Officers Attend Narcotics School

Hansford County Sheriff J. B. Cooke and Deputy R. L. McFarlin have just completed a special course on Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs. The 15-hour school, held on the campus of WTSU, was sponsored by the West Texas Security office, the Canyon Police Department and the Randall County Sheriff's office.

Instructors from the State and National Narcotics Bureau and United States Customs officers conducted the seminar and gave general instructions in the abuse of dangerous drugs and narcotics and the effect these drugs have on people. They instructed law enforcement officials in identifying and apprehending sellers, suppliers and users and named the various laws pertaining to these drugs. Sheriff Cooke said the school was very informative and supplied much useful and helpful education pertinent to this very serious problem facing our country today.

Church of Christ Sends Supplies To Lubbock Storm Victims

Mark Nichols, I. V. Pierce, Ellzey Vanderburg and Bill Osborne Monday loaded some 300 boxes full of clothing, bedding, food, linens, cooking utensils and some furniture on a truck belonging to Newell Allen. Edwin Pearce and Albert Clark took the truck load of household supplies to Lubbock where it will aid victims of the recent tornado. The congregation of the Spearman Church of Christ supplied the badly needed items for Lubbock citizens which were left homeless from the May 11 tornado.

Census Figures A Big Mystery

Although Hansford County is one of the four Panhandle counties to show an increase in population for the 1970 census, the increase is nothing to crow about. And just where the increase comes in, no one is sure. According to the census bureau district office, Hansford County counted an official 6,200 people in 1960 and preliminary figures for 1970 are 6,383, an increase of only 183 people. This is county totals.

The official census count in 1960 for Spearman was 3,555. Figures released this week reveal the current city population totals 3,508, a loss of 47 people! There are 163 more school students in Spearman now than there were in 1960.

There is no logical explanation for this count when you consider the increase in utilities service reflected by city records and the increases in school enrollment.

School enrollment in the Spearman Independent School District increased from 992 to 1,155 in May of this year. Figures supplied by Community Public Manager, Charles Gilliam, show a total of 1,080 (active) residential electrical meters within the city limits of Spearman, as compared to 873 in 1960. This is an increase of 207 occupied dwellings. Preliminary reports reveal that 1,607 persons were counted in the "country" in Hansford County; 1,278 in Gruver and 3,508 Spearman residents.

The population signs placed at the city limits on highways approaching Spearman record 4,858. This is an estimated population based on the utility count arrived at by the officials of the City gas and water department. Using the national average formula of 3.7 people per residence. This estimate was done in August of 1966.

Percentage wise, most people agree that census figures should show at least 400 more people living in Spearman now than 10 years ago. At least everyone felt there would be at least this much of an increase.

Though the headcount is down, according to the official census reports, merchants throughout the county report a steady increase in business.

Chambers of Commerce throughout the entire Panhandle can howl and conduct all the surveys they want to, but in the long run the census bureau figures will stand.

It stands to reason that census enumerators might have missed a few people, but not "thousands" of them.

If you were not counted in the recent census, please call or drop by the Spearman Chamber of Commerce and list the number of persons in your family: Write Chamber of Commerce, Box 161, Spearman, or call 659-3330 from 9-5 o'clock week days.

It is most important that you be counted!

Gifford-Hill Co. Will Construct Bridgeport Plant

Gifford-Hill & Company, Inc. today (May 12) announced it has retained Kaiser Engineers of Oakland, California, to design, fabricate and construct a completely new limestone crushing plant at Bridgeport, Texas, according to John

R. Hill, Jr., president of the Dallas-based diversified construction materials firm. This plant will be designed with the primary purpose of eliminating dust commonly associated with rock crushing plants. The latest techniques of air pollution control will be used in the plant, which will be one of the most modern in the nation. The new plant will double the capacity of the present two million tons of crushed stone per year operation at a cost of more than $4 million. The plant, incorporating the most modern crushing and screening techniques of the industry, is scheduled to be in production in January, 1972, in time to serve the increased demand for concrete aggregate from the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport.

This design will convert the operation from the present 'dry' plant to a 'wet' plant, greatly reducing dust emission in order to comply with present and future regulations on air pollution. Mr. Hill said, Wash water and sprinklers will keep the stone wet and virtually dust free from the time the screening begins until the stone leaves the yard in trucks or rail cars.

In order to reduce and control dust, Gifford-Hill is currently experimenting, in Bridgeport and other areas, with sprinklers and new chemicals to keep the plants as clean as possible. Roads to and from the plants are kept moist and truck loads of rock are watered before leaving the plant.

SWINE PRODUCTION IN PLAINS AREA OF TEXAS IS ANALYZED

COLLEGE STATION—Recent developments in swine production have resulted in a rapid expansion of the swine industry in certain sections of Texas, especially in the Plains areas. Advances in production technology and favorable prices have caused many farm operators to consider swine as a possible supplemental enterprise in their farming operation, according to research and extension economists at Texas A&M University.

A study just released as PR-2756 by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station analyzes the economics of swine enterprises in the Plains area of Texas, dealing principally with partial confinement systems. Graduate Students W. R. Masch and J. M. Spott in A&M's Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology made the study.

They point out if a farm operator has the management ability and available capital, the addition of a swine enterprise can provide a means for maintaining or perhaps increasing his net income.

The researchers have provided in the publication detailed budgets on investments costs and returns under different conditions, emphasizing the importance of good management in the operation of a hog business. They conclude that an "above average" manager can profitably produce hogs in the Plains areas as long as the price of Number 1 and 2 barrows and gilts exceed 18 cents per pound and milo prices are below $2.00 per hundredweight. On the other hand, "average" management as defined in the study would need a price of three cents per pound more than for hogs marketed to show a profit under the same system.

They looked at hog prices over a period of 16 years and found that the price of 18 cents per pound occurred 94 percent of the time over a recent four year period, but only about 50 percent of the time over the 16 years studied.

The authors estimate that a total investment of $600 or more per sow is required for a partial confinement farrow to finish system in the Plains areas. For a 120 sow system, fixed cost is estimated at $2.13 and variable cost at $15.28 for a total of $17.41 per hundred weight of hogs marketed. This should yield, they say, an estimated annual return to management of $7,600, basing the price of Number 1 and 2 hogs at $18.75 per hundredweight.

The authors point out that this is the first report in a project designed to estimate the economic importance of hogs in Texas under the different conditions which exist and is based upon information obtained from Plains growers during 1969.

Copies of the Progress Report are available from the Department of Agricultural Information, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas 77843 or from area Extension Service farm management specialists. Local county agricultural agents can also assist interested persons in obtaining a copy.

Patrol Reports Only One Accident In County

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Hansford County during the month of April, according to Sergeant Charles Henderson, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashes resulted in one person injured and an estimated property damage of $700.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first four months of 1970 shows a total of three accidents resulting in no persons killed, one person injured, and an estimated property damage of $2,670.00.

The final school bell will soon be ringing. This will be the signal for summer vacations to begin with hundreds of thousands of people heading for the open highways.

To help insure a safe vacation and summer driving, the Sergeant suggests that you have the following items on your car safety checked:

1. Check the tires for worn and cut spots.
2. Check the steering and wheel alignment.
3. Check all lights and mirrors.
4. Check springs and shock absorbers.

As a FINAL REMINDER, 1,028 persons were killed last summer. Don't be a repeater this summer.

Bush Appoints Gruver Woman Co-Chairman

Congressman George Bush of Houston has announced the appointment of Mrs. Carl Cooper of Gruver as his co-chairman for the Bush for U. S. Senate campaign in Hansford County.

Bush previously announced Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hart of Gruver would serve as chairmen.

"With a solid primary victory behind us, the campaign is really moving," Bush said. "I'm certainly delighted to have Sue Cooper helping in Hansford County. I'm fully confident our team will win in November."

Bush was elected to Congress in 1966, and re-elected without opposition in 1968.

He has served as Texas Heart Fund Drive chairman, and Texas Jaycees honored him previously as one of the "Five Outstanding Young Men of Texas." He is presently chairman of the Republican Task Force on Earth Resources and Population, and a member of the Ways and Means Committee, the most powerful committee in the House.

Bush has actively sponsored legislation concerning urban affairs, rural job development, and setting priorities in federal spending.

Mrs. Cooper is treasurer of the PTA. She has served as vice president of the Republican Women's Club of Hansford County, and is now its president.

She and her husband, Carl, have three children: Chris, 8, Cappi, 5, and Craig, 4.

Summer Registration June 1st

EDITORS NOTE: The following story was published Sunday: We felt that it was worthy of a re-run in this paper:

The membership campaign of the Spearman Chamber of Commerce has been an outstanding success as of five o'clock Thursday.

The five Teams working on the drive met for a 7 a. m. breakfast Thursday; before the chatter and clatter had died down, George Collard had gone to the front of the Pioneer Restaurant, and signed the first New MEMBER - FRANK ALLEN. This initial spur and the spirit of competition engendered by the prospects of "losers" - low point team - buying the "winners" - high point team -- a steak dinner, helped to give the teams enthusiasm for a quick, one day effort. Within an hour after the kickoff, the new member list had grown by six. And during the day, the team members kept a stream of traffic flowing into the Chamber Office with new member applications.

At the close of business on Thursday nine hours after M-Day began -- the five teams had called on more than sixty prospective new members and had turned in 42 new investors in Spearman's future. The positive response is gratifying and is what one would expect from the fine businesses and citizens of Spearman.

The standings as of five o'clock on Thursday showed the Alton Ellsworth team leading with 1352 points. In 2nd place was the Tom Latta Hustlers with 1349; third Vance Snider's team with 1208; fourth, Gene Cudd and his four workers with 1130; and the team captained by Prexy Kent Guthrie spurring the rest with 950 points. Although the major emphasis of the campaign was placed on a one day push, prospective members will be contacted thru 5:00 p. m. Friday, May 22nd at which time workers are asked to turn in all their cards. The team points will continue to mount through the 22nd at which time the high and low point teams will be determined. The low point team is committed to buy the winners a steak dinner.

Chamber President Kent Guthrie, and Manager Bill Walker both expressed their pleasure at the results of Thursday's effort and were confident of the final outcome by the end of the campaign. Both men also wanted to publicly thank those members who took valuable time from their business to put in a day for the community and Chamber.

The new members of the Chamber of Commerce at the close of business, Thursday are; Frank Allen, Thomas Cleaners, Gift Box, Cinderella Beauty Shop, Rev. Kenneth Johnson, Steve Mathews, Jack Reed, Marcus Larson, A. L. Mackie, Bobbie Hohertz, Tri-State Pipeline, C. A. Methodist Conference To Be Held In Abilene

ABILENE--The Northwest Texas Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church will open its 1970 session at 10 a. m. on May 28 at St. Paul United Methodist Church in Abilene.

Bishop Alsie H. Carleton, presiding bishop of the Northwest Texas-New Mexico Area of the UMC, will preside. More than 105,000 members of the conference will be represented by more than 500 clerical and lay delegates. The conference will run through Sunday afternoon, May 31, and will close with the reading of appointments by Bishop Carleton.

One of the first items of business on this year's agenda is a joint session for merger, involving five West Texas Conference churches and the present Northwest Texas Conference. The five churches are Negro churches and members of the old Central Jurisdiction of Negro churches which has been abolished; and the five churches which lie within the bounds of the Northwest Texas Conference will be merged with the MWTC. The joint session for merger will be at 2:30 p. m. on Thursday afternoon, May 28. The Rev. M. T. Reed of Lubbock, pastor of the Mt. Vernon UMC, will represent the West Texas Conference in the ceremony. The five churches are Plum Street in Abilene, Wyatt Memorial in Amarillo, Mt. Vernon in Lubbock, Howell Memorial in Midland, and a church in Levelland.

The plan for merging the West Texas and Northwest Texas Conferences was voted last year by both conferences. Dr. J. Howard Crawford of Lubbock will represent the Northwest Texas Conference in the merging ceremony.

Actions of a called session of the Northwest Texas Conference, held April 4 in Lubbock, will be ratified early in the May meeting--including a vote which abolishes the Brownfield District and reduces the number of districts to seven.

The Conference Program Council, directed by Dr. S. Duane Bruce of Lubbock, will have its presentation on Thursday night--an orientation session on the activities of the conference in many areas.

Dr. Gaston Foote of Fort Worth, longtime pastor of First United Methodist Church there, will be the conference preacher this year and will speak at worship services Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

A new feature of this year's conference will be youth caucuses, held each day. The Rev. R. Hamby, conference youth director, said the caucuses would stress greater youth participation in the conference, would orient the young people on the work of the Northwest Texas Conference provide fellowship and social opportunities during the week, and give the youth an opportunity to express their views.

The ordination service for incoming ministers will be Friday night at 7:30.

A "Celebration of Unity" will be a special feature on the closing day. A processional Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock has been planned, involving Mexican-American representatives, Indians, blacks and Anglo-

WATER, INC. DIRECTOR SPEAKS HERE THURSDAY

Water is one of the elements of nature none of us can do without. Water to drink; water to cook with; water to bath in; water for stock; water for crops and how about automobile radiators and batteries; fire fighters car washes; and air conditioners.

Water-who needs it? You do! We all do. Without water the beautiful High Rolling Plains of 1970 would be the Dust Bowl of the 1930's. Without water our thousand-plus irrigation wells in Hansford County would be useless.

Water, which we waste without a twinge of conscience should cost a dollar a quart and under the proper conditions we would be happy to get it at that price. But today we are paying less than one tenth of a cent a gallon. And irrigation water costs run between twelve and sixteen dollars an acre foot. As plentiful as it seems to be now, water is not expendable. The level of supply in the Ogallala formation is dropping while the need is increasing. This combination of facts, although not startling, are reason for concern. The obvious result of water depletion is the loss of the economy of the affected area. The fact that such a loss can affect the economy of the state and the nation is often overlooked. Such oversight led to the defeat of the state's bond vote in September, 1969.

Millions of dollars are spent and invested throughout Texas and the nation as a direct result of income received on the North Plains. Therefore, the implementation of the Texas Water Plan directly affects a business community much larger than the North Plains.

To find out just how vital important this water import plan is, everyone is urged to hear Bill Clayton, Executive Director of Water, Inc., at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Thursday, May 21 at the Home Demonstration Clubroom. As always, the public is invited. Tickets are $2.50 per person. Reservations may be made by calling 3330 or by sending a check to Box 161, Spearman.

Bill Clayton, is a State Representative from District 72 comprised of Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Deaf Smith, Lamb and Parmer Counties. He is also engaged in farming and ranching operations in Lamb County.

Clayton is the acknowledged water legislation leader in Texas, having either authored or co-authored every single piece of major water legislation since he was elected first in 1962. He currently serves on the Interim Water Study Committee; is chairman of the Livestock Committee and a member of the Aeronautics and Counties Committees. He has also served on the State Affairs, Appropriations, Rules, Urban Affairs, Conservation and Reclamation, Public Health, Labor, and Public Lands and Buildings Committees.

He is a member of the West Texas Advisory Committee to the Water Development Board, Chairman of 160-acre Limitation Committee of the Texas Water Conservation Association, Secretary-Treasurer of the Interstate Conference on Water Problems, and is a member of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Water Resources Committee and various water-oriented associations and institutes.

He is the recipient of many awards and citations including the Fort Worth Press "Outstanding Service Award in Water Conservation" and the first award of the West Texas Water Institute for Meritorious Contributions to the Development and Conservation of West Texas Water Resources.

Clayton's address will center around the Texas Water Plan, a long-range flexible guide which, when implemented, will provide adequate water for all of Texas through the year 2020. He'll also outline the Water, Inc., role in the implementation of the state water plan.

Tips To Aid In Recovery Of Stolen Autos

DALLAS, May 19. Car owners who become the victims of auto theft can assist in the recovery of their car by being able to provide investigators two small but vital pieces of information. These items can be the key factors in how soon a stolen automobile is recovered and time is crucial if the car is to be returned to its owner in reasonable good shape, according to the National Automobile Theft Bureau (NATB).

C. C. Benson, manager of the southwestern division of the NATB, says that if every car owner would have available his auto license number and vehicle identification number, he would have a much better chance of getting his car back if it is stolen.

Using modern law enforcement techniques now available the police can feed this data into an auto theft computer within minutes after the theft is reported," said Mr. Benson, "and this computer will distribute the information on the stolen car to local, state and national authorities within five minutes."

"However, if the owner doesn't have this information readily available, the recovery operation becomes more difficult and chances of recovery lessen."

Mr. Benson also called attention to anti-theft devices that have been built into many 1969 model cars, most 1970's and that will be included on all future models.

"The locking steering column and other anti-theft devices have been built in by the manufacturers to reduce the number of thefts by making the thief's job more difficult - if not nearly impossible," Mr. Benson commented. "It is amazing that people pay for these innovations and then render them ineffective by leaving their cars parked unlocked and with the keys in the ignition."

The NATB official urged that all car owners record, in a place that makes them easily and readily available, their auto license number and their vehicle identification number in order to aid authorities if their car is stolen.

"But," Mr. Benson concluded, "in order to prevent theft in the first place, car owners should always lock their autos and take the keys with them whenever they leave them unattended - even in their own driveways."

First Aid Tips For Snake Bite

"Caution" is a word to remember when you or a member of your family encounter a poisonous snake. A person's fear of snakes could well be his worst enemy in an actual encounter with any one of the four poisonous snakes found in Texas: the rattlesnake, copperhead, cottonmouth, and coral snakes. The most prevalent in Texas is the rattlesnake.

Should you encounter a rattler, the safest thing to do is to remain perfectly still or edge slowly away. The worst thing you could do is run, or shout, or make a quick motion. You only excite the snake, making it more apt to strike in self defense.

Actually, more people die of insect bites in Texas than snake bites. Some 46 persons died of insect bites over the past ten years, compared to only 31 deaths from snake bites. But snake bite deaths are most frequent among the young and old.

The wise outdoorsman will avoid places where a snake may make a home. Walking in weedy areas with brush piles or thick undergrowth is asking a snake to lash out. Don't assume that a snake will shake its rattles as a signal of attack, or that it only strikes when coiled.

In applying first aid for snakebite, make the victim lie down as soon as possible and apply a constricting bandage above the bite. The pulse in blood vessels below the bandage should not disappear, nor should the bandage produce a throbbing sensation. Loosen the bandage for a few seconds every 15 minutes. If possible, apply ice packs to the bite and get the victim to a physician or hospital.

If there is going to be a lengthy interval until antivenin can be given, make cuts cautiously through the skin into and just above the presumed venom deposit site, avoiding tendons, and apply suction.

Antivenin for coral snake bites is available through the Texas Health Department. The State Health Department laboratory in Austin, and laboratories in local health departments at Dallas, Houston, Corpus Christi, and San Antonio, serve as distribution centers for the antivenin. When a bite by a coral snake occurs, the physician or hospital should immediately request antivenin from the nearest distribution center. Other poison antivenins are available through commercial sources.

CRUSADE RALLY IN PAMPA JUNE 2

Christian Crusade Associate Evangelist Charles Secrest will speak on "Sex Education in Home, Church and School" at the rally to be held in Pampa, Tuesday, June 2, 7:30 p.m., at the Bible Temple Church, 944 South Swight, off Amarillo Highway, under the sponsorship of the Tulsa, Oklahoma-based conservative ministry of Dr. Billy James Hargis. Pastor of the Bible Temple Church is Rev. Frank Hardcastle. Other cities included in this tour are Enid and Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Dallas, Beaumont, San Antonio, Rosenberg, Abilene and Muleshoe, Texas. Secrest is author of a recently-published booklet, "Those Red Bears in Clergy Collars", which reflects research the evangelist has done into the matter of "Communist infiltration of Christian churches, seminaries and institutions in America."

Accompanying Secrest and performing a brief concert during the rally will be the Delamont Singers, popular Canadian religious quartet and recording artists. Presenting the "now sound" of inspirational music, they will also sing several traditional gospel numbers.

Leader and arranger for the group is Del Delamont, gospel songwriter and pianist, who also sings lead tenor.

His wife, Bertie, sings high tenor and plays the bass guitar. Completing the quartet are Mr. and Mrs. Ron Leech.

A native of Portsmouth, Ohio, Secrest is a graduate of the Cincinnati Bible Seminary, and is an ordained minister in the Church of Christ/Christian Church. Following U.S. Navy service during World War II, he was in the life insurance field for several years before entering the ministry.

Prior to joining Christian Crusade in 1965, he had been pastor of the Highland Park Christian Church of Louisville, Kentucky, following several years of ministry to churches in Indiana and Kentucky. In addition to his services as a member of the Christian Crusade Speaking Bureau, Secrest serves as Assistant to Dr. Hargis on all overseas tours sponsored by Christian Crusade. In this capacity he leads approximately six or eight tours annually to all parts of the world.

The June 2 meeting in Pampa is open to the public, and admission is free.

PLAN TO ATTEND THE BIG RODEO IN SPEARMAN May 29th - 30th.

Turkey Hens Can Be Hunted

DEL RIO--What's good for the goose, they say, should be good for the gander.

Wildlife turkey hens have been hunted during the regular turkey season in the eastern portions of the Texas Panhandle since 1964 and have proved to be no threat to the total turkey population along the Canadian River bottomlands.

Jim Dillard, a Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologist stationed at Wheeler, said harvesting of hens has not upset the 70/30 ratio of hens to gobblers counted in the area.

Dillard told a group of biologists at the Wildlife Restoration Function Staff Meeting in Del Rio the either sex season experiment was started to increase the harvest and take advantage of the burgeoning bird populations. There are an estimated 10,000 to 15,000 turkeys in the major Panhandle turkey hunting areas, Dillard said.

When the regulations were changed to allow harvest of hens, each hunter was limited to one bird instead of the usual two gobblers. This change still produced an increase in the total number of birds harvested each year, Dillard said.

Hens made up 43 per cent of the kill in 1969, totaling 800 birds. Only 75 hens were taken in the first season in 1964, according to Department records.

Cynthia Hutchison of Spearman (seated right), was one of four young Texans chosen to attend the National 4-H Club conference held recently in Washington, D.C. She and the other three delegates were honored at a luncheon in Houston given by Pennzoil United, Inc., prior to leaving for Washington. Each delegate was presented a certificate by H. W. Eisler, Jr., center, president of Pennzoil Pipe Line Company. Other delegates shown are Randall Warminski, of White Deer, standing left, John Cherry, of Houston and Linda Ander, of Boling, Pennzoil United and its predecessors have sponsored a 4-H Junior Leadership Training Program in Texas for the past 22 years.

Let Me See
by Sybil

I envy Grace & Marvin Kunkel. They are one of the fortunate few who own cabins up in the mountains of New Mexico and when they get just plain sick and tired of being sick and tired they jump in their auto and take off for the cool, quiet high climate for a few days. They did this last weekend and while there, they discovered the big CBS-TV studio was filming several episodes of Gunsmoke over in Taos canyon. They motored over and watched for a while and since they have both been associated with the Lyric theatre here in Spearman for several years, this on-the-scene filming was very interesting to them. The studio had all the cooperation in the world from the local townspeople and police. When sound filming was taking place, highway patrol units stopped all traffic on the highway. They met James Arness and Ricardo Montalban and all in all just thoroughly enjoyed their weekend away from it all. I've hunted several times to borrow their cabin key but for some reason they seem to think I'm not serious.

The way we have of "getting away" is taking off on a relic-hunting spree. Don't know just what there is about this that we enjoy so much. Must be the lure of maybe finding a treasure tucked away in some junk shop. Some day I'll find one like this lady up in Michigan. Seems she went to a garage sale and plunked down 50 cents for an old vase that she thought was "different". Her husband reportedly didn't admire it but that didn't matter to her! The next day the lady who held the garage sale tried to buy the vase back, runnin' up her offer all the way to $75.00. The buyer declined--wisely, it turned out--for the vase may be worth $25,000! A West Coast art dealer believes it is an authentic 15th century Ming Dynasty item. Wouldn't you like to find something like that in somebody's cast-offs?

I guess in these days of population pressures, we all need something which takes our minds off it all. Hobbies are great. Everybody needs one. I enjoy searching for relics of by-gone days--to me it is very nostalgic--and almost haunting--looking at things that belonged to a time and way of life which has gone forever. But some of this old stuff is really getting hard to find. Wooden butter molds for instance, are getting as scarce as hen's teeth.

Then, there's people like Millard Tucker who is finding it harder than ever to relax at his long acquired hobbies. He says he is too tired any more to play golf, and he'd love to go fishing but he is scared to get out on the highway. Afraid somebody will run over him.

We got to wondering how T.J. Ross was progressing on his boat project, so we drove out to see how he was coming along. I'll bet airplane pilots crossing this plains country wonder what in the world that huge boat is doing parked way out here in the desert! That is bound to be the funniest sight in the world to look down and see that huge craft sitting out on the bald prairie. But it won't be there long, for T.J. projects launching date in August! He plans to try out this 42 foot, 13 ton vessel on Lake Meredith before he carts it all the way to the coast where he will fulfill a life-time dream of living on the ocean and doing salvage work. It is a beautiful boat, inside and out and is equipped with the most modern living quarters you ever saw. It is all hand made, from stem to stern, port to starboard and T.J. is and will be literally the master of the craft. It will be interesting to know how he manages to tow the huge ship in and out of Lake Meredith, and all the way to the Texas Gulf Coast. But I bet he does it. Building this boat has taken him 3 years & he's not about to stop short of Corpus Christi!

Mrs. A.L. Jackson Sr. is in somewhat of a tizzy. Her first love in pets is dogs, and she owns a few. But that's not her problem. Her home has been invaded with a mother cat and a litter of the cutest kittens you ever saw. One of them is a male calico, and she wants to give them away. Here's your chance to own one of the rarest critters in the animal kingdom, a male calico, Co by, and you can possess him in a hurry. And make the dogs happy!

In case you haven't noticed in most of the newspaper ads, dress lengths are definitely longer! The girls out at Lady Fair say their latest shipments of dresses have hem lengths just above the knee cap. A lot of women I know will be sewing ruffles on the bottom of their dresses. But it's what we've been wanting.

HELPFUL HINTS FROM ME, TO THEE

The longuette is more than just a longer skirt length. It is a look, a feeling a mood; a whole new way of putting things together. It is also a way of making up the face, shaping the hair, playing up the leg. They all count in getting the right total in the Longuette look.

FASHION FALL-ING INTO PLACE--NOTES
---Skirt movement is achieved by gores, panels, folds concealing slits, split level redingotes, tucks and pleats and bias grace. This will send you to the sewing book for brush-ups on construction methods.

---Coats are the easiest introduction to falls long look. The cover-up bridge over knee length dresses, over pants--over gauchos (gau'choz), jumpsuits, pantsuits--or over an all the way longuette silhouette dress.

---Jacket lengths juggle from waist high to three-quarters long. They are used as a silhouette balance. Battle jacket stron--Fashion reviews the recent past so that it may be purged of impurities.

---Waistline goes up or completely disappears. Attention zeros in on bust.

---Dark stockings and higher heeled shoes are important part of the long look. The sling pump reappears with a high heel.

---Designer Adell Simpson "Change is coming--and change is what fashion is all about--no longer will one length dictate. I am making all lengths. There will be nothing above the knee.

Black should be particularly good, because women cannot absorb new color, new lengths, new silhouettes all at one time.

---Accessories--Wide belt worn above waist--thin belt on waist--jeweled buckles on fabric belts, multiple belts and cummerbund. Gauntlet glove in a return of lengths. Small scarfs wrapped tightly around the neck. Soft shoulder strap bag long to lower thigh or tight under shoulder. They come in a variety of lengths and sizes. Frame bag is a come back in the movement to dressy elegance.

---Hose--knee high worn with gauchos and knickers. Knee capers (just over knee worn with shorts.)

---Colors: Gray, brick, burgundy, all deep purples, caramel, brown, black. Strong sober but mixed together in a young and happy combination.

Fashion is language: It structures the abyss of darkness. Speak that I may see you.

"Free time from employment" is Webster's definition for leisure. People in the field of serontology, the science of aging, refer to this period of life as the after-retirement years, free time, bonus years, unscheduled time or non-work years.

More people are living beyond retirement today than ever before, and the numbers will continue to increase. Some may say that retirement or leisure years will range from 20 to 35 in the foreseeable future. Some believe that the work week will shrink to 20 hours in the next decade. Thus this new freedom or leisure time has become important, not only to the recipient, but all of society.

PLANNING FOR RETIREMENT
The best planning for leisure time begins early in life. When retirement comes, there will likely be many interests and activities to fill these hours. Too, planning helps develop a positive attitude which is vital to gaining new interests.

One large company urges children of the elderly to help them continue activities in church, volunteer jobs, part-time employment or any social activity of their interests. The company believes that one of these activities may help the aged to remain happy, active and to achieve community status. The retiree feels the loss of status connected with his former position.

Retirement or leisure time that is truly satisfying has some general requirements:
... Adequate health, finances and housing.
... Establishment of true companionship with spouse.

... Satisfactory religious expression or participation.
... Development of interests outside the job.
... Decision on what to do and actions according to abilities and stamina.
... A feeling of acceptance in the community.

There are many leisure-time activities. How do you make a choice? This depends on the individual, interests, personal likes and dislikes. There should be a good balance. Do not limit your interest to one activity.

Suppose it's only golf and it rains--what a pity! Cultivate interests to enjoy alone, with friends and with family. Health may force the abandonment of one or more interests, even a favorite; but, with variety there are others to fall back on. Just don't have too much variety. Overinvolvement may cause confusion and then the interests pursue the person.

The big question is: "What will be done with leisure time?" Since many individuals are unprepared for using it, much could be accomplished if each would: 1. Establish a positive attitude concerning leisure and work. 2. Direct this "huge reservoir of creative energies" toward productive living. 3. Help others begin early in life to develop inner capacities for self-expression and differing interest.

LAND BANK REDUCES LOAN RATE

J.E. Gunn, Manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Spearman, received word today that The Federal Land Bank of Houston has reduced interest billing rate on variable rate loans to 8 1/2%.

The variable rate loan plan, which was introduced by the Houston Bank last July, lets the interest rate "float" over the variations in the money market. In large measure, therefore, the rate in any specific rate will reflect the changes in the price which the Bank must pay for the money it makes available for farm mortgage loans.

Recent improvements in the money market have made this reduction possible," Mr. Gunn stated.

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes long term real estate loans on farm and ranch lands throughout Texas. On January 1 of this year, the Bank had slightly over one-half billion dollars in volume of loans outstanding. The local association makes and services loans in Hansford and Hutchinson Counties, Members of the local board of directors are: W.P. Hutton, O.C. Holt, Lynn Davis, A.A. Lieb and B.W. Renner.

MOISTURE MENACES

How can you rescue your house from the attacks of outside moisture? By making sure that your enemy is foiled at your home's most vulnerable spots.

Check especially the framework of windows and doors, the bases of porch pillars, under-eave areas, and downspouts. If there are holes, cracks or signs of peeling paint, it's a warning signal that moisture has launched an attack. Make sure the necessary repair work is done and apply a new protective coat of paint.

Check often to see that your gutters and downspouts are free of clogging leaves and twigs. When they're unable to drain off rain and melting ice and snow, trouble can be in the offing. Many home owners are finding that a plastic netting, called "Vexar" gutter guard, is ideal for this purpose. Unlike metal gutter guards, the plastic won't rust or corrode, is easy to install and so flexible it is easily shaped to fit.

Another source of potential trouble is wood siding that extends down to ground level. Often, such unprotected wood will draw up moisture the way a sponge soaks up water. To safeguard your home against this danger, make sure that wooden studs and siding don't touch the ground. The cost of replacing rotted wood can be much more than a drop in the bucket.

Intelligent, quick-witted and lively, Geminians are "jacks-of-all-trades," but especially the trades which mean plenty of movement both of mind and body.

In love, those born under the sign are coolly affectionate,

(Gemini, May 22-June 22)

very expressive but rarely deeply held. They are joyful when they get the chance to experiment and explore, ask questions and make connections. Job-wise, they often work in the communications field, where they can gather and connect facts.

Traditionally they enjoy travel and frequently send flowers from places they visit. As FTD florists are easily accessible and can have flowers delivered anywhere in the world, Geminians jump at the chance to do so.

Among the signs germane to Gemini are its flower, the yellow chrysanthemum, its birthstone, aquamarine, and the main trait of those born under it, versatility. With such diverse interests, Geminians must constantly guard against flightiness, disorganization and superficiality. When successful, they are gems!
