CHRISTIAN PEACE

Bishop Nicolai of Ochrida, Serbia, who has come to lecture at the Williamstown Institute of Politics, has a slant on peace which is not new, but impressively expressed. "I come," he says, "to advocate a world peace based upon spiritual rights rather than material force. All other mediums have failed to bring about peace, and it now seems fair to give Christianity the opportunity. While the League of Nations and the Locarno pact have achieved something toward world peace, they have gone but a small way. There must be something more, and that something more must have for its basis Christianity." People seem to find it cheaper, he says, to devote a third or half of their entire budget to war, rather than to peace, because peace demands of the human race unselfishness, abnegation and patience. "These are attributes that few people today wish to exercise. To be rich in these qualities is more than a whole nation's budget." In other words, we have war and war preparations because it is easier to pay the money cost than to exercise Christian virtues. He wants to organize Christendom on a Christian basis, getting Christian idealists together first in small groups, then in states and then in nations. When these have all been welded together in a great peace movement, other sects and creeds are to be brought in. This, clearly enough, is a good way to peace. Perhaps it is the only way. And though hope deferred maketh the heart sick, it is probably the way that will be chosen eventually. But it is going to be a slow, difficult job because, although peace is the central teaching of Christianity, and the only sword ever sanctioned by its founder is "the sword of the spirit" Christendom has never yet been willing to accept this Christian ideal and carry it to its logical conclusion.

SIGNS OF A CRIMINAL

Judge Lewis L. Fawcett of Brooklyn, N. Y., who has sentenced 7,000 persons to prison terms, says there are eight characteristics by which he can spot a criminal. Few men have all of them, but if he finds a man with four of the characteristic signs he is sure of the "type." Here are the eight fatal features: A receding chin, a protruding jaw, a wide, unwinking stare, a droop in the left eyelid, a low brow, a bumpy brow, thick hair and ears standing out at right angles from the head. Try them on your friends. Possibly the judge is right, but for the peace of mind of ourselves and our associates, let us hope he doesn't depend unduly on these marks in making up his mind as to the criminality of any particular defendant. Lombroso and other criminologists who made a specialty of labelling criminals on the basis of facial and bodily characteristics are not regarded as highly today as they were a decade or two ago. A Missouri inquirer once tried the Lombroso system on a group of penitentiary convicts and then on a church congregation, and announced that it seemed to apply about equally to both. Evidently we have to consider the inside of a man's head more than the outside, and deeds more than photographs.

UP-TO-DATE CHIVALRY

A 17-year-old girl, waiting at night for a street car, was neatly hit over the head with a brick by a robber who snatched her purse and fled. Two young men on the other side of the street, possibly waiting for a car too, saw the robber's act and gave chase. They caught him, punched him soundly and sat on him until police came. Thanked by the girl, one of her avengers replied: "Ah, it was a pleasure." It is an interesting bit of news. It indicates, as a reporter pointed out, that chivalry still lives. It reveals other heartening things. Criminals don't always escape. Passers-by sometimes think quickly and act more quickly, with surprisingly satisfactory results. This brief episode should encourage other honest citizens to play a prompt, heroic part when opportunity offers.

"The quality of mercy is not strained," but sometimes the situation is.

HIS BROTHER'S KEEPER

The other day I heard a merchant apologizing to a customer for the way his brother had gamed up the customer's order. "You see, he is my brother," explained the merchant. "He doesn't know anything about business. I want to teach him, so I have taken him in here with me to kind of get him broke in." The merchant's intentions were kindly enough, but his policy was not sound. He was worrying his customers, hurting his trade, and upsetting things generally in order that his brother might practice on the business. So far as that merchant's best interests were concerned it would have been to his advantage to have paid his brother a salary to sit on a hill afar off and keep still.

But that would not have been good for the brother. Neither was it good for the brother to work for his brother and feel at liberty to do as he pleased, and work as he pleased, or not work as he pleased, just because he was working for his brother. If the merchant could not have found some place in the business where the brother could have done no particular damage, it would have been better to have obtained a job for him somewhere else.

As a rule, when relatives work for relative, the arrangement is not good for either side. A man often will impose on a relative, shirk on a relative when he would not impose or shirk on anyone else. He will be careless about a relative's business when he would not be careless about another person's business.

"He won't fire me because I'm kin to him," assumes the employed relative. "I can't fire him because he is kin to me," decides

2 CISCO BOYS FACE CRIMINAL ASSAULT CASE

One Cisco youth is on bond of $5,000 and another is held in the Amarillo jail as the result of charges of criminal assault filed in the court of Justice of the Peace J. H. McDonald. After a hearing Tuesday afternoon, Justice McDonald allowed Terry Johnson, youth of 19, bond of $5,000, and a telephone call from Amarillo at 3 o'clock Wednesday morning apportioned Constable C. S. Looney that Melford Sparks, another Cisco youth, had been arrested there on the same charges. Johnson made bond signed by Fred Johnson, J. M. Douglas, H. S. Stubbfield, H. E. Wilson and G. T. Parrock. It was brought out in the hearing that the alleged assault took place on an 18-year-old Cisco girl last Saturday night. The girl's parents are dead, and the charges were filed by her uncle. According to the testimony, she had been to a picture show with her uncle and family and was waiting outside the theatre for the remainder of the party with her cousin when the two boys with whom she had gone to school here at high school drove up. They asked her to sit in the car with them until the others came out of the show, and when she got in the car they drove off. It was testified that she was held in the car until a point near the Wood school house was reached, and that there both boys assaulted her. She was said to be pathetically injured and scratched as the result of her struggles. Johnson, who was injured some time back, appeared in court on crutches, not having recovered from the injuries suffered in a motorcycle collision.

ADDITION ON PENNEY STORE TO BE BUILT

Contract for erection of a second story on the rear portion of the building now occupied by the J. C. Penney store on Main street has been let to A. J. Olson, it was announced Monday. C. H. Fee is owner of the building, and it is understood the Penney company has taken a ten-year lease on the building. The new portion of the structure will cover 35 feet of the rear and will serve as a warehouse with an elevator opening into the alley. The Penney store has been cramped for space for some time, it was declared, due to an increase in business during the last year, but it is believed the addition will take care of the demand for space for the present. Baker Glenn is manager of the store.

2,400-Barrel Well in Brown

BROWNWOOD, Aug. 22.—Reports by telephone from Grovesnor Saturday afternoon state that Roxana Petroleum corporation No. 2 M. L. Smith came in Friday night as a 2,400-barrel well. This well is in the new Smith-Elis pool between the Fry field and Grovesnor and is the third well brought in by Roxana in this pool. Reports say the well has been gauging 100 barrels an hour since completion. Not only is this the largest well in the field, but is the best well completed in Brown county in several months. The two next largest wells in this pool are the Forest Oil corporation No. 7 Smith and Roxana's No. 3, each of which had a flush production of 80 barrels an hour.

Thornly was 72 years old and a pioneer settler of Oklahoma.

Easterwood Will Pay Erwin's Widow $5000, If He's Dead

DALLAS, Aug. 22.—In the event Captain Erwin is lost or found dead in his attempt to locate the missing Dole flyers, his widow will immediately be presented with a cashier's check for $5,000 by William E. Easterwood, Jr., donor of the $25,000 prize for a flight to Hong Kong, he announced. "No one in Dallas has a higher regard for Bill Erwin than I have," he said. My sympathy goes to his wife and to his mother and father. In the event he is not found alive, I will immediately present his widow with a cashier's check for $5,000. "It is too bad that he lost his life in an attempt to save others, but no man can do a more noble or gallant deed than to give his life in an effort to save others."

Better Uniforms Urged for Guard

AUSTIN, Aug. 24.—Governor Dan Moody today in conference with Taylor Nichols, acting adjutant general and Lieut. Col. Dallas J. Matthews, former adjutant general, expressed dissatisfaction over the attire of the 8,500 members of the Texas National Guard division. The governor closely questioned the two officers over purchase of new shoes and better uniforms. During the recent inspection at the encampment at Palacios, the governor said he had not seen a single pair of russet shoes, declaring the pedal equipment was no better than hobnails. The governor proposed reappropriating the next legislative appropriation so that better uniforms of nicer material might be used. Such uniforms would improve both the appearance and morale of the troops, the governor said.

PIMPLES AND BUMPS ARE AWFUL PESTS

Girls and women of the most even disposition are quick to resent direct attacks on their character, or bold advances. But it is hardly explained why these same folks tolerate disfiguring pimples, blotches, bumps, "breaking out," etc., which are even worse pests than that. These skin diseases quit annoying people quickly after first few applications of the wonderful Black and White Ointment, and the regular use of Black and White Skin Soap. The cost is so small none need hesitate because they "can't afford it." The 50c size of the Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both Black and White Skin Soap, and Ointment.—Adv.

AUSTIN, Aug. 22.—Texas' fiscal year will end August 31, at which time appropriations made by the 40th legislature become available and the departments will start new accounts.

TEACHERAGES IN TEXAS NOW NUMBER 1000

AUSTIN, Aug. 22.—William Ebers, state rural school supervisor, has submitted a report to the state department of education showing that school districts of Texas now have more than 1,000 teacherages. They are valued at $1,314,000.

Texas was the first state to establish "teacherages." This was done before the Civil war. Most of them are elaborate buildings. One at McAllen, Hidalgo county, cost $40,000. Only eight of the total 1,028 cost less than $1,000. Twenty-four of the numbers are for negro teachers.

A teacherage is to a school district what a parsonage is to a congregation. The first was built at Blum, Guadalupe county, in 1850. It was occupied by Professor Schwentes until 1862 when he joined the Confederate army. In 1862, the second teacherage was built in the same county. It and succeeding buildings erected in the Schumannville district have been occupied continuously since.

In recent years most of the teacherages have been built in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and in West Texas.

WENTZ GETS 600 BARREL ALBANY WELL

ALBANY, Aug. 20.—L. H. Wentz, who has been drilling a north offset to the first well drilled by the Hope Petroleum company about two years ago on the Reynolds lease brought in a well this week that is estimated to be good for 60 to 80 barrels of oil. It topped the sand at 1,254 feet and was drilled 16 feet into the formation.

This well is located in the southwest quarter of a 40-acre tract of the G. E. Reynolds fee, section 13, block 11, T. & P. survey.

It was purchased last month from the J. S. Cosden, Rose & Hoover at a reported consideration of $80,000.

A traveling case containing $4,000 worth of jewelry, recently left standing at the curb between Sixth and Seventh avenues, New York City, remained untouched for five hours. At last one man's curiosity moved him to investigate. Upon viewing the contents, he hurried the bag to the police station, where it was later claimed by a jewelry salesman.

FORMER CISCO WOMAN BURIED AT AMARILLO

Mrs. Louis Degenhardt, former Cisco resident, died in El Paso Aug. 15, and was buried in Amarillo beside her late husband on August 17, according to word received by friends here. Mrs. Degenhardt was a woman of more than ordinary ability. She held high office in the grand lodge for several years in the women's branch of the Odd Fellows. She was born and reared in Cisco and the older residents will remember her as Stella Caldwell. Her father is said to have operated the first drug store in Cisco. She is survived by her brother, R. W. Caldwell, and her nephew, James Caldwell. Mrs. T. C. le Veaux of Cisco is a sister-in-law.

COUNTY SCHOOL MEETING HELD AT EASTLAND

EASTLAND, Aug. 23.—Trustees, patrons and teachers of Eastland county, to the number of one hundred and fifty were in attendance at the annual meeting of the county school trustees held Saturday afternoon in the 88th district court room. Had the weather been more favorable it is estimated that twice the number would have been present.

Miss Beulah Speer, county school superintendent, presided over the meeting and made comments at various times. The meeting next year will also be held in Eastland, at which time it is hoped to have a much larger attendance than was present at Saturday's meeting.

Dr. J. C. Cason, president of the Eastland school board, delivered the welcome address.

G. C. Daniels, chairman of the county board of school trustees, spoke on Eastland county rural schools; R. P. Holloway, superintendent of the Ranger schools, spoke on the subject of "Cooperation of Independent and Public Schools"; Ruth Rainey and B. E. McGlamery of Gorman; J. T. Singleton, superintendent at Carbon; and R. L. Speer, principal of the Eastland schools, each made short talks.

William Eilers of the state department of education spoke at length explaining the new school law.

Rodeo at Eastland Set for Labor Day

EASTLAND, Aug. 23.—A rodeo will be held in Eastland on Labor day. Jack Williamson, banker and ranchman, will be in charge. Brahma steers, bulls, outlaw horses and pitching mules have already been arranged for. Riding, calf roping and goat roping will be included in the program. A clown mule will be a feature. Performers of Fort Worth and other cities have been in communication with Williamson and the entries will be stars in the various events. Suitable prizes will be offered. There will be no waltzes between events as double chutes will be provided.

Looney Charges Two With Theft of Mule

Constable C. S. Looney Monday filed charges against Leslie Brady and Oscar Sutton, charging them with theft of a mule from a local Mexican. Brady was arrested in Eastland and Sutton in Desdemona. It is said the mule had been sold to a Cisco man, and it was found in a pasture near here.

SCHOOLS NOW RECLASSIFIED OVER COUNTY

EASTLAND, Aug. 24.—Local classification of rural schools was made by the County school board at a called meeting attended by G. C. Daniels, precinct 4, chairman; W. E. Cooper, precinct 3; W. R. Ussery, precinct 2, and W. P. Roach, member at large.

M. A. Hassard was appointed trustee of the Union school and F. S. Fonville trustee of the Salem school.

The next regular meeting of the board will be at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, September 3.

The rural schools were classified as recommended by State Superintendent of Education S. M. N. Marrs as follows:

(1) All one-teacher schools shall be elementary schools and shall teach only the first seven grades.

(2) All two-teacher schools shall be classified as elementary high schools and shall teach the first seven grades; and in addition shall be eligible to teach the eighth grade and may teach the ninth grade if the enrollment in the entire school is fewer than forty pupils.

(3) All three-teacher schools shall teach the first seven grades, and in addition 8th and 9th grades, and may teach the tenth if the entire enrollment is fewer than sixty pupils.

(4) All four-teacher schools shall teach the first seven grades, and in addition may teach the first 3 years of high school work and may teach the fourth year if there are fewer than eighty pupils in the entire school and at least one grade is not offered. In other words, a four-teacher school is limited to ten grades.

Some variations may be made if taken up with the county superintendent and county school board.

State Gets 120,000 Hunting Licenses

AUSTIN, Aug. 22.—More than 120,000 hunting licenses for the fiscal year beginning September 1 have been received by Will J. Tucker, state game, fish and oyster commissioner, and will be distributed to game wardens and county clerks over the state, from whom they may be bought by hunters at a cost of $2. A license is required for any person hunting outside of the county of his residence, Tucker pointed out, and also for an out-of-state resident to hunt in Texas. The latter license costs $24. Tucker announced that fishing licenses, which must be bought by persons who fish with artificial lures, were also ready for distribution. This is a new law which went into effect a few months ago. An artificial lure license costs a resident fisherman $1, and an out-of-state visitor must pay $5, if he would use artificial bait in Texas streams.

Million Dollar Oil Lease in Litigation

WACO, Aug. 24.—The suit for $1,000,000 interest in oil and gas output on land adjoining the city of Mexia brought by Annie Lou Fryer against the Atlantic Oil Producing company, probably will come up for trial in federal district court here early in November.

ber. The suit was transferred here from Groesbeck and will be heard by Judge C. A. Boynton.

Mrs. Fryer, whose sister, Mrs. Ruth Dillard, is also a plaintiff, alleges their father, H. C. Roller, leased to F. L. Thompson 516 acres of land one mile west of Mexia. Thompson later leased the land to the Atlantic Oil Producing company, which has offices at Dallas. The daughters allege that one half interest in the lease belonged to them and ask the court to allot them this amount.

CISCO REVUE GIRLS RANK AT FT. WORTH

Miss Juanita Gilbert, "Miss Fort Worth" in the recent Lake Cisco Bathing revue, won first place in the Fort Worth revue held at Lake Worth Casino Sunday night. As a result, she will be "Miss Fort Worth" at the Atlantic City pageant. Approximately 20,000 persons saw the revue, it was estimated. Miss Genevieve Lynn of Eastland, who as "Miss Kletman" won third honor at the Lake Cisco revue, was awarded third place prize of $100. Miss Letta Robertson of Clyde, winner of first place in the Cisco event, received a $10 prize. Miss Eulalia Gavit of Brady, second place winner in the Lake Cisco revue, was also an entrant in the Fort Worth affair. Miss Myrtle Crow of Dallas, another Lake Cisco entrant, received a $10 award at the Fort Worth pageant.

ROBBERIES REPORTED AT TWO PLACES

Theft of a watch, chain, two shirts, a black belt and a solid gold ring was reported from Baird Monday by Sheriff Hughes, but the report did not state who was robbed or give other details. A report from officers at Stephenville told of robbery of a filling station four miles from Stephenville in which 20 automobile tubes, 12 or 15 tires, several socket wrenches, and a quantity of men's hats, shirts and groceries were taken. The robber was traveling in a Chevrolet automobile with a trailer, the report stated.

ABILENE CAR BURNED NEAR CISCO SUNDAY

Earl Hummel, oil operator of Abilene, suffered minor injuries, and his automobile was wrecked and burned on the Bankhead highway four miles west of town Sunday night, according to report to police. Hummel was brought to Graham sanitarium where emergency treatment was given, and he was then allowed to leave the hospital. A handbag lost from the wrecked car and belonging to Hummel was brought to the police station and left for him.

Champion Grapevine Claimed at Alpine

ALPINE, Tex., Aug. 25.—W. A. Daugherty, city clerk of Alpine, owns a grape vine at his home here which he claims has shattered all records for production. His wife vouches for the following story: "After supplying two families with eating grapes this summer," said Daugherty, "we picked grapes from the vine to make 40 quarts of jelly and 32 quarts of grape juice. We also sold several small crates of grapes from the vine on the local market." Daugherty also owns an apricot tree which, he said, produced only one-third of a crop this season. But from this small crop, he said, he sold $15 worth of apricots in addition to sending several quarts for family use.

Autos Reduce Crop Of Turkeys, Claim

LOMETA, Tex., Aug. 25.—A shortage in the turkey crop of this section looms unless motorists desist from running over turkeys that stray into the highways. Turkey raisers in this section estimate that several thousand dollars worth of turkeys have been killed by speeding motorists. One farmer reported seeing seven dead turkeys while driving five miles the other day. All had been run over by cars.

EN ROUTE WITH CISCO DAIRY CARAVAN, Aug. 24.—The Cisco caravan investigating the dairying methods in use at the various Texas centers has already obtained much valuable information on its tour which began early Monday morning. All members of the party are enjoying the trip and little trouble has been experienced in keeping the nine members together, except for the fact that Lee Poe strayed by the wayside in Waco and got lost, requiring a considerable search before he was returned to the group. Other members of the party are fearing just what will happen when San Antonio is reached, with its many buildings and crooked streets. Use of a halter to keep the Bankhead Poultry Producers' president in tow is being seriously considered.

O. P. Weiser left the party at Austin to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law at Giddings Wednesday, but will rejoin the party in South Texas. Hico was the first dairying center visited. J. S. Lemond of Hico, route 2, told of his experiences in dairying, asserting he has never had to borrow from the bank since he started dairying. His cows cost him $60 each, and he said he nets 50 cents a day from each of them. He sells his sweet cream, declaring as he could get for the whole milk. When a marketing station was first established at Hico 24 cents a gallon was paid for milk, but the producers soon forced the buyers to buy on a butter fat basis.

O. E. Meadows of two miles west of Hico, who formerly lived at Ranger, gave figures showing his average income per week from 13 cows to be approximately $40 a week. His cows average $125 value each. Part of them are registered and the others good grade stock. He has a registered bull. The cows average about 4 1/2 gallons of milk a day. He has 55 acres in cultivation and practices diversified farming. He raises bees, chickens, and registered hogs. He raises all his feed, and finds the best feed is bundle oats, corn in the shock, crushed, and cotton seed meal. He has sold about $1300 worth of milk since the first of the year.

H. Gleason, president of the Hico Ice and Cold Storage company, said the plant has operated since 1908. A creamery owned by other persons was operated in the plant until four years ago when the company took the creamery over, and now manufactures both sweet cream and sour cream butter. He said he is unable to fill all orders for sour cream butter, but that he has trouble finding a market for sweet cream butter because of a difference in price of 10 to 15 cents a pound. His approximate receipts are 3,000 pounds of sweet cream, 2,500 pounds of sour cream, and 2,000 gallons of whole milk daily, from 250 producers. He operates three trucks in gathering the milk and cream, Comanche being the farthest point reached, 50 miles away. The creamery business is hand-

POULTRY MEN HAVE BRIGHT FUTURE, SAYS

BRYAN, Aug. 25.—No phase of agriculture has a brighter future in Texas than the poultry industry, according to F. W. Kazmeier of Bryan, possessor of the highest official 10 hen pen in the United States. Kazmeier is a graduate of Cornell university and came to Bryan eleven years ago as an instructor in poultry raising at Texas A. & M. college. Kazmeier, who left the school three years ago to go into business for himself, now has hothouses in Bryan, Franklin and Cameron. He has found the poultry business more profitable than teaching school. He has received as high as $1 each for his eggs, and his baby chicks have brought as much as $1.50 each. "One of the most profitable ways to diversify is by raising poultry, but a farmer had better be sure that he knows his business or he will find it a costly venture," said Kazmeier. "Poultry can be made to be a paying proposition, but unless a farmer has had training and experience in this line, he had better keep out of it."

GIRLS WILL HAVE CLASS ON LIGHTING

The Home Economics class members at Cisco High school for the years of 1926 and 1927 have been invited to attend a lighting school on interior decorating which will be conducted at the high school from 3 to 5 o'clock Friday afternoon, it is announced. The school is to be conducted by the Edison Lamp Works under the direction of the West Texas Utilities company woman's committee on public information.

CRUDE OIL PRODUCTION FALLS MORE

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 25.—Further decrease in crude oil production of the United States for the last week was revealed here today. The figures showed the decrease of 38,740 barrels. The United States produced 2,519,974 barrels during the last week, against 2,558,714 of the previous week. Air Mail Increased By Lindy's Flight

WACO, Aug. 25.—A substantial increase in the use of the air mail since Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's New York to Paris flight has been reported here by Postmaster C. V. McMahan. McMahan reported that an average of 1,000 air mail stamps are sold each month at present as compared to an average of 100 a month last year. "Lindbergh has made people realize that the air mail has made 1,000 miles look like 100 miles formerly did," McMahan said.

Cave Exploit Called Hoax

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Roy A. Ashley's reported disappearance in Nick-A-Jack cave and the crews of rescue workers were a hoax and a fraud, promoted for publicity purposes and for influencing the state highway commission to route a road by the cave, an official report of State Mine Inspector O. P. Pile in the hands of governor Peay today declared. Members of the rescue crews who claimed they penetrated unknown recesses of the cave in search of the geologist-explorer, returned with fabulous stories of the beautiful interior of the cave.

Gas Pressed Heart, Caused Sick Feeling

Rev. A. C. Miller, pastor of the First Baptist church, returned late Tuesday from Clint, Texas, where he has been holding a revival meeting for the last two weeks. He reports a splendid meeting and a very enjoyable visit to that part of the Rio Grande valley. "The material prosperity of the people out there," said Rev. Miller, "is very far in excess of their spiritual prosperity. It is a great mission field. Crop conditions are very promising and the people are very optimistic over the rise in the cotton market." Rev. Miller will meet the mid-week services at the city hall auditorium this evening.

Johnson Grass Takes 12 Cattle

George Wilson reports that he lost twelve of his white faced cattle during the last week, due to their eating Johnson grass. Fifty of his cattle broke into a Johnson grass meadow on his ranch six miles out on the Putnam road, but only twelve of them died. He valued his loss at about $700.

Quarter of Million In Cattle Deals

BLEDSOE, Aug. 25.—Cochran county, during the last three weeks, has seen cattle deals totaling almost a quarter of a million dollars. Many cars of stock have been shipped out, and many cattle have changed hands, but will remain on the ranches here until next fall.

Excursion Rates May Be Given to El Paso Game

Great Interest Being Manifest In Forthcoming Football Battle With Border City; Many Expected to Go

Excursion rates to El Paso for the Cisco-El Paso football game there October 1 are in prospect, and it is likely that an unusually low rate will be offered. The West Texas chamber of commerce was asked to use its good offices in getting the Texas-Pacific railway to grant such rates and a letter has been received by that organization from George D. Hunter general passenger agent to the effect that he will look into the matter and make as low a rate as possible, according to advice from officials of the West Texas C. of C. Great interest is being manifested in the El Paso country as the day of the game approaches. El Paso, due to remoteness from other Texas cities has never participated in the Intercollegiate league, but has played the larger cities of Arizona, New Mexico, and the teams of the United States army posts at El Paso and Marfa. This is the first time in many years that El Paso has met a leading Texas high school team and the opinion is held that this game may pave the way for El Paso's entrance into the Texas Intercollegiate league football circles. The Pass City has always participated in the basketball tournaments and except for last year have sent a team into the finals every year since the school began competition in the league. The team "slipped up" at Alpine in the district tournament and lost to the boys from the mountain city. However when it was announced that Alpine would play in the A. A. U. state tournament at Cisco, El Paso hurriedly entered their team, came here and literally slaughtered Alpine by a tremendous score just to show that they had an off day when they were defeated by the Alpine boys.

Already the El Paso papers are playing up the game. They are running stories setting forth the past history of the Cisco team, and have given considerable space to the Cisco dam after which the Lobos take their name. They have also given publicity to the remarkable financial success of the Lobos and have pointed to the Lobo stadium as a model for high school teams. One of the papers recently ran a story on the immortal Chigger Browne and how his spirit lead the Lobos to victory over the Abilene football machine last year.

El Paso hotels are anxious to have the Lobos make their headquarters with them during the visit of the team there. One of the leading hotels is already negotiating with Coach Chapman and is willing to make special concessions to have the Lobos as their guests. Special entertainment is planned for the football boys and for the Cisco and other West Texas fans who visit El Paso for the game. Juarez is planning to stage a big bull fight on the day following the game, and social functions are being planned to give the visitors a royal welcome.

El Paso has recently evinced a strong interest in West Texas, and the city planning to go after the next annual convention of the West Texas chamber of commerce. Upon the occasion of the visit of the West Texas Motocade there recently, El Pasoans fairly outdid themselves to make the West Texans enjoy their stay. Advice from the city are to the effect that the same brand of hospitality is to be extended to the Ciscoans, and as one paper put it, Cisco can have everything in El Paso and Juarez but the football game, as El Paso is counting heavily upon downing the Lobos to make their bow in Texas high school football circles.

The committee on resolutions was composed of: Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado, chairman; Clifford B. Jones of Spur; C. H. Clark of Wichita Falls; R. Q. Lee of Cisco; Walter C. Woodward of Coleman; R. L. Penick of Stamford; Thomas L. Blanton of Abilene; A. P. Reagan of Brady; Joe A. Wheat of Seymour; and Claud C. Wild of San Angelo. No man from Brown county was on the committee. Much of said resolution was written during the noon adjournment. I wrote one whole paragraph myself with a pen. There was but one objection to said resolutions, raised by Messrs. Jones, Lee and Wiley, that the language possibly was too harsh in attributing to power and utilities companies the intent to monopolize the waters of Texas, but they all agreed with the general purposes of the resolution, and both Mr. Jones and Mr. Wild had wise suggestions incorporated in the resolutions. "Big utility monopolies must not control the people's necessities in Texas. West Texas people do not want one drop of rainfall that belongs to the watershed of any other people in Texas. They don't want anybody's water but their own. They favor power development, but it must be subservient to needs for domestic uses, irrigation and the lawful rights of all riparian owners."
