Development of City Land Into Great Landing Field Proposed After Air Transport Man Talks

OLD HOME TOWN

"Business is mighty good," says O. C. Brinkley, of the Nabors Furniture. "I am leaving today for Dallas to make more purchases for our store—this in addition to our regular weekly buying schedule. There has been very little slack in our furniture business this summer, and we expect sales to increase steadily now on through the holidays."

MANY NOTED PERSONS ON BIG PROGRAM

Land has been cleared north of Lake Cisco in preparation for the first annual encampment of district two of the Christian denomination which begins here next Saturday, August 20, to last through September 5. Other details looking toward success of the encampment are now being completed, and J. M. Rieger of Breckenridge, chairman of the encampment committee, declared here that he expected at least 1,000 out of town members of the congregation to attend the event. Some of them will stay the entire 17 days of the encampment, while others will stay a day or two or a week at a time.

Licenses were awarded the pilots and call letters were assigned as follows: El Encantado, KKK; Oklahoma, Griffin and Kenley, KOE; Pacific Flyer, Maj. Irving, XGGA. The radio equipment of the "Woodcock," the ship of Art Goebel and Lieut. Davis was passed by inspectors but no call letter has yet been assigned.

Moral: Invest Your Money in Cisco and Nobody Can Rob You

DALLAS, Aug. 13.—Sam Johnson was convinced today his life time opposition to banks was not worthwhile. He had saved $5,000 during the 35 years he was employed by Sanger Bros. He carried the money in his pocket. Late yesterday he lost four $500 and four $50 bills. Sam deposited the remaining $2,800 in the bank today.

$50 PREMIUM FOR CISCO'S FIRST BALE

John Childs of Harpersville Saturday was paid a premium of $50 for being the first to bring in a bale of cotton from the 1927 crop and marketing it in Cisco. The chamber of commerce gave $25 as a premium and D. J. Moss raised the remainder by public subscription. Mr. Moss also raised a fund sufficient to pay $25 for the second bale and $12.50 for the third to be marketed here. The first bale was brought in Thursday, but no others have yet arrived.

"Made a trip to Brown county yesterday and found cotton looking mighty good," declared F. A. Blankenbecker of the B. & H. Motor company, which has an agency at Brownwood as well as Cisco. "Conditions were holding up mightily well down there, as well as at Cisco, and I am certainly gratified with the way business has held up this year in spite of the oil price cut."

TEXAN SLAYS DIVORCEE AND THEN HIMSELF

TEXARKANA, Aug. 13.—H. J. Moon, pawnbroker, found in the woods south of here Thursday morning with a bullet in his head, died without regaining consciousness. About 70 yards from where Moon was found by the dead body of Mrs. Mabel Vogel, 35, a divorcee. She had two bullet wounds in her head. Officers said Moon killed the woman and then shot himself.

TEXAS CITRUS FRUIT FACING U. S. EMBARGO

AUSTIN, Aug. 30.—About thirty inspectors will be added to the state's agricultural staff to examine citrus fruit shipped out of the Rio Grande valley. R. E. McDonald, entomologist for the department, announced today after receiving notice from the federal government that an embargo against citrus fruit grown in Texas had been declared. Discovery of Mexican fruit worms in these three counties led to the quarantine. "Conditions are much better in the valley," according to McDonald, "but there was always danger of migration of the pest from Mexico."

KANSAS RAIN THREATENING MANY TOWNS

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 13.—Heavy rains fell over Kansas today. At some points rainfall amounted to as much as 7 inches. Flood conditions prevailed along creeks and rivers in the vicinity of Salina and Holsington and at Olathe, six and a half inches of rain fell between midnight and 4 a. m. Train service on the Missouri-Pacific near Holsington was badly delayed today, and to the east, west and south of that city tracks were washed out. Streams around Great Bend were bank full and farmers in lowland sections were forced to move to higher ground. All trains on the Union Pacific between here and Denver today were behind schedule. Rivers are reported rising in the western part of the state. Motor traffic was handicapped.

50 CISCOANS WILL ATTEND ROTARY MEET

Fifty reservations for Ciscoans who will attend the inter-city Rotary meeting to be held at Eastland Monday night at 7 o'clock have been made, according to Secretary Tom Foley of the Cisco club. It is probable that a larger number of Rotarians and Rotary Annas will attend from here. It is said a meeting of the boards of directors of the Eastland, Ranger and Cisco clubs will precede the dinner which will count as a regular Rotary meeting and make it possible for those absent from last week's meeting to make up their attendance, it was said.

DAIRY TRIP TO INCLUDE MANY TOWNS

Ten representatives of Eastland county communities and the Cisco chamber of commerce will leave Cisco August 21 on a tour of the dairying sections of Texas which will cover 1476 miles, last two weeks and afford a visit at practically every important dairying center in Texas. It was announced Saturday. The places to be visited include: Hico, Waco, Temple, Taylor, Austin, San Marcos, San Antonio, Kennedy, Alice, Fairburn, Kingsville, Corpus Christi, Cuero, Victoria, Wharton, Houston, Galveston, College Station, Ennis, Dallas, Fort Worth and Cisco, in the order named. A study of production and marketing of dairy products will be made.

Following a meeting at the chamber of commerce here Saturday, attended by several directors of the chamber of commerce and others interested in aviation, an inspection was begun of available sites here for use as an airport. The gathering was addressed by Minton Ramsey, representative of the West Texas Air Transport, Inc., of Abilene, who described the possibilities existing here for development of a great airport which would serve both an east and west mail line and a north and south line expected to be established within the near future. Cisco's location at the junction of three railroads serving the city from five directions and its excellent highways leading in all directions were pointed out as features which would almost insure the success of Cisco as a stopping point on an air mail line.

Following Mr. Ramsey's talk, several of those present at the meeting visited land owned by the city of Cisco and which it was declared is suitable for development as an air port. More than 100 acres is available, it was said. The matter of developing this land will be taken up at a meeting of the board of directors of the chamber Tuesday night, it was announced.

Among those present at the meeting were P. W. Campbell, W. W. Wallace, A. B. O'Flaherty, Leonard G. Simon, J. E. T. Peters, Mayor J. M. Williamson, T. Hunter Foley and Tom Whitehead.

BOSTON, Aug. 12.—Members of the Provincetown Art colony, made up of some of the best known writers, poets, painters, playwrights and critics of the country, opened headquarters of a new defense committee in an exclusive Beacon Hill hotel with the purpose of having President Coolidge intervene by opening the department of justice records, which reveal, it is said, Sacco and Vanzetti suffered at their trial because of their radical belief.

NAT NOELL, WAR VETERAN BURIED HERE

Un disturbed by the fact that Boston police broke up their meeting last night, arresting four members of the speakers attempted to assail Governor Alvin T. Fuller and trial Judge Webster Thayer, the original Sacco-Vanzetti defense committee announced a final protest meeting for tomorrow afternoon. Efforts by this committee to obtain a meeting hall failed, and the mayor suspended a Boston Commons permit.

TREE SPRAY ORDERED TO AID CISCOANS

A barrel spray for use in spraying trees in Cisco, particularly hackberry trees which have been reported as dying, has been ordered by E. H. Varnell, vocational agricultural expert of the Cisco chamber of commerce and is expected here for use Wednesday. He announced Saturday night. Texan Is Held In California

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 13.—Lawrence J. Stern, under indictment for using the mails to defraud at El Paso, Texas, was held in $10,000 bond by federal judge Frank H. Kerrigan after Stern had been brought here from Chico, Calif., where he was arrested by federal authorities who charged he jumped bail of $5,000 in the Texas city. Stern is said to be one of five men under indictment in Texas on a charge of defrauding ranchers on the sale of oil stock.

Disappearance of an alligator from the Lake Cisco zoo some time back is now believed solved.

A report in the De Leon Free Press recently stated that an alligator had been found in a hen's nest at the farm of Alvin Stringfellow, near De Leon. Much speculation was indulged in regarding how the alligator could have gotten so far inland from the swamps of East Texas and Florida. It was recalled that several months ago an alligator was placed in the Lake Cisco zoo by Dr. Charles Hile, to whom it was sent from Florida. A few days after incarceration, the alligator escaped and no trace of it was found. It is now believed the reptile made its way down Sandy creek and later made it across the sandy fields near De Leon to the hen's nest where it was found. Stringfellow took the reptile to a carnival show which was playing in the town at the time, and it is now furnishing attraction to people who visit the carnival.

Joe Godbey, former superintendent of the Cisco public schools, and Mrs. Godbey have been the guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. William Reagan. Their daughter, Miss Emma Lee Godbey has been visiting Miss Helen Crawford. Mr. Godbey is now superintendent of schools at Ardmore, Okla. The family expects to leave for Carlsbad, N. M., to see the mammoth Carlsbad cavern.

The attending physician said his death resulted from strangulated hernia of long duration.

Cotton Breaks in Better Weather

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—Cotton broke sharply half a cent Saturday under heavy liquidation from commission house quarters as well as steady selling from the south. A decided improvement in weather conditions added an unsettled factor and the volume of trade buying was not adequate to furnish stability. December broke through 19 cents and the list closed around the bottom of the day. Spots were reduced 1-2 cent to 19 cents.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13.—Twenty-six girls after a walkout from El Retiro, a county school and home for homeless girls, Friday night took refuge in juvenile court here and issued an ultimatum that they would not return to the institution until the system of self-government, overthrown by the new superintendent, Mrs. Rosemary E. Good had been reinstated. The girls, ranging in age from 15 to 18 years, most of whom walked the 18 miles in the summer sun from El Retiro in San Fernando valley, to the city, were supported in their declaration by Miss Jean Shontz, acting referee of the juvenile court. She said the girls would not be asked to return to El Retiro and that they would not be punished for their departure.

APPRECIATION FOR OUR TRADE

Summer is fast drawing to a close, and before most of us know it, the fall season will be upon us. The first bale of 1927 cotton is already in the bale, and it won't be long now until the busy fall season will be upon us. But before that time, it seems to the Daily News, it would be appropriate for Cisco to send its envoys of trade to the various towns and communities within its trade territory to express appreciation of our merchants for the patronage of our neighbors in the past, and invite them to come to Cisco again this fall to satisfy their needs. More and more each year Cisco depends upon the good will of its neighbors, and it seems but right that we should express our appreciation for the splendid trade we have enjoyed in the past, by paying a personal visit to our friends and neighbors in their home towns. Before our own business men get too busy to make the trip and before our neighboring towns get too busy to receive our merchants, the Daily News believes the trip should be made. It would be a great thing for members of the Cisco Retail Merchants' association to sponsor the trade tour and by this means get acquainted with their customers in their home communities.

THE MAY-RISING STAR ROAD

Action of Rising Star and Brownwood in agreeing to finance improvement of the road between Rising Star and May deserves commendation. Their action is typical of West Texas. When others fail to do what should be done, West Texas towns get up and do it themselves. The Cisco-Brownwood road, including that stretch which is to be graded by private subscription, should by all rights be a designated state highway, built and maintained by the state. It serves a great stream of traffic going north and south, and does more than serve the communities through which it passes. Some of these days its necessity as a state highway will be recognized by the proper officials, but in the mean time it has to be traveled, and the cities which have taken upon themselves the burden that should be borne by some one else deserve the thanks of us all.

WEST TEXAS FACES BIG MENACE

The conference to be held at Abilene this week on protection of the water rights of West Texas is one that deserves the interest and attendance of all thoughtful West Texans. The matter of water rights is one on which the welfare of all our farmers and many of our cities depends. The Brownwood case, in which the city of Brownwood of its right to impound the Brownwood territory by a power syndicate to all the waters of the river, is one that will result in all similar actions in the future. The loss in its efforts to obtain water rights of every land is drained by some company, would be in the water wars just as California citizens driven to through which their water might even result in our small earthen dam for water on their own farm water board to the corner of the Brownwood application will create a hazardous situation which will threaten the very property and liberty of every West Texan, and will make it possible for the power companies of East and South Texas to file on every drop of water that falls in West Texas by simply filling on two or more of our main rivers. The West Texas Chamber of Commerce should be commended for taking up the fight against encroachment on the agricultural resources of West Texas, and it is hoped that the meeting at Abilene Thursday will take a positive stand against further jeopardizing this section.

THE UNHERALDED CHAMP

Weep for William H. Busch. He is an authentic champion, performer of a mighty feat, but unheralded and unsung. Let these few lines make him what amends they can for the neglect of an absent-minded world. What did William do? Why, ladies and gentlemen, he ran all the way from Boston to New York, almost without stopping for breath. He did the 260 miles from Charlestown, where our revolutionary forefathers fought, bled and died, clear through Massachusetts and Connecticut endwise, over hot, hard, endless roads, and on through eastern New York, to the metropolis which is the goal of all greatness, in the record time of 53 hours. Probably the class who first hot-footed it from Marathon to Athens, and thereby started all this marathoning, couldn't have done so well. And when Busch finally busted into Times Square at 10:40 a. m., and stopped, panting, on the curbstone, and looked about him for the vast welcome whose anticipation had sustained him, behold, there was no welcome! There was a crowd, but it went calmly about its business, with nary ovation for William, but only wonder that a gink should be loose in that very public place without any more clothes on than a suit of running "shorts." Realizing his sad plight, he sought refuge in the office of the Times, where kindly reporters took up a collection and bought him something to wear and eat. Still, you can't blame the metropolis for not being able to keep track of all the epoch-making stunts pulled off nowadays. Celebrating heroes begins to pall a little. Some day there may be a great turn-out for the man—or woman—who never tried to break a record.

Human Interest Editorials

By WICKES WAMBOLDT

COMMON GROUND

There is nothing that so binds folks together and develops the spirit of good fellowship and brotherly love as a mutual interest. You can go on a fishing trip or a hunting trip or a trip around the world with a crowd you have never met before, and in a week or even less you will be on intimate terms, calling each other by your first names, friendships will start that will continue through life.

The club idea which is flourishing so heartily serves a splendid purpose in bringing kindred souls together. Folks interested in the same purposes, in the same kind of businesses, professions, sciences, arts, come together and form beneficial conditions. The human being is naturally gregarious. The more he develops, the more choosy he becomes in his gregariousness. He does not care to hobnob with everybody. He is not going to do so. Only with his own will be thick. And if he cannot find his own he will be thick with no one.

Institutions, organizations, or anything else that brings birds of a feather together performs a valuable service for mankind. Many folks go to church more for the social side than for the spiritual side of life. They want to meet their own there, and they want to come in contact with those who think as they think and who are interested as they are interested; to meet these associates week after week becomes a ceremony, a regular performance not to be sidetracked. It is a great thing to feel that one has a vital interest in common with a number of persons. There is a sense of sustaining, embracing protection that lifts one up and holds one up. There is that buddy feeling which keeps army men knit together after the army breaks up. A man should go into something that will identify him with others of his kind. It makes life the more worth living.

Common ground! When you stand on common ground with other men, you and they are brothers. When the common ground pervades a nation, that nation is united. When the common ground idea shall pervade the world, the world will be united. And there will be no more war.

A Daily News want ad will read that room for you.

Water Rights Fight at Abilene to Be Hot

Farmers of West Texas Threatened By Claim to Waters by Big Power Companies; Mass Meeting Thursday

Not since the stirring days of the battle for Texas Tech has West Texas been shaken by such emotion as is now rising over the battle for the water rights of the region. West Texas leaders are signing their names and the towns of West Texas are mustering their resources to make a supreme fight to retain their rights to the rain which falls in West Texas and to regain the rights which have been taken from them.

Such war horses of West Texas as Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman, Congressman Tom Blanton of Abilene, Judge Joe Wheat of Seymour, ex-presidents Arthur P. Duggan and R. Q. Lee of the West Texas chamber of commerce, J. A. Kemp of Wichita Falls, and scores of the outstanding business and political leaders of the entire section have rallied to the call issued jointly by the West Texas chamber of commerce and the Texas Conservation association and are exhorting the people of West Texas to get busy and protest their rights before it is too late.

Congressman Tom Blanton, veteran of a dozen bitter campaigns, is now in Austin where he is searching the records of the state board of water engineers, securing a list of all permits granted on water on West Texas streams, and other streams will pass from the hands of the people. The West Texas chamber of commerce has already secured evidence that plans are already under way to seize the Brazos, Trinity, Guadalupe and other streams of West Texas.

Dean T. U. Taylor of the college of engineering of Texas University in a letter to R. W. Haynie, president of the West Texas chamber of commerce, warns Mr. Haynie that the lives, liberty and pursuit of happiness of all West Texas are in jeopardy. Dean Taylor's letter to Mr. Haynie in part follows:

"The liberties of West Texas farmers are at stake, and the struggle is a hand to hand struggle between the commercial use of water, and domestic use. * * * I have studied the supreme court decision bearing directly on the question and especially Motal vs. Boyd. I do not overestimate it when I say that the liberties and the life of West Texas farmers along the streams is in jeopardy. If a power company whose bond holders living on Wall Street can have a prior right to a farmer along the creeks in West Texas, then it seems to me that life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness in Texas is dead."

Dean Taylor will attend the Abilene conference and will be a principal speaker at the meeting.

The West Texas chamber of commerce has ignored efforts made to involve farmers living further down the stream in the fight, taking the position that such efforts are but a "smoke screen" raised to take the minds of the people off the real issue at stake. Most West Texas streams are but wet weather streams and contribute nothing to the flow of the rivers in the seasons the down river farmers use water for irrigation. Furthermore, large lakes in West Texas by storing flood waters will help the man living further down the river by preventing floods, and by supplying drainage and seep water in dry weather when the streams have no flow at all.

In the far western states, the fight over the water rights has existed for years. In some of these states, water rights have been so completely taken up that land owners may not dig a well on their own lands, and farmers and stockmen are denied permission to dam washes on their land to impound stock water or water to irrigate a few acres of garden. In other sections the land owners must purchase from the power companies the right to use rain which falls upon his own land. It is said that if the present ruling is allowed to stand, that such will be the case in West Texas. It is this situation which the West Texas chamber of commerce is fighting to avoid.

The water rights question is comparatively new to Texas and few persons have given it thought. West Texas is comparatively a new country and only within the last few years have its people given thought to conservation of flood waters for irrigation. At present, many sections have recently completed projects. No one thought of a power fight until Brownwood and San Saba met opposition in their efforts to impound waters from streams in their counties.

The real meaning of the fight is just becoming apparent to the people, and now Brownwood and San Saba are but incidents in what West Texans declare is a fight over a principle. The Abilene meeting promises to be a warm session and will no doubt decide the issue upon which the battle will be fought.

WIND BLOWS BABY 50 YARDS IN DITCH

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 13.—A wind of terrific velocity, cutting a path of destruction through the Glendale district near here last night caught up the house of Mr. and Mrs. Price W. Nelson, rolled it over the ground for a hundred yards and tossed the youngest Nelson baby into a ditch 50 yards away.

Mrs. Nelson, with another child in her arms, ran back and forth through the driving downpour of rain and hail feeling in the pitch black for her lost child. She found it in a ditch full of water with its head just above the surface. It was alive.

ANOTHER DOLE FLYER KILLED DURING TEST

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 13.—Arthur V. Rogers, taking his Dole Pacific flight plane, "Angel of Los Angeles," into the air for the first time Friday, was killed when the craft crashed to the ground two miles from the Western Air Express field at Montebello, from which point he took off.

Rogers' home was in Long Beach, California.

Rogers, whose plane was entered in the $35,000 sky marathon by Leland A. Bryant, Los Angeles architect, was formerly with the British Navy Air service.

The ship was a full cantilever monoplane, built by the Bryant Aircraft Syndicate of Los Angeles. It was powered by two 120-horsepower motors, set tandem above the cockpit so that one motor pulled and the other acted as a pusher. The wing area was 340 square feet.

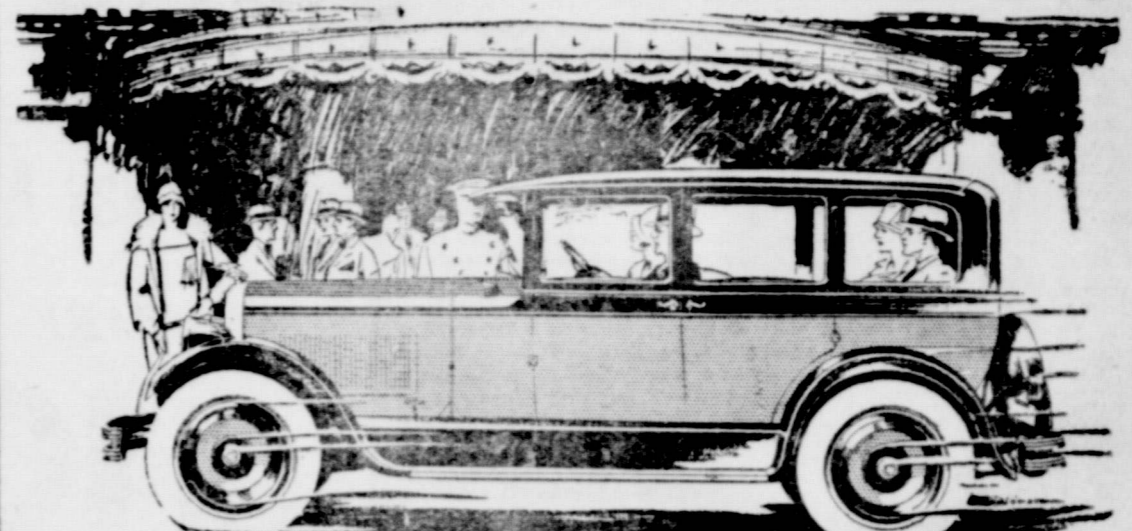

Rogers took his plane up alone to test it while his wife waited at the field. He circled a couple of times and started off in the direction of Montebello. When the plane reached a point 125 feet from the ground it went into a nose dive and fell like a rock. Rogers' body was picked up 200 feet from the plane. It appeared as though he tried to use his parachute. The ship was demolished.

SEVEN NEW TESTS STARTING AT CROSS PLAINS

MOOK - TEXAS WELL HOLDS MANY EYES

CROSS PLAINS, Aug. 13.—Seven new locations drilling or showing active preparations to drill, added to the display of interest that has centered around the new producer of the Mook-Texas and M. E. Wakefield field completed in outside territory on the T. E. Hanna lease, with the Hill and West outside test on the Walter land filling with oil from the top of the first sand, showing a much greater quantity of oil than any former well at similar stage of completion, has supplied a series of thrills to operations in the new west Cross Plains field that was attracting wide attention at the close of the week.

Three extensions of territory have been added to the producing area within two weeks, and in each instance the new wells have gauged 200 barrels or more from the Cross Plains sand, topped at depths varying from 1650 to 1762 feet.

The first of these recent discoveries was drilled by L. G. Bradstreet on the north 30 acres of the Walker land, and with an initial gauge of 290 barrels brought an extension of almost a half mile to the east of former drilling.

Territory Untested

The importance of the Mook-Texas Co. and M. E. Wakefield well is even further enhanced by the fact that its location is in strictly untested territory midway between the Bradstreet discovery and the line of producers drilled by Shaw & Rutke on the Miller land almost one mile to the southwest, with the group of producers around the old Hanna discovery well located several locations to the north. This well is therefore generally accepted to have proven this wide scope of intervening territory as well as opening to immediate development the virgin acreage to the south and southeast of its location.

The top of the first pay was found in the Mook-Texas and Wakefield well at 1656 drilling sand to 1664, with the usual shale break from 1664 to 1667 where the second sand was topped and drilled without break to 1705, indicating this to have included both the second and third sands, the usual shale break probably pinching out over this section of the territory.

The flow has varied from 170 to 200 barrels natural each 24 hours over the five days of its production record, placing it in the rank of one of the three best wells in the field.

Hill and West Showing

The Hill and West well, located directly south of the Bradstreet discovery and in virgin territory in that direction has topped the first sand at 1668 feet, and though but a few inches of the sand has been drilled, it is showing a nice volume of wet gas and is filling with oil. This is the first well to find more than a very negligible showing in this first sand, and a large number of scouts and operators are watching for the result of deeper drilling.

Final completion is now being delayed, to pull the large casing. The Bradstreet well to the north topped this first sand at 1672, and allowing for a slight difference in surface elevation it appears that a slight rise in the structure may be proven in this direction.

Offsetting this well to the west the Prairie Oil & Gas Co. is spudding on their No. 2 Baum, and the same owners' No. 3 Baum, an offset to the Bradstreet well, is drilling at 470 feet.

In the southwest corner of the same Baum lease the Prairie Oil & Gas Co. has made location for No. 4 well and is moving in a machine for immediate drilling. This will be an offset to the east from the Mook-Texas and Wakefield well.

A slush pit and cellar is also being completed by the Prairie company on the Swofford land, on a location that will offset the Mook-Texas to the south. In the same vicinity of L. G. Bradstreet is moving in a machine on a lease out of the same Swofford tract that is also a diagonal offset to the Mook-Texas well, and this owner has another location that will be diagonal

Orange Blossoms and Wash Boilers ---

A combination that does not go together either in fancy or in fact is, Orange-Blossoms and Wash Boilers. Few young grooms on the wedding day can picture the fair young bride wearing her life away over a wash tub.

There may be a few husbands who today will be shocked to learn they are guilty of thoughtlessness in permitting their wives to slave over the family wash. No woman likes such work—so why not resolve now to see that she no longer has to do it.

Our modern laundry solves the problem—efficiently and economically. One trial will convince. Phone us to call next week for the family wash. Prompt Service—Low Prices—and Satisfaction Guaranteed. Phone 1-3-8.

WEST TEXAS FLYER TO HOP OFF FOR TOKIO

ABIENE, Aug. 13. — The West Texas chamber of commerce and Fort Worth business men will put $50,000 into an attempted airplane flight to conquer the Pacific ocean.

The flight, decided upon Thursday night at a conference here of Fort Worth and Abilene business men and officials of the West Texas organization, will be a nonstop affair from Seattle, Wash., to Tokio, Japan, a distance of 4,900 miles, of which 2,800 miles will be over the Pacific ocean, far from any land.

The pilot, if present plans go through, will be Captain W. T. Ponder, ex-Foreign Legionnaire, veteran of the Lafayette Escadrille and second American ace, with eleven German ships shot down in combat as his officially certified record. He is a native Texan, having been born at Llano, and his present home is Fort Worth.

The city of Seattle has offered a $50,000 prize for the first nonstop flight to Tokio and the Japanese metropolis is now engaged in duplicating the fund.

Fort Worth interests, led by Tom Poyner, Thursday night promised $25,000 to the fund, of which $10,000 was pledged by Mr. Poyner's firm Mistro, Poyner & Wilson. The West Texas chamber of commerce will raise the other $25,000.

Capt. Poyner recently returned from a tour of airplane factories and recommended a Bellanca plane equipped with a Wasp motor for the flight. The plane and motor will cost between $30,000 and $35,000, he said.

14 CARLOADS OF HEREFORDS AT DE LEON

DE LEON, Aug. 13.—No less than fourteen carloads of fine cattle, most of them registered Herefords, have been brought to De Leon territory within the past thirty days. Some of them have been resold and have gone to other points, but quite a lot of them are to remain in this territory to stock our valley farms.

Roy Spruill and Joe Little of Dublin are the heaviest purchasers. Mr. Spruill said that he and Mr. Little had purchased no less than ten carloads in the last thirty days. The last shipment of these arrived last week. The head of white face cattle, 85 of which were registered, and all were good stock. Spruill purchased these at Putnam. They came originally from Sterling City, and are fine stock. Mr. Spruill said he had purchased registered bull calves for sale.

Howell Ross and Horace Morrison of the Round Grove community have shipped in not less than three carloads of Herefords recently.

C. C. Hampton recently purchased 43 head of fine Hereford cows, and has stocked his Leon river ranch with them. Mr. Hampton already had a considerable number of cattle on this place.

E. W. Bell has purchased a carload or more within the past month of the white face breed and he already had a number of registered Herefords. He has them on the Barker place, three miles southeast of town.

Lowe and Ham also purchased a considerable number of Herefords a few weeks ago, not included in the fourteen cars mentioned.

Moran to Hold Community Fair

MORAN, Aug. 13.—The Moran Luncheon club had as guest Wednesday County Agent A. C. Magee. Mr. Magee spoke in interest of a community fair for Moran this fall. He outlined the program and what it was to comprise and asked for the cooperation of the Moran people and the Moran trade territory.

Mr. Magee stated that Albany was going to have a fair, and if Moran wanted one, arrangements would be made to have prominent judges and lecturers here for both places. Arrangements will probably be made to have the fair one day at Moran and at Albany the next. In this way the expenses of the judges will be less and exhibits from one place could be shown at the other.

Moran Schools Open Sept. 12

MORAN, Aug. 31.—The board of trustees of the Moran public schools has set the date for the opening of school September 12.

A strong corps of teachers has been selected for the ensuing school year and a splendid year is anticipated. C. C. Duff will head the school as superintendent this year, and W. W. Allen will be principal. Both were instructors in the local schools last year.

A larger enrollment is expected this year than ever before. Superintendent Duff has succeeded in getting the high school of the Eureka school to transfer to Moran this year and other schools will possibly send a number of students here this year.

With a prospect for more students than ever and a larger per capita state apportionment, the Moran school is expected to make much progress during the 1927-28 term.

Gorman-Desdemona Road Patched Up

GORMAN, Aug. 13.—Work which has been going on for some time toward patching the Desdemona and Gorman road is about finished and Mr. Burns, local commissioner, informs us that the road is now in the best shape since it was built. The patching was badly needed and that it is now finished will be good news to those who use it constantly. The work required about forty barrels of asphalt and almost two cars of crushed rock but it is now better in the patched spots than it

Amusements AT THE PALACE NOW

GLORIA SWANSON

The Swanson personality. Great acting. A strong story. New faces.

These four features characterize Gloria Swanson's latest picture, "The Love of Sunya," which opens at the Palace theater today. Five characterizations are portrayed by the star, as she rises to new heights as an actress. They are:

The incarnation of an Egyptian girl centuries ago. A modern young American girl. A drab little school teacher, struggling to support her family. A temperamental opera diva. And the wife of a millionaire.

This reviewer will not reveal the story of "The Love of Sunya," because he believes a great deal of the interest and strength lies in the many surprises unfolded in this mystic film. He also will leave the question of which of Miss Swanson's characterizations is the most striking to each person who attends the Palace theater, but asserts, without reservation, that the spectator will be held and enthralled by each of them. Her performance is masterful.

A beautiful photograph of the star will be given each lady attending the theater while the picture is being shown.

Blast Kills Worker On Brady Ranch

BRADY, Aug. 13.—Thomas Jeffers, 50, was killed on the White & Co. Shelman ranch, east of Rochelle, by an explosion of dynamite being used by him to blast post holes for a stock pen.

It is presumed the victim was leaning over a hole examining the fuse, when the charge went off. His face and the top of his head was blown away, and the upper part of his body mangled. A nephew at work 100 yards away heard the explosion and looked up to see the body in the air. Funeral services were held tonight at Rochelle.

Reginald Langhorne Brooks' ship is a Waco biplane, with a Wright whirlwind motor. The Post says he is one of the most threatening "dark horses" in the forthcoming transcontinental derby.

PATRONAGE OF REPUBLICANS STIRS FIGHT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—In spite of the fact that the political pot already is at the boiling point, reports come to Washington that there is to be renewal of the demand for a senate investigation of federal patronage distribution. With the situation created by President Coolidge's statement, the other elements which naturally will arise during the approaching campaign the battle in the senate over the Vane and Smith cases and the prospects of a patronage probe in which social issues would be certain to be hung in the front yard, there is going to be plenty to occupy the attention of these feral of political news during the next 15 months. Petitions asking an inquiry into specific cases of appointments to office under the federal government are being prepared by republican factions of the south. Definite movements are reported from Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama. A resolution which would have empowered a subcommittee to inquire into patronage affairs

COOLIDGE GETS BUDGET FOR NEXT YEAR

RAPID CITY, S. D., Aug. 12.—An increase in government expenditures next year above first estimates was put up to President Coolidge Saturday by Director Lord of the budget who came into the Black Hills Friday night with a tentative budget. Various special items have contributed to swell the tentative estimate $125,000,000 above the limit of $3,500,000,000 set by the President last June for government expenditures in the coming year. Whatever comes of these special appropriations which are before the president, Lord gave assurance that next year's budget would carry funds for the first year's work on the additional cruises authorized by congress. A year ago the budget directors and the President proposed to withhold money for starting work on three of the eight cruises which had been authorized by congress, but after a bitter fight congress overruled the administration and insisted upon appropriating money for these other three for which plans are now being drafted. It is not considered likely that even if the president does approve the $125,000,000 in extra appropriations for next year that it will have a material effect on the prospective tax reduction. The treasury closed its books last fiscal year with a surplus of about $600,000,000 which, in the opinion of the president leaves an ample margin for a tax slash.

U. S. QUOTA REVISION PLEASES CANADIANS

WINDSOR, Ontario, Aug. 13.—Hundreds of Canadians residing in Windsor, Walkerville and Sandwich were elated Saturday over a report from Rapid City, S. D., that an arrangement had been worked out under the United States immigration act whereby they would be permitted to cross the Detroit river daily to work in Detroit regardless of United States quota restrictions. Under the existing restrictions, it is pointed out, they would have been compelled to abandon their employment in the Michigan metropolis after December 1. At the time the law was announced, Canadian officials estimated that more than 15,000 Canadians employed in Detroit would be prohibited from commuting between Canadian points and the United States.
