COUNTY FAIRS IN TEXAS. — Next county was the first in the state to hold its fair this year. Attendance ranged from 3- to 6,000 a day, and it was estimated that more than half the people of the county saw the credit exhibits that were made up of all parts of the county. Gardens, orchards, gave of the best to the show. Neighbors with each other for prizes exhibiting cattle, sheep, goats, turkeys and chickens of all strains. Thoroughbred horses and their failures and to be judged by their owners for sake of winning than for the sake of the show. The week at the fair was a "short course" in the study of the best things produced in the county and town. It brought together to discuss their successes and their failures and to be judged by their owners for sake of winning than for the sake of the show. Robinson is Anxious to Come Here

Vice Presidential Nominee Will Visit Cisco Sept. 4 or 5 if He Can Get O. K. of Speaker Bureau

Prospects of securing the vice presidential nominee to visit Cisco appeared bright Saturday, when in response to the invitation extended him by the Cisco chamber of commerce and Judge Eugene Lankford, Senator Joe Robinson telegraphed Judge Lankford that he might visit Cisco September 4 or 5. Senator Robinson stated that it would not be possible for him to come to Cisco on the night of September 3, after his address at Dallas, but if arrangements could be made to postpone the bathing revue until September 4 or 5, that he would communicate with the national Democratic speakers bureau, and, unless other appointments prevented, would visit Cisco on one of the two dates. Secretary Peters stated that the local arrangements could be made, and just as soon as it is definitely learned that Senator Robinson can come here, the dates for the bathing revue will be changed so as to conform to the arrangements of the nominee. However, until it is determined definitely that Senator Robinson can come to Cisco, the original date for the bathing revue will remain for September 3, Labor Day, Peters said. "I know no greater attraction at that could be suggested to inspire the officials of the company at Dallas such action would be unnecessary. Said one man: Cisco has always been known as a 'Katy town' and I am certain some way will be found to perpetuate the mutual good feeling that has always existed between the road and this city."

TWO ARE GIVEN LIFE TERMS IN ASSAULT CASE

COMANCHE, Aug. 11.—Life imprisonment was the penalty assessed by a jury in district court here today against J. D. Pierce and Harley Holland, young farmers, charged with criminal assault upon Miss Velma Benhead, 19. The youths were apparently relieved when the jury brought in its verdict at 10 a. m., almost 18 hours after it had begun its deliberations. The two faced the worst since Dick Hazard, charged similarly, was sentenced to death earlier in the week. As defense attorneys had sought only to obtain a life sentence for the defendants, it was doubtful that the case would be appealed. The trial attracted more interest than any held in Comanche in recent years. It was three weeks Saturday since the crime was alleged to have occurred. A special trial of the grand jury was called to indict the three men and they were hurried to trial here despite herculean efforts on the part of defense attorneys to obtain a change of venue. Miss Benhead, blind, claims to have been attacked by the two men at the trial of Hazard and that of Pierce and Holland. She related how Hazard, after calling for her in his automobile to take her to church, was joined by two other men and Christine Cummings. They then drove out on the highway near De Leon, she said, where the car was stopped upon presence of a flat tire and the alleged attack committed. She testified that all three of the men attacked her. The Comanche girl, who sat in the automobile while the three men made the alleged attack on Miss Benhead, was indicted as an accessory but later released from the charge and attached as a state witness. Her testimony corroborated that of Miss Benhead in every detail.

DENVER MAN SEEKS TO COLLECT BOARD BILL FROM MOTHER-IN-LAW

DENVER, Aug. 11.—Mothers-in-law have been the victim of much jesting, but all precedent was broken here when Dr. Theodore Morris, chief medical advisor for the United States Veterans Bureau in Denver, and Mrs. Rachel A. Cottingham, his mother-in-law, for $3,500 for back board and lodging. Mrs. Cottingham, according to the court petition, lived in the Morris home from April, 1918 to March, 1928. At the beginning she promised to pay $10 per week for her keep. She has never paid any of the money, Morris declares. He also asks that Mrs. Cottingham be forced to pay interest at 8 per cent since March, 1928, and all court costs. Mr. and Mrs. Morris were recently divorced. Mrs. Morris was awarded alimony of $125 per month and a property settlement. Morris refused to pay this amount to his ex-wife and faces contempt of court charges.

BOLTERS READ OUT OF PARTY BY REGULARS

T. C. rifle teams will be requested in the 1928 national convention. The Republican nominee, speaking before a monster crowd in his alma mater football stadium and to a huge nation-wide audience over the radio, declared in favor of prohibition and against modification of the Volstead act, proposed a definite plan of farm relief and condemned public corruption as treason to the state. However, not each major issue squarely and his speech was filled with exhortations. He announced a decidedly American foreign policy. He came out for a strong national defense and proposed peace with the world but an armed peace as long as other nations of the world maintained armaments. The candidate definitely accepted the name of Governor Alfred E. Smith, his Democratic rival, on the prohibition issue. Hoover took the dry side of the question beyond dispute. Modification Opposed. Hoover admitted there were grave abuses of prohibition and he demanded they be remedied. He called for a searching investigation to determine the facts and causes of dry law violations and to develop a "wise method of enforcing them." He came out against modification of the Volstead act to "permit that which the constitution forbids." On farm relief, Hoover declared agriculture's plight presented the "most urgent economic problem in our nation today." His relief plan included: 1. Creation of a federal farm board of representative farmers to build up "with federal finance" farmer-owned and farmer-controlled stabilization corporations to protect farmers against seasonal shifts; 2. adequate tariff protection on farm products; 3. modernization of inland waterways and construction of the St. Lawrence waterway to lighten freight rates on farm products; and 4. reorganization of the marketing system. Oil Scandals Condemned. The nominee became the first leader of his party to condemn publicly the oil scandals, though he did so in general terms. He declared "dishonesty in government, whether national, state, or municipal, is a danger to the life and soul of the nation." There was a Rooseveltian flavor to his whole speech. He minced no words. He wielded a "Big Stick" against "predatory business," he demanded an adequate national defense; he declared a strong defense.

G. O. P. Nominee in Acceptance Speech Champions Dry Cause; Religious Tolerance Is Asked

STADIUM, STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Aug. 11.—Herbert Hoover today accepted the Republican nomination for president with a bold declaration of party policies. The Republican nominee, speaking before a monster crowd in his alma mater football stadium and to a huge nation-wide audience over the radio, declared in favor of prohibition and against modification of the Volstead act, proposed a definite plan of farm relief and condemned public corruption as treason to the state. Proposed New Filling Station at D Avenue and Third to Ruin Beauty Spot Maintained by City of Cisco

Announcement Saturday that a third filling station was to be built at the corner of D avenue and Third street brought forth protests from many Ciscoans. One objection to another station is that it will add to the traffic risks already great at that intersection. With the setting of "kates" through a part of the Katy park it became known that the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad had tentatively leased a corner of that plot to William Reagan, who would immediately begin the construction of a filling station. The railroad several months ago sold the corner at the northwest intersection of the two streets to the Humble company for the reported sum of $8,600. The Humble is planning the erection of a station there. The Humble will make the fourth station within a block on D avenue. There is a Magnolia station at the southwest intersection while the Lee Motor Co. and the Pennant station are at Fourth and D. The proposed building would thus make the fifth station within a block on the Bankhead highway. The greatest objection is that it will add to the traffic congestion whenever the railroad tracks a few feet north are blocked by trains for even a minute or two. It is also pointed out that the Katy would be acting in bad faith with the Humble company, from whom it got a fancy price for land for the same business a few feet away. Cutting through the driveway of the Magnolia station is a common occurrence now. These autoists, who do not stop for service, endanger pedestrians on the sidewalk as well as adding to the danger of collision with other autos. The same condition would exist at the proposed Reagan station, with autoists cutting through the driveway coming from the union depot. In addition to increasing the traffic risk, the proposed station would ruin one of the beauty spots of Cisco. While the property at the corner of the Katy railroad, the park has been developed and maintained by the city of Cisco. No statement was obtained from Mayor Williamson, but it was said Saturday that it might be possible for the city to condemn the property and thus assure its retention as a public park. However, it was generally agreed that when the matter is brought to the attention of the officials of the company at Dallas such action would be unnecessary. Said one man: Cisco has always been known as a 'Katy town' and I am certain some way will be found to perpetuate the mutual good feeling that has always existed between the road and this city."

HIGHWAY 23 IS AGAIN PLACED IN GOOD SHAPE

T. J. Brooks, of Moran, was here Saturday reporting to the chamber of commerce that the work of filling in the washout on Highway 23, north of Williamson dam, has been completed and the road is now open for traffic. Brooks was paid for this work by the chamber of commerce, while the luncheon club of Moran furnished 20 inch filling for the 45 feet of drainage under the fill. Brooks stated that he had three men and one team on the job for two days, and a part of the time a truck was used on the work, but it is now better than ever. The drainage allowing the water to pass under the dump. "Highway 23, from Cisco, over Williamson dam, is now in first class condition for traffic," Brooks said. "There are a few chuck holes that should be repaired, left after the recent heavy rains, which have been hard on this new stretch of road. The route over Williamson dam, shortens the distance to Moran from Cisco fully five miles, and over better roads clear into Moran, and thence to Albany and points north over that hard surfaced highway."

DELEGATES TO STATE LEGION MEET NAMED

C. M. Tomney will represent John William Butts Post No. 123, American Legion, at the state American Legion convention at Terrell, and Mrs. C. M. Tomney will go as a delegate from the local auxiliary. C. E. Yates, post adjutant, stated that other ex-service men from this section would possibly attend the state meet. All ex-service men who contemplate attending the Legion convention should get in touch with the post adjutant, who will give them a certificate, which will entitle them to reduced railroad fare, Yates said. The headquarters of the convention will be in the Grinn hotel in Terrell, and a social program has been arranged for the five days of the convention. Abilene is a candidate for the 1929 convention, and Bernice Coles, post of Breckenridge, is boosting its post commander, Ben J. Dean, for state commander.

RE YOUR ER?

Selection of a central committee to carry on an aggressive campaign in behalf of the national Democratic ticket was one of the major accomplishments of the meeting. The central committee with headquarters at Austin was empowered to extend its organization to senatorial districts and precincts. Former Congressman James Young of Kaufman was made chairman of the committee. Mrs. Minnie Fisher Cunningham of Galveston and Strawn Pinckney of Houston were named vice chairmen. The charge made by bolters that Governor Smith repudiated the Democratic national platform in his declaration on prohibition was declared to be without justification in a resolution. Governor Smith's pledge to support the platform did not preclude him from expressing his well known views on the subject of prohibition.

Killough and Callaway Lock Horns in Joint Debate at Anson Saturday; Young Speaker Proves Warm Number

ANSON, Tex., Aug. 11.—The political pot reached the boiling point here Saturday afternoon when Frank Killough, youthful Eastland attorney, speaking in behalf of R. Q. Lee of Cisco, candidate for congress from this district, was met by Oscar Callaway, of Comanche, Mr. Lee's opponent. Mr. Callaway had already spoken in Anson earlier in the week but it was said he cancelled other speaking dates Saturday and rushed back to Anson when news reached him that Killough was going to speak in the interest of Lee's candidacy. Mr. Killough was speaking when Mr. Callaway entered the court room. The youthful attorney greeted the veteran politician and asked him to come in and be seated. After Killough had presented briefly the platform of his candidate and had refuted charges made by Callaway against the Cisco candidate, he launched a broadside of charges against the official and private record of Mr. Callaway. He was frequently interrupted by the Comanche candidate, when he finally requested Mr. Callaway to remain quiet until he had finished his speech and then he (Callaway) could have the crowd as long as it would listen to him. When Killough began reading a document concerning a certain speech alleged to have been made by Callaway during the world war,

$50,000 SCHOOL BOND ISSUE IS SOLD AT PAR

A quorum at the meeting was obtained only at a late hour, and no final action was taken regarding the employment of an architect for the new building. However, several architects were present from Cisco and other towns, whose plans were inspected, and final action regarding the adoption of the plans and letting the contract was deferred until a later meeting.

Lee to Open Whirlwind Speaking Campaign at Abilene Monday Night; Will Answer Charges of Callaway

R. Q. Lee, candidate for the Democratic nomination for congress from the seventeenth district, who led the field in the first primary, will open his speaking campaign in the runoff election on the Federal lawn in Abilene Monday night at 8:30. Lee will make a whirlwind campaign through the time intervening before the election on August 25 and has prepared an itinerary equally as strenuous as that which he followed in the diversification campaign in 1925. Lee, who has been the target of a bitter personal attack by his opponent, Oscar Callaway of Comanche, declares he will answer specifically and definitely all charges made against him by the Comanche man and he will in turn devote a portion of his time to a discussion of the public record of Callaway. He has been devoting the past week to the task of collecting data to be used in his speaking campaign and will in this campaign, talk in plain language and "tell a trade a spoke." In Abilene he will tell of an attempt made to place the Abilene vote on the "table" and sell it to him (Lee) for a sum of money, by a man who agreed to be the self-appointed "boss" of a considerable block of votes in West Texas. He will explain how, in turn, he is supplied any such tactics and refused to pay the money demanded as the price for the services of the man who proposed to deliver the votes, refusing to have anything to do with any such tactics, and that following the refusal of the Lee headquarters to pay for the votes, the man who offered his services for a price subsequently joined the Callaway forces and is now undertaking to throw those votes to Lee's opponent. Lee will read affidavits to back up his assertions. Lee will also take occasion to pay his respects to Homer Shanks, one of the unsuccessful candidates in the first primary, who has joined the Callaway forces and has been making stump speeches, attacking Lee. Lee selected Abilene as the point to open his campaign because of the fact that the city is the most populous one in the district and in appreciation of the public money given him by Abilene and Taylor county. He is inviting all neighboring cities to turn out to hear him refute the charges made against him and following the Abilene date, he will devote the week to visiting other counties in this district, as follows: Tuesday, Merkel 2:30, Traft 11, Roscoe 3:30, Sweetwater 8:30. Wednesday, Anson 10, Hamlin 3:30, Stamford 8:30. Thursday, Leuters 9, Albany 10:30, Breckenridge 3:30, Mineral Wells 8:30. Friday, Ranger 10, Rising Star 3:30, Brownwood 8:30. Saturday, Coleman 10:30, Winters 3:30, Ballinger 8:30.

HEADED FOR ANTARCTIC.

The time draws near for the start of Commander Byrd's expedition to the South Pole. Two ships, sixty men, three airplanes, and supplies for two years are about ready. The first ship is expected to start August 15. The other ship will go a month later. Then, for the next two years, by dog sled and by airplane the vast expanse of the Antarctic will be explored.

AIR MAIL PASSENGERS.

When some famous personage makes an airplane trip somewhere the newspapers tell about it and everybody has a chance to know about it. These special items do not begin to reveal to the general public how much the transcontinental mail planes are used by travelers. He didn't decide just what day he would start until a day or two before leaving.

There are 10 prizes of $100 each offered in a preliminary contest for words only.

Several hours were spent pleasantly and delicious refreshments, consisting of sherbet and cake were served. A free will offering netted a neat sum. This is the beginning of a series of monthly meetings for the ladies.

Dr. W. W. Darrin, brother of Charles and George Darrin of this place, arrived with his family.

Those amendments. Kerrville Mountain Sun: Pursuant to action of the last legislature, there will be submitted to the voters of Texas on next Nov. 6, three proposed amendments to the state constitution. The most important of the amendments would create a state board of education to serve not more than six years and would limit the term of office of all public officers to six years; the second would levy an additional ad valorem tax of 1c on the $100 valuation for the purpose of broadening the payment of pensions to Confederate veterans and their widows, and the third amendment would exempt from taxation parsonages and certain property of associations for religious, educational and physical development.

Dallas News: All of us who see the promise of Utopia in expanded bureaucracy and increased taxation may find in one or more of the proposed amendments an opportunity to forward our hopes. Expanding additional properties from taxation and raising the rates on what is left may look to some purblind patriots like a dim road to plumbum but a good deal of that sort of thing must be left to the seers or clairvoyants, who should be the natural leaders of the people. Mexico is having a lot of trouble over unearned church property and educational property, real or so-called. But on this side the Rio Grande should not allow the Mexican precedent to guide us. This country is expanding enormous sums on its schools and religious institutions. Much of the latter expenditure is voluntary, but most of the school costs are taxed costs. Before we expand the practice of exemption, and raise the taxes, might it not be wise to examine more fully into what is being done precisely with the present expenditures? By what means more than we get back? Are we doing in fact all that we imagine we are doing in theory? Some old owls from their forest fastnesses, are hunting occasionally at our modern education. Once in a while one of them reminds all listeners that we are investing millions in culture and getting dividends so small we can hardly see them. State President saying this. It is the owls that are responsible for the result.

Dying, Noguchi Wrote of Each Fleeting Sensation

Martyred Scientist Left an Amazing Bequest to His Colleagues

By GRAHAM STEWART International Illustrated News Staff Writer

NEW YORK.—The last five minutes of a hero's life! You picture a soldier in the smoke of battle, sorely hit but advancing—doggedly. Plunging on to grips with the foe. His heart ticking for the last few times, dying fingers convulsively sending yet another bullet into the ranks of the enemy!

DR. HIDEYO NOGUCHI Years hence Noguchi will be saving lives of men and women stricken by typhoid fever which killed him.

How different the ending of Hideyo Noguchi, martyred Rockefeller Foundation scientist, dying in his comfortable tent in the foresting, insect-ridden jungle near Accra (West Africa), the solid little Japanese utilized his last moments on earth in penning what is described by colleagues as the most amazing document in medical annals.

Noguchi put on paper in the form of a letter to his colleagues at Wagons, City and County of fields, etc. Box Seats All Reserved — SA opens August 15.

Gen. Admission $1.0 Box Seats $2.0 Grand Stand $1.5 Children Half Price.

Years hence Noguchi will be saving lives of men and women stricken by typhoid fever which killed him. So it was with Dr. Jesse M. Lazear, surgeon, U. S. A., who died in Cuba. He permitted a mosquito to bite him to prove his contention that the bite of only that particular species would transmit the fever. Lazear died. Dr. James Carroll, another army surgeon, let himself be used for the same test and he, too, died. That was in 1907, seven years after Lazear.

Howard E. Cross of the Rockefeller Foundation died of the same scourge which vanquished brave Noguchi, giving his life in an attempt to reduce the toll of disease in pestiferous Vera Cruz. Similarly scores of other gallant investigators—coolly, calmly, unafraid. The last five minutes of a hero's life! Somehow the picture is different now; Noguchi and his kind have given us a new definition of the word courage.

CLYDE GARRETT GRATEFUL TO THE VOTERS OF EASTLAND COUNTY

Since our executive committee has officially declared that I received a majority of the votes cast on July 28 for county judge, I desire to express to you my most sincere and profound appreciation of the substantial majority given me. Words could not express my gratitude to my loyal friends and supporters for their votes, influence and untiring efforts manifested in my behalf and the best way I know to show my appreciation is to endeavor to serve you honestly and efficiently, which I will try to do. For those who for various reasons, did not support me I have the very kindest feelings. The campaign in this race was pitched on a high plane, entirely free from misdeeds and the only regret of it all was that because of my nomination a lifelong friend of mine was defeated.

Again thanking you, each and all, for the magnificent majority given me which, I consider, is an expression of confidence you had in me. I am, Yours very truly, CLYDE GARRETT Political Adv-127.

WARD FIGHT TO CONTROL CONGRESS BEING PLANNED

Seats Held by Democrats in Senate, 13 by Republicans to Be Filled; G.O.P. Has Edge in House

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—With the Senate almost equally divided, the major political parties are more than the usual wont of the Senate to be next fall because of deaths among both Republican and Democratic campaign strategists. The more than usual stress on the senatorial and congressional contests is a result of the closely contested presidential election. It is an early possibility that successful nominees might be confronted by a Senate controlled by political opponents.

A considerable shift would be required to change the complexion of the house. The Republicans have had approximately 40

SEPARATED 20 YEARS, GORMAN FAMILY UNITED

GORMAN, Aug. 11.—About 20 years ago Johnny Bell disappeared. Many of the older citizens remember his disappearance. He was living at the time with Ed Burleson, while his sister who grew to young womanhood in Gorman, was living with John Burleson. She is known to many of the folks in Gorman as Bebie Burleson. The boy was not adopted by Ed Burleson and when Mr. Burleson's wife was accidentally killed he let a traveler through the country take the boy. The boy at that time was only six years old. On last Sunday he came back to Gorman hunting for some trace of his mother and sister. He had not seen his sister since he was four years old and his mother was only a vague idea to him. He got the requisite traces here and went on to Dallas, where his mother had since re-married and was known to be living four years ago. There he inquired to the home of Edward Ogle and asked Mrs. Ogle if she had a daughter named Bebie. Within a few minutes he was with his mother, and soon the daughter was there also. They are there this week having a family reunion.

The mother gave up the children due to their age and the hard back it was in those days for a mother to care for two small children in the small towns of West Texas. strenuous efforts were made by her and her second husband, Mr. Ogle, to locate the small boy but he had completely disappeared and during the last few years they gave up hope of ever seeing him. The Burleson family was living in West Texas at the time of his disappearance and later moved back to Gorman where they had formerly lived. The older folks of both families are all dead now but the younger ones remember him when he brought back things he had remembered and they gave him every aid in finding his relatives.

Increase of 1400.
Estimated attendance for Reserve Officers Training Corps camps is 5200, an increase of about 1400 over last year.

The war department estimates that if funds were available for "lighting 50,000 in citizens' military training camps, at least 100,000 applications would be received.

The camps have become more popular since their work has been extended to cover training in citizenship and in athletics as well as military drill. In the camps students are in camp, their uniforms are devoted to military training and a citizenship course in the afternoons are spent in organized athletics.

Pick Rifle Teams.
For the first time this year C. T. C. rifle teams will be represented in the 1928 national matches held at Camp Perry. Each corps area commander will select a team of 13 graduates of the basic red, white and blue courses of the camps in his area. These courses represent the four years of camp training.

In the past seven years the number of students trained annually at these camps has more than tripled. In 1921, the total for the country was 10,000. Next year it was more than twice as great, and since then it has mounted steadily, limited only by the lack of funds.

U. S. TIRE DEALER

Lexan 'Dead' Seven Years Is Found Under New Name in Denver; 'I Made Mistake, We All Do,' Is Explanation

DENVER, Aug. 11.—After mysterious police and private detectives seven years ago, James H. Lawrence was thought to have been killed in Kansas City seven years ago. He was found himself very much alive here recently.

"I made a mistake, we all make mistakes," was his explanation.

Lawrence once a wealthy farmer in Edinburgh, Texas, disappeared when he left his wife and four children to make a business trip to Kansas City. Insurance companies and other departments sent out their best detectives to solve the mystery but all they could find was a hat and coat on the banks of the Missouri river.

Seven years passed and Lawrence was pronounced legally dead. Proceedings were instituted to settle his estate.

Just a few days ago, Harry Burnett, upon entering a local hotel, thought he recognized the clerk known as J. H. Lee. He consulted his wife and they both decided that it was Lawrence, the man they knew in Kansas City.

Admits Identity

Lawrence and reporters rushed to interview the man, whereupon he admitted his identity and told a story always before a secret.

"I had been in financial difficulties in Texas and had made a deal with Kansas City business men which I hoped would adjust things," he said.

"I had hoped that no one ever would know," he continued with tears in his eyes. "The Kansas City men tricked me. The last thing I remember is walking out of the lobby of a Kansas City hotel. I know that I was very angry."

My mind then became blank and the next thing I recall is that the landlady in a cheap rooming house in Wichita, Kan., was knocking on my door.

"This is your call, Mr. Lee," she said.

"I got up and went to the landlady's room. I was registered as J. H. Lee."

"I knew that was not my name but the initials were mine. Lawrence," it seemed, had been shortened to Lee."

"I found it was the first week in March. Realizing I had been away from my family for nearly a month without their having heard from me, I was faced with a terrible decision."

"I found that I was supposed to have been killed and thrown into the river."

To Remain "Dead"

"If I went back to my family I knew I could explain to them, but I knew everyone would believe I had been on a lark and spent all my money. I didn't want to injure my family with this additional publicity. I decided that Lawrence would remain dead and that I would be J. H. Lee."

"I obtained work in a filling station in Wichita, and in the next five years I held a responsible position with the oil company."

"About two years ago I came to Denver. That's all there is to my story except that I made a mistake and am sorry."

"I believed I was going right but I knew it was wrong," he concluded.

"I learned no one but my family. Many, many times I wanted to see them, but I feared that would injure them more than if I remained away."

Lawrence was recently taken to a hospital here where physicians said he was in a critical condition, suffering from a complication of diabetes.

TIRE SWINDLE UNCOVERED BY RUBBER FIRM

The arraignment of Joseph R. Moore before Magistrate McAndrews in New York City after his arrest for misrepresenting merchandise, has brought to light a nationwide swindle in the sale of tires which is operating in a number of states.

How the tire swindlers carry out their deception on motorists by representing their wares as the products of nationally known rubber companies, but which were merely the discarded tires re-vulcanized and encased in paper wrappers, was described before the court as follows:

A truck occupied by two men, draws up alongside another motor car halted in traffic. One of the men would ask the driver of the car if he wanted to buy a tire of two cheap U. S. Royal Cord brand tires usually offered. They would offer to sell for $25 two tires priced at $25 each, and sometimes would reduce the price to $15 per pair. When the prospective purchaser showed disbelief of their statement they would tear aside some of the wrapper and show the U. S. stamp on the tire. If the motorist bought the tires he would find upon examining them that they were battered and used tires and the U. S. was part of the stamp. Made in U. S.

The nation-wide ramifications of this form of tire swindle have prompted representatives of the United States Rubber Co. to make a country-wide drive for the benefit of the rubber industry and the public in order to halt it. In this work the National Better Business Bureau and the Better Business Bureau of New York are giving full cooperation.

LULING BOY INJURED WHEN HIT BY AUTO

LULING, Aug. 11.—Ernest Conley, 12 son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Conley of this city, was run over by an automobile when he stepped off an ice wagon directly in front of the car. He was taken to a hospital for treatment, where it was found he was seriously injured. The driver of the car was exonerated of any blame in the accident.

HARD LESSON

Cohen placed a ladder against the side of the house, then called his son, Abie, aged 7, and made him climb to the top of it.

"New jump," commanded Cohen.

"I'm afraid," wailed Abie.

Cohen held out his arms.

"Do as papa tells you—jump—papa is here."

Finally Abie did jump. Cohen stepped aside and Abie fell with a bump.

"Now let that teach you a lesson never to trust anybody," said Cohen.

'Willing to Wager' Supreme Court Will Have to Pass on Any Dry Law Change, Says Democratic Woman

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Two new angles of the prohibition question as applied to the presidential campaign were pointed out in a radio debate by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and Mrs. Mebel Willebrandt, both drys.

First Mrs. Roosevelt, espousing Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democratic candidate, she said she was "willing to wager" that the United States supreme court would have to pass upon any law enacted by congress in conformity with Smith's suggestion for changes in the prohibition statutes.

Second, Mrs. Willebrandt, assistant attorney general and supporter of Herbert Hoover, indicated that the Republican, as well as the Democratic, ranks were opened to those desiring prohibition changes.

"Under Hoover," she said, Republican party believes the nation is assured of performance with integrity of all and integrity of the party pledge of vigorous legislation to the constitution. News want ads bring results.

Mrs. Willebrandt charged Smith was "unfair" to Democratic drys by promising to work for prohibition

Mrs. Roosevelt said Hoover's statement on prohibition revealed he was vague on the subject, whereas she believed Smith would explicitly say in the near future how he proposed to alter prohibition without a return to the saloon.

"No matter what method he proposed, there will be many protests, and whatever it is I am willing to wager that the supreme court has to pass on it before it becomes the accepted law of the land," she said.

"If the majority of people really want the Volstead law modified, the governor will succeed, perhaps in getting them to agree on some definite plan for as soon as collector calls."

Just plain wonderful... say all who have seen it

Avoid all the fanfare of new car announcements, one fact stands out with shining clarity: Owners of cars in every price field are turning to the Silver Anniversary Buick with an eagerness which proves that they regard it as the greatest value ever offered in the motor world!

This radically new and different automobile is rolling up the biggest demand ever won by any new quality car. It is drawing more people to the showrooms, day after day, than any other automobile ever drew before. It is focusing the attention of America by quality-standards so new, so advanced and so epochal as to preclude any thought of comparison.

RECORD VOTE IN TEXAS FOR SMITH SEEN BY MRS. SEVIER

Trade against Tammany Insincere and Illogical, Declares National Committeewoman at Loyalty Session

ST. AUGUSTINE, Aug. 11.—On the eve of a state-wide mass meeting of the Texas Democrats, Mrs. Clara Sevier, Democratic national committeewoman, declares that she is to the invitations sent out to indicate that Governor Al Smith, Democratic presidential nominee, "may poll in Texas the largest vote ever recorded for a Republican presidential nominee."

Sevier, characterized as a "Republican" by the attitude of those Democrats who would support Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee, rather than their own party's candidate, declared that she charged Mr. Hoover is not a prohibitionist and never has been one.

Sevier's candidacy of the national standard bearers seem to indicate that party loyalty will be tested November 5. Mrs. Sevier declared: "It also indicates Governor Smith may poll the largest vote ever recorded for a Democratic presidential nominee."

There are unmistakable evidences of a decided reaction directed by the masses against the record and policy of Governor Smith and his administration, and it is becoming increasingly evident that their decision of Democratic not Democratic after all, individuals committed to the principle of prohibition, and who would subordinate the principle of their party to the support of Mr. Hoover on a record of prohibition cannot be more than a fetish because Mr. Hoover is not a prohibitionist and has been one. It might be said that those who say they are not prohibitionists are those who vote for the Republican candidate, or those who come out more than they did in his state.

Picture of Rockwell Office Here and Descriptive Article Contained in Magazine for Lumber Industry

Containing a splendid picture of the interior of the Cisco office of the Rockwell Bros. & Co., a recent issue of the Gulf Coast Lumberman, a magazine published in the interest of the lumber industry, contains an article describing the interior arrangements of this lumber establishment. The Gulf Coast Lumberman says:

"Herewith is reproduced a view of the fine new paint and hardware store of Rockwell Bros. & Co., at Cisco, Texas. It is in charge of their efficient manager, Frank E. Harrell, who planned the construction and details of the department. The store is bright, roomy and most inviting to the trade; much thought was given to space of the various compartments and there is no waste.

"The shelving is deep, being three feet at base and two feet above, and this gives room to store a lot of goods in small space.

"Builders' hardware is behind glass doors—these doors have fir panel backs with billiard cloth—on which are displayed samples of items carried in next compartment to the right. A row of drawers just beneath the base shelf and counter provide space for strap hinges, roofing cleats, sash cord and such items as would be unsightly if exposed to view.

"Wire cloth is provided for with pigeon holes in the rear end of hardwood counter and is rolled, measured and cut with a patented machine.

"Forty-eight nail bins beneath the shelving and counter give a place for every size and kind carried.

"The row of columns down the center of the building was made necessary by weight of door ware-room upstairs, and the floor lobby seats are built around these columns of various kinds of brick, laid in different colored mortar, with various kinds of face work, also laid in different colored mortar, with a variation of joints.

"Window glass is taken care of in a separate room which can be seen through a rear door at left. Oil and turpentine room is just back of the glass room.

Model Traffic Code Now Being Worked Out Will Be Submitted to 3,000 Municipalities of U. S.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Eight major recommendations for a model municipal traffic ordinance will be contained in a model code which will be submitted this month to more than 3,000 municipalities, to aid in the handling of their problems of street congestion and traffic according to the traffic committee of the American Motorists Association, one of the national motoring organizations working on the model traffic code plan. The code was prepared by the committee on municipal traffic ordinances and regulations of the national conference on street and highway safety, of which Secretary of Commerce Herbert Hoover is chairman.

The eight major recommendations for the model code are as follows: The pedestrian of an intersection shall always have the right of way. Between intersections, the motorist shall always have the right of way. The effect of these two regulations being in effect, the pedestrian and the motorist shall be given the same treatment at intersections. The practice of a motorist passing a street car on the left is a dangerous practice and should be discontinued. The right of way rule between motorists at intersections is further clarified as follows: The motorist on the right shall always have the right of way unless the vehicle on the left first enters the intersection, in which event the vehicle on the left shall proceed and clear the intersection with due regard for safety.

PERSHING WILL VISIT SANTONE AS LEGIONAIRE

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 11.—General Pershing will visit the city from which he set out to command America's forces in the greatest war in history. Upon his return from Mexico, where he had headed the punitive expedition in pursuit of Pancho Villa, Pershing took command on Feb. 19, 1917, of what was then known as the southern department, with headquarters at San Antonio. In the following May Pershing was called secretly from San Antonio to Washington. Carefully guarded conferences were held there. The next day the country knew "Black Jack" had landed in France, with the first handful of American troops.

3 NEW WELLS BROUGHT IN IN EASTLAND CO.

Three new producers in Eastland county and four wells in the Rising Star area, over the Brown county line, are the total for the past week and demonstrate that activities in this section are continuing at a steady pace. There are 37 wells listed in the weekly drilling report for Eastland county alone. When one considers western Palo Pinto, southern Stephens and northern Brown counties, it would be safe to estimate that perhaps 60 or more wells are drilling in the territory of which Ranger is the center. Lewis & Moore have a 20 barrel well at 1,240 feet, south of Eastland. It is the No. 3 Whittington.

The Operators Oil and Gas company's No. 2 Williamson, in the Sibley pool south of Ranger, is making 19 barrels of oil and 200,000 feet of gas at 2,985. McLeister Oil company has completed the No. 1 Thorp as a small producer at 3,802 feet.

In the Rising Star area, the following 1,200 foot wells have been completed: Kome Production company's No. 5-C; Hickman, 40 barrels; Anna Belle Oil company's No. 5 Hickman, 150 barrels; same company's No. 7 Hickman, 60 barrels; Midland Oil company's No. 2 Hickman, 50 barrels.

The Texas-Pacific Coal and Oil company has brought in a splendid producer on its great Binney lease. The well is the No. 75. It is making 250 barrels at 1,968 feet.

NATION-WIDE DRIVE TO REDUCE DROWNING TOLL OF SWIMMERS

American Red Cross Conducting 14 Training Schools in Safety Move; Average of 40 Lives Lost per Day

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—An average of 40 persons drown each day in the United States. Each year the total runs between 14,000 and 15,000.

These figures come from the life saving service of the American Red Cross, which is attempting to produce them.

H. F. Knolls, director of first aid and life saving for the Red Cross, says that a careful study indicates that 80 per cent of drowning fatalities are preventable.

In his organization's continuous campaign of prevention, more than 160,000 swimmers have already been taught life saving methods and the campaign has been especially intensified this year. The number of swimmers taking to the water for recreation or relief from the heat has steadily increased.

Fourteen training schools were established in six beach sections of the country during June and July and a thousand swimmers got in a 10-day intensive course in life saving and water safety.

Teach Life Saving

More than 500 of the most proficient swimmers were appointed Red Cross life saving examiners and are authorized to teach swimming and certify those learning the requirements in the American Red Cross life saving course.

Upwards of 5,000 swimmers and a special corps of 24 training instructors are now teaching life saving methods in every state and at the end of the year somewhere near 25,000 more swimmers will have received this instruction.

Special demonstrations are being begin where they fell off in the fall. Often they swim too far on their last time in, exhaust themselves and become exhausted. Then they're likely to be lost.

"We are encouraging each community to provide a swimming place where its people can swim under supervision at certain hours. That means, of course, with a life guard on hand.

"There is too much haphazard swimming and too much swimming alone, especially by children, without adults.

"We recommend that a majority of people in canoes be able to swim. That is, if there are three persons in a canoe two should be good swimmers. Or if there are two, one should be able to take care of his companion.

"Most people don't know how to handle canoes and the renters of canoes have no responsibility to see that they do."

The life saving course conducted recently at Lake Cisco under the auspices of the Eastern county chapter of the Red Cross was a part of the national safety drive, a representative of the national society being sent here. Another is now being conducted at the lake swimming pool by J. S. Law, aquatic supervisor.

Beginner's Test

"We now recommend in a beginner's test, while life guards are standing by that those who have just learned to swim jump into the water where it's over their heads and keep their feet on the bottom. Or that they swim 20 or 30 feet out and then back. Thus they learn how to do it and if water they are swept in a boat or canoe they are swept while floating or fall off a dock, they will be able to keep their heads and feet above water.

"It is going to get more emphasis on the early crop of drownings which is preventable. Instructors should train gradually at the beginning of their swimming course instead of undertaking to

YOUNG CISCO MUSICIANS ON PROGRAM OVER KFYO

Two of Cisco's talented young musicians, Garland and Douglas Franks, gave an hour's program of popular numbers over radio station KFYO, Breckenridge, Friday night. The boys sang to the accompaniment of banjo and ukulele, with several solos on these instruments.

In addition to the regular number of popular songs, the brothers sang a popular composition of their own, called "Why Can't I Have Some One Like You." This piece was very enthusiastically received, and a second playing of the number came by request.

The program received a favorable reaction from all over the country, with calls from numerous cities as well as long-distance letters.

The Enterprise holds no brief supporting him in the runoff primary.

Mr. Callaway has served in congress from the Fort Worth district which at that time included Comanche county. Mr.
Callaway is the man who was defeated for re-election because of his outspoken opposition to Woodrow Wilson's program during the World War.
Mr. Callaway, according to a live in Clyde, is "wet, very wet."
Another Clyde citizen who has years, speaks very uncomplimentarily of him.
Mr. Callaway compared the farmer to a jack with a load on him that made him poor, sway-backed, fat-tongued, and bow-legged. He said, "the only way to help the jack is to take off some of the burden." But he failed to give any plan to relieve the farmer of his burden. If he has a remedy to help the farmers, of whom he claims to be one, why doesn't he tell it to the public? If he has no plan, why criticize his opponent?

DAILY NEWS CISCO, TEXAS, MONDAY OLD COLLEGE

RANGER, AUG. 11.—J. E. Merney, secretary of the board of trustees of the Thorp Springs Christian college, has announced that he had signed final papers authorizing the removal of the old college from Thorp Springs to Terrell.

According to Meroney, Terrell donated a $45,000 building and program and $35,000 additional in cash.
Present plans call for the opening of the school in Terrell at the regular fall session and an enrollment of 225 students is expected.
The school is one of the oldest in Texas. Rev. Randolph Clark, of Ranger, and his brother, Addison Clark, were the founders of the college.
In 1875 Randolph Clark, who lived in Fort Worth at the time, was induced to go to Thorp Springs in the interest of establishing the college. He was joined by his brother in 1874 and they established the college, which was known as Add-Ran college.
Eight students were enrolled the first year.
In 1910 the Church of Christ took over the school and has been in charge since that time.

LANDING FIELD IS SOUGHT BY BRECKENRIDGE

BRECKENRIDGE, Aug. 11.— Steps are fast materializing on the work of obtaining an airplane landing field and port for Breckenridge for the immediate future. Ben J. Dean, chairman of a committee to be appointed by the chamber of commerce for investigating the project, had this to say about his work so far.

"I was made chairman of this committee, but the chamber of commerce has never appointed the committee."
A tract of land suitable for such a project is now under consideration, Dean said. Dean believes that the best scheme is to only lease the land for a period of ten years, at the end of which, he said, commercial aviation here would be a necessity and the field and port would pay for itself.
About 43 acres of land will be required for the field. The land could be cleared off, a runway constructed, and a small hangar built for nearly $1,000, Dean stated.
"It will come sooner or later."

Dean said as regards the necessity of such a field for the future. "We can't afford to be left out of the picture, when aviation, which it will surely do, becomes one of our main industries."

Princess to Marry

Princess Isama isn't going to become the wife of an American after all. Instead the beautiful daughter of Queen Marie of Rumania will espouse a German, Prince Heinrich of Schaumbourg-Lippe, according to reports reaching friends in the United States. The prospective bridegroom is one of the wealthiest men in Germany.

"Is that you, Edward?" she asked, as a man's voice answered the call. "Speaking," he replied. "That you, Maud?"

"Yes. You remember I told you last night that on no account would you be permitted to enter our house again?"

"Gosh! I ever forget it?"

"Well, we have decided to move, and I thought you might like to know our new address." — Liver-
