TEXAS

WOULD CARRY FREIGHT.—Texas electric railways are preparing to take up freight transportation to offset some of the losses due to the increasing bus business. The Texas Electric railway has amended its charter to permit it to handle freight and it is stated that other lines will soon do so, placing the business under the jurisdiction of the Texas Railroad commission and using rates approved or ordered by it. Not only have the bus lines made heavy inroads upon the passenger traffic of the electric lines in recent years, but thousands of traveling salesmen who used the lines a few years ago now travel in their own automobiles, thus cutting off a large revenue, and most pleasure trips are now made in privately owned cars. All of this competition has made it hard for the electric lines to pay operating expenses.

TEXAS AUTOMOBILES.—The National Bureau of roads, having completed its statistical data for 1927, finds that Texas had 1,111,407 motor vehicles of the 23,127,315 registered in the United States, ranking seventh in number among the states. The registrations showed an increase of 1,125,922 motor vehicles in the United States, or about 5 per cent. There was one automobile in use for every 5.13 persons in the country. Twenty years ago automobiles were so scarce in Texas that farmers often threatened to shoot autoists because their machines frightened teams and made them run away. Now more than 90 per cent of the farmers own automobiles and many are using motor driven farm implements.

HOTEL BUSINESS GROWS.—When the rapid introduction of automobiles in Texas brought about the equally rapid improvement of public roads, a pessimistic prophecy predicted that the large cities would soon be getting all the business and that the small cities and towns would "dry up for lack of support." Small towns that have made no effort to keep abreast of the changing times have suffered, but those that have tried to keep up have profited by automobiles and good roads. There is no stronger evidence of this than the change in the hotel business. Before road improvements began small city and town hotels were often better than the "up-stairs" room over corner stores. Three story hotels were rare in Texas and a town with a five story hotel building "pointed with pride" to its wonderful structure. Now, see the difference. Plainview, which the last census gave 4,000 population, but which may now have 50 per cent more people than in 1920, is going to build an 8 story hotel, with 125 rooms, a roof garden and all the extras that go with modern hotels. Plainview is one of the many small cities that is using good roads to its advantage.

CARBON BLACK PLANT'S.—The Panhandle section of Texas leads the world in carbon black production, and new plants are being built. A plant to be built soon in the Pampa district is a Boston concern will raise the Panhandle production to around 300,000 pounds daily. The same company owns another plant in Gray county, which is to be enlarged to a capacity of 75,000 pounds daily, making it the largest of the kind in the world.

TEMPLE IMPROVEMENTS VOTED.—By a vote of nearly 4 to 1, Temple has authorized a bond issue of $340,000 to be used for ward school buildings, a city hall, a municipal auditor, park improvements and new paving. Temple voters are known to be so strongly in favor of civic improvements that there was not organized opposition to the bond issue.

CRYSTAL CITY TRUCK.—Possibly, unless you live in that part of the state, you may never have heard of Crystal City in Zavalla county, but the railroads and the produce dealers know it. The Missouri Pacific line handled 1,019 carloads of perishable produce from there in March. Estimating 90 vegetable cars to the mile, that was about 11 miles of carloads of produce, which brought the producers more than $300,000. The Zavalla County bank, as a consequence, has gotten into the million dollar class.

FRYERS FLY HIGH.—Every once in a while, and especially when eggs get below 25 cents a dozen, some pessimistic prophesies are proclaimed in the poultry business as being done in Texas. Not much are now bringing farmers less than 25 cents, but spring fryers are closing around 35 cents. There is no need to let the poultryman's prof-

Thirteen Are Burned to Death

NEWLY MARRIED COUPLE AMONG FIRE'S VICTIMS

BLAIRFOUR, Penn., April 15.—A bride and bridegroom and eleven others were burned to death here this morning when fire swept the two story home of Ambro Krepacchal, a quarry worker. A mother and six children were among the victims.

BURGLAR TAKES PENNIES FROM VARIETY STORE

Small burglaries, supposed to have been committed by young boys, were reported to the police during the week end. Friday night the scales in front of the Variety store, in the 609 block on D avenue, were rifled and the pennies extracted. E. J. Wendt, one of the proprietors, stated that the amount of money was not known, but was probably between $12 and $16. The scales were broken into by breaking the lock on the compartment that held the pennies, and the disk pried off with a chisel. Mr. Wendt said they had not been opened since early in the year.

WOMAN JUDGE JAILS MAN FOR BEATING HORSE

MOSCOW, April 16.—Cruelty to animals has just drawn a sentence of a whole year in jail at hard labor for an 18-year-old one-horse wagon driver. His helper got two months in jail because he failed to "exert his influence" to stop the unmerciful whipping of the horse. Pedestrians who witnessed the affair protested to the driver. He continued lashing the animal, however, until one man attempting to grab the whip. The driver kicked him in the abdomen. A cop shared the same fate. Reserves were called and the driver dragged to the police station. A bobbed-haired woman judge sentenced the man and his helper the next day.

ICEBREAKER REACHES GREENEY ISLAND, REPORT

MURRAY BAY, April 16.—After a terrific battle with ice and winds the Canadian government icebreaker, Montcalm, reached Greeney Island today, according to unconfirmed reports here. The icebreaker left port Saturday backing the ice floes of the Gulf of St. Lawrence. It expects to return the trio of German-Irish transatlantic flyers to an awaiting world.

100 BRITISH PEERAGES MAY SOON BE EXTINCT

LONDON, April 15.—One hundred British peerages are in danger of extinction owing to the fact that the present holders have no heirs. In all there are 250 peers without sons, 150 having only heir-presumptives. In the majority of instances the world war has been responsible for this gradual dwindling of the peerage, although many of the heirless peers are only the first holders of their titles.

Soviet Teachers Refuse To March Unless Are Paid

MOSCOW, April 16.—Six public school instructors who announced to their classes that they wouldn't march in a "red" parade "without being paid for it" were fired without notice by the Moscow Control commission of the Communist party. They escaped jail only by apologizing and retracting their remarks.

MOTORCADE TO HIGHWAY MEET PASSED TODAY

Flags were floating along the business streets before noon this morning, offering a patriotic welcome to the Broadway of America motorcade when the more than 100 automobiles, laden with delegates from San Diego, Calif., and all towns intervening between that city and Cisco, arrived here early this afternoon. The stay of the motorcade in this city precluded the welcome that Cisco would have delighted to extend them, but as it was the Lobo band and several hundred Cisco people were down town to greet the delegates on their way to the great trans-continental highway convention to convene at Memphis Friday.

Only half of the cars in the motorcade came through Cisco, as the caravan divided at Abilene, one section going over the north loop, via Albany and Breckenridge, and the other passing over the south loop, through the towns of Clyde, Baird, Putnam, Cisco, Eastland, Ranger and Strawn, to merge the two at Metcalf Gap. The vanguard of the motorcade reached here at 2:25 this afternoon which were trailed by the rear cars, dropping in at short intervals.

Leaving here after a short stay the motorcade was joined by two cars of Cisco delegates, who are enroute to the highway meet. The Cisco delegates were J. E. Lankford, J. E. Spencer, L. A. White, J. E. T. Peters, J. T. Elliott and C. R. West. Mayor Williamson was prevented from going with the Cisco delegates by reason of an illness developed on his recent eastern trip, from which he returned Saturday night.

King Would Come

His Majesty King Fuad I, monarch of Egypt, is considering a visit to the United States. On invitation and assurance of reception in harmony with royal tradition would bring him here. (International Illustrated News).

GREAT OPERA STAR GIVES HOME

"I make this gift to the disabled American veterans of the World War because they called me 'mother.' And it is the duty of a mother to provide her sons with a home." So Mme. Ernestine Schuman-Heink addressed the Minneapolis Chapter of the D. A. V.'s in presenting her $250,000 estate at Grossmont, Cal., to disabled war veterans as a "rest home." Six years ago in Minneapolis the veterans drank a silent toast to two sons the famous singer lost in the war—one on the American side and one on the German. (International Newsreel).

Rising Star, Gorman and Carbon Have Secured Right-of-Way For Expansion of Eastland Roads

Rising Star, Gorman and Carbon have secured the lands for the right-of-way to meet the requirements of the state highway commission. Commissioner Bert Britain told the Daily News this morning. "The deeds to the land were all signed and in the hands of the committees by noon today," Britain said. Carbon and Gorman have secured the land for widening the right-of-way on highway 67, from Eastland, via Carbon, to Gorman; and Rising Star has secured the right-of-way on highway 23, from below that point north as far as they were supposed to work, presumably near Romney. J. E. Spencer stated that the land owners in the Gorman and Carbon sections of the county were donating the land gladly, and all that will be necessary for the county to do is to move the fences back and clear the land for extensions of the highway right-of-way. So far known by the Daily News nothing has been done in the matter of securing the right of way on the Bankhead highway between Cisco and Eastland.

GRAIN DIFFERENTIALS MAY BE CANCELLED

AUSTIN, April 16.—Petition for cancellation of differentials on grain and grain products by the Pecan Valley Southern railway company, has been filed with the railroad commission. This action was taken on complaint by the Texas Industrial league, on behalf of members thereof. The petition was set for hearing by the commission on May 8.

WEST PLAINS, Mo., April 16.—George Halstead, police judge, as deputy coroner, believes that an old grudge against J. W. Weiser, gas and proprietor resulted in the death of 40 persons in a dance hall on Weiser's establishment Friday night. A gasoline explosion in the garage blew the building to atoms while dance was in progress above.

MOVIES IN SUMWAY TO ENTERTAIN PASSENGER

PARIS, April 16.—Subway movie will soon be opened by one of the underground railway companies of Paris. Trains operate on a five-minute schedule. Between trains passengers waiting on the platform will be entertained by films advertising various products. Police recently forbid electric signs on buildings except over the establishments they advertised, so displays are carrying their publicity campaigns into the subway.

SWEETWATER SILLS WATERWORKS BOND

SWEETWATER, April 15.—The $250,000 water works and sewer bonds that were voted by this city on February 29 were sold by the city commission today to the Brown Crummer Investment company of Dallas, at an interest rate of 4 3/4 per cent plus a premium of $5,095. Eleven companies participated in the bidding. A new commissioner, Carl Ragland, who was elected on April 3, was sworn in at this meeting.

"What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile. Depart from evil, and do good, seek peace and pursue it. wanted to lend him money. "Some of the letters," he says, "indicated that security was a matter of no consideration. They simply had so much money that they couldn't find enough people willing to accept some of it. Solemn assurances were given that the rate asked would astonish and delight me." The lenders not only wanted to finance his building operations but were willing to lend him money for furnishing the house, or anything else he wanted. That may be exceptional. Credit often depends on person, place and other circumstances. Yet the country certainly is full of money looking for employment. There is more idle money than idle labor.

LESS JERRY-BUILDING

The "jerry-builder" had things pretty much his own way in the days of greatest housing shortage following the world war. Speed was wanted. Soundness was wanted, too, by many people, but it often lost out in the grand rush of building. Now there appears to be a definite turning back to soundness of construction. Reputable builders have been fighting the jerry builder with educational campaigns. They have been showing the public that a house well constructed, of good design and honest materials, costs little or no more in the beginning than the "cheap" house, and is less expensive in the long run because...

He restians who bragged of the rhapsodies in which they were completely unintelligible to their fellow-worshippers had nothing on the community organizer or the mental hygienist in full cry." The intelligent portion of the general public knows that social workers have some pretty good ideas and are accomplishing some worthy works, but is not able to feel much enthusiasm because it is so rarely able to understand precisely what it is all about. Social workers—and, to be honest, professional groups of all sorts—speak a peculiar jargon which is all but meaningless to laymen with a pretty fair grasp of the English language. They develop an elaborate terminology which tends to obscure the straightforward ideas they hold. It sounds impressive, perhaps, but fails to impress because it is unintelligible. There is hope of a change for the better, however, if these professional groups themselves are beginning to see the need of simple speech.

FAMINE

In the province of Shantung, China, there are about 4,000,000 people facing famine and half a million actually starving. Shantung is the province that was seized many years ago by Germany, taken from her by Japan during the World War and afterwards restored to China. It has suffered three years' drought, and its plight has been aggravated by the civil war. People are eating the bark of trees. The roadways are lined with dead bodies. Children are sold for "less than a dollar a head"—it is not pleasant to think what for. Americans, complaining of economic conditions which represent such prosperity as China never dreamed of, do not half appreciate their blessings. A little of the money being squandered in foolish speculation

Maker of 'Flivver' Predicts International Prohibition

HENRY FORD IN LONDON GIVES BRITISH SCRIBES

HENRY FORD (International News)

"I believe it will become world-wide. I never touch liquor. I do not like it. Both alcohol and tobacco are bad. "Alcohol destroys the brain cells, just as tobacco does. Both lower a man's efficiency. I believe that industrial competition will force prohibition upon the whole world." And with that reply, monodies probably dropped from widening English eyes and canes rattled on the floor. For England is anything but "dry," as "Pussyfoot" Johnson jolly well learned. Peace and war were the next subjects discussed at the request of the journalists. And in England there is keen interest in Henry Ford's ideas as to world peace since his ill-fated peace ship expedition during the war. "Out of the trenches by Christians, boys," had been heard in many English homes during the stern years of the World War. "I do not think there is any danger of war," said Mr. Ford. "The people of the world are becoming too intelligent for war. "That is especially true regarding Great Britain and the United States." But that was not all the writers wanted to know. The question of war brought up in their minds the picture of Mayor "Bill" Thompson of Chicago. This oracle of anti-English propaganda in this country was laughed cheerily away by the visiting American. "Bill Thompson," Ford told his astonished listeners, "is a great advertiser. He would like to be the whole United States. "But nobody pays any attention to him in America." And that undoubtedly was better news to the anxious British reporter than Henry Ford's prophecy of world prohibition.

TALKING BOOKS

So we are soon to have "canned literature," as we now have canned music. An inventor in the General Electric laboratory at Schenectady, N. Y., has the device almost perfected. No more turning leaves, no more eye strain. It will be like being read to by a friend, or listening to a reading by radio. A film bearing the sound wave record unwinds slowly through a camera-like box. The listener leans back in his easy chair, relaxes, smokes and improves his mind. If, any, with the least possible exertion. It sounds attractive to people with tired eyes. Children may not care much for it. Reading would hardly be "speeded up," as someone suggests. The eye can read faster than the voice can pronounce or ear can follow.

MOTOR QUOTA

Last year, new figures show, there was one motor vehicle for every 5.12 persons in the United States. That includes white men, black men and red men. If we disregard the decimal fraction, we have one car for every five, which by the old reckoning would mean one per family. If families average a little smaller now, never mind; the cars will soon catch up at the current rate of production and distribution. The biggest producer, at present, is engaged in an advertising campaign setting forth the need of two cars for every family. That's thoughtful of the manufacturers, but perhaps not altogether necessary. The American public is already quite "motor-minded." Nearly every family is busy trying to figure out how it can get those two cars and square them with the budget.

WAR COST

The latest census of human losses in the World War, compiled by a committee of the League of Nations, indicate that the war cost 37,000,000 lives. The direct toll among the fighting men was a little over 10,000,000 lives. The increased civilian mortality was over 16,000,000 human beings, however, is enough. It is necessary to drag forth such statistics occasionally to keep in mind what war means and to silence the militarists.

RACIAL HANDICAP

A survey of conditions in the negro quarters of an industrial city shows that the negroes are discriminated against unfairly in the matter of rent. They don't get much in housing accommodations, and what they get they are overcharged for. "They are paying more rent, on the average," says the report, "for tumble-down tenements without bath, gas, electric lights, etc., than white residents of about the same economic status are paying for decent housing with most of the modern conveniences." This is probably the situation in most cities. The negro usually gets the worst end of it. He has less opportunity than the white man, and then is blamed for his deficiencies. If the black man is to be judged by the white man's standards he should have the white man's chance.

PRIZE BULL OF ALBANY BRINGS ONE THOUSAND

ALBANY, April 16.—Kendale 1, (53688-1477875), son of Woodford Grove, was sold recently to H. B. Thurber of Nogales, Arizona, by Phil Kendrick, widely known polled Hereford breeder and rancher of Albany, for $1,000 the highest price ever paid for a bull raised in this county. This bull was sired by Woodford Grove and out of Actress, a cow raised on the Kendale ranch, and is to be used by Mr. Thurber on his selected herd of polled Hereford cows. Mr. Thurber has searched the ranching areas of the entire west looking for material to make up the very best foundation herd that it was possible for him to bring together, and he is to be congratulated in being able to secure the outstanding son of Woodford Grove.

Excavators Uncovering a Town That Has Been Buried by Sands For More Than 12 Centuries

LONDON, April 16.—Buried beneath the sands of Tripolitania for more than 1200 years, the ancient Roman town of Leptis Magna, one of the richest communities of its bygone day, is at last coming into full view as the work of excavators is nearing completion.

Temples Revealed
The excavations thus far have revealed baths, forums, temples and Roman shops which are expected to afford an insight into that part of Roman life which still remains a secret to scientists.

SOCIAL luminaries high in the rating of Park Avenue's best, are permitting their names and photographs to be used for advertising.

Cigarettes, mattresses, furniture, automobiles, everything, in fact, from flesh reducers and hair restorers to patent lighters and refrigerators, blaze forth in advertisements signed by Social Register four-syllable names.

This recent fad, though a profitable one to the donors of the signatures, was created by no less a personage than Her Majesty, Queen Marie of Roumania.

Duchesses, Countesses, Viscountesses, are listed by name-gathering concerns along with plain titles of "Mrs." of our own shores, and sold to advertisers for their use.

Escaped Convict Wants To Return To Penitentiary

AUSTIN, April 16.—There are worse places to be than in the Texas penitentiary, according to Frank Sullivan, who escaped while on furlough under guard, and is now being held at Denver, Colorado, by federal authorities. Recently Sullivan penned a letter to Governor Moody. He wrote: "This is to notify you that I am held in the Denver jail and desire to be taken back to Texas to serve out the balance of my sentence, so please send for me at once. "I intended to come in and give up, anyway, in a few months when I had provided some means for my wife and mother. "I am held by the federal authorities, but I think they will give me up all right, and I request that I be taken back to the Texas penitentiary at once. Hoping for early action in the matter, I am, respectfully yours, Frank Sullivan." Investigation has revealed that federal authorities are not willing to give Sullivan up for return to Texas. They notified the criminal record department that Texas can have him when they have disposed of several federal cases against him.

FEARFUL INDICTMENT OF HIRAM EVANS AND K.K.K.

PITTSBURGH, April 15.—The suit of the Ku Klux Klan for an injunction against five former members was dismissed in federal court here by Judge W. H. S. Thompson who placed the cost upon the plaintiff.

The evidence disclosed, the court held that in the state of Texas men were brought before the Klan, tried and convicted and in some instances to die and burned at the stake.

Part of the court's opinion read: "This unlawful organization, so destructive of the rights and liberties of the people, have come in vain asking this court of equity for injunctive or other relief. They come with filthy hands and can get no assistance here."

"Plaintiffs' prayer for relief is denied and the bill is dismissed at the cost of the plaintiffs."

Of the Carnegie, Pa., riot in 1923 Judge Thomson said that Hiram W. Evans, imperial wizard of the Klan, was "directly responsible for the riot and bloodshed which ensued."

PITTSBURGH, April 16.—A stern indictment of the Ku Klux Klan, in which it was held to be responsible for riots, bloodshed, and the burning of men alive, was made here by Federal Judge W. H. S. Thompson, in an opinion dismissing an injunction suit brought by the order against five former members.

The court upheld virtually every bit of testimony offered by the defendants, including allegations that they had burned a negro alive in Texas; that they had flogged other citizens; that they had maintained a secret terrorist organization known as the "knight riders" and "black horse" gang; that they had fostered riots; that they had caused bombs to be set off in an effort to increase Klan membership; that they had kidnapped a child in Pittsburgh; and that they had stirred up racial and religious feelings throughout the country.

MELLON HOPES TO RETURN TO PRIVATE LIFE

WASHINGTON, April 16.—Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon has revealed to confidants that he will retire from public life at the end of the present cabinet term next March—irrespective of anything that may happen politically in November. He is tired and wants a rest.

Mellon has confided to close friends his desire to get away from actual conduct of public affairs. Reports have persisted that he would not accept the treasury post should the Republicans remain in power, but authoritative information concerning his attitude heretofore has been guarded closely.

There is no probability, however that Mellon will fade out of the foreground in the Republican political picture. Only a few weeks ago he said that foremost in his mind was the Republican national convention at Kansas City.

"What are your plans for the summer," Mellon was asked. "The Kansas City convention after that I have no definite plans," Mellon replied.

In the face of almost constant sniping by political enemies on Capitol Hill and constant bombardment from radical prohibitionists, Mellon—serene, smiling—has withstood all attacks with rarely a show of irritation. A little man behind a big desk, courteous, patient, unruffled by criticism.

CARLE TO ASK RECOGNITION OF RANGER GUARD

RANGER, April 16.—Recommendation for federal recognition of Company L, 142nd infantry, Texas national guard, the new unit recently organized at Ranger, was made Saturday by Captain Charles D. Carle, who has been in Ranger since Friday, mustering in the company.

Carle said Saturday morning that the company had a minimum strength of 50 at the meeting held Friday night and that he had recommended to the government that it be recognized as an established unit.

As soon as the war department issues recognition orders equipment will be issued by the United States property and dispersment officer at Austin.

The site of the proposed armory also was inspected by Captain Carle and approved. Store rooms and a company office will be built and a lease arranged.

Captain Wayne C. Hickey and Lieutenant George Freeze, will undertake immediately to obtain a rifle range, capable of firing up to 600 yards.

The unit will concentrate on training from now until July 7, when the two weeks' summer encampment opens at Camp Palacios, on the Gulf.

The company will be assisted by Sergeant Frank Kule, who has been in the regular army for 26 years and who is now stationed at Abilene.

At the present time there are 16 non-commissioned officers' positions to be filled out of the ranks of the company. There will be a first sergeant, a mess sergeant, a supply sergeant, two platoon sergeants, three sergeant section leaders, and eight corporals. None have yet been named and promotion will be by competitive examination and proficiency in training.

The first drill night will be next Friday. The company will drill each week on Friday night and will be paid by the government at the rate of one day's regular army pay for each drill.

INDECENT TALK TO BE BARRED BY UNIVERSITY

Large crowds attended both services at the Church of God yesterday. Rev. J. T. Wilson, who spoke at the morning service in the interest of the Warner Memorial University, said in part:

"True education consists in the training of the mind, the training of the hand, and the training of the heart. In our land of religious liberty the church and state are entirely separate. State institutions are concerned only with the training of the intellect and the hand. The heart is left undeveloped. Such unbalanced training is certain to result, in some cases, disastrously as has been proven in such instances as the Lobb and Leopold cases in Chicago and the Hickman case in California. What heart training a child may receive is the work of the home and the church. It shall be the purpose of the Warner Memorial University to not only give a course of secular training equal to that of any class A college in the state, but, too, at the same time safeguard the moral and religious welfare of the youth in the institution. It will be a co-educational institution. All students not living in the near vicinity, where they can be at home, will be expected to room in the dormitories. There will be no tobacco, no intoxicating liquor, no indecent language nor anything 'down-whis' (unset), and foreign suits when this team gets in action."

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT RETURNS FROM TOUR

EASTLAND, April 15.—Dr. J. T. Wilson, president of Warner Memorial University recently established in Eastland by the Church of God, has returned to Eastland from a tour of Kansas and Oklahoma where he went in interest of the university. Dr. Wilson states that Rev. A. C. Bradshaw, pastor of the Church of God at Nowata, Okla., will have charge of the solicitation work for the University in Oklahoma, and that Rev. C. E. Bright, an evangelist, will have charge of solicitation work for the school in Kansas. Assurances of cordial support for the school were given Dr. Wilson everywhere in the states he visited, he said.

PARIS, April 16.—An army marches on its stomach, according to Napoleon. Auguste Eschoffier cooked the food that made the French generals fight. The other chefs of the best restaurants in Paris doffed aprons and bennets for clawhammers to honor Auguste at a banquet given by the Society of Chefs on his eighty-second birthday.
