CHRISTIAN ENCAMPMENT OPENS HERE TODAY

No Word From Erwin or Two Planes He Sought to Rescue; Naval Forces Continue Hunt

OLD HOME TOWN

A telephone message from A. B. O'Flaherty Saturday night reported that Mrs. O'Flaherty had under gone a major operation Saturday morning, and come through the experience even better than had been anticipated. A blood transfusion earlier in the week had been necessary in order to get her physical condition favorable for an operation. The operation was performed early Saturday morning by Dr. Scott of the Scott and White sanitarium, and Saturday night Mrs. O'Flaherty was reported as resting well. Miss Mary Elizabeth O'Flaherty, a daughter, is also at her bedside.

F. W. Chappell of Dallas, engineer who designed Williamson Dam, is in Cisco for a few days' outing at the pleasure resort his efforts helped to create. He went to the lake Saturday and was surprised at the change in appearance of the surroundings since he left here. He was well pleased with the development of the lake projects, and with his small sons expects to spend night or two camping on the lake shore.

Building permit was granted Saturday to R. F. Russell for a 2-story frame building to be erected on East Sixteenth street at a cost of $700.

The Lee-Stockard wedding Friday night was the first and perhaps the most notable since the departure of Dr. T. T. Roberts Saturday. "In fact, I didn't know whether or not I had authority to perform the ceremony, but I was told that authority was vested in me and went ahead. However, I'm not going into the wedding business in opposition to the preachers of the city."

Success of vocational agriculture work in Cisco under E. H. Varnell's direction is cited as an example to other West Texas cities in an article sent out by the West Texas chamber of commerce to more than 300 Texas newspapers last week. The article quotes Clifford Jones of Spur as heartily endorsing the work of vocational agriculture instructors in West Texas, and continues: "This system of agricultural training is in practice at many Texas points, and is growing rapidly into favor all over the state, especially in West Texas. At Cisco, the local chamber of commerce cooperates with the school in securing an agricultural instructor, supplementing the salary paid him by the government. A ten thousand dollar feed mill, manufacturing commercial poultry feeds for the Bankhead Poultry association, stands as evidence of the good done by having a Smith-Hughes man in that city."

RANDOLPH TO ENROLL MANY DURING FALL

The outlook for a successful winter session of Randolph college is now good, according to Dr. T. T. Roberts, president. Numerous inquiries have indicated a large increase in enrollment this year over that of last year. Many Cisco high school graduates, including a number of the star football players of last year, expect to enter Randolph this fall, he said. Two boys from Alabama wrote for enrollment blanks, while a young woman from the same state also signified her intention of coming here. Numerous students are expected from the points closer to Cisco in its trade territory. Dr. Roberts added. The college opens September 13.

Dallas Bus Right
Sales are Approved
AUSTIN, Aug. 20.—The railroad commission today granted application of H. C. Thatcher and fourteen other independent motor bus operators now operating between Fort Worth and Dallas to sell their permits to R. E. Harding of Dallas, who will organize a new corporation.

MANY ARE DUE TO CAMP HERE NEXT 2 WEEKS

Saturday's rain gave the Christian church encampment a rather damp start Saturday, preventing the welcoming program scheduled for the night, but as a result, a big day is expected at the encampment at Lake Cisco this Sunday. The rain may prevent some of the campers from arriving here today, but a good crowd is expected, nevertheless. J. M. Rieger, general chairman for the encampment, will get under way officially today, and that he did not anticipate any serious interference from the weather.

The encampment grounds are situated on the north shore of Lake Cisco, a short distance from the bridge over Williamson dam. The tent has been erected for use as a tabernacle, and other tents will be erected as the campers demand, a representative from an army store being here to supply their demands. Every thing has been arranged as comfortably as possible with all city conveniences afforded the campers. It has been estimated that 1,000 members of the congregation from points outside of Cisco will be present during the encampment. Not all of them will be camped there at one time, it is said, but they will come in groups a few days at a time. Some, of course, will spend the entire period at the encampment.

Broun to Conduct Own Magazine

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Heywood Broun, former columnist for The New York World, has announced he will hereafter write a weekly column for the Nation, a magazine of which Oswald Garrison Villard is editor.

No statement was obtained at the office of the Nation regarding Broun's work for the publication, although Mrs. Mark Van Doren, acting editor, said a statement would be made Monday.

Chaplin and Wife Reach Settlement

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—Chas. Chaplin and his estranged wife have reached a property settlement, and Chaplin will not contest the action of his wife on technical grounds of cruelty and incompatibility. The two children will be given into custody of Mrs. Chaplin, with the father given free access to them.

WEATHER FORECAST
Cisco and vicinity: Partly cloudy; probable showers in north portion; warmer.

CISCO CENTER OF GOOD RAIN ALL SATURDAY

Cisco was the center of a good rain which fell throughout Central Texas most of the day Saturday, according to reports furnished by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company. In Cisco itself, rain which began falling about 9:30 Saturday morning continued until midnight, drizzling a total of about one inch. Reports from other points were as follows:

Ableton	Light
Albany	Heavy
Stamford	1.64 inches
Dublin	Heavy
Comanche	1.2 inch
Mineral Wells	Light
Strawn	Light
Gorman	Heavy
De Leon	2.12 inches
Stephenville	Light
Cross Plains	Light
Putnam	Heavy

County Agent J. C. Patterson, who was here for the day, and Vocational Agriculture Expert E. H. Varnell agreed that the rain would be of untold benefit to the crops. Feed crops particularly will be benefited, they said, while the moisture will make it possible to sow fall gardens. They said that the moisture would also help the cotton yield, provided the cool weather does not stimulate boll weevil and boll worm activities.

PETTY THEFTS REPORTED TO POLICE HERE

An epidemic of petty thievery was reported Saturday. E. W. Dolinger told police a spare tire had been stolen from his Ford car, as well as the following articles taken from a clothes line: one pair of boys' overalls; one army blanket; one pair of men's pants; several towels.

E. W. Ames of 1404 L avenue reported theft of a Goodyear balloon tire from his car along with two lug wrenches. A Ford roadster with only one headlight was reported to have been seen by neighbors as it was parked in front of the Ames residence at 3:30 a. m.

Sheriff Biggs of Albany telephoned that a tool house at Moran had been robbed by industrious burglars and the following articles taken: one set of bolt bits; two sets of log chains; one vice; one Coleman lantern; one box of chisels; one hatchet; one plane; five gallons of lubricating oil; 10 gallons of gasoline; two hand saws and a 50-foot tape.

13-Cent Gas In Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Aug. 20.—An announcement Friday by Fort Worth oil companies of a 2-cent cut in gasoline per gallon at service stations was followed Saturday by general reductions in larger cities over the state.

Practically every oil company was selling gasoline at 13 cents a gallon plus 3 cents war tax Friday in Fort Worth with a 1-cent cut for wholesale distribution. Officials would not say whether the price would go lower or if the reduction was the beginning of a rumored "gasoline war."

Gasoline at Houston was 17 cents a gallon for service stations. Galveston and San Antonio unofficially reported 2-cent cuts. Dallas, it is understood, only reduced the price 1 cent per gallon.

Supreme Court Judge Denies Sacco-Vanzetti Another Stay Of Execution as Chair Nears

BEVERLY FARMS, Mass., Aug. 20.—Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the U. S. Supreme court this afternoon declined to order a stay of execution for Sacco and Vanzetti. The decision means that the defense forces will have to make an eleventh hour appeal to Gov. Fuller for another respite if the case is to be heard by the highest tribunal on a writ of certiorari. Following a two hour conference with the justice, Attorney Hill said: "Justice Holmes declined to order a stay of execution. He wrote a memorandum of his reasons which we are taking back to Boston with us. They will be made public there."

Attorney Hill appeared depressed. He said the decision did not in any way effect the issue involved in the application for writ of certiorari, filed in Washington today.

MISS VANZETTI SAYS BROTHER IS INNOCENT

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Miss Luiza Vanzetti believes her brother innocent and will ask Gov. Fuller to give him a respite. She made this statement here late this afternoon after she had regained some what her composure after seeing her brother in the death cell at state prison. She had not talked to him in 19 years. "I did not try to discuss the awful murder case with him. I merely sought to bring love from the family in Italy to my brother," she said.

EXTRA GUARDS PLACED ABOUT PRESIDENT

RAPID CITY, S. D., Aug. 20.—President Coolidge and his family will have anything to do with the Sacco-Vanzetti case, it was finally announced authoritatively today.

Meanwhile, as the date for the execution nears, extra precautions are being taken by the double guard around the president. The extra service men will spend their entire time at the high school, which serves as the president's business office. Extra soldiers have also been sent here.

"DEATH WATCHERS" AT BOSTON ARE JAILED

BOSTON, Aug. 20.—Police reserves descended on a band of 29 "death watchers" near the state house who were marching in protest to execution of Sacco and Vanzetti, and rushed them to the police station. At the head of the line was Patrick Hubben, United States army.

ASK POLLARD FOR OPINION UPON PERMITS

AUSTIN, Aug. 20.—The question as to whether the state board of water engineers may reopen and reconsider its former action in granting six water permits to the Syndicate Power company today was submitted to the attorney general's department for an opinion, it was stated by A. H. Dunlap, member of the board. "No action will be taken on the request made in a resolution at the Ableton meeting until we get the opinion of the attorney general," Dunlap said. "In event the attorney general rules the board can cancel these permits, the board will consider whether it is desirable to do so."

JURORS TAKE NAMES FROM PLEA TO DAN

VICTORIA, Aug. 20.—Four or five jurors who signed a petition asking Gov. Dan Moody to grant clemency to Ed Joslin, negro, convicted of criminal assault here, today wired the board of pardon advisers withdrawing their request which they declared resulted from misunderstanding regarding an affidavit signed by a local physician who examined the girl after the attack, but did not testify at the trial. Six of the other jurors sent telegrams urging against commutation. Gov. Moody, in a telephone conversation today, did not indicate what his action will be. Joslin is sentenced to die Monday.

Carrier Boys Continue Drive

Carrier boys of the Cisco Daily News are continuing their circulation contest with excellent results. Nine of the boys have qualified for the contest, and the boy who obtains the largest number of new subscribers to the Daily News will receive his choice of five prizes to be awarded. Beautiful leather belts have already been awarded four of the boys who have obtained a minimum number of subscriptions, and the remainder are expected to receive belts before the week is out. The contest will continue until the start of school.

Houston Movies In Open Shop Fight

HOUSTON, Aug. 20.—A dispute over rights between union operators of motion picture machines and movie operators here threatened to inaugurate the open shop in theaters here. This became known when one manager opened a school for motion picture operators, promising them jobs immediately after their completion of a short course of instruction. The action came following refusal of operators to run slides informing the public of a demand for increase in wages and a reduction in hours for operators.

SIX ARMOR VESTS FOR FORT WORTH POLICE

FORT WORTH, Aug. 20.—Six bullet proof vests, recently ordered by the police department, were received Saturday. They will be kept at central station for use during a riot or other emergencies. Chief of Police Lee stated. The vests are the first purchased by any police department in Texas. Demonstrations of the vests were made during the chiefs of police and city marshals' association convention at Lake Worth two months ago.

HORSES IGNORED IN MUTUALS ARE FIRST

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—The length of two horses was all that stood between a small pot of gold and the backers of Florida in the third race at Hawthorne Friday. The horse, virtually ignored in the mutuals betting, galloped under the wire for show money and a price of $720.24 to $1 to win. Those who did back the outsider collected $28.98 on their $3 tickets for third money.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—With the mystery of the fate of seven occupants of three airplanes which attempted to fly to Hawaii, unsolved tonight optimism regarding the safety of two of the planes and their crews of four men and a girl passenger gave way to pessimism. The most favorable news, the sighting of flares 250 miles off the Pacific coast which raised hope high for safety of one or more of the planes, was refuted when the steamer West Sequana failed to find anything to indicate the flares had come from a plane. "Another rum runner" was the most plausible explanation advanced, these vessels using them frequently continuing its voyage after four hours reported a vigilant search failed to show any airplane.

There was no news from Hawaii or any other source regarding the Golden Eagle or the Miss Doran. Silence also enveloped the "Dallas Spirit" carrying Captain William P. Erwin and his navigator A. H. Elchwald. No news had come regarding this plane since its radio shrieked out at 9 o'clock last night that the airplane had gone into a second tailspin. Three destroyers searching the supposed position of the Dallas Spirit had reported no favorable news, but there was hope that this plane had weathered this tail spin but damaged its radio apparatus or lost its antenna. Some experts believed Capt. Erwin still aloft and on his way to Honolulu. He has not been sighted by any ships, although all were on the lookout for the plane. Navy headquarters said a recapitulation today revealed nine destroyers, the ammunition ship Nitro, two submarines, the aircraft carrier Langley and the tender Aroostook were engaged in seeking the planes and their occupants. The destroyers are the Hazelwood, which is in the vicinity of the scene of the last radio report of the Dallas Spirit, the Sumner, Hall, Lavallette, Corry, Fabrenholt, Thomas, Myer, and Kidder, and the submarines S-15 and S-16 en route to San Francisco from Pearl Harbor. First naval withdrawal from the search came today with recall of the destroyers Sumner and Myer. The Hall and Fabrenholt are under orders to return to the search tonight after returning to San Francisco for refueling.

TEX EXPECTS SELL OUT LONG BEFORE FIGHT

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—The fond dream of every boxing promoter to sell every ticket in advance so that total receipts and boxers' percentages can be announced several hours before the contest—may be realized by Tex Rickard, entrepreneur of the Tunney-Dempsey championship match on Soldier Field, September 22.

Although the public seat sale will not open until Monday, thousands of seats already have been sold and orders for more are literally pouring into Rickard's office here Friday, a certified check for $36,000 for 900 ringside seats was received from a group of St. Louis fans. It was the largest single sale ever made by Rickard during his long connection with the boxing game.

MRS. STUCKEY GOT DIVORCE FRIENDS TOLD

According to word received in Cisco, the divorce in the Rev. Stuckey case at Amarillo was granted to Mrs. Jewell Stuckey instead of to her husband, Rev. Lewis Stuckey, former pastor of the First Methodist church of Cisco, as previously published. A telegram received by a Cisco friend of Mrs. Stuckey said: "No trial. He withdrew charges. Got my divorce on cruelty. I got my baby, Jewell."

ACTOR VICTIM IN UNUSUAL ACCIDENT

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 20.—Capt. Carey Harrison, who only a few days ago quit the life of a soldier of fortune to make a try at motion pictures, Saturday faced the prospect of losing his chance at a film career as a result of a bullet received in a freak accident.

Harrison was struck in the eye Friday by a charge from a cartridge laying on the pavement and exploded by the wheels of a truck. Physicians said he would lose his eye. Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, film comedians, induced Harrison to join the films with a part in one of their coming pictures. Harrison played a part in international affairs in 1913 when Pancho Villa's forces captured him and he was before a firing squad when United States authorities came to his rescue.

SWIMS 16 MILES

MEMPHIS, Aug. 20.—Swimming from Pleasantview, Tenn., 16 miles north of here, Kurt Odenheimer, St. Louis-to-New-Orleans paddler, arrived at Memphis Friday. His 16-mile swim was made in a little less than five hours.

COTTON SOARS TO NEW LEVEL ON REPORTS

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Cotton advanced to the highest prices of the season Saturday when one of the largest buying movements of the year forced quotations up more than 83 a bale.

The department of agriculture's report on boll weevil infestation showed conspicuous increases in various parts of the cotton belt, and led to predictions among cotton traders that the next government crop report would indicate losses even greater than had been estimated in the report of Aug. 8.

but is said to have the speed of a Teddy Huestis and the brilliance of a Leonard Meadows in carrying the ball. He will try for a halfback position. Rutherford completes the list of new men. He weighs 170 and looked good in spring practice, working out for halfback. He was a star on the grammar school team three seasons ago, but has been out of school the last two years.

There are 23 members of last year's squad, some of whom flashed brilliantly when allowed to enter the game. The names of Carly Kellogg, Cotton Phippen, Wesley Smith, Joe Lee Moore, and Odie Stovall stand out among them. It is of particular interest to the fans to know that Chapman believes he has at last found a goal keeper in the person of Marcel Bedford. The Loboes were woefully weak last season in kicking for points after touchdown, and lost to Ranger on this account.

Five farmers of the Cisco trade territory leave early Monday morning on a 1,500-mile tour of Texas dairying centers in search of information which is expected to be valuable in developing a great dairying section around Cisco. The tour will include stops at Hico, Waco, Temple, Taylor, Austin, San Marcos, San Antonio, Alice, Kennedy, Corpus Christi, Kingsville, various Rio Grande valley towns, Fallfurris, Houston, Galveston, College Station, Ennis, Denton, Dallas, Decatur and Fort Worth. It is expected that the trip will require the greater part of two weeks, and the farmers and officials of the chamber of commerce accompanying them will spend much time visiting the outstanding dairying projects in Texas. Data regarding both production and marketing will be gathered.

The party will be headed by R. L. Poe, chairman of the poultry and dairying committee of the Cisco chamber of commerce which is bearing the expense of the trip. Mr. Poe is also president of the Bankhead Poultry Producers' association, and active in the Cisco Livestock Marketing association, which has been in action for 15 years. The trip is one of his ideas he recommended to the chamber of commerce directors which has undertaken to encourage the dairying industry in this section. In addition to Mr. Poe, E. H. Varnell, vocational agriculture expert of Cisco, County Agent J. C. Patterson and Secretary J. E. T. Peters of the Cisco chamber of commerce will accompany the farmers.

The farmers who will make the trip were selected by their home communities at mass meetings held earlier in the summer. O. P. Welsler will represent the Ward community; B. B. Brummett will go from

De Leon Receives First Cotton Bale

DE LEON, Aug. 20.—The first bale of 1927 cotton came to De Leon Thursday morning, August 18. It was brought in by Tom Sims of near Victor, and the bale weighed lighter than a standard bale. The cotton was purchased by Higginbotham Bros. & Co., at a price of 20.25 and a premium of $12.50 was made up among the merchants and business people and paid to Mr. Sims. The total for cotton, seed and the premium was $117.50. Planters Gin gained the first bale free, and Mr. Cox, the manager, circulated the petition for premium.

COMANCHE CO. FARMERS WILL HOLD OWN FAIR

COMANCHE, Aug. 20.—President C. M. Caraway of the Comanche County Fair association, announced the dates for the first county fair are changed from the first part of September to September 15-16-17. The fair is to be held at the ball park in Comanche, and is expected to be a splendid success inasmuch as a wide interest has been shown in the preliminary announcement.

It is planned to conduct the fair somewhat on the order of a short course, giving a stated amount of time to each department, having judges lecture on the displays as they are judged.

Outstanding features of the fair will be four classes of livestock,—dairy cattle, beef cattle, good hogs, and farm crops.

This fair, it is believed, will be the first in Texas to be put on by the farmers themselves, assisted by the business men of a town.

WEST TEXAS LEADS STATE IN NEW PHONES

ARILENE, Aug. 20.—Telephone expansions are telling figures of West Texas progress. Of a year's activity and record expansion are increasing the area served by telephones over the state, nearly one-half was made in West Texas during the past year, particularly in those regions where all play has developed.

Though a large amount of money has been expended in the west on improvements and extensions, it is expected that good returns may be obtained during the coming months as business prospects seem very favorable.

Most noticeable telephone development has been made in the following towns: Stamford, Lubbock, Amarillo, Stanton and Big Spring. The dial system is to be installed in Amarillo.

The fact that telephone improvement of the whole state was more in evidence in West Texas than in any particular section has been taken by R. W. Haynie, president of the West Texas chamber of commerce, as indicative of a general trend toward the "Bigger and Better West" aimed at by his organization, especially during this its decadal year.

Estate Denied Him If He Preaches

EL PASO, Aug. 20.—Charles Beavin, somewhere in East Texas, has a bit of money coming to him, and he doesn't know it. Neither does he know of the strange terms under which his father willed him the money—nor does he know that his father is dead.

The father's will provides that Charles should have a quarter share of his estate valued at $2,000, provided that Charles never becomes a minister. Just what family secret lies behind that ruling has not been ascertained. John Beavin, a brother here, when interviewed, said there's a reason for it, but he refused to let the public know the secret.

"We haven't seen Charles for years," he said. "He never did want to be a minister. John is a half-brother. There is a family reason behind father's ruling, but I'm not going to give it to the papers."

Orange Blossoms and Wash Boilers ---

A combination that does not go together either in fancy or in fact is Orange-Blossoms and Wash Boilers. Few young grooms on the wedding day can picture the fair young bride wearing her life away over a wash tub.

There may be a few husbands who today will be shocked to learn they are guilty of thoughtlessness in permitting their wives to slave over the family wash. No woman likes such work—so why not resolve now to see that she no longer has to do it.

Our modern laundry solves the problem—efficiently and economically. One trial will convince. Phone us to call next week for the family wash. Prompt Service—Low Prices—and Satisfaction Guaranteed. Phone 1-3-8.

Cotton at Tyles Deteriorates Fast

TYLER, Aug. 20.—Cotton in this section shows an almost unbelievable deterioration during the past week. Although hot, dry weather has prevailed, the crop seems to have suffered everywhere. Just to glance at the cotton fields one would think that prospects were never brighter, but closer investigation, reveals that the cotton in the lowlands is infested with boll weevil, that the hilllades and higher places are suffering from drought, and young cotton everywhere is ravaged with leaf worm.

Conditions that observers gave as 10 per cent above normal last week, have diminished to a 70 per cent basis now, lowering the season's estimated county production to 20,000 bales.

NAVY WANTS BIDS ON UNIVERSAL PLANE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Naval fighting planes will be equipped as amphibians with the ability to land on either sea or shore if a design and contract competition announced today by the bureau of aeronautics is successful. Out of the competition the bureau hopes to perfect a small, fast plane to replace the present land pursuit type used in aircraft carriers. Bids will be closed on December 3.

WEST TEXAS INJURED BY STATE'S RULE

EL PASO, Aug. 20.—West Texas pioneers are being penalized by the state, it is claimed. When East Texas was being settled the land owner was given full title to the land he cleared and tilled. However, the legislature has in the past seen fit to withhold from the pioneer of West Texas the mineral rights of his land. This fact has recently been brought to light in the Ira G. Yates case, now pending in which the state is suing Yates for oil royalties that are claimed by the state.

That this act of the legislature is immensely unfair is being borne out in the opinion of many of the state's foremost attorneys. Such a policy will retard the rapidly developing oil fields of West Texas, it is claimed. There seems to be sound reasoning for this claim. The county commissioners court of Pecos county, which is located in the heart of the disputed land, has recently gone on record condemning the action of the state in the suit against Ira G. Yates.

Shoots at Hubby, Tries to Make Up

HILLSBORO, Aug. 20.—No suit! Ah ain' gonna take huh back no mo'!

A negro man, weary of the strife of wedded bliss, told the sheriff his wife had tried to shoot him, but that the gun snapped. The militant wife was put in jail.

Soon the woman called for her husband. Officers hoped for a reconciliation. But the negro felt differently. He was afraid the gun might be in working order next time, he said.

Goebel Must Spend Prize for Speeding

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—A fly fluttered into Art Goebel's $25,000 Dole prize oliment today when police here declared that a warrant for his arrest on a speeding charge had been issued. Bail in the case has been set at $25. If figures don't lie when the law meets up with Goebel upon his return to Hollywood from Hawaii, police will relieve him of all his winnings except $24,975.

Officers expressed the fear to-day that if Goebel heard of what was lying in wait for him here that he would not come back.

New Cotton Pest Now Ravages Crops

GOREE, Aug. 20.—A new variety of cotton pest for this part of the country has been reported by farmers of this community in Knox county. It is a whitish green in color, being about one-fourth inch long and enlarged about the middle. The worm feeds upon the cotton bolls.

Despite presence of the pest in a number of fields, the cotton is very good, and the general crop outlook is promising. Maize and corn are showing up well, most of which is early and is now being headed or gathered. Corn acreage is larger than ever before.

"RESURRECTION" AND "JACKS" AT PALACE
Tolstoy's "Resurrection" will be presented in film form today to an enthusiastic audience at the Palace theater. This flesh-and-blood drama of the great Russian's immortal play grips new and greater millions through this film version. The Tolstoy story of prince and peasant, which has been read in eleven languages and acted in seven stage versions, is a thrillingly emotional narrative splendidly portrayed by Rod La Roque and Dolores del Rio in the principal roles. La Roque as Prince Dmitri Nekhludoff is well cast and succeeds in registering his versatility as an actor in the several stages of Dmitri's retrogression and spiritual resurrection. He was particularly fine in the scene wherein the Prince sits on the jury trying the woman he has desecrated himself.

Dolores del Rio, playing the role of Katusha Maslova in a film directed by her discoverer, Edwin Carewe, rises to a performance that must be listed among the finest of the year. In a tremendously human and dramatic part that has been the cherished role of every great actress, the young Mexican screen's finest herself. Following her performance as Charmaine in "What Price Glory?" Dolores del Rio's work in "Resurrection" establishes her definitely among the first flight of dramatic actresses.

Among the supporting members of the cast are Mave MacDermott, Vera Lewis, Lucy Beaumont, Charissa Selwynne, Eva Southern and Count Ilya Tolstoy, who portrays his father, the author of "Resurrection," in a protogone to the film. "A Pair of Jacks" forms the stage attraction.

GORDON GETS RECEIVER FOR HIS COMPANY

EASTLAND, Aug. 20.—Oil holdings of the West-Adams Petroleum corporation will be administered by Clyde L. Garrett, appointed as receiver by Judge Elzo Heen of the eighty-eighth district court after a hearing on Robert D. Gordon's suit asking for a receiver for the West-Adams.

The property involved is producing 250 barrels of oil and 10,000,000 cubic feet of gas.

It was discovered by Gordon as general manager nearly a year ago. Gordon was removed as manager a week ago and then he sued for $53,000.

G. A. Massey, original holder of the lease, has sued for cancellation of the lease.

WEATHERFORD CANCELS GAME WITH RANDOLPH

Randolph college's football game scheduled to be played with Weatherford Junior college on September 24 at the Oil Belt Fair at Breckenridge has been called off by reason of the fact that the Weatherford team believed it would be impossible to prepare for a game that early. It was announced, The Breckenridge American carried the following item concerning cancellation of the game: "Prospects for a college football game at the Oil Belt Fair this fall faded away with the announcement by Coach McDaniel of the Weatherford college team that his aggregation could not by any means be put into shape for a game by September 24 as was hoped. "Jake Sandefer, chairman of the fair football committee stated that he had secured the agreement of Randolph college to play Weatherford college here on that date but that communication with the Weatherford college authorities revealed that they could not accept the invitation which definitely precludes all chances for the spectacle which had been planned. "Instead negotiations are being conducted with the Breckenridge high school and Comanche school with the purpose of arranging a game between these two teams on the date left vacant by the refusal of Weatherford college to participate, which is Saturday 24."

Ciscoan Awaits Receipt of News About Captain Erwin, His Nephew, But Cheering Message is Lacking

One Cisco man scanned newspaper headlines and kept in closer touch with the progress of Captain William P. Erwin of Dallas than did others here Saturday. He was J. H. Erwin, uncle of the flyer, who sought all the information possible bearing on the flight, hoping against hope that his intrepid nephew would be reported safe. He was first advised of Captain Erwin's mishap at one about midnight Friday when a long distance call from an Abilene newspaper told him nothing had been heard from the flyer since an SOS call reporting the plane was in a tailspin. Early Saturday morning the Ciscoan was at the Daily News office to get the latest information available, and he was advised of the progress of the search for his nephew at intervals during the day. None, however, brought anything of a cheering nature.

At Encampment

The Ciscoans visited Captain Erwin recently in Dallas just before he hoped off for the Pacific Coast on the first leg of his proposed Dallas to Hong Kong flight. He was present at the christening of "Dallas Spirit," and after viewing the big plane expressed belief that his nephew would make it to Hawaii in the Dole contest. A few days later the plane was seen by Ciscoans as it winged its way westward, first as it flew over at night and then returned after reaching Colorado, Texas, because of trouble with the wobble pump, and then as it made its way westward the following afternoon on a flight that landed him at Beaumont, California.

An interesting sketch of Erwin's war record was contained in an article in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Saturday afternoon, which follows in part:

"Leon Star Bull Erwin was a modest young army captain in the aviation service when he visited Fort Worth immediately after the war, newspaper files show. There are two clippings about the Erwin family, the first dealing with a visit of Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Erwin, his parents, then in a revival meeting at Moran and later at Baird. The Erwin parents were proud because they had given two sons to the aviation service—William P. Erwin, officially credited with having brought down nine German planes in combat, and Paul, who was a cadet at Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla., when the war was ended.

Prominent in the Christian encampment beginning at Lake Cisco today will probably be Mrs. B. Hart of Abilene. She is associated in the work of the First Christian church at Abilene, and is expected to have a large part in the success of the encampment here.

The officers and shot another's horse from under him. They then turned loose from their three guns such a downpour of destruction that after a few moments of utter demoralization, the men of that battery took to their dugouts and didn't come out until our infantry swarmed through the woods and laid hands on them."

The "Stars and Stripes" described Erwin's experiences in almost a comic manner—

"The stories of Lieutenant Erwin's victory are best told by the planes themselves. His present ship—the Josephine—is his fourth. His third ship bore the marks of 140 bullets before it was salvaged. Many of the scars were healed over with little patches of linen, each patch bearing an iron cross and date when the wound was inflicted. One of his souvenirs which he carries with him on every flight is a parachute with which one of his Boche victims made a graceful landing within our lines, waving airily and perhaps appealingly to his victor as he floated by.

Erwin lived in Fort Worth for a time and in 1923, with D. S. Curtis, operated the "Aviation Garden" on the Lake Worth road. It was a combination of dance hall, restaurant and flying field, a number of planes being operated for commercial and pleasure flying.

"Captain Erwin wears both the Distinguished Service Cross and the Croix de Guerre de France. But he keeps them covered with his big coat and doesn't care to talk about how he earned them," a news story related at the time Erwin stopped in Fort Worth en route to Washington for work with the chief air service.

Stilled Music

Erwin's literal "rise" in the world ended what might have been a brilliant musical career. He was born in Ryan, Okla., October 18, 1895. The family moved to Amarillo and after graduating from high school there, Erwin studied under Gowdosky, a noted piano teacher in Chicago.

After a time Erwin became pianist for a religious organization doing evangelistic work. He was "pounding the ivories" when the United States entered the world war and Erwin swapped the black garb of his peaceful mission for the khaki uniform which proclaimed him a fighting man. He started in the infantry and for the "dough-boy" he always had the most profound respect and affection, although he later transferred to aviation and was proclaimed "third ace of the air service."

Erwin went to ground school in Austin and was sent overseas in September, 1917, when he had become a duty reserve pilot.

Of his daring, the terse and usually colorless credit given by the war department, Erwin was cited "for extraordinary heroism in action at Chateau Thierry and St. Mihiel" when, with Lieut. Byrne E. Baucum, observer, he "by a long period of faithful and heroic operations set an inspiring example of courage and devotion to his entire squadron."

The "Stars and Stripes" official newspaper of the A. E. F., intended to cheer the 2,000,000 Yanks rather than to exploit any individual, printed this about Erwin: "Lieutenant Erwin is the ace among observation pilots—the Rick-enbacker of the air scouts. He is short, slim, wiry, agile and not more than 23. One of his liveliest exploits occurred at St. Mihiel when he, as Lieutenant Baucum, scouting rapidly overhead in front of the advancing lines, spotted a German battery in process of withdrawal at a time when our own rampaging infantry was only half a kilometer away.

"The doughboys will be here in 10 minutes," Erwin called to Baucum through his speaking tube. "Let's hold these buns for 'em. Whaddya say?" Baucum nodded an affirmative.

Probe of Retail Prices Planned

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The Federal Trade Commission announced Saturday that in the next few months it will conduct an investigation into methods used in quoting and charging prices the consuming public must pay for the necessary commodities.

The commission pointed out that "numerous companies who distribute their products in various states of the union are quoting prices in which no allowance is made for difference in transportation costs in widely separated markets."

Others, it was said, add to market prices at certain basing points, the transportation charges to the locality of the consumer, while others quote a uniform price at the factory, adding to this the freight charges to the consuming point.

GOV. BYRD, AFTER HOP, DOESN'T ENVY BROTHER

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 20.—An aircraft Friday became the chosen vehicle of Governor H. F. Byrd, but after a 100 mile ride the Virginia executive smilingly said he "didn't believe" that he was ready to swap jobs with his brother—Commander Richard E. Byrd. After a review of state militia at Virginia Beach, the governor accepted an invitation to return here aboard the army blimp TC-9. The craft was escorted by the TC-5 and an army plane.

Jirus, Detroit, and Miss Viola Curwood of New York, divide $300,000 almost equally, and numerous bequests of from $750 to $10,000 each to other relatives, to churches and civic institutions here, are provided.

FUNDS RECEIVED FOR FLOOD AREA SCHOOLS

BATON ROUGE, La., Aug. 20.—A check for $75,000 from the General Education board and the promise of a check for an additional $25,000 from the Julius Rosenwald fund was received Saturday by T. H. Harris, state superintendent of education.

The money is being sent to Louisiana for the use of the flooded parishes in putting their water damaged school buildings back in good condition as the result of an appeal made to the directors of the two funds by Harris.

The one price policy is so well established in modern business and its principle is so sound, it seems too bad that any firm would ever resort to the less business-like principle of having more than one price for the same article.
