

50-Year Member Of First Baptist Church

Fifty years ago this month, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Baley and daughters Sybil and Estelle, rode into Spearman to make their home. They arrived here on a Wednesday. That Sunday morning Mrs. Baley (Ethel) joined the Baptist Church here, making it's 14th member.

At that time this small group was meeting in the Lyric theatre building; the old boarded-up building which is presently located next door to the Cates Men's store on Spearman's main street.

This small body of believers had no regular pastor, but were pleased to have brother W. E. Hand drive from Chaning once a month and preach for them.

The Baley family moved here from old Mobeetie, in Wheeler County. Mr. Baley was a barber, and for 36 years had the "front chair" in the Hays Barber Shop in Spearman. He passed away in 1963.

Mrs. Baley has seen the First Baptist Church grow from those 14 members to the present resident membership of 592 persons. She recalls that from the old picture show building, the congregation changed it's meeting place to the old frame school building, then to the high school auditorium. When the Presbyterian congregation in Spearman built a small church building, the Baptists met together with that group for some time. Then the Baptists were able to build a basement church which was used many years until the present First Baptist Church building was constructed.

Mrs. Baley has been active in all phases of the church down through the years. She has taught most every age group, from the cradle up. "I've done everything in this church but preach, and I've felt like doing that a few times," the gracious lady said jokingly.

Mrs. Baley lives alone, does all her own house work, and much of the yard work at her residence, 310 Roland street. She drives her automobile, and every Sunday picks up other members of her TEL class who do not have a way to get to Sunday School. She can be counted on to do her part, from helping with church dinners to doing special visitation for revivals. "I love to do all I can, for this is what makes me a happy Christian," she said.

She was 82 years old last February. She regularly attends the Missionary circle meetings, gives devotionals in various departments of the church when called upon, and occasionally teaches her own Sunday School class. She is also an active member of the Dahlia Flower club of this city. During the regular Sunday

GRUVER RESIDENT OF FEW DAYS DIES IN LOCAL HOSPITAL

Mrs. Velma Odell Gray, 50, who had been a Gruver resident only 9 days, died Sunday afternoon in Hansford Hospital. The Gray family had just moved to Gruver from Paris, Texas.

Funeral services are scheduled at 2 p. m. in Joyce, Arkansas Thursday, April 6. Survivors include her husband, Allen Gray of Gruver, and four sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Louise West of Gruver.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mundy visited with his sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Matlock and Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Pansley in Pampa Sunday afternoon.

Morning worship hour on Easter Sunday, April 2, the church honored Mrs. Baley by recognizing her "50 year membership." Mr. Ray Moore spoke briefly concerning her faithfulness to God and his church, then called her to come forward and receive a beautiful orchid corsage.

"I've seen this church go through some pretty hard times," Mrs. Baley stated, "but I wouldn't take back any of it."

Mrs. Baley's daughters are Mrs. R. W. Underwood and Mrs. Clarence Morse. Sybil Underwood lives in Albuquerque, N. M. and Estelle Morse resides in Yuma, Ariz. She also has two granddaughters and one great granddaughter.

Voters Select City and School Officials

There are 1,537 registered voters in Precincts one and ten. All of these could have voted in the school board election held here Saturday, but only 568 did.

A small majority of these registered voters could not vote in the city election because they are rural residents. Only 538 persons cast ballots in the City election Saturday. This is about one-third of the qualified voters.

In the city election voting went like this:

For Mayor: Clarence Pettitt 223, Dr. D. E. Hackley 313.

For Councilman: E. J. Cope-land 306; L. F. Hand 315, Roscoe Nelson 412. Hand and Nelson will be sworn in at the regular meeting on April 10 and will take office on April 24.

Ballots cast in the school board race counted as follows: Don Denham 244, George Jackson 376 and Bill Partridge 432.

Wednesday, April 5 was the last day for unregistered voters to sign up if they wished to cast ballots in the primary election set for May 6.

The county tax office in the Spearman courthouse had counted 2,648 official registered voters for this county as of Monday of this week.

LITTLE LEAGUE try-outs have been set for Monday, April 10 and Tuesday, April 11—both afternoons at 4 p. m. at the Little League ball park. All boys ages 9-12 must be there if they wish to play ball.

Nichols Says Smith Playing "Politics"

Mark L. Nichols, a candidate for District Attorney in the race against Richard Courtiss, said Monday concerning Governor Preston Smith's appointment of Courtiss as interim DA, "it's politics, designed to tell the people who to vote for."

"Everyone in Spearman and the Hansford County area is aware of the political race for the D.A.'s office between Mr. Courtiss and myself.

"We need to be aware of the outside intervention that is trying to control our local politics and be sure that we do not become obligated to them. Regrettably this pressure on Preston Smith had to come from a small clique in this area, and perhaps government bodies.

"I feel no animosity toward Mr. Courtiss and intend that the race be a clean but a hard fought one.

"You citizens have spoken in the city and school elections, now let's hear you speak in the May 6th Primary and you choose whom you wish to serve you as your District Attorney."

Vandalism Reports

City Police Chief Leland Woods reported several instances of vandalism in Spearman over the weekend which involved shooting a B-B gun into plate glass windows of Spearman business houses. Several hundred dollars worth of damage resulted. Windows damaged by the vandals included Beedy Furniture Mart, Jim Neely's clothing store, Fabric Mart, Cummings Refrigeration, Spearman Drug and B & B Sales Co.

City policemen worked two accidents in Spearman the past weekend. On March 30, at 11th & Barkley, an accident involved Teresa Kay Oakes driving a 1965 Chevrolet station wagon and Bradley Scott Beedy, driver of a 1967 Chevrolet. No injuries.

An accident on April 2 in the 1100 block of South Drensen involved Granville Boyd, driver of a 1965 Ford, and Allen Rickets, driving a 1967 Chevrolet. Minor damages, no injuries.

Tuesday afternoon City Police had quite a chase with a juvenile boy on a 1972 Yamaha motorcycle. The lad was driving recklessly at a high rate of speed, riding across people's yards and property, according to police. He wrecked his motorcycle in the alley of the 800 block of South Bernice street before police were able to stop him. He was charged with numerous violations.

Countiss To Fill Unexpired Term of D.A.

Richard Countiss

D.C. from 1962 until 1965. He was an Appellate Attorney for the Lands Division. During this time he briefed and argued cases before the U.S. Courts of Appeal for the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 8th, 9th, and 10th Circuits and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Mr. Countiss is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the American Bar Association, and the North East Panhandle Bar Association. In 1970 he served as president for the Panhandle Bar.

In Spearman Mr. Countiss is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce and is a charter member of the Rotary Club. He and his wife, Karen are members of the United First Methodist Church. They have three children: Richard Jeffrey, William Michael and Julie Anne.

The unexpired term of the deceased Robert Gallaway, District Attorney, ends Dec. 31, 1972.

Mr. Countiss himself is a candidate for this office, subject to the Democratic Primary election on May 6.

His opponent is another Spearman Attorney Mark Nichols.

The heavy criminal docket in the District made it imperative that the vacancy in the office of District Attorney be filled immediately. Grand jury sessions are needed in the counties of the District and certain cases need to be tried immediately.

Countiss said he was conferring with the District Judge and would arrange the necessary settings.

"I am of course pleased that I have been appointed and I will do my very best to justify the confidence shown in me by the appointment. I sincerely thank the many individuals, officials, and governmental bodies that sent the recommendations to the Governor on my behalf that led to the appointment," the Spearman attorney said.

Marie Sparks and Becky and Ray Weckesser went to Memphis and spent Easter Sunday with Francis Knight.

Church Meeting Scheduled

J. B. LAMB

Bill Osborne, Spearman Church of Christ minister, announced today a gospel meeting to begin at the local church April 9 and continue through April 14.

Preaching the gospel services will be J. B. Lamb of Quanah, Texas. Mr. Lamb is an outstanding evangelist. He preached a meeting here two years ago. He has served the Quanah church 8 years and is heard daily on a radio program in that city called "Living With Christ."

Mr. Lamb will present some of his lessons here, visualized with a flannel board. He will bring a special lesson to the adult Bible classes Sunday morning at 9:45.

Leon Reinschmidt of Clinton, Okla. will be the song leader. He has worked with the church in this capacity across the nation and in Africa. Brother Reinschmidt will speak to the young people at 9:45 Sunday morning.

Following the Sunday worship service the church will enjoy a fellowship luncheon at noon. Everyone is invited to attend.

Services have been set for 7:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., nightly except Sunday when evening services begin at 6:00 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Edge of Hardesty were Easter Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riley.

Lions To Meet With Rotarians Monday

Boss Lion Bob English presided over the Lions Club meeting Tuesday in the absence of Boss Lion James Cunningham. Lion English did such a good job the club may fine boss Lion Cunningham, when he gets back from his Easter vacation.

New Lion member Orvil Brummett led the singing as the club sang Happy Birthday to Lion Bryan Jones. Bryan roared his approval of the song.

In other business, the club discussed the beauty pageant, and members were urged by Mrs. Mark Nichols to contact any of the eligible high school girls that they might want to sponsor in the Lions Club beauty contest.

Boss Lion English had the club vote on meeting with the Rotarians next Monday to discuss the up-coming TB clinic, that is to be held in our country. The club voted 100% to do so.

One of the finest local programs of the year was presented by Larry Fryer and his DECA instructor Mr. Don Cates. Larry discussed the school's VICA, DECA program and both he and Mr. Cates answered any questions concerning the program. Larry made such an outstanding presentation that Lion Elma Gunn, who visits the club often from Pampa, made the statement "that boy is really something." Of course, Larry is just another of our typical fine Spearman high school students, who participate in this outstanding DECA program. Mr. Cates and Mr. Smith have done a splendid job with the program this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Oakley of Denver, Colo. and two daughters flew down and visited with her uncle Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parrish Saturday.

Enjoying Easter supper Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Anthony were their children Messrs. and Meses, Charles Vignal and Garner Schoenhals and their children from Canadian and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schoenhals and Max from Panhandle.

Jr. of Lubbock; two daughters Mrs. Daphne Gates of Spearman, Mrs. Alice Clyde of Amarillo and a stepdaughter Mrs. Lilly Palmer of Perryton; a brother, Owen Crismon of Texhoma; three sisters, Mrs. John Hoskins and Mrs. W. Name Change

L. R. Queener, president of the Perryton Savings & Loan Association, announced this week that the directors have approved changing the name of this organization to INTERSTATE SAVINGS & LOAN ASSOCIATION. The change has also been approved by the Texas Savings & Loan Department.

A special members meeting has been called for the purpose of amending the by-laws to effect this name change. The meeting will be held at the home office at 3:30 p. m. April 20, 1972.

The Association recently opened a full service branch in a new building in Spearman to more adequately serve the people in the Hansford County area.

Plans are now being drawn and construction should begin this year on a new home office building in Perryton. It will be built on acreage located at the SE corner of the intersection of 3rd and Main street.

President Queener said additional services which have not heretofore been available are now being offered. "We have begun making insured home loans up to 95% of value. Mobile home loans will be available soon, and the Association will, through a wholly owned subsidiary, enter into new areas of the real estate, investment and loan fields which cannot be handled directly by the Association."

Directors began considering, some time ago, that a name change seemed appropriate to reflect this broader scope of the Association's operations.

The Spearman branch of the Interstate Savings and Loan Association is directed by G. K. Ruppel who stated that "all these changes are being made in order to better serve our people."

Visiting in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Sansing Tuesday through the Easter holiday weekend were their daughters Mr. and Mrs. Perry Coursey and boys of Monahan, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. David Jordan and children of Corpus Christi.

Adults To Sponsor Local Teen Town

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Goodheart and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stumpf have taken over the responsibility of conducting a "Teen Town" for Spearman and area youth.

Teen Town is located in the rear rooms of the Spearman Community building and will be open every week end. Friday nights are reserved for Junior High students dance. Saturday nights are for Senior High students. Sponsors will furnish juke box music, but bands will be scheduled from time to time according to Mrs. Goodheart. Friday and Saturday night hours are from 8 to 11 p.m. Admission to dances will be one dollar per student.

Saturday afternoons and Sunday afternoons, from 1 to 5 p.m., the building is open free of charge - to all youth. Ping Pong tables are available for games then. The pool table, juke box, candy and coke machines are all coin operated.

These two Spearman couples said they were going to give this Teen Town sponsorship "a try" - to see how the project will be accepted, and to give the youth something to do. They said they would be on the premises at all times, along with other sponsors who might like to help out. If parents wish more information they might call the Goodheart residence, 2871 or Mrs. Stumpf, 2109

"This building is for the public. We're having a free come-as-you-are chili supper for the public and we're inviting people to come through the public media," Matthews said.

Matthews added that through the public press he's inviting everyone from a 150-mile radius of the art center, an area estimated to include 600,000 persons.

Inside the building, designed by Edward Durell Stone, architect for the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., chillerasters will see two art collections.

Initial showings will be a collection of work by Texas artists from 1900 to the present and a collection of work by faculty-artists from West Texas State University of Canyon and from Amarillo College.

The 87-piece collection called "Texas Painting and Sculpture: 20th Century" shows 70 years of art--from work of European-trained art pioneers of the early 1900s through paintings of the "dust bowl days" of the 1930s to the "now" creations of artists who sculpt in steel.

Surrounded by the art-intriches of Architect Stone, visitors can witness the "art" of the world's champion chili chef, C. V. Wood Jr., a one-time Amarilloan who lives in Los Angeles. Wood won the chili cooking trophy in a contest last fall at Terlingua, Texas.

After the chili-supper opening, the art center will begin on Sunday (April 9) a schedule of free tours by advance request. Conducting tours will be trained guides who are members of the Docent Council of the Art Center.

Free tours can be arranged Tuesday through Friday at 10:30 a.m. and 2:15 p.m. Beginning April 15, Saturday tours will start at noon, Sunday tours, beginning April 9, will be set for 2:15 p.m.

Art Center operating hours will be from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday, and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday, with no admission charge on any day.

From the opening week through April 30, guides will show visitors the Texas collection. This is the same exhibit displayed at Pollock Gal-eries in Dallas, Witte Museum in Austin and the Amon Carter Museum of Western Art in Fort Worth. The collection was assembled by Jerry Bywaters, director emeritus of the Pollock Galleries, and Martha Utterback, curator of art for the Witte Museum.

Work of the WTSU and AC faculty will hang until April 20. An exhibit of work by WTSU and AC students will be displayed from April 21 through May 2.

Included on the three levels of the art center along with the ten galleries are laboratories for sculpture and ceramics and classrooms equipped with audio visual aids and television outlets.

Amarillo Art Center joins two other new buildings on the college campus. They are the 279-seat concert hall-theater and a music building, with band room, choral room, library and ten studios.

Serving all three units are a sculpture court, an amphitheater, a plaza and several brick-and-grass ramps.

The concert hall-theater and music building were financed by a 1966 bond issue to add to facilities of Amarillo College. The art center was built through funds solicited by the Amarillo Art Center Association, created in 1967.

Matthews, art center director, has planned free exhibits for the center's first three years to show collections which will represent an overview of 6,000 years of the history of art, architecture and the decorative arts.

"These exhibits--from models of pre-Christian efforts to pop art posters--have been designed to bridge the generation gap," Matthews said.

"The building has been designed for the future," Matthews added. "We'll be able to handle all sorts of intermixed media," he said, "including computer art, light shows, music-and-art combinations and even laser beam holograms."

"Docents, through talks illustrated by slides, are available to give students and residents throughout the five-state area previews of what they will see when they visit the art center," Matthews said. "Art will be presented as a process, as related to life," he added. The art center will offer classes as well as several series of films and slides.

The British Broadcasting Corporation television series called "Civilisation," covering the cultural development of Western man from the fall of Rome to the present day, will be shown at the art center, beginning on April 16, on Sundays and Wednesdays. Admission will be free.

With the informal spring opening of the art center, the Amarillo Art Center Association will launch a membership drive.

Matthews said there will be six kinds of memberships--from the $5 student membership to the $5,000 benefactor membership.

"The student, single ($10) and family ($25) memberships will include free copies of the monthly calendar, use of the reference library and a five per cent discount on class fees, among other benefits," he said.

MRS. COUNTISS WILL DIRECT SORORITY YEAR

The Xi Zeta Sorority met Thursday, March 23, in the home of Barbara McLellan.

Discussed during the business meeting was the sending of an Easter gift to Barbara Bush, the sorority's girl in Girls' Town. The members voted to help call people in the phone book and inform them about the city clean-up.

Afterwards, officers were elected for the coming year. They are: President, Karen Countiss; Vice-President, Elaine Floyd; Recording Secretary, Altha Townsend; Corresponding Secretary, Gwen McLain; and Treasurer, Lois Gibner.

The program was brought by a group of F. H. A. girls with musical selections. These same girls won the district talent show and will compete in the state talent show in April.

Those present for the meeting were: Peggy West, Barbara McLellan, Glenda Guthrie, Dodie Beedy, Karen Countiss, Pat Dear, Elaine Floyd, Lois Gibner, Lois Guthrie, and Scarlett Jackson

Mr. and Mrs. B.E. Briley enjoyed having their daughter-in-law Mrs. Mary Haines of Perryton and Mrs. Briley's sister Mrs. Irvin Rogers of Canadian visit them Easter Sunday.

New Labeling for Frozen Dinners

Provisions are being established to provide nutrition information on precooked frozen convenience heat-and-serve dinners.

The Food and Drug Administration will ask manufacturers to follow guidelines voluntary but it won't require compliance.

Sally Springer, foods and nutrition specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said that the proposal would include minimum levels of protein, vitamin A, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin, iron and iodine.

"According to the proposal, frozen dinners will contain meat, poultry, fish or cheese protein; potatoes, rice or other cereal-based product; and vegetables other than potatoes, rice or other cereal-based product."

"In addition," Miss Springer said, "dinners may contain other components." Another aspect of the proposal is that frozen dinners will contain a minimum of 340 calories and state on the label the actual number of calories.

"These proposals are being evaluated," Miss Springer said. "Indeed this will help standardize frozen convenience heat-and-serve dinners."

Easter Guests In Scroggs Home

Mrs. Annie Woods of Soldatna, Alaska, sister of Oakes Scroggs, has been visiting in the Scroggs homes in Spearman and Waka. On Easter Sunday, she was a guest in the Oakes Scroggs home. PIONEER SEEDS
Sign of Good Breeding

Pioneer brand grain sorghum varieties have bred-in yield potential to help farmers get the most from their good management even in the face of adverse weather, insects, or plant disease. Also, the genetic inheritance of every Pioneer hybrid is unique. Each variety is bred to bring out the special traits necessary for maximum performance in the area where it is to be grown.

Your Pioneer dealer has many varieties bred to help farmers on the North Plains turn in top yields. Some of these varieties are:

Pioneer Brand 846: excellent drought resistance—high yielding with good growing conditions—MDM resistant—134-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 820: excellent performer under stress—excellent standability—MDM resistant—144-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 828: outstanding yielder—stands and threshes well even after freeze or snow—hard grain that holds quality—MDM resistant—144-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 845: 136-day maturity—competitive with full season varieties under good growing conditions—grows well in cold weather—MDM resistant

Pioneer Brand 883: good yielding late planter—110-day maturity—strong stalks and good roots make it ideal for post-freezing threshing—MDM resistant

Days to maturity is an averaged figure, which is affected by weather and other variables.

GOOD YEAR OR BAD YEAR, YOU'RE BETTER OFF WITH PIONEER.

Last year, RALPH GREEN, of Brooks & Brooks Farms near Gruver, planted three Pioneer grain sorghum hybrids--828, 845 and 846. All three hybrids showed high yields, but the most outstanding was 828 with an average of 8618 pounds of grain per acre. Mr. Green reports, "The heads were very uniform, the grow-off was fast, and the grain stood well." This year he plans to plant all of his acreage in Pioneer brand 828 or 845. He feels the longer season hybrids fit his program best.

Let Me See by Sybil...

Brrrr--rr--rr to you this cold, windy Monday-after-Easter day. After Sunday being so calm and warm and perfect, Monday was pretty hard to take. I tried to find my all-informative trusty almanac to see what 60 mile per hour winds with 32 degree temperatures would figure--chill factor wise. Couldn't find it. But a look at the poor Robins was enough to convince me that it was cold out. These early birds are having no luck finding worms in my yard. The ground is so hard they can't peck deep enough and even if they could the worms would be frozen. Cricket says "Spring has sprung--backward." John Bishop says we've already had spring AND summer and now it's winter again. I haven't heard anyone say how they thought their fruit trees had fared but I noticed most everyone has plastic sheets wrapped around them. I guess Don & Gloria Knox do not care much for apples since they didn't bother wrapping the whole tree--just one branch. This will be an interesting project to watch.

SPEARMAN made the newly published calendar of Texas Events--in two places, both under May. On May 3-6 Rolling Plains Mule Train to Guymon, Okla. May 11 to 13 is the 21st Hansford Roundup celebration. Nearly 950 happenings crowd the calendar of Texas events this year, from April 1 through Sept. 30. If you are planning to travel through this big state this year you might want one of these. Request one free from the Travel & Information Division, Texas Hiway Dept. Austin, Texas.

WE ARE always reading dreadful statistics, but these will make your hair curl: in 1970, 1,500 youngsters between 15 and 25 died from drugs. Another 3,394 were murder victims. And 4,204 died in the Vietnam War. BUT 17,360--nearly twice the combined total of the others--were killed in vehicle accidents. Why the young? Facts show that many accidents involving teenagers occur within the first few months in which they have their licenses--so inexperience behind the wheel is the major factor. So say the safety people who are expressing great concern over the Driver Education program in our schools today. They say driver education, as it is currently being presented in most high schools, is simply not relevant enough to real-life situations. Most schools offer 30 hours of class room work and only six hours behind the wheel. Most of the time is spent driving in good weather on familiar local roads under almost perfect driving conditions. In some cases, classes are cancelled if the weather is bad. Under such circumstances a youngster's ability to handle a vehicle is never seriously challenged. His greatest challenge is to see how well he can execute a three-point turn or parallel park. Let's face it--youngsters are not being killed trying to park. Too often a youngster's first confrontation with an emergency driving situation is the real thing. Most accidents result from some kind of emergency situation and a youngster's vehicle handling in that situation can make the difference of life and death. Liberty-Mutual Insurance company says driver education needs to launch a new program to discover better ways of teaching avoidance and control of emergencies.

This brings to my mind the funniest column I think I ever read by Erma Bombeck when she listed thoughts a mother has who is driving home from a driver's test with a daughter who just got her license. Some of her thoughts were:

If I keep my seatbelt on I won't go through the windshield. On the other hand if I want to get out in a hurry, I'm trapped. Detroit sits up there trying to improve their hubcaps. Why don't they put a brake on the passenger side of the car? Fifty million mothers would thank them. Are you listening, Detroit? I want to open my eyes but I can't. If I were a well woman, it would be different. People think I am strong, but I have flutter innards. If we meet another car on this road I'm going to spit up. Maybe if I hummed. My throat is dry. Maybe if I tapped my feet. My legs! I can't move my legs! So where is big shot when his daughter is driving his car home? He's in an air-conditioned office, doesn't care what happens to me. She is driving wide open! Or is that the gas gauge? It's her father's fault. He's the one who gave her confidence. I said wait till she's 35, has some responsibility, something to live for, but no... Those poor devils who work for the highway department. They should be making $50,000 a year. As for driver's ed teachers, they have to be pillpopers. Otherwise, how could they climb into those cars everyday with... Are you listening up there? I make you a promise. Let me get home safely to my own driveway and I will never again talk about my neighbors, go off my diet, yell at the kids, cheat at cards, over-charge complain about housework.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brillhart, Larry, Kirby and Amy and Mrs. Hazel Jackson visited Susan Brillhart at San Marcos over the Easter weekend. Susan attends Southwest State University at San Marcos.

EXPLO Billed As Largest Ever in USA

Dallas, Tx--"Dear America and the World: Please find enclosed 6 million brochures, 3 million prayer stickers, 95,000 bumper stickers, 5,000 T-shirts with emblems, 1,000 color films, and 550 billboards all inviting you to join us in Dallas, June 12-17. "R.S.V.P. EXPLO '72, Dallas, Tx. 75222.

"We're getting together to help change the world." So might read an invitation to EXPLO '72, the Christian training conference expected to attract 100,000 people and help ignite a spiritual EXPLOSION--talking the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the entire U.S. by 1976, and throughout the world by 1980.

EXPLO, sponsored by Campus Crusade for Christ International, is expected to be the largest training conference ever held in America. Billy Graham, EXPLO's Honorary Chairman, Arthur Blessitt ("Minister of Sunset Strip") and Bob Harrington ("Chaplain of Bourbon Street") are among the 145 noted Christian leaders who will speak. Johnny Cash, Larry Norman and Kris Kristofferson will provide Jesus Music.

The Cotton Bowl will be utilized every night for mass rallies. The all-day Grand Finale, a Jesus Music Festival to be held on Saturday, June 17, is expected to assemble one-quarter million. The purpose of the conference is to train the delegates in how to experience the abundant Christian life, and how to share their faith in Christ. Seminars--nearly 100 each morning--will be conducted by the Campus Crusade staff. The afternoons will be devoted to the viewing of some 150 exhibit booths, to be set up in the Texas State Fair exhibition buildings, showing the highly varied work of Christian organizations from Jesus People to seminaries to mission organizations.

Afternoons will also be given to practical faith-sharing in Dallas, with the delegates "re-charging" throughout the metropolitan area. The nightly Cotton Bowl sessions will recount the day's events and present speakers and music groups. High school and college students, laymen and pastors--all Christians--are invited to attend. Some 700 churches and other groups have registered delegations. An EXPLO airlift has been organized to transport multitudes to Dallas. Delegates are coming from every state and such places as Australia, Norway, Korea, and Nigeria.

After EXPLO, "Operation Penetration" will be implemented. This direct extension of EXPLO during August and September will involve the organization of some 100 smaller conferences to be held throughout the U.S. as EXPLO Delegates seek to find five others each to be trained.

Campus Crusade President Bill Bright foresees through this multiplication effect a force of 1 million trained Christians, ready to share their faith on high school and college campuses, in communities, and the military by the fall. He also foresees 10,000 people dedicating their lives to Christian service as a direct result of EXPLO and its follow-up efforts.

BETTY CROCKER HOMEMAKER OF TEXAS IS NAMED

Margaret Colette Laue, a senior at New Braunfels Senior High school, New Braunfels, has been chosen Texas' 1972 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. Selected from a field of 37,412 senior girls in 987 of the state's high schools, she will receive a $1,500 college scholarship from General Mills, sponsor of the annual education program. She is also now eligible for national honors.

Named runner-up in Texas and winner of a $500 college grant was Laura Louise Sutherland of Brazosport high school, Freeport.

From April 23-28, Miss Laue, accompanied by a faculty adviser, will join State Homemakers of Tomorrow and advisers from each of the other states and the District of Columbia in an expense-paid educational tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Va., and Washington, D.C.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. K.C. Loftin are his sister, Mrs. George Taylor and his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Red Hendrick all of Pascagoula, Mississippi. The Loftins, Mrs. Taylor and the Hendricks went to Palo Duro Canyon Sunday. They were joined by Mrs. Darrell McCoy and girls and her mother Mrs. T.H. Loftin of Perryton and Kenneth and Francis' daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Zachary and sons from Amarillo. They all had a nice day in the canyon.

PANHANDLE PHEASANTS INCREASING

Texas is not known as a major pheasant producer, but a modest colony of the colorful game birds is thriving in the Panhandle.

And so far, this spring has all the earmarks of a good production season for the birds, according to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Mild weather, a good standing crop of holdover birds and an expected good wheat crop all should combine to produce enough birds for a good hunting season next fall.

As usual, cover is the vital factor for the birds in the Panhandle flatlands where most of the available acreage is plowed for agricultural production.

Department wildlife specialists recommend that landowners leave as much weedy cover as possible for the birds during the nesting season.

A variety of trees, shrubs and other plants are used by pheasants for food and cover.

Some of the more popular cover are Russian olive, red juniper, fruit trees, wild plum and multiflora rose.

A successful nine-day season was held during December in most counties of the Panhandle Regulatory District, with a daily bag limit of two cocks and possession limit of four.

The Chinese ringneck was brought to this country from Asia, and it has spread across a vast area of North America. Texas biologists hope the bird will continue to thrive and expand its range in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Howter have as a visitor for a few days her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Gehrke and family of Phoenix, Arizona. They will visit also with Mr. and Mrs. Rick Howter at Gruver while they are here.

Mrs. Archa Morse visited last week with her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deuel and Rhonda in Louisville, Colorado. She enjoyed a nice Easter weekend and when she left there Sunday night the wind was very high and the ground was covered with snow.

PARENTS AND TEENAGERS

College Station—"I remember when..."

"When I was your age..."

Statements such as these and other nostalgic glances into the past don't have a place in childrearing, according to family life education specialist Dorothy Taylor.

Miss Taylor, who works for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, explained that parents who apply solutions that originated in their childhood to present situations simply aren't in tune with today's world.

"True, some things haven't changed," Miss Taylor said. "These are basic interpersonal relations, learning how to get along with people, ethical concepts, honesty and dishonesty and religious training. People also still need to acquire certain basic skills such as learning how to cook or fix a flat tire, sharing experiences and telling children about safety."

The specialist said that the same can be said for educational opportunities.

"They're still important," she explained. "For the parents these were probably limited -- even more so for the mother. So, many parents just don't feel comfortable with the thought that their child isn't going to college. In fact, they're horrified."

Yet many young people today desire to enter a trade and become a craftsman. The child believes (and rightly so, according to many experts) that America has quickly become top heavy with intellectual brain machines and has a critical need for interculturally endowed craftsman and people who operate in a practical world.

If a son or daughter goes off to college, many parents aren't comfortable on today's college campus -- especially if either of them attended the same school.

"I remember when this was a small, quiet campus. Look at it now," they say.

Another aspect that parents can't solve with yesterday's solutions involves the appropriate amount of spending money for miscellaneous activities.

"Stop and consider what your teenager spends money for," Miss Taylor advised.

"Most of the activities even thought to be possible 25 years ago."

Other areas of possible conflict include how you feel about the draft, civil rights, styles of dress, personal appearance, academic pressure to get good marks in school and the position of the female in society.

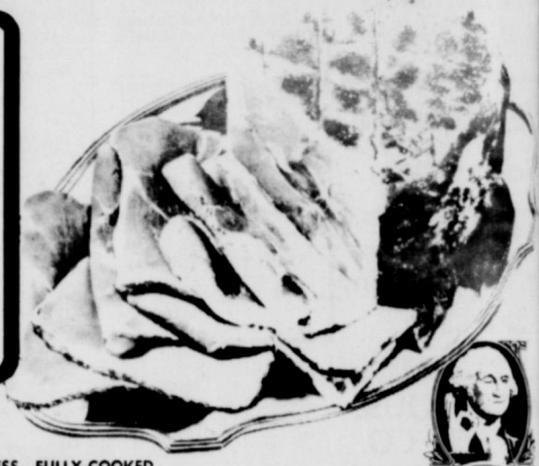

The specialist said she remembers when... work in some cases, but before applying it or using as a solution to a problem today, consider if the problem you're trying to solve is really the same as it was when you were a child or whether anyone even this situation would ever occur.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mack and children of Dumas visited Mrs. and Mr. Mack on Friday.

Kim and Max McCammon of Morse are spending the Easter holidays from school with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCammon.

Concerned Farmers, Ranchers

WACO--Farmers and ranchers are concerned about statements in the national news media that food prices are too high, according to Texas Farm Bureau President J. T. Woodson.

"We in agriculture are afraid that these inflammatory statements might result in popular demand for price controls on raw farm products," the farm leader said. "If this happens, and we are saddled with controls, the consumer will really have something to worry about."

"Prices for agricultural products are not likely to get out of hand," Woodson said. "We will respond to any price increase by producing more. The consumer is protected by the competitive enterprise system in agriculture."

"If, on the other hand, price ceilings are imposed on us," Woodson said, "producers will be forced out of agriculture in droves, and the consumer will pay higher prices for his food. The only way we have survived higher production and living costs up to now is through increases in efficiency."

"Only just now are certain segments of our agricultural industry--livestock, for example--beginning to receive decent prices," the farm leader said. "Egg producers are actually selling eggs at or below cost of production. Imagine what it would do to the poultry industry to put a freeze on their current prices."

The farm leader said that farmers and ranchers appreciate some of the statements made in defense of agriculture in recent days. He referred to statements made by President Nixon, Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz, and Treasury Secretary John Connally. "These men are in a position to know the true situation in agriculture," Woodson said. "We thank them for telling it like it is."

President Nixon said in a recent press conference that it is a mistake to blame farmers for the food price increase because they receive only one-third of what consumers pay for food.

The other two thirds goes to the middlemen," Nixon said, adding that the spread has widened and is too great.

"The public is being fed a lot of malarky about meat prices," Secretary Butz said in defense of farmers and cattlemen. He added that a food price investigation--now planned by the Price Commission--was long overdue. He said farmers were being blamed unjustly for rising retail food costs, especially for meat, to cover up sharp increases in what he called "hard costs" of processing and distribution.

Woodson said that U.S. Department of Agriculture statistics prove that the farmer's gain in efficiency has helped keep food costs in check. He cited the following facts released by USDA:

--The American farmer produces over 20 percent more on seven percent fewer acres than he did in the period 1957-69.

--In 1970, one U.S. farm worker supplied food and fiber for 47 persons. He supplied 23 persons in the 1957-59 period.

--Retail food prices rose less than three-fourths as much as all other consumer goods in the past decade. Retail food was up some 27 percent while the overall Consumer Price Index was up over 39 percent.

--Food expenditures take a declining share of consumer income. Twenty-five years ago, the percent of income spent on food was 24.6. In 1970, the percentage was down to 16.6.

Miss Patrice McLain of West Texas University at Canyon and Mike McLain from University of Texas at Austin spent the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don McLain.

Farmers Could Benefit From Castor Crop

High Plains farmers have an opportunity this year to net from $78.90 to $100 per acre from land they designate set-aside acreage.

This is the amount estimated by Delbert Langford, castor production supervisor for McNair Seed Company, Plainview, and scientists at the High Plains Research Foundation if farmers take advantage of the three-year castor production contract being offered by Plains Coop Oil Mill.

Under contracts set to re-establish the production of castors on the High Plains, growers will receive $5 per hundred weight for castors under a one-year contract, $5.25 under a two-year contract and $5.50 under terms of a three-year contract.

Most farmers seem to be waiting to determine the exact number of acres to plant before agreeing to contract terms. However, some farmers in areas where irrigation water is becoming critical are reducing their grain sorghum acreage in order to be more efficient in irrigating the limited amount of grain sorghum they plan to produce. Castors require similar amounts of irrigation.

However, castor research at the Research Foundation shows that castors may be produced in skip-row and interplant systems that can help a farmer in his water management problems.

According to Jim Valliant, research director, a farmer worried about water being his limiting factor in castor production should investigate possibilities of skip-row castor production to take advantage of the skip-row effect of planting for better utilization of rainfall.

"Also when farmer irrigates between the crop rows, in a two-in and one-out pattern, he is in effect irrigating only one-third of his land. In a two-in and two-out pattern a farmer reduces his irrigation to one-fourth of his land.

And research at the Foundation for a number of years has shown definitely that per planted acres, skip-row castors have produced yields similar to solid planted and heavily irrigated castor crops," he noted. In 1971 castors produced under skip-row patterns produced an average 3,200 pounds per planted acre compared to 2,600 pounds on solid planted acres.

Castors can be planted on land designated as set-aside by making a privilege payment of from $8 to $10 from the price support payments.

Figuring castors planted on a 60 acre tract, Langford said that under the skip-row or interplant system, 20 acres of the 60-acre tract could be cotton land, 20 acres would be castors and the land not used for production between the castor rows would qualify as set-aside for full price support payments.

Under a solid planted castor production system, 20 acres would be planted to cotton and 40 acres would be used for castors with privilege payments made on the 40 acres.

Using Foundation yields for 1971, Langford figured the production at the maximum $5.50 per cwt. price against production costs of approximately $60 per acre on skip-row castors and $40 for solid row plantings. After deducting the privilege payment of $9.10 per acre for castor production on the 20 acres of skip-row castors, Langford estimated that farmers could realize a net profit of $100 per acre.

On the solid planting acreage and privilege payment on the total production, a farmer could still realize $78.90 per acre, Langford said.

The High Plains is the source of castors produced in the United States. The Plainview area is the center of castor production with growers as far to the South as the Seminole and Seagraves area and west into New Mexico.

Valliant pointed out that castor production is not new to the farmers of the area and provides more versatility for area crops. "It would be a shame to lose this specialized industry because we failed to produce enough castors," Valliant said.

Outlining some tips on planting the crop, Valliant said that April or early May planting dates provided optimum yields with yields declining after May 10.

Best fertilizer applications have been split applications of 100 pounds of nitrogen pre-plant and 50 pounds side-dress. "If producers are worried about volunteers the next season, we have had excellent control with chemicals. Studies by Dennis Mooney and Jim Schrib have shown that the castor volunteer problem essentially has been eliminated when planting grain sorghum the following year," he said.

Timing of irrigation has been found to be important. Valliant said research at the Foundation has indicated best yields obtained from irrigations at first, second and third bloom stage plus a light irrigation in early September. "However, some farmers have gotten excellent yields by omitting the first bloom irrigation," Valliant said.

The leakproof proof.

You want it. You've got it. Our engineers haven't put 7 years of design into Vanguard PVC plastic irrigation pipe for nothing.

First of all, carefully examine the illustrated cutaway.

That should tell you two things. One, Vanguard has a rubber gasket. Two, Vanguard has a longer coupler than any irrigation pipe on the market.

Now, let's look at each one a little more critically.

The rubber gasket has three gripping lips that absolutely refuse to let water get by. And because of the rubber we use, the gasket won't deteriorate. At all.

The rubber gasket also saves money in installation.

Thousands of feet of Vanguard can be installed in one day. In any kind of weather. That's because there are no bands or solvents to mess with.

But, look what you get when you add a long-formed coupler.

A whole irrigation system that won't go bad on you.

The coupler and rubber gasket combined allow for lots of flexibility.

When the ground starts expanding, contracting or shifting, Vanguard doesn't resist.

It just goes right along. Expanding. Contracting. Shifting. But never leaking. At all.

Obviously, we don't expect you to be totally convinced just by our claims. So, give us a fair shake. And give us a call.

We'll give you a demonstration. That's when you'll really get the leakproof proof.

WEED SYMPOSIUM AT BUSHLAND TO BE APRIL 6

BUSHLAND--An explanation of current federal pesticide legislation and how it will affect West Texas farmers will keynote a Weed Control Symposium slated for Bushland, April 6.

Dr. Jack Price, Extension leader in agricultural chemicals from Texas A&M University, will give producers the latest information about limitations on the use of pesticides.

The talk is part of a conference on control of perennial weeds that will begin at 1:30 p.m. at the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center, according to Dr. Allen F. Wiese, weed researcher.

"Perennial weeds are becoming worse since herbicide use to control annual weeds has reduced the practice of cultivating," he says.

Among the biggest troublemakers are field bindweed, silverleaf nightshade, blueweed, johnsongrass and woollyleaf busage.

"Since the last weed control conference at the Center in 1967, research has given us some new leads for controlling perennial weeds," Wiese reports.

Other topics on the afternoon program will include root systems of perennial weeds, Silverleaf nightshade research, control of field bindweed, new herbicide practices, a report on Banvel as a new chemical for perennial weeds and control of woollyleaf busage and Watergrass.

The symposium is being sponsored by the USDA, Texas A&M University, the Texas Weed Control Association, and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Electric water heaters are flameless, flueless and fit anywhere.

Because an electric hot water heater is flameless it requires no flue, or ventilation. It can easily be installed in closets, under kitchen drainboards or under stairs. You can safely place an electric water heater anywhere it will fit because it produces so little external heat. A modern electric water heater is clean and quiet because it's flameless... the heating elements are completely immersed in the water so they heat quickly and efficiently. See your appliance dealer soon for a modern flameless electric water heater.
