HUGE CABLE-RADIO CONCERN FORMED Large Crowd Attends County Meet Opening at Ranger ALLEGED PLOT KILL CALLES ANNOUNCED

Persons Reported to Have Been Left in Torreon by Rebels and Paid to Assassinate War Leader

MEXICO CITY, March 29.—The presidencia was informed today of alleged plans to assassinate Secretary of War Plutarco Calles at Torreon. Consul Enrique Lickens at El Paso reported that two rebel leaders had been overheard in the lobby of an El Paso hotel discussing the progress of the revolution.

"It will soon be ended," one of them was reported to have declared, "because General Escobar left in Torreon certain persons who have been paid to assassinate Calles."

REVOLUTION DYING FOR LACK U. S. SUPPORT

AUSTIN, March 29.—The present Mexican revolution like the last two seems destined to failure mainly because of the friendship of the United States government to the federal forces. Miss Anne Davis of the international relations club of our Lady of the Lake college, San Antonio, said today in a paper delivered to the Southwestern conference of international relations clubs held here.

Miss Davis added that no revolution can be successful in Mexico, it is said, unless it has the friendship of the United States government.

"Proof that the present revolution was not started because of the religious difficulties," she said, "is evidenced by the leaders of the revolution. Some of these have been on the side of the govern-

Prohibition Occupying Attention of Four State Governments in "Dry" Middle West; Modifications Made

(BY UNITED PRESS.) Prohibition occupied the attention of four state governments in the politically "dry" middle west today. In Illinois the "dry raid killing" of Mrs. Lillian De King of Aurora drew widespread indignation and enforcement methods. Two assaults on the prohibition laws were made in the legislature, one for an active investigation of the killing, the other a resolution challenging the right of congress to control the sale, possession and distribution of medicinal liquor and sacramental wines within the state. There was also a move to repeal the state dry law.

Michigan modified its famous "Life for a Pint" law with amendments which passed the legislature late yesterday and were before the governor today, who is certain to sign them since they were proposed by his department.

From Missouri came reports of the first legislative move in that state towards modifying the prohibition laws, a bill introduced in the house repealing the McCawley act of 1923, which embraces nearly all of the state's liquor laws.

Wisconsin was preparing to hold a statewide referendum on April 2 on a proposal to repeal the state prohibition law.

Besides these evidences of discontent in the middle west, there were wet and dry fights in the east. The New York legislature adjourned without acting on a set of bills providing state enforcement of prohibition.

Massachusetts, which in a referendum last November memorialized congress to repeal prohibition, saw its legislature beat a move to bar such referendums in future. Forces opposing a move to "dry up" the state indicated they might campaign for repeal of the Massachusetts enforcement law.

CONGRESSMAN CHARGED. CHICAGO, March 29.—Congressman M. Alfred Michaelson today was given 24 hours in which to surrender on an indictment charging violation of the prohibition laws.

United States Commissioner Edwin K. Walker issued the ultimatum at the federal building and said that if the Chicago congressman did not give himself up within that time a United States marshal would be sent out to bring him in.

GIRL CHARGED IN ROBBERY AT BRAY, FREED

BRADY, Tex. 29.—Billie Ballard, member of the party of two youths and three girls charged with robbery in connection with the holdup the Farmers and Merchants Bank last week, gained her freedom on bond today when lawyers from Austin pleaded that bond be reduced from $2,000 to $750.

NEW YORK, March 29.—Creation of the greatest cable-radio land line communication concern in the world, was seen here today in a huge double purchase maneuvered by the International Telephone & Telegraph company—owners of the Postal Telegraph company, Commercial Cable and all-American cables.

In the meantime, the Western Union was reported to have opened negotiations to purchase the R. C. A. Communications. EASTER BUYING.

The American public always buys more in the week preceding Easter than it does at any other period in the year except Christmas.

Since a great deal of the spring clothing and Easter finery which was bought in the past week will be on charge accounts, it is obvious that the large totals withdrawn from banks are only part of the whole sum spent.

In addition to clothes, there are tremendous purchases of candies, flowers, gasoline, cosmetics and jewelry.

Much of this may be attributed directly to Easter. Much, too, is only the natural result of the coming spring with its renewed energies, enthusiasms and courage.

There's no more aristocracy of beauty since the women all took to cosmetics. Lovely and homely complexions all look alike.

Poetic Craze Extends to Sandwiches and, Lo, We Have Them in Pink and Green for the Tired Business Man

AUSTIN, March 29.—Hear ye, tender romance bespeaking its sentiments shyly and gracefully in the color of gems and flowers is not dead.

It is expressing itself in sandwiches. Pink teas these days are literal.

Further still one may be offered sandwiches in combinations of pink and blue, red and white, green and yellow.

Let it be said at the outset that there is no need to get alarmed and wonder what has been done to deserve poisoning.

For instance, it is the wane of a hot summer day. Let the setting in of the shady pergola, a fluffy verdant dress, frosty glasses of lemonade.

Another good color in breads to use to achieve something of the same effect would be blue, if handled carefully.

Of course one would not cut blue bread in clover leaf formation. Rather one would cut them in the flower design.

It sufficiently darts the man not too tired, and the time of the episode just right, a crimson heart-shaped sandwich might be set before him.

Prison Population Is Outstripping Free Population in Relative Growth Checkup of Prison System Reveals

By RODNEY DUTCHER.
 WASHINGTON, March 29.—In five years the proportion of American citizens confined in state penitentiaries has increased more than 20 per cent.

Instead of falling behind, the prison population is outstripping the free population in relative growth.

The proportion of patients in state hospitals for mental diseases has also increased in the same period, and over a period of 18 years has jumped at least 30 per cent.

These figures are compiled from preliminary reports of the census bureau covering state prisons and reformatories and state hospitals for mental cases in 27 states. The states are representative, both sectionally and in size.

At the beginning of 1923 there were 67,724 prisoners in their state penal institutions, as compared with 49,192 in January, 1923, and 41,471 in 1910.

That meant an increase of about 18,500 in five years as against an increase of less than 8,000 in the preceding 13 years.

During the first and longer period there was an actual relative decrease as compared with the general population change. But the ensuing five years told an altogether different story.

Per 100,000 of general population in the 27 states there was an average of 79 state prisoners in 1910, 72 in 1923, and 88 in 1928.

The available census reports show that in January, 1928, the largest proportionate prison population was that of Nevada, which had 245.5 prisoners per 100,000 population, although Nevada had neither 245 prisoners nor 100,000 citizens, being the least populous of the states. Among the other 26 states, California and Michigan run second and third to Nevada.

Most of them show substantial relative increases, the only ones to show a decrease in the percentage of their populations in prison since 1923 being New Hampshire, Maine, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Utah and West Virginia.

Here are the comparative relative figures showing the number incarcerated at the beginning of 1923 and of 1928, per 100,000 of population, with decimal points removed:

California 100 (1923) to 140 (1928); Illinois 65 to 87; Iowa 74 to 89; Maine 48.7 to 48.4; Maryland 98 to 139; Massachusetts 36 to 44; Michigan 91 to 139; Minnesota 65 to 80; Missouri 64 to 103; Montana 54 to 85; Nevada 225 to 245; New Hampshire 31 to 28; New Mexico 64 to 97; New York 58 to 66; Ohio 69 to 111; Oklahoma 83 to 136; Oregon 49 to 70; Pennsylvania 47 to 46; Rhode Island 72 to 51; South Dakota 49 to 60; Utah 42 to 40; Virginia 82 to 83; Washington 70 to 94; West Virginia 105 to 91; and Wisconsin 42 to 55.

These figures, it should be pointed out, cannot be used to show that the people of one state are wicker than those of another. Too many complicating factors would have to be considered before any wise cracks of that sort would be warranted.

The 27 states in which the census of state mental hospitals has been taken are in some instances the same states mentioned above and sometimes not. The total, as added by this writer, shows 169 inmates per 100,000 population in 1910, 211 in 1923, and 222 in 1928.

The 1910-1923 period, which covers the war and immediate post-war years, produced an increase of about 25 per cent, and the next five years an approximate increase of 5 per cent more.

It will be observed that the number of inmates of state hospitals for mental diseases runs more than double the average number of prisoners in state penal institutions.

NEW WELLS TO BE DRILLED AT RISING STAR

RISING STAR, March 29.—Mac T. Anderson, local oil producer, is this week rigging up preparatory to starting his No. 1 well on the Leatherwood lease south of the Blake pool and plans to drill several wells on the lease. There are already several wells on the lease, which was formerly held by R. C. McCarter of Cisco.

Mr. Anderson believes that the lease can be developed into a profitable source of production.

C. O. Shultz has recently brought in a small well at 350 feet on his Dawsey lease, adjoining the Runkles lease on the north and in the Sipe Springs territory.

"I'M HAPPIEST MAN IN TOWN"

"I am the happiest man in town now. I am up and going at five thirty every morning and feeling fine.

I was lame and sore all through my back, and had rheumatic pains in both shoulders. I could hardly raise my arms and every joint felt like it was tied in a knot. In the mornings I felt like I just could not get up.

"My appetite was away off and my food disagreed with me. I was nervous and could not sleep. I got so bad off a few months ago that I was down in bed four weeks. I spent lots of money trying to get well, but nothing did me much good. It took only a few bottles of Sargon to fix me up and now I feel great all over. My appetite and digestion are good again. Those rheumatic pains are all gone.

"I have suffered with constipation for twenty years and had to take a laxative every two or three nights, but I have never found anything that stimulated the liver and regulated like Sargon Soft Mass Pills.

"You can bank on me telling other people about the Sargon treatment. I have told a good many people and will be glad to talk to anyone that comes to me."

The above statement was made by C. H. Yates, of 1400 East Morley street, Fort Worth. He has lived in that city for twenty years and is well known.

Sargon may be obtained in Cisco at Elliott Drug Store and Corner Drug Store.—Adv.

Final arrangements have been made for the annual summer session for coaches to be held early in August. HOMES WILL DETERMINE U. S. FUTURE home in the truest sense of the word. Wealth cannot take the place of love. The boys in many homes need fathers; business and social life has robbed the American boy of his father.

America's future is what the homes make it, says Mrs. Jennie Sharpless, of the World's Purify Federation who is in Cisco this week for a series of lectures.

home life be sanctified today, and all the days. Ballast our activities with high purposes. Bless the home life of our nation, and all nations. Let every palace, mansion, and cottage in the whole earth become the house of God and the gate of heaven.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR AMBITIOUS MULTIPLYING

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Claiming that the changing economic perspective of the nation's commercial and industrial activities is offering wider ranges of opportunity for ambitious persons, who possess sufficient specialized knowledge, technical proficiency, or executive ability founded on a background of extensive training, J. C. Chapline, of the National Home Study Council, Washington, D. C., today visualized the situation as follows.

The growing responsibilities of the business man are reflected from the pressing problems which are now confronting its development. These problems, as seen by the chamber of commerce of the United States, are: the husbanding of available resources; the strengthening of the weak links in the chain of mass production; the direction and control of commercial practices; and the commercial and industrial application of scientific research.

RANDOLPH GIRLS LOSE IN GALLANT FIGHT AT NATIONAL MEET

Kittens Bow to Team Which They Defeated in Finals for Southern Title; Only Three Points Difference

Randolph college Kittens met defeat in the quarter finals of the national A. A. U. basketball tournament at Wichita, Kansas, last night when they were nosed out of the race by the Golden Cyclones, of Dallas, the team they had beaten in the finals of the Southwestern U. at Dallas a few weeks ago.

The game was one of the hotly contested of the tournament and was won by the Cyclones with a final period court save that gave them a three point lead at the end of the contest. The score was 26 to 23.

The Dallas team held a lead over the hard fighting Cisco sextet until the third quarter when the Kittens threw three field goals in a row to tie the count. The Cyclones came back with a rally, however, that unknocked the count and gave them the victory.

The finals in the contest will be played this evening. The Cisco girls, however, are expected to arrive in Wichita today in time to arrive home tomorrow.

KITTENS DEFEAT A SURPRISE

WICHITA, Kan., March 29.—Four teams prepared today to start play in the semi-finals of the National A. A. U. girls' basketball tournament tonight.

Included among the four are the Schepp's Aces of Dallas, present holders of the national title, who defeated the East Central State Teachers' college of Ada, Okla., 29 to 20 last night. The other teams are the Dallas Cyclones, Wallenstein Hoffman of Wichita, and the Sparklers of Sparkman, Ark.

The Wichita team, heaviest scorers of the tournament to date, defeated Slippery Rock, Pa., 35 to 16 last night. The Randolph College Kittens of Cisco, Texas, bowed before the Dallas Cyclones 26 to 23. Bird City, Kan., was put out of the running in a 30 to 22 battle by the Sparklers.

Defeat of the Randolph College girls by the Cyclones was considered a surprise here since the collegians had defeated Schepp's Aces, the national title holders, in the Southern A. A. U. tournament two weeks ago. The Cyclones' victory led many to believe that the finals, tomorrow may be an all-Dallas affair.

'THE DUKE STEPS OUT' HERE SOON

Outstanding figures in several outstanding plays appear with William Haines in his newest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature, "The Duke Steps Out," a dialogue picture, which will be at the Palace theater Sunday and Monday.

James Cruze, famous director of "The Covered Wagon," and who also directed Haines in "Excess Baggage" and "A Man's Man," handled the megaphone on the new production. Joan Crawford, who last appeared with Haines in "West Point," and who recently scored a sensational success in "Our Dancing Daughters," plays the heroine.

Karl Dane, of "Big Parade" and "Rookies," plays the giant fight trainer in the picture, and Tenen Holtz, famous for his work in "The Trail of '98," "Frisco Sally Levy," and others, the manager of the pugilistic hero.

The new picture is a filmization of Lucian Cary's Saturday Evening Post story. Haines plays the prize fighter who goes to college to please his sweetheart and thereby plunges into all kinds of trouble for she doesn't know of his professional identity and he has to keep it a secret, even while he prepares for a championship bout. Miss Crawford is the sweetheart in question and their love story is laid in a background of thrills, laughs, and a sensational prize fight in which Haines and Jack Roper stage a really professional battle in the ring.

His second talking picture and a good one. Remember alias Jimmie Valentine. Well, this one smashes all records. Don't miss it.

APT SMILE

FRENCH, March 29.—Never had a church morgan never had a better illustration than the sale of a church building and all its contents at an auction ten miles east of here. The building was erected 16 years ago through subscription of residents and members, many of whom have since moved to other communities.

SUICIDE BY DYNAMITE

MT. ANGEL, Ore., March 29.—Placing his two small daughters on his lap, one on each knee, Charles Setzer, 38, farmer, lighted a fuse to seven sticks of dynamite he placed beneath the chair and waited until all three were blown to bits here Thursday. $125 A DAY IN PRISON

BOSTON, March 29.—Serving time behind the bars isn't so bad when you are paid $125 a day for your trouble. Benjamin Collins of Lowell probably will be compensated on that basis—$500 for four days' imprisonment—because he was sent to prison as a bag snatcher when actually he was innocent. The issue of representation already has approved the compensation bill and the senate is expected to concur.

END OF TYLER MURDER CASE EXPECTED SOON

TYLER, March 29.—A Baptist pastor's widow today added her testimony to that of other members of his family to deny that he was a churchman by day and a lover by night.

Mrs. Fount Wallace walked to the witness stand in Judge J. R. Warren's courtroom carrying in her arms her four year old daughter, Patsy.

Mrs. Wallace, widow of the Rev. Fount Wallace of Troup, Tex., was called by the state in the murder trial of Loys Wilson, 31-year old troupe garage owner, charged with killing her husband.

TYLER, March 29.—Intimate details of an illicit romance between a Baptist preacher and an attractive young housewife were an open book to curious court fans today as the last session of the trial of Loys Wilson for the murder of the Philandering minister opened.

Only a few character witnesses for the state and final arguments remained before the jury was to start deliberations on whether to free Wilson on the "unwritten law" or send him to the electric chair as the state demands.

For the last two days a parade of witnesses has unfolded the story of how the handsome minister, Rev. Fount Wallace and the housewife, Mrs. Mae Wilson, his char singer sweetheart, carried on their romance while Wilson was working in his garage to lift debts from a small home.

Wilson himself took the stand and admitted he shot Wallace to death in a drug store as the preacher talked to a group of young women but pleaded that the minister had "ruined his home."

Mrs. Wilson, in tears, testified for her husband, admitting intimacies with the handsome minister. She said the romance began with a surreptitious kiss in the basement of Wallace's church after choir practice and ended in the drug store shooting.

DISTURBED SLEEP IS NATURE'S WARNING OF "DANGER AHEAD."
Mrs. J. N. Alexander, Sugden, Okla.

Says, "I will write how for 20 years I was bothered with burning and bladder acting 10 to 15 times each night and how I was relieved with Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula)." It acts on bladder as epsom salts do on bowels. Drives out foreign deposits and lessens excessive acidity. This relieves the irritation that causes getting up nights. The tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio or locally at Dean Drug Co.

Mrs. Ellen Johnson, Hillsboro, Wis., says she will tell or write any one how she was relieved by simple lithiated buchu. (Keller Formula.) She says: "I had to get up nights so much. Haven't taken medicine for two months. Am still well. Gained 30 pounds." Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Sold by all druggists. Locally at Dean Drug Co.

END OF TYLER MURDER CASE EXPECTED SOON

TYLER, March 29.—A Baptist pastor's widow today added her testimony to that of other members of his family to deny that he was a churchman by day and a lover by night.

Mrs. Fount Wallace walked to the witness stand in Judge J. R. Warren's courtroom carrying in her arms her four year old daughter, Patsy.

Mrs. Wallace, widow of the Rev. Fount Wallace of Troup, Tex., was called by the state in the murder trial of Loys Wilson, 31-year old troupe garage owner, charged with killing her husband.

TYLER, March 29.—Intimate details of an illicit romance between a Baptist preacher and an attractive young housewife were an open book to curious court fans today as the last session of the trial of Loys Wilson for the murder of the Philandering minister opened.

Only a few character witnesses for the state and final arguments remained before the jury was to start deliberations on whether to free Wilson on the "unwritten law" or send him to the electric chair as the state demands.

For the last two days a parade of witnesses has unfolded the story of how the handsome minister, Rev. Fount Wallace and the housewife, Mrs. Mae Wilson, his chair singer sweetheart, carried on their romance while Wilson was working in his garage to lift debts from a small home.

Wilson himself took the stand and admitted he shot Wallace to death in a drug store as the preacher talked to a group of young women but pleaded that the minister had "ruined his home."

Mrs. Wilson in tears, testified for her husband, admitting intimacies with the handsome minister. She said the romance began with a surreptitious kiss in the basement of Wallace's church after choir practice and ended in the drug store shooting.
