THE SPEARMAN REPORTER, Hansford County, Texas, 79081

Primary Balloting Set Here Saturday, May 4

Democratic and Republican primary balloting is scheduled here and throughout Texas Saturday May 4. Limited interest is being shown in local races but some hotly contested state and area races are expected.

Hansford county races are not contested. Democrats up for re-election include T. D. Hanning for County Attorney, B. Cooke, Sheriff; J. D. Helms, Hansford County Democratic Chairman; B. W. Hanner, Commissioner Precinct 3; Don McClain, chairman precinct 3; Roy Riley, precinct 4 chairman; W. L. Johnson, chairman precinct 3; Joe Day commissioner precinct one; J. L. Brock, chairman precinct 10.

An area race attracting a great deal of attention is for associate justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh Supreme Judicial District with three on the Democratic ballot--Jack Hazelwood, James A. Joy and Bruce L. Miller. Voters here are still some what undecided about their choice in the field of 10 candidates for State Governor on the Democratic ballot and a choice of three on the Republican ballot. Most of the noise is being made at least in this area by Preston Smith, Eugene Locke, Waggoner Carr, and John Hill. Less is being heard in this area from Dolph Briscoe, Pat O'Daniel, Albaso Veloz, Don Yarborough, Bonnie Mae Hackworth and Edward L. Whittenburg.

The winner of the Republican three-man race for Governor (Paul Eggers, Wallace Slik and John R. Trice) will face the Democratic winner in September, after the choice is made Saturday.

There is almost certainly to be a runoff necessary for the Democrats and possibly may be one for the Republican governor bid.

Ben Barnes, Don Gladden and Gene Smith are stirring a little interest in the Democratic lieutenant governor's race, with Ben Barnes getting the most attention in this area.

Another race which cannot be decided until the general election is for U. S. Congressman, 18th district, where Republican Bob Price is alone on the Republican ballot and J. R. (Dick) Brown is alone on the Democratic ballot.

Malouf Abraham, Republican candidate for State Representative 79th District, is assured the win in the primary. He has no opponent listed on the Democratic ballot.

Democrats also have contested races for comptroller of public accounts--Robert S. Caivert and Dallas Blankenship; for associate justices, Supreme Court of Texas--place 1, Sears McGee and Matt Davis; place 2, James G. Denton and Tom Revely.

A light vote is forecast for primary balloting. Although Hansford County has for the past several years turned in a heavy Republican vote in the general election, Republican primary voting is usually very small. Last year 29 votes were cast in this primary; four years ago some 95 voted.

Voters Urged To Precinct Conventions

J. D. Helms, County Democratic Chairman, and Jack Hart, Republican Chairman, urge everyone to attend precinct conventions this Saturday.

Precinct conventions are open to all voters who participate Saturday in party primary elections. They are the first step in a long journey to the national conventions and the nominations of presidential and vice presidential candidates.

The precinct convention is the very essence of "grass roots" participation of political and governmental affairs. At the precinct conventions, you and your neighbors select your delegates and voice your opinions. It is the only place you can have a say in the presidential nominee of your party. It is by attending a precinct convention that every individual voter has the opportunity and ability to be heard and to make his views known concerning his particular political philosophy and to give expression to those political concepts in which he believes.

Democratic precinct conventions are scheduled to be held at 2 p. m. at each of these polling places: Precinct 1, Courthouse; Precinct 10, Jr. High School; Precinct 4, Jr. High Bldg.; Precinct 3, Gruver Elevator; Precincts 7 & 8, Remmer farm house, Precinct 9, Morse School.

Republican conventions will be held at 7:30 after the polls close at the courthouse in Spearman and the junior high school in Gruver. The county convention will be held May 11 at 7:30 at the courthouse.

Company's Report Reveals Local Irrigation Growth

Rural Natural Gasification of the High Plains of Texas and Oklahoma has become a reality after 15 months of intensive pipeline construction.

Peoples Natural Gas of Amarillo, according to Melvin Semrad, supervisor of Market Development for the utility.

Writing in an open letter to all of Peoples Gas and Agriculture customers, Semrad said, "We started out in January of 1967 to bring natural gas service to as many irrigation wells as possible on the High Plains. Our aim was to bring new irrigation wells."

"We knew this would encourage growth of irrigation farming in areas where natural gas had been unavailable."

"Following the concept so successfully used onead two decades ago for the rural electrification of the High Plains, we found groups of irrigation farmers who were willing to develop new wells which they could receive our well-Side Gas service."

"We expected to serve 1,000 irrigation wells the first year. Instead we contracted to serve 1,400 wells by December of 1967," he said.

Semrad added that approximately 600 of these wells were new ones, with 500 of the remaining wells as conversions from butane to natural gas. The last 300 wells were conversions from electricity to natural gas, he said.

As of April 1 of this year the utility's Rural Natural Gasification Program has contracted 2,000 wells in the High Plains area of which 800 are new wells, 800 are conversions from butane and 400 are conversions from electricity, according to Semrad.

"The Rural Natural Gasification Program has done more than bring a dependable fuel to remote farm areas which previously had little available energy sources of any kind. The program has provided a tremendous economic incentive for farmers to get into and to expand their irrigation," Semrad said.

Hansford County has 905 irrigation wells. This March 28 figure shows these wells to be watering some 225,000 acres. Eight of these wells have been completed this year and permits for 65 more wells are pending.

SCOTT'S UNRIDEABLE MULE

Circus producers are continually searching for the unique, the unusual, that "one" act, that they can present which will add an inimitable brand of infectious laughter to their production. Scott's Unrideable Mule definitely comes in this category.

Watch this act that has been perfected in a western flavor, and made famous during a successful world tour in 1965 and 1966, always aiming for smiles, chuckles or belly-laughs, and see if you don't agree.

GENTLEMAN GEORGE ON THE BOUNDING ROPE

Gentleman George is one of the real "Pros" among the world's top performers. Through trial and error over a period of many years Gentleman George has perfected the "Tramp" character and act which has made him world famous. He just recently completed a tour of America's winter Circus Extravaganzas, where his crazy antics on the bounding rope tickled the funny-bone of everyone. George comes from a long line of Circus Stars. In fact, in addition to his immediate family he has relatives scattered to the four corners of the world, carrying on in the same tradition that has given them Star Billing all over the world. And the Circus has a special place, in these Stars, as they lighten the cares of the oldsters and bring never to be forgotten smiles and laughs to our young America.

MICHELE & MICHAEL

In every era there is something that stands out from the common place. This is most certainly true of the aerial presentation of Michele & Michael. These intrepid young performers have performed throughout the United States, Canada, and Mexico, in addition to the greater part of Europe and South America.

It is little wonder that the late Mike Todd, while watching the duo perform at his celebrated "Star Night" at the Roosevelt Raceway in New York, said "The greatest aerial act I have ever seen."

They have brought to the circus world a new concept of ballet in the air, and are undoubtedly always one of the favorite attractions for any audience.

Association with beauty can enlarge man's imagination and revive his spirit. Ugliness can demean the people who live among it. What a citizen sees every day is his America. ## Washington Report

From Congressman BOB PRICE 18TH DISTRICT, TEXAS

A newspaper man asked me recently what I considered to be the major problems facing the Panhandle and how I, as your Representative to Congress, proposed to help solve them. Following is the answer I gave him:

Everyday we face new situations that challenge our experience and knowledge, but in my opinion several interlocking problems face the 18th District of Texas: the need for better agriculture prices, a long-range water program, and the need to attract more new industries for jobs.

As you know, I have always been vitally interested in water. As a rancher-farmer, I know the importance of an adequate supply of good, pure water to our agriculture economy. During the past 16 months, I have consulted with various agencies here in Washington and have studied at length possible ways to conserve and better utilize our present water supplies. I have cooperated with the Texas Water Development Board and have supported and encouraged the formation of Water, Inc. I am extremely proud of the role that the members of my Water Advisory Committee have played in the organization of Water, Inc. and specifically K. Burt Watson, the Chairman of my Water Advisory Committee. Last year I introduced a bill which would authorize a study to determine the feasibility of bringing water from the Missouri River to the Panhandle and have supported the appropriations to the Bureau of Reclamation and the Corps of Engineers for a study to import water from the Mississippi River. The agriculture industry is of vital importance to our economy and water will play a key role in helping today's farmer to provide food for our future. The livestock feeding explosion in the Texas Panhandle has attracted tremendous new packing houses which have and will provide new jobs and better the income of our people. Although my work is not nearly completed, I am pleased with what we have been able to accomplish so far.

Another problem of utmost importance to the people of the Panhandle is inflation. It affects everybody's pocketbook. We must first adopt a sound common-sense fiscal policy here in Washington to curb the rising cost of living so that wages and salaries will hold their buying power. In the Panhandle, we must aggressively seek new industry to provide more jobs and better wages. In visiting with the legislative affairs committees of the many Chambers of Commerce in our district, and in meetings with the Office of Economic Adjustment, of the Department of Defense here, I am convinced of the opportunities and the potentials of the District are great.

The recent accomplishment of bringing Bell Helicopter to Amarillo Air Force Base proves the success of this. I have visited several times with Kenneth Grenewald and his committee and would like to compliment them on their fine accomplishments. Pursuant to Bell, we are currently working with Dr. Roy Dugger and the James Connely Institute in Waco in establishing a technical institute in Amarillo Air Force Base which will in no way conflict but complement Amarillo College. The trained labor force that this institute would provide the Panhandle in ample supply would be a major attraction to new industry for all the district.

Basically, I think these issues are the most pressing for our district. In summary, I have learned many things from our Town Hall meetings and from my advisory Committees, the most gratifying of which is that if we all roll up our sleeves and work together, there is no problem too large for us to solve.

It's getting time to "think" lawn again! Extension specialists at Texas A&M University say early spring is the time to fertilize blue grass, fescues, and other cool-season grasses. Organic, or urea-form, nitrogen fertilizer may be used in the spring to prevent burning. It will also reduce overstimulation of the grass and provide for a more continuous supply of nitrogen. Do not apply fertilizer, particularly an inorganic fertilizer, when the grass leaves are wet. Water the lawn immediately after applying fertilizer to prevent burning of the grass plants.

Explorer Scouts Hear Firearm Safety Rules

Explorer Scout Troop 51 heard a very thorough talk and demonstration on firearm safety this month by Police Chief Leland Wood.

After talking to the scouts, Chief Wood conducted a question and answer period. He used three rifles and showed how to clean guns and how to carry them in all situations. Chief Wood showed how a shell could be left in a gun and go unnoticed, the main cause of so many accidents.

The troop is planning to visit the college at Goodwell, Okla. May 11 where they will be supervised by college officials at the indoor firing range. These officials will supply the guns and ammunition.

Attending this meeting were David and Steven Slater, Mike Kloss, Mike Innis, Ronny Burke, Advisor Cecil Slater and assistants Bill McBride and George Kloss.

NEWS & NOTES FROM HEMISFAIR '68

WORLD EXPOSITION APRIL 6-OCT 6-SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. -- The old and new are blended into the fiesta flavor of HemisFair with restoration of a variety of historic structures on the 92.6 acre grounds. Among the multitude of modern pavilions are an assortment of Spanish, French, Irish, German, Confederate and American type homes from the 18th and 19th century.

In all, there are 20 such homes restored for the World's Fair, depicting the true theme of HemisFair-- "The Confluence of Civilizations in the Americas."

The historic buildings now house restaurants, industrial and institutional exhibits, offices, souvenir shops and an artist's sketch studio.

The structures had varied histories, ranging from homes of former civic leaders to workshops for makers of Confederate uniforms.

A Gay 90's Restaurant on the exposition grounds is housed in a structure believed to have been built by the Spanish before 1800.

It has walls 18 inches thick and served in past years as a retail store, Indian trading post, the first Polish Catholic Church in San Antonio, and a factory used by 15 girls in the Civil War to make Confederate uniforms.

The Philippine Restaurant-- "Casa San Miguel"--is housed in the Acosta House, property traced back to an 1810 grant from the Spanish government to Vicente Acosta, who was later an insurgent in the Hidalgo revolution against Spain.

Beethoven Hall--Once considered the finest concert hall in the Southwest, is the home of the popular Czechoslovakian film and live performance "Laterna Magika." The hall was built in 1895 by a German singing society "The Maennerchor." The building burned in 1914 and was immediately rebuilt.

Other historic structures to be seen at the World's Fair are:

Creperies Parisienne (Carrage House)--An elegant French restaurant originally constructed by Hermann Schultze for the William Hermann family in 1917. The well-built home is still in good condition.

Humble Tour Center--A tourist and travel information center built in 1891 to house Hermann Schultze's hardware business. It is of solid limestone with Victorian detailing clearly expressing the late 19th century. All of the lumber was handpicked from the first lumberyard in San Antonio.

Pierre's Interlude--Now a French restaurant, the house is on property originally belonging to Wilson Irvine Riddle. An Irish immigrant from Kilkenny, James Sweeney, built the house in the 1860's.

The House of Sir John Falstaff--The Half House, now a German restaurant sponsored by the Falstaff Brewing Co. on the first level and the HemisFair Press Club on the second floor, was the home of Mayer Half until about 1914. The earliest record of the property shows it was obtained by Baron de Bastrop in 1815 from the Spanish government.

Corn Added To Research List

The grain and forage sorghum commodity committee accepted the additional responsibility of development of corn research for the High Plains Research Foundation at the spring meeting of the committee on April 25th. Wayne Byerly, new Chairman of the committee, presided at the meeting at the Foundation headquarters at Halfway. Members of the Foundation staff concerned with the fourteen different research projects with which the committee is responsible made reports on the current progress of the seasons research. Twelve of these projects were approved at the fall meeting of the Board of Trustees and two more have been added since. The committee is now concerned with research on all phases of grain and forage sorghum along with corn for grain and forage.

The committee made plans for their exhibit at the Twelfth Annual Field Day on September 12. Their decision was that a different theme would be followed each year in their annual display. The theme of the 1968 exhibit will be the marketing of these products through livestock with emphasis on cattle and swine feeding. Each member of the committee will participate in the preparation of and be hosts at the exhibit on September 12.

ALTON B. CHAPMAN

TO THE RESIDENTS OF THE SEVENTH SUPREME JUDICIAL DISTRICT:

Thank you for the privilege of serving you for eleven years and four months on the Court of Civil Appeals.

For the sake of the Court from which I am retiring and for the good of the State of Texas, I earnestly solicit your votes for Jack Hazlewood because:

- In my opinion, the judges on every appellate court, from the United States Supreme Court on down, should be first and foremost good lawyers. Jack Hazlewood is an outstanding lawyer.
- Of six major scholastic honors possible for a student to win in the Texas University Law School, Jack Hazlewood won them all. Such a scholastic record is possible only by one with an outstanding legal mind and the willingness to work, two attributes needed on an appellate court.
- Jack Hazlewood has had more than four times as much experience in the Court of Civil Appeals as both his opponents combined.
- The most practical and effective training for an appellate court justice is trial and appellate practice, as a lawyer, against other strong lawyers. This is exactly the training Jack Hazlewood has had for more than fifteen years, and in it he has many times demonstrated his competence.
- This is the exact same training five justices of the Supreme Court of Texas had before becoming members of that Court. None had judicial experience on the trial level. They are Justices Griffin, Walker, Greenhill, Steakley and Chief Justice Calvert.
- In the official bar poll conducted by the State Bar of Texas among the lawyers and judges of the 46 counties of this district Jack Hazlewood received more votes than both his opponents combined. This poll indicates that the members of the legal profession also rank him number one.

Respectfully submitted,
Alton B. Chapman, Associate Justice,

House Speaker Ben Barnes, in seeking the office of Lieutenant Governor, stands for:

- ☆ A responsible new approach to spending state money, based on annual legislative budgeting, that will put the government on a current, businesslike basis and end the guesswork that now results from having to estimate revenue needs 2 1/2 years in the future.
- ☆ Excellence in education, by upgrading public schools, colleges and universities, and developing a strong vocational training program to give all young Texans the opportunity to get and hold good jobs.
- ☆ Stopping the rising crime rate by using a positive, 12-point program that includes a Police Academy for training all Texas peace officers, stronger criminal prosecution forces, better court facilities, and greater rehabilitation for both juvenile and adult offenders.
- ☆ Workable state liquor laws with strong, uniform enforcement.
- ☆ Developing a strong and effective state-controlled air and water pollution program in cooperation with local governments.
- ☆ A workable statewide water plan to develop existing and future water resources.
- ☆ Increasing the State's tourism program.
- ☆ Aggressively seeking new industry to keep Texas the fastest growing industrial state in the Nation.
- ☆ Greater emphasis on the state meeting its problems in growing urban areas, such as mass transportation and waste disposal.
- ☆ Improving the state's agricultural program to increase marketing, efficiency and productivity.
- ☆ Expansion and improvements of the mental health and mental retardation program, with emphasis on community treatment centers.
- ☆ A statewide program for the treatment of specific learning disabilities in our pre-school and school age children.
- ☆ A state old age assistance program that assures adequate living conditions and medical care for elder Texans.

prove it is definitely a World's Fair.

Included in the happy sights one day recently were a Scot wearing kilts, several Oriental maidens in native costume, a Royal Canadian Mounted Policeman who took a breather from his country's pavilion, and gobs of happy visitors clad in everything from business suits to walking shorts and flowing originals to mini-skirts. Italian soldiers in full uniform march at their pavilion and Mexican mariachis sing outside the Mexico exhibit.

The color of the Fair is something to behold. It seems that each government or industry tried to outdo their neighbor in fashions for their hostesses.

The mini-monorail, which has been an instant hit at the World's Fair, has hostesses in rainbow colored dresses and high mod boots, and the Arkansas pavilion boasts hostesses in beautiful red-topped, striped skirt outfits. There are many more varieties in the multitude of pavilions, and on HemisFair personnel.

The Oklahoma House of Representatives has added their endorsement to HemisFair and urged every resident of the Sooner state to visit the World's Fair.

Ninety-nine members of the Oklahoma House, including Speaker Rex Rivett, cosponsored the unanimously passed resolution commending Texas and developers of HemisFair for "A spectacle for the enjoyment of all."

The resolution, mailed to HemisFair Chief Executive Officer Jim Gaines, said the World's Fair "combines the gaiety of festival, the vigor and spontaneity of the frontier, and the sophisticated adventure of space age technology."

A limited budget is no handicap to HemisFair visitors. In fact, a family of four can have the time of their lives on a $10 bill at the World's Fair.

This budgeted tour includes admission for mother, dad and two youngsters, chicken dinners for the parents and hamburgers for the kids and a host of memorable attractions.

Food prices on the grounds have drawn raves from early visitors to the international exposition, and the multitude of free attractions have surprised many veteran world's fairgoers.

Each of the 100 restaurants and food stop-overs on the 92.6 acre grounds has posted its prices on the outside, and the sensible costs have proved an enticement to bring customers inside.

Hot dogs are 35 cents, hamburgers are 45 cents and a chicken dinner complete with french fries can be enjoyed for 97 cents.

The $10 visit to the six-month World's Fair can include each of these free attractions:

--The Flying Indians of Mexico, performing their 400-year-old ritual by climbing to the top of a 114 foot pole and gliding down with a rope around their waists. This electrifying show is performed four times daily at the Pepsi-Cola Frito-Lay Pavilion.

--The famous Marty and Sid Krofftt Puppets performing in an already smash hit marionette show at the Coca Cola Pavilion.

--A combination film and live actor magic show featuring magician Mark Wilson at the Bell Pavilion and a tour at the telephone exhibit featuring picture telephones, computer age guessers and a kiddyland with telephone conversations with famous cartoon characters.

--The Mercury Water Ski Show on the Fiesta Lagoon where boats pull skiers at high speeds over ramps, around corners and through difficult maneuvers.

These are all free. And, there is much more for the budget-minded traveler.

Mariachis sing and play near the Mexico Pavilion, groups of actors perform on the grounds, bands perform concerts at the amphitheater, youngsters talk, listen, dance, paint and join in a variety of entertainment at Project Y. These too are free.

There are also visits to the governmental pavilions, also at no charge, to see such things as a Belgian diamond being cut; the imagination of the Swiss in building an interesting airplane that runs like a clock; a working scale model of the Panama Canal; computers at work and play at International Business Machines and RCA exhibits.

And, movies of every description, each with its own unique twist are free to the visitor. General Electric has a two-act musical show, Ford features a theater-in-the-round, and Mexico has used mirrors and movies to present a unique but most interesting look at the country.

There is also the $6.75 million United States Pavilion with its exhibit hall and movie by Academy Award winner Francis Thompson, and the State of Texas' entry, the $10 million Institute of Texan Cultures, telling the story of the Lone Star State from its birth to today.

It is all free, and it is just a sample... showing that the family of four can visit the World's Fair on $10.

It will cost mom and dad $2 each to get inside the grounds and the children under 12 only $1. That leaves $4 for ma and pa to each enjoy that 97 cent chicken dinner and junior and sis to have that hamburger or hot dog.

That still leaves enough for the kids to take a ride on one of two dozen exotic attractions at Fiesta Island. The island fun ride cost only from 25 to 50 cents and feature many attractions from other countries.

Of course, there is more available for those wanting it. The 82-foot high Swiss skyride is 90 cents, a ride completely around the grounds on the mini-monorail is only $1, and a boatripe on the Fair's winding waterway system is from 40 cents to 75 cents.

HemisFair has its own radio station to serve as a broadcasting guide for visitors to the exposition.

A transmitter operating on a special frequency below the regular broadcast bands has been built on the grounds, and visitors can pick up their own portable receivers as they enter the gates.

Broadcasts include information on special events, exhibits, weather and news, the location of lost children, interviews with celebrities and such interesting things as waiting times at various exhibits.

The receivers are available for a rental charge of $1 per day.

Marilyn Maxwell, who has been billed as a "superstar" with success in all phases of show business, has been booked to appear with Bob Hope in his May 2-4 appearance at HemisFair.

Miss Maxwell began as a dancer in vaudeville and has earned star billing in such Broadway hits as "Guys and Dolls," "High Button Shoes" and "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?"

She has more than 25 motion pictures and numerous television appearances to her credit.

Hope and Miss Maxwell will share the billing in the 10,500 seat Arena show with the fabulous Marquis Chimps, and dancers Lawrence and Carroll.

Is Liquor-by-the-drink necessary for tax revenue?

Advocates of liquor-by-the-drink hope to gain $70 million a year in tax revenue. If Texas would increase its beer tax from the present $4.30 a barrel to $10 a barrel (the same as Louisiana and Oklahoma) more than $50 million a year would be raised in additional tax revenue. If Texas would just include beer in the 2% State Sales Tax, we would raise an additional $13 million a year. Liquor-by-the-drink is not necessary for tax revenue.

"Here you are, Sir. That'll be $65.12."

"You must be kidding, Mac."

You say you want this "right" so you won't buy a bottle just to get one drink? But you'll drink more (the Annual Review of the Distilled Spirits Industry says 67% more)! At by-the-drink rates that will cost Texans $78 1/2 million, or $65.12 per capita.

Whatever your business, you feel it when a half to $2 billion is siphoned off to buy liquor. Business paid $2,125,000 for work days lost due to alcohol last year. So you didn't miss a day, but part of that is on your check!

The taxes on this drink don't begin to pay the skyrocketing costs of law enforcement. So you're not a drunk. But if consumption jumps 67%, up go our 1,400,000 arrests for public drunkenness.

Iowa highway deaths rose 30% in two years after liquor-by-the-drink. Liquor is already involved in 38% of our fatal accidents. A 30% rise here would mean a human life tag of $34,340,000! Our half billion in auto accidents will soar, too. Somebody's going to pay for it. Your insurance company will see to it they don't!

You don't plan to wind up on welfare, but plenty will! And 78% of our children on welfare are there because of alcohol.

More outlets get more people started and make enforcement more expensive. But you wouldn't care about that — unless maybe you've got a teenager!

What I'm saying is — before you order that drink, be sure you're ready to pay the check!

Walleye Season Opens May 1

The legal season for catching walleye in Lake Meredith opens on May 1. The number of fish allowed each angler per day is the same as the possession limit — five walleye.

Members of the chamber of commerce at Fritch say that fishermen will find added zest in their pursuit of the walleye in this first open season at Lake Meredith. A total of 1,000 of this species will have been tagged before Wednesday by workers from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Fisheries biology laboratory of Canyon.

Each of those fish will carry a number entitling the lucky fisherman to a cash prize to be paid by the Fritch Chamber of Commerce beginning on opening day.

Fishermen of the northern states say that he is one of the early-running fish. They regard his appearance as an unfailing sign of the arrival of Spring.

He is one of the last of the fishes to hit lures in the fall season of the year, which makes him sought after by anglers for many months.

He ranges from Hudson Bay in Canada to Alabama and west to New Mexico. It was not always thus. He has been transplanted in several of the southern and the midwestern states, one of the most recent successful transplants being Lake Meredith.

The world's record is a 40-pounder taken from Old Hickory Lake near Nashville, Tenn., August 1, 1950. The lucky angler was a gentleman by the name of Mabry Harper.

Wright's Host N. P. A. P. Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wright of Waka are hosts to the N. P. A. P. Friday night, April 26. This was a district meet, towns represented were Amarillo, Stratford, Higgins, Waka, Perryton, Spearman and Beaver, Okla.

The charter for the association was drawn up and accepted. Charles Price, president, will frame and present the charter at the next meeting.

The organization will be registered in the state directory of parapsychologists.

The next meet will be the 3rd Friday in May. Tentative plans are for meeting in Stratford.

Members of the association from Spearman who attended a meeting in Pampa Wednesday evening were Ruth Bryan, Ruth Skinner, Launa Pearson, Juanita Paul, Carolyn Gresset, Margaret Kirk.

Mrs Jackson Returns Home

Mrs. A. L. Jackson Sr. returned to her home Monday after being a patient in Hansford Hospital for the past few weeks. Mrs. Jackson suffered a broken leg when she fell from a cement porch at her home.

A hospital bed was provided in her home where she will be confined until the leg cast can be removed.

Well Attended

The Spearman High School Choir, the grade school and junior high choirs presented their spring concert in the high school auditorium on April 25.

The high school choir, under the direction of Edward Howk, sang eight numbers. Among the numbers sung were: "Thou Art Jesus," "I'll Be Home for Christmas," "A Rose, a Red Rose, a True Love's Rose," "Eidelweiss," "He's Gone Away," "This Land is Your Land."

The choir, which consists of nearly 150 members, gave a very impressive and stirring performance.

Linn Serves On TTLA Board

AUSTIN--Tony Koriotoh, a member of the Industrial Accident Board, told the Texas Trial Lawyers Association Saturday that workmen's compensation injury cases can be concluded sooner in Texas with two basic improvements.

Addressing a TTLA general board meeting at the Gonder Hotel in Austin, Commissioner Koriotoh said one of the improvements--cooperation between attorneys and the Industrial Accident Board--already is being made.

The TTLA board includes James P. Linn of Spearman.

The other improvement--better training and professional standards for claims representative of insurance companies--is critically needed, the commissioner said.

Koriotoh commended the TTLA for its leadership in obtaining the cooperation of its members in implementing new procedures and techniques to speed up equitable settlement of personal injury claims.

In response, Tom Webb of San Angelo, TTLA president, said "our primary interest is in seeing that injured persons are swiftly and adequately compensated, and this can best be done through promptness and efficiency in bringing their cases to conclusion. In other business, the TTLA directors agreed to spotlight auto insurance problems and the controversial Keeton O'Connell Plan at the organization's annual meeting July 4 in Houston.

Seven Students To State Meet

Mrs. June H. Porter, speech teacher, will be taking seven students to the State Literary Meet at Austin this weekend.

The students will spend Wednesday night in Abilene and go on to Austin Thursday. The meet will take place on Friday and Saturday.

This is the fourth straight year that Mrs. Porter has had students in state competition. Mrs. Porter has only been at Spearman for five years but has already molded the group into one of the best in the state. Of these seven students competing this year, only two are seniors.

This is the most entries from any one school that will be at the meet.

The good life is more than money in the bank, food on the table, and a roof over the head. The good life is also a place for all children to play, and breathing space to live in and grow strong in body, mind and spirit. - Walter P. Reuther, SCS

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. GARRETT

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma Mae Garrett, 72, were conducted at 10 a. m. Friday April 26 in the First Baptist Church in Gruver. The pastor, Rev. Bill Butts, officiated and was assisted by the Methodist minister, Rev. Leland Spurrier and the Rev. Herbert Hughes, a retired Baptist minister.

Mrs. Garrett, a Gruver resident since 1929, died Wednesday in Hansford Hospital where she had been a patient for 8 weeks. Burial was in Gruver Cemetery by Boxwell Funeral Home of Spearman. She was a member of the Gruver First Baptist Church.

Survivors include her husband, Elvin; a son, J.W. of Calgary, Alberta, Canada; a daughter, Mrs. Carl Archer of Spearman; a sister, Mrs. Jewell Smith of Pittsburg, Texas; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Preston Smith

has been working for Texas since 1944 as Representative, Senator, and Lt. Gov.

Vote for the man with experience in every elective legislative office.

Vote for Preston Smith for Governor of Texas.

You Should. He's The Next Lt. Governor Of Texas.

The man is Ben Barnes, Speaker of the Texas House of Representatives and perhaps the brightest star on the Texas governmental scene.

HIS HERITAGE-COMANCHE COUNTY

At the age of 22, Barnes ran a campaign for the Texas House on faith, effort and practically no money. He was elected. He hasn't stopped since.

He served with distinction and at 26, Ben Barnes was named to the top post in the House of Representatives--Speaker of the House. Two years later, he became the fourth man in Texas history to be elected to a second term as Speaker. He is now serving his fourth term as Representative for Brown, Coleman, Comanche and Runnels counties.

HIS POLITICAL STANCE--EDUCATION, ANTI-CRIME, URBAN PROBLEMS

Barnes is typical of the new breed in that he refuses to be classified along ideological lines or to "vote by rote". He is especially noted for his strong and positive program to combat the problem of crime in Texas. He advocates a strong and specific program to combat crime, including a state police academy, better crime communications among law enforcement agencies and a more workable probation system.

Barnes has also long been a friend of education and has long supported legislation to aid teachers and students alike including special attention to the problems of culturally-deprived children and those with special problems in reading.

HIS PERSONAL HISTORY--BOUNDLESS ENERGY

Although Barnes considers himself a full time servant of the people of Texas, he has somehow found time for an active business life and a rewarding family life. He attended Tarleton State College and Texas Christian University before transferring to the University of Texas. There he was named to the Dean's list of distinguished business administration students and also studied law. While still in college, he married Martha Morgan from his hometown of DeLeon and they now have two children: Greg, 9, and Amy, 5. The whole family attends Methodist services in Austin where the Barneses maintain their home. He also owns small ranching and farming tracts in Comanche County with his father. He is active in several business ventures with members of his family and others.

Dynamic Ben Barnes is thus uniquely equipped to have an insight into the problems of both the businessman, the farmer, the rancher, the urban and the rural dweller.

HIS HONORS AND ACHIEVEMENTS. A REMARKABLE LIST

Ben Barnes was named one of the five outstanding young Texans in 1965 by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce. He holds honorary degrees from both McMurry College and Texas Technological College. He is a member (appointed by President Johnson) of the advisory commission on intergovernmental relations. Chairman of the Southern Conference of the Council of State Governments. Vice President of the National Legislative Conference, and a member of the Executive Committee of the National Conference of State Legislative Leaders.

HIS FUTURE--UNLIMITED

As we said, Ben Barnes is a winner. He is going places and doing it on merit and effort and talent alone. Plus specific and workable programs to benefit out state and all the citizens in it. To sum up, Ben Barnes will do something for our state.

ficers, stronger criminal prosecution forces, better court facilities, and greater rehabilitation for both juvenile and adult offenders.

Workable state liquor laws with strong, uniform enforcement.

Developing a strong and effective state-controlled air and water pollution program in cooperation with local governments.

A workable statewide water plan to develop existing and future water resources.

Increasing the State's tourism program.

Aggressively seeking new industry to keep Texas the fastest growing industrial state in the Nation.

Greater emphasis on the state meeting its problems in growing urban areas, such as mass transportation and waste disposal.

Improving the state's agricultural program to increase marketing, efficiency and productivity.

Expansion and improvements of the mental health and mental retardation program, with emphasis on community treatment centers.

Veterans Advised On Home Buying

With spring in the air, the Veterans Administration today offered advice to veterans who, like thousands of other Americans, are thinking about buying or selling a home.

While Korean War veterans and certain World War II veterans are still eligible under the GI home loan program, the vast majority of veterans interested in securing a GI home loan to buy a home are younger men, Jack Coker, Manager of the VA Regional Office in Waco said.

Last month the figure climbed to about 85 percent with 16,270 of the 19,112 applications from veterans who served after the end of the Korean War.

For the veteran who is thinking of selling his home by allowing the purchaser to carry his GI loan, Coker reminded him that he should protect himself by getting a release of liability from the VA.

Releases are issued if the new buyer--veteran or non-veteran--is a good credit risk and assumes all of the veteran's loan obligations.

Coker pointed out, however, that a release from liability does not restore the veteran's eligibility for another GI loan. Eligibility is restored only if the VA is no longer liable to the lender on the guaranty and if the veteran disposes of the home for certain acceptable reasons, generally because he is forced to sell because of transfer or illness.

Homes reposessed by the VA are sold to veterans and nonveterans alike without regard to race, color or creed.

Further information on VA homes and GI home loans may be obtained from local VA offices.

Brownie Troop 76, Group I met after School April 25 to walk to the scouthouse for their regular meeting with leaders, Mrs. Kinker and Bowen.

At their meeting, the girls began the gifts they are making their mothers for Mother's Day.

Lavonne Kunselman served snacks to Leann Biles, Donna Goff, Cindy Gressett, Gem Lynn Kendrick, Terrie Bowen, Teri Prentice, Maria Funderburgh, Kim Rutker, Julie Douglas, Jan Fowler, Pam Grayson and Tammy Robertson.

Group II of Brownie Troop 76 met at the scouthouse April 25 for their meeting with leaders, Mrs. Floyd and Thompson.

Their leaders helped them as they worked on pajama bags they are sewing.

Susan Thompson served the snacks to Tracy Bullis, Crystal Carson, Cindy Cook, Kelly Criddle, Stephanie Floyd, Leslie Groves, Joni Ralls, Kelli Simpson and Denise Ware.

Veterans Pension And Compensation Payments Defined

Two important words for veterans and their dependents--"compensation" and "pension"--are often used interchangeably by the public, but their meanings are vastly different to the Veterans Administration, the Manager of the Waco VA Regional Office said today.

Coker explained that "compensation" is payment the Veterans Administration makes because of a disability a man suffered in military service. The payment may go to a veteran who has been disabled by an injury or a disease that originated or was aggravated while he was in active service.

Pension, on the other hand, is paid on a basis of need for disabilities or death due to causes not connected with military service, Coker said. The income of the recipient has a direct bearing on the amount of the pension.

Information concerning either benefit is available by mail, phone, or personal inquiry at any local VA office.

The VA must pay the proceeds of the insurance policy to the last beneficiary designated by the veteran even though it might be a divorced wife or a wealthy parent.

In too many cases, the status of the original beneficiary is changed by marriage, divorce or death, and the veteran neglects to make the change in his insurance.

In a recent sampling it was found that six out of ten veterans probably need to update beneficiary information on their policies, Coker said.

Forms for this change may be obtained from any VA office or by writing directly to the VA insurance office where the premiums are paid.

Six out of ten veterans may need to change the beneficiaries listed on their government life insurance to make sure that the right person gets the money, Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco estimated today.

Cover Crop Can Be Extended

Destruction dates on winter cover crops can be extended by the State ASCS Committee in cases of severe blowing, Congressman Bob Price has advised area farmers.

Price said he had answered several inquiries by advising those requesting extension dates to apply through their County ASCS Committees for such extensions on any small grains planted on diverted acreage.

Check Your Beneficiary

Six out of ten veterans may need to change the beneficiaries listed on their government life insurance to make sure that the right person gets the money, Jack Coker, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco estimated today.

Let Me See by Lybil

Driving over the town today afternoon I was amazed at the number of elm trees which are dead and dying...

they noticed the bark beginning to turn black last year and had the tree sprayed. Evidently it didn't do much good.

The disease is the most destructive shade tree blight in the United States, and has spread through 30 eastern and midwestern states.

I do hope everyone will begin to look into this blight, it would be a tragedy to lose all our lovely old shade trees.

In spring, the fancies of the young turn to thoughts of love... mine, however, seem to turn to thoughts of fresh tasting fruits and vegetables which are forever a rarity in our markets here. And when you do find such, they look like real, but taste like a facsimile.

Brent Connelly, 9 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Connelly, is so excited over the up-coming Little League baseball season he is finding it difficult to sleep at night!

Everyone seems to call me when they come up with a stray Siamese cat. I really don't mind (I've reunited two this week) since being the owner of one I certainly understand the anxiety owners have when their pet is missing.

Eddie Faye, Steve and Billy finally got off to the FFA banquet Monday night. Thought for a while there they would never make it.

How much does the average shopper know about picking out a beef roast? Some diligent shoppers of the marketplace know a great deal, while many might as well choose blindly.

To bridge this knowledge gap, the Department of Agriculture's Consumer & Marketing Service recently published an informative leaflet on "How to Buy Beef Roasts."

The leaflet contains valuable information on beef quality, how beef is graded, cuts of meat, cooking methods, and how big a roast to buy to serve your family.

Here are a few tidbits of knowledge from this illustrated guide to beef roast buying: (1) The secret of success in cooking a beef roast is suiting the cooking method to the grade and cut you select.

Here are some tips in cooking your favorite roasts: Rib Roasts-are excellent for tenderness and flavor. This roast can be oven-roasted in all grades, but for maximum tenderness, juiciness and flavor, select USDA Choice. Allow at least 1/2 pound or more

Statue To Be Dedicated At Frank Phillips

The "Plainsman", a bronze-cast sculpture by A. Kelly Pruitt, will be dedicated at Frank Phillips College on Sunday afternoon, May 5, at 2 p. m. in the college auditorium in the Fine Arts Building.

The statue is the final gift of the 1966-67 sophomore class. Approximately one hundred members of the class participated in fund raising projects throughout the school year to help purchase the statue.

The "Plainsman" was created by A. Kelly Pruitt of Taos, New Mexico, Gallery of Western Art, especially for Frank Phillips College and has a value of $3,000.00. Only thirty-six statues will be cast from this creation with the first one being placed at Frank Phillips College. The statue bronzed in Rome, Italy, will be placed in the foyer of the James W. Dillard Library on a pedestal designed by Mr. B. R. Cantrell, architect of the library.

Cloyce Purcell, Phillips, now of North Texas State University, was president of the 1966-67 class; Stacie McNulty, Borger, also at North Texas, was vice-president; and Sharon Purcell, Borger, North Texas, was secretary-treasurer. Class sponsors were: Mrs. Catherine Fry, Mrs. Nevada Thomason and Mr. Richard McKinney.
