Mr. Patton, owner of Patton Motel in Spearman, was supposed to have surgery on his broken foot last week, but complications arising from a damaged liver caused physicians to put the surgery off for awhile.

Mr. Connelly Loses Cousin In Tornado

So far as this newspaper could learn, Mr. Doug Connelly was the only Spearman resident to lose a relative in the tornado which struck Lazbuddie the past weekend. Tornadoes rampaged across the Panhandle Friday night, taking the lives of 26 residents in some six different cities.

Mr. Connelly's cousin, Mrs. Lillian Morris, 50, was dead on arrival at the Muleshoe hospital shortly before midnight Friday, after the tornado swept through Lazbuddie totally demolishing the Morris home. Her husband and two children were injured.

Funeral services for Mrs. Morris, a resident of Lazbuddie since 1931, were held Sunday afternoon.

Thieves Are Music Lovers

Hansford County Sheriff's officers are investigating a burglary of the Gruver Farm Supply which occurred on the night of April 14th. Taken from the store were seven stereo tape players (automobile type) and 90 stereo tapes.

Sheriff J. B. Cooke said he had several reports of thefts of farm equipment and tools in the area.

Absentee Balloting Underway

Absentee balloting is underway at the Clerk's office in the county courthouse, for those who will be absent for the primary election scheduled here Saturday, May 2. Others who may cast absentee votes include those who are ill, or otherwise will be unable to go to the polls on that date.

Limited interest is being shown in local races, but some hotly contested state and area races are expected.

Hansford county democrats up for election, and/or re-election include Faye Womble Lynch and Norma Jean Stowe who have filed for the District and County Clerk's post; Johnnie C. Lee-for County Judge; Selma Reneau-for County Treasurer; Charles L. Cox, County Surveyor; Carl M. At this time Mr. Ed Howk, choral director, will present the 5th & 6th grade choir and the Junior and High School choir in concert. A varied musical program is planned.

Tickets are now on sale by choir members for $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children and students.

Science Students Sweep District

2nd-Monte Pond

3rd-Mark Massie

At the district University Interscholastic League science contest held last Friday at Frank Phillips College, the three entries from Spearman took home first, second, and third place medals. Mike Cox was the first place winner, but it took two runoff exams before Monte Pond edged Mark Massie to break a deadlock for second place.

This caps a very successful year for Spearman science students. Previously three students (Vicki Rosenbaum, Mark Massie, and Deborah Jackson) had won trips to the International Science Fair in Baltimore, Maryland. Now following this clean sweep in district science competition, Monte Pond and Mike Cox will participate in the regional science contest at Lubbock. The top two winners there become eligible for $4000 scholarships and move on to the state contest.

Sending three students to the International Science Fair in a single year and the 1-2-3 domination of district are both almost unprecedented accomplishments.

HS Golf Team Wins

The High School Golf Team went to Dalhart on Friday, April 17, to participate in the District IAA Golf Tournament. The local golfers had to beat all the opposing teams, the Dalhart Country Club Golf Course, and the weather to become the District Champions.

Spearman, Dalhart, Phillips, and Panhandle had teams entered; however, it was a two team race between Spearman and Dalhart. Weather conditions were far from perfect for golf. Heavy rain pounded the course all day, thick fog limited visibility to about 200 yards most of the day, and strong winds blew from the beginning of the match until the end. Golf scores were high, mainly because of the conditions.

At the end of nine holes of play Spearman and Dalhart were tied with scores of 171, but at the end of regulation play Spearman won with a score of 351 to Dalhart's 356. Phillips was a distant third with a score of 378 and Panhandle had a 393. All schools had "B" teams entered but because they were not competing for the championship and the bad weather conditions, the "B" teams did not complete their full round of golf.

Tony Harper of Spearman won a medal for having the lowest individual score of the tournament. Phil Windom of Spearman won the third place medal for the third lowest score.

The five members on the championship team are Tony Harper, Junior Salinas, Phil Windom, Mike Floyd, and Pat Sloan. This team will represent this District in the Regional Golf Tournament in Lubbock on April 23 and 24.

Thus far this year, the Spearman High School team has won three first places in Golf Tournaments, the Sanford-Fritch Invitational Tournament, the Spearman Invitational Tournament, and the District Tournament.

FRANK LEMONS

Spearman speedster, Frank Lemons, will be the only field entry for Spearman, in the regional meeting this weekend. Frank will run the 88'. He will be accompanied by coach Anthony on the Lubbock trip. The Spearman speedster, is one of the finest track men in the schools history.

March Building Permits Soar

Building permits in the city of Spearman for the first three months of this year total $1,094,420. The major portion of this figure accounts for the new Consumers Co-op service station and garage now under construction.

Not included in this figure, however, is the new $130,000 Hansford Implement John Deere home and shop located just outside the city limits on the Burger Highway. Another new business house not listed in the city building permit is the new warehouse building located on the Grubv highway erected recently by Merchants Freight Lines. Other new buildings located in that area do not require a city building permit.

Eleven building permits were written for the first three months of 1970. In January permits totaled $5,100, for moved-in residential buildings and $3,320 for additions to present homes.

February permits recorded included $3,000 for moved-in; $10,000 non-residential and $8,000 for add-ons.

In March two building permits for new shops and service stations totaled $77,500, and additions to residences $1,500.

Already in April applications have been issued for moved-in residential buildings, additions to homes, one new residence (being constructed by Roscoe Nelson) and one remodeling permit for a total of $49,000.

Due to warmer weather and improved working conditions, new construction in Spearman is picking up considerably.

STOLEN TOOLS RECOVERED---Sheriff J. B. Cooke said this week he had recovered over $2,500 worth of tools stolen from the Palo Duro Feedlot. The tools, pictured above, had been sold to three various business firms.

Feedlot Burglary Cleared

Hansford County Sheriff J. B. Cooke has cleared the Palo Duro Feedlot burglary which occurred on the night of April 9, by the arrest of a Stinnett man.

Edward Bourland, 33, was arrested April 14 at his home in Stinnett.

The suspect allegedly took some $2,500 worth of tools from the feedlots located 6 miles north of Morse. All the tools have been recovered. Sheriff Cooke said the tools had been sold in Clinton, Okla., Weatherford, Okla., and Benbrook, Texas.

Bourland is being held in Hansford County jail in lieu of $2,000 bond.

PIONEER CAFE OPENS
Pearl Giddens, stated that her new restaurant on main street will open today, Thursday.

Leave For Carlsbad

Spearman Boy Scouts, Troop 51, will leave Friday afternoon to spend the weekend at Carlsbad, New Mexico. Thirty-three scouts plan to make the trip via cars. Parents will accompany them.

Scouts will spend Friday night in a national park about 6 miles from Seminole and leave about 8 a.m. Saturday for Carlsbad Caverns.

The trip is being financed by the scouts from money they earned selling Christmas Trees and for various errands scouts have performed for business houses in the city.

Adults accompanying scouts on the trip include Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stumpf, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Farr, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oakes, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Close, Burton Schubert, Ronnie Burke, Gordon Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Al Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. James Hargis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bulls, and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wood.

All adults and scouts will camp in tents and/or campers.

Scouts will attend the annual Scout Camp this summer, June 28-July 4 at Camp M.K. Brown which is located near Wheeler.

Sorghum Producers Honored

A select group of sorghum growers have won Trainload and Carload Sorghum Grower awards, including from this area Bill Keasler and F. A. Shapley of Gruver.

Carload winners produced at least a giant hopper carload of grain and Trainload winners produced at least five carloads, or a million pounds. The awards were presented by Northrup, King & Co., Minneapolis-based seed firm, to honor 300 large-volume grain sorghum producers throughout the "sorghum belt"--from Arizona to North Carolina, and from Texas to Nebraska. Total production by the winners came to more than 260 million pounds of grain--enough to fill 1,300 carloads, or to make a train about 20 miles long. Nearly two-thirds of the contest entrants planted part or all of their sorghum acreage to NK222 or NK224A--two companion hybrids that have been planted by more farmers than any other grain sorghum.

Bill Keasler harvested more than 5 giant carloads of grain from 165 acres that had been planted to NK280. Planting date was May 15 and harvest about Oct. 1.

Little League Baseball Program Largest Ever

John Sutterfield, president of the Little League baseball program, announced today that 168 boys had signed up for summer play.

This is the largest number of boys to ever sign up for the program. One hundred-twelve boys showed up for tryouts April 9 and 10. The player auction, conducted by Wilbur Hull, player agent, was conducted April 12.

"We desperately need fathers to help," Sutterfield said. "We need supervisors and workers in the worst way because of the scale of our program," he said. This is the most serious problem concerning the LL program and if any father would volunteer to assist with this worthy project, just show up.

F. A. Shapley planted 155 acres to NK290 and NK275. His total production was more than 5 giant carloads.

at the field or contact any of the Little League officials.

The season opens April 27. Watch for a complete team roster and game schedule in Sunday's newspaper.

Woody Beck has consented to take over umpire duties again this year, and Brad Beedy will again have charge of the concessions stand. Proceeds from this are used for Little League funds.

Sutterfield said he had 4 minor teams, 5 majors, 4 Babe Ruth and the American Legion team scheduled for play this season.

In the Minor league, Hoyt Biles will coach the Pirates; Murphy Allen-Sox; Cecil Slater-Cardinals and Gale Ott-Braves.

Major league coaches are, Dee Allen-Astros; Jack Reed-Yankees; Oscar Donnell-Dodgers; Calvin Bodey-Indians and Bill Douglas-Jetts.

Conservation Program Improves Environment

Locally - led conservation programs have dramatically reduced many forms of pollution and have improved the quality of our environment, according to Clyde W. Graham, head of the Soil Conservation Service for Texas. "Many of us who have been concerned with conservation for a long time find it a little startling that our goals of conservation, purer water, and a better environment are now in the middle of a national crusade," Graham said. "Reforestation, establishing grasses and legumes, terracing, and other conservation practices installed by Texas land-owners have had a big impact on pollution abatement. The SCS has been giving technical assistance to local soil and water conservation districts with conservation programs since 1939, according to Graham. "Sediment, for example, is the largest pollutant of water," Graham said. "Sediment washes from unprotected land into streams and lakes. The soil particles can carry disease and wastes, ruin fishing, and increase the cost of purifying water. More than 30 years of conservation work by the land-owners of this country has greatly reduced the volume of soil washing from rural lands," he continued. Graham pointed out that a large portion of sediment pollution today comes from urban construction sites, road banks, parking lots, and other nonfarm uses. He said many conservation practices that are effective on farmlands can also be used to curb non-farm erosion. "Air pollution from agricultural sources is a rare, localized problem now," Graham added. "But wind-blown soil from farmland once polluted the air on a grand scale. "Clouds of dust blew from land that had been mismanaged and overused, darkening the skies over Washington, New York, and other eastern cities. "Air pollution of this magnitude has been eliminated by conservation programs. Permanent cover, tree windbreaks, wind stripcropping, and better management in many ways are keeping the landowners' soil at home--and out of the air. "Burning woodlands, prairies, and crop residues once sent natural plant nutrients up in clouds of smoke that blanketed the countryside in some parts of Texas for weeks at a time," Graham said. "Now, thanks to enlightened conservation methods, indiscriminate burning is no longer practiced. This source of pollution from our farmland has been almost eliminated. "Some people may be surprised to learn that conservation farming reduces the need for chemical pesticides and herbicides which are sometimes guilty of air and water pollution," Graham continued. "Crop rotations are used to conserve and improve the soil and fight insects, weeds and diseases," he explained. "Certain plants kill nematodes, for example. A rotation to include these plants will help control nematodes. "The conservation farmer strives to reduce soil loss and runoff," Graham said, "and this reduces the likelihood of fertilizers and chemicals washing into streams and lakes. "New ways are being found to use or dispose of wastes that once went into streams. Wood chips, fruit processing plant wastes, animal by-products, and a long list of other materials are proving to be useful as soil conditioners or fertilizers," according to Graham. He said the whole concept of conservation is founded on planning for the protection and improvement of the environment--a positive approach. A good example of the positive approach may be seen in the Texas Hill Country. Ranchers are joining with ornithologists in a program to inventory and preserve nesting sites for a songbird of limited range--the golden-cheeked warbler. SCS land-use information is helping locate stands of ash cedar, which the golden-cheeked warbler must have to build his nest. "This is a unique example of planning ahead to avoid detrimental activities," Graham said. "But the same positive principle can be used in planning for recreation, industry, housing developments, and the like. Such planning should begin with the land and its related resources." Graham said that most conservation work is done in rural areas by farmers and ranchers--but that the technical help that has been proven successful in rural programs is also available for nonfarm use.

Safety Rules To Prevent Sunburn

AUSTIN--Most people over the age of 45 today can recall that when they attended the Texas public schools, it was an 11-year proposition; seven years of "grammar school" and four years of high school.

With the advent of junior high schools in the 1940s, another year was added to make the normal span of public school attendance 12 years.

The 12 years were broken into different patterns, depending usually on size of communities and best use of available buildings. The most frequent pattern had grades 1 through 6 for elementary school, 7 through 9 for junior high, and 10 through 12 for high school.

The name and philosophy of "junior high schools" are now undergoing changes in a few Texas school districts, and in many more school systems throughout the country.

The new name is "the Middle School." The change in philosophy involves a different grouping for students of ages 10 through 14.

Scores of Middle Schools now operating in at least 21 Texas school districts usually follow a 1-5, 6-8, 9-12 grade pattern, compared to the 1-6, 7-9, 10-2 pattern generally found in the junior high schools.

Primarily affected are 11-year-old students, who move up to the Middle School, and the 14-year-olds, who move up to the four-year High School group.

Advocates of the new Middle Schools, however, feel that they benefit students at the three levels (elementary, middle, and high) in ways both academic and social.

Some school officials feel that the Middle Schools offer greater flexibility of scheduling classes, and allow 11-year-old students (sixth graders) to move earlier to departmentalized courses and more elective subjects.

The Fort Worth school district has now made an almost complete transition to Middle Schools, after trying the new system on a limited scale in 1968-69. Other Texas school districts which have begun to use Middle School organizational patterns to varying degrees include those of Aldine, Austin, Bloomington, Brownfield, Brownsville, Clear Creek, Cypress-Fairbanks, Deer Park, Dickinson, Duncanville, Eagle Mountain-Saginaw, Friendswood, Goose Creek, Grapevine, Lewisville, Nacogoches, Midway, Pasadena, Spring Branch and Victoria.

"Middle Schools" In Operation

AUSTIN--Each year in Texas a large number of persons are hospitalized as a result of severe sunburn.

The Texas Safety Association warns that overexposure to the sun can result in painful first, second, and even third degree burns.

Sunburn usually is a minor problem that does not require hospitalization, says the statewide safety group, but the possibility of a severe and dangerous burn is very high.

The safety association says the best rule to follow to prevent sunburn is to get used to the sun gradually. Start with only a few minutes at a time, increasing your exposure to the sun a little more each day.

The group warns too that sunburn can occur on a cloudy day since it is the ultra-violet rays of the sun that cause the dangers.

TSA also says sun-worshippers should use a sun tan lotion to help screen out the sun's burning rays. If a bad burn occurs, the Texas Safety Association says, "See a physician. Get proper medical treatment and advice."

Selective Service Questions Answered

Editor's note: Below are questions now being asked at draft boards. The answers are by Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, State Selective Service Director, 209 W.

Ninth Street, Austin, Texas 78701. He will welcome your questions.

Q--Can I find out how my neighbor's son is classified?
A--Yes, the classification of men is a matter of public record at the local draft board office. Individuals' files, however, are confidential.

Q--This year I am beginning graduate study in physics. Can I get a college deferment?
A--Not under the present criteria. Deferments for graduate study currently are limited to the fields of medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, osteopathy, and optometry. The National Security Council can recommend that additional fields of study be added to the list, but it has not done so.

Q--If I appeal a classification made by my draft board, who decides this appeal?
A--An appeal board having jurisdiction over your case. There are four such boards in Texas--one for each federal district--and one panel, which in effect makes five boards. Each board has five members who are appointed by the President, Wisconsin, and Sunbeam Corporation, Chicago. S&H also is sponsor of the national 4-H home improvement program which currently enrolls 200,000 youth between the ages of 9 and 19.

Girls interested in applying for the scholarships should contact their state 4-H office or the county extension 4-H office.

Each state may submit the application of one girl to be considered for the six grants. Her 4-H and scholastic record will be judged in early November by the Cooperative Extension Service, the scholarship program administrators. Winners will be announced during the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago, November 29 through December 3.

The six scholarships are part of the 4-H College Scholarships Fund arranged and announced by the National 4-H Service Committee.

Applicants for the grants must have been 4-H members for at least three years. They must be enrolled in the fall of 1970 at an accredited college or university toward a major in home economics.

Two scholarships are donated by each of the following: The S&H Foundation, Inc., New York; The West Bend Company, West Bend, Q--Under what conditions may I take an appeal to the President?

A--If the appeal board decision in your case is not unanimous, you may appeal to the President.

Home Ec Majors Can Earn 4-H Scholarships

CHICAGO--Current or former 4-H members have an opportunity to apply for one of six national scholarships worth $800 each offered to coeds planning to major in home economics in their junior year this fall, according to the National 4-H Service Committee.

book and always be alert for that other guy--the one who is going to pass you--perhaps without following these 'common sense' rules," he advises.

"Whatever you do, don't set up a competition between you and the man trying to pass you. If he is being reckless, give him plenty of room. Pull over to the right as far as possible and slow down if necessary so that he can get by without endangering the lives of others."

Courtesy and good common sense work wonders when it comes to passing, Mr. Graham points out. "For example, in the city it is usually senseless to pass. To do so, you will more than likely have to exceed the speed limit and take a chance on conditions ahead. What happens? You have to stop for a light--and all those cars you passed are right up there with you."

USE CAUTION WHEN PASSING VEHICLES

One motor vehicle passing another--particularly on one and two lane roads--can be a chancy thing unless the driver of the passing vehicle uses caution and good common sense.

"You can pass yourself right into the next world," warns Mr. Paul Graham, President, Texas Motor Transportation Assoc. "There are too many accidents and near-accidents as a result of what should be a safe maneuver."

Mr. Graham advises motorists to follow four simple rules for proper passing:

1. Allow plenty of room to pull out, pass, and return to the right lane.
2. Pass on straight level roads--never risk passing on a hill or curve. Obey the road markings that tell you it is safe or unsafe to pass.
3. Signal when passing--sound your horn when passing and, at night, flash your lights. Let the driver of the car ahead know your intentions.
4. Gain speed before passing. It is a good policy to drop back of the car you intend to pass and get a better look at the road ahead. Don't pull out into the left lane until you pick up passing speed.

Adventures in ADVERTISING

The story of P. K. Wrigley and

THE LOCOMOTIVE

One day P. K. Wrigley was riding on a train with a friend and the conversation turned to the chewing gum business. The friend, who had an eye for saving a penny, suggested now that Wrigley chewing gum was so well known and had such a large distribution that it might be wise to dispense with the advertising, save that expense and make that much additional profit.

"I could ask the conductor of this train the same question," replied the financial genius, "This train is now going 60 miles per hour, so why not disconnect the engine? Advertising in merchandising is what a locomotive is to a train. It is the power which keeps it going."

Let Me See
... by Sybil

I've heard several mothers talking about the ads C & B Studio has been running in this newspaper. Some of them sure do want pictures of their "babies" before the studio cleans out all the old negatives... some of which are 21 years old! I know this for a fact, for one of the pictures in the ad was none other than my nephew Danny Ray. Danny, who is a Dallasite now, celebrated his 21st birthday the 17th of this month. It is hard to believe it has been that long. I'll say it again...time flies!

Speaking of time, Sunday, April 26 we will have our annual bout with confusion--at 2 a.m. we will advance our clocks by one hour, marking the beginning of daylight saving time. I sure will miss that extra hour of sleep in the morning. According to researchers, Benjamin Franklin originated the concept of DST in 1784. His idea was first utilized 200 years later in World War I as a temporary emergency aid to conserve fuel for lighting and heating. The idea stuck, and the idea was made law by President LBJ and became effective in 1967.

Another very interesting note concerning 'time' is one I read recently. Some have read the article, but for those who may have missed it, here is the story of "The Missing Day in Time" and the wonder of it is something else. This incident happened while our astronauts and space scientists at Green Belt, Md., were checking the position of the sun, moon, and the planets out in space where they would be 100 years and 1000 years from now. This is most important in order to keep the satellite from colliding with another object in one of its orbits.

The necessary information was fed into the computer and it ran the measurement back and forth over the centuries and it came to a halt. The red light came on and the computer stopped.

The information was re-checked and re-fed into the computer. The information was correct; something must have been wrong with the computer. The service men were called. The computer was checked. "It's perfect," they said. The head of operations asked, "What's wrong?" The reply was "WE HAVE FOUND THERE IS A DAY MISSING IN SPACE ELAPSED TIME." Our space program has bogged down. There was no answer!

One of the men on the team spoke up, "You know, one time I was in Sunday School and we talked about the sun standing still. He took his Bible and turned to the book of Joshua where the Lord said to Joshua, 'Fear them not, I have delivered them into thy hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee.' Joshua and his men were surrounded by the enemy and if darkness fell they would be slaughtered. Joshua petitioned the Lord that the sun stand still. What was the result? 'The sun stood still and the moon stayed--and hastened not to down about a whole day!'"

The space men queried "That might be our missing day. Let's check the computer and see." They checked the sun's position in Joshua's day and found that it was close but not close enough. THE ELAPSED TIME IN JOSHUA'S DAY WAS 23 HOURS AND 20 MINUTES--not a whole day. They read the Bible and there it was "about a day," that is, approximately.

These little words in the Bible were important words to our spacemen. But they were still in trouble because if you cannot account for 40 minutes, you will still be in trouble 1000 years from now. "Somewhere in the Bible it speaks of the sun moving backwards," said the space scientist. They got out the Bible and read the words in II Kings 20:9-11; "Hezekiah, on his death bed, was visited by the prophet Isaiah, who told him that he was not going to die. Hezekiah asked for a sign as proof. Isaiah asked, "Do you want the sun to go ahead ten degrees, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees." Isaiah spoke to the Lord and the Lord brought the shadow ten degrees BACKWARD! TEN DEGREES IS EXACTLY 40 MINUTES!

Twenty-three hours and 20 minutes in Joshua 10, plus 40 minutes in II Kings 20 making the missing 24 hours the space travelers had to log in the logbook as being the missing day in the universe!

"What more can we add?" The grass withereth, the flower fadeth; but the word of our God shall stand forever."--Is. 40:8.

A SPRAYER'S PRAYER

Lord, guide me through each sunny day, as I get into my plane to spray. Stay close beside and take my hand, on each take off, and ever land. I do my best, and that's all I can do, so lot's of things I'll leave up to you. High lines and poles are all around, and could easily bring me to the ground. So point out each obstacle so that I may see, that you are truly here with me. Clear my mind, help my eyes to see, every standpipe and every tree. I help the farmers, and do my best, to rid this land of many pest. This cock-pit is small, not really made for two, but I'll move over and make room for you. There's only me, I have no spare, so Lord please hear this Sprayer's Prayer.
