OLD HOME TOWN

The Women's Home Missionary society meets at the First Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in a regular mission study with Mrs. John Shertzer as leader. Rev. R. E. Huston will give an address.

I think the Cisco business men who made possible this afternoon's "football party" deserve the thanks of all Cisco, declared Mrs. J. T. Berry Saturday. "I think it was mighty nice to provide the report of the game so all could hear in comfort as we did this afternoon, and I for one as a Lobo fan want to thank those responsible for the arrangements."

Cisco Baptists are planning for a big picnic, probably to be given some time before October 23, at Lake Cisco, it was announced Saturday. The adult Sunday school classes are planning the picnic and barbecue as a means of stimulating interest in Sunday school and church attendance looking toward dedication of the handsome new First Baptist church building scheduled for October 23. A committee comprised of Asa Skiles, W. H. La Roque and Frank Walker has been named on arrangements. All members of adult classes of the Sunday school, both men and women, and prospective members will be invited, it is said.

The West Ward Parent-Teachers' association will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school. Mrs. J. E. T. Peters, president, Saturday urged that all members be present.

News has been received here that after September 30, the post-office at Duster has been discontinued. Mail formerly sent to Duster should now be addressed to Gorman, Route 4, it was said. The government will make a saving of approximately $2,000 a year by the consolidation, it is asserted.

Cisco police are holding a 1923 Ford touring car which was found abandoned at Tenth street and I avenue. It is believed the car was stolen somewhere else, driven here and abandoned. An effort to steal a car at 510 West Eighth Friday night resulted in a call to city police. However, the thieves had disappeared when police arrived.

Mrs. Walter Sikes and son, Dick, arrived yesterday for a visit with Mayor and Mrs. J. M. Williamson.

Walters, 6 hours; furniture, window dressing. Mr. Tichenor emphasized that these students are not football players, but are boys and girls attracted to Randolph college solely in an effort to obtain an education. Smith kicked off for Cisco again. Ralston took the ball and went to his 25 yard line, returning the ball 5 yards. Simons went over left tackle for 2 yards. Simons failed to gain, trying to penetrate the Lobos' strong line. Ralston punted to 45 yard line. H. Pippen tried right end but failed to make any gain. Little hit left end for 5 yards. He was downed by Warden. H. Pippen's pass to B. Pippen was incomplete. H. Pippen kicked over goal line for a touchdown, leaving eleven Lobos rolling on the ground behind him. His try for extra point was blocked. Little's run was only the most sensational play of the game and came after it was thought the elusive little man had been sufficiently stopped by the Tigers to prevent any such occurrence. The run merely proved that Little is a dangerous man against anybody's team, large or small. The El Paso touchdown came at the opening of the third quarter. A fumble had given El Paso the lead.

Work Under Way On Comanche Highway

Little made his first touchdown early in the first quarter by a 20-yard sprint through the Tiger line across the goal line. H. Pippen kicked goal for extra point. In the fourth quarter, after the El Pasoans had scored six points by a touchdown in the third quarter, Little grabbed a punt on his own 45-yard line and raced, dodged and whirled 55 yards through a broken field for a touchdown, leaving eleven Lobos rolling on the ground behind him. His try for extra point was blocked. Little's run was only the most sensational play of the game and came after it was thought the elusive little man had been sufficiently stopped by the Tigers to prevent any such occurrence. The run merely proved that Little is a dangerous man against anybody's team, large or small.

WORLD FLYERS GIVEN LITTLE TEXAS WELCOME

EL PASO, Oct. 1.—Edward F. Schlee and William S. Block, flying the Pride of Detroit, landed at the army flying field here at 2:50 p. m. Mountain time today. They left Los Angeles this morning. A flat welcome was experienced when they arrived here. There was no crowd at the field and the welcoming committee was not on hand to receive them. There was a mix up over time of arrival. Members of the Aero club tonight planned to give the pair a blow out in Juarez across the river. The flyers will leave early Sunday for Dallas.

MY RELIGION NAME OF HELEN KELLER BOOK

URBANA, Ohio, Oct. 1.—After completing a study of the bust of Emanuel Swedenborg, loaned to her by Urbana university, Miss Helen Keller, probably the most famous blind character in the world, is writing a book entitled: "My Religion," which, it is said, will contain facts and opinions concerning the Swedenborgian religion. Miss Keller wanted to "see" how Swedenborg looked and to "feel" his presence, which the work of bronze, done by Fannie Rye in 1924, enabled her to do. The bust was in Miss Keller's possession from June until just recently. There are but three other busts of Emanuel Swedenborg in the country—one at New York, one in Chicago and the other in Boston.

Thirty farmers were present at the gathering, held in the chamber of commerce, despite the rain. After business of the association was concluded, R. L. Poe made a talk on the recent tour of the dairying section of Texas made by a group of Cisco farmers. Several others who made the trip were also present, and a general discussion of dairying followed.

The citrus crops will be ready for market Nov. 1, two weeks earlier than usual, he said after a tour of this region. "Many citrus trees are coming into commercial bearing for the first time this season," Soyars said. "The growers expect to ship 1,500 cars of grapefruit this season as compared to about 800 cars last year."

They Forget Rangers When Banks Robbed

AUSTIN, Oct. 1.—State rangers have an enviable reputation in dealing with bank robbers, yet no one calls them when a bank is robbed. Two banks were robbed within a short distance of ranger headquarters in the state capital this month. One of the robberies was in the city of Austin. In both cases the rangers got their first notice of the robbery from newspaper men. Austin police and the sheriff of Travis county were notified. The rangers were forgotten.

BACHELOR ECONOMY

We shall never quite understand Germany. The latest bit of incomprehensibility concerns bachelors. While other countries are contemplating a tax on bachelors, to make them contribute their proper share to society, and some have actually imposed such a law, the German government is said to be considering paying bachelor employees more than married employees. It is urged by a strong minority. The reasoning is like this: Living is more expensive for bachelors, because they have no home and no wife to prepare their meals, and they have to spend more on amusement than married men. We have often heard, even in America, that "two can live cheaper than one," but the argument has probably never been carried to this extreme. A good many Germans seem to believe that half a dozen can live cheaper than one. So they can, perhaps, if they have to. It is incredible what a family or a family man can do under the stress of economic necessity. Bachelors don't know much about that.

COLORS

The aesthetic urge has reached the machine shop. Master tools—by which is meant the machines which make other tools—are coming in colors. No longer is the shop a dull affair in which the shiny black so long considered the only possible finish for machinery predominating. Grays and soft blues bedeck the homes of industry, with here and there a more daring color note in Chinese red or orange. New motor fuels have their colors. Pink gas is sold in many stations, and now a new gas is tinted green. Will it not be a tragedy to get out of gas while driving in an orange roadster when only the pink is available? And when one has chosen a green brougham to harmonize with one's street clothes and one finds the tank all but empty and miles from the station which sells the matching green? When it comes to introducing color into restaurants long known for their simple cuisine and "clean-looking" white walls, counters and tables, the color fad begins to seem almost a sacrilege. Especially when the owners say they aren't quite sure what the colors are going to be, but the artist has promised them something highly startling and futuristic. It's grand to put color into a drab age. Brightness, verve and variety are doubtless desirable. But how far people can be trusted with color is a question. The pink stucco house of admirable design on which daubs of green, looking like giant footprints, have been splashed, is an example not so good. Well, we have been dull long enough. Let us revel and riot in color for a while. "Why rushed the records in but that harmony should be prized?" We shall enjoy the ensuing calm and quietness all the more.

plugged dime. If a legacy should fall into his hands it might encourage him to buck up and be somebody. It is a question if it would not be better to let the boy have his inheritance and do what he pleases with it—run through it if he hasn't any better sense—or make something of it if he knows enough; even squandering his inheritance would teach him something; the experience would give him an idea of the value of money; and of how easily it goes; and of the true worth of fair weather friends.

While some men make the mistake of leaving no will other men make the mistake of leaving too much will. From the grave they hang onto their property, direct the spending of its earnings year by year, and from generation to generation, and run the lives of the beneficiaries; they tie the hands of the widow so she cannot dispose of the fiver, or anything else, except under complicated conditions.

Some men give their families no peace even after they are dead. Leaving one's wife an income for life and leaving one's child an income for life are altogether different propositions. Leaving a child an income for life, particularly a male child, may be one of the worst things that could happen to that child. The average young fellow works because he has to work. He would play from morning until night and from night until morning, did not force of necessity decree otherwise. I know one bright young fellow who has never amounted to a hill of beans because his mother left him a life income of $100 a month. He is nothing in the world but a sublimated hobo.

Because a potential heir is not doing anything with his life is no reason for cutting him off with a

ROTARY SEEKS JOBS FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS HERE

Many Seeking Education Must Work to Pay Expenses, Committee Says in Trying to Help Youths

The Cisco Rotary club is attempting to find work for students of Randolph college who find it necessary to have employment in order to pay their expenses through school, it was announced Saturday by James E. Tichenor of the Rotary committee named for this purpose. Many students are now at the college hoping to secure work to pay their way to an education, Mr. Tichenor said, and he urged that anyone having employment a student might fill should telephone President T. T. Roberts at the college.

Mr. Tichenor gave out the following statement:

"The Rotary club of Cisco has undertaken to find employment for all boys and girls who of necessity must work their way through school if they are to become educated citizens of these United States. Unquestionably the educational advantages of our country should be made available to all boys and girls who have the ambition and nerve and foresight to work and fight for a position in our future citizenship on a par with the other fellow. There is no greater commercial asset than earning capacity. A fortune may be lost but with earning capacity made possible by education and the confidence that goes with knowledge, there is always the big chance of a comeback.

"The Rotary club is asking the co-operation and personal assistance of all of the merchants and business men of Cisco in finding a means by employment of keeping in school those boys and girls who wish to reach manhood and womanhood with an even break becoming Grade A citizens.

"The following list of students, the time they have for work each day and their experience in the past is submitted by Randolph college and it is to be hoped that anyone having employment for one or more of these worthy students will telephone the college: Austin Baughthhouse, 6 hours, farm experience; Ira Beard, 4 hours, grocery and soda fountain; Hallie Gantz, 5 hours, gents' furnishings; James Gleason, 5 hours, two years with filling station; Harry Boone, 5 hours, store and filling station; Joseph Surratt, 5 hours, bakery (six years experience); Byron Lovelady, 5 hours, trucking, garage and filling station; Darrell Roland, 6 hours, drug store; Frank Walters, 6 hours; furniture, window dressing.

Mr. Tichenor emphasized that these students are not football players, but are boys and girls attracted to Randolph college solely in an effort to obtain an education.

Work Under Way On Comanche Highway

DE LEON, Oct. 1.—There is evidence that J. E. Ward Company, Inc., of Dallas mean business when they contract to do a piece of work. They were successful bidders for hard surfacing 17 miles of highway across Comanche county, east and west from the Eastland to Erath county lines, being awarded the contract September 8.

On Thursday, Sept. 29 six cars of crushed rock were on the siding at this city and men with trucks commenced unloading Thursday morning and piling the material beside the road for use on the job.

General headquarters will be maintained at De Leon, according to S. M. Goodman, general superintendent who arrived here Thursday morning.

A large forest of petrified wood has been found in a remote valley in Texas.

HONK IRWIN ON TEAM TO BATTLE NAVY

(De Leon Free Press)

Honk Irwin, once a De Leon Bearcat where he learned his first lessons in football, and later a star on the Cisco Lobo eleven and the Schreiner Institute team, is now playing "up-town" football with the Davis & Elkins College at Elkins, West Virginia. Honk sent home a catalogue of this school this week and with it a schedule of the games his team will play this season. Among the teams are Annapolis Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md., on October 1, and the U. S. Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., West Virginia Wesleyans, at Elkins, and Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.

Honk is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Irwin, Katy railroad man. He has been classed a football star since he began playing football with the Bearcat eleven here. He is built for the game, and his training and experience has made him mighty hard to stop. His De Leon friends would be glad to see him "strut his stuff" against Navy this Saturday.

Signed, Tom Whitehead, editor. Sworn to and subscribed before me this first day of October, 1927. E. O. Elliott, My commission expires June 1, 1928.

Girls in search of husbands are advised to go west. In the state of Washington there are 87,195 more men of marriageable age than there are girls; Idaho has a surplus of more than 30,000 men, while Montana and Oregon are also girl shy.

MONEY RAINS INTO ALLEY ON ALBANY MAIN

ALBANY, Oct. 1.—It isn't raining rain, you know, it's raining dollar bills.

Thus did John Sutherland, 16, paraphrase Al Johnson's one time song hit last night as he found himself in a shower of currency while walking through an alley near the Sheridan-Plaza hotel.

First a screen fell from a window, narrowly missing him. Then followed the shower of fluttering bank notes in $1, $5, $10 and $20 denominations.

As Sutherland stooped to pick up the bills there came raining down a roll of currency—about $450—he guessed. He picked it from the ground and as he did so up rushed an excited stranger, grabbed it and ran away.

Sutherland started picking up the loose bills. A voice from above ordered him to bring the money into the lobby. He did. A second stranger there picked the handful of bills from his fingers and vanished.

Police found the room from which the money was dropped was in the name of "T. Maud" and "J. Harris," both of whom disappeared. Who, what and why today remains a mystery.

An anarchist album, containing the photographs of some five hundred anarchists of international reputation, was published and distributed among interested nations in 1894 by the French government.

Stephen's Renditions Show Small Drop

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 1.—Total renditions of Stephens county for county and state purposes fell about $100,000 under the total for last year, according to County Tax Assessor C. B. Sears. Expectations freely expressed among officials at the court house were that the total renditions for 1927 would fall at least $1,500,000 below last year. In 1926 the total was $23,557,230, while for the present year it is $23,456,565.

A noticeable feature of the report is a decline of $1,000,000 and more on the unrendered rolls, indicating that this amount, unrendered last year, has been transferred to the rendered list.

REVISE QUOTAS TO LOWER LIMIT ON IMMIGRATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Extension of the immigration quota restrictions to include all countries in the western hemisphere will be sought in a renewed drive to be made in the next congress. This campaign, aimed particularly at Mexico, will be led by Secretary of Labor Davis and Immigration Commissioner Hull.

The immigration authorities take the stand that the 1924 quota law effectively closed the doors to "undesirable" aliens from Europe, but at the same time left plenty of side doors open along the Mexican border through which other "undesirables" could enter and are entering without restraint. This loose attitude, the officials say, is upsetting the equilibrium which it had been hoped the 1924 law would establish and is bringing into the country great quantities of cheap labor, thus defeating the primary purpose of the quota act by keeping down the standard of living.

In Central States

This situation, according to Assistant Commissioner Husband, is especially true with regard to the North Central States such as Minnesota, Iowa, North and South Dakota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania. In that section the Mexican immigrants have found their way into the steel, mine and sugar beet industries and into railroad work to the economic detriment of the laborers already on hand.

As evidence of the "undiscoverability" of this class of immigration figures for the fiscal year 1925-26 are cited. In that year more than 42,000 Mexicans entered the country, of which only 408 were of the professional classes and 2,755 were skilled laborers. Of the remainder, 840 followed miscellaneous lines of employment, 11,475 (including women and children) had no occupation, 28,196 were listed as common laborers, 367 as farm laborers, and 564 as servants.

While immigration from Europe has been cut down from more than a million in 1914 to approximately 156,000 in 1926, immigration from Mexico has been gaining at a proportionate rate, 396,993 in 1926, persons having entered this country from Mexico in the last eight years. In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1926, Mexican immigrants numbered 32,361; in 1921, 30,758; 1922, 19,551; 1923, 63,798; 1924, 89,536; 1925, 52,964; 1926, 43,316; and 1927, 67,509. Besides these at least a quarter of a million others, if not a great many more, have long Mexican blood being registered.

To Stop Influx

Quotas were placed under a quota restriction, and presuming that the boundary could be properly covered along its entire length by immigration officers, the influx of aliens from that country would be reduced more than 95 per cent. The Mexican-born population of the United States in 1920 was 77,553. The 1924 act places the European quotas at two per cent of their native born populations in this country in 1920. Putting Mexico under a like quota would permit the entrance of only 1,557 Mexicans every year.

Immigration officials recognize that extension of the quota restrictions to the other western hemisphere countries would hit Canada, the immigration from which is considered "more desirable." The last eight years have seen 806,250 aliens arriving from Canada and Newfoundland, which is at the rate of approximately 100,000 a year. Under the two per cent quota, Canada and Newfoundland, who had 980,528 natives resident here in 1890, would be permitted to send only 19,643 annually into the United States.

ALL-AMERICAN SIX TESTED MANY MONTHS

PONTIAC, Mich., Oct. 1.—An entirely new motor car which really is not new at all—this is the paradox presented by the new Oakland All-American Six, in which the American public is finding so much of interest today. For while the All-American Six is new to the public, both in point of engineering advances and in the brilliant performance to which they contribute, it is old in point of service. Having undergone hundreds of thousands of test miles at the General Motors Proving Grounds, Oakland engineers know its capabilities thoroughly, long before it was publicly announced.

ALL INTERESTED ASKED BEFORE WATER MEET

ABILENE, Oct. 1.—After a conference with President R. W. Haynie of the West Texas chamber of commerce, and J. A. Kemp of the Texas conservation association, Homer D. Wade, manager of the former organization and secretary of the latter, made this statement:

"The committee of twenty-five appointed upon the recommendation of the citizens' mass meeting held in Abilene August 18, cordially invites any one interested in the equal distribution of the waters along the rivers of Texas to appear before this committee, which meets at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel, Austin, at 10 a. m., October 3. The organizations named nor the committee of twenty-five have not felt called upon to indulge in propaganda or make reply to many statements and mis-statements that have appeared in the press in disparagement of the usefulness of the organizations or the committee in the work of building a program to protect the water rights of the people.

"A majority of the committee have indicated their intention of attending the conference at Austin, and the attorney general and members of the board of water engineers will be invited to appear before the committee."

MORRISON PREPARES FOR MISSOURI BATTLE

DALLAS, Oct. 1.—Ray Morrison, Southern Methodist University coach, is not taking his early season games lightly for in them he realizes that he must develop the machine which will later face one of the hardest schedules ever arranged for a Southwestern Conference team.

The weak positions, particularly that of center, must be filled, and filled well, before October 22, when Coach Gavin Henry brings his powerful Missouri Tigers to Dallas. On the next Saturday Texas plays in Dallas, and on November 5, the Mustangs visit Dana Bible's Aggies at College Station, three heavyweights blows in as many Saturdays.

RUTH BREAKS RECORD WITH RUN NO. 60

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Babe Ruth's sixteenth homer of the season, creating a new major league record, carried the New York Yankees to a 4 to 2 win over the Washington Senators Friday.

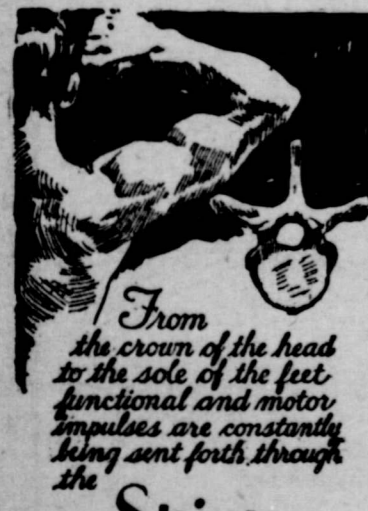

BABE RUTH

shot into the sun seats of the right field stand. Ruth also hit two singles and scored three of New York's runs. Tuning his pitchers for the world series, Manager Miller Huggins worked Phipps and Penneck in relay Friday and the pair held Washington to five hits.

The Senators took an early lead in the fourth inning, scoring two runs on three hits. Goslin singled and after two were out a single and steal by Ruel and Bluege's one-baser counted the tallies. Holds World's Record by Marrying for Tenth Time

NEW ORLEANS, LA. (I-I-N).—"A stove that smokes, a parrot that swears and a cat that stays out nights don't make a good husband," declares Mrs. McDonald-Walter-Bronson-Burgess-Chavallier-Garden-White-Luigi-Hatfield-Willis of Urania, a suburb of this city.

"I believe in love," she added, when interviewed by reporters on the day after her tenth wedding. Mrs. Willis got married for the first time when she was Carolyn Frost and 14 years of age. Now she's 58, and is still fond of the matrimonial ties. In her 44 years of wedded life, Mrs. Willis has become a widow three times, and has gone through six divorce actions.

MRS. JOHN W. WILLIS (International Illustrated News)

Her matrimonial record follows:— No. 1.—Duff McDonald, 16 years. No. 2.—Lee Walters, 2 years. No. 3.—C. E. Bronson, 4 years. No. 4.—Jack Burgess, 3 years. No. 5.—P. Chavallier, 3 weeks. No. 6.—John Gardner, 3 months. No. 7.—Charles White, 3 months. No. 8.—George Luigi, 5 years. No. 9.—B. Hatfield, 3 years. No. 10.—John W. Willis.

"I just like to have a husband around," states Mrs. Willis. She explains that most of her divorces were caused by her husbands finding out she had a small fortune, and trying to wrest possession of it from her.

HARBIN POOL GASSER MAKES 3,000,000 FEET

Completion of Chestnut & Smith corporation's and Latschaw's No. 1 Harbin, seven miles north of Ranger as a gasser was announced Saturday.

The well is making 3,000,000 cubic feet of gas and at this time no oil, at a depth of 1,477 feet. It was completed late yesterday. Southeast of Ranger about two miles, Alworth Brothers et al, are drilling a well in search of a shallow sand, following the lines so successfully laid down by other companies in the Eastland county fields, who have gone back to sands once ignored by the big companies.

The shallow test is now down 700 feet and it will be drilled to at least 1,400 feet in hopes of striking the sand that has been found in the Panhandle and in the Parsons pools. The Alworth Brothers are perhaps the youngest drillers in this field, but they have grown up in the oil business, as their father is a driller of many years' experience. During the boom the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company drilled two deep wells on this same tract and they were very good wells. Southwest of Cisco the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company is now drilling at 2,350 feet on its Dillon No. 1. Its intentions, unless the drill finds the pay at a lesser depth is to go down 3,500 feet in a deep test. Six miles northwest of Ranger the same company is drilling at 400 feet on its R. H. Works No. 2 which is to be a shallow test. In the Gordon pool north of Ranger, Moorman et al on the Thorpe about one mile from the Ramsower leases, is drilling at 3,450 feet. South of Ranger the Mook-Texas company is setting the casing in its Sibley No. 8 at 2,900 feet, and Garkley et al are drilling at 2,900 feet.

One Bullet Injures Three West Texans

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 1.—Three persons, two women, all wounded by the same pistol bullet in a shooting accident at Mankins about 10 o'clock Thursday night were resting well at the Wichita general hospital Saturday.

The injured are C. H. Blair, 24; Mrs. H. Bedford, 37, and Miss Iona Bedford, 17. The accident occurred when a pistol which Mr. Bedford was handling was accidentally discharged in the Bedford home at Mankins, according to hospital attendants.

The steel jacket bullet ranged down, passing through Mrs. Bedford's side near the hip, through Miss Bedford's thigh and finally lodging in Mr. Blair's foot. Attending physicians said that none of the wounds appeared to be dangerous.

NOTICE! During Dr. E. L. Graham's absence while taking post-graduate courses in Europe, his practice will be looked after by Dr. H. G. Clark from Dallas. All work at the hospital will go on as usual. Dr. Clark's office phone is 513, residence 7063. 157th

Merriman Boys Kill Rattler With Airgun

MERRIMAN, Oct. 1.—Four boys living in the Merriman neighborhood went fishing Saturday morning on Colony creek and took their air guns along as a protection against the wild beasts of the forest. It was well they did, for when they returned home they brought with them two big rattlesnakes. One measured four feet and six and one-half inches in length, and had 14 rattles; while the other one was five feet and one inch long with 22 rattles. They shot them with their air guns.

The boys were George Allison, Alvin, Laid and Harve McGowan, and their ages are 6, 9, 11 and 12 years. A. H. Allison, father of young George, has the snakes on exhibition at the United Producers camp southeast of Ranger, and is going to have a picture made of them.

On a tableland six miles wide, located near the west coast of Africa, stands a forest of trees only 12 inches in height, bearing leaves (never more than two to a tree) often six feet long. The trunks of the trees measure about four feet in diameter. Fish, being unable to close their eyes, take their sleep or repose during periods of inactivity more or less variable in degree.
