TEXAS IS MAKING PROGRESS IN FIGHT AGAINST FIRE

Standard Equipment and Better Roads Are Enabling Cities to Reduce Property Losses Rapidly

AUSTIN, Aug. 12.—Good roads and standard fire couplings rapidly reducing Texas towns and cities to make a combined stand against fire.

Figures just completed at the direction of the state insurance commission show that fully half the communities in Texas now have equipment that can be used in fire places that have "standard" connections. Rapid progress is being made in changing the other half.

Hewley in Charge
George Hewley is in charge of the standardization work for the state insurance commission. He explains that to be standard merely means that the fire connections must have a diameter ranging from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 inches with seven right threads to the inch. In making standard 130 communities are made changes. Venus, Ballinger, Goliad, Bartlett and Pilot Point recently changed their old standard threads themselves.

By, with the exception of Brownsville, have ordered standard equipment. This makes the standard fire fighting equipment of a down place available for a fire in any one of them as a concrete road connects all.

HOOVER MAY HAVE TO ELABORATE ON PROHIBITION VIEWS

East and West, Drys and Wets See Double Meaning in Remarks to Give Fence Straddling Idea

OSTA BARBARA, Calif., Aug. 18.—Hoover may be forced to elaborate on his prohibition views because of conflicting interpretations placed on his acceptance speech statements by many of his close associates.

It had hoped that his remarks at the Stanford Stadium would be taken as a whole on this controversial subject, but the confusion of Congressmen and his meaning both in the east and west seem to necessitate more discussion.

Hoover's demand for enforcement and no repeal of the 18th amendment during the campaign, and his inclination to interpret his acceptance speech as straddling the fence, has been pointed out by many of his associates.

Tendency of the wets to exaggerate Hoover's suggestion of an investigation to correct abuses and his well-known habit of guiding himself by fact rather than fancy, has given concern to certain dry spokesmen. They do not criticize Hoover, having implicit faith in him, as much as his apparent willingness to permit a wet interpretation of his remarks.

In Tag-of-War

Both elements are, as thought standard now, engaged in a tag-of-war over the Republican nominee's statement on the dry question. Hoover is known to be hearty in favoring both ways on the subject. Therefore it is probable he will clear up all misrepresentations before the actual campaign is under way.

Hoover believes that he made his position perfectly clear. He would, if he permitted they would be at either part of his speech, were of a word "to remove remaining restrictions of granting this permit will be subject of the hearing at Amarillo.

than hole it," in his opinion. But he realizes that in practical and political matters it is not so much the reality as people's impression which sways votes, so he is determined these shall be no misunderstandings of where he stands.

LEASE WITH 25 PRODUCERS IS SOLD FOR $60,000

ALBANY, Aug. 18.—A C. Scott and W. A. Walker have closed a deal with the Union Oil & Mining Co. of Tulsa, Okla., in which they sold their 327 acre lease on the Hooky cut of section 348 and 349. This is one of the biggest business deals that has been completed in the territory within the last two years. The lease has 25 producing wells in a territory 3-4 mile north-south and southwest and with about 750 acres yet unleased as to production. The lease is now making an average of better per day and brought a cash consideration of $60,000. All wells in this lease are in the 348 and 349 and the latter wells in the lease have never been drilled to in any test. The lower end is unexplored yet. The contract provides for three more wells to be drilled and operations are to start immediately.

Edward Holland, vice president of the Union Oil & Mining Co., and Mr. Jim O'Connell, secretary-treasurer, were in Albany to close the deal. This lease is one mile west of the famous shallow pool on the Fry for T&E, survey No. 384 and is in the same producing horizon. The Fry well having developed at high as 20 barrels per day from 400 feet, and which is owned by Hoover-Produttori-Phillips.

WORLD PARLEY FOR OIL CURB IS PREDICTED

LONDON, Aug. 18.—A world conference on oil restriction is predicted by the financial expert of the Evening Standard.

The writer said the conference would be called after "discussion" now taking place in Scotland between the three great oil magnates—Sir Henry Detering, Walter C. Teagle and Sir John G. Colman.

Dutch Shell, Teagle is head of the Standard Oil of New Jersey and Sir John is chairman of the Anglo-Persian Oil Co.

The Evening Herald will interview persons outside the world conference on restriction of production as almost assured. The article continued:

"Naturally the trend of the discussions in Scotland is being kept as secret as possible, but I am informed by an authority usually in close touch with all affairs that all three leaders went to Scotland convinced of the necessity of restriction. There is little likelihood of any disagreement in principle.

The first step the main point to consider is how best world-wide restriction can be enforced and how opposing interests in America can be brought into line.

The writer added that he understood Cadman was participating in the conversations, together with Detering and Teagle, and that they would know whether they would require the full support of the Anglo-Persian Oil Co. in their opposition to the French demand for full exploitation of the Turkish Petroleum company's new oil fields.

WHY HESITATE?

"Miss Lamb—er—Miss—there's a question I've been wanting to ask you for weeks."

"Carry on, old thing; the answer's been waiting for months."

Twenty-five years was the average age of Americans fighting in the World War.

Oil Operators Are Active in Albany Field; Wells in New Pool on Childers Farm Are Making 25 Barrels per Day

ALBANY, Aug. 19.—The recently discovered pool on the N. L. Childers farm, northeast 1-2 T2E2, 300 acres, Comanche county, by Texas Consolidated Oil Co. of Dallas, in the 300-foot sand has been tested for the first time since the pool was discovered in the spring of 1927 and it made a total of 25 barrels in the first 24 hours. This is considered reasonable in view of the thickness runs 24 to 30 feet and is saturated with oil. The sand is compacted as a rule, but has not yet been put on pump. This fact is considered one of the reasons for the success of the well on the Childers farm. The well is on the Childers farm, where they plan to drill four more locations for the same pool. The well on the Childers farm was drilled in the corner of the east 32 acres.

P. Zach has staked location for a new well in for his No. 1 well in the corner of the east 32 acres in the northeast quarter of the Childers farm, section 21, T2E2, R10E, in the first lot to be drilled on the old Richardson Bros. farm well on the Childers farm. It came in from the 1900 foot sand with a 40 barrel well, and the Humble Oil Co. bought it after the discovery.

Simon & McMurray-Helms No. 2 D. Reynolds Trust, in the northeast part of section 23, block 11, T2E2, R10E, had a good show of oil at first and are setting pipe to drill down to the Hope sand which is about 1000 feet.

G. Terry, operator from Houston, staked a location in the northeast part of section 33, block 11, T2E2, R10E, in the corner of the Childers farm, section 21, T2E2, R10E, in the first lot to be drilled on the old Richardson Bros. farm well on the Childers farm. It came in from the 1900 foot sand with a 40 barrel well, and the Humble Oil Co. bought it after the discovery.

CHARGE MADE BY MAYFIELD IS ANSWERED

DALLAS, Aug. 12.—R. E. L. Knight, supporter of Congressman Tom Connally, has issued a statement here in reply to the charge made by Mayfield supporters that Connally has been able to get appointed on but one committee, Knight said.

"The simple truth is that under the rules of congress, when a member is assigned to an exclusive committee he may not hold membership on any other. The foreign relations committee is an exclusive committee and as a member of that body Connally can belong to no other. John Garner of Utah, a member of the ways and means committee, can belong to no other. Our own congressman, Hatten W. Sumners of Dallas, is a member of the judiciary committee, which likewise is an exclusive committee and can belong to no other.

"There are coveted positions and are attained by meritorious service in congress. In the senate where there are only 96 members new members are assigned to several committees for there are as many committees in the senate as there are in the house with considerably less than one-fourth as many members.

"It was not service that won Mayfield his committee assignments. He was assigned to the committees that any other new man in the senate would have been assigned."

Enland is to remove the restorations on rubber. It is reported that they had a good show of oil at 700 feet. Since the price of crude oil has advanced again there is lots of activity in this county, which will no doubt pave the way to opening up of new pools, and everyone believes there are just as many to be opened as has been opened in the past.

The apron should be made just the height of the table. If there is to be a shelf, leave the drapery open in front but slightly overlapping. Instead of a hem, stitch a narrow strip of the flared chintz around the bottom. Lay this apron in even pleats, around the frame again using thumb tacks because you will want to take it off for washing. Another narrow strip of the chintz is put tightly around the edge to cover the raw edges, and for this a few gilt upholstery tacks are needed.

Plate glass cut to fit the top is rather costly, but double strength window glass will be as satisfactory and costs very little. The mirror should be of a good shape but need not have an expensive frame. An inexpensive one can be enameled apple green to match the chintz.

LABOR IS NEUTRAL IN RACE FOR U. S. SENATOR FROM TEXAS

Mayfield's Record Is More Pleasing But Connally Usually Votes 'Right' So Unions Will Keep Their Hands Off

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Neither the labor record of Senator Earl Mayfield nor Representative Tom Connally is an issue in the Texas senatorial runoff campaign. Officials of organized labor said today.

So far as labor nationally is concerned, either candidate is acceptable. The attitude of state and local organizations is subject to local autonomy and the national organizations are not concerned with particular state issues.

The majority of the American Federation of Labor, the four national branches and other organizations, is actively neutral in the Texas senatorial race.

Labor leaders of both sides are not "undecided," they are only undecided as to which candidate they will support. It is usually Tom Connally who is favored by labor.

Because Mayfield is the incumbent and because labor usually favors the man already in office, he may be favored to have a slight edge in his support. However, no attempt is made to turn thumbs down on Connally or to interfere with his campaign in any way.

National labor organizations have examined the record of the two men and upon request of individuals or local organizations these are supplied when any question arises.

Mayfield's record is as follows:

68th Congress
 April 18, 1924—Favorable to labor on immigration.
 May 27, 1924—Favorable to labor on passage of postal employees wage increase bill with bonus outside executive agreement.
 June 2, 1924—Favorable to labor on passage of child labor amend. to constitution of the United States.
 June 6, 1925—Favorable to labor on passage of postal employees wage increase bill with bonus outside executive agreement.
 69th Congress
 May 11, 1926—Favorable to labor on bill abolishing railway labor board and providing for collective bargaining.
 70th Congress
 May 18, 1927—Favorable to labor on bill providing increased pay for federal employees.
 May 24, 1928—Favorable to labor on bill providing for differential pay for night work in postal service over president's veto.
 Connally's record is much longer, dating back to the 46th congress. He voted more times as labor supporter than to vote and five times as it did not. These bills on which Connally voted follow:

64th Congress
 March 6, 1916—Voted favorable on Linn amendment to war material bill regarding right of workmen to make work.
 Jan. 13, 1915—Voted unfavorable on bill to raise bonus of federal employees from $120 to $240.
 66th Congress
 July 22, 1919—Voted unfavorable on bill providing bonus $150 million.
 67th Congress
 Sept. 28, 1921—Voted favorable on motion to pass an article on "anti-trust provisions" leaving labor in free delivery bill.
 Oct. 17, 1921—Voted unfavorable on resolution reorganization of stipends in industry.
 March 21, 1922—Voted unfavorable on bill providing compensation bill reorganization provisions on all gov't.

67th Congress
 June 15, 1921—Voted favorable on passage of bill feature excluding members of organized labor from its benefits.
 April 26, 1920—Voted favorable on final passage of civil service reorganization bill.
 67th Congress
 June 15, 1921—Voted favorable on passage of bill limiting the hours of firemen and other engine workers to eight out of 24 hours of 12.
 May 2, 1922—Voted favorable on extension of three per cent immigration tax of May 18, 1921, to June 30, 1924.
 June 27, 1923—Voted favorable on passage of workmen's compensation bill for District of Columbia.
 68th Congress
 April 17, 1924—Voted favorable on passage of immigration restricting bill.
 April 29, 1924—Voted unfavorably on child labor amendment.
 May 15, 1924—Favored favorable on bill to reduce in "voluntary" participation to strike out striking clause in the Howard-Baker railroad bill.
 June 6, 1924—Voted favorable on passage of conference report on postal employees wage increase bill with bonus outside executive agreement.
 Connally is listed as not voting on 12 other bills in which labor was favored.

Although Connally voted in opposition to labor on the child labor amendment, confidentially labor admits this is not considered as serious a deviation as might be supposed. Labor recognizes that at certain times office holders will vote adversely either because of local situations or because of their views, and this is not always held against them, it is said.

The fact that the national labor organizations are not endorsing Connally as a candidate is considered proof that his labor record is far above a "padding trade."

DAM AT MORAN IS BEING RAISED AS PRECAUTION

MORAN, Aug. 18.—Walter and Henry Knight have begun at work this week putting dirt and rock up on the dam at the city lake. The lower valve have filled the lake and in places in the center of the dam the water lacked only a foot of going over the top of the dam. Two city officials are afraid that should a hard driving rain come the water would go over the top and wash the dam away and are taking precautions to prevent this.

The dam has settled in the center, and will be built up even with the ends of the dam, making the top of the dam three or four feet above the water all the way across.

DRIVE AGAINST VAGS PLANNED AT BIG SPRING

BIG SPRING, Aug. 18.—Warned by an increasing number of petty thefts throughout the county and the large number of idle men on the streets of Big Spring, many of whom will not accept work when jobs are offered, and realizing that the number of crooks drifting in because of all development in Howard county will begin to show a big increase, the members of the community council authorized the sheriff to start a chain gang for those who refuse to work and for those who are living off taxes in jail. It was also suggested that finger prints be taken of all suspicious characters rounded up in the hope of capturing criminals wanted at other points.

The announcement that the chain gang is going to be instituted will be welcome news to all who realize the city and county are going to be overrun with crooks of all stripes as long as there is an active oil development program in effect. They are looking for easy money and follow the oil fields to prey off the workers, most of whom make big money and spend it freely.

As starting the chain gang early in the Spring will be able to get off of many crooks before they get a foothold here. Some of them can't afford to have their finger prints taken since it would mean their return to the penitentiary or jail. And many habitual crooks are going to give the city a wide berth when they find they are going to be compelled to earn what they eat.

77TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED BY OKRA PIONEER

OKRA, Aug. 18.—Celebrating his 77th birthday Uncle Henry Maxwell was honored given at a birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Hagedorn at their home near Okra last Sunday. A large number of friends and relatives were invited to share the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Hagedorn and enjoy the festivities of the day.

Mr. Maxwell, with his wife, who is still living and enjoying good health, was among the first to settle in the Okra country, having located there in 1876 and still makes his home on the same farm, which gives him a continuous residence in the same place of a little more than half a century. At the time Mr. Maxwell settled his farm this part of the state was a wild and sparsely settled frontier and Indian raids were still frequent in different parts of the country.

During his long residence here Uncle Henry has been one of the leading citizens of this section and has many friends throughout this section who will be glad to congratulate him on his 77th birthday and trust that he will live to celebrate many more.

THE REFRIGERATOR PLAYS HOSTESS NOW

by KATHERINE G. CORNELL
Director of the Keltinator Domestic Institute

WHEN company comes to the house which includes an electric refrigerator in its kitchen equipment, there is no fuss or worry. Even if there is no maid, and the housewife herself must be cook as well as hostess, there is no undue excitement, for the refrigerator assumes all responsibility. Within its clean, cold sanitary chambers all of the good things for the refreshment of the guests wait invitingly until the time for their serving.

If the visit is for an evening at bridge, the salad, the delicate sweet sandwiches wrapped closely in a dampened cloth, the whipped cream for the coffee or the cocoa, the pressed fruit juices for punch have all been prepared in the morning, and placed in the refrigerator, where they will ripen and mature to the point of perfection. It is the work of but a few moments after the game, to cover the card tables with attractive, colorful tea cloths and set the good things before the guests.

Week-end Stocks Preserved
Or, perhaps it is a week-end party for which one is preparing. Then the refrigerator is stocked with the more perishable, delicate food products. Soup to be served clear and hot, or cold and jellied; salad dressing which may be varied in a number of ways; meat, green vegetables, milk and cream, not forgetting a small bottle of the extra heavy kind for whipping. Even the batter for the Sunday morning waffles may be whipped together and will be all the lighter and more fluffy for a night in the refrigerator.

Meats may be cooked, or not, and placed in covered receptacles. Au gratin potatoes, or similar dishes, are quite as fine when reheated; so they may be entirely finished and set away on the top shelf of the refrigerator. Two desserts, one to be served hot, one cold, will be welcome; and appetizers, salad materials and other accessories may be made ready and stored away in covered pans or bowls in some cold corner of the electric ice-box.

CHANGES WILL BE PROPOSED IN BUS LAWS

PORT WORTH, Aug. 18.—Important amendments to the Texas motor bus law will be proposed in the forty-first legislature by Representative J. C. Duvall, who was re-nominated without opposition to the recent Tarrant county Democratic primary. Duvall said he had made a careful study of the provisions of the bus law and that he also had represented bus companies as an attorney.

One of the amendments he will advocate is the changing of jurisdiction from county courts to justice courts. Under the law as now written, Duvall contends that there is too much delay and that it is almost impossible to get witnesses to attend when a case is called for trial due to the fact that in practically all cases witnesses are passengers. He believes that by placing jurisdiction in justice courts it will be possible to have speedy trials.

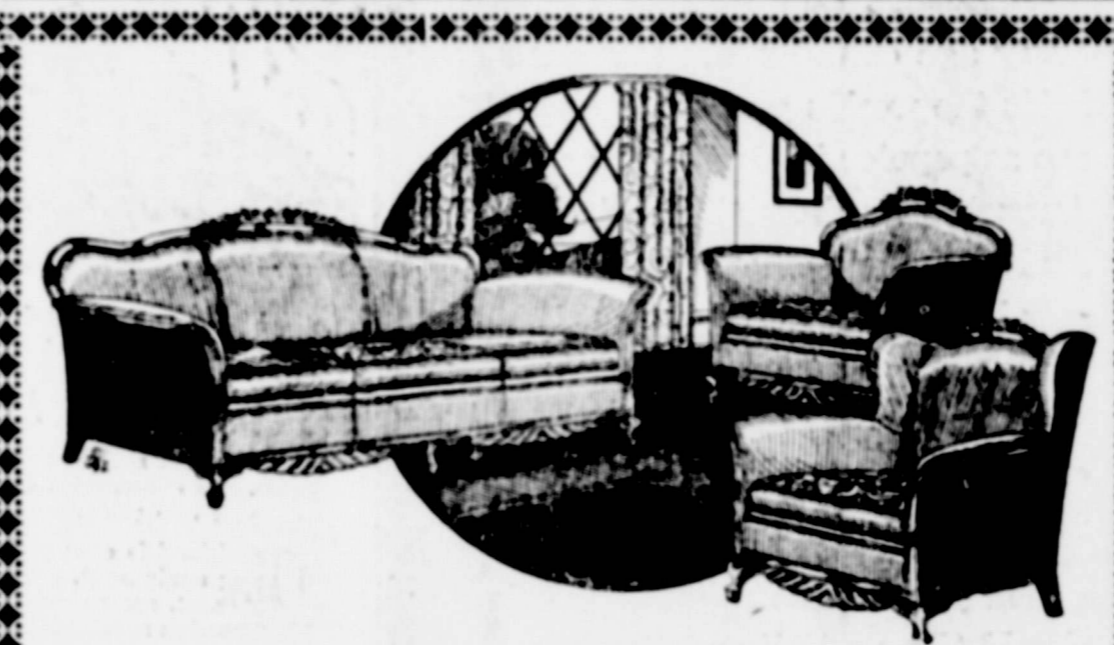

INTERSTATE BUS PARLEY TO BE HELD

AUSTIN, Aug. 18.—Call for a conference of railroad commissioners, motor bus directors and bus line operators of seven southwestern states, to be held at Amarillo Sept. 6, for the purpose of discussing means of regulating interstate motor bus traffic in the absence of federal legislation, has been issued by the railroad commission.

The states to be included in the conference in addition to Texas, are Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, New Mexico, Colorado and Arizona. Regulations will probably be drafted by the conference for recommendation as to the character of federal regulations deemed necessary and for submission to the various congressmen from the states represented.

Pending the enactment of suitable federal laws, an effort may be made to agree on a system of reciprocity among adjacent states in granting or refusing interstate permits to inter-granting or refusing permits to interstate lines.

It is felt by the Texas railroad commission that the interstate phase of the bus traffic is one of the main problems in state regulation.

OF A SOCIAL NATURE

Miss Linouse Campbell and
M. B. White are Married.

Culminating a beautiful love romance that began when both were students at Southern Methodist University, a beautiful morning church wedding was solemnized at 10 o'clock Saturday in the First Presbyterian church here, when the pastor, Rev. Bruce C. Boney, spoke the words that united in wedlock Miss Linouse Campbell, daughter of Mr. B. White, of Duncan, Okla., and Miss Linouse Campbell, of Abilene, daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. P. Oscar Campbell, of that city, both formerly popular residents of Cisco.

Coming to Cisco with her parents when a child, the bride was reared to womanhood in this city, therefore it was fitting that her nuptials should be celebrated in this, the home of her childhood, where reside those who have known and loved this beautiful girl, who has budded and bloomed in Cisco's beautiful garden of beautiful women.
Her life friend, intimate and roommate at S. M. U., Miss Zella
Blanche McClinton, Alpha Omicron
Pi, was chosen as bride's maid, while the groom's attendant, Hugh W. Ross, Jr., of Baird, Kappa Sigma, was his college and fraternity friend. The ushers, Earl Bacaus, of Ernest, Crawford, were also chosen from college friends of the contracting pair, and of kindred college fraternities, as the groom was an S. M. U. Kappa Sigma, while the bride is the Delta Gamma and Zeta Phi Eta societies.

For the wedding ceremony the altar of the church was beautifully and artistically decorated, with smilax, pot and tropical plants, presenting a most beautiful and appropriate setting for the nuptials of this popular young couple. Preceding the ceremony Miss Evee White, rendered the pipe organ prelude, "Thine Own," by Gustav Lange, as the church auditorium filled with numerous friends of the bride and her parents. The prenuptial solo, "I Love You Truly," was beautifully sung by Mrs. Ben McClinton, one of Cisco's best voices.

At the "Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, by Miss White, was beautifully rendered, the wedding party approached the altar where the minister was in waiting. The bride's maid, Miss Zella Blanche McClinton, one of Cisco's best bouquet of roses, followed by the ring bearer, little Raymond A.
(Brother) Williams, Jr., led the brideal party to the altar. Next came the groom and best man from the side entrance of the church, who joined the bride, entering the front of the church on the arm of her father, P. W. Campbell, who gave her in marriage. It was amidst such an appropriate setting that the minister read the beautiful marriage ceremony while the organist rendered "To a Wild Rose," by Mar-dowell. The recessional, Mendel-sohn's "Wedding March," was played as the bridal party left the church, followed by the parents of the bride and wedding guests.

The bride's maid was gowned in a beautiful yellow georgette street dress, with hat to match, and carried a beautiful arm bouquet of white roses, while the bride's costume was a lovely creation of pure white crepe de chine, perfectly plain but handsomely designed, with hat of same material. The bride's bouquet was a beautiful creation of the florist's art, composed of pink and white roses. The groom and best man wore the conventional black. The going away costume of the bride was a navy blue ensemble with hat and shoes to match.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left on a brief bridal tour of two weeks, at the conclusion of which they will be at home at Duncan, after September 1.
The bride, one of Cisco's fairest young women, is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Campbell, known and beloved by all Cisco people, where she has lived since childhood. She was valedictorian of the graduating class of Cisco high school in 1924, a graduate of the Southern Methodist University of the class of 1928, with the A. B. degree. The groom is also a graduate of the S. M. U.,
and a former student of Simmons University.

Mr. White, who has won such a charming woman as his life's companion, is a native of Lamkin, Texas, but is now a resident of Duncan, where he is connected with the Magnolia Petroleum Co.
Among the out of town guests who were here for the nuptials were Mr.
and Mrs. George W. Fry, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Campbell and little daughter, Mary Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Joe A. White, Mrs. R. M. Wolfe,
Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Emmons, of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. A. Mitchell, of Moran; Mr. and Mrs. E. L.
Jackson, of Albany; Dowell Cunningham, of Roxton; Earl Bacaus, of Frisco; Ernest Crawford, of Paris;
Hugh W. Ross, Jr., of Baird.

Names of Candidates for Nine Offices on Democratic Runoff Ballot; Tom Love Is Left Off

Names of candidates for only nine offices will be on the Democratic runoff ballot in the runoff primary next Saturday. Of these six offices are either vacant or held by incumbents in Howard county will begin to show a big increase, the members of the commissioners' court authorized the sheriff to start a chain gang for those who refuse to work and for those who are being out lined in jail. It was also suggested that finger prints be taken of all non-paying charge-taxes rounded up in the hope of capturing criminals wanted at other points.

The announcement that the chain gang is going to be instituted will be welcome news since all realize the city and county are going to be overrun with crooks of all stripes as long as there is an active jail development program in effect. They are looking for cash money and follow the old fields to pay off the workers, most of whom make big money and spend it freely.

By starting the chain gang operation the city will be able to get rid of many crooks before they get a foothold here. Some of them can't afford to have their finger prints taken since it would mean their return to the penitentiaries or jails. And many habitual loafers are going to give the city a wide berth when they find they are going to be compelled to earn what they eat.

77TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED BY Hoover But He Won't Serve Full Term; Movie Doom Is Forecast

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 18. — Antireligion gathered here for a national convention have drawn the following predictions from the stars.

Hoover will be elected but he won't serve a full term.

Smith hasn't an Oriental's opportunity.

The movies are doomed.

Adm. Clegg Tammey would have studied Shakespeare whether he wanted to marry Josephine Landon or not. He had to.

Movements of the planetary bodies and their effects on the destinies of the human race were explained by the astrologers from the roof garden of the Whitehall Hotel.

There were arguments and discussions on technical causes for phenomena, but members of the association would not become involved over the presidential election.

Respective harangues of Governor Alfred E. Smith and Herbert Hoover show too definitely what the results will be.

Kevah Dee Griffin, New York book shop keeper, thinks Smith is "simply wonderful."

She is sorry he has not so much time and effort into his campaign because Saturn transmits over his Venus and Mercury.

This means, she says, religious difficulty and doom for presidential aspirations.

"But I certainly did want Al Smith to win," she said softly.

Smith's failure, however, doesn't worry anti-Volsteaders, she continued.

Trump, she said, has moved from Paris into Arca. The watery sunset that passed with the dawn yesterday. Along with the darkness, just dimming here, way to a particularly busy time of thinking. Post brain-work now comes into ascendancy with the passing of the feet's reign. Mrs. Griffin found.

Under the new aspect, the forecasts will get their trial, she said. As for the movie actors—they had best go back to the form. She concluded. Their ten-year aerial ascendancy has vanished.

BOLL WEEVILS RUIN COTTON OF CISCO FARMER

C. C. Carey, who lives a few miles north out of Cisco, was here Saturday and stated that there were plenty of boll weevils in his community. "Very few blooms can be seen in the cotton," Carey said. "I have eight acres of cotton that look as fine as one could wish to see, but there is not a bloom in the field, and only a few bolls at the bottom of the plants, which are waist high. I don't think the right acres will yield a bale of cotton. My experience as a farmer convinces me that if the cotton crop is not made before the last of July there will be no crop. All the small bolls I have examined have been punctured, and these will never mature."

"Recently I visited my sons in Mitchell county, where I found the crops were fine, but young. If the weevils don't destroy their crops they will produce splendid yields. They have no weevils at this time, but are troubled some with cotton lice and a few boll worms that are damaging the crops to some extent."

Another party stated that pink boll worms are plentiful in the cotton fields in the Dublin community. He stated that he had gathered a handful in one field.

HONEST GOWNS MUST MATCH THE HOME

PARIS, Aug. 18.—If woman's place is in the home—as many men still seem to think—she must have harmonious hostess gowns, say the chic Parisian couturiers who feel that women as homemakers can do much by giving frequent thought to harmony between their homes and what they wear in them.

The idea of a hostess dress designed to harmonize with the interior of the home, although not entirely new is now being carried to a high degree of perfection. Line and composition have as big a part to play in it as color and tone. For instance a room has

CABINET MEETINGS TO BE PEPPED UP IF SMITH IS PRESIDENT

York Governor, Like Lincoln, Noted for His Humor But Is Not Wise-Cracker; Once Amateur Actor

Smith Helper

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 18.—If Governor Alfred E. Smith becomes president of the United States, cabinet meetings will become interesting affairs—to those who are privileged to attend.

The Democratic nominee has a liveliness of expression, a pointedness of phrase, a talent for apt and homely comparisons in conversations with close friends which are not revealed in his state papers and formal addresses. Though they frequently creep into his impromptu speeches along with his art of mimicry.

Only a suggestion of this, if any, will get into his formal campaign speeches in the next few weeks. None of it would be heard publicly afterward if he became president. But cabinet meetings are private affairs, and often sprinkled with humor, according to reports. No record is kept. Few cabinet officers ever tell afterward.

Once Amateur Actor

Smith once was an amateur actor. It is his "accident," long out of fashion in the theater, in which his humor comes out. Some examples from one newspaper conference are offered. New and fresh bits are heard day after day.

Someone suggested the statement he is planning to give out for Sunday papers. The governor gave his views on Sunday papers.

"The boy comes along and thrusts a bale of paper on the steps and you load it into the house and by the time you have finished reading everything in it that is not news, it's the next day," he said.

In recalling his experiences in North Carolina on his trip this spring, the governor was reminded of a doorman at one of the hotels.

"Why the doorman at the Astor would look like an undertaker compared with him," he commented.

Someone said something about a Republican leader.

"I guess he's telling Hoover how

YOUNG SWIMMERS MAKE RECORD SWIM

he'll carry New York," the governor said.

His Humor Broad

Smith has been accused of being a "wise-cracker." His humor is broad, depending somewhat upon exaggeration, but it rises above the "wise-cracker" type by a touch that comes from a deeper understanding of human nature, the result of long experience with all sorts of people.

Lincoln often brightened up cabinet meetings by his humor.

Cabinet meetings are not always the serious affairs they are supposed to be. One whole cabinet session during the Harding administration was devoted to a discussion of dogs, when department heads argued whether a mail carrier in a national park should be allowed to have a dog.

PROSPECT FOR ELLIOTT WELL APPEARS GOOD

MORAN, Aug. 18.—The West Oil Division has been working this week to get some water cut off in the Ross Elliott well six miles east of Moran and about 10 miles north-east of Cisco. After the 6-inch casing was set some water rose in the hole and the crew has been spending the past few days trying to cut it off. They were forced to pull the 6-inch casing and are resetting the 8-inch casing, which they will leave in the hole.

The well made a good showing two weeks ago when it was drilled into the Caddo line at a depth of 2864 feet, sending the fluid over the top of the derrick at intervals. The well looks good to the oil men here and Moran is expecting a good producer. The Humble people have completed a pipe line to the well, running it about three miles from the three pool to take care of the oil. The storage tanks are completed, and so soon as the water has been shut off, the well will

GRAY WOLF IS TRAPPED IN WATERMELON PATCH

CHOCOS PLAINS, Aug. 18.—E. Brumblow, federal trapper, reported this week the thirteenth gray wolf which he captured in the nearby localities. The last catch, from standpoint of place, was unusual. He was caught in a watermelon patch on the Harrell farm about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, where he had for some time been jeering and feasting on the juicy melons belonging in part of the traps on the farm.

CISCO'S CLAIM

LIT DE POOL IS UPHELD

Alfred Allpin, director of athletics of the Kansas University, was here Friday to inspect the Lake Cisco swimming pool, which is reputed to be the largest artificial pool in the world.

He was accompanied by a party of friends and a number of the local press.

PHONOGRAPH AND $75 FINE

In the world today in acts of territory, Alpin said, "I understand that this claim has been established by an act authority than the Gunter Malters Co. manufacturers and owners of bathing establishments, and they know what they are talking about. This certainly looks in line with all the bathing and swimming resorts of the country, and I think they are entitled to their claim."

But Cisco's claim is distinguished in the aquatic line does not rest exclusively on having the largest swimming pool in the world, for the man-made body of water that has been impounded in Lake Cisco, beside Chico, as one of the most progressive cities of its size, is not in the world—certainly not in the Southwest. I have seen nothing to equal it in terms of Chico's claim and environs."

F. J. CLARK QUITE ILL. F. J. Clark, one of Chico's most elderly citizens, is reported to be quite ill at his home on East North street. He is now in his 89th year and has been quite feeble for several years past. He is the father of John G. Clark, of the Apex Printery, and is a Confederate veteran.

GREENVILLE CONSTABLE CATCHES NEGRO HERE

The constable of Greenville was here Saturday afternoon in quest of J. H. Jones, negro, who escaped from him several days ago and was traced to Chico. Calling Constable C. S. Loney to his assistance the negro was located at the West Texas Cattle Co. station and placed under arrest. Jones was wanted, the Greenville officer stated, on a charge of unlawfully riding a train. Jones paid off, but the officer's mileage and the constable's position, and other accessories had to be taken care of, and when the bill of costs was made out Jones cleared himself of $32. After collecting the money the visiting officer departed for home.

Vitaphone, Latest Device for Movies to Record Actors' Words, to Be Installed Here at Palace

She's a Winner

Step up and meet pretty Ruth Harschler. She captured first prize in the annual "perfect back" contest of the National Progressive Chiropractic Association held at Los Angeles recently.

Cisco will have "talkies." Steps are already under way looking toward the installation at the Palace theater of the Vitaphone, whereby the characters in motion pictures are heard by the audience, the same as in stage plays. Manager K. N. Greer said Saturday.

Preliminary steps are being taken now for the installation of the Vitaphone in our theater," Greer said. "Just when our patrons can hear this new and marvelous device is a matter yet undecided. If we had our way about it, it would be only a week or two but things ever which we have no control will make it somewhat later. However, I am reasonably sure that it will be around the first of the new year.

"We don't want to make any rash promises that we will have this synchronism in 30 days, or any definite time, and then have to apologize if we don't. This revolutionary addition to the movies has swept the country in the past few months. As a result there are several thousand theaters throughout the country that have their orders in ahead of us and we must await our turn.

"We may not be the first theater in this part of West Texas to add this feature for our patrons but we are going to be among the first. The way the big theaters in the big cities have been going since the Vitaphone has assured it of permanency. We have always tried to give our patrons the best and that is why we are adopting the Vitaphone early.

"Most of our patrons are already acquainted with the Vitaphone—or at least know what it is. It is the synchronizing of sight and sound. By it the audience will hear the words that are spoken by the actors, so that subtitles will be almost done away with. The audience will be better able to follow the course of the play as nothing will be left to the imagination."

In a recent address before theater owners of Great Britain at London, Jesse L. Lasky, vice president of the Paramount company, predicted that within two or three years 20,000 theaters in the United States would have these sound pictures and that within five years no silent pictures would be made.

"We are planning now a film of the big American theatrical success, 'Barbecue,' in which you will hear on the screen at the same time as you see," Lasky said.

"How dumb the pictures of yesterday will seem. The change is stupendous. Things we do today will be out of date."

"I suddenly awaken to this new
