A Mason and A Man

My Brother, Masonry means much more Than the wearing of a pin;
Or carrying a paid up dues receipt,
So the Lodge will let you in.

You may wear an emblem on your coat, From your finger flash a ring; But if you're not sincere at heart, This does not mean a thing.

It's merely an outward sign toshow The world that you belong To this great fraternal brotherhood That teaches right from wrong.

What really counts lies buried deep Within the human breast, Till Masonic teaching brings it out And puts it to the test.

If you practice outside the Lodge
The things you learn within;
Be just and upright to yourself
And to your fellowmen.

Console a brother when he's sick, And assist him when in need, Without a thought of personal reward For any act or deed.

Walk and act in such a way
That the world without can see,
That only the best can meet the test

Laid down by Masonry.

Be always faithful to your trust,

And do the best you can;

Then you may proudly tell the world,

You're a Mason and a man. Author Unknown

Roy Devers, from Booker, Texas, will display several pieces of bronze sculpture. Deverse is a newcomer in the art field, having only begun sculpting horses and other an-imals out of clay and wax during the past year.

Both artists will be present for their showing.

Jean Martin was born in Boston, Massachusetts, Her deep interest in art began at an early age. She has studied at Lasell Junior College, Massachusetts School of Art, and the University of New Mexico. The influence of her birthplace, her constant studies of the Southwest and her devotion to art have allowed her to create works that are unmistakably Jean Martin's indi-vidual style. She exhibits her mastery of three mediums, oils in detailed soft tones, monoprints providing more brilliant colors, and her pop-ular pen drawing executed in sepia tones. She has been acclaimed as one of the Southwest's most outstanding artists.

Dvers is a sculptor with natural ability and experience in the Wester field. He was born with a love for horses and the West and spent his time as a youth training horses and rodeo-ing. He is an active member of the National Cutting Horse Association.

What don't we know about marijuana?

A Texas alcohol and narcotics education organization says a government report tends to a sfoter attitude toward marijuana.

In an editorial in the 70,000 "Christian Crusader." Texas Alcohol Narcotic Education (TANE) said the report suggest marijuana doesn't necessarily lead to hard drugs...
"yet the researchers had diffi-culty finding suitable subjects for their scientific observations who weren't also messed up with other drugs."

"We're all for being proper and scientific about this research, " the editorial contin-ued. "Perhaps as time goes by, tests in the proper scien-tific setting will be made to bear out what we see from casual observation: Heroin mainliners who say they never would have started on drugs if they hadn't started on marijuana...the scarcity of long term pot heads who don't use other drugs (they've either gone on to other drugs, quit altogether, or died)...the destruction of morals among users...destruction of motivation, individuality, and per-

"The entire situation reminds us of a cartoon showing two firemen busily polishing their bright red fire truck while fire rages through a building across the street. "We're too busy," they say. Then, when pressed, 'The alarm hasn't sounded.

"Though the alarm isn't yet official, we can still see the fire.

The editorial comments were on the first official Department of Health Education and Welfare report on marijuana to the President, dated DJanuary 31, 1971. TANE is a non-profit organ-ing alcohol and drug problems through education. Organized in 1935, it is supported financially by Texas churches, butributions. Programs include public school assembly programs, teacher inservice training workshops, publishing books, production and distribution of audio visual aids, seminars for churches and schools, a 150man speakers bureau, research, legislative information service, workshop co-sponsored with Baylor University.

The organization's film strips and books are in use nationally and throughout the English-speaking world. Some TANE books have been translated into other languages.

Legislation To Protect Consumers

COLLEGE STATION -- Two new consumer protection laws have recently been passed by Congress, effective on April 25. reports Mrs. Doris Myers, Extension specialist in home management at Texas A&M

One new law states that an individual will not be liable for any loss from unauthorized use of his credit card after he has reported its disappearance to the issuer. The other law, titled the "Fair Credit Report-ing Act," gives consumers some rights against the use of erroneous data in the files of credit bureaus. According to the law affect-ing lost credit cards, an individual may report bytele-phone or by letter to the issuer. Most companies will cancel use of the card once they have been notified. If the notice is byletter, cancellation is effective the day the letter is postmarked. For losses oc-curring before notification, liability is limited to $50.

The $50 liability applies separately to each card that is lost. So, if a billfold or purse containing five credit cards is misplaced, the potential maximum liability is a total of $250. If a husband and wife lose their cards on a joint account, however, the total liability is limited to $50.

The new law also prohibits banks and other firms from mailing out unrequested credit cards. Companies must inform the user of his rights and potential liabilities, plus they must assume the legal burden of paying for liabilities the card holder may suffer.

The Fair Credit Reporting Act, the second new law protecting consumers, generally forbids bureaus to send out adverse information that is more than seven years old. The exceptions include bankruptcy. which may be reported up to 14 years; and information in reports on those applying for a loan or life insurance policy of $50,000 or more, and those applying for a job with an annual salary of $20,000 or more, both situations having no time limit.

Once informed that a credit bureau has hampered your credit, insurance or employment status, you have the right to obtain from that bureau all information in your file. The exception is medical informa-

If the file contains false, incomplete or inaccurate information about you, the material may be re-investigated by the credit bureau, and the findings sent at your request to all who have received your report within the past six months or within the last two years, if the file was sent for employment purposes.

If the credit bureau's investigation doesn't settle the dispute, you are entitled to insert a personal statement of 100 words in your file. Your side of the story, then, will be included in any future report, and it also may be sent to those who have already received the disputed information.

so! It all boils down to something like magic. Love magic. Seems that these people who can stick any old plant in the dirt and have it flourish accomplish this fete simply because they display great love for (and to) the plant. And if all these stories are true-strangely enough -- the plant responds to this love.

A friend of mine told me about a couple of women who are Mind Control enthusiasts. They took on this pot plant love making as a special pro-ject. Each bought 2 plants. One they loved with great affection. They talked nicely to the plant, told it how much they loved it, etc. The other plant received no communication at all, only water, fertil-izer and sunlight. The unloved plant withered and died. The other one thrived.

Just how so much chlorophyl and bark is able to respond to humans is beyond me, but someone said when you pick a leaf off a tree, or pick a flower, the plant actually feels pain and lets out a high frequency scream which can be heard only with a special instrument.

A man named Cleve Backster wrote an article for National Wildlife in which he described the results of his experiments. Mr. B. wired plants to a polygraph (lie detector) and subjected the plant to various stimuli which he interpreted as "fear, apprehension, etc." He concluded that the general health of plants are indeed af-

Still another woman experimented with plants for a horticultural group. She reported that her ivy plant nearly died when subjected to four hours of rock music for five days. The same plant recovered and flourished when she stopped the rock no direct sun, you never have stuff and switched to soft, sooth- to fertilize it, and you must ing music. This story I don't

In the Sunday paper I noted with interest comments along these same lines when the Rose Society's president said "It's loving them that makes tht roses grow." Mr. Nelson says you must love roses and treat them kindly as you would a person you love...and the plants will grow successfully. He speaks to his plants in personified terms as if they were his children.

However, I began to doubt this petal pusher's love theory when he went on to say that you can't expect to make a lovely rose bush out of a cull. In other words, want a healthy, pretty rose bush? Buy a good one to start with. Guess he really meant that it was harder to love a lowly cull in the first Boy I'm glad to know that HATE can kill plants. I intend to pay a special call on each of my neighbors and see if I can't get them to conjur up a good hateful spell against the dandelions in our end of town. I simply cannot understand why those nasty things thrive in my yard. I certainly never loved them and have said so many times.

Telephone Workers Want Wage Increase high school Talent Show Thurs-

T.O. Moses, CWA AFL-CIO International Representative and Chairman of the employees of the General Telephone Co. of the Southwest Bargaining Committee, speaking at a Bargaining Caucus of April 4; told Union Representatives from the five states of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana serviced by General Telephone that There is not the slightest doubt that an increase in excess of 25% in the wages of the General Telphone employees is a reasonable justifiable de-

Negotiations covering over 6,000 employees of General Telephone in the five state areas are scheduled to begin about May 20, and the present agreement terminates midnight June 27.

Moses stated that whatever gains we won three years ago, have long since been "eaten" away by a continuing and incessant rise in prices. Telephone workers like the rest of the nation, have lost more than 16% of their purchasing power since our last Negotiation in the worst inflation in decades. In this connection we are aware that the Nixon Administrations Economic Policies are designed to develop public opinion resistance to Union Collective Bargaining programs so that labor organizations may be induced, not to seek, much less achieve, the legitimate and reasonable demands of our members. Because of their economic situation, General Telephone workers cannot be satisfied with the biggest increase in our history. Wages, vacations, holidays, overtime payment, working conditions, you name it, now all lag pitifully behind those enjoyed by other telephone employees often working just across the street from General Telephone employees such as the situation found in Garland and Irving, Texas. We don't think the public is aware of the fact that today a Tele-

on the other side of the street. This desparity has got to go. We seek no more than that received by other telephone employees doing the same identical work, and we do not plan to settle again for any less. May 10 marks the opening of the 1971 MS Hope Chest appeal of the Spearman Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. This is the first year in which the Hope Chest appeal has been conducted in Spearman. According to Mrs. McWhirter, chairman of the appeal, a record number of F. H. A. volunteers will be ringing neighborhood doorbells seeking contributions Monday,

May 10, from 5 to 7 p.m. The funds raised will be used to support the Amarillo area patient service activities for the 125 known multiple sclerosis victims and their families and to advance the Society's research programs.

Mrs. McWhirter said: "Except for funds given for specific purpose, sixty cents of every dollar contributed during our Hope Chest appeal will remain in the Amarillo Area consisting of twenty six counties with Amarillo as headquarters. The money kept in Amarillo will be used for programs of services to patients and their families and for professional and public education." Such programs, she pointed out, vary from community to community, but they may include outpa-tient clinical services providing occupational and physical therapy and visiting nurse services, equipment and counseling. #### HUNTING COCK PHEASANTS NOT DETRIMENTAL AUSTIN-The Chinese Ringneck pheasant is one of the most handsome and sporty of game birds.

The Asian import is established through most of Central United States, and its range includes parts of the Texas Panhandle. Some Texas sportsmen have worried, however, about the fate of pheasants in such "Fringe" areas of its range. Texas has yet to enjoy heavy concentrations such as those in Kansas and Nebraska, and some may have blamed hunting pressure for the failure of pheasants to become numerous in the Panhandle.

This is not the case, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists say.

Food and cover are the factors which control pheasant populations much more than does hunting pressure. Jack Parsons, a regional wildlife supervisor, said as many as 90 percent of the cocks can be harvested in a year without hurting the reproductive prtential of the overall popu-

"If a sex ratio as low as one cock to 15 hers remains for the nesting season there still will be high egg fertility and production." Parsons said. The bag limit during the nine day season in the Panhandle Regulatroy District was two cocks per day, with four in possession.

Parsons said it has been estimated that only about fine to 20 birds out of each 100 hatched live to see their first birthday, regardless of hunt-

Lament for America

If ancient Israel was judged by God with devastation, America deserves annihilation.

Why? Do we not honor God? Millions of us attend churches Sunday morning, Sunday night, Wednesday night - and at revival time. We spend well over $100 million a year on foreign missions. We open Congress with prayer and support chaplains in our armed forces. We declare, "In God We Trust" on our money, and sing, "God Bless America." Astronauts read from the Bible while orbiting the moon, the president has church services in the White House And together we pledge allegiance to our nation "under God." In Christian observances as a nation, we may surpass all other nations in the world. If God judges country by country, He certainly ought to begin with some pagan or Communist na-The United States should Mocking God Why should we be judged? To Israel God explained, "You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore will I visit on you all your iniquities." (Amos 3:2) And through Jesus we have heard, "To whom much is given, of him shall much be required. Israel at that time was a nation far more religious than the United States today. Yet Jehovah told them, "I hate, I despise your religious feasts, and I will take no delight in assemblies.' solemn (Amos 5:21)

Is God a sadist, loving to punish those who most honor Him? Don't be foolish In judging the United States, as in judging ancient Israel, He does not condemn those who honor Him, but those who mock Sunday School Lesson for May 2, 1971

Him. We say we do God honor; God knows we make mockery.

The clearest indicator of a democratic nation's true obedience to God is in its government. Giving to charities seldom amounts to more than one per cent of an individual's or corporation's income and it is usually written off as "public relations.

Where our values are clearly seen is in what we do with the 15 to 50 per cent (or more) of our income that is contributed to our government.

What Are You Doing? What does your local government do to help the poor in your community? Probably, ask Washington for help. But those people are neighbors of yours. Their help should come from you. The fact that you have escaped to a pleasant suburb or farm or ranch does not make the responsibility for the needy . in your community any less your

Poverty is not the problem: the problem is impoverished people. And these people do not need just money; they need personal help. Federal "welfare checks" can be a mockery

What do you do about law-breaking? Nationally, crime syndicates are known to contribute to the campaign funds of politicians, and it has become commonplace to discover dishonesty in bureaucrats, judges, and even congressmen. Locally, the burglars house-break and the "honest" citizens pilfer and shoplift. What are you doing about that?

The question of family size, family planning and the placing of limitations on the concentration of population to keep it within manageable levels has become the subject of a national dialogue. Biologists, ecologists and others are greatly concerned about the steady deterioration of the environment through air pollution, the piling up of waste products, the contamination of rivers and lakes and the rapid rate at which we are using up our natural resources.

As voiced by Prof. John Thomas of Stanford University. When we can deal adequately with the people we have now, giving everyone enough one or two children. Rather, food, housing, clothing, peace, it is explained, it will seek to love, purpose and opportunity to achieve and fulfill themselves, we can then talk about more people and larger populations -- not before.

In Hansford County, according to the current census figures, which show a population of 6, 351 distributed among some 1, 995 households, there is an average of 313 persons per 100 local households.

This is less than is reported for most sections of the United States, the average being 320 per 100 households. In the West South Central States it is Office..

The 3, 300 requests processed by the Waco Regional Office from veterans seeking to establish eligibility for GI home loans was a 134 percent jump over March 1970, and the most of any month since inception

The 86,816 March 1971 requests nationwide was a 120 percent increase over the same month last year.

Coker said factors winch seem to be stimulating greater activity in VA's home loan program are the Veterans Housing Act of 1970, and the recent lowering of mortgage interest rates.

He pointed out the Veteran's Housing Act has liberal provisions, including one which restored unused, expired home loan benefits to 8.9 million World War II and Korean Conflict veterans, and another which authorized VA to guarantee mobile home loans for veterans and servicemen.

Ccker said the three cuts in mort age interest rates starting last December -- from 8.5 to the current 7 percent -- and the resultant savings on monthly home mortgage payments, apparently are encouraging more veterans and serivcemen. as enter the home-buying
