Pennsylvania Republicans Know How to Carry Elections, Reed's Report to U. S. Senate Reveals

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—A weird tale of new and old devices for cheating in elections was told to the senate today in a report presented by the Reed committee concerning the Vore-Pepper-Pinchot senatorial primary.

The report offered by Chairman James A. Reed of the investigating committee held Senator-elect William S. Vore of Pennsylvania, should be denied his seat, but made no recommendation about immediate action, saying only that "in view of the physical and mental condition of Vore it is for the senate to decide what action is proper in the premises."

Irregularities were known previously to have occurred in the primary, but the story of ballot stuffing, false registration, repeating, bad counting, and similar practices were not told before. As a whole of the 37,000 word detailed account comprised perhaps the most sensational story told in the history of the American election system.

Concerning Philadelphia, the report stated in part: "The fraud pervading the actual count by the division election officers is appalling. In only 181 out of 1,599 election districts of Philadelphia was the senatorial vote correctly counted by the election officers. The average chance of Philadelphia voter to have his vote counted correctly was less than 1 in 8."

The devices of fraud alluded to, included: No tally sheets of totals were kept in 614 divisions, more than a third of the whole city, so no record is available that the votes were ever counted. In the second ward alone 119 persons voted whose names were not on the registration books; the total for the whole city being about 2,000 each instance involving, the committee said, a clear case of fraud on the part of election officials. In the whole city more votes were cast than there were voters registered.

Large quantities of votes were found in boxes "in such a way as to constitute a sensational fraud, because they could not have been placed there legally." The group included many ballots folded differently from those of the legal ballots. Many fraudulently marked ballots of similar character were found piled together in the boxes.

In all there were a total of 18,594 ballots printed and numbered but uncounted for. The committee went through a list of typical cases involving those of the 1st ward, 13th division where nine ballots were stuffed in the box and six persons were voted whose names did not appear on the registration books; 14th ward, 9th division where the voters list contained names of six persons who were not registered, and seven erasures and alterations were found; 22nd ward, 33rd division where names of 7 repeaters were found and yet the voting list was 39 votes in the box short of the total number of votes said to have been cast.

CAPONE LINKED WITH SLAYING OF GANGSTERS

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—A mysterious telephone call to Scarface Al Capone in Florida was placed at the Congress hotel here on St. Valentine's day within 20 minutes after seven "Bugs" Moran gangsters were murdered by machine gunners in a Northside garage, federal authorities said they had learned today.

It was said at the federal building that authorities have sent for the records of the telephone company in an attempt to learn who called the call.

Capone was said to be waiting for the call in his home on Palm Island. This was the first time that the name of Capone had been linked with the federal investigation of the mass murders.

REPORT OF PROBE DUE NEXT WEEK

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—Chairman E. T. Murphy of the legislative investigating committee that has been probing the highway department and the state board of control said that a formal report by the committee will be filed next week. It is being prepared by him and Senator Pink L. Parrish. Further investigation was dropped yesterday afternoon after Representative Gerzon, by whom charges against the two departments were presented to the house, announced that he was satisfied they could not be substantiated.

UTILITY BILL PRACTICALLY KILLED TODAY

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—Public utility legislation was killed so far as the present session of the legislature is concerned, this morning, when the senate voted to lay pending utility legislation on the table.

The action was taken at the request of Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston, whose public utility commission bill is favored by the governor. It was done with the understanding that the governor will submit it at a special session.

This action was taken because prisms and road legislation are expected to require all remaining time of the present session, which has only 10 working days to go.

The anti-evolution bill which was on Friday's house calendar will go over until Tuesday. This is by agreement of Rev. J. W. Harper of Mount Pleasant, author of the bill. He said he consented to the delay because it was pointed out that if it were called up there would be a rush of members to the door that would break the narrow margin over a quorum with which the house was working. A test vote showed 105 present. A quorum is 100. The senate also maintained a quorum in spite of the holiday.

The house made it a misdemeanor for justices of the peace, constables or deputies to accept collection fees other than the regular fees of office, after declaring that pistol deputies are bulldozing debtors into signing notes and officers are acting as collectors.

In the senate a bill was offered to require district and county attorneys to report as fees of office, the fees now retained by them for collection of delinquent taxes.

After long debate the senate refused to memorialize congress for a tariff on oil.

Kidnapping Charges Filed Against Couple Who Said They Got Child From "Dark Man With Moustache"

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—Formal charges of kidnapping were placed against Charles Sharp and his wife, Edna, today in connection with the disappearance last Friday of four-year old Doris Virginia Murphy.

At the same time police announced that a grilling had "completely shaken" the story of Mrs. Sharp of the circumstances in which she came into possession of Doris.

By RICHARD G. BALDWIN (Copyright, 1929, by United Press.) SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 22.—Little Doris Virginia Murphy, missing a week ago today, was back at home this morning, safe and unharmed in her mother's arms.

"It's her—my baby," screamed the almost hysterical mother, making a positive identification when the child was returned to the Murphy home by representatives of the United Press and the San Francisco News.

Those who talked to the child were convinced that she was indeed the "Doris Virginia" who has occasioned the greatest police search ever known on the Pacific coast.

The little girl, apparently unmolested and extremely happy, was brought to the offices of the United Press by Edward Sharp, who told police and newspapermen a story unique in the annals of criminology.

Sharp said that his wife had received a mysterious note telling her that a child of hers, whom she had placed in an orphan's home several years ago, would be returned to her if she would come to Vallejo, a city on San Francisco bay near here.

Sharp told the United Press and the News that his wife had gone to Vallejo and had taken the child from a "dark man with a black moustache."

"Thank God she is safe," sobbed the mother. The child was also crying, although smiling through her tears, happy to be back home again after a week's absence.

The finding of the child was kept secret from the public until a positive identification, and only that of her mother could be considered as positive, and only a few persons were present at the happy reunion of the mother and child.

These included Edward Sharp and his wife, who brought the child to the United Press offices early today, a few newspapermen and police officers.

Believing that little Doris was her own child, Mrs. Sharp had returned to San Francisco and had taken the child on several shopping tours with her.

Police and civilians had failed to recognize the missing child and Mrs. Sharp herself was unaware that she had been taking a missing girl instead of her own daughter through the downtown streets of San Francisco.

It was not until the husband had noticed the resemblance of his daughter, to the pictures printed in daily newspapers that the slightest question of doubt

130 BILLS PASSED BY LEGISLATURE

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—One hundred and thirty bills have been passed today by both house of the 41st legislature, figures compiled by Bob Baker, secretary of the senate show. Seventy-one of these are bills that originated in the house and 59 originated in the senate. The senate has passed finally 130 senate bills, the 71 house bills, six joint resolutions submitting constitutional amendments and 35 concurrent resolutions.

GAVE RETURNS TO McCLOSKEY, WITNESS SAYS

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—Alfonso Newton, Jr., former chief deputy sheriff of Bexar county, got the returns in the crowded courtroom to the edge of their chairs when he took the stand today for the state in its case against Democratic Congressman-elect Augustus McCloskey of San Antonio, charged with alteration of elections returns.

Newton, who is now sheriff of Bexar county told the court that he had at request of McCloskey asked Antonio Garcia, brother of Alex Garcia, presiding judge of precinct 24, to get his brother's election returns.

He then testified that Antonio Garcia brought him a package wrapped in a newspaper, without examining it he delivered it to McCloskey in the latter's office.

Since that time he had frequently asked McCloskey for the returns but that he had never been able to get them back. On the last occasion when asking McCloskey for them, McCloskey denied having them.

Fire was struck this morning between the 23-year-old district attorney, Henry Brooks of Travis, and Warren Moore, member of the defense counsel. Moore made a vigorous protest against introducing evidence from the county clerk's record by a member of the commissioner's court, asserting that as such Newton had nothing to do with county clerk's records.

"I challenge the state to produce the originals, not a record book of originals," Moore flung out. "We think it unique that the state should attempt to deprive a man of his liberty by using copies of original figures. Why doesn't the state bring in the originals."

"We have the originals," the state replied. Moore took for their exception, saying that the state contends that the election in Bexar county was conducted fraudulently. "The very election of which the state's Bexar county representatives are creators," he shouted, "and they come into court with duplicates to try to prove their case."

"Oh sit down we'll prove this case," young Brooks retorted. "Your honor, I object to such remarks from a young man to a man three times his age," Moore spat forth. Brooks got red to the ears.

BABY DROWNED. SAN ANGELO, Feb. 22.—Falling into 12 inches of tank water while members of the family were washing clothes nearby, Morris Virgil Burk, 18-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Burk, Schleicher county ranch people, was drowned Thursday.

Fire Breaks Out in Gas Plant When Tank Explodes Under High Pressure; Workmen Escape Injury

GORDON, Feb. 22.—Approximately $50,000 worth of damage resulted today when a gas tank of the Lone Star company exploded and set fire to surrounding property. About 15 workmen at the plant escaped injury.

Soon after the explosion the tank became a roaring furnace and bucket brigades from Gordon fought to bring the blaze under control. Two 18-inch gas lines which supply gas to Fort Worth, Dallas and a score of other towns were shut off. Company officials attributed the explosion to high pressure.

SEARCH AND SEIZURE LAW DEBATE WARM

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—Washington and his barefoot soldiers at Valley Forge were called to witness in a stirring debate in the Texas senate this afternoon over the law against unlawful search.

"One mistake the fathers made was to give the people too much liberty," said Senator Cousins of Beaumont. "Crockett's warning that the people must be vigilant for their liberty was truly prophetic when a Texas senator will make that statement of the father of his country," said Senator A. J. Wirtz.

Senator Eugene Miller twisted Senator Tom Love of being agitated over a little liquor in the house when "one of his leading druggists was indicted for selling liquor over the counter and nothing done about it." "Two Gun Poles" Miller called the officers invading homes without warrant. Repeat the search and seizure law, Miller said, and you bring the Chicago gang killings to Texas.

SEEK DRIVER. OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 22.—Police today were searching for the driver of a car, who after running down Nick Clark, and breaking his leg, picked him up, put him in his machine and after driving around the city for about an hour, dumped him out about a block from a hospital.

"PARTIES AND DATES" CAUSE 14 BURGLARIES

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 22.—Lure for money to finance dates and parties led two Kansas City high school students to commit 14 burglaries in the last month. Donald Cutting, 16, son of Fred L. Cutting, superintendent of the Nazarene Publishing company, and Albert Duggan, 17, both students at Paseo high school, admitted the burglaries to police this morning after they were arrested last night following two robberies.

Next Half Century Will Bring More Startling Developments in Science Than Last, Says Edison

(Copyright, 1929, by United Press.) PORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 22.—Thomas A. Edison prophesied in an interview with the United Press today the next 50 years will bring far more startling scientific developments than the period his inventive genius has dominated.

"The surface has not even been scratched," the 82-year-old inventor said. "They keep asking me what are the possibilities of machine, electric and scientific development in the next half century," he went on with a modest air that seemed to belittle his own great discoveries. "The possibilities are unlimited. As a matter of fact we do not know anything yet, and it is my opinion that the next 25 years will witness startling developments along scientific lines."

The interview, one of the few ever granted by Edison except on his birthday, took place in the new laboratory work shop where he putters with problems such as how to make rubber grow on American soil.

Edison talked of men and things in a rambling, friendly sort of way. He attacked scientific botanists for using too many "eight dollar words" as he called them. In his extensive rubber experiments, he said, he was accepting little assistance from plant experts. "These botanists give you a name a mile long and then explain that it means so and so, using another designation just as difficult to digest," Edison complained. "The trouble with modern botanists," he said, "is that they do not look at the commercial side of plant life."

Luther Burbank was about the only plant specialist known to who looked at the economical side. When I started in this rubber experimenting, I counted on him for much assistance and advice, but he died about a month after I got under way."

Colored moving pictures fascinate the partially deaf inventor. He expressed keen interest in a new color film process now being developed at Hollywood by Max Dupont. "The genius who successfully masters the problem will achieve something really great," Edison said. "I was interested in color films and had one man working on them for 16 years, but he died with the problem unsolved," he revealed.

Edison disclaimed any real part in the experiments to do away with bushes for automobiles, as Henry Ford stated in an interview several days ago, was one of the problems he and Edison are working on. "That's what Mr. Ford is trying to do," Edison chuckled, "but Henry is the man to do that. I don't think I would be much good at it."

Three large cases containing 163,231 messages endorsing his station were brought into the hearing room by Henderson as proof of his claim that his station served a large and enthusiastic public. The radio commission is not expected to decide the case for several weeks. Meanwhile, Henderson will continue to greet his audience with his well known: "Hello folks, Doggone. It is located on the northwest side of Liberty Dome and is expected to start a drilling boom here. The well's offset, Texas company No. 3, is drilling at 3,800 feet but has struck no pay sand. The Vanadium well struck the sand at 3,457 feet.

AIMEE MISSED OPPORTUNITY.

We have been thinking that if when Aimee Semple McPherson was ready to reappear after her spectacular disappearance, she had gone to that same beach whence she vanished, dipped herself in the sea...

Impressive bunk is more likely to be accepted than unimpressive Truth. An improbable fact has branded many an honest man a liar. The writer once heard of a chap who was held up and robbed in his own living room by a one legged burglar in pink tights...

In ancient days priests and priestesses, prophets and prophetesses, were wont to tell their credulous followers stories no less amazing than would have been one to the effect that a four-square evangelist had been resting for a period of days in the wash of a weedy sea...

The day of bunk is not over. While there may not be so many persons willing to believe anything as was once the case, there is still a plentiful supply of surprisingly credulous people. Six months ago if anyone had told you that there are in this country persons who believe a lock of a man's hair buried eight feet under ground would work miracles...

A certain percentage of the people in this country, and in every other country, will believe anything. The more ridiculous and spectacular the thing the quicker they will believe it. Look at the large flock of persons who every year turn their savings of a life over to irresponsible strangers for investment and never again see a penny of the money.

Perhaps the Priestess of Angelus Temple missed a wonderful opportunity to class herself among the world's immortals when she came in from a shack in a desert instead of up from the bottom of the sea.

3 SOUTHWEST CAGE GAMES ARE ON TAP

DALLAS, Feb. 22.—Three Southwest conference cage games are on tap this week and none of which are likely to change very much the status of the leaders in the conference standing.

At Fayetteville, Ark., tonight, the tall boys of the Ozarks will be hosts to Coach Chuck Bassett's Texas Aggies. Tonight at the University of Arkansas court the Porkers and Aggies will clash in the first of a two game series...

Although the Aggies are rated as dangerous foes at any time, they are not expected much change of upsetting the Porkers, who, by chalking up two wins this week will set up a clear claim to their fourth consecutive championship.

At Austin Saturday night, The Horned Frogs have been improving steadily since the first of the season, and are slated to give the Longhorns a good battle...

The Southern Methodist university cagers are to travel to Waco to LEARNED LESSON.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Feb. 22. The Boston Braves are not out to win spring training games this year, Coach Johnnie Evers announced. Feeling that, in years past the Bostonians have burned themselves out before the start of the season, Evers said the spring games this year would be only training sessions without undue effort being made to convert them into victories.

Kentucky Lady Was Seriously Ill for Months But Was Finally Relieved By Cardui.

I was seriously ill for about two months, and for several months I was not well. My nerves were all unstrung. I could not bear the least noise around me. I could not sleep.

"My head ached until it seemed as if it would burst. My feet and limbs swelled dreadfully. I felt tired all the time. When I was up, I dragged around the house, but most of the time I spent on the bed. "I got Cardui and began taking it regularly. Very soon I could see that it was helping me. I began to sleep better and eat more. The awful nervousness got better. "When I had finished the first bottle, I was much better than I had been for many weeks. I was so encouraged that I kept right on. Before very long I was doing all my household work and was feeling quite well."

Thousands of other women have been helped by Cardui after long suffering from weakness and nervousness. NC-198

HOLBROOK-MOODY PLAN MAY BE ADOPTED BY THE SENATE

Action Would Necessitate Free Conference Committee to Work Out Compromise on Prison Bill

AUSTIN, Feb. 22.—Probability of a compromise measure being adopted by the senate today on prison legislation was held out with innuendoes pointing to the senate rejecting the Holbrook-Moody plan which the house rejected earlier this week.

This will lead to appointment of a conference committee to effect a compromise. The compromise committee is to be a bill that will permit the prison board to select a location for a centralized prison but is required to report back to the legislature for its approval.

This will in effect insure the right of the legislature to make the final decision, which Governor Moody promised he would give them by offering to call a special legislative session on petition of a third of the members.

A compromise measure will also be needed to bring the house and senate together on sale of oil and leases of university lands.

The senate has passed a bill giving the regents of the university control of the matter. The house at night passed a bill putting the control in a board consisting of the commissioner and two regents of the university.

Both bills omit the mandatory requirements for sale on demand which resulted in offering 1,500,000 acres in January over protest of Governor Moody and regents. There also provision in the new bills of the university to have its lands vestigated for oil and provision for rejection of bids when none is satisfactory.

Ray Holder of Dallas county is being put forward as a candidate speaker of the 42nd legislature. A movement was started by Representative W. T. Savage of Dallas.

Holder was manager of W. Barron's successful campaign speaker of the present legislature.

Both branches held Thursday night sessions rushing through bills to which no objection was made. Among these advanced in this way was the Galveston bill to permit purchase of park property outside of the city limits and Harris county's bill to permit a preliminary county drainage survey.

An agreement being circulated among house members last night is said to have a majority of them pledged not to take up the fixing of the gasoline tax until the house has acted upon the proposed reduction of automobile registration fees.

Activities of "fly-by-night" commercial colleges, so termed by Senator Thomas Pollard, were curtailed in a bill of his which passed in the senate last night.

This bill requires any prospective commercial college must get a permit from the secretary of state, and must put up a $10,000 bond. Furthermore the bill requires that commercial colleges keep faith with students. If the institutions make a promise to get a student a position when that student completes the course by the college, it must do so.

The senate created a board of architectural examiners last night when it passed a bill by Senator A. J. Wirtz.

The election bill was engrossed by the senate last night. It was prevented being put up for final passage when argument broke out. It has previously been agreed that if a bill provoked argument it would not be put up for final passage at last night's session. This measure makes it mandatory for counties having cities of more than 100,000 population to install voting machines, but leaves their installation optional with counties having cities of less than 100,000 population.

LOST BABY IS RETURNED TO MOTHER

regarding identity of the child was raised.

Sharp and his wife held a hurried consultation. Since the woman had not seen her daughter for more than a year she was not positive that the little girl was hers.

Sharp decided to ascertain if possible whether the child was his or whether she was the girl reported missing since last Friday.

He brought the child to the United Press offices and told the strange story of the mysterious note and the journey to Vallejo.

Reporters were inclined to discount the story until they talked to the child. Little Doris convinced them that she did not "belong" to her new-found parents.

The child readily identified newspaper photographs of the playground from which she disappeared; the storekeepers in the neighborhood, and her mother and father.

Representatives of the two news organizations, after questioning the child, were positive that she was the missing "baby Doris."

Shown a piece of cloth similar to that of her dress when she was last seen by her parents, the child lisped, "Yes, sir, I did have a dress like that, but it's gone now."

"My mama? Where is she?" was one of the questions that the little girl repeatedly asked.

Police were notified of the discovery of the child but refused to comment until the mother herself made positive identification.

When first told that her daughter had been found, Mrs. E. J. Murphy refused to believe the report and hysterically cried "Oh, God, why torment me."

Mrs. Murphy, suffering from the strain imposed upon her since Doris disappeared, collapsed when told the little girl was safe and unharmed. She was taken to her daughter as soon as physicians said she could stand the ordeal.

Mrs. Sharp told the United Press that she had placed her infant daughter in an orphan asylum two years ago. Two days ago she said she had found a note under her door that telling her that she would find her daughter in Vallejo, if she went to that city.

Mrs. Sharp immediately went to Vallejo and following instructions contained in the note, met

ARLEDGE WELL DRY, NEW TEST TO BE STARTED

The Arledge & Keys well, drilled on the Adolph Reich farm, about three miles southwest of Cisco, has been completed for a dry hole at a depth of 1,642 feet. Several pay sands were struck in the well, but no oil in sufficient quantities to justify a shot was discovered. Mr. Arledge says they will start another well early in the spring at a different location on this tract.

HE WISHES ALL IN TEXAS COULD KNOW ABOUT IT

"For three years I was a constant sufferer from liver disorders, acid stomach, and other troubles. Sargol is the only medicine I ever found that overcame my troubles.

T. M. CAMPBELL, and I wish it was so that everybody in Texas knew about this wonderful medicine.

"No matter how careful I was about my eating, I suffered after every meal with gas pains and indigestion. I had no relish for even the most tempting dishes. My liver was inactive and I had to take strong laxatives continually. I felt tired and run-down, and became so nervous I would roll and toss about for hours every night before I could get to sleep.

"Sargol went right to my troubles after everything else had failed. It put my stomach in perfect condition and I got real pleasure out of my meals now for I eat everything I want and I have such a fine appetite I relish every bite. I even eat between meals and at night, and never have a moment's trouble from indigestion. My nerves are strong as steel again and I sleep like a top from the time I hit the pillow until time to get up in the morning. I have gained weight and I feel fine all the time.

"Sargol Soft Mass Pills completely overcame my constipation. I never have to take laxatives now for my liver is in perfect condition.

"I have already told many of my friends what a wonderful medicine Sargol is. It deserves full credit for it does just what they say it will do."

The above statement was made recently by T. M. Campbell, electrical engineer in charge of all electrical work at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio.

Sargol may be obtained in Cisco at Elliott Drug Store and Corner Drug Store.—Adv.

BADGERS PLAY TARLETON FIVE TONIGHT

Thursday night at the John Tarleton college gym at Stephenville the Randolph college boys lost a hard fought game to the Junior Aggies. The score was 35-21. Failure to make free throws was the cause of the defeat. The Randolph boys had 14 free chances and made only 3. The Tarleton team averaged about six feet in height. The center is 6 feet and 5 inches tall and weighs 230 or 240 pounds. It is the largest team the Badgers have played this year.

A tough schedule looms ahead for the Randolph team. Tonight and Saturday night the boys play John Tarleton team at the Randolph gym. These two games will be thrillers and should furnish the crowd with two hours of excitement. Next week the boys have two or three games on schedule. The girls play Dublin high school in the Randolph gym Thursday night. On Friday begin the girls' journey to Weatherford to play the Weatherford girls. The local team has one victory over the Weatherford girls. The game should be a thriller from start to finish. The Randolph girls are bidding fair to win the Junior Conference Girls' basketball title.

W. J. HATTEN RETURNING TO EASTLAND

EASTLAND, Feb. 22.—From faraway Michigan a group of twelve men are returning to Eastland. They are County Attorney Joe H. Jones, Deputy Sheriff Rowie Hill and W. J. Hatten, accused of embezzlement.

The prosecutor and the deputy sheriff left Eastland 16 days ago armed with requisition papers for the return of Hatten. He resisted extradition and a hearing was held before the governor of Louisiana. Many times, such hearings are decided in favor of the accused but in this instance the Texas authorities were successful. A brief wire was received by the county attorney's office Wednesday morning from Jones to the effect that Hatten and the two officials are on their way to Texas. It is believed that Missouri is the furthest distance that any man has ever been brought to Eastland county to face a charge.

INGRAM CASES SUBMITTED ON APPEALS

The appeals of B. A. and Tim Ingram were submitted in the criminal court of appeals Wednesday on both brief and oral argument, said Attorney J. Lee Charley, counsel for the defendants. B. A. and Tim Ingram are under conviction with a 16 years sentence each for the robbery of the postoffice and store of D. L. Allen, at Nimrod, on the night of March 7, 1928. They are yet to face trial in the federal courts for the robbery of the Nimrod office of postal funds if the federal authorities elect to prosecute the pair.

BADGERS PLAY TARLETON FIVE TONIGHT

With the arrival of a new contingent of steel rails today the Texas & Pacific has placed here to date 44 cars of these rails to be used in relaying the main line from Eastland to Baird. This steel is being unloaded and stored at the Cisco & Northeastern yards. Two large derricks are being used in unloading the steel as rapidly as it comes in.

About 125 cars will be required to relay the line between the two towns, according to C. P. Cole, Texas & Pacific agent here.

The steel that is being substituted for the 90-pound rails used on the line is of the 110-pound size. The heavy traffic which is carried over the T. & P. has necessitated improvement of the line in this location.

NEW AIRMAIL ENVELOPES REACH HERE

The Cisco postoffice is just in receipt of the new airmail envelopes to be used in the airmail service out of Cisco. The design is rather attractive, with its border of red, white and blue. The front stamp embossed in the right hand upper corner, with the numeral 5c and an airplane in center and marginal reading of "U. S. Airmail." The envelopes retail at 6 cents. It was stated at the local postoffice that there is quite a batch of mail matter now being transported by airmail with the present airmail connections out of Fort Worth to Chicago, and Houston, and via New Orleans and Birmingham to New York. Cisco will have connections in a few days with air service out of Fort Worth for St. Louis, local postal officials say.

TWO KILLED IN CRASH AT ARLINGTON

ARLINGTON, Feb. 22.—Two persons were killed late Thursday when their automobile was hit by an interurban car and demolished at Bowen stop, a mile and a half west of here. Floyd Martin, employed by the Gulf Petroleum company, was killed instantly and his wife died shortly after the accident without regaining consciousness. The Martins lived near Coscota and were en route to Grapevine to visit Martin's brother when the accident occurred.

NEW EFFORT SEND PRUITT TO THE CHAIR

DALLAS, Feb. 22.—Another effort will be made by the state to send William (Dagger) Pruitt to the electric chair on March 11 when his trial for murder in connection with the slaying of William Mann, high school boy, opens in criminal district court here.

Mann was shot to death during a hijacking and at least one witness is known to have positively identified Pruitt as the killer. Pruitt's trial on a charge of robbery with firearms for which the state asked the death penalty, ended late Thursday when a jury in Judge C. A. Phippen's criminal district court found him guilty and assessed a penalty of 99 years imprisonment.

The verdict came after the jury had deliberated one and one-half hours and after several ballots had been taken. On the first ballot the jury stood five for the death penalty, five for 99 years, one for 50 years and one for 30 years. Thereafter the argument changes as additional ballots were taken until all were unanimous for 99 years. Four ballots were taken on the matter of penalty.

When the verdict was read, Pruitt's mother, sitting next to the defendant, began to cry audibly. As the verdict came after the jury had deliberated one and one-half hours and after several ballots had been taken. On the first ballot the jury stood five for the death penalty, five for 99 years, one for 50 years and one for 30 years. Thereafter the argument changes as additional ballots were taken until all were unanimous for 99 years. Four ballots were taken on the matter of penalty.

Three defense alibi witnesses, William Pruitt Sr., father of the defendant, H. G. Wright and Jasper Smith were arraigned with perjury as a result of their testimony at the trial. Their cases will be taken before the grand jury. District Attorney William McCraw today expressed confidence that Pruitt will be found guilty and sentenced to death when he goes to trial for the Mann slaying. A witness has been found who says he stood only a few feet away when Mann was hijacked and that he is positive the hijacker was Pruitt.

FIRST LADY GIVEN RIDE IN SLEIGH

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The merry jingle of sleigh bells interrupted the chugging of motor cars yesterday in Washington and a quaint chapter was added to white house history. Mrs. Calvin Coolidge, first lady of the land, took a ride behind prancing horses through snow-blanketed streets and parks.

She was the guest of the unusual happening of Mrs. James J. Davis, wife of the secretary of labor, who, with her eight-year-old daughter tucked in beside her, drove up to the white house in a sleigh fitted with all the trappings of a traditional Santa Claus. It took a lively crew two hours to unweath the equipment, President Wilson being the last occupant of the white house to use a sleigh.

Mrs. Coolidge laughed as she stepped into the conveyance to take advantage of the unusual snow, and evidence of her keen enjoyment was seen in that she was late for a 5 o'clock appointment.

MARACAIBO PAPER SENT TO CISCO

A copy of the issue of Saturday, January 26, of the Maracaibo Herald, published at Maracaibo, Venezuela, has been received by Mrs. A. C. Green, of Cisco. The paper was sent by Miss Virginia Roberts, a friend of Mrs. Green, whose father is connected with the Gulf Venezuela company at Maracaibo.

The paper is printed in English, the lines liberally spaced, probably to facilitate reading by a population the larger element of which is but nominally acquainted with English if at all, while the pages are profusely illustrated with north American pictures. Apparently Maracaibo merchants, for all the alleged backwardness of South American countries, are wise enough to realize the value of advertising. The issue carries 16 pages.

FOUR MEMBERS OF HOOVER'S CABINET HAVE BEEN SELECTED

President-Elect Devoting Large Part of Birthday of Washington to Consideration of Problems

By THOMAS L. STOKES.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—President-elect Hoover celebrated the birthday of the first president of the United States by devoting a large part of the day to consideration of the unsolved problems which still confront him, chiefly selection of his cabinet, not yet fully made up.

Due to hitches of one sort and another recently, there are some few places indefinite. The United Press learns, however, that the following four men have been selected definitely and have accepted portfolios:

Secretary of state, Henry L. Stimson, New York. Secretary of treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, Pittsburgh. Secretary of interior, Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford University. Secretary of navy, Charles Francis Adams, Boston, lawyer, office in numerous corporations and treasurer of Harvard University.

Mr. Hoover finds the problem, which he considered today while the government he soon will take over was at rest, far more complex than those which faced George Washington in those early days when prohibition, among other things, was not an issue and it took days to find out who was in the president's cabinet.

An inquiry discloses his choice for postmaster general now lies between two men who took prominent parts in the Hoover campaign, Walter P. Brown, of Toledo, Hoover Ohio primary campaign manager, and James W. Good, of Chicago, a director in the Hoover pre-convention campaign and western campaign manager. Good arrived in Washington recently and has conferred twice with the president-elect.

Two other men are regarded almost certain for the cabinet, but the positions they will fill are indefinite. They are Henry M. Robinson, Los Angeles banker and close friend of Hoover, and member of the Dawes reparations commission, who conferred at length with the president-elect yesterday and last night and William J. Donovan, assistant attorney general. Robinson came all the way from his California home and his stay here is indefinite.

Donovan will not be attorney general. This is definite. The attorney generalship is one of Mr. Hoover's chief worries since Senator Borah of Idaho declined the post. There are three names now under observation. It is learned, however, that one of these, it is understood, is Henry W. Anderson of Richmond, Va., Republican leader, whose nomination would give the south representation in the cabinet which it expects. Anderson saw the president-elect in Florida. The attorney general may be a "dark horse," however.

MORE SNOW AND COLD FOR MIDDLE WEST

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—More cold and snow is in store for the middle and the Rocky Mountain area, already under a heavy blanket for the most part, according to weather predictions today. Temporary relief from the intense cold which swept the sections early this week was afforded yesterday, but a new wave is coming down from the north. Low marks for the winter and in some places for many years have been set, and even lower temperatures may be expected, the forecast said.

NEW MODEL ANNOUNCED BY OAKLAND

A new model supplementing the other seven passenger types in the latest line of Oakland All-American series is announced by the Oakland Motor Car Co. Known as the Special Four-door sedan, the new car is built to take the place of the Landau sedan in the previous All-American series.

While following in exterior design the regular 4-door sedan, the new model carries luxurious interior, equipment and refinements as well as striking new exterior Duo combinations.

Upholstery of a superior quality of mohair, genuine pean wood garnish rails, vanity case and smoking set and rubber floor mat with felt back are now features of the special sedan, which also has the adjustable driver's seat, ebony finish instrument panel, non-glare rear view mirror and other advanced body refinements common to all Fisher-Oakland bodies.

Wheels are in natural wood finish, and at extra cost may be replaced with six wire wheels and trunk rack, the spares carried in front fender. Beautifully contrasting shades of lawn and Ozark green Duo finish the body, fenders and hood, while strappings and moldings are of pioneer orange and moonstone gray.

Priced at $1,320 f. o. b. the factory, the new model offers all the flexible performance of the latest Oakland, as well as distinctive appearance and interior luxury that make it a fitting companion model to the custom-like All-American Landaulet the aristocrat of the line.

RECEIPTS FOR BIG BOUT ARE NEAR $300,000

By FRANK GETTY.
MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 22.—With the fighters approaching the proverbial pink of condition and the gate receipts approaching $300,000, the coming engagement between Young Stribling and Jack Sharkey assumed the proportions of a major enterprise today.

Certainly the attendance will be of the quantity and quality which would have delighted the heart of Tex Rickard could he have lived to see how well this last venture of his has turned out.

As for the contestants who will face each other in the ring next Wednesday night, they are both trained to a fine edge, and there is considerable concern in both camps regarding the necessity of building them up.

Jack Sharkey spent some pleasant moments with a couple of bottles of beer last night, putting back some of the pounds he has shed in the hot sun during his workouts at the dog racing track of the Miami Beach Kennel club. The Bostonian announced he would not work today, but would resume hard training tomorrow.

Nevertheless, Johnny Buckley got his man out to the track for an early morning run.

The Death's Head moth, now rarely seen, emits squeaks almost as loud as those of a mouse.

HOW TO FIGHT EXCESS FAT
There are hard ways, like starvation, but fewer and fewer employ them. There is a pleasant way, modern and scientific, which combats the cause. A vast number of people now use it. And the slender figures now seen everywhere are largely due to that.

That method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 20 years—millions of boxes of them. And everybody, in almost every circle, sees the change. New beauty, new health, new vitality.
Each box of Marmola contains the formula, also the scientific reasons for results. So users have no fear of harm. Learn the facts about Marmola, because of the good it has done. Ask your druggist—now—for a $1 box with the book. Then decide.

Bathing and MeLo just go together

The man, woman or child who bathes and doesn't use MeLo to soften the water doesn't know what they are missing. MeLo softens hard water. It makes a delightfully soapy bath. It doesn't let the water form a dirty ring around the tub. That's a good news to women who scrub off the dirty ring! Water softened with MeLo is a wonderful cleanser, with or without soap. MeLo saves soap, too, from 1/3 to 1/2 the amount ordinarily used. It makes soap much more effective. Use it wherever you need soft water. Get it at your grocer's.
