TEXAS

By WILL H. MAYES, Austin.

SERVING ITS TERRITORY.

In guaranteeing the Chicago Opera company a fixed fee for appearing in Wichita Falls this week the people of that city rendered a distinct service to a large surrounding territory. But that service was in keeping with the enterprising spirit that has built a wonderful city there. Wichita Falls has a new 6,000-seat municipal auditorium in which the company is appearing; this auditorium being another evidence of North Texas progressiveness. Wichita Falls was fortunate in having for its original settlers persons with a broad vision, so broad that the narrow-minded pessimist has never felt comfortable there.

GAINESVILLE BUILDING PROJECT.

Gainesville is a Texas city with "growing pains" that the latest diagnosis reveals can be relieved only by a bond issue for the erection of a large modern school building, a municipal auditorium, and a street paving program. It is impossible for any place to grow as it should without planning ahead and providing for the needs of its future population. The only way known to modern men to do this, when the money is not in hand, is to borrow on the strength of municipal credit.

ORGANIZING FIG INDUSTRY.

Figs grow in Texas better than they sell. Losses have in some cases been calamitous because of lack of organization. Fig growers need organization in planting, cultivating and gathering the crop. They need it to stabilize the fig market and to advertise and popularize the product — to make Texas figs famous wherever people eat. Every South Texas county, as well as many other sections, can grow figs. It is estimated that the 1928 crop of Texas figs, properly handled, should bring $2,500,000 to the growers. In a few years the same size crop with the right kind of organization and advertising should sell for twice that sum. Organization of the right kind costs something, whatever the product, but the right kind is worth the cost.

FARM LAND DETERIORATION.

One reason why every river and creek valley in Texas should be in a water conservation and irrigation district is to prevent soil erosion. After every hard rain millions of dollars worth of rich Texas soil is washed into the Gulf of Mexico. In many sections the fertility of the hillside is already in the Gulf and the land is becoming less valuable all the time. Terracing, where there is no soil, does little immediate good. The valley soils are fast following those of the hills to the ocean. Storage reservoirs, levees and irrigation will stop the waste, and terracing and crop diversification will in time restore the losses. Texas is yet rich in soil, but steps should be taken to hold its present wealth and build up more.

MCKINNEY HOLDING CELEBRATION.

McKinney is celebrating Texas Independence Day with a spring merchandise exposition on a large scale for a city of that size. The city has invited and is expecting thousands to attend the celebration. Visitors will be given a program of entertainment. Somehow that seems to be a sadder way to celebrate a holiday than to close all the stores and make the streets look like business is all dead and the citizens are away at the funeral.

CUTTING COTTON CROP.

Dan Royall, a Malakoff banker, is reported as saying that Henderson county will see its cotton average 15 per cent this year and that a large part of the land will be planted in corn and other grains. The farmers are raising more hogs than ever, due in some measure to the favorable prices paid.

PROCRASTINATION MAY PAY.

There are exceptions to all adages. Procrastination may be the "chief of time," but time is not always wasted or lost. The Texas Highway commission recently saved $400,000 on 12 tractors, which it had delayed buying. Some of us have saved the price of a new car by running the old flier for years after the car dealer has told us it was past going. It doesn't always pay to get in a hurry. Hurry, after all, is a form of modern nervousness.

THREE FLIERS KILLED WHEN PLANES CRASH

LONDON, March 2.—Three military aviators were killed near Sheerness when two planes crashed in the air.

LUNDY'S AUTO HAULED YEGGS TO McCAULLEY

A Cisco automobile was used to reach McCaulley, where three unmasked men held up the bank in that place Thursday morning and secured something over $1,000. This was developed when a phone message from Sheriff Tom Hudson, of Fisher county, notified the Cisco police that the Buick coupe belonging to G. B. Andy, Texas company field man, had been recovered. This car was reported stolen from the Lundy home in the 500 block on West Third street Tuesday night. The message stated that the car had been abandoned on the highway between McCaulley and Anson.

Another message to the police department from the police chief at Hamlin stated that one of the robbers is known to be a certain man who is well known in criminal annals of West Texas, and that he was in possession of strong evidence implicating this man and two women as participants in the bank robbery. The message also stated that the robbers were headed east, driving a Model Six sedan bearing an Oklahoma number.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Representative James, Republican of Michigan, has introduced a bill providing the reserve corps to the same status as the national guard, by creating a reserves bureau in the war department, thus making for elimination of dissatisfaction among 116,000 reserve officers, because their affairs are handled by five different departments of the army.

BRITISH SENDS TANK-PLANES TO BESIEGED

JERUSALEM, March 2.—Seven British tanks and 23 air planes have been sent to attack a force of 6,000 Wahabis besieging Amman, according to advices from the latter place.
Declaring her opposition to the Ku Klux Klan, Mrs. Cunningham said "it is an engineering problem and not a political question" and advocated the appointment of a commission of engineers to handle the situation.
"I am for the League of Nations," she said, "I am ashamed that we are not in it."
She closed her address with a plea for the confirmation of federal appointees in open sessions of the senate rather than in secret executive sessions.

When Texas Declared Her Independence

On March 2, 1836, the Declaration of Independence of Texas was signed. There was no bell in the log house in which the signers gathered, largely because there was no belfry in which one might be suspended. Neither was there a grand son of a sexton waiting to shout excitedly "Ring, grandpa, ring for liberty." Neither was there, on the occasion which gave the inspiration for the poem, but history has so grown up around the event that disproving the legend would be akin to heresy, says an editorial in the Fort Worth Record-Telegram.
When men gather to place their hands in inviting nooses the spectacular always comes from the imaginations of subsequent poets. Such men are never dramatic. The flourish of John Hancock was merely his way of signing his name. Somebody had to be first. If they all were to hang, what was a mere matter of routine. Hanging alphabetically would be no more prosaic than graduating culpability. The results would have been the same both ways if all the other signers

LORENZO TEST DOWN TO 2312; SHOWING GOOD

The deep test, which is being drilled on the L. H. Qualls farm, about six miles north of Dothan, is now drilling at 2312 feet, according to information given the Daily News this morning. This well is being drilled by Wiltam Lorenzo and associates, it is reported, and the objective is said to be 4,000 feet. It is understood that the well is logging satisfactorily, and a good producer is expected. The drillers have a splendid string of tools at this well, including a steel derrick and modern machinery for completing the well. The drillers have ordered 3,400 feet of 8-inch casing, which will be set at that level. This well was spudded in during December.

Another deep test is the well on the George Penn farm, which is being drilled by the Phillips Petroleum company, and now down to the 3,400 foot level. It will be drilled to 4,000 feet, if necessary. It is reported that there was a good showing of oil at 2,270 feet. This is an offset of the Dyer and Sam Yeager leases, each having production.

Woman Senatorial Candidate Favors Prohibition and Wants U. S. in the League of Nations

HUNTSVILLE, Mar. 2.—Speaking here before a crowd she termed "homotoks," Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham, candidate for United States senator, delivered the first address of her campaign. The speaker declared she was in favor of prohibition, tariff reform, farm relief, reduction in taxes, a constructive water power program and a foreign policy "looking to the peace of the world."
She declared her opposition to the Ku Klux Klan, the use of injunctions in labor disputes, government by secrecy, and a big navy program.
"Prohibition has done an immeasurable amount of good," she declared. "I believe in it. I believe it can be enforced."
"Every two years the voters of the country have elected a congress and doggedly and persistently each two years that congress has been dryer than the one before. There speaks the spirit of America."
Declaring her opposition to the Ku Klux Klan, Mrs. Cunningham said "it is an engineering problem and not a political question" and advocated the appointment of a commission of engineers to handle the situation.
"I am for the League of Nations," she said, "I am ashamed that we are not in it."
She closed her address with a plea for the confirmation of federal appointees in open sessions of the senate rather than in secret executive sessions.

KEETZ'S CAR LOCATED AFTER HECTIC SEARCH

Landlord Keetz, of the Alexander hotel, was considerably perturbed Thursday evening when his limousine was discovered missing from its accustomed parking in front of that hostelry. After a hectic search of the city and its environs the machine was found parked in front of the Savoy cafe about 11 o'clock by one of the regular boarders, who was familiar with the markings of the auto, to the gratification of the distressed owner.

R. S. WHITELY PRAISES CISCO WATER SUPPLY

R. S. Whitely, formerly of Cisco, but now a leading real estate man of Hamlin, was a visitor here this week, leaving this afternoon for his home. "I am more than pleased at the evidence of enterprise manifested on every hand in Cisco since I lived here. And I see that you fellows are still pushing ahead, a fact that has just been demonstrated in securing the big hotel, which I understand will cost $400,500. But of course your chief asset is Lake Cisco, and the far-sightedness of those responsible for building Williamson dam has long ago been vindicated. Other towns and individuals that criticized Cisco when this huge enterprise was started are now singing in another note. Cisco's critics in other towns are still without water, and to even be in Cisco's class in this respect, large sums must be spent before other west Texas towns are so well supplied with water as is Cisco at the present time." Mr. Whitely concluded.

JOHN'S NARROW ESCAPE

Here is a strange story that John Barker told me. "I was on my way from Detroit to Richmond. A few hours before my train reached New York I was found lying unconscious in the aisle of my sleeper.

nothing to me, either—a railroad folder at hand was as unintelligible as though it had been written in Sanskrit.

"I can never describe the feeling of terror that spread over me when I realized my condition. I had no way whatever of communicating with those around me. And I was sick—desperately sick; my head felt as though it were cracking open.

"The folks nearby, realizing that something was wrong, crowded round and stared at me. A policeman came up. He asked me some questions. Of course I could not reply. He tapped me on the shoulder, and beckoned me to follow him. I went along. He took me to headquarters.

"They searched my grip. There was nothing there to identify me. They searched my pockets—and here is a vital important point:

"While I was in Detroit, an insurance man gave me a little memorandum book, put out by his company for advertising purposes. I stuck it carefully into my inside coat pocket. While sitting in the Pullman, shortly after leaving Detroit, I idly pulled out the little book and glanced through it. The first page was for identification—'My name is _____, I live at _____, In case of accident notify _____ Just to be doing something I took

Rising Star Doctor Auto Crash Victim

RISING STAR, March 2.—Dr. H. C. Bowden, who was the victim of an auto crash one night last week, is reported to be rapidly recovering at a hospital at Brownwood, where he was conveyed for treatment. The doctor's car collided with a bridge on West College street. While driving to the fire at the Hollister home he was blinded by the glare from an approaching car, which caused his machine to strike the bridge. He was cut and bruised about the head and sustained two fractured ribs.

FOR CONSTIPATION

Mississippi Man Says He Has Found Black-Draught So Satisfactory, He Has No Need to Change.

Wiggins, Miss.—Mr. A. L. Cone, a well known Wiggins resident, says: "I have used Theford's Black-Draught for constipation. I have never had to take a great deal of medicine, but for fully 30 years I have, by using it, known Black-Draught to be a great medicine, and when I found it so satisfactory, I haven't seen any need to change.

"When I get constipated, I feel all out of sorts and tired and sluggish and I take a few doses of Black-Draught. It regulates my bowels and I get all right. My wife takes more Black-Draught than I do. She is a great believer in it too, so we keep it in the house. It will cleanse the system and help you, if you use it as we have."

Constipation leads to a great deal of sickness among those who do not understand its dangers, and who neglect to treat it without delay. Black-Draught, with the natural, prompt action of its purely vegetable ingredients, quickly relieves constipation and helps to drive out the poisons so as to leave the organs in a state of healthy activity. ## COLLEGE HEAD RETURNS FROM CHURCH MEET

Dr. T. T. Roberts, president of Randolph college, is just back from Minneapolis, Minn., where he attended the meeting of the commission of college endowment of Christian churches of the United States. This commission is composed of eight members, of which Dr. Roberts is one. He stated that the commission adopted plans for the promotion of a general endowment campaign during which it is proposed to raise eight million dollars for a foundation fund for returning teachers of Christian colleges. This campaign will start right after the national convention which convenes in Columbus, Ohio, in April, Dr. Roberts stated.

While in Minneapolis Dr. Roberts was presented with a beautiful bear skin overcoat, which he prides very highly, as a trophy of the commission meeting. "Randolph college is making steady progress, and the churches over West Texas are continuing to give the school recognition in a substantial way," Dr. Roberts stated. "I have just received a church bond of $1,000 denomination on the Breckenridge Christian church. It bears six per cent interest, which has been placed to the credit of Randolph college, and which was appreciated very much," he concluded.

BOYD MAKES STEADY CLIMB TO STARDOM

William Boyd, star of "Dress Parade," his first stellar vehicle under the Pathé-DeMille banner, is recognized as one of the most popular male stars of the screen. Boyd has, within two years, risen from obscurity to nation-wide prominence on his merits as an actor and his engaging personality.

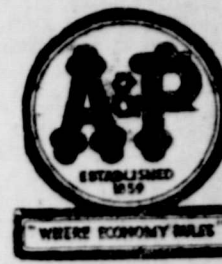

Starting with "The Road to Yesterday," "Sidel Preferred," "Jim the Conqueror," and rising to a pinnacle of fame in "The Volga Boatman," his advance has never faltered. "Dress Parade" is a story of West Point and deals with the life of a military cadet. For four weeks at West Point, Boyd was an active star. The picture comes to the Palace theater Sunday for two days.

THEN ALL-BRAN SAVED HIM FROM CONSTIPATION

A message for people who use laxatives

Mr. Skiles wrote us a voluntary testimonial after Kellogg's ALL-BRAN had saved him from dreadful constipation. Read his tribute:

"For years I have been so constipated, after trying every kind of drug possible, I could only get temporary relief. I became discouraged and gave up hope, when a friend told me to use Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. I had read so many testimonials I had no faith. I was of the opinion testimonials were put out by friends. I will not only give you the privilege to use my name, but I will go on the witness stand and testify to my statements. I cannot express words great enough to meet with Kellogg's food. —ARTHUR SKILES, 325 N. Kedzie Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

If constipation is preying upon your health, check it before too late. If you are using habit-forming laxatives, stop it before this harmful practice fastens its grip too tight.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to relieve constipation. Just eat two tablespoons daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN. A 100% bran cereal—delicious with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Use in cooking too. Sold by all Grocers. Served everywhere. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

STYLE HINTS

By ALICE LANGELEIER International News Service Staff Correspondent

PARIS, March 2.—Easter bonnets this year will undoubtedly be made of felt, for these small, tight-fitting little felt hats seem here to stay.

Time and again the fashionable modistes have tried to replace them by fancy headpieces of other materials, but the women always cry for simple felt designs. Never in the history of the millinery business has a material and design taken the way the present mode has.

Straws are being pushed forward and there are some attractive straw and felt combinations with brightly-colored geometric ornaments and scarves to match. One from Lewis has a brim lined with rose manilla straw with a cut on the side front and a small felt bow in the back. An almond-green felt has half of the brim covered with straw and a ribbon finishes off the crown with a pink flower.

A boit de rose toque in fancy silk straw has four wings covered with braiding and a smart red sarrasane felt comes in beret shape with a round crown and three bands of felt to form the movement on top and the close-fitting line around the face. It is pulled over to the back with a coral pin.

Several ribbon models are proving popular. One is made up in beige gros grain ribbon fitting close to the face with two tiers of black gros grain burling up the hat. It is draped to one side and fastened with a small pearl ornament. Another in beige, brown and black gros grain has a black silk pompon on the side. Straws most in demand for summer wear are Bangkok, Bengal and Bakon, the exotic straws, and the favored colors are red, green, navy and black. They have wider brims and the crowns appear to be deeper and in many instances have fancy frills and ornaments in keeping with the movement toward femininity.

Randolph Athletes Get 1927 Sweaters

Seventeen Randolph college athletes were awarded sweaters in a chapel meeting Wednesday morning, at which President Roberts presided and made the presentations. The coveted sweaters are being worn by the following men: Moulton, 1927 captain; Harrison, captain-elect for 1928; Burleson, Couch, Criss, Mayer, Nabours, Beard, O'Gwin, Holsberry and Milton.

Naturally there is great rejoicing in athletic circles, especially among the winners of sweaters and the "R" and their friends. They are beautiful and serviceable and the pride of the wearers.

Pair Silk Bloomers Downfall of Odessa

Odessa Bailey, a dusky dandy, is now doing service on Gustafson's gang at Lake Cisco, where she is meditating on the folly of feminine follies, in particular, and the vanity of life in general. Odessa was gathered in by the Cisco police this morning for having yielded to the allurements of a pair of silk bloomers from a Cisco home. Once the desire to adorn her person in these feminine (former) unmentionables, they became her property—temporarily—for the Cisco police soon disposed Odessa of her finery and the corporation judge gave her a term at Lake Cisco.

Hired a Rent Car But AEE STILL GOING WEST

They stated they had traced the car to as far as Ranger, where they were informed the drivers had headed toward Cisco. Police had no record of the car passing Cisco.

PLENTY GAME IN WYOMING THIS SEASON

CHEYENNE, Wyo., March 2.—Wyoming will abound in big game during the next hunting season, according to Bruce Nowlin, state game commissioner. Nowlin has just returned from a trip to the famed Teton Mountain region and Jackson Hole country.

"Game is in the best condition we have had in years," said Nowlin. "The snow in the Jackson Hole country is unusually light, and we are not feeding nearly as many elk as in some years past. There are approximately 5,000 head on the feeding ground at the government ranch near the town of Jackson, and about 600 more on the Charlie Wilson place below Jackson. Last year we had more than 19,000 head on these feeding grounds."

"This does not mean that there are fewer elk in the region. There are numerous large bands which are still back up in the hills where the snow is so light that they are able to secure natural feed."

"Another indication that the elk are in unusually good shape is found in the fact that the number of complaints from stockmen that their haystacks are being raided is far below normal."

"Moose are increasing in numbers in the state, also," said Nowlin. "The herds are about double in number to what they were ten years ago. The state issues special permits to kill moose at the present time, and we may soon be able to have an open season on moose the same as on elk and deer."

Nowlin headed the first official photographic expedition the state of Wyoming has ever sent to Jackson Hole country to get reliable information on reports that large numbers of elk and deer were being allowed to starve and "winter kill" in the higher mountains. The reports were proven to be greatly exaggerated.

It is as much against the laws of Wyoming to shoot big game with a camera and without a license, as it is to shoot them with a gun out of season and without a license.

DR. J. COLLIER DIED AT BAIRD; DALLAS BURIAL

BAIRD, March 2.—Dr. John Collier, 94, one of Bairst's leading citizens, pioneer in state educational circles and one of Texas' oldest Masons, died in this city early Wednesday morning. He had enjoyed splendid health for a man of his age until this year, having been confined to his bed for only a few weeks.

Dr. Collier was born in Alabama, May 18, 1834, and came to Texas when a young man, locating near Waco, where he married Miss Mary Ellen Fowler in 1859. Six girls were born to this union, all of whom are living.

He had lived in Bairst for 30 years and had always been interested in educational institutions of Texas. He assisted Dr. Mood in establishing Southwestern University at Georgetown and assisted in the dedication of Baylor University at Waco. Dr. Collier had been a Mason 73 years and was perhaps one of the oldest in the South. He also was a member of the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias lodges. He served in the civil war as a Confederate soldier, joining the army soon after he was married, and served throughout the war as chaplain of his regiment of infantry. He was a member of Albert Sidney Johnston Camp No. 684, U. C. V.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the family home in Bairst. The body was sent to Dallas and buried beside his wife in Oakland cemetery in that city. Dr. Collier was survived by six daughters: Mrs. H. F. Speer, Dallas; Mrs. Effie Mangum, Waco; Mrs. A. S. Cox, Los Angeles; Mrs. Adolphus Hagan, New York City; Mrs. R. L. Alexander and Miss Edith Collier, Bairst.

Distress Cry Fails To Deter Joe Ray

News dispatches from Lamesa tell of the arrest there recently of two men while in the act of robbing the safe of a dry goods store. Seeing the officers approach two women and a man, thought to be accomplices seated in an automobile across the street, raised a cry of distress, presumably to detract the officers from the robbery, but their ruse failed, and the men were nabbed while standing in front of the safe they had just rifled of $200. A large quantity of merchandise had been bundled for removal from the building. The officer that led the arresting party was Joe Ray, former constable of Cisco, now sheriff of Dawson county.

urday night. The game tonight, if won by the Lobos, will give them the right to represent this section of West Texas in the state championship tournament, to be held in Austin next week end.

A game more thrilling than the one last night could not be asked for, but one of the same caliber is in prospect tonight, and a large crowd of Lobo fans will make the trip to Abilene. The game will be played in the Abilene Christian college gymnasium.

The box score:

CONTENDING TEAMS CHAMPIONSHIP CLASS

It was predicted after the Cisco-Abilene basketball game by a good authority on the sport, who has seen some of the outstanding clubs of the state in action, that the winner of the series between Cisco and Abilene will go to the finals in the state meet and may win the state championship, held in Austin March 8 and 9. This authority said that either of the two teams looked a great deal better than some of the teams that are hoped to be the leading teams in the race for the championship.

If the Lobos can win tonight in Abilene or if they lose tonight and win tomorrow night in Breckenridge they will win the right to go to the state meet. The Lobos, under the coaching of Coach "Crip" Golightly, have lost only one high school game this season and have played some of the strongest teams in this section of the state. In the hard fought game with Abilene last night the all-round play of the Lobos was illustrated in the way that the points scored were divided among the players. Any member of the team has a good eye for the basket and no opponent can afford to guard any one man. Last year Clifford Yeager, captain of the Lobos, won a place on the second all-star team picked at the state meet, and the Lobos this year have two or three men who are possibly of a caliber to win a place on the all-state team.

NORFLEET MAN THOUGHT DEAD GETS SENTENCE

KANSAS CITY, March 2—Edward Miller, alias Joe Furey, alleged "dead" confidence man, was sentenced to three years in federal prison yesterday upon conviction on a charge of impersonating a federal officer.

Miller, charged by L. A. Woodley, Kansas City police lieutenant, with being the Joe Furey who was trailed relentlessly by J. Frank Norfleet, was found and sentenced to Huntsville, Texas, prison where it is claimed he died.

Miller in court here, however, showed tattoo marks on his arm that Lieutenant Woodley claimed identified him positively as the noted confidence man. Miller admitted to the court that he was Furey after a futile attempt to win an acquittal.

W. H. KILGORE RISING STAR C. OF C. HEAD

RISING STAR, March 2—At an enthusiastic meeting of a number of the members of the Rising Star chapter of commerce W. H. Kilgore was elected president for the ensuing year. F. W. Roberts was elected vice-president and Frank Robertson re-elected secretary. At the meeting several petty talks were given by members and an active program outlined for the year, among other things closer co-operation with the farmers of this section was strongly advocated, also the raising of turkeys, cattle, hogs and a greater production of poultry and eggs is to be given encouragement by the body.

An important feature of the meeting was a resolution to hold a monthly luncheon meeting, the time and place to be arranged by the secretary, giving the membership an opportunity to meet and break bread together once each month and discuss problems for the betterment of the town and community.

It was decided at the meeting to continue the Retail Merchants association in conjunction with the chamber of commerce. Mayor A. N. Slearly and Aldermen Roberts, Tyler and Wren reported the city as making very satisfactory progress in the way of extension of the sewer system, water mains and other city projects, as well as taking care of the water supply very nicely and providing more water for the minimum rate.
