ACCORDING TO REPORT

Gulf Paid Texas Politicians $12 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gulf Oil Corp. apparently made secret cash payments to members of the Texas Railroad Commission beginning in the early 1960s, according to a report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The railroad commission regulates oil production in Texas.

Gulf money also apparently went to former Texas Gov. Preston Smith, to various Harris County (Houston) candidates for the Texas legislature and to candidates for the Texas Supreme Court, according to the report.

The report was compiled by a special three-man panel, headed by senior American statesman John J. McCloy, which Gulf's board of directors set up to investigate the company's illegal political gifts in the United States and overseas.

The report contains fragmentary and sometimes second-hand information. Names of recipients are frequently omitted, and the panel said it was not possible to say for certain what happened to all of the $12 million in Gulf money that apparently was diverted to political use between 1960 and 1973.

The report did not attempt to judge in every case whether payments were legal or illegal, but said in general that Gulf's political donations were "shot through" with illegality.

A portion of the report dealt with Texas, where Gulf's chief political bagman, Claude C. Wild Jr., spent $50,000 to $60,000 a year for political gifts, according to the report.

The report quoted Fort Worth lawyer Ira Butler Sr. as saying that he began passing money from Wild to members of the Texas Railroad Commission around 1960, when Wild first started making political donations with Gulf's corporate funds.

Butler, contacted today in Fort Worth, said, "I was the most surprised person in Texas to learn that they were corporate funds."

Butler said he was assured by a Gulf vice president any money he delivered would not be corporate funds. He said today he does not recall who received the contributions.

The report said that Wild met Butler in Dallas, and "Butler was given cash for one of the railroad commissioners who was facing a contested election."

"Butler asked Wild whether he should mention Wild's name, and Wild said, 'No. From the minute I give you this, it's personal,'" the report said.

"From then on, Butler made payments to any commissioner who faced opposition in an election," the report said. "He recalled having made payments to all commissioners save one since the early 1960s. The last payment was made in 1974."

Butler was quoted as saying the donations usually were $1,000, and that he recalled passing about $3,000 from Wild every two years.

Butler also was quoted as saying he made several donations in contested Supreme Court elections in Texas, and around 1960 delivered envelopes from Wild to Crawford Martin, a candidate for Texas attorney general. The report said Martin picked up the envelopes personally, and Butler did not open them to see what was inside.

Another lawyer, W.B. Edwards, was quoted as saying that at Wild's request he once "made delivery of an envelope containing money to Gov. Preston Smith, apparently in connection with a Texas gubernatorial campaign."

"He was not told the amount of money involved and this was the only occasion on which Edwards assisted Wild in such a matter," the report said. Edwards was then Gulf's lawyer in Houston, and now is assistant general counsel at the company's headquarters in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The report added that "from time to time, Edwards did receive money from Wild which he contributed to the various Harris County candidates to the Texas Legislature."

"Every year or two, Edwards and Wild met and discussed the candidates and estimated the amount of money that would be needed, Edwards said that the resulting cash contributions were usually in the $100 to $150 range. He estimated that the aggregate amount involved over the years came to between $4,000 and $5,000. Edwards said he never asked Wild the source of the funds," the report said. It said Edwards thought the money was legal.

Except for Martin and Smith, the report did not identify Texas recipients of the Gulf donations.

Butler, who was on retainer with Gulf, was asked today if he could recall any recipients of the sealed envelopes which contained the money.

"No, I'd be speculating on that," Butler said. "I told the committee that I didn't want to guess about anything like that. That's been more than 10 years, you know."

He said the Gulf vice president with whom he dealt "told me these funds were from a wholly independent source."

The World At-A-Glance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fifteen months ago, a jury was being picked in the large ceremonial chamber of the federal courthouse for the trial of Richard M. Nixon's top presidential lieutenants. In the same courtroom, lawyers were to argue today that the jury selection process was faulty and that the trial was so replete with errors that the Watergate cover-up convictions of H. R. Haldeman, John D. Ehrlichman and John N. Mitchell should be overturned. The three men, along with Robert C. Mardian, were convicted of conspiring to cover up the Watergate scandal. All except Mardian also were convicted of obstructing justice and multiple counts of perjury. All four are appealing their convictions.

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — More than 500 troops, police and special agents hunted through southern County Armagh today for terrorists who ambushed and massacred 10 Protestant textile workers in a bus at a lonely crossroads early Monday night. It was the third in an escalating series of killings in South Armagh that began Friday when three Protestants were murdered. Five Roman Catholics were slain Sunday, apparently by Protestants, and police believed the killing of the 10 men Monday was a revenge strike by the Irish Republican Army's Provisional wing.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Christian militiamen defied a Palestinian ultimatum today and prevented a food convoy from reaching two refugee camps on the edge of Beirut for the third time in 48 hours, a police spokesman reported. A new wave of kidnaping continued in the city for the second day.

To Greet Sen. Tower

Plans for greeting Sen. John Tower here this weekend were nearing completion today.

Sen. Tower, who will address an open luncheon meeting Friday noon at the Officers Open Mess at Webb AFB, will arrive here Thursday evening.

Authorities said the base gates would be open to visitors Friday morning starting at 11 a.m. when tickets ($4) may be obtained at the door. Service club members are being invited to meet with the host American Business Club for the affair, and those who are not club members but who want to attend are asked to call the Chamber of Commerce.

Howard County Republicans will honor Sen. Tower at a reception at 8 p.m. Thursday at the Big Spring Country Club, said Winston Wrinkle, state committeeman. The senator will spend the night here and will meet the news media for a briefing in the Webb AFB conference room at 10 a.m. He plans a tour of the base prior to his noon political address. He will leave after the speech for Dallas-Fort Worth airport.

BLUE NORTHER

Norther due. High today in the mid to upper 60s. Low tonight, mid 20s. High Wednesday, mid 40s. Partly cloudy Wednesday. Westerly to southwesterly wind 20-30 miles per hour this afternoon. Northerly and 15-25 m.p.h. tonight.

CARRILLO MAKES OFFER — Dist. Judge O. P. Carrillo, under impeachment proceedings in the Texas Senate, holds a microphone as he personally offered to give the Senate a transcript of the Judicial Qualifications Commission hearings today and "save a lot of time and money." The Senate rejected the offer. At right is Carrillo's attorney Arthur Mitchell, whose assistant John Cutright is seated at left.

Indicted Secretary Keeps Senate Job

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Senators have voted to keep paying Senate Secretary Charles Schnabel $37,500 a year, but they have taken away his major powers and duties until theft and misconduct charges against him are settled in court.

In effect, they decided 18-13 Monday, that he should be paid the same to do less.

Several senators, however, said they feared the public would misinterpret the decision as a vote of confidence in Schnabel. Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby—whom Schnabel calls "boss"—said he would have voted to suspend Schnabel until he has been cleared of the charges.

Schnabel, 43, was indicted last Tuesday by the Travis County grand jury for allegedly paying personal debts with Senate payroll checks to non-existent employees and using a Senate employe to work on his ranch at nearby Elgin.

The indictments resulted from Dist. Atty. Bob Smith's investigation of Schnabel, after a fired Senate employe, Alex Martinez, reportedly gave Smith a box of private materials he claimed to have printed for Schnabel in the Senate print shop.

Hobby said he hoped charges against Schnabel, secretary for the past 20 years, would "be found to be baseless."

Hobby added, however, "Since the charges specifically involve the administration of public funds, I strongly feel that Mr. Schnabel should not serve as secretary of the Senate until he has been exonerated."

The Senate rejected, 19-12, a resolution by Sen. Kent Hance, D-Lubbock, to put Schnabel on leave of absence without pay until he has been cleared of charges.

Hobby, the presiding officer of the Senate, said, "Were I a member of the Senate, I would have voted" for Hance's resolution to suspend Schnabel from office "until his exonerated."

After turning down the Hance resolution, the Senate adopted Sen. Bill Meier's resolution, which stated that, "It is the sense of the Senate" that the suspension of Schnabel "would unduly prejudice his rights as well as his opportunity for a fair trial on the charges against him."

TOM BEAN, Tex. (AP) — A thin white wire stretches across the prairies near here and at the other end is a telephone sitting in a cowpasture.

Tom Gregg's small herd of cows may be the only bovines in the nation with their own telephone. But it wasn't planned that way.

"It's the most ridiculous thing I've ever heard of," Gregg said Monday. "I mean — isn't this incredible?"

Gregg's herd of seven cows, two sheep, a horse and rabbits got its telephone last September when the Greggs' moved their mobile home a quarter of a mile away to a new home site near this North Texas community. Gregg, a school board member and accountant employed in Dallas 70 miles away, moved here from Chattanooga, Tenn., three years ago.

BOOMING COTTON CROPS County Banks Top $100 Million Mark

Deposits in the Coahoma and three Big Spring banks for the first time crossed the $100 million mark on Dec. 31, 1975.

Statements by the banks showed $103,662,349 on deposit up $10,496,608.68, or 11.27 per cent over the year-end call in 1974.

Had not most farmers been holding back on sale of cotton until 1976, the deposit figure would have been substantially higher, most bankers agreed.

At that, a lot of cash did pour in right at the last, accounting for $19,630,287, a gain of $3,156,443, or 19.16 per cent more than a year ago.

Senate Rejects Carrillo Bid For Postponement

AUSTIN (AP) — The Senate rejected two motions today to postpone again the long delayed impeachment trial of District Court Judge O.P. Carrillo.

The Senate first voted 15-13 against accepting an offer by Carrillo to give the Senate the transcript of the Judicial Qualifications Commission hearing in his case.

Special Counsel Leon Jaworski told the Senate the Texas Constitution provides no exception to the confidentiality of proceedings before the commission. Even with Carrillo's waiver, Jaworski advised the Senate to reject the offer, and it did.

Sen. Lloyd Doggett, D-Austin, said it cost $20,000 a week to keep the Senate in session for the trial. Sens. Bill Moore, D-Bryan, and Jack Ogg, D-Houston, made postponement motions, arguing it would save taxpayers' money if the Senate waited until the commission filed its report with the Texas Supreme Court and it became public. Having that transcript before them would speed up the impeachment trial, Ogg said.

But Sen. John Traeger, D-Sequin, said no report would be made to the Supreme Court unless the commission recommended action against the South Texas judge. Other senators argued the Senate would have to finish the trial sometime and that it might as well go ahead and do it now. Moore's motion to postpone until June 14 and Ogg's motion to postpone until March lost on identical votes of 21-7.

In making his waiver, Carrillo personally addressed the Senate for the first time.

"I believe it would save a lot of time and the state a lot of money," Carrillo said. "I will not use this as a vehicle for appeal in any shape or form."

The Senate first declined to accept the offer of the transcript Monday when it was made by Carrillo's lawyer, Arthur Mitchell of Austin. The Senate voted unanimously to take the matter under advisement.

Sen. A. R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, said the constitutional ban was for the protection of Carrillo and that he could waive that protection. But others suggested the Senate might be in contempt of the Texas Supreme Court, the body the commission reports to, if it accepted the transcript.

JUDGE TUNE WON'T CALL SAND SPRINGS ELECTION

City Attorney James Gregg met with County Judge Bill Tune this morning to give official notification that a portion of the plot for the proposed incorporated city of Sands Springs is within the jurisdictional limitations of the municipality of Big Spring.

"I won't call an election, because of this protest," Judge Tune said. Big Spring is allowed a two-mile limit outside their city limits which cannot be incorporated by another municipality under Texas law.

"We don't care if they incorporate, but I will recommend to the council that we keep our two-mile jurisdictional limit," Gregg said today.

IF A COW ANSWERS . . . hang up

"The telephone company said they would move our phone to our new location in about a week," Gregg said. "They never have."

The Greggs left the telephone — which is shared by four party line users — sitting on the ground. "The cows kept knocking the receiver off the cradle and interrupting service," Gregg said. "I'd have to go out there and put it back on. We now have it in a little ice chest but the cows still trip over the wire and pull the phone off the hook."

Gregg said a Continental Telephone Co. lineman kept checking the system for problems until Mrs. Gregg directed him to the telephone in the pasture. "I don't believe it," he said, later bringing a supervisor to see the cowpasture telephone.

"They've never given me a real explanation as to why they can't come out and disconnect the telephone and put it in our new house. It's costing me $12.50 a month," Gregg said. "We were told it might be next spring."

Frank Thompson, district supervisor for the company, said he will have the telephone moved within 30 days.

"My wife was told by a neighbor that during recent rate increase hearings the company bragged it was the best telephone company in the area. Some people around here have given up and started using citizen band radios in their homes. Moisture gets to the phone and knocks it out about three or four days every month. We're city folks and telephone service is just something that we're not used to doing without," Gregg said.

Meanwhile, by dialing 214-546-0975, one may get to talk to a cow.

Poll Gospel Premature

What did the public opinion polls tell us. The clearest message seems to be that opinion polls taken 11 months before the presidential election and at a time of their year when most people have other things on their minds are nebulous if not meaningless.

The Harris Poll reported that Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., would defeat either President Ford, or his challenger, Ronald Reagan, for the presidency if the election were held now.

Two days later, the Gallup Poll reported just the opposite, that President Ford and Reagan lead Sen. Humphrey in the latest test races.

The percentages were surprising, too. The Harris Poll said Humphrey led Reagan by 50 to 43 per cent and was a 52-41 per cent choice over Ford.

Gallup said Ford holds a 51-39 per cent lead over Humphrey slightly greater than Reagan's 50-42 per cent edge.

Since the contradictory polls were published, Louis Harris and Dr. George Gallup have logged more time on radio and television than Walter Cronkite in an effort to explain.

Dr. Gallup, whose polling was done at the time Ford was returning from Peking, said this could have affected the results.

Harris said an opinion poll reflects the opinions of those polled on a specific day and that this opinion could change in a few days because of some event.

Research organizations such as Gallup and Harris have built a reputation for accuracy that is difficult to challenge, not only in political campaigns, but in all types of public opinion monitoring the accuracy of their figures in these surveys probably reflect quite accurately the response of the persons surveyed on the particular day they were interviewed.

But the message we get, without much question, is that a public opinion poll more than two months before the first presidential preference primary and nearly 11 months before the 1976 general election is not a real indication of how the candidates will rank come election day.

New Definition Of Education

Gov. Dolph Briscoe has now come up with a new definition of education.

What it means, says the governor, is the ability to get a job. Ergo, Texas colleges and universities are providing only "so-called higher education" because some of their graduates can't get jobs after they finish their schooling.

On the other hand, says the governor, those who graduate from Texas State Technical Institute "have jobs waiting for them upon graduation."

The only goal of education is to get a job. Unless a job comes with the diploma, you ain't educated, partner.

Whatever happened to that dream of early Texas patriots who referred to the importance of a "cultivated mind"?

My Answer

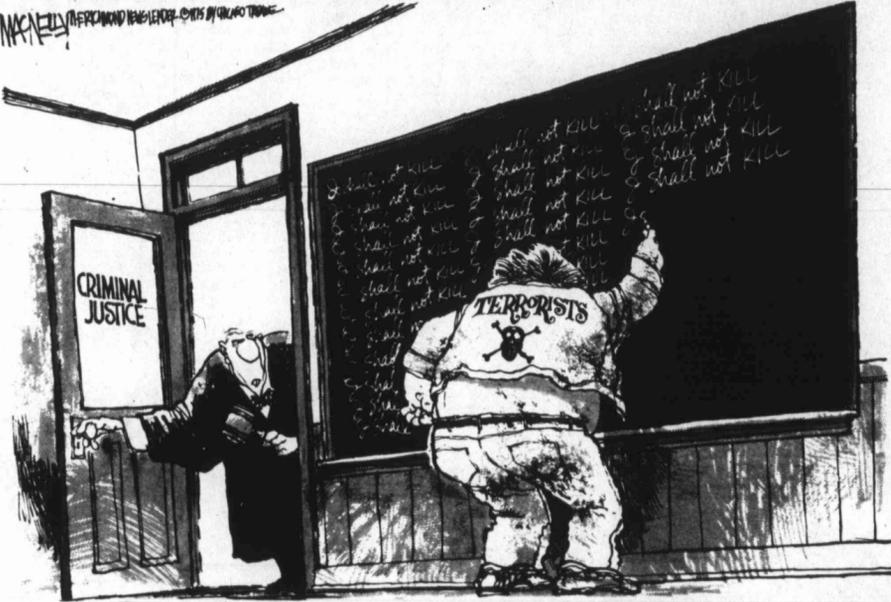

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: Was the Garden of Eden a mythical place, or do you believe it was a real geographical setting? Where was it — T.F.

DEAR T.F.: The Bible indicates that the Garden of Eden was a real geographical location. The Biblical account mentions four rivers that had their source in the Garden (Genesis 2:10-14). Two of these are known to us (the Tigris and the Euphrates Rivers), but the other two have been the source of much speculation. The general consensus of Bible scholars is that the Garden of Eden was located in the Middle East, possibly in the lower part of the Tigris-Euphrates River Basin in modern Iraq.

More important than the exact location, however, is the significance of the Garden of Eden. In it man was first placed by God. All of his needs were met by God, and he was in perfect fellowship with his Creator. However, the Bible teaches that man willfully sinned against God and chose to go his own way. As a result, his fellowship with God was broken, and all men now stand under the judgment of God. It is only through God's Son, Jesus Christ, that we can be brought back into a right relationship with God and know the forgiveness of our sins.

Some day, the Bible tells us, those who trust in Christ will be restored to that perfect fellowship which Adam and Eve enjoyed in the Garden of Eden. (Revelation 21:1-7)

How Can We Plan?

NEW YORK (AP) — If we don't know where we are, how can we plan the future?

That is often the lament of economists and their critics too, who question our understanding of the economy — of the dynamics that move it, of the statistical measures used to read its temperature.

It was less than 1 1/2 years ago, you may recall, that the White House realized with a shock that while it was conscientiously fighting inflation, recession had become the number one economic problem.

The recession didn't begin suddenly; it was developing for many months, but even at the highest levels of government it seemed to come as a surprise, barely observed until it had become a monster.

How could the White House know when the economists didn't — and for the most part, they didn't. Just a few months before everyone knew we were in the midst of a deep recession, the National Association of Business Economists announced: "Our big news... is good news, specifically:

There ain't going to be no recession. At least that's the view of 68 per cent of us, with only 29 per cent begging to differ."

Bad enough that the forecast was missed, but equally interesting is how professionals equipped with the finest tools and brains and masses of data can be so divided. What is this mysterious study called economics?

The seriousness of the situation becomes even more obvious when it is considered that a poor reading of existing conditions automatically leads to poor policy decisions by business and government... And that poor policy decisions are measured in terms of prices, jobs, health, living standards and the like.

Are we making mistakes today? Experience overwhelms us with evidence. We are, but it is unlikely we can obtain any consensus from economists regarding the nature of our errors. They won't agree.

Econometric model users, meanwhile, make certain assumptions that may or may not be correct, feed them into their electronic analog of the economy, and come out with forecasts that are as weak as the assumptions made. Consider, for example, the disagreements among economists about the future of inflation.

Economic policy makers have to recognize that their policies might have to accommodate during the next 10 years an inflation rate of 6 per cent, says Ross S. Preston of Wharton Econometric Forecasting.

"If the policy makers assume that the inflation rate will come down soon to the 3 to 4 per cent range, they could saddle us with economic policies that will slow down the economy several years from now."

Preston believes that inflation is "built into the system." Other economists do not share that view; they feel the rate over the next decade might even be cut by half.

Who is correct? The layman certainly can't find the answer in any consensus of economists. There is none. He is left to work out the answers as best he can.

Pickwickian Syndrome

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

My husband has pressure and was hospitalized. He also has what they call "Pickwickian syndrome."

After his hospitalization I noticed he was much calmer, but I also noticed he didn't seem as alert mentally as formerly. There also was a drinking problem. At times he was very apathetic.

He was taking reserpine. I am just wondering if this could have contributed to this at the time. — Mrs. B. W.

Yes, it could have. Reserpine is an anti-hypertensive drug that has a tranquilizing effect. This, combined with the alcohol (a depressant drug) could have exaggerated his problem. The Pickwickian syndrome (obesity, drowsiness, with symptoms of hyperventilation) would have been apart of the picture.

If he is still taking the reserpine and shows any signs of mental depression you should report this to his doctor, and he will be taken off it. The drug can also cause nasal stuffiness, which can be quite annoying.

However, you cannot automatically lay all of his mental state to the drug. He may have been in a generally lackluster state because of his general physical condition, a part of his heart problem.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is it possible for a man to eat so much that it causes a heart attack? My husband has had two severe attacks and uses nitroglycerine pills for smaller ones. He is not overweight, nor does he have any other ailments. He does smoke, though doctors have told him to quit. — M.T.

Indeed, it is possible to eat too much. When food goes into the stomach, a series of events occurs, each of which requires an increase of blood supply. This includes digestive contractions in the stomach and intestinal walls and activation of the glands involved, each of which must be supplied additional blood. The heart itself requires more blood to nourish its own muscles.

Your husband's history of heart attacks, and I suspect (from the fact that he is taking nitroglycerine) of angina pectoris, indicates that he should avoid heavy meals or any undue exercise after his meals.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: What does "infantile uterus" mean? Does it have any effect on becoming pregnant or bearing children? — A.R.

This is a uterus that is smaller than normal. Ordinarily it would not affect your child-bearing capacity. "You Can Stop Sinus Trouble!" is the title of Dr. Thosteson's booklet, explaining what sinus trouble really is and what can be done about it. For a copy write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped (13 cents now) envelope and 25 cents.

Yea Cowboys!

Around The Rim

Troy Bryant

THE DALLAS COWBOYS' recent excursion into the NFC playoffs gave the team and a few players a chance to etch their names into the record book.

THEY BEAT the Rams Sunday 37-7, bringing the Cowboys' record in the NFC-NFL Championship games to 3-4 and dropping the Rams' record to 2-5.

Dallas has wins over the Rams, and San Francisco twice, in 1970 and 1971 and losses to Green Bay twice, in 1966 and 1967 and to Washington, 1972 and Minnesota, 1973.

COACH TOM LANDRY coached in his seventh NFC-NFL championship, tying for second place with Paul Brown, Cleveland, and George Halas, Chicago Bears. The only man to coach in more games was Steve Owen, New York Giants.

Preston Pearson tied for second place with total points in a championship game with 18 points with his three touchdown catches and also tied for first place with Gary Collins, Cleveland vs. Baltimore, 1964, for a number of touchdown catches in a game.

Tony Fritch kicked three field goals, moving into a tie for second place with seven others for most field goals in a game.

ROGER STAUBACH threw four touchdown passes, tying Otto Graham, Cleveland, Tobin Rote, Detroit, and Bart Starr, Green Bay, for second place in most touchdown passes. Only Sid Luckman, Chicago Bears vs. Washington, 1943, threw more (5) in a single championship game.

As a team, Dallas moved into second place in number of first downs with 24, bettering its old record of 23 against Green Bay in 1966. Only Baltimore got more (27) against the New York Giants in 1958.

CONSIDERING that the Cowboys have only been in existence since 1960, that's an admirable record.

But, that's in the past and all eyes are now on the Super Bowl. According to an airline office in Dallas, they have been swamped with callers inquiring about flights to Miami, beginning when Dallas took a 7-0 lead Sunday afternoon.

Now, all eight flights a day are booked solid.

EVEN DALLAS Mayor Wes Wise caught the Cowboy fever and penned a special cheer for the Cowboys. It goes like this:

"Pork chops, pork chops,
"Greasy, Greasy,
"We'll beat the Steelers,
"Easy, easy."

Texas Dropouts

Robert Novak

DALLAS — Some cheerless members of President Ford's state campaign committee, stunned by his approval of the energy bill, gathered in Dallas Christmas night to agree on this damage assessment: Ronald Reagan may not only defeat but actually humiliate the President in the Texas primary May 1.

THE TRAUMA in Dallas was duplicated in Houston and elsewhere throughout the state within the Texas Republican establishment. Having followed Sen. John Tower into the Ford camp, they fear they may now be driven from party control by a surge of right-wing precinct workers backing Reagan.

Viewing Reagan with minimum admiration and his Texas supporters with maximum disdain, this state's establishment Republicans are not boarding the Reagan bandwagon. Rather, many will quietly drop out of the Ford campaign and pray that Reagan will, somehow, be stopped and the establishment rescued — perhaps by John B. Connally as favorite-son candidate.

THE NATIONAL impact of the Texas dropout could be profound. Tower-led Texas Republican regulars will not repeat for Gerald Ford in 1976 their 1968 mission for Richard M. Nixon when their steadfastness prevented a Southern breakthrough for Reagan. This time, unless Reagan is stopped in earlier primaries, he will be favored to capture Texas, the South's largest delegate prize and a healthy push toward the nomination.

WHILE MR. Ford's signing the energy bill was no great surprise in Washington, his Texas supporters had believed in a veto to the end. Michael Halbouty, a Houston oil executive and Ford campaign fundraiser, came away from the Oval Office Dec. 18 believing the President had accepted his arguments that the bill would increase oil imports and decrease domestic production. When Mr. Ford announced approval of the bill Dec. 21, Halbouty immediately resigned from the Ford campaign committee. The full count of resignations is not yet in.

Even Sen. Tower is expected to become a less visible Ford man. One prominent Dallas Republican, having expected a veto, now will stay away from the Ford campaign.

Planned That A-Way

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Ron Nessen has been complaining about the clumsy image the media has been giving President Ford. Angered by the press coverage devoted to Mr. Ford's fall in the snow while skiing, Nessen told reporters it was "the most unconscionable misrepresentation of a President" he'd ever heard of.

HE WENT ON to say that President Ford was the "best coordinated President in history."

Now any press secretary worth his salt should know you don't get anywhere by complaining about the image the media is presenting of a President. What you do is turn an act of clumsiness into one of skill and dexterity.

I don't like to tell the White House press secretary how to run his business, but this would have been a much better way to handle the situation.

THE AFTERNOON briefing at Vail: Q — Ron, we have a report that the President fell while skiing today. What do you have on that?

A — Yes, the President fell as planned this afternoon in six inches of snow near a large Aspen tree.

Q — As planned, Ron? A — That's correct. Before he left Washington, the President made plans to fall just once so all the photographers would get the only picture they had made the trip for.

BUT DESPITE this it took great skill to fall exactly where the photographers were stationed. His Secret Servicemen were against it, but the President overruled them.

The President said, "If I don't fall down once while I'm skiing, everyone will think I'm not a nice guy."

Q — Ron, when the President left for his skiing trip from the White House lawn, he tripped over the leashes of his dogs. Was that planned also?

A — Well, I'll be frank with you. I asked the President to trip over the dogs' leashes because we were trying to give you fellows a story for the afternoon papers.

Q — RON, ARE you trying to tell us that every time the President stumbles, it is thought out in advance?

A — Let's say it's discussed beforehand. As you know, Mr. Ford is the most coordinated President we've ever had, so we don't want him to stumble too often.

Q — Whose idea was it for the President to fall down the steps getting off the plane in Salzburg last June.

A — Henry Kissinger's. He wanted to show President Sadat that we weren't putting pressure on him.

Q — SO YOU FEEL President Ford's fall at Salzburg turned President Sadat around?

A — Well, the Suez Canal is now open, isn't it?

Q — Wouldn't you say the President was deceiving the American people by stumbling when he doesn't have to?

A — On the contrary, I think it helps his credibility. The difference between Mr. Ford and former Presidents is that we've only found out how badly they stumbled after they left office.

A Devotion For Today

"My son, give me your heart, and let your eyes observe my ways." (Proverbs 23:26, RSV)

PRAYER: Dear Lord, Thou art our King, our love. We adore Thee. We want to bring Thee all we have. Take our life and let us be Thy children forever. In Thy name. Amen.

Texas Woman Will Be Named Ambassador To Great Britain

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anne Armstrong, former co-chairman of the Republican National Committee and presidential counselor, will be named U.S. ambassador to Great Britain, officials here say.

A White House announcement is expected soon after formal agreement is given by the British government. British officials in Washington said privately they would have no objection to her appointment.

State Department officials said they foresaw no problem in obtaining Senate confirmation.

U.S. officials privately confirmed reports of Mrs. Armstrong's appointment Monday. She would succeed Elliot L. Richardson as U.S. ambassador to the Court of St. James's in London. Richardson is leaving that post to become secretary of commerce.

If nominated and confirmed, Mrs. Armstrong, 48, would be the first American woman named ambassador to a major embassy since Claire Booth Luce served as U.S. ambassador to Rome from 1953 to 1957. In addition, she would be the first woman envoy named by a major country to London, officials said.

Mrs. Armstrong served as co-chairman of the Republican National Committee for two years from January 1971 and then held the $42,500-a-year post of presidential counselor for nearly two years under Presidents Richard M. Nixon and Gerald Ford. She resigned her White House post in December 1974.

In the White House, where Mrs. Armstrong was then the highest ranking woman in the government, her duties included political liaison in women's affairs and special projects concerning the Bicentennial. She also served as a member of the Cabinet-level Council of Wage and Price Stability from August 1974 to May 1975 and has held several executive positions in the private sector.

Mrs. Armstrong is the wife of a Texas millionaire-rancher and mother of five children. The family lives in Armstrong, Tex.

Retired Federal Workers Meet

Members of the Retired Federal Employees Association will meet Thursday 10 a.m. at the community room of the First Federal Savings Building.

A representative from the Social Security office will attend the meeting to explain the current Social Security rulings that may affect members of the association.

Newly elected officers will assume duties of office for the first time, and all members are urged to attend.

Spain Helps Culture Center

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Spain will help restore several missions and establish a trade and cultural center here as part of the American Bicentennial, says a Spanish assistant secretary of state.

Manuel Garcia-Miranda said Monday that his country would establish the trade center as well as the cultural project so that the program could operate permanently on a self-sustaining basis.

He said the contribution to the missions could be either financial or historic architectural restoration assistance.

The ambassador talked about the Spanish plans with city councilmen.

Junior Livestock Show Dates Set For Jan. 14-16

The 1976 Howard County Junior Steer and Lamb Show will be held Jan. 14-16 at the Howard County fair grounds.

The schedule follows:
Jan. 14 from 1 to 5 p.m., weighing and ear tagging.
Jan. 15 at 3 p.m., lamb show. At 7 p.m., steer show.
Jan. 16 at 7 p.m., annual premium sale.

The show is open to members of the Howard County 4-H Clubs and FFA Chapters in Howard County. This year, 49 exhibitors will show approximately 60 steers and 100 exhibitors will show about 135 lambs.

The show is sponsored each year by the Howard County Junior Livestock Show Association.

Officers this year are Aubrey Langford, president; Gene Perry, vice president; and M. A. Snell, secretary-treasurer.

This group also sponsors the annual premium sale.

Local businessmen and individuals participate in this portion of the show.

Superintendent of the lamb show is Raymond Phillips.

The steer superintendent is Aubrey Langford. Mike McCravy, Tarrant County extension agent, will judge. Official weigher will be Jack Elrod, district conservationist. Soil Conservation Service, Big Spring.

Ed Foreman Pecos Speaker

Announcements went out this week to all governmental groups in the Permian Basin Regional Planning Commission of the semi-annual general membership meeting at the Pecos Country Club Jan. 21.

Speaker for the event will be Ed Foreman, regional representative of the U.S. Department of Transportation and chairman of the Southwest Federal Regional Council. Subject of the talk is "Looking Toward the Brighter Side."

New officers will be elected at the event. Judge Marcus Crow of Gaines County is current chairman. Harold Hall of Big Spring, one of two West Texas city councilmen serving on the board, is currently secretary.

Charge for the event is $4 and all governmental officials in member groups are eligible to attend.

Bad Burger Causes Sick Coloradans

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Raw hamburger from a Texas meat processing plant has been pinpointed as the source of an outbreak of the intestinal ailment salmonellosis in Colorado and Maryland last year.

Twenty-six persons came down with salmonellosis in Colorado last September and nine were afflicted with it in Maryland during August and September, the Center for Disease Control said.

All recovered from the bacterial infection, which is seldom fatal but sometimes requires hospitalization.

The CDC report said the incriminated ground beef was traced to a grocery chain, and then to a single meat processing plant in Dallas.

A spokesman for the CDC said an outbreak of salmonella newport at an Arkansas nursing home last August could not be proved related to the Dallas ground beef.

'So Sorry,' Bandit Says

HOUSTON (AP) — Theater manager Anthony Pusateri says a bandit apologized to him after robbing him of an estimated $7,000.

Police said Pusateri, 33, was found bound in the office of the Alabama Theatre early Monday.

Pusateri said he was alone in his office when a ski-masked man appeared, forced him at gunpoint to open the office safe. He said the man bound him and cut the telephone cord and then took the box office receipts from the safe.

"I'm very sorry to have to do this, but my family has to eat, too, and I don't have an education," Pusateri quoted the bandit as saying. He even said "good night" as he left with the money, Pusateri said.

CAUTION

Your savings may be costing you money.

Your savings are earning interest, right? But are they earning as much as they could be? If not, your savings are actually costing you money.

The truth of the matter is that many financial institutions, including banks and credit unions, are simply not structured to pay the highest interest rates. In fact, some can't even guarantee payment of the interest rates they quote.

And other kinds of investments have even higher degrees of risk. For example, mutual funds and other stock investments don't even guarantee return of the money you put in, much less earnings.

If you want to make the most of what you've got, and you want guaranteed interest rates, you've got to go to a savings specialist. Like First Federal Savings and Loan.

We call ourselves savings specialists because we can offer you higher guaranteed interest rates, more specialized savings-related services, and more ways to save than anyone in town.

And if none of our standard plans fit your particular needs, we'll custom tailor a savings plan specifically for you, whereby you can receive your interest checks any way you want. Monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually.

The following are just a few of the many special services and savings plans available to you from First Federal:

PASSBOOK SAVINGS Our Passbook Savings account is basically the same as a regular savings account offered by a bank — only our interest rates are higher. Passbook Savings earn a full 5 1/4% interest compounded daily, and paid daily. For example, if you make a deposit and withdraw it three days later, you'll be paid interest for the three days your money was on deposit.

Anyone can open a Passbook Savings account with only a $5.00 deposit. There are no term restrictions. You can make deposits and withdrawals whenever you want. And with our new convenient, easy-to-use Tele-Transfer service, you can transfer money from your Passbook account to your checking account with just a phone call.

CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT First Federal offers you four Certificate of Deposit savings plans to choose from.

- 4-year plan (min. $5,000) earns 7 1/2% interest
- 2 1/2-year plan (min. $1,000) earns 6 3/4% interest
- 1-year plan (min. $1,000) earns 6 1/2% interest
- 6 month plan (min. $1,000) earns 5 3/4% interest (Above rates apply to new Certificates only)

Interest on all of our Certificate of Deposit savings plans is compounded daily and distributed quarterly.

SELF-EMPLOYED PENSION PLAN (KEOGH) This plan is designed for the individual who wants to establish a retirement plan for both himself and his employees. All contributions are TAX DEDUCTIBLE. You don't have to pay any income tax on either the contributions or interest until you begin drawing funds.

INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNT (IRA) This plan is designed for employed individuals, not currently participating in a retirement plan. Self-employed persons are eligible, but are not required to include employees in this plan.

All contributions are TAX DEDUCTIBLE. You don't have to pay any income tax on the money you contribute to the plan or the interest it earns until you start drawing funds.

AUTOMATIC DEPOSIT OF SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS This service allows you to deposit your Social Security check in your savings account without lifting a finger. The check is sent directly from the U.S. Department of Treasury to First Federal.

And deposit is guaranteed. You never have to worry about losing it. What's more, our new Tele-Transfer allows you to transfer as much of it as you want to your checking account. All it takes is one phone call.

INTEREST COMPOUNDED DAILY Interest on all First Federal Savings Plans is compounded daily. That means that if you leave your Passbook savings on deposit a full year, or your Certificates of Deposit in until they mature, your money actually earns more interest than quoted as our standard rates.

Here's how it works. When you make a deposit, your money (principal) starts earning paid interest the first day. Then each day following, the interest on your principal is compounded along with the interest accumulated from the preceding day or days. So if you have a Passbook account which earns 5.25% daily, and you leave your principal on deposit for a full year, you have actually earned 5.39% interest at the end of the year.

The following chart shows how much interest (percentage-wise) your savings actually earns annually when the principal is left on deposit until maturity, and the interest is compounded daily.

STANDARD INTEREST RATE	TYPE OF SAVINGS PLAN	ACTUAL PERCENTAGE OF INTEREST PAID ANNUALLY
7.50%	4-year Certificate of Deposit	7.79%
6.75%	2 1/2-year Certificate of Deposit	6.98%
6.50%	1-year Certificate of Deposit	6.72%
5.75%	6-month Certificate of Deposit	5.92%
5.25%	Passbook account	5.39%

All things considered, it just makes better sense to save the First Federal way.

For more information about any of the services or savings plans outlined above, drop by First Federal today. Or call Mrs. Margie Hill or any of our other savings counselors at 267-8252.

California Fines AMC $4.2 Million

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's Air Resources Board, in the strongest action ever taken by the state against a car manufacturer, has fined American Motors Corp. $4.2 million for allegedly submitting false air pollution test results.

The board on Monday ordered sales in California halted as of midnight today of all AMC Matadors, Hornets and Gremlins equipped with 304-cubic-inch V-8 engines.

ARB Chairman Tom Quinn said the board also had launched an investigation into the AMC's six-cylinder engines to see if test reports for these engines had been falsified.

An AMC spokesman said in Detroit that the violations were inadvertent, the fine was "unreasonable" and that the firm has cooperated fully with the ARB from the beginning.

"We have never seen so many dirty cars," Quinn said. "But even more serious is the fact that American Motors submitted false reports to the state which indicated that their cars were actually very clean."

Quinn said California law requires auto makers to submit air pollution reports on 2 per cent of all autos produced for sale in California.

Peter Guptill, zone manager for AMC's Los Angeles area, said the test results in question involved 1,200 cars in about 100 dealerships throughout the state. He said AMC is working on a solution.

"We feel we have the fix well in hand," he said. "We have a car being tested in Detroit. It shouldn't take too long. I'm told we'll be back to normal by Feb. 1."

Chrysler Corp. was fined $328,200 last year by the ARB, which also halted Chrysler sales temporarily.

MEETING THE PEOPLE — Ronald Reagan chats with John McDonald on ski slopes at North Conway Tuesday as the presidential candidate continued his tour of New Hampshire.

'POSSUM PROBLEM

An upset female called police to notify them a vehicle was headed north on Scurry Monday night at 10:10 p.m. and that somebody was holding an animal by the tail and letting its head hit the pavement.

Police stopped the vehicle and discovered the group had a dead 'possum and were taking it to a friend. The subjects were advised to either put the dead 'possum in a sack or in the trunk of the car and quit hanging it out the window.

Reagan Stumps In New Hampshire

NORTH CONWAY, N.H. (AP) — Ronald Reagan pushed his bus tour through the White Mountains of New Hampshire today in the second day of his intensive campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Reagan started his round of morning appearances with temperatures between 9 and 17 degrees below zero. He sipped coffee and ate donuts at a ski lodge at Mt. Cranmore and then watched a group of local ski instructors in a brief demonstration.

"I'm having a great time. If I could only adjust the air conditioning, everything would be all right," he quipped.

He had scheduled a full day of campaigning to take him to almost a dozen stops during the day.

Reagan arrived Monday in New Hampshire, the state with the nation's first primary, and then traveled by motorcade about 75 miles into the White Mountains.

The former California governor and movie star, who hopes to mount a stiff challenge against President Ford in the New Hampshire voting Feb. 24, ended Monday with a two-hour question-and-answer session in a crowded high school auditorium before an audience estimated at about 650 persons.

During the session, Reagan defended his controversial proposal to transfer a variety of social programs from federal to state responsibility. He said the plan could cut the federal budget by as much as $90 billion.

The proposal, Reagan told the New Hampshire voters, has been misinterpreted and is not "a budgetary proposal, but one for transfer of control" of the programs from the federal government to state governments.

Hours before Reagan flew into Manchester, the state's largest city, leaders of the state House and Senate — supporters of President Ford — criticized the Reagan plan. They said they want to know how the proposal would affect state taxes.

New Hampshire is the only state in the nation with neither an income nor general sales tax.

"I have no intention with anything I've proposed that New Hampshire will have to have either a sales or an income tax," Reagan told several hundred persons, who gathered in spite of zero temperatures to meet him at the Lions Club in Moultonboro, 33 miles south of North Conway.

But when asked about the plan later by reporters, Reagan did not say how he expects the states to pay for the transferred welfare and social service programs.

Hugh Gregg, Reagan's New Hampshire campaign manager, told reporters that the Reagan grassroots organization is going well.

MASS MURDER TRIAL

Judge Agrees To Admit Reporters

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP) — A state judge, reversing his own earlier ruling, has agreed to admit reporters and the public to jury selection in the trial of a man accused of killing six members of a Sutherland, Neb., family.

But the decision Monday by Lincoln County District Court Judge Hugh Stuart had no effect on an even earlier order barring the reporting of certain aspects of the case.

Stuart, in closing jury selection proceedings Monday, contended that a trial begins when a jury is impaneled. Under a Nebraska Supreme Court ruling in the case, he said, he can close all pretrial proceedings.

Media representatives objected, arguing jury selection is part of the trial. After conferring in private with an attorney for a coalition of Nebraska news organizations, Stuart reversed the ruling.

Alan Peterson, the attorney representing the news media covering the trial of Erwin Charles Simants, said the judge indicated he would speak individually today with each reporter involved, directing each to restrain voluntarily from reporting certain information which might be disclosed in the jury selection process.

Simants, 30, of Sutherland, is charged with six counts of first degree murder an sexual assault or attempted sexual assault in the Oct. 18 shooting deaths of six members of the Henry Kellie family.

Simants' attorneys notified prosecutors Monday that the defendant will rely upon the defense of insanity or mental derangement as one of the defenses.

After the judge's order barring reporters from jury selection, Peterson told the court, "I know of no precedent whatsoever throughout the United States where the selection of a jury portion of a trial has been closed to the public."

Calls That Turn Officers Gray

Police received calls about two suspicious persons here Monday.

One of them was reported to be shining a spotlight in the alley. It turned out to be the driver of a Pioneer Gas Co. vehicle looking for a house.

The second was a male flagging down cars near the skating rink. The man had a flat tire.

Mr. De La Rosa was preceded in death by one brother, Ventura De La Rosa, and one sister, Bernarda Fuentes.

Jay Tunnell

William (Jay) Tunnell, 50, died Monday afternoon in Midland from injuries sustained in an auto accident there. Services will be held 2 p.m. Wednesday at the First Baptist Church of Midland. Burial will be at Mount Olive Memorial Park under the direction of Ellis Funeral Home of Midland.

Mr. Tunnell was born Oct. 30, 1925 in Ajo, Ariz. He moved to Johnson City at an early age and then later to Stanton. He served with the United States Navy during WWII and the Korean War.

He went to work with the U. S. Postal Service in Midland in 1950, and married Lottie Margaret Atkinson Aug. 20, 1955 in Lubbock. He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include the wife; two sons, George G. Tunnell, Midland, Mike Moore, Arlington; a daughter, Sherry Goodwin, Springfield, Mo.; a brother, Sterling Tunnell, Lenora; two sisters, Mrs. Joe Myers, Knott, and Mrs. Jim Miller, Stanton.

Mrs. Madison

Mrs. Carl (Jewell) Madison, 67, died in Farmers Branch Monday. Services will be held 3:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel with the Rev. Eldon Cook, Baptist minister, officiating. Burial will be at Mount Olive Memorial Park.

Mrs. Madison was born Jewell Teresa Gordon Dec. 2, 1908 in Granbury. She married Carl Madison June 12, 1926 in Big Spring. Mr. Madison preceded her in death May 3, 1970. Mrs. Madison was a long-time resident of Big Spring and was a member of the Airport Baptist Church.

Survivors include two sons, Gordon Madison, Odessa, Dick Madison, Plano; a daughter, Mrs. Carla Carroll, Plano; a brother, Bill Gordon, Granbury; three sisters, Mrs. Louise Young, Vinita, Okla., Mrs. Frantz Hicks, Livermore, Calif., Mrs. Bobbie Satterwhite, Big Spring and six grandchildren.

Pallbearers are Ross Abernathy, Ike Robb, Tommy Jordan, Paul L. Shaffer, W. B. Berry, and J. C. Pickle.

The family of Mrs. Madison will be staying at 801 Highland.

Spring Clean-Up Date Discussed

City officials and garden club officials were conferring this morning on a possible date for a spring clean-up in Big Spring.

Mrs. Edna Womack, active in local garden clubs and Mrs. Polly Mays, mayor pro tem, were discussing plans for the project with City Manager Harry Nagel and Jerry Foreysyth, parks superintendent.

Release Two Prisoners

The Howard County Sheriff's Office released two prisoners to law enforcement officers from other cities Monday.

Darrell William Daughy, 48, Midland, is charged with the felony of theft by check in Sierra Blanca.

Freeman R. Srader, 63, Kermit, was charged with second-offense driving while intoxicated in Brownwood.

They were both arrested by the Texas Highway Patrol at separate locations on IS-20 Jan. 2 for other alleged offenses.

4th and Gregg: one vehicle accident, Lonnie Carl Nichols, Box 1801, 4:46 p.m. Tuesday.

THEFTS

A CB radio was taken from a vehicle parked near the county barn in the 1000 block of N. San Antonio. Reported at 4:26 p.m. Monday.

James Werrell, 2107 Main, reported four hubcaps removed from his vehicle at that address.

Billy Johnson, 607 Avondale, reported a CB radio taken from his vehicle while parked at Goliad Junior High.

Alvin Collins, 1728 Purdue, reported a cassette tape player taken from a vehicle while parked at 2nd and Nolan.

A PIECE OF THE ROCK — Three-year-old J. P. Shanks looks menacing while his great grandmother, Mrs. E. H. Sanders calms their trained guard rock with a scratch behind the impregnated quartz crystals (its favorite place). A friendly neighbor recently tied the stony guardian to a tree in Mrs. Sanders' yard while she was on vacation. The registered rock has a distinguished lineage. Its mother was a mountain in Colorado and its father, who left home when "Rock" was a mere pebble, is now part of Interstate 20.

Seize Wanted Man In Odessa

A man wanted in Big Spring for felony theft of $940 from his former employer was arrested in Odessa this week.

The alleged theft occurred in August. City Detective Leroy Spices was to bring the man back to Big Spring this morning.

Big Spring To Lure Debaters

Beauceants, Knights Templar Install Officers For 1976

Mrs. Alden Ryan and George C. Glenn will head the Big Spring Assembly No. 211, Social Order of the Beauceant and the Big Spring Commandry No. 31, Knights Templar for the 1976 year.

Mrs. Ryan, Glenn and other officers were installed during the Monday evening dinner and joint open installation ceremony held at the Masonic Temple.

Wright Vickers gave the invocation before the dinner. Mrs. Albert Davis, outgoing president of the Beauceants, and Mrs. Wayne Parish were dinner chairmen.

Mrs. Davis gave the call to order for the Beauceants. O. L. Nabors, Bob Lee and Alfred Tidwell were the color guards.

Installing officers for the Beauceants were Mrs. Harry Middleton, Mrs. Jack Alexander, Mrs. Wayne Parish, Mrs. T. E. Helton, Mrs. Porter Hanks, all of Big Spring Assembly No. 211; Mrs. Hal Burnett, Alpine Assembly No. 186; Mrs. Sam E. Hilburn, Midland Assembly No. 143; and Mrs. A. G. Coots, Dalhart Assembly No. 203.

Officers installed for the Social Order of the Beauceant were Mrs. Alden Ryan, president; Mrs. Albert Davis, orator; Mrs. C. T. Clay, first vice president; Mrs. George Glenn, second vice president; Mrs. M. A. Parsons, preceptress; Mrs. Lee Porter, recorder; Mrs. Ralph La Londe, treasurer; Mrs. Steve Baker, marshal; Mrs. Eugene Gross, assistant marshal; and Mrs.

MRS. ALDEN RYAN

GEORGE C. GLENN

W. C. Fryer, chaplain.

Other officers installed were Mrs. L. R. Mundt, Mrs. D. D. Dyer, Mrs. Willard Sullivan, Mrs. O. L. Nabors, Mrs. R. L. Lee, Mrs. Wright Vickers and Mrs. Ervin Daniel.

Following the president's address by Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Richard Mitchell, vocalist, presented special music.

Presentation of the president's pin to Mrs. Ryan was by Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Sullivan presented the past president's pin to Mrs. Davis.

The call to order for the Commandry No. 31, Knights Templar was by Richard E. Mitchell.

Installing officers were Hal Burnett, past grand commander of Texas and past grand master of Masons of Texas; Arthur G. Coots, past grand commander of Texas and the past dept. commander of the South Central Department of Grand Encampment of the United States of America; and Sam Hilburn, deputy grand commander.

The 1976 Commandry officers installed were George C. Glenn, eminent commander; M. A. (Tony) Parsons, generalissimo; S. D. Faulkenberry, captain general; Willard L. Wise, senior warden; John J. Jones, junior warden; Wright Vickers, prelate; C. R. McClenny, treasurer; Willard Sullivan, recorder.

Other officers installed were Roger Foster; Denver Pettitt, R. L. (Bob) Lee, O. H. Daily, L. R. Mundt, Wayne Parish, and Oscar Nabors.

Following Glenn's address, Sam Hilburn gave the benediction.

A reception followed the installation ceremony. Mrs. W. C. Fryer was in charge of the reception.

Readers Give Opinion Of Abby's Advice

DEAR ABBY: I liked your answer to the indignant young wife whose husband agreed with his mother that out of respect to her, she should sit in the front seat of the car and his wife should sit in the back.

(You said, "When push comes to shove, you should defer to your mother-in-law, not because your husband wants you to, but because she is your elder.")

I am a mother-in-law, and I always sit in front with my son because my daughter-in-law insists upon it! She says that I see little enough of him since his marriage, and she wants to share him with me as much as possible.

I can't tell you how much I appreciate her thoughtfulness. I am grateful that we have such a warm and loving relationship. Much of it is due to her unselfish and understanding nature.

Respect? No! All it takes is two women who really love the same man.

SITTING IN FRONT IN L.A.

DEAR SITTING: Thanks. I needed that. My mail has been running 50 to one against my advice to let the mother-in-law sit in front beside her son. Read on for a few typical letters lambasting me:

DEAR ABBY: The controversy about whether a man's mother or his wife should sit beside him while he's driving the car brings to mind this true story:

A notoriously possessive mother always insisted on sitting in front with her son, so his wife had to sit in the back.

On one of these rides, the car in which the three of them were riding was struck from the right by another car, and the mother-in-law was killed instantly. The husband and wife miraculously survived with only minor injuries.

Had the mother-in-law been in the back where she belonged, she'd have been alive, and her daughter-in-law would have been killed instead.

Care to comment?

WITHHOLD MY NAME

DEAR WITHHOLD: When it comes time to enter the Kingdom of Heaven, I think people are where they "belong."

DEAR ABBY: You certainly blew it with your advice to MISERABLE IN THE BACK.

When a man marries, his mother automatically takes a back seat to his wife, both figuratively and literally—unless she is either aged or crippled. In this case, the mother-in-law was only 47, and I assume she was able-bodied.

You say that the daughter-in-law should defer to her mother-in-law out of "respect" for her elders. In the first place, a 47-year-old woman is not "elderly." And in the second place, respect must be earned; it doesn't come with age. Living long does not qualify a person to be respected.

If I were that daughter-in-law, I would be suspicious of my husband's priorities and investigate them where they count. He sounds like the kind of husband who would make his mother the beneficiary of his life insurance policy.

I was married to such a man and didn't realize it until it was too late.

Girl Scout Troops Need Assistance

Girl Scout activities in the area will soon resume. But several changes over the new year have adversely affected the status of several Girl Scout troops.

Two area troops which formed in the fall are now without leaders or assistants. Many troops lack assistants of any kind.

These troops need volunteer leaders and assistants who will be willing to spend one afternoon or evening a week meeting with the girls and who will coordinate projects and activities for the troop.

Meeting places other than the leader's home can be found. Dates and times of meetings can be changed if necessary.

Plans for the Girl Scout Day Camp held during the summer are being made. A volunteer day camp director and unit leaders are needed to staff the camp. The day camp is held in early summer and is planned for one week. Girl Scouts meet in a central location in the city for activities and workshops during the morning and afternoon.

Please contact Miss Sandy Sibilsky at the Girl Scout office at 263-1364 or stop by 2005 Gregg and offer your assistance. Any help will be appreciated by the girls who are without leaders or who plan to participate in the Day Camp.

Friday Bridge Winners Announced

Young Should Learn To Manage Money

COLLEGE STATION — Even though today's young adults start out with more education in financial matters than previous generations, they can still go overboard when spending money, Mrs. Lillian Chenoweth, family resource management specialist, reminded this week.

"First requirements for trying to avoid debts is a realistic view of actual income available. The lifestyle of young adults should be based on net income, not on how much can be charged," the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, said.

Just existing from paycheck to paycheck with no plan usually results in ending up short of cash with debts piled up, she said.

"One problem the young adult frequently faces is that of buying a home. Adding to this problem is his desire to fill the new home with new furniture, new appliances and an endless list of wants — causing an equally long list of bills to pay."

Mrs. Chenoweth pointed out that unrealistic standards in relation to income is a treacherous trap for young adults.

"Some people feel they should immediately have the standard of living that their parents worked many years to achieve," she noted.

Parent-child interaction is affected by the knowledge, expectations, attitudes and behaviors of the parents, Roberta Dix, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, points out.

Steers Test Best Tonight

BY TROY BRYANT
ABILENE — James Griffin's Big Spring Steers will be looking for a big upset tonight as they open District 5-AAAA cage warfare against the district's top-rated team, the Abilene High Eagles.

The Eagles, 16-2 in non-conference play, lost to the underdog Steers in the opening contest last year and will be playing without the services of a key regular, 6-5½ Andre Hickman. Hickman was lost for at least a month with torn ankle ligaments, but the Eagles are 2-0 without him.

Big Spring, 10-8, is fresh from two straight wins, 46-39 over Lamesa and 67-65 over Snyder.

Abilene Cooper, 9-10, travels to San Angelo, 10-6; Odessa Permian, 15-4, is at Midland, 11-9; and Midland Lee, 11-6, is at Odessa, 4-15.

Abilene has its eyes on the District 5-AAAA title after receiving all 12 first place votes cast in the pre-season poll, before Hickman was injured.

However, the Eagles have plenty of fire-power to make up for his loss. Darrell Baxter, 6-8 senior will give the team inside strength and backcourt ace Mike Little and Eddie Forkerway, described as two of the best in the district will be expected to provide leadership and strong defense.

The Steers will not be without its aces, though, as 6-4 James Zapp, 6-0 Robert Aldridge, and 6-2 Jimmy Ray will be testing the favored Eagle team.

In district play, the teams will play each other once before declaring a first half champion. Then the second half champion will be determined the same way.

If the two champions are different, a one-game elimination will be held to place a team in the playoffs.

Six of the eight teams in District 5-AAAA finished non-conference battles with winning records, topped by Abilene, Odessa Permian, and defending champion Midland Lee.

Rollerball On Ice, What's It All About Alfie?

By FRED BREWER

Swirling powdered snow swept across the glacier-like astro-carpet covering Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh, mocking man's puny attempts to keep it unfrozen.

"If you want to protect this 50x120 yard piece of land, build a dome and pump in millions of BTU's," Winter said. "But I spit on your heater blowers and your meager tarp."

Winter's spit is a chill factor of 12 to 20 below zero.

You watch this masquerade for a football setting feeling sorry for the two teams that won't get a fair chance to prove which is best. But you also watch knowing it's going to be one of those monumental battles you never forget.

Of the thousands of football games watched in person and on TV the one that comes to mind the clearest is the last "Ice Bowl" Dec. 1, 1967. The Green Bay Packers out-skated the Dallas Cowboys 21-17.

Many fans and players will never forget that game, because they sacrificed parts of their bodies to it and frostbite.

Oakland Raiders were the Steelers opponents in last Sunday's "Ice Bowl", and Dandy Don Meredith was up in the warm broadcasting booth emitting color. Their fortunes were a little reversed in '67.

The Raiders had already clinched their way to Super Bowl II with an easy, warm win over the Houston Oilers 40-7. Meredith led the vigilant Cowboys to their heart-breaking defeat to the Packers.

The ability of backs to hold the ball in the grueling cold during the first half Sunday amazed everyone. And the quarterbacks added to the awe with their accurate passes. But arms and legs became brittle and fingers icicles in the biting cold. Bobbles and injuries became every play occurrences in the second half.

When the trainers led the dazed Steelers' quarterback off the field near the end of the game to repeated cheers of "Bradshaw, Bradshaw" cracking though the chilled stands, it was reminiscent of the final scene of "Rollerball" when the crowd chanted, over and over, "Johnathan, Johnathan, Reminiscent in more ways than one."

For whatever it's worth, Cowboy fans, the last time the winners of the "Ice Bowl" easily beat the warm weather winners in the Super Bowl.

While driving from his deer blind inside Lyda Ranch at Bucanan Lake, where he had struck-out, but still on the ranch, Big Springer Otis Grafa spotted a deer half-hidden behind a bush. Grafa's son Otis Jr., his grandson Mike and Mike's son-in-law all witnessed what happened next.

Grafa got out of his vehicle, leveled his sights on the deer's shoulder and fired.

"Darn, missed," he reported to the others as he watched the deer leap away.

"No, you hit him, he fell," his son, looking through binoculars, said. When they reached the scene — sure enough there was a deer, hit on the rump.

"But I aimed for the shoulder, and I know I saw a deer jump," said Grafa amazed at their finding.

Mike found a trail of blood and they followed it to another dead deer. Grafa had shot two deer with one shot. Doesn't everyone in Texas?

College Cagers: Host AB Club Tourney Is Hoosiers End In Sight?

By The Associated Press

Is the end in sight for unbeaten, top-ranked Indiana? The Hoosiers went all the way to the finals of the NCAA Midwest Regionals before losing last season but at least one knowledgeable observer, Northwestern Coach Tex Winter, thinks they may have problems before long... like this weekend.

"Indiana's going to have a lot of trouble against a quick opponent like Michigan, especially in front of their crowd in Ann Arbor," Winter said Monday night.

Indiana visits Michigan on Saturday, Monday night, though, the Hoosiers had only 12 minutes of trouble from Winter's Wildcats. Then they broke away from a 20-17 squeaker, built their lead to 40-27 at the intermission, outscored Northwestern 14-2 in the first six minutes of the second half and coasted to their 11th consecutive triumph 78-61.

Meanwhile, 19th-ranked Michigan tuned up for the Hoosiers' impending visit by trouncing No. 17 Minnesota 95-72. The only other members of The Associated Press Top Twenty to see action were sixth-ranked North Carolina and No. 10 Alabama. UNC flattened Yale 81-42 while "Bama whipped Kentucky 76-63.

Tom Abernethy paced Indiana's surge late in the first half and finished with 16 points, six behind teammate Kent Benson. Meanwhile, the Hoosiers' tenacious defense held Northwestern's 21.5-point scorer Billy McKinney to 14, only one of them in the second half.

Junior college transfer Rickey Green paced Michigan's triumph over Minnesota with 32 points, spoiling the return to Ann Arbor of Minnesota Coach Jim Dutcher, a former Michigan assistant.

North Carolina, smarting over a drop from third to sixth in the ratings, reeled off 18 consecutive points for a 43-15 bulge while holding Yale scoreless for almost 7½ minutes late in the first half. The Elis then managed only one field goal in the first nine minutes of the second half and fell behind 65-24.

High-Scoring Hawks Host AB Club Tourney

Three big nights of basketball will begin in Hawk gym Thursday evening when four top two-year college teams tangle in round-robin play.

The occasion is the annual AB Club Basketball Olympics which this year pits Howard College, College of Ganada (Ariz.), Panola, and Cisco Junior Colleges against each other.

American Business Club members have tickets for the three nights ($5 for six games), or tickets can be purchased at the gate.

The opening round begins with Howard College playing Ganada at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, followed by the nightcap at 9:15 p.m. between Panola and Cisco, two red-hot teams.

The Friday schedule has College of Ganada opening against Panola at 7 p.m., and then Cisco against Howard College at 9:15 p.m.

The finale will come Saturday with Cisco meeting Ganada in the 7 p.m. opener and Howard College battling with Panola at 9:15 p.m.

Since this is an extracampus affair, student activity cards are not valid for admission. Everyone attending must have a ticket for the tourney on a particular night.

Steelers Ache But In Fine Shape

PITTSBURGH (AP) — It was a day for licking wounds and looking at films. But for a day off, Pittsburgh Steelers coaches and players were pretty busy.

After taking the American Football Conference title from Oakland in one of the hardest hitting games all season, the Steelers were soaking in steamy whirlpool baths and letting trainer Ralph Berlin survey their injuries.

Assessment: remarkably healthy, with the exception of wide receiver Lynn Swann, who remains hospitalized with a head injury. Swann was reported in satisfactory condition Monday, although he was to remain in Divine Providence Hospital for further tests.

Quarterback Terry Bradshaw was pronounced "fine" and suffering from only a mild concussion. X rays on other players proved negative.

While the players recovered, the coaches viewed films of the Steeler's 16-10 victory and found the players as impressive on celluloid as they were on artificial turf.

"The guys played fantastic football," beamed head Coach Chuck Noll, mentioning with pride safety Mike Wagner, who intercepted two passes, and middle linebacker Jack Lambert, who recovered three fumbles.

But he also had praise for defenders Ernie Holmes and Dwight White.

"Everybody knew they were going to run right," said Noll of the side of the field Holmes and White held down against a left-handed Raider attack.

"They were really coming off the ball," Noll added. "And they put a lot of pressure on him (Stabler). They hit him a lot as he was releasing the ball." Noll said after viewing the films.

Noll conceded that the cold was a factor in the title game.

"Cold as hell," Noll remembered from the warmth of his Three Rivers Stadium office. "You couldn't do the things you do normally. You couldn't play perfect football. But it was a true test. It brings out character. Nobody wants fumbles, but you have to overcome them."

Noll gave the Steelers three days off before practice for Super Bowl X Jan. 18 against the Dallas

Tennis Gamblers Win $25,000

DALLAS (AP) — Dick Stockton and Rosie Casals should take their $25,000 World Mixed Double tennis championship winnings to Las Vegas because of the successful way they gambled.

Playing aggressive, wide-open tennis, the Casals-Stockton team routed Britain's Mark Cox and Virginia Wade 6-3, 6-4, 6-4 in the best-of-five sets Monday night in a brief 95-minute match.

"Dick takes lots of changes and is very aggressive. It pays off more times than it should," said Ms. Casals. "After a while I get caught up playing the same way. Dick just intimidates the opposition. The Casals-Stockton combination didn't lose a set in the four-day tournament."

They broke Cox's serve four times in the championship match and coasted to a lopsided victory before 5,171 fans in Moody Coliseum.

The Britons collected $15,000 consolation money.

Cox said, "Dick is just like an octopus around the net—he is so tremendously confident."

SPORTS, SCORES AND STANDINGS

Andrews Nip Toros 83-82

Andrews lost another squeaker, this time to Andrews 83-82. McCain hit for 27-points to lead the victors.

Byron Harris had 24-points and 7 rebounds for the Toros. Mark Posa had 23 and 8; Billy Johnson, 15 and 3; Willie Myles, 12 and 10; Johnny Williams, 6 and 0 and David McKenzie, 2 and 5.

Williams led the Toros full-court press that almost enabled his team to pull out the victory.

The Toros next game versus the Forsan JV's is here Jan. 15th at 7:00.

Bulldogettes Host Anson

COAHOMA — The Coahoma Bulldogettes, fresh from winning their own Christmas Tournament, will face a crucial District 6-AA test tonight as they host the Anson Tiger girls team.

Both teams are on top of the District ledger with 4-0 records. Game time is 6:15, to be followed by the Varsity boys game, pitting Coahoma and Anson, beginning at 8 p.m.

Brahma Press Flattens Lamar

Snyder Lamar jumped out to a 9-2 lead over Big Spring's Brahmas and threatened to run them off the court. But the Brahmas' full-court press and their aggressive rebounding finally became too much for Lamar to contend with in the second quarter. The winners pulled away, scoring 21 points that frame to 10 for Lamar.

Ysa Rubio, team quarterback, kept the pressure on his opponents on defense and was high man with 21 points

Your DAILY HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Make long-range plans and consult those whom you respect to get assistance in building a better set of circumstances in which to operate in the days ahead.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Finish whatever private tasks you have been working on in the morning. Evening is fine to engage in hobby.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Plan how to gain the support of a good friend who understands your present position. Know what you want to accomplish.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Attend to outside business matters in the morning so that later you can be with good friends to discuss a new plan.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You are able to obtain information you need for new activities that will give you more abundance in the future.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Morning is best for making collections and paying bills, and then you can express yourself better in new activities.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Confer with associates early in the day and then attend to routine tasks. Establish more harmony with loved one.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Attend to duties early so that later you can make better arrangement with associates. Be careful of outsiders.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make plans early for the recreation you desire later and then delve right into the tasks at hand. Be logical.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Any improvements to home conditions should be handled early. Stick to fundamentals and be more successful.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Talk over problematical affairs with associates. Later take steps to improve your surroundings. Relax tonight.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Be sure to keep any promises made to others. Go to the right sources for the data you need. Take health treatments.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Spend time in the morning to improve your appearance. Decide what you want to do and then obtain advice from experts.

Activist Minister Steps Down

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — The Rev. William Sloane Coffin Jr. has stepped down as chaplain at Yale University, ending 17 years in a job that carried him to jail and North Vietnam. But he says he's not finished with his activist ministry.

Shortly before retiring on New Year's Day to complete a book, he predicted that if the U.S. government does not get off an increasingly "Fascist" course, then "a few of us will go to jail again."

The Rev. Wm. Coffin, 50, who resigned from a CIA job in the mid-1950s to renew a religious involvement that had earlier led him to the Yale Divinity School, became chaplain at Phillips Academy and then Williams College. Both terms were brief and controversial.

Then he carried his activist ministry to Yale. His support of civil rights causes led him to jail, once in a "Freedom March" to Atlanta in 1961 and then in Maryland in 1963. Five years later he and four other men were charged with aiding resisters of the Vietnam war effort, but his subsequent conviction was overturned on appeals.

He was at the center of the massive May Day 1970 demonstration in New Haven and was credited along with others for its relatively peaceful conclusion. A visitor to Hanoi in 1972 to view war damage, he recently turned his efforts to the world-wide war on hunger.

The Rev. Wm. Coffin, an ordained Presbyterian minister, has denied most interview requests since announcing his retirement plans early last year. He will remain in relative seclusion with his wife in San Francisco.

PREACHER SETS NEW RECORD

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (AP) — The Rev. Robert Marshall is in the running for the title of most talkative minister on record.

The Rev. Mr. Marshall, 55, completed a 60-hour, 31-minute sermon at 12:33 p.m. Saturday, topping the record for the longest sermon in the Guinness Book of World Records. The previous record, set almost 20 years ago by Clinton Locy of West Richmond, Wash., was 48 hours, 18 minutes.

"I can tell you that after 50 hours it got a lot tougher," the minister said Sunday.

DEFENSE DEPARTMENT FIRE — Arlington County firemen inspect damage to a second-floor cafeteria at the Pentagon Monday night after a three-alarm blaze was brought under control. No estimate of damage was given from the fire.

Says Plans Government Probes Would Cost Pentagon Blaze $14 Billion

HOUSTON (AP) — W.T. Slick Jr., an Exxon Co. USA senior vice president, said today congressional proposals to break up major oil companies could cost consumers an additional $14 billion a year.

"Like all short-sighted legislation, oil industry dismemberment would harm the very individual it proposes to protect, the consumer," Slick said.

Slick discussed the divestiture proposals while speaking before the Houston Chapter of the American Petroleum Institute.

Several such proposals now are before Congress. Some would split oil companies into separately owned and managed functional companies for production, refining, transportation, and marketing. Others would prohibit oil company involvement in other energy activities such as coal and uranium.

Slick said three proposals were only narrowly defeated in the Senate in October. "Just five to eight swing votes would have won Senate approval of these measures," he said.

"It is alarming that 45 members of the U.S. Senate voted in favor of a proposal that would not just dismember oil companies but would have drastically undermined the private enterprise system in this country."

Advocates of such legislation, Slick said, erroneously claim breaking up the oil companies would increase competition in the energy industry, reduce prices, and encourage the development of all types of energy supply.

Slick said dismemberment would sharply curtail energy investments. "The curtailment of energy investments during the period of reorganization would severely retard U.S. energy development," he said.

"Development of Alaska's huge Prudhoe Bay field and construction of the Trans-Alaska Pipeline would be halted indefinitely until new owners, operators, and financial backers for the pipeline are established, assuming new arrangements could be made at all," he said.

"We have evaluated cases under which dismemberment would decrease domestic energy production by about 2.5 million barrels of oil equivalent per day by 1980. And by 1985 it would have decreased domestic production by 4 million barrels of oil equivalent per day."

Slick said increased dependence on foreign oil would add $100 billion to the U.S. balance of payments drain over the next decade and unemployment could rise by more than one million people in 1977.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government inspectors will probe a fire at the Pentagon that burned for an hour only 50 feet from the sprawling building's military nerve center.

There was no known cause for the blaze, which spokesmen said began Monday evening outside a second-floor cafeteria in a stack of boxes that contained plastic-covered chairs. Security police said several persons were treated for smoke inhalation and that one fire fighter suffered burns on his hands.

The fire broke out shortly before 8 p.m. and was contained in the cafeteria area. None of the personnel in the National Military Command Center, also on the second floor of the building, were evacuated as firemen from suburban Arlington County, Va., put out the flames. Work at the command center continued without interruption, spokesmen said.

The blaze was extinguished an hour later. No estimate of damages was immediately available, but spokesmen said there was extensive heat and smoke damage, though no major part of the Pentagon was affected. Smoke wafted through the building's ventilation system and damage extended to the fifth floor, officials said.

The cafeteria had been closed for remodeling at the time of the blaze.

Crash Survivor Returns To Father

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP) — The lone survivor of a Dec. 21 plane crash near Klamath Falls will be returned to her natural father in El Paso, Tex., a circuit judge ruled Monday.

Judge Ted Abrams of Klamath County Circuit Court ruled that Oregon should retain custody of Theresa Seymour, 11, for another 48 hours while arrangements were made for her transportation to El Paso.

He said Texas courts would be free to make any further custody rulings. Bill Wynn of the Children's Services Division in Klamath County said Texas authorities have indicated Theresa will probably remain with her natural father, Paul Seymour.

The girl was a passenger in a single engine plane that smashed into the side of Bryant Mountain, 35 miles east of Klamath Falls. Killed in the crash were Theresa's stepfather and the plane's pilot, Robert L. Conduff, 37, of Ft. Hood, Tex.; Her mother, Frances M. Conduff, 47, and her half-sister, Maria Frances Foster, 14. The family was en route to Yakima, Wash., to visit Conduff's parents.

Theresa spent several hours in near freezing weather, warmed in part by her pet puppy, which also survived. She suffered hairline fractures of both legs and minor abrasions.

She attended the funeral last week in Yakima for members of her family killed in the crash. She also was present at Monday's closed hearing.

Actor's Sister Dies Trying To Save Girl

DELAND, Fla. (AP) — The sister of actor Patrick O'Neal has been killed in a futile attempt to pull her 4-year-old daughter from the path of an onrushing train.

Molly O'Neal Holmes, 33, and her daughter, Jennie, died Monday when struck by the train. The little girl had dashed onto the tracks to retrieve a vacuum bottle that had rolled off the station platform, police said.

They were hit by a train passing through the DeLand depot on its way to nearby Sanford. Mrs. Holmes' mother, Mrs. C. Wisdom O'Neal, and some family friends witnessed the accident but could do nothing.

The family was in the station to see the friends off on a northbound train that had not yet arrived.

"It was too late to stop by the time I saw them," said the engineer, R.L. Gibson, who had his horn blaring as he entered the station area. The Virginio-Sanford train traveled several hundred feet beyond the pair before Gibson could stop it.

Mrs. Holmes was coowner with her actor-brother and another brother in a New York City restaurant, The Ginger Man. The name was taken from a 1963 off Broadway play in which O'Neal got one of his first starring roles. O'Neal's stage, television and movie credits include a role in the movie, "From The Terrace."

Mrs. Holmes' late father was a longtime citrus grower, businessman and

Brando Treated For Blood Disorder

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Actor Marlon Brando has been released after eight days in the hospital for treatment of a blood infection, a hospital official says.

The 51-year-old Academy Award-winning actor was released late Friday, a spokeswoman for St. John's Hospital said Sunday. He was admitted Dec. 26 after flying here from Tetiaroa, his South Pacific atoll near Tahiti.

Brando was suffering from septicemia, a bacterial blood infection that normally is treated with antibiotics, said Patricia Kelvin, the hospital's public relations director. She said reports that he had been seriously ill were unfounded.

Texas Senator Appointee William Blakley Dies

DALLAS (AP) — Funeral services are scheduled this afternoon for William A. Blakley, the only man to twice serve as a U.S. senator from Texas.

Blakley, 77, died Monday at his home. He had returned there in early December from a hospital stay.

Services will be at 4 p.m. today at Restland Memorial Chapel with burial in Restland Memorial Park.

He is survived by his widow, Villa D. Blakley of Dallas, and two sisters.

Blakley was appointed to the Senate in 1957 to fill the seat of Price Daniel, who resigned to become governor of Texas, and in 1960 to succeed Lyndon B. Johnson, who ascended to the vice presidency.

He claimed in an interview this past year with the Dallas News that then U.S. House Speaker Sam Rayburn helped liberal Ralph Yarborough defeat Blakley in the 1958 Democratic senatorial primary because Rayburn "owed it to labor."

Blakley said he entered the 1961 race against Tower without any knowledge that former Gov. Allan Shivers, who appointed him to the Senate in 1957, wanted to run as a conservative Democrat. He said Shivers became indignant and worked actively to swing Texas conservative Democrats to cross over and vote Republican.

"I lost to Tower because of Shivers," he told the News in the interview which he granted on the understanding it would not be published while he was alive.

Blakley called the late Lyndon Johnson "devious." "Johnson would say something nice to your face and when you left the room he would remark, 'That crazy s.o.b. I could talk much easier to John Kennedy.'"

A self-taught lawyer and certified public accountant, Blakley amassed a fortune in ranching, oil and business. But he preferred to be known as a cowhand in his later life. He dressed the part of one.

After his loss to Tower in 1961, he retired to private life. A noted philanthropist, Blakley and his wife made a $100 million gift to the Braniff-Blakley Foundation, which he set up with his close friend, Thomas E. Braniff, founder of Braniff International Airlines.

The Braniff-Blakley Foundation gave $30 million in 1964 to public hospitals, colleges and foundations. A $100,000 gift was made to Abilene Christian College toward the building of a coliseum-auditorium.

The largest gift was more than $21 million to the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for crippled children in Dallas, which received two ranches comprising more than 250,000 acres in West Texas and New Mexico. These were the 173,000-acre Rocker B Ranch near San Angelo and one near San Cristobal, N.M.

The University of Dallas received $7.5 million.

He was born in Miami Station, Mo., while his parents were traveling from Missouri by wagon train. Blakley had made his home in Dallas since 1925.

He was a vice president of the Scottish Rite Hospital and served on the executive committee of the Southwestern Medical Foundation.

He founded Exchange Bank and Trust Co. of Dallas, which is the cornerstone of the huge Dallas business investment, Exchange Park.

Auto Sales Climb By 30 Per Cent

DETROIT (AP) — Domestic car sales continued their upswing in mid-December, leaping 30 per cent above dismal year-earlier levels to brighten industry hopes for a strong performance in 1976.

It was the eighth straight 10-day period in which sales topped year-earlier levels, and it prompted company executives to reiterate forecasts of a healthy new year for car sales.

The four U.S. auto companies, which resumed business after a 10-day holiday shutdown, reported Monday that car sales in the Dec. 11-20 period totaled 189,826, up from 146,195 the year before, when the industry was in the midst of a recession.

"There no longer can be any doubt about the recovery of our business," said William P. Benton, a vice president of Ford Motor Co. "Our sales momentum is growing and our dealers are entering 1976 with confidence that our sales pace will continue to strengthen."

American Motors Corp. sales were up 43 per cent, Ford deliveries rose 42 per cent and Chrysler Corp. sales jumped 41 per cent. General Motors, the largest of the firms, reported a 21 per cent gain.

GM said its sales gain trailed the rest of the industry because it had an unusually strong performance in mid-December 1974 and thus a harder target to surpass in 1975.

Despite the sharp industry-wide gain over mid-December 1974, the selling pace still lagged 6 per cent behind the tempo of mid-December 1973, when fuel shortages had just begun to plunge the companies into their worst slump since the Great Depression. The tempo also was off 26 per cent from the period record set in 1972.

VANDALISM

A bullet hole was found in the plate-glass door to Western Mattress, 1909 Gregg St., police were told Friday.

Texas Electric is building power plants that will use the cheapest fuels available.

Today natural gas is Texas Electric's main fuel for power plants. Oil is used only as a standby fuel.

But our low-cost supplies of natural gas are running out, so we can't continue to use it as our main fuel.

To replace natural gas, we've already acquired large reserves of lignite coal and made long-term contracts for uranium. Both lignite and uranium are much cheaper than new supplies of natural gas.

To use these cheaper fuels, we have to build new power plants. They cost a lot to build, and that's why electric rates will have to go up. But these plants will make electricity at the lowest possible cost by saving millions of dollars in the cost of fuel.

Changing to cheaper fuels is one way Texas Electric is making sure you'll continue to have the electricity you need, at rates well below the national average.
