COSTLIEST CAMPAIGNS.

The experts say this is going to be the costliest presidential campaign in history, and the most vigorously fought in all sections since 1896. At the same time it looks as if the vast sums of money to be collected and spent in "selling" the nominees to the Toung Ed. Walsh Brings voters were going to be handled honestly and openly and with fairly strict accounting to the public. There is little fear of corruption. Nevertheless, there are moments when a humble citizen wonders why it costs so much to conduct a presidential campaign, and why some plan cannot be worked out for setting before policies and records without quite so much financial hovered over Yankee Stadium ontlay. Some such system may be worked out eventually, possibly sooner than appears possible now. AMERICAN OPERA.

Deems Taylor, assigned by New York musical philanthropists to write another American opera, and having already spent over a year on the job, says it will take another year. He hopes to have it ready for the Metropolitan Opera season of 1929. So the publie will have to wait, without knowing even what the new opera is about, but with hope that it will be more American than Mr. Taylor's first American opera, "The Kim's Henchman." The composer goes so far as to deny that his new work deals with the characteristic American theme, "Big Business." Perhaps that is just as well, since business doesn't necessarily lend itself to musical expression. What else have we? Plenty of the usual operatic material—romance, adventure and war-in our own past, if not our present. And operas usually go back. By the way, we hope the composer this time will give us some songs anybody can sing, or tunes anybody can play. We don't seem to recall hearing any popular airs from "The King's Henchman."

Don't Be 'Taken In' by 'LONG PROFIT' TIRES

WHY WE RECOMMEND GOODYEARS

are learning that performance and not eloquence is the yardstick that measures tire SATISFACTION.

Those finding this out most to their sorrow, are they who buy "long-prefit" tires—so called because the dealer who handles them is given an additional 5. 10 or 15 per cent profit to compensate him for the long time he has to carry the tires in stock before he can sell them and get his money back.

Such tires do not give mileage per dollar-that's why shrewd tire buyers will not bother with them. As business men depending on the goodwill of our trade, we can no more afford to sell such tires than you can afford to buy them.

WHY GOODYEAR DOMINATES

Goodyears are easiest to sell because nearly everyone knows they give more comfort and safety, have greater endurance, give more mileage yet cost no more than other reputable tires.

That means they can be sold on a lower margin of profit—which in turn means extra value for you. Goodyears just HAPPEN. There is a reason for it. Nearly every worthwhile time improvement was PIONEERED by

The straight side, NO-RIM-CUT. The first pneumatic truck tire.

The first real nonskid tread.

And then the remarkable Balloon cords with sidewalls flexible inside as well as outside—with a new patented more flexible than that of any other balloon and of unsurpassed durability-giving from three to four thousand miles more than expected.

All these are fruits of Goodyear pioneering and proofs of Goodyear leadership. They help to explain why Goodyears are so fast to sell, so long to serve, so sure to satisfy. And herein lies the reason why we sell these world famous tires and so gladly recommend there

During the past ten years motorists have put into use more Goodyears than all other brands of tires. Put Goodyears on your car and get all the mileage you PAY for-and more, too!

With suites like this at such modest prices, why should any family be denied the best?

Don't envy your friends their beautiful homes. rather take advantage of such offers as this and know the pleasure of living in a home that is beautifully and fashionably furnished. There is no reason why you should deny yourself the joy of owning a lovely dining room, one for all to admire, when furnishings are priced so moderately as the above suite. Its refined taste is such that the whole family will take new pride in the dining room that it graces.
