TROLLEY-PLANE SERVICE

Interurban trolley lines refuse to lag behind the railroads with their train-plane service. Such a system in northern Ohio sets an example for similar ansportation lines wherever there are airplane outes to hook up with. This "rail and air" service was scheduled for inauguration May 28. The trolley line brings passengers from ten Ohio cities and their rural communities directly to the Cleveland airport, which is one terminal of the Detroit-Cleveland air lines. Because it took advantage of an air route already well established, this hook-up was merely a matter of agreement between the two companies, and involving only a slight change in trolley schedules and a little special advertising. It cuts down the travel time between Detroit and the growing industrial cities by one to four hours. Commercial aviation is developing so rapidly that the casual newspaper reader can't keep track of all the new air enterprises. Private ownership and operation of airplanes will go a little more slowly, as it should.

Some people are so pessimistic that it worries them every time the sun shines. They just know it ain't going to keep on shining very long.

CHAIN COMPETITION

"It should not be assumed," says Roger Babson, "that the chain store is free from competition. In fact, competition between chains in the same city is becoming so severe that the average margin of profit on each store is woefully small. This is paricularly true in some of the large eastern grocery chains." There is comfort in this statement for the individual store. As long as chain competes with chain, the individual store should be able to hold its own, if it realizes the full possibilities in the smaller State Press of the Dallas No institution for rendering personal service in ways the chain store cannot expect to do. It is only when chain stores stop competing among themselves, by trade agreements or super-chain monopolies, that women who attend Press associated business democracy can be in real peril.

One of the unsolved problems of modern traffic is how to get past a ten-ton truck on a fourteen-

The Mammoth $100,000.00 Wholesale Grocery Stock Formerly Owned by J. P. Webster and Sons

Taken over by the insurance companies will be thrown open to the public, both in Retail and Wholesale quantities. Never before in the history of this section of Texas, have its people had such an opportunity to lower the high cost of living.

Mr. Banker, Mr. Farmer, Mr. Laborer, and Mr. Merchant, never was the time that your dollar would buy more.

The insurance companies turned the entire Webster Stock, suffering recent slight fire damage, over to us and said SELL IT. AND SELL WE WILL.

Don't be fooled, just come on down and take a look at this stock, and be your own judge. Then buy and be protected under our positive guarantee of satisfaction or your money cheerfully refunded.

Folks and Merchants in near by towns can, if fifty miles away, well afford to drive to Cisco and load their car or truck with this merchandise. Everything from Soup to Nuts, and as standard a stock of Groceries as we have ever handled.

SALE WILL OPEN PROMPTLY AT 9:00 SATURDAY JUNE 2, AT 617 AVE. D. CISCO, TEXAS.

Come early, Mrs. Consumer, before what you want is gone. Mr. local merchant, we know you do not want to see this stock sold here. But the fire was here, hence here is the place for the people to profit by it. And we suggest that you come on and buy also, and with the combined consumer, buying her wants, and the retail grocer replenishing his stocks, it won't last long. Fully 80 per cent of this stock does not show the least smoke or water damage, and is in absolute first class condition for any retailer's shelves, therefore the profitable thing to do is to buy it.

WOMEN'S PAINS

They Were Relieved by Cardui Which This Georgia Lady Took on Her Mother's Advice.

Columbus, Ga .- "I don't see why women will drag around, in a half-hearted way, never feeling well, barely able to drag, when Cardui might help put them on their feet, as it did me," says Mrs. Geo. S. Hunter, of this city.

"I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. "I could not work, and just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin. I went from a hundred and twenty-six pounds down to less than a hundred.
"My mother had long been a user of Cardui, and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble. So she told me to get some and take it.

"I sent to the store for Cardui, and before I had taken the first hurt less, and I began to mend in health. I took the second bottle, and felt much better. I followed this by two more bottles. "Cardui acted as a fine tonic. I do not feel like the same person. I am well now, and still gaining sides do not trouble me at all For sale by druggists, everywhere. Give it a trial. NC-188
