bring employment or prosperity to our workmen. "Yet Governor Smith declares himself in favor of early tariff revision along the lines of the Democratic platform, which calls for rates based on effective competition. His party's attitude has been shown in the downward revision under two Democratic presidents. "Contrast this with Mr. Hoover's declaration we have pledged ourselves to make such revisions in the tariff laws as may be necessary to provide real protection against the shifting of economic tides in our various industries. "The wage-earner's choice is obvious."

Chapman's Loboes are in readiness for the game which will be played in Cisco Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with the Brownwood team. This will be the first Class A conference game scheduled for the Loboes this year. The Lions team is said to have been greatly strengthened this season, and Chapman states that the game will be spirited from start to finish, as the visitors are determined to give the Loboes the hardest fight the Lions ever made to snatch victory from the Cisco boys.

SMITH ASKED BY WEBB IF HE IS EVER DRUNK

DALLAS, Oct. 12.—Atticus Webb, head of the Anti-Saloon League in Texas, today wired Governor Smith as follows: "Please tell whether you ever drank, ever got drunk or will drink if elected to office."

"PIROOTTIN' AROUND" ENDS AT LAKE CISCO CAMP

"Just piroottin' around," was the answer of Willard Duese when the police wanted to know what he was doing loitering at E avenue and West Sixth street at a late hour Wednesday night. He was given a bed in the city jail with a vag charge filed against him. Duese is now "piroottin' around" at Lake Cisco training camp where he is liquidating his fine and cost of $16.70 assessed against him by Acting Mayor Mayhew Thursday morning.

WHEN HOOVER INVADED THE SOUTH

Smith Holds Conference With Carter Glass, Governor Byrd and Former Secretary of Navy

GOVERNOR SMITH'S TRAIN EN ROUTE TO TENNESSEE, Oct. 12.—The first Democratic presidential nominee to invade the "Solid South," in years, Governor Smith Thursday in two informal addresses at Richmond and Raleigh, the capitals of Virginia and North Carolina, told the people of Dixie that all sections of the country "belong to the one great big family of states that make up the nation." Passing through the two Southern states on his second campaign tour in his fight for the presidency, Governor Smith found large and enthusiastic crowds to welcome him at almost a dozen cities and towns. He conferred on his special train with the Democratic chiefs of the two states including Governor Byrd of Virginia and McLean of North Carolina, Senator Glass of Virginia and Joseph Daniels of Raleigh, former secretary of the navy, and received from them reports that indicated a satisfactory political situation. "The candidate in his address took as a symbol of the unity of the nation the blending of the tunes 'Dixie' and 'The Sidewalks of New York,' which were played simultaneously at his receptions in the various places where his train was halted. "I am entirely satisfied, from the cordial and I might say, effusive greeting of the people of this section of the South, that the two camps can be blended," Governor Smith said, "because after all, people are pretty much the same. I did not notice any difference between the people of Omaha and the people of the Bronx in New York City." I did not see any difference between the people of Milwaukee and those of the city of Brooklyn. I did not

FORMER CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH LEADER IS DEAD

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, at one time a prominent member of the Christian Science church, died here today. Mrs. Stetson aspired to be the successor of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy several years ago, and was declared disloyal by the board of directors of that organization, since which time she has not been affiliated with the Christian Science church.

FORMATION OF TRADE EXTENSION BODY TONIGHT WILL HAVE MUCH TO DO WITH FUTURE OF OUR CITY

Tonight will mean much to Cisco. In most ways it will be no different from last night, any night last week or last month or even last year. But a movement is to be formally launched tonight that is going to effect Cisco's future greatly. A Cisco trade extension association is to be organized. The meeting will be at the city hall instead of the chamber of commerce as announced at first. The time is at 7:30. Many professional men, doctors, dentists and lawyers, are joining with merchants and other business men in the movement. There is no reason why only the business and professional men of Cisco should be there. True, the object of the movement is to extend the influence of Cisco in the trade territory of this section and, off hand, these men are the ones who would seem to profit most. "But if more business is brought to Cisco, the city is bound to expand in more ways than one. If properly advanced, it will not only bring new business but also new business establishments to the city. Expanding firms, already established, and new firms will both mean more employment—more jobs. These new employes will in turn mean more money to be spent with the various firms. It is like the illustration of tossing a stone into a pond of water. The stone will start a movement within the water that will eventually send ripples to the far sides of the pond. It is that way with trade extension. More business, more jobs, more business firms, more jobs, more business all the way around. If you want Cisco to grow and to benefit yourself, do your part. Firms which have indicated that they will join in the trade movement, in addition to those already announced, are Walton's Studio and West Texas Utilities Co.

WALT JOHNSON OFFERED PILOT JOB OF SENS

The veteran twirler has accepted provided he can secure his release from the Newark Bears, whom he managed the past season in the International league.

HICKMAN IS DOWNCAST AS DEATH NEAR

SAN QUENTIN, Oct. 12.—The specter of death on the gallows loomed in the office of William E. S. ward Hickman, scheduled to die October 19 for the murder of Marjorie Parke, 12 year old Los Angeles school girl, was gloomy and dark today. He refused to take part in domino games with other prisoners and guards.

CONCRETE FOR HOTEL NEARLY FULLY POURED

With the exception of placing the concrete for the ground floor there is only one more floor to be poured on Cisco's new hotel building. Concrete for the seventh floor was poured Thursday, and the carpenters are now building the forms for the eighth and ninth floors. It is possible that the eighth floor will be poured before Saturday night. This will complete the concrete work of the hotel with the exception of the frame work for the roof garden, as the eighth floor which is yet to be poured, will be floor of the roof garden. Other work is also progressing satisfactorily, as the stone has all been set and the brick work has progressed to the second floor which is giving the building a very attractive appearance, as the outside of the building is of a very pretty light colored facing brick backed with a superior quality of red brick. It is possible that concrete will not be poured for ground floor until the building further advanced.

ROTARY CLUB REGRETS GRAY MOVING AWAY

There was a short session of the Cisco Rotary club at its weekly luncheon Thursday, the usual program of entertainment being dispensed with, and a lieu thereof, the Rotarians enjoyed a boat ride over the waters of Lake Cisco on the "Betty W." as the hosts of its owner, W. W. Wallace, Rotarian Youngblood was chairman of the program committee, but owing to the illness of Mrs. Youngblood no program was arranged, which was another reason for the short session. Other than the regular business program the following resolutions, complimentary to Charles G. Gray, who will soon leave Cisco to make his home in San Angelo, were adopted: "Whereas, Charles G. Gray has for the past several years been a member of the Cisco Rotary club and has in all of his acts and association with the club manifested the true Rotary spirit, and has continuously rendered a very high degree of service as chairman of the Boy Scouts committee, resulting in a most successful organization; and "Whereas, he is moving from Cisco to San Angelo, and by this reason will no longer be a member of the Cisco Rotary club; now therefore be it

100% FRESH OYSTERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—Hailing Herbert Hoover as a farseeing and resourceful executive, Andrew W. Mellon told a radio audience Thursday night that the Republican presidential candidate is well qualified to carry on the "converting" policies of the present administration. Delivering into the microphone at Station WRC here the second political speech of his life, the veteran treasury secretary and multi-millionaire said that in the final analysis there is only one issue in this campaign. "Whether the leadership offered by the Republican or by the Democratic party is better qualified to assume the burden of carrying on the government and of solving the problems which will arise in the next four years." "The Democratic candidate has told you what he proposes to do," Mellon said. "The Republican candidate, Mr. Hoover, is in the fortunate position of being able to tell you not only what he will do but what he and the administration of which he has been an important part have already done. He offers you an unparalleled record of constructive achievement; and, on that record, he and the Republican party ask for your continued confidence and support. "What has that record been? In the first place, it has been a complete fulfillment of the promise which the Republican party made that the government should be administered economically and in accord with accepted business principles, and that the affairs of the country should be put on a sound basis, so that confidence might be turned and the march of progress might be resumed after the long interval of the war. "That the administration has made good its promise is best attested by the fact that today the finances both of the government and of the country are in a sound condition. Under the present administration taxes have been materially lowered on four occasions. Expenditures have been cut. The public debt has been reduced so that it is no longer a heavy burden on the taxpayers. The nation has been given the benefit of a protective tariff, and during the entire period of the war has been steadily forward. "At that time the whole economic structure seemed in need of readjustment. Now, after nearly eight years it is possible to judge of what has been accomplished. "In no other nation and no other time in the history of the world have so many people enjoyed such a high degree of prosperity or maintained a standard of living comparable to that which prevails throughout this country today. Our highways are crowded with automobiles, and statistics show that the number of passenger car registrations have more than doubled in the last seven years. Saving deposits have nearly doubled, and bank deposits have increased from $39,000,000,000 in 1921 to $56,000,000,000 in 1927." Mellon said that taxes had been removed from 2,500,000 citizens with total reduction of $1,800,000,000 or $5,000,000 a day; that great reductions had been made in government expenditures; that the public debt had been reduced over $6,000,000,000 and that the $11,000,000,000 foreign debts had been settled. "Another important policy of the administration has been to provide adequate credit for reconstruction," he added. "Through the War Finance corporation, the intermediate credit banks and the banks of the farm loan system, ample credit has been provided on easy terms and at low interest rates. This is one of the vital elements in the farm problem and places at the farmer's disposal adequate banking facilities. "There are three other things which should be mentioned in connection with the government's financial policies. The war claims against Germany and Austria have been settled in a way satisfactory to those nations as well as to ourselves, the loans made to our railroads during the war have been nearly all repaid, and the charters of the federal reserve banks have been renewed, thus insuring a continuation of the banking system under which we were able to finance the war and to pass safely through the reconstruction period. "I would like to make it clear that in the renewal of the charters of the federal reserve banks the administration had the cooperation and support of Democrats as well as Republicans in congress. "I submit that it is a constructive record in the best sense of the word."

It would be a novel experience, and add immensely to the pleasure of the trip, to be able to set foot on a foreign shore without shrinking from a million palms. It has been getting so bad lately that sensitive Americans have sometimes felt embarrassed at starting back home without leaving a tip for the king and the prime minister.

How Japan Tried to Force War on China to Kill Nationalist Cause, Is Told in Report of Missionary

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—That the Japanese deliberately plotted to force a war with China, in order to kill the Nationalist movement, is the gist of an amazing report received in this country from the Rev. Robert Whitaker, well-known missionary now stationed at Linting.

And it appears the man who saved China from the crowning disaster was none other than Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, who has just been made the new president of the Chinese republic.

Linting is close to Tsinan, junction of the important Shanghai-Peking main line and the Shantung-Kiangsu line. It was here that Japan long her troops, led by her warlord, the late Marshal Chang, to force the Chinese army, then concentrating on Peking, the capital, with victory in sight.

Good Reports From Generals Headquarters of Nationalist army were at Linting, where the Rev. Whitaker's mission is located. And it was from the general's command, the Chinese reports in and around Tsinan that the missionary got his data—from them and two other specified independent sources. Working one story against the other, he declares, he was unable to find any discrepancies.

The Nationalist entered Tsinan on the morning of May 1, says the report in an hour-by-hour, day-by-day account of the crisis, and though there were some 200,000 soldiers in and around the city, absolute quiet prevailed until May 3. On that date the Japanese renewed the bombing barrage from around their quarters of the city and invited the Chinese soldiers to come in and fight.

Firing Started Shortly after firing was heard in that district, the Japanese claimed that a Chinese soldier had refused to pay for something he bought and then had beaten up a Japanese soldier who remonstrated with him. Hearing the shots, Marshal Chiang ordered his men to come forward, no matter who was to blame. Furthermore, he ordered the Japanese to disarm such Chinese soldiers as were in the neighborhood and to avoid further trouble, ordered the Nationalists to clear out of the city and cross to the north side of the Yellow river.

All the time this was going on, it is reported, the Japanese made "free use of the machine guns, snipers and heavy artillery."

Not over much of worldly riches do I seek. New gifts from fortune to glorify my days. Only to dwell upon a friendly street. More gentlefolk of homely, pleasant ways. A little house home-loving hearts do I seek. An apple tree to blossom in the spring. A lot of ground to sow and tend and reap. Capacity to laugh and weep and sing. A sunny kitchen, sweet with new baked bread. Fragrant and crusty, childish mouths to fill. A sunny night, to rest, when day has fled. A red geranium on a window sill. The strength to minister to those I love. The will to be a kind friend to all. The peace that comes from trust in One above. Who knows, and cares, though but a sparrow fall. -By HELEN PATRICK.

MON. TUES. WED. -3 DAYS- RECKLESS SHOOTING.

British newspapers, wisely refraining from excitement over the shooting of an English girl on an American highway by prohibition agents, content themselves with observing that the "incident has caused a storm of indignation throughout America." Quite so. The American public realizes that dry agents, in fighting bootlegging, are up against a stiff game, in which their own life is often at stake. But the same public believes that citizens driving along the road should have at least as much allowance made for them as criminals at the bar, being considered innocent until their guilt is established. Shooting first and investigating afterward is a dangerous rule. In this case irresponsible men employed by a mayor to stop run-running fired upon an innocent family party of British subjects, on mere suspicion, when the driver refused to stop because he thought the dry agents were hold-up men. Every such incident tends to discredit prohibition and make enforcement more difficult.

METRICAL JAPAN. Japan is going in for the metric system. At the "Festival of Measures" held recently in Osaka, the government collected the old-fashioned scales and measures and gave metric equivalents in exchange for them. Sign posts are being set up along Japanese roads marked in meters and kilometers, instead of the old Japanese linear units or the English miles. Throughout the empire the new textbooks in arithmetic and geography, beginning with the present school year, use the metric system. Meanwhile progressive America still pokes along with the same old chaotic outfit of weights and measures that grew up without any plan or relation to each other. And this in spite of the fact that the metric system has been adopted by the big majority of civilized nations, and is far simpler and easier to learn and use than our present system.

SPANISH TIPS. Good news from Spain. Beginning with the first of this month, tips are forbidden there. So the Hotel Association has ordered. The rule applies to hotels, restaurants and casinos in the big cities, and to hotels in the provincial towns. This is a good beginning and an admirable example. Let other nations follow suit,

Ex-Sheriff, Who Sold Booze When Store Didn't Make Living, Tells Truth and Escapes Jail Sentence

HOUSTON, Oct. 12.—Before prohibition he made Fort Bend county saloons respect the laws that restricted liquor sales to adults and forced them to close 9 p. m.

When, after prohibition, he sold beer in his little Richmond grocery, M. L. Woolley, 42 years old, former Fort Bend county sheriff, observed the same regulations.

That was his testimony when Woolley, who was sheriff from 1910 to 1914, appeared before U. S. District Judge J. C. Hutcherson, Jr. here, charged with liquor law violation.

"I sold only to men, Judge," the little ex-sheriff, with a curling black mustache, declared.

In reply to a question from the judge—"I always closed by 9 p. m."

Then, declaring he wanted to tell the truth about the whole affair, Woolley said he had been in ill health and the profit from his grocery was small.

So he put in a little stock of beer in the ice box with his soft drinks. And in a little closet he kept a small quantity of whiskey.

About two months ago, federal dry agents walked into his store with a search warrant. Woolley told the officers where his liquor was. While the agents destroyed the beer, Woolley waited on customers in front. Few knew his place was being raided.

"I'm not going to ask leniency," Woolley told an assistant prosecutor before his trial, "but if I must go to jail won't you ask the judge to send me to the Fort Bend county jail. I want to stay near my friends."

His plea was needless. Judge Hutcherson heard his story. He heard Woolley say he would not violate the law again.

"I sentence you to 30 days in jail, but I suspend that sentence," Judge Hutcherson said. "And I will fine you $100."

$2,000,000 GOAL OF BAYLOR U. TO BE REACHED

WACO, Oct. 12.—Further assurance that the Baptists of Texas and Baylor University effort will reach the $2,000,000 goal sought in the Greater Baylor state-wide campaign has reached the state office here with the acceptance of a large number of county chairmen who will cooperate with city, association and district chairmen to promote the drive.

Retention of Baylor's indebtedness and creating of additional endowment will be effected when the campaign succeeds. Raising the $2,000,000 really means an aggregate of $4,000,000 for Baylor, with promised gifts of $1,000,000 from Dallas and Waco for new buildings, and $300,000 promised by the general education board when the school's endowment is increased.

Rev. A. C. Miller of Cisco has accepted the chairmanship of Eastland county in district 13 and has already begun the campaign in that section. His church chairman will be announced soon.

Every step of the work now leads toward the launching of the popular campaign from November 13 to December 4. On the Sunday preceding, "Baylor Sunday" will be observed at every Baptist church in Texas before the great campaign begins.

BUTTER MARKETED IN NEW CARTONS

Sweet Cream Butter marketed in its own made cartons. Manager announced that several these cartons have been used and hereafter the butter will be marketed in cartons as any now on the market. Cisco people unambiguously that one used of larger parcel for local use. There is only one way to get the butter and that is to get the local dealer. Why not get butter in town when the local dealer puts out a better quality than made elsewhere. Cisco people should get the habit of getting Cisco made products. The grocer does not handle it. The grocer in stock just what his customers want, and if you insist on Cisco made products you will soon see it in his store. Since the arrival of the new labels for the Blue Jonnet Sweet Cream Butter there is no excuse for not using it, as every one admits that it is as good or better than other products. It is made at home from sweet cream purchased from home farmers, who patronize home merchants, and these farmers are the nucleus of the proposed milk plant for Cisco—Adv. 11.

DEAD SNAKE IS FOUND COILED IN INNER TUBE OF TIRE IN ARKANSAS

PAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 12.—A 20-inch snake was found here Thursday morning coiled in the inner tube of a tire casing belonging to Mrs. Mary E. Oliver. It had been dead, it is believed, since it crawled into its rubber bed at the factory. The reptile had the appearance of life and when discovered caused excitement at the repair shop. The tire had traveled 3,240 miles with its passenger.

TARGET PRACTICE HELD NEIGHBORS IN SLUMBER

A little nocturnal target practice of a man by the name of Elliott was objected to by his neighbors.

living near the Blue and White tourist camp on the Eastland highway, Wednesday night. As a result the police were notified, and the night patrol was called out to that locality. All was quiet when the officers arrived, but Elliott was aroused from his bed, and it was then that he told the police that he was merely doing a little target practice. He was warned against shooting within the city limits, and told to go back to bed.

HE ISN'T CONSTIPATED ANY MORE

Thanks to Kellogg's wonderful ALL-BRAN

Mr. Griswold wrote, of his own accord, to tell us how much he valued ALL-BRAN in relieving constipation.

June 1, 1927. "Just a few words to let the company know what Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has done for me. I was constipated for several years until I went to eating your PEP and ALL-BRAN. I am now free of constipation and it is all due to the use of your products, and I will recommend it to anyone that is bothered with constipation."

Youngsville, N. C. H. J. Griswold, 1228 Locust Ave., Los Angeles. Constipation is a dreadful thing. It undermines health. It steals happiness. Throbbing heads, aching backs, spots before the eyes, bad complexion are just a few of its telltale symptoms.

Don't let it get in its devilish work on you. Protect yourself now. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to prevent and relieve constipation. A healthy cereal ALL-BRAN is 100% Bran. Doctors recommend it. Delicious with milk or cream, or with fruit or honey added. Eat two tablespoons daily—chronic cases, with every meal. Use in cooking. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

COMMANDER BYRD

Armour's STAR HAM and STAR BACON

Vital among the health protecting, nourishing, energy producing foods that will sustain Commander Byrd and his daring associates in their Antarctic explorations are Armour's Star Ham and Star Bacon.

In the balanced diet that makes for vigorous men, Ham and Bacon are essential. They satisfy and nourish.

They are served from four to five times a week and because they are served so often, to avoid monotony the flavor must be the superlative—enticing, far beyond the flavor of ordinary ham and bacon.

So the Hams and Bacon must be the best. They must be good to the taste of those men who face the rigors of the Antarctic. They must have keeping qualities, for once in the Antarctic there is no convenient store at which supplies can be replenished.

Necessity demands the best! So Commander Byrd selects Armour's Star Ham and Star Bacon. He knows and relies upon them.

You can get the same good Ham and Bacon very easily. Just ask your dealer for "Armour's Star." Insist on getting it.

ARMOUR AND COMPANY CHICAGO

Commander Byrd has proved the quality of Armour's Star Ham and Star Bacon. With him they went on his history making expedition to the North Pole. Now they go to the South Pole. Good food of dependable quality is a necessity. The name "Armour" on a food product is an absolute assurance of quality.

Less than fifteen per cent of the twenty-three million cars on the highways have their brakes in good condition. That means that over eighty-five percent of the drivers are careless, for there isn't any excuse for bad brakes. It takes just two minutes on our Jumbo Giant Brake Tester to know exactly what condition your brakes are in. A separate gauge gives an accurate report on each brake. The test is free. If adjusting is required, the time to have it done is while the car is on the "Jumbo". In this way your brakes can be perfectly equipped. When you drive away you will be secure in the knowledge that when you want the car to stop it will stop. The Jumbo test should be made every thousand or fifteen hundred miles. It is just as important as oiling and greasing and we repeat—the test is free.

See FOR YOURSELF. Right before your eyes—on accurate hydraulic gauges—the JUMBO Brake Tester reveals the true condition of the brake on each wheel. Eliminates all chance for human error—no guesswork. Assures positive elimination and perfect balanced brake—maximum braking efficiency—"guaranteed safety!"

BUSINESS AS USUAL.

William R. Dawes, a leading Chicago banker, visiting New York, says:

"One of the features of this campaign is the fact that there has been very slight interference with business. This is true of Chicago and the Middle West, and I was gratified to learn that it is also here in the East. This statement applies to all lines of industry."

Other observers give the same verdict. It is the most pleasing aspect of the present campaign.

"Business as usual" was a national slogan during the World War. It was gratifying then to find the nation could engage in a great conflict and at the same time carry on its regular business. It is just as gratifying now to find that business is sufficiently grown-up to hold its own unaffected by a momentous political struggle. And Big Business, which is smarter today than in the years gone by, will sincerely strive to make 1929 a good business year, no matter how the presidential election terminates.

HIGH INTEREST.

It is a queer situation, and an expensive one, when the United States, with the soundest credit on earth, has to pay 4 1/2 per cent on a temporary loan of $200,000,000 for interest on the public debt and retirement of Liberty Loan bonds. This is more than the government had to pay for most of its war loans, at a time when expenditures seemed bottomless and credit limited. Why the high rates, which the government has to pay along with other institutions, public and private, needing money at this time? Everybody agrees that it is because so much banking credit has been absorbed in stock speculation. Billions have been needed by bull operators to push stocks up to their present inflated level and hold them there, in defiance of earning power and common sense. Borrowers for legitimate and constructive purposes are innocent victims.

GAS LOSS.

The American Automobile association estimates that the nation's motorists are cheated out of 100,000 gallons of gasoline a year, worth $20,000,000. This comes from getting short measure at filling stations, averaging one quart to every five gallons. Deliberate cheating is done by a small minority. Sometimes honest dealers give short measure without knowing it. All of it, needless to say, should be remedied. Dealers say, truly enough, that they themselves lose considerable gasoline by evaporation and other forms of wastage hard to avoid. If such wastage is passed along to the consumer, it should be only in the price charged for a full gallon—which of course should be adequate to cover normal trade losses and insure a fair profit.

CHICAGO SEWAGE.

Many cities and states are glad to learn of the completion of the new sewage disposal plant on the north side of Chicago, said to be the biggest in the world. Two more plants exactly like it are to be built, altogether costing $93,000,000. This system is expected to supplant the present sanitary arrangement which simply pours the city's sewage into the reversed Chicago river, washing it on down to the Mississippi by means of water diverted from Lake Michigan. The new method is incomparably more sanitary, and may justify its cost to Chicago on that count alone. The rest of the communities bordering on the Great Lakes consider it worth still more to them in rendering unnecessary the great abstraction of water great enough in volume to lower lake levels and hinder navigation. By the same token, Chicago may find it worth the cost merely to regain the good will lost by her water policy.

BORDER LIGHTS.

Rum-running in the vicinity of Detroit is to be fought with light. A chain of huge search lights, each throwing a powerful beam for two miles, will be strung along the international border. The light towers will also have sirens to sound an alarm when a suspicious craft is observed. This will be part of the campaign to combat smuggling in general, which is a serious problem in that district. Rum, however, is the chief objective. If the plan works, we may see light towers all along the Canadian border. That would be a novelty, on a frontier which has been almost unguarded for more than a century. May these towers never have to be manned with guns. If Canada would co-operate in more neighborly fashion, in this rum business, neither lights nor guns would be necessary.

SPECIALTY STORES.

Chain stores continue to multiply, spreading farther and taking in more commercial lines. Individual merchants grow more worried, fearing the end of independent opportunity. Many, no doubt, will surrender to the new system, some because they are comelled and some because they find it profitable. Individual merchants who are exceptionally good executives tend to form chains. Those who are intelligent and faithful to their work, but have no great taste or capacity for taking responsibility, may prefer running chain stores or staying as salaried employees. As for those who cannot reconcile themselves to the new system, there is this reassuring reminder from an observer who has been studying the situation: During the period of department store development, and during this growing period of chain stores, the small specialized shop has held its own and gained ground. There will always be room for the merchant offering a special line or a special service, giving it his personal attention and doing it well.

A LITTLE GARDEN AND A HOME

Life has its ebb and flow Along the years. The sunbeams dance upon the waves In youth's brief morn; And then the whitecaps wide swing And higher roll, as homing instincts urge; The breakers drag the sands, and curl and foam; But easy rides our tiny bark if safely moored Within the visioned harbor of a garden and a home. Life has its measured beat and span, Its warm and airy and its chill grief; Its loss of fortune, those we've loved and known; But if we've worn a pathway to a gate Where flowers lure us from the outer world, We've found the safest harbor from the storms. In just a little garden and a home. Life has its price for victory, And we must pay full measure for our gain. Silver of youth and gold of health must go. Coin of the realm, for just a glimpse of fame. But if we walk through flowers in the moon, No matter what may happen as we roam, We shall have found the key to buried treasure. In just a little garden and a home. BY LILLIAN LINCOLN.
