Search for Two Men Who Shot Pair Of Officers After Being Arrested

Cisco police Saturday night were patroling highways leading into he city from the north and west in an effort to apprehend two men who late Saturday afternoon shot and killed Sheriff Bob Smith and Deputy Jake Owens of Fisher county at a point between Roby and Rotan. The two men were said to have picked up their wives after the shooting and escaped toward Hamlin in an Oldsmobile sedan which bore an Arizona license plate, the last number of which was 10. The men were described as being about 23 years of age.

First word of the shooting was received here Saturday afternoon when Deputy Sheriff Whalen of Abilene called from Angn, advising the Cisco officers to look out for the men and the two women. Officers, heavily armed, immediately book up positions on highways BOBBY JONES leading into the city.

CRUCIAL WEEK AT ENCAMPMENT

The Christian encampment at Lake Cisco begins its second week today. A program that should be of interest to every citizen of Cisco, whether he belongs to the Christian denomination or not, has been planned. It will be well worth the while of anyone to attend all or part of the services today. For a first year encampment, conceived and put over late in the summer, the encampment has been very successful to date. Many from out of town have camped at the grounds all or part of the time. Indications are for an even greater crowd this week. As a matter of fact, the attendance at the encampment today and the rest of this week will go a long way toward determining whether the encampment will become a permanent affair or not. Friday has been set aside as "business day" at which time decision will be taken on the permanency of the encampment. Advantages of holding a great encampment in Cisco each year are too obvious to need emphasis here. But if Ciscoans want the encampment next year and the succeeding years, together with the building program contemplated by the leaders, then they should manifest their interest Permitting the child to express by attending as many services as possible during the himself has come to mean that coming week. Every Ciscoan present adds that much to the enthusiasm of the encampment, and will encourage the church leaders to come back again next year. And if the Christian denomination develops the beautiful site tendered for the encampment, then other denominations can be expected to follow suit, making Lake Cisco a great recreation center for the churches of West Texas. Go to the encampment today and the rest of the week, and you will not only enjoy excellent programs, but will be aiding Cisco and Cisco institutions.

CISCO BUILDING PERMANENTLY

It is encouraging to note the vast amount of new building going on in Cisco at present. Perhaps never before has this city seen so many new houses of permanent type being constructed at one time. Yet the city is far from eaught up in its building program. It is only started. One Ciscoan this last week, forced to move because of sale of the house in which he lived, looked all over the city for a vacant house, and finding none, bought a lot on which to build his own. That's a most encouraging sign. If Cisco can build many new homes and still have every house filled in the present so-called "slump" era, then just what can this city do in flush times? The Daily News would like to see a program of business house construction begun, commensurate with the residential building. and if this is done, Cisco can look forward to an amazing increase in population in the next few years. TRAFFIC COURTESY

Denver's "courtesy month" doesn't seem to have been an unqualified success so far. Posters all over the town have urged drivers to "give courtesy the right of way," but the right of way seems to be prevailing over courtesy. Drivers insist on their rights, safe keeping-please call for them and many of them exceed their rights, as of yore, and the police have such a difficult time that even they PRIVATE KINDERGARTEN often neglect to be courteous, and so offenders pour into the police court pretty much as usual. After the first week's trial, the "manager of safety" in charge supplies furnished. For terms and of the courtesy campaign, who had already appealed to ministers, department stores, service clubs and newspapers to spread the courtesy idea, extended his appeal to the auto service stations. wrote letters to 200 stations, urging them to "remind every customer to be courteous." Which, as some of the ser-

Imagine the man who fills your gas business establishments. tank saying, as he accepts your money, "I hope while you're burning up this gas you'll be uniformly courteous to other motorists and pedestrians." The customer as likely as not will reply, "Why, durn your hide, I'm always courteous!" One citizen who took the courtesy injunction literally ended unfortunately. Happening to bark his fingers on a loose license plate while cranking his engine, he jerked off the offending plate and put it into his car to fix when he got home. A patrolman stopped him and, ignoring his into Carbon This road was made explanation, gave him a police court ticket. "Thank farmers of those two communities you!" said the motorist politely. "Take him to jail!" yelled the policeman. Another polite "Thank You!" But when the judge fined him $14, he refrained from any courteous comeback, maintaining a discreet silence. He had learned his lesson. None of which is a valid argument against courtesy campaigns. Denver should persevere. A whole city can't turn courteous all at once.

Be there at 9:45 to enjoy the whole hour with us. The morning hour begins it 10:50 with a story for the chit. Miss White has both organ and choir selections that are un usually pretty, and the message by the minister on, "Values" goes, in a practical way, to the heart of a question that none can avoid with out immediate personal hurt. At the evening hour, 8 o'clock, the musical program includes a violin solo by Mrs. Chapman Williamson, vocal duet assisted by the choir with Mesdames Ben McClinton and W. W. Wallace in the leading parts, and a vocal solo by Mrs. Ray Vaughan. Miss Irene White will be at the pipe organ with her unusual vesper selections. "Reflections From Athens." a continua tion of the Mediterranean trip sermons by the minister, is treatment of a theme too much neglected today, and yet furnishes fascinating study. The most enouraging thing said so far in the series by the auditors is, "the preacher's sermons are too short." Our goal is a one hour period. It is full to the limit.-B. C. BONEY. B. D., M'nister.
