Engage in Heated Words.

AUSTIN, May 13 .- Three sergeants-at-arms steed ready to prevent a possible personal clash in the Texas senate this morning between Senators A J. Wirtz of Sequin and T. J. Holbrook of Galves-

Pointing his finger at Senator Wirtz, Holbrook declared that any senator who represented a utility ought to declare it to the senate and not vote on the public utility

"Do you mean to say that I represent any corporation that would be affected?" Wirtz demanded. "I do not know, but it has been reported to me that the senator from Seguin is attorney for a power company in Guadalupe county. I do not impugn your motives, but if I represented a power company I would announce it," said

"I charge here and now that any one who says that I represent any utility interests affected in this bill is guilty of deliberate and malicious falsehood," said Wirtz.

The senator of Galveston is repeating what he heard without coming to me for correct information. I represent the Texas Power corporation in Guadalupe county but it is not and cannot be affected by the public ultilities bill.'

FLOWERS FOR MRS. HOOVER

The annual custom of bringing a basket of May flowers to the First Lady of the Land on Child Health Day was observed when these children called upon Mrs. Herbert Hebver at the White House in Washington. Mrs. Hoover is shown accepting the floral gift from her young admirers. The custom was inaugurated five years ago by the American Child Health association and marks official observance of the day in the national capital.

GUESSING GAMES

They were a lot of fun when we were youngsters, those guessing games. Guess who this is! Guess the number of beans in the pot! Guess how long the pendulum will swing! Sometimes we came pretty close to the right answer. Sometimes we were a long way off. Whichever we were, we all had a good time, and the worst guesser got as much of the evening's refreshments as the best.

How far away those guessing games seem now! And how they have lost their appeal. Perhaps it's because we learn, as we grew older, that to know is better than to guess. Guess which is the best package on the grocer's shelf! Guess which bolt of cloth is pure wool! Guess which talking machine will give us most satisfaction! No, guessing for those things wasn't so much fun. We wanted to be certain. And that was one of the reasons we turned to advertising.

Advertising takes the guesswork out of buying. It lets us know what is best and what is cheapest and what will last longest. It does away with unsatisfactory uncertainties. The advertisements in this newspaper tell a concise, interesting and accurate story about articles you need. Reading them is the surest and quickest path to wise buying. It eliminates guessing.

By reading the advertisements regularly, and buying advertised goods, you take the guessing out of spending your money.

"I'll keep on pitching until the batters start thinking again," says old Otis Crandall, granddaddy all the pitchers, who after more than a quarter of a century on the mound, is still carrying on for Sacramento, in the Pacific Coast League. Twenty years back, Otis Crandall was regarded as a seasoned veteran on the New York Giants'

With such baseball ancients as Christy Mathewson, Rube Marquard, Chief Meyers, Art Devlin and Larry Doyle, Otey daily rubbed shoulders and was one of the best hurlers in the league.

The nickname "Doc" was affixed to Crandall because of his ability to doctor sick ball games with brainy relief pitching and timely pinch hitting. When John McGraw needed a pinch hitter for one of his faltering pitchers, Doc himself would pick out a stick and set himself at the plate. And usually he would deliver a timely blow after which he would proceed to finish the ball game on the mound. Having won his first three starts for Sacremento this season, Crandall is well on his way to another successful season. The age of the Wadena (Ind.) wonder is hard to figure. Record books are not very accurate in this detail and Crandall has never come out with the exact figure. When he drifted from the major leagues in 1916, they said he was 37. Our guess is that they should put 51 candles on his next birthday cake
