Eng Tiger Team Will Invade Lobo Lair Without First Down Made Against It in 3 Contests

'CHIEF' BROWN STRENGTHENS BADGER TEAM

The Randolph Badgers received a strong reinforcement for its fighting line Monday when "Chief" Howard Brown, former Lobo captain, enrolled at that college for the ensuing scholastic year. "Chief" Brown was immediately pressed with the maroon and white uniform, and added to the membership of this fighting football squad, where he will doubtless be seen in the next game in which the Badgers will engage. Coach Garrett reports that his Badgers are in good shape following their brilliant victory over the senior college team when they defeated McMurry Indians of Abilene at Chesley field Saturday in one of the best and hardest fought gridiron plays ever staged in Cisco. Several of the Badgers suffered injuries in the game, Ward, with a shoulder injury, and Wax, who is straining an injured eye, were the most serious, but Garrett stated they would likely be in shape to play their places when the next game is called. The other injuries were very slight.

El Paso Post Sports Editor.

EL PASO, Oct. 2.—Looking forward to one of their hardest games of the season, the El Paso high school Tigers, their goal line uncrossed in three games they have played to date, will entertain for Cisco Thursday to play the Big Dam Lobos Friday.

Coaches Ed Oile and Clyde Water have been pointing their Benav warriors to the coming fray and hope to direct the El Paso team to its fourth straight victory. Last year the Tigers and Lobos played at the El Paso high school stadium and the final score was 13 to 6 in favor of the Tigers. For three quarters of the game the Tigers battled the invaders to a standstill. The winning touchdown came in the last quarter. Coach Oile admits that the Tigers played over their heads in this game. "We met a team that was at least three touchdowns better but we made as hard a fight as we did at any time during the year while the Lobos sort of let down at times. There is reason for the El Paso coaches being optimistic this season. Although the Tigers have yet to back up against a real hard opponent, they have shown enough ability to make the old timers here say it is the best eleven in the school's history. They opened their season by scoring a 38 to 0 victory over Artesia. Their next game was with Roswell, a team that beat the Tigers 19 to 2 last year. The Bengals won by a score of 31 to 0. Before a crowd of 10,000 last Saturday night in the first night game ever held in El Paso, the Tigers defeated the Sul Ross sub-college team by a score of 26 to 0. In the three games none of the Tigers' opponents have made a first down against the El Paso line. The Tigers have a veteran backfield this season, and although the line is not as valuable as their replacements have more than satisfied the coaches. Merrill (Nig) Osborn is the outstanding man in the backfield. He is a co-captain and has been running at halfback. He has been doing most of the ball totting and has been the most consistent ground gainer. "Wee Willie" Schreffler is calling signals again this year and doing a good job of it. Although the smallest man on the team he is one of the farthest fighters and one of the best gainers on the team. Marcus Sims, 1927 letterman, is paired at halfback with Osborn, and Art Bothe, 1925 captain, has returned to school this year year to play fullback. He was the outstanding man on the eleven two years ago. The flank positions are taken care of by Louis Hatfield, 1927 captain, and Bill Coleman, who lettered last year as a backfield man. Although the Tigers suffered a big loss by the departure of Milton Warden, giant tackle, by graduation, they have found solace in the addition of his younger brother, Homer. Warden has been filling the shoes of his brother in fine form and the other tackle position is being well cared for by "Red" Cobbs, a newcomer. Tiger and Owen are the guards on the team. Both were regulars last year and have been helping make the line as solid as a brick wall this year. Bill Sullivan, husky lineman, and co-captain, is taking care of the center job and the coaches are not worried over this berth. The coaches will take about 22 players to Cisco. The team will be accompanied by Herman Loper, student athletic manager.

POUND BASS DEAD ON SURFACE

Contrary to the practice and procedure of catching big fish at Lake Cisco a 10 pound bass was taken from the surface of the water—dead—yesterday by Jack Farley and J. S. Law who were both working over the old boat landing when the big fish was first seen floating toward the shore. According to all physical appearances it had not been dead very long. Several theories have been advanced concerning the deceased fish. One is that it was hooked in the dorsal fin region by some fisherman who failed to complete his strike. Another one advanced by Slap S. B. Wright is that it had just normally died. The head has been preserved and will be placed on exhibit in one of the down town store windows. Claim is made that it represents one of the largest fish of its kind ever taken out of the lake which proves there are plenty of big ones there waiting to be caught.

H. C. BAGWELL FATE PLACED IN JURY HANDS

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 2.—The jury in the case of H. C. Bagwell, former Breckenridge and Cisco dairyman charged with murder, was deliberating on his fate this afternoon. The case went to the jury during the noon hour and it is expected to return a verdict late this afternoon. Bagwell, now a resident of Sweetwater, is charged with the murder of Otha "Peg Leg" Lane, Texas driver, who called at his home about midnight of July 28 and there sustained gunshot wounds from which he died almost instantly. Late Monday the court concluded the examination of witnesses, one having presented nine written affidavits and his wife entered evidence in his plea of self defense. The burden of the evidence of the state witnesses was that Lane was out looking for a party on the night of the killing, accompanied by a second man. About 1 o'clock they called at the Bagwell home, thinking to find the party wanted there, that an argument ensued and Bagwell shot Lane dead. The jurymen are: Claud Reed, W. W. Scott, D. C. Gray, R. L. Kirk, B. R. Flynn, D. K. Lee, Dave Livingston, I. I. Lingie, S. B. Kirkland, D. F. Bryant, Ira Lynch and S. A. Reynolds.

Trio Held in $325,000 Bail

They don't look particularly dangerous, these three Chicago misses, I. to r., Florence Morton, Irene Valentine and Marjorie Roberts, but more than a quarter of a million dollars stands between them and freedom. The trio was bound over to the grand jury on numerous charges of robbing taxi drivers at the point of guns.

EMPIRE STATE DEMOS CHOOSE F. ROOSEVELT

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Franklin D. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of navy in the administration of President Wilson and the Democratic vice presidential nominee in 1920, was unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for the governorship of New York by the state convention of that party today.

SEN. NORRIS TO ANNOUNCE HIS CHOICE LATER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Senator George W. Norris, progressive Republican of Nebraska, may publicly declare his choice for the presidency after October 20 but not before. He made this statement today while preparing to leave for northwestern states to speak in behalf of progressive senators seeking reelection. He left no doubt that thus far the utterances of Governor Smith are far more acceptable to him than those of Herbert Hoover.

WISE SUGGESTION OF CISCO WOMAN MERITS QUICK ACTION

Mrs. William Reagan, lifelong advocate of city beautification and general civic progress, thinks Cisco should immediately take steps to provide a really worth while public park. In a letter to the Daily News Mrs. Reagan says: "I should like to see Cisco have a beautiful, a serviceable and centrally located park—a park large enough for our people to really enjoy themselves. Cisco should provide for the future now by securing available land for a city park. One of the most desirable places, I think is on Broadway. These lots could be made into a beauty spot and a city park that would rival the Alamo Plaza of San Antonio. MRS. WILLIAM REAGAN."

U. S. WON'T LET REPARATIONS GO FOR DEBTS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The United States has no intention of linking the inter-allied debts with the German reparations as suggested in a speech by Premier Painleve of France, it was said in behalf of President Coolidge today. This government will not countenance any attempt, direct or indirect, to saddle any portion of the German reparations on American taxpayers, it was said.

WIFE JAILED FOR SLAYING OF HUSBAND

McALLEN, Oct. 2.—Mrs. C. H. Fry, 38, wife of a well known truck and cotton farmer eight miles south of here, shot and killed her husband this morning. Marital differences are believed to have been responsible. A woman cotton picker heard shots and called Deputy Sheriff John Bales who lodged Mrs. Fry in the Hidalgo county jail at Edinburg. An examining trial will be held this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Pet Haley.

EASTLAND CO. FALLING DOWN ON STORM AID

For the first time it appears that the people of Eastland county will fail to meet the appeal of the Red Cross for funds to help a worthy cause—storm relief. The quota of the Eastland county chapter was set at $300 by the divisional headquarters. To date only $35 has been pledged—a little more than one-tenth of the goal. At first Eastland county was asked to contribute $150 for the aid of the thousands left homeless in Porto Rico, Florida and other states by the hurricane that swept a part of the West Indies and the southeastern part of the United States. When it was learned the extent of the storm's damage was over twice what it was at first thought, the quotas of all chapters was doubled. Contributions may be made either through the Daily News or Mrs. Don Sival's. Contributions to the Red Cross fund to date are: Cisco Daily News, $5.00; George B. Smith, $3.00; C. T. Myers, $3.00; Nimrod Sunday school, $2.00; Levis Lee Lankford, $1.00; Cash, $1.00; Elizabeth Le Venax, $1.00; J. E. Laugh, $1.00; Tom Polley, $1.00; R. N. Ponder, $1.00; Dr. T. T. Roberts, $1.00; F. D. Wright, $1.00; George P. Fee, $1.00; E. P. Crawford, $1.00; W. W. Wallace, $1.00; J. B. Cate, $1.00; J. E. Spencer, $1.00; Mrs. Don Sival's, $1.00; Mrs. J. L. Shepherd, $1.00.

ALABAMA G.O.P. CHIEF REBUKED BY DR. WORK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Dr. Robert Work, chairman of the Republican national committee, today reluctantly made public a telegram he sent to Oliver D. Street, national committeeman from Alabama, censuring him for distributing 200,000 anti-Catholic circulars in connection with the presidential campaign. Work did not make the telegram public until word reached him that Street had denied receiving such communication.

COMMITTEE IN FRAT PROBE AT T. U. IS NAMED

resumed concentration of banking resources in the centers may seriously affect many of the independent banks. One of the chief reasons for this concentration, he explained, is the improved highways and marvelously improved methods of transportation and communication which have taken place in recent years. These changes are not alone in banking; they are in many other lines, notably in merchandising. He alluded to the tremendous growth in chain store sales. The resources of all the banks of the United States have gained more than 300 per cent in less than twenty years, and this movement has continued to gather momentum in the last few years, although since 1921 the number of banks have decreased over 3,000," he said. "The total resources are now slightly less than seventy billion dollars, a sum never before reached in this or any other country. "Never before has the public owned so large an interest in the banks as now. Ownership of the banks by a few is passing to many. Stocks of banks as well as other corporations was never so widely distributed as now. I think also that the standards in banking as well as everything else are on a higher plane than ever known before."

KANSAN WILL CONTINUE TO KNOCK SMITH

EMPORIA, Kan., Oct. 2.—William Allen White, noted editor, announced upon his arrival at his home here that he would continue his attacks upon Governor Al Smith's record. He will do so as a lance, however, and not under the direction of the Republican national committee, he said.

ITALIAN KING TO ABDICATE, SAYS REPORT

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—The Communist newspaper, Weltamabend, today published a Paris report that King Victor Emmanuel of Italy plans to abdicate and that Premier Mussolini has in mind a coup d'etat that would exclude Crown Prince Humbert from succeeding to the Italian throne because of the latter's anti-Fascist leanings. Victor Emmanuel is reported to have been embittered by the action of the Fascist grand council in assuming the right of naming a successor to the throne.

VARIATIONS.

A German "institute for breeding," founded by former Kaiser Wilhelm, produces many scientific elties, including yellow rats, blue monkeys and er strange departures from established types of animal and plant. The director speaks of 1,000 animal variations, and 40,000 varieties of dandelions, produced by crossing old and new breeds. All this proves again that life is not a collection of fixed types but a flowing stream capable of taking on ever new forms. Man, learning new things about the game, can control the stream to some extent for his own purposes. Nature, however, will continue to do most of the controlling, experimenting and changing, in the future as she has done in the past. And probably Nature knows better than man what she is about.

TROLLEY COOPERATION.

If there was ever any actual "public-be-damned" policy on the part of street railway companies in this country, that policy does not exist today, remarks R. P. Stevens, president of the American Electric Railway association. The nation's railway men, in convention, echo his sentiments. The attitude of trolley operators has changed for the better, and the attitude of the public has changed with it. Perhaps both sides were equally at fault, and there has been equal progress with both, in good will and in seeing what is the fair and wise thing to do. This improvement has been manifested clearly in the course of the competition of recent years between street cars and motor busses. The first impulse of most communities was to welcome this new form of transportation and use it as a club on the street cars. But they quickly found that it was not an unmixed blessing, and often was unjust to the established system. The tendency now is to tolerate such competition only in special cases, and to prefer the operation of busses by the street car systems themselves, under public supervision, as feeders for their electric lines.

BEHAVING FOR LINDY.

An amusing paragraph gleaned from a news story about the unheralded appearance of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh at a certain airport recently, is worth repeating. There is always a crowd, big or little, hanging around airports these days. People want to see the propellers go round before they take an air ride. Now and then such crowds are unexpectedly rewarded by having an air celebrity drop into their midst. When the celebrity happens to be Lindbergh, the people are particularly joyful. They crowd around, and police have to be called upon to protect America's favorite aviator. The paragraph referred to tells how the police "gathered the crowd neatly behind ropes and cables stretched near the two planes and warned, like parents, that Lindbergh would go away again if they didn't behave." It worked. People who have long since worried about threats made in the name of Santa Claus were quite willing to behave in order to prolong Lindy's presence before them. And, like a lot of the Santa Claus threats, this one wasn't strictly fair. The flyer was going away anyhow, in a very few minutes. The best their good behavior could do for them was to insure his going with a farewell smile rather than an anxious frown.

NERVOUS HEADACHE

Kentuckian Tells How Taking Black-Draught Relieved His Pains and How Well He Feels Now.

Waynesburg, Ky.—How a few doses of Theodor's Black-Draught brought relief to a man who had been suffering from frequent spells of severe headache, is told below in the statement of Mr. Charles P. Todd, of Estaburg, near this place. "I was suffering with nervous headaches about once a week I would have these headaches, and have to quit work, and go to bed for about twenty-four hours. I would have pains in my neck, and right behind my right ear. "A merchant at Estaburg saw me one day when I was suffering, and told me to try taking Black-Draught, which I did. "I took a package home that night, and took a few doses. It relieved me. From that time on, I would take Black-Draught as soon as I felt like I was going to have one of those headaches—and they wouldn't come on. "Every few weeks, I take three or four doses of Black-Draught, and I feel so well, and do my work, and don't lose any more time with headaches. "I haven't had a headache in six months. HOUSTON WINS AGAIN, GOING AHEAD OF FOE

HOUSTON, Oct. 2.—The Houston Buffaloes, Texas League champions, passed the Birmingham Barons, monarchs of the Southern Association, in their fight for honors in the Dixie series by a 5-4 victory here Monday. It was the third straight victory for the Buffaloes on their home grounds after dropping the first two games at Birmingham. The series will be resumed in the Alabama metropolis Wednesday. If a seventh game is necessary to determine the championship it will also be played on the Barons' grounds, it having been determined by the toss of a coin. The Buffaloes got away in an early lead here Monday but the Barons kept plugging away until it was necessary for "Wild Bill" Hallahan to again subdue them. The score—H., 14, E. NEW USES FOR X-RAY. The X-ray machine is about to extend its field of usefulness. A portable outfit was exhibited recently at the American Electric Railway association show. Its various suggested uses included the location of plumbing pipes in walls and under floors, the location of suitable places in walls for attaching picture hooks, and the examination of baggage by customs inspectors. Other uses no doubt will be discovered as the machine is used. The device weighs only 30 pounds and is contained in a box 7 by 8 by 10 inches. Its inventor tried it out in his own house and found it very satisfactory in locating the exact position of the pipes he wanted to study. He was able to make some changes and repairs after tearing up a minimum amount of flooring. The joker may say it makes just one more tool for the plumber to forget, but that is a time-worn and unfounded bit of humor which may be ignored. The X-ray and fluoroscope have been very beneficial in the hands of physicians using them in behalf of human health. If they can be adapted to work on the intricate insides of inanimate buildings, that is a fine development. BERLIN NEEDS AUTOS. The city of Berlin, Germany, has a traffic problem, according to the chief engineer of that city's street railway system. But the parking of automobiles does not figure in it at all. "In Berlin a city of 4,000,000," the engineer explains, "we have less than 80,000 automobiles." Berlin has much to look forward to. Life without its parking problem would be very tame for citizens in large American communities. And parking isn't the only problem that comes with the multiplication of automobiles. Speeders and dawdlers, road hogs and intoxicated drivers are a few of the disadvantages that trail along with the many advantages of a motorized city. But if Berlin has

SYNOPSIS

Adele Dayton, famous musical comedy star playing in "Powder My Back," has no serious photographs made of her posing in her bath, to be used by publicity pursues. One of these pictures appears in her home town paper in Brookton, Ia.

"No, thank you," Adele smiled.
"I can't drink. I have to watch my throat, you know—it's not any too good for it." Adele knew very well that under other circumstances, she might have taken a nicely frosted cocktail or something, but the surprising manner of doing things grated on her nerves. She hated that idea of offering her a drink out of a flask. Hated the idea that a man should put on his "good" front before the public, and then slyly wink at his own little follies.

CHAPTER 2 Continued

At Adele's door it was time to make her appearance.
Renee touched her mistress here and there with the powder puff, and the blood back to smile admirably upon her.

She found various people who remembered her, but few whom she actually had ever thought of again, after having left Brookton. She didn't mind being looked at in the least, and, as everybody seemed fascinated by the gown, she displayed it.

"I've never seen anything quite so braten in all my life," one murmured to her neighbor. "Really, I call it vulgar—that dress. She told me she got it in Paris."

"And now for a wonderful old-fashioned party." She started down the steps with the famous "promenade walk"
she always used on the stage.

"I'm really stunned. But do tell me, Miss Dayton—are all these stories about the duels over you in Paris true?"

As she descended the last step to the landing Mazie rushed forward and greeted her enthusiastically.

"Yes," Adele acquiesced. "I was playing over there this winter, you know—before we opened in New York."

Now Adele, talking with John, walked over to the big punch bowl that almost filled the dining room table. John introduced her to several newcomers, and offered her a glass of punch. It was badly made, with a seeming shortage of flavoring matter. A staid-looking man who had been talking to some of the others came up to Adele. He remembered having seen her in a lower grade than himself in school. Oh, yes, he was in the wheat business now, and had raised a family of his own—married Betty Parker—perhaps Adele remembered her. Adele didn't, but she nodded sweetly.

"No, please, Mazie," Adele put her hand on her sister's shoulder.
"I really don't like bridge—I scarcely ever play cards. I haven't much time for that, you know. I'd much rather look on, if you don't mind."

"I have a little of the very best here," he revealed a silver hipflask. "Thought you might like a little."

"Of course not," Mazie returned to her game and picked up the cards that she had been dealt. The bidding began. Suddenly Adele smiled. She watched Mazie and her partner out of the corner of her eye. She could see quite easily that Mazie was doing a clumsy bit of cheating. She noted that the player to Mazie's right had bid high. Mazie wanted the bid and had two bids in her hand, Adele noted—hearts and diamonds. And so Mazie was fluttering her hand over her heart, and then she touched her diamond ring. Her partner got the bid in hearts.

WINTER SWIMS
AT LAKE CISCO
BEING PLANNED

Something new in the field of aquatics, particularly in the state of Texas, will be tried this fall and winter at the Lake Cisco swimming pool when a Brownie club will be organized by J. S. Law, who has planned to remain in the employ of the Lake Cisco Amusement Co. this coming year.

The purpose of this club will be to promote year round swimming regardless of weather conditions, exploding the popular theory that outdoor swimming can be only included in and enjoyed through the summer months. Climatic conditions during the fall, winter and spring in Texas are ideal for outdoor swimming for those who swim for health, said Mr. Law, who has sponsored the Brownie club idea with considerable success in other parts of the country, particularly in the northern states where winter is considerable interest has already been aroused and over 20 applications have been received from local swimmers. The club members will swim regularly at least three times each week and a series of special Sunday programs is being arranged for those who enjoy looking on with overcasts.

SAN ANTONIO PUTTING ON FINAL TOUCHES FOR LEGIONAIRESEN

Between 100 and 150 Bands and Drum Corps Will Vie for Honors; Louisville Seeks 1929 Convention

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 2.—With close to 1,000 members of the American Legion and its Auxiliary already registered, preparations for the great World War veterans' reunion started off with a rush for the final week before the opening of the assemblage next Monday, Oct. 8.

Wheels of the complex convention organization, already whirling at high speed, shot up to new heights as Legion committees throughout Texas and at San Antonio bore down on final arrangements for the accommodation of the 100,000 visitors expected at the convention.

Meantime Legion delegations all over the country, bands and drum corps, drill teams and rifle teams, were reported getting their special trains, auto caravans and their bling, auto all decorated and dressed up ready for the great invasion of 1929 into the territory where hundreds of thousands of the veterans' festival in the days of 1917 and 1918.

Negotiations First on Ground.

Advance representatives of cities desiring to entertain the 1929 and 1930 national conventions and of candidates with their lightning rods up for the affairs within the various organizations, meetings have been already held and started their bling activities. First of the cities seeking to lead the 1929 convention to get its men on the ground was Louisville, Ky., whose men arrived Saturday. Advance representatives from other cities are expected to get the ball this week.

Drum corps and bands and drill teams have been putting on the finishing touches on their practice periods for the great demonstration and display at San Antonio. Practice periods have been doubled and in many instances tripled during the past few weeks, according to information received at the Legion national convention here.

To Have Music Galore.

Competition in the contests is expected to be the keener in the history of the Legion. Between 100 and 150 bands and drum corps are expected to be on hand, including all over town, marching and drumming, giving impromptu concerts on every street corner and taking part in the parade of thousands of Legion and Auxiliary members on Tuesday, Oct. 9. From the parade 15 bands and a like number of drum corps will be picked by the judges for the final competition, which will be held at Fort Field on Wednesday morning, Oct. 10.

The rifle match will be held at Camp Stanley beginning at 8 o'clock Monday morning, Oct. 8. The pistol match will be held at Camp Stanley beginning at 8 o'clock Monday morning, Oct. 8. The trap match will be held on the pistol range east of Fort Sam Houston Wednesday morning, Oct. 10. The trap shooting contest begins at the Army Post gun club Monday morning.

Quartet competition will be staged in the auditorium of Main Avenue High school at 8 a. m. on Monday. The Auxiliary drill teams will do their stuff at Lions field beginning at 8 a. m. on Oct. 10.

City to Be Gaily Bedecked.

San Antonio's elaborate decoration plans will be carried into execution within the next few days. The city will be dressed up as never before for the homecoming of the boys who trained in the San Antonio area. From the moment they land at the railroad station until they depart from the city they will be greeted with the flags of the United States and the Altas and the Legion emblem, pennants, bunting and all that goes to carry out a mammoth decoration scheme.

All arrangements for the convention are practically complete. Automobiles for the use of distinguished guests and of convention visitors generally have been lined up and are ready to function at all hours of the night and day under the direction of C. Ray Davis, adjutant of Alamo Post No. 2 and chairman of the automobile committee for the convention, and Frank Haines, chairman of the transportation committee.

San Antonio awaits the coming of the Legionnaires with hospitality for all.

Emerson made connection with some opposing line-men's knee and received a cut just below the eye, that required five stitches. His playing will not be marred by this injury and with his strength and weight Emerson should stand into a great ball player.

Mrs. John (Grandma) Surles Is Guest of Honor on 90th Birthday When Descendants Come to Baird

A joyous reunion of the Surles family was held at the home of Judge and Mrs. B. L. Russell, at Baird, Sunday afternoon when the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren gathered in honor of the 90th birthday of Mrs. John Surles, mother of the late Dr. J. H. Surles, formerly of Cisco, and Mrs. Russell and Mrs. C. C. Andrews of Baird, with whom she makes her home. The celebration was quite a surprise to "Grandma" Surles, as she is affectionately known, and on this occasion she was the honoree of one of the largest and most joyous family reunions that ever gathered in that city.

All the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of this pioneer West Texas woman living in this part of the state were present, but there were eight families not represented, most of them living in distant cities except Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ebby, of Pecos. The guests of "Grandma" Surles, who were present to honor her on this her 90th anniversary numbered 64, making quite an assembly of people, all claiming her as an ancestor, by blood or marriage. Those not present sent greetings by mail.

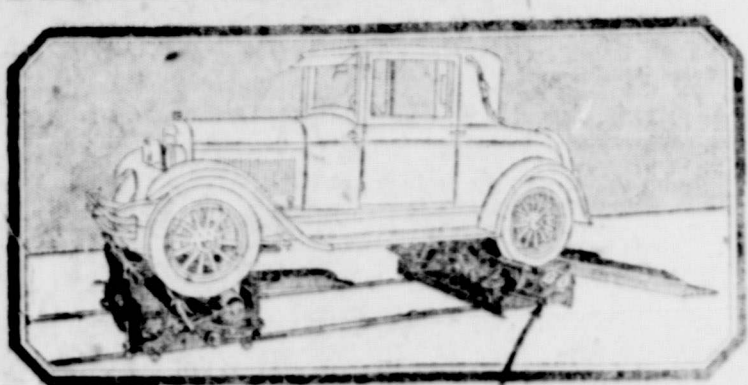

This throng began to gather after 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, each bringing some choice delicacy, and at 4:30 a picnic feast was spread on the beautiful shady lawn at the home of Judge Russell. After all the guests had arrived, Bernice Andrews, a grandson arrived with letters from absent ones, which he read, felicitating "Grandma" Surles on having reached such a ripe old age and expressing regrets at their inability to be present and congratulate her in person. The letters were from Mrs. Gerie Surles, Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Andrews, California; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Andrews, Vernon; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mackey, Clarksburg; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Surles, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Surles, Wichita Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Miley Oliver, Junction.

At the conclusion of reading the letters from absent ones all joined in singing some of the old familiar hymns, favorites of the aged lady, and during the celebration reminiscences were enjoyed as each recalled something of interest in the past common to all.

These present included the following families: Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Tarrant and children; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Surles and children; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Surles and baby; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Surles and children; Mrs. J. H. Surles and children; Mrs. J. H. Surles and children; Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Russell and children; Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Longacre and baby; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Black, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kennedy and children; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fleming and baby; all of Cisco; M. R. Surles and children; Mrs. Luke Pippin and children; Cotton Pippin, Dothan; Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Andrews, Mr. C. B. Holmes and child; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Russell and children; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Andrews, Junction and Mrs. B. L. Russell, Baird.

A. M. E. CHURCH ENDS REVIVAL OF SUCCESS

Cisco has witnessed a great religious revival not only the great meeting at the tabernacle, conducted by Evangelist Hays, but the colored people have not been denied this power out of the spirit promised to those who serve the Lord.

Rev. John McDowell, of Audine, has just closed a successful revival at Pleasant Chapel, Cisco African Methodist church, which has been fruitful of much good, according to the statements of Rev. T. W. Thomas, pastor, and Secretary, Mamie Naper, of the Cisco colored Methodists.

Pleasant Chapel A. M. E. Church has just closed a great spiritual and financial drive. Pastor Thomas said, "which was conducted by Rev. McDowell of Audine. In the evangelistic work he is a great power. The sermons each night were powerful and replete with spirituality. Sunday night his subject was 'The Attitude of God Toward the Lost,' and was one of the most impressive pulpits I have ever listened to, and brought together many of our friends and brethren from the various churches and towns, and we were all assembled in one accord, having in them the mind that was in Christ Jesus."

"In this great revival of religion the various memberships were stirred and overwhelmed with the force of the Holy Ghost until there was a cry if it be Thy will let brotherly love abound."

"We thank our many friends who stood by us unflinchingly until the victory was won. The financial receipts were $78.70, sufficient for the present needs of the church, at this time."

Author of Fiftieth Amendment Says Governor Smith is Ardent Advocate of Law Enforcement

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 2.—Saying Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democratic nominee for the presidency, as a humanitarian, an executive of a great state, and a friend of the masses from whom he rose, Senator Morris Sheppard, the senior senator from Missouri, delivered a rousing Democratic speech at a mass meeting last night.

Speaking with fervor and enthusiasm, Senator Sheppard told the crowd from the ranks of Al Smith, enthusiastically appealed for the return of the Democratic party, a friend of the American people, the leadership of Smith and his associates, which would call back the nation to its old faith in liberty and would emancipate the African people from those who would absorb their earnings and waste their lives.

Without undertaking a rebuke of the one who have left the traditional life of the South, Senator Sheppard briefly reviewed its history in national leadership and aspirations.

He remarked that the close association of American history.

Party History Reviewed

It came into being with the American Union, he said, "It has inspired the American constitution."

It has always been the champion of the liberty-loving American people, and unless and until the American liberty and institutions have been crushed and the American people have been made slaves in America, the American party will live.

Sheppard's speech was notable for its directness and force. He pointed out that the Democratic party in Texas, he said, is the only party in the United States that I have no need to defend.

Democratic organization," he said that Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson had done this.

The organization, which has its roots in the soil of the American people, is the only party in the United States that I have no need to defend.

He answered those who would explain Tammany's support of Governor Smith, by declaring that William S. Vare who will soon be elected out of the United States, is the boss of the wet and corrupt Republican machine in Philadelphia, dictated the nomination of Herbert Hoover.

Recalling the humble birth and surroundings of Governor Smith's boyhood, and his unselfishness to the cause of humanity, the speaker catalogued some of the human welfare measures fostered by Governor Smith.

Senator Sheppard, the author of the Eighteenth Amendment, and the staunch leader for prohibition in the United States declared, as the crowd applauded and cheered, that Governor Smith is the "man who has adapted the great late of New York to modern needs and conditions offered by the Democratic party to help the nation in the proper balance of business and humanity."

Dry Law Discussed

To refuse such a man support.

message to congress he recommends the change in the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act which he is now advocating, will you, as a Democrat, follow his leadership and assist him in putting over his program, or will you become an insurgent in your party by joining with Western Republicans in defeating the party program?"

Answer—"Governor Smith's personal suggestions along the prohibition line is not in the Democratic platform and therefore is not a party demand or suggestion; my opposition to them, therefore, would not be insurgent."

No. 2—"Can you point to any act of Governor Alfred Smith which might be construed as assisting the cause of enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment?"

Answer—"Yes, his recommendation to state officials that they continue in the enforcement of the federal prohibition acts, and that they co-operate with the federal officials."

No. 3—"Did you receive any support from Tammany Democrats in securing the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment and has it been your observation that Tammany Democrats, in or out of congress, have supported the enforcement since its passage?"

Answer—"It is well known that they did not favor the amendment, and members of congress on both parties opposed the amendment, but the Tammany Democrats have always voted for the appropriations for the administration of the Volstead act. The two outstanding opponents of enforcement appropriations in the house have been the Republican congressman, John Philip Hill of Maryland, who defied arrest for making intoxicating liquors, and Republican Congressman Laguardia of New York."

"Prohibition Not at Stake"

No. 4—"Mr. Sheppard called prohibition a damnable affliction and Governor Smith, in Milwaukee, said that this election was a solemn referendum on the prohibition issue. In view of these statements, is it not a fact that this election will constitute a solemn referendum on the prohibition question?"

Answer—"It will not."

No. 5—"If this election is a referendum on prohibition, is your desire to see Texas cast its vote on the side of the issue?"

Answer—"The 'dry' and 'wet' issue is not involved. The Democratic platform is an clearly for law enforcement as are Smith and Robinson that the vote of Texas for the Democratic ticket is a vote for law enforcement."

Initial Steps toward Membership Campaign in Eastland County in November to Be Taken by Chapter

There will be a meeting of the executives of the Eastland County Red Cross chapter at the Cisco chamber of commerce Thursday afternoon at 2:30 said J. E. Spencer, chairman of the Eastland county chapter.

"I hope that all executive officers will be in attendance as Mrs. Grace Ashbaugh, field representative of the American Red Cross society, will be present at this meeting. Mrs. Ashbaugh's coming is for the purpose of arranging the details for the membership drive which will be conducted in November, and it is expected that other matters of importance to the chapter will be disposed of."

"I regret to say that so little progress has been made in raising the quota of the Eastland county chapter for the relief of the hurricane sufferers, as I was in hopes that we could report to Mrs. Ashbaugh that Cisco and Eastland county had gone over the top in raising our quota."

Mrs. Grant Mason, who formerly conducted the Daniels hotel, departed for Dallas on the termination of her lease October 1, and the Daniels interests have taken over the operation of the hotel with Brown as manager. The Daniels is now undergoing a thorough renovation, which will be operated in a manner that will give the traveling public the best of service. Mr. Brown stated.

Permits in smallest Number of their Total Is $43,600

BRECKENRIDGE, Oct. 2.—H. C. Bagwell, former Cisco and Breckenridge dairyman, was acquitted late Tuesday of an indictment charging him with the slaying of Orla (Pop) Lee Lane, taxi driver, here on July 29. State prosecutors had charged that Bagwell shot and killed Lane when the taxi driver was in Bagwell's home for a passenger. Bagwell claimed he shot in self defense.

Building permits for September, so far as the number of those securing permission to build are the smallest that have been recorded for any month of the year, as the records at City Secretary Statham's office show. It is known that this list does not include one-half of the buildings that have been erected during the month, and emphasizes a disregard of the regulations requiring that a permit must be secured before the building is erected. Most cities require that all repairs, of every nature, require permits, but only in a few instances are permits sought here for other than original buildings. Other cities penalize contractors for not securing a permit.

While only four permits were issued during September, yet the aggregate cost of the new buildings was larger than the average month, as they total $43,600. Those securing permits were:

Charles Saunders, 1101 West Sixth street, 30 by 48 brick veneer, five rooms and bath, $3,300; E. W. Dager, contractor.

R. D. Farley, L. Avenue and West Fifth street, 30 by 34 frame, $2,500; Surles & Hint, contractors.

N. S. Wood, Eastland highway, 18 by 14 tourist camp house, $400; Hunt, contractor.

After all the guests had arrived, Bernice Andrews, a grandson arrived with letters from about one which he had recently reached upon a ripe old age, and expressing regrets at their inability to be present and congratulating her in person. L. Surles, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Surles, Wichita Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Miller Oliver, Junction.
