer adopted for his "slogan," which he printed on his bills, the following motto: "It's a black business, but we treat you white."

A customer, on receiving his account recently for his supply of coal at the price of $22 per ton, inclosed his check in payment, and at the same time suggested that the merchant change his motto to read: "It's a dirty business, but we clean you good."—Judge.

An apron connecting the radiator with the fender skirts is also a decided improvement.

WILD DOGS

It is reported that a bunch of wild dogs are in a woody marsh just east of town, and that at night they make excursions into nearby pastures and attack cattle. It is said that several calves have been attacked by the dogs and some of them greatly injured.

Local sportsmen should go out and try their hand at exterminating the dogs for eventually they might become bold enough to attack school children who pass along that way.

Crime costs the nation 3,000 million dollars a year. Fraudulent bankruptcy and forgery are among the most costly crimes. But even those are of the little kind. The mammoth crime is in stock frauds, which cost the people 1000 million dollars every year. Fraudulent bankruptcies cost the public about 400 million each year. The cost of American crime is greater by 500 millions than the value of all our importations from foreign countries. And that "crime cost" does not include the cost of prisons, policemen, judges, etc. What is the remedy? Education, of course. —Atlanta Georgian.
