LEGISLATIVE SESSION

The legislative session recently was a busy body despite the fact that little constructive legislation was passed. Most people who are not familiar with the routine of the legislature are inclined to be surprised because so little seems to be done. As a matter of fact, the session is accomplished in committee, and it takes a relative body nearly a month to fairly into its work. The sessions are entirely too short, making special sessions almost an absolute necessity if due consideration is to be given to appropriation bills. The special session to convene next month will have before it thirty days it can remain in session under the constitution. In the appropriation bills, large as they now are, should have all of a month's consideration, but in addition the governor will have many measures to submit. It is also probable that a necessary measure for a second special session is a big state with means governmental problems are it.

BEREFORD'S UNDERTAKING

Bereford has a big constructive program for the year and has engaged upon it early and in a way that will insure its success. A hotel estimated at $225,000 is the largest financial undertaking, but the Bereford brand is confident that the work needed will be completed by the end of the year. An airport, which is to be a part of the Trans-Continental port company, is another enterprise that will more closely connect the city with the outside world.

BROWNWOOD'S PARK

While Brownwood is growing at the rate of more than two complete houses a day, the thriving city is not overlooking needed civic improvements. It has several small parks, but is planning the improvement of park grounds to cover some 200 or 400 acres of land in the city, lying along a creek between two mountains. Part of the plan is to be used for playgrounds requiring lands. A broad double boulevard some two or three miles in length and along the windings of a stream, which is lined with shade trees, will connect the residence section of the city with the park, the site of which is said to equal or excel in beauty the notable Brackenridge park at San Antonio.

BROWNVILLE'S AIRMAR

Brownville is a city with a right to be proud. The air mail service between that city on the Rio Grande and Mexico City will mean much for Brownville, the lower Rio Grande Valley and all of Southwest Texas. It will help Brownville to find its place as the metropolis of that part of Texas. The service was inaugurated by Colonel Lindbergh who brought the first mail plane from Mexico City to Brownville and whose presence in Brownville at the initiation of the airmail service made it a notable international event.

GRADE CROSSING ACCIDENTS

Collisions at railroad grade crossings in Texas in 1928 took 7 lives and injured 82 others. Most of these could have been avoided and many of them should have been by the easy construction of underpasses and overpasses. In the old days when people traveled slowly in wagons, railroad crossings were not so dangerous and many of them were constructed at high grades and at dangerous curves. In a few trips recently made, I have been impressed that there are a number of dangerous grade crossings in Texas where underpasses could be built at extremely low cost, but the railroads and the people permit the hazards to remain. I write I have in mind at least two crossings on the Santa Fe in hills country where the highway grades are very steep and the curves very dangerous. It is due to the indifference of the people, as well as of the railroads, that such conditions are allowed to exist.

Letting of Contracts on Highway Improvement Due Soon; Actual Work Will Await Deeds for Right of Way

A letter from County Judge Clyde L. Garrett, at Eastland, to the chamber of commerce here, says that contracts are about to be let for the improving and widening of highways numbers 1 and 23 and 67, but that work orders will not be given to successful bidders until deeds for all additional rights of way are delivered to the county commission. It is imperative, according to the letter, that cities which have interested themselves in securing additional right of way so that these highways may be widened and improved, get busy.

CITY-WIDE CLEAN UP DRIVE WILL START TOMORROW

Cisco Divided Into Eighteen Districts for Convenience in Carrying Out Intensive Drive

The opening gun in a city-wide campaign that is aimed at making and keeping—Cisco the cleanest in West Texas will be fired Monday morning with the organization of civic forces for this movement having been completed Friday and Saturday.

The campaign—which will be successful in the proportion that citizens take pride in Cisco and cooperate—is hinged upon civic duty. A similar movement several years ago was a great success and drive forces, headed by J. A. Herman as chairman of the municipal affairs committee of the number of commerce, are confident that if a civic pride existed in more than ever does so now.

Starting Monday morning every citizen should do something to beautify or clean up about his premises. The great problem is removal of the debris and waste that will be found to have accumulated and this problem can be solved only by the immediate hauling away of this trash. As rapidly as sufficient quantity accumulates should be hauled away.

The date set for the inspection of judging of residential premises in the business district is March 18.

For convenience in the direction of the campaign the city has been divided into districts as follows:

District No. 1—Mrs. A. E. Willing, president, American Legion auxiliary; College Heights, Spears addition, Turknett addition, and all territory west of Fee street. This territory being north of T & P railroad.

But is merely a "friendship" pillow, according to the Greens. Miss Greene formerly was a student at the University of Nebraska, at Lincoln, where Lindbergh was a student at the Ray Page aviation school here. ### Former Cisco Woman Writes of Scenes at Inaugural Ceremonies; Texas People Much in Evidence

An interesting and intimate account of the ceremonies at the inauguration of President Hoover is supplied by a former Cisco woman, Mrs. L. H. Nix, now of Washington, D. C. In a letter to her sister, Mrs. J. E. Elkins, of Cisco, Mrs. Nix will be remembered here as Miss Lina Reagan, who at one time was a teacher in the Cisco schools.

In spite of day of drizzling rain the big inaugural show was pulled off. Many government officials and 20,000 other people that participated in the parade went through their paces for the great event. It was a day long to be remembered. Long trains had been pouring into the union station discharging their thousands of passengers, to say nothing of the great crowds who came by automobile, boat and bus.

We thought best to stay at home and listen to the program at the capital by radio, then just before Mr. Hoover's speech was ended, we jumped into our car and hurried to the parade. We had to park a great distance away and walked down to Pennsylvania avenue just across from the president's reviewing stand in front of the white house. We had not bought seats for the occasion for they were $5.00 and $15.00—that is the ones to be desired—so we stood about two and a half hours. The people were standing four and five in depth at first along the line of parade, but our eight years residence here has taught us not to mind the crowds, so we gradually worked our way through to the edge of the sidewalk, and we had a splendid view.

The rain was coming down steadily, but we were prepared with rain coats, rubbers and umbrellas. Tomatoes got pretty tired, but I told her she should be a better sport than to fuss about the weather. It was the most spectacular parade that I have ever seen in Washington, and I have seen many, including the great peace parade at the close of the great war. Pennsylvania avenue had been transformed from a busy thoroughfare into a court of splendor, reflecting many colors.

The display of aircraft with the great airship, Los Angeles, and a great many army planes in battle formation were cruising about over the massed thousands below; the reviewing stand in white and gold, all flag bedecked, made it all one beautiful picture. Thousands of people, who had paid dearly for their seats, both in money and in sacrificing coats and hats, gave up

STRANGE RACE OF MINERS IS DYING AWAY

TUCKAHOE, N. J., March 16.—A rapidly diminishing race of men, known as "swamp miners" ply one of the world's strangest trades in wooded swamps and creeks of South Jersey—probing hundreds of feet for cedar logs buried a thousand years.

The miners have become as interesting to scientists as the strange nature of their trade which they have devotedly followed for generations in the secluded villages near the Atlantic coast.

Like gold miners the "swampers" work "claims" in the swamps and creek beds which make that part of New Jersey a maze of waterways comparable to the English fen country. George H. Cook, of Rutgers college, assistant state geologist, said one log a thousand years old was brought to the surface.

The "swamp miners" have found their trade very profitable but it is said to necessitate hardiness, expertness and skill. Standing in the cold, brackish water up to their waists the miners push long iron spades into the mud where they think trees have fallen and then been submerged by the inroads of the Atlantic Ocean.

After locating a log they loosen a chip and bring it to the surface. It is said the miners can tell by smelling it whether the log was blown down alive or fell over dead. Only the live logs can be used. After prying the logs loose from the ooze they float to the surface as rapidly and buoyant as a newly fallen tree.

From these logs high-grade roofing shingles, cedar chests and other articles are made.

HOOVER DOES LOTS OF WORK IN A HURRY

BY LAWRENCE SULLIVAN. WASHINGTON, March 16.—After ten days in the white house, President Hoover has official Washington somewhat amazed over the vigor and boldness of his activities.

Despite the fact he has been harassed by the day-to-day direction of United States police toward the Mexican disturbances, Hoover has found time and energy to call a special session of congress, enunciate a new and far-reaching policy of oil conservation, and dispose of a five-year controversy by opening to inspection the treasury department records on the larger tax refunds.

He has put into operation a new and broader policy of press relations, laid the groundwork of a nation-wide inquiry into law enforcement and judicial reform and outlined informally to leaders in congress his general program for the special session of congress next month.

At odd moments he has organized the white house staff on a permanent basis, disposed of his major appointments in the domestic service, including four assistant secretaries, determined his course relative to the national origins immigration quotas, and begun consideration of his diplomatic appointments.

The president has received more than 200 official callers at the executive offices and has invited guests to lunch or dine with him at the white house on four occasions. He has discussed politics ranging from minor executive appointments to waterways, and from law enforcement to irrigation and reclamation, world court and farm relief to congressional reapportionment.

Meanwhile, he is gathering notes daily for his message to congress next month. Since he took the oath of office he has had no social engagement which called for his leaving the white house.

Definite Plans For Conservation of Oil in Western Hemisphere Being Acted Upon at Houston

AUSTIN, March 16. — Former Gov. James E. Ferguson predicted that Gov. ## NEGRO VOODOO DOCTOR GIVEN DEATH PENALTY

AUSTIN, March 16.—In an effort to side-step the electric chair a motion for a new trial for Bishop Adams, negro voodoo doctor, convicted of the murder of William Gilber, white, Austin grocer, and given the death penalty yesterday, was filed Saturday according to Jerome Sneed, Jr., defense lawyer.

Friday brought in the verdict of death to the voodoo doctor who, deprived of his rabbit's foot, had watched the state begin its evidence against him on March 13, for slaying Globor on Feb. 13, by cutting him with a razor. That was the first death penalty in the score of the 23-year-old district attorney, Henry Brooks, and the first death penalty in the career of Judge J. D. Moore, presiding, either as district attorney or judge, and the first to be inflicted in Travis county since 1917.

TAKES TWO U. S. RECORDS TO ENGLAND

When Major H. O. D. Scott returns to England with his monster racing car in which he traveled 231.36 miles per hour on the sands of Daytona Beach he will also take with him two of America's former total of 16 world records for automobiles. But though America has lost two of its former records, it still retains not only a large store of the world speed honors, but numbers among them achievements which have practical meaning and value for the average motorist. This is pointed out by F. A. Blahkenbockler, Studebaker-Engline dealer here, who says, "American engineering is still responsible for 14 world speed marks, three made by Harry Miller's tiny racing cars, and 11 by strictly stock models of Studebaker's President Eight. These 11 world records held by the President Eight in many respects mark the most important achievements ever made by motor cars. Two President roadsters traveled 30,000 miles on the Atlantic City speedway at sustained average speeds of more than 68 miles an hour. One roadster finished in 26.326 minutes, and the other finished three minutes later. Both were strictly stock cars alike in every respect to those any motorist can buy from his Studebaker dealer."

SENSATIONAL SERIES OF BURGLARIES TO FIGURE IN TRIAL

Odie Pruitt, Confessed Burglar, to Be Tried on 10 Indictments During Week, Says County Attorney

EASTLAND, March 16.—One of the most sensational series of burglaries in recent years in Eastland county is scheduled to figure in trials in the 88th district court here Monday.

County Attorney Joe H. Jones announces that Odie Pruitt, who faces 10 indictments, probably will be tried on all these charges during the week.

Pruitt has signed a confession that he and two other men met a Ranger and decided "to rob somebody somewhere." They drove to Gorman—according to the confession—where they stole a safe, dragged it behind a car out into the country, broke it open with a sledge hammer and obtained $115 of their efforts.

Then Pruitt and his companions returned to Gorman and stole a car after first setting fire to the one they had, the confession reads.

The following night, Pruitt and his associates staged five burglaries—two in Eastland and three in Olden, the statement declares. The Texas Drug store and Castleberry's feed store were burglarized in Eastland then, swooping down upon Olden, the gang broke into a drug store, cafe and filling station.

One night afterward, Pruitt and his confederates robbed the W. K. Johnston grocery store in Cisco, says the confession.

The burglars arranged that when one or more of the gang was away from the rendezvous, if anything happened, a white rag would be tied on the gate as a danger signal. When Pruitt drove up, he saw a warning cloth so he did not stop but headed west, his confession states. He was arrested in Odessa.

A man accused of having robbed the Walker-Smith wholesale grocery in Ranger of 137 cartons of cigarettes is scheduled to be tried this week. The accused man is John Tasker.

In all, some 35 cases are set for trial.

Judge Elio Been of Eastland has exchanged benches with Judge Sam Russell of Stephenville for the week as the latter was disqualified to preside in some cases in Erath county as he was district attorney when the indictments were returned.

DISARMAMENT MOVES WAIT UNTIL MAY

By PAUL R. MALLON WASHINGTON, March 16.—President Hoover's contemplated action looming toward reopening of international disarmament negotiations probably will be taken soon after the British elections in May, the United Press was informed today by an authority in touch with the situation.

As a result of this expected delay, no great attention will be centered upon the Geneva preliminary disarmament conference scheduled for April 15 with Ambassador Hugh Gibson participating in behalf of the United States. These preliminary meetings have been held at intervals but the big disarmament moves have been left for special conferences like Washington arms conference of 1921.

Mr. Hoover is holding up any action in the matter now because the situation may be entirely changed by the British election and any move now might be interpreted as interfering in British domestic politics. The campaign is being fought in part upon the issue of naval construction, the Laborites championing the cause of curtailment of building. The bye-elections in advance of the general balloting have indicated the Laborites have a good chance success according to internationalists here who have been following the situation closely.

NO HOPE FOR RECOVERY OF MARSHAL FOCH

PARIS, March 16.—Marshall Ferdinand Foch, commander of the Allied armies during the World War is doomed to death by a uremic condition combined with a weakened heart, one of his physicians informed the United Press today.

Dr. De Genne, a heart specialist who was present at a consultation of nine physicians this morning, said although the aged warrior's condition was grave his strength was such that death might be delayed for weeks or months.

OIL OUTPUT WON'T EXCEED TOTAL FOR 1928

HOUSTON, March 16.—Oil production throughout the United States this year will not exceed that of 1928.

Daily average production in the four regions of this county will not exceed that of last year, beginning April 1. Such were the resolutions passed today by the general conservation committee of the American Petroleum Institute meeting here since Friday to determine some way to conserve the nation's petroleum supply and stop waste.

These plans will be presented to the institute directors in New York March 27, and soon therefore will be put into effect, it was believed.

OIL NEWS OF SOUTHWEST

HOUSTON, March 16.—Union Exploration company's wildcat No. 2 Nellie Esperson Stewart six miles southwest of Dayton in Liberty county has a showing of oil at 3,670 feet and will make a drill stem test. This is the second showing encountered in this test. Humble - Marland - States wildcat No. 5 Warren at Honey is preparing to make a drill stem test on a showing encountered at 3,100 feet.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE Whereas, in fairness to citizens who have promptly paid their taxes and do not wish that the county is badly in need of said taxes, the collection of which would not only permit the county to reduce its indebtedness but would enable it to substantially reduce the tax rate it is the earnest desire of the court that all delinquent taxes be collected at the earliest date possible and in the passing and publishing of this order, giving due notice of the court's action, it is to be hoped that those who have not paid their taxes will promptly make arrangements to pay same thereby saving themselves much additional expense.

MISS MORINI HAS VOICE OF GREAT QUALITY

Miss Rosalinda Morini, who is to appear here May 7 at Randolph college at the college auditorium, is an American girl, born and educated in this country, and has only recently returned from Europe with a string of sensational successes to her credit.

The entire foreign press commented on Morini's voice as one of extraordinary quality which brought back memories of Jenny Lind and Adelina Patti at their best. Certainly not since the days of Tetrazini has a voice of equal power, purity and beauty appeared anywhere.

One always thought that the greatest artists had to come from Europe and go to America but with the coming of Morini the tables have been turned.

She received her musical training in America, but later went to Italy where she studied with Alessandro Poffi. She sang in most of the leading opera and concert houses creating sensation after sensation. Miss Morini is a true coloratura. Her first appearance in America was in a Carnegie hall, where she immediately repeated her success.

U. S. FLIERS ARE WANTED IN MEXICO

LAREDO, March 16.—Mexican federal and rebels are both offering American airplane pilots $125 daily for their services, according to word received here.

The reported offer already has attracted the attention of some American pilots, he said.

An American observation plane with W. A. Strong, Milwaukee pilot, and G. H. Gray, San Antonio, Tex., mechanic, left Laredo Friday en route to Saltillo where they stated they would assist the Mexican federalists.

SHOOT'S FAMILY.

AL JOLSON COMING IN JAZZ SINGER

Manager Greer of the Palace theater announces the coming of the world's greatest entertainer in "The Jazz Singer." Warner Bros. supreme triumph a stirring heart story of a lad of the tenements who ran away from home, won fame as a jazz singer when almost too late.

Thrilling, emotional, intensely dramatic the play is crowding houses wherever shown.

Now and then along comes a moving picture that is out of the ordinary and distinctly worth while. Such a picture is Al Jolson's "The Jazz Singer" being shown at the Palace theater tomorrow.

"The Jazz Singer" is the story of Jolson's own life for he, too, like the Jack Robin of the play, ran away from an orthodox home when a boy to follow the lure of the stage, and like Jack, won fame and fortune on Broadway.

The cast is worthy of the star which is saying a great deal. Dainty May McAvoy plays brilliantly the part of the toe dancing lady who changes the course of his life.

Warner Grand gives a magnificent portrayal of the father, for whose sake he returns to the ghetto in the hour of his triumph.

Hear Jolson sing "Dirty Hands," "April Showers," "Blue Skies," "Mother, I Still Have You," and many others. "The Jazz Singer" opens tomorrow. Don't miss it. See it at least once.

WURZBACK HEARING SET FOR MARCH 23

The indictment against Wurzbach alleges that he received contributions from federal employees during his 1926 campaign.

650 IS GOAL FOR BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

As a culmination to the Sunday school survey and enlargement program conducted during the past week by the First Baptist church the Sunday school will be reorganized and an enlarged organization will be set up in each department. The members will be classified, graded and assigned to classes according to the new arrangements that have been worked out by the church workers.

The organization of the Sunday school has been increased from 65 to 96 workers in order to properly man and supervise the work of the different departments. Sixteen classes are being added to the present number.

Fourteen hundred twenty-two is a total of the possibilities for the Sunday school found in the census of last Sunday and information tabulated during the week. This is an increase of 794 people above the present enrollment of 628 in the Sunday school.

Forty-five workers went over the city Friday morning to visit the possibilities and urge them to join the Sunday school. As a result of this visitation and other efforts to increase the enrollment and attendance of the school a goal of 650 has been set for today's attendance. A picture will be made of the entire Sunday school at the close of the morning services.

HANS WAGNER

... OLD TIME PITTSBURG PIRATE, AND ONE OF THE GAME'S GREATEST PLAYERS.

HANS BATTED OVER 2000 FOR 17 YEARS.

JUST BORN TOO SOON

IF I WERE 20 YEARS YOUNGER I COULD HIT .450 AGAINST THE PRESENT DAY PITCHERS SAYS HANS.

— STOOKIE ALLEN

The belief of Hans Wagner, the greatest ballplayer who ever worked at the princely salary of $7 a day as a sergeant-at-arms in the Pennsylvania legislature, that he would have hit at a .450 average against modern pitching and the lively ball has started loads of argument.

"Honus" was the Pirates' best hitter over many years. Season after season he piled up better than a .300 mark against such hurling talent as Brown, Cole, Overall, Ruelbach, Witse, Ames, Raymond, Chesbro and Mathewson. And there's no doubt the 1929 ball goes further.

Whether Wagner, had his prime come 20 years later, would have hit .450 is debatable but there's no doubt that his salary, which at current valuations would have been at least $40,000 a year, would have coped with the necessity of his ever holding a $7-a-day post.

NEGRO ADMITS MURDERS OF MAN AND WIFE

WACO, March 16.—Jordan Scott, negro, confessed today to the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pedigo at the home near Moody on Thursday night of last week. Scott told investigators he killed Pedigo because the farmer had denied him a drink of water two days before the tragedy. He killed the woman, he said, because she recognized his name.

The confession came after hours of grueling by members of the sheriff and county attorney departments. Discovery of an old Winchester rifle which had been buried in the field about 200 yards from the Pedigo home was largely responsible for breaking down the negro's denial of guilt. Two separate charges of murder were filed against the black.

Mr. and Mrs. Pedigo were shot at their farm home near Moody last Thursday morning. Pedigo's body was found near the woodpile in the back yard and Mrs. Pedigo was found in her bedroom.

A small child, who was found playing on the floor in the house after the shooting, assisted officers in their search for the slayer. The child told officers that "a nigger did it."

TWO LAMAR BANDITS ARE TOUGH PAIR

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 16.—Clarence Clinton and Jack Reed, held in connection with the murderous Lamar, Colo., bank robbery, are "the toughest looking pair in the show-up for months," Kansas City police said today.

Lamar officers were expected here to take custody of the men late today. The pair is wanted at Lamar, Colo., for the murder of a lease four men and for the robbery there of the First National bank of $10,000 cash and $76,000 in securities.

One of the greatest man hunts of the middle west followed the robbery of the bank after the bandits had killed A. N. Parish, 77-year-old president of the institution, and his son, John Parish, when they refused to comply with the demands of the bandits.

Clinton and Reed, who were members of the old Kimes gang of Oklahoma, also are charged with the murder of Dr. W. Wineinger, of Dighton, Kan., and F. A. Kesinger, an employe of the bank whom they abducted as hostage.

Sheriff L. E. Alderman, of Lamar, is expected to arrive here today for the men.

The pair was arrested yesterday at Leeds after a tip from Lamar officials that the men were in the vicinity of Kansas City.

Unusual Opportunity Offered Cisco for Publicity in Sending "Kittens" to National Open Meet at Wichita

The citizens of Cisco have an unusual opportunity in an advertising way due to the fact that the Randolph college girls' ball team which met only won the junior college conference championship but also the A. A. U. championship of the South, is now planning to enter the national tournament at Wichita, Kansas. The very fact that these girls are entering the contest will bring Cisco to the immediate attention of the people from various states that will meet in Wichita, and their work will be watched with keen interest throughout the whole nation. When the Bellefonte football team came to Cisco several years ago a newspaper reporter came all the way from Pennsylvania to "cover" the game. No doubt, the contest at Wichita will be watched and reported by all the important papers over the nation. In this way Cisco will be advertised throughout the nation.

In order that these girls may be given the proper attention and care a committee composed of the citizens of Cisco is at work to supply sufficient funds for this purpose. One man has been known to state that had this occurred in an Abilene college there would have been $4,000 raised, instead of the $450 that is being asked by the committee here. The committee will be glad if local people will leave any contributions at the City drug, Elliott drug, chamber of commerce, or the Daily News from where they will find their way to the proper committee.

Let's all join in this matter and give the girls a great send-off that will give them the proper enthusiasm for victory!

State Highway Commission Policy With Regard to Metcalf Gap Not Discriminatory Mass Meeting Finds

At a conference between representatives of all cities along the Bankhead highway between Metcalf Gap and Abilene and State Highway Commissioner W. R. Ely held Friday in Baird all misunderstanding regarding the attitude of the highway commission with respect to the Metcalf Gap proposition was satisfactorily explained.

The question had occasioned another flare-up in the old Bankhead highway dispute thought satisfactory settled with the solution of the Broadway at Metcalf Gap. Another person will be used in taking care of a dangerous right angle hearing first-hand from the commission its policy with regard to the reconstruction of the right angle turn existing in the highway that leaves the Bankhead for Broadway at Metcalf Gap.

Commissioner Ely explained that this policy calls for the construction of the road in such a way that neither the Bankhead nor the Beckenridge highway will be discriminated against each of them departing from the point of separation at Metcalf Gap. This representative of Cisco and other cities at the meeting agreed, was wholly fair and impartial and entirely satisfactory. The reconstruction of the gap is in line with Commissioner Ely called attention to the plan of the commission to build a road in Eastland county alone this year the sum of $250,000 for road improvement. Of this sum over $100,000, he said, will be used in the construction of an approach at Harrell's crossing, three miles west of Cisco, to eliminate a serious hazard at the road. Another person will be used in taking care of a dangerous right angle turn between Ranger and Strawtown. Delegates to the meeting subscribed to the opinion that no discrimination existed in the work which leaves the Bankhead for Broadway at Metcalf Gap and that the state commission has accorded Eastland county and the Bankhead highway committee of the chamber of commerce Judge Eugene Landford, president of the West Texas division of the Broadway of America, and J. E. T. Peters, secretary of the chamber of commerce, were Cisco representatives.

LINDBERGH IS "FOUND" AT ROSWELL, N. M.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., March 16.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, "missing" for the past 24 hours was reported to have landed in Clovis, N. M. near here at 1:15 p. m.

MIDLAND, March 16.—Search of the country west of here was started this afternoon for Col. Lindbergh who has not been heard from since he left the Midland airport Friday afternoon at 4:15 o'clock.

Pilot H. N. Beecher of Midland said he would fly in the direction of the Davis mountains to look for the trans-Atlantic flier.

When Lindbergh took off from here he declined to indicate where he was going. He flew here from Brownsville, gassed his ship and took the air in a westerly direction.

It was noted that he carried a parachute with him. In case he tried to land in the mountains west of there it might take several days to reach him as the country is thinly settled.

"BIG STICK" OF LANDIS FALLS HARD

CHICAGO, March 16.—The "big stick" of baseball Commissioner Kenesaw Mountain Landis fell hard today when he announced the freeing of 10 players from contracts and the imposition of $5,000 fines on eleven clubs.

The players declared free agents were Harold McKain, formerly of Cleveland and Decatur, Ill.; Roy Spencer and Kyle Anderson, formerly of Pittsburgh, Columbia, S. C., and Guy Cantrell of Baltimore and Washington; Mulburn E. Simpson, Charles Glazner, Ralph Jug and J. B. Partridge, of Washington and Birmingham; Ernest Wingard, Philadelphia and Milwaukee; and Claude Jonnard, of St. Louis and Milwaukee.

Cleveland and Decatur were fined $500 each in the McKain case. Pittsburgh and Indianapolis $500 each in the Spencer case and the Anderson case. Columbia was fined $500 in the Anderson case and Baltimore $500 in the Cantrell case.

In both the Glazner and Partridge cases, Washington and Birmingham were fined $500 each. Philadelphia and Milwaukee drew $500 fines in the Wingard case and St. Louis and Milwaukee $500 each in the Jonnard case.

Investigation showed according to the statement that major league clubs were sending "dummy" checks through the commissioner's office pretending to be for purchases, which actually were not consummated.

Efforts were wasted when yegs blew the vault in a bank at Smithfield, Tarrant county for it was closed, in process of liquidation, and there wasn't as much as a red cent inside its walls.

Three New Teams Are Expected to Enter Class A Competition in Oil Belt District Next Season

The Oil Belt district, long famed as the center of the most intense gridiron rivalry in Texas, is likely to witness its most intense race next fall for prospects are bright that three and perhaps five new teams will enter the competition.

Mineral Wells, which ranks as among the strongest Class B teams in the state, is understood to have under consideration entry into Class A. Weatherford, another fast B aggregation, may cast its lot with A society. Both these teams had bigger squads and heavier and more experienced men than one or two of the Oil Belt Class A teams last season.

Then out in the west, Ballinger, Sakswater and Big Spring are contemplating entrance into the district.

The effect of the admission of new schools to the Oil Belt loop would be to provide more games that count, with new rivalries. This will mean bigger crowds for the schools coming out of Class B and another result will be new units to the race for the district title.

Mineral Wells last fall played a scoreless tie with Ranger Bulldogs—and there were about 400 fans present. If the game had been a battle with a bearing on the Oil Belt championship—and therefore with a bearing on the state crown—there would have been thousands where there were hundreds.

The Class A race just naturally gets the center of the stage, taking fans over the state as a whole, for many reasons, not necessary to enumerate—though one that might be mentioned in passing is that the Class B race does not go beyond an elimination that leaves four—or is it eight?—teams undefeated in Texas while the A race continues until there is an undisputed championship team.

Last season, the Armistice Day game between Cisco and Ranger attracted a swarm of 10,000 wild-eyed enthusiasts. The Thanksgiving day battle between Cisco and Abilene drew almost as many. A crowd of 5,000 is commonplace in the Oil Belt district.

In the meantime, the schedule session that was to have been held Saturday has been postponed because some representatives of the district schools could not be present. The meeting probably will be held within the next two weeks. By that time, it will doubtless be known how many new

RESULTS OF CAMPAIGN FOR RANDOLPH VERY GRATIFYING

30,000 So Far Subscribed to Fund Being Raised in Cisco to Carry Out Promise Made to Institution

The campaign in force here now for the raising of $50,000 for Randolph college, is going forward in a way that positively insures the continuance of the institution in Cisco. The response, universally favorable, has occasioned a superlative optimism on the part of the students of the school and on the part of Mayor J. M. Williamson, who took charge of the drive a little more than a week ago. Saturday the mayor announced that the total of subscriptions so far obtained had reached $30,000—this in the face of numerous delays and distractions that slowed the progress of the campaign below what had been counted upon as a normal rate.

Professional men of Cisco who have been approached upon the matter have stepped into line, and this attitude, surprising needless to say because of its universality, more than any other indication points to a deep-seated interest in the college here and, subsequently, the prospect that Randolph will prosper as a Cisco institution. It has been pointed out and is worthy of frequent mention, that from a purely commercial standpoint alone, leaving from consideration such matters as cultural influence, Randolph college is beneficial to Cisco. The 200 odd students who attend the school spend, outside of tuition, board and other strictly scholastic expenses, an average of $500 each. That makes a total of $100,000 spent in Cisco which would otherwise go elsewhere. Cisco, to insure a continuance of this condition will contribute under the $50,000 pledge plan, the sum of $5,000 annually. In effect, then, the city will be paying five per cent for new business which is far from being a bad commercial proposition.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO EL PASO IS ARRANGED

A special train will be run from Cisco to El Paso next September for the Cisco-El Paso high school football classic which will be played on Saturday, September 28. Arrangements for the special have been completed between chamber of commerce authorities and Texas Pacific railway officials, the latter making such concessions that an unusually attractive rate will be in effect for that special. This rate will be $13.50 for the round trip, a price less than three-twentieths the one way fare. A minimum of 125 tickets must be purchased. The special will leave Cisco as a round section of the Sunshine special, crack Texas and Pacific special, Friday afternoon. It will arrive in El Paso at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. On the return the train will leave El Paso at 7:15 Mountain

Time, Sunday evening, arriving in Cisco before noon Monday. Reservations for the special will be made at the chamber of commerce and Secretary J. E. T. Peters said Saturday that he will appreciate notification by any one who considers riding the train to the game.

The athletic association of the high school has made a contract with the El Paso school whereby the Lobos and the El Paso high school team will play three games over a period of three years, those in 1929 and 1930 to be played in El Paso and that in 1931 in Cisco. The Lobo band will accompany the special to El Paso next fall. Those who went on the Cisco special in 1927 remember the trip as one of the most enjoyable they have ever taken.

It wasn't particularly the attractiveness of Abilene which caused a tourist from Ohio to prolong his stay there, but the fact that somebody stole his car, which he had parked for a few minutes, and in which were all his clothes, except those he was wearing.

Man Who Developed the Famous "Little Farm" in California to Speak Here Monday Evening at 8

Col. Charles Weeks, of Owensmouth, California, and Wichita Falls, Texas, who has developed in California one of the outstanding examples of intensive agriculture, will speak in Cisco at the chamber of commerce tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. There will be no admission charges. Col. Weeks, through his work in California, has shown it to be possible and feasible for one family to subsist off the products of one acre of land. He will arrive in Cisco Monday afternoon by airplane. His lecture will be full of interest not only for farmers but for business and professional men and women as well.

He is the author of the following books: "Egg Farming in California," "One Acre and Independence," and "A California Acre." He is the editor of Little Farms Magazine, devoted to intensive agriculture and intensive human culture. His books and magazines have been read around the world. He is known as the most intensive farmer in existence. He is the father and originator of the intensive little farm idea and has shown thousands of people how to earn a comfortable living from so little as one acre of land. He is the founder and organizer of the Charles Weeks Poultry colony at Palo Alto, near San Francisco, and of the Charles Weeks Poultry Community at Owensmouth near Los Angeles, where thousands of healthy, happy families live on their own beautiful self-supporting garden homes.

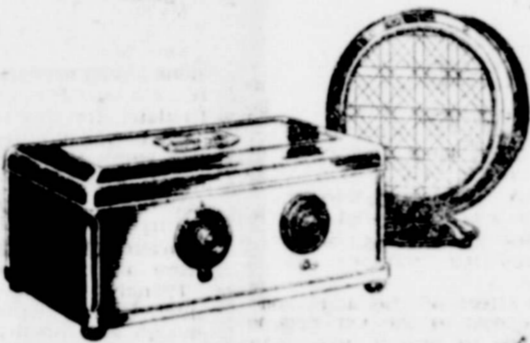

He has recently originated the idea of a system of "chain" farms, in order that the largest number of people may be inspired to higher ideals in farm life, and at the same time have the opportunity to market their products in a block under a protected brand, direct from the specialty farms to the consumer through the already established system of "chain" stores. He is now establishing his third center of "chain" specialty farms at Wichita Falls, Texas, which will be an inspiration and a demonstration for the entire state of Texas. Any large progressive city could have one of these "chain" farm centers just outside its city limits and thus produce its own specially grown food products right at home and add tremendously to the industrial and commercial prosperity. Charles Weeks has lectured up and down the Pacific coast for several years, addressing farm bureaus, chambers of commerce, poultry associations, high schools, and agricultural colleges, and the halls are filled to capacity. He is now making a lecture tour throughout the state of Texas, bringing a world of valuable information, not only to the general farmer, but to every owner of a home who is interested in making it more beautiful with neatly trained trees and vines. His lecture is illustrated with beautiful colored slides, showing just how quickly a luxurious garden home can be created from soil, water, air and sunshine when mixed with fertilizer and intelligence. His talks are an inspiration to all. Come out and hear him. It will be a revelation to you. You will be glad you came.

Mr. Bisbee's wife died about 10 years ago. He was known to the people of this section as a man of high character, an upright and conscientious citizen. ## Queens Take Second Place in State Basket Ball Standing After Losing Hard Game to Buckarettes

The Breckenridge high school Buckarettes are state school girls basket ball champions again. But they did not win that distinction without a scrap. It took all the Buckarettes, a powerful team of veterans, could produce in the way of superlative basket ball to defeat a gamely determined team of Cisco Queens who carried their fight to the last second of the final contest of the state A. A. U. tournament a Breckenridge last night while a crowd of 2,500 people that packed the junior high school gymnasium cheered endlessly. It is the second time that the Queens have met the Buckarettes in a title contest this year, and though they have as many times been defeated their stand against the Stephens county aggregation last night showed a vast improvement over the former contest, played at Snyder in the West Texas tournament.

The showing which the young and comparatively inexperienced Cisco sextet made against the veteran Breckenridge girls was such that H. A. Leaverton, Breckenridge attorney who presented the trophies after the contest, referred to them as the 1924 champions. Practically every girl who composes the Cisco team will be back next year. The final score in the game was 30 to 23. The Buckarettes jumped into a long lead in the early moments of play and although the Queens were able to cut this down to some extent they were never able to overtake their opponents.

The Queens won the right to meet Breckenridge in the finals by defeating Seagraville 26 to 16 in the afternoon semi-finals after winning their Friday evening contest with Franklin by a comparatively close score. Breckenridge, the mean-time, was defeating Mingus 59 to 29 after snowing Roby under a top heavy count Friday night. Mingus took third place in the tournament, by defeating Seagraville 60 to 24 in a game just preceding the consolation final. In the consolation final, played just before the championship final Dalhart defeated Newcastle by a score of 48 to 14.

The results of Friday's games were: Seagraville 25 Post 21; Mingus 52, Celeste 14; Cisco 28, Franklin 20; Breckenridge 60, Roby 29. The biggest upset of Friday's round was the topheavy score made by the Breckenridge Buckarettes over the Roby sextet, a big favorite in the tournament. All games played Friday were hard and fiercely fought.

The Queens placed two players on the all-state team picked at the meet. They were Mary Powell at guard and Lucile Smith at running center. Lucile is a freshman in the Cisco high school.

From the standpoint of attendance and participation of teams the Breckenridge tournament was the largest that has been held by the A. A. U. to determine a state girls' basket ball champion. Twenty three teams from all over the state participated while the gymnasiums were packed for the games played during the four nights of the tournament.

A report from Breckenridge last night said that 8,000 paid admissions were registered during the meet, a fact which indicates the wisdom of building gymnasiums with large seating capacity.

The trophies awarded during the meet were furnished by the Breckenridge chamber of commerce.
