FBI knew of CIA plot?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate intelligence committee is to receive documents from the FBI showing that the bureau knew a CIA plot to kill Fidel Castro was in progress on the same day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated.

The documents, which the FBI apparently never gave to the Warren Commission, are expected to be turned over to the intelligence committee today, according to Sen. Richard Schweiker, R-Pa., chairman of the subcommittee investigating the Kennedy slaying.

Schweiker said the new documents "could be very vital" in determining who in the FBI ordered the information about CIA attempts against Castro withheld from the Warren Commission, which investigated Kennedy's Nov. 22, 1963, assassination.

He said the information about the CIA plot against Castro may also have been withheld even from the FBI agents assigned to investigate the Kennedy slaying.

David W. Belin, who was an assistant counsel for the Warren Commission, said, "The fact that they would withhold information from an investigation of this kind has rather chilling implications. One of the things we were looking at was whether there was any Castro involvement in the Kennedy assassination."

Meanwhile, Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, has been named as ranking

Democrat and likely chairman of the new Senate panel set up to monitor and control future spy activities.

Eight of the 15 members, including Inouye, also serve on committees that have been responsible for monitoring the intelligence agencies in the past.

In another development, the committee released a report showing the CIA opened nearly a quarter-million private letters, even though senior officials knew the program was illegal and of little value. The FBI also opened mail on a smaller but "more intrusive" scale, the staff report said.

"All of these mail-opening programs were initiated by agency officials acting without prior authorization from a president, attorney general or postmaster general," the report stated.

Schweiker released a copy of a May 6 letter to Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi stating that "recently received materials reveal that the FBI, in 1964, had knowledge of the CIA's AM LASH plot and that there even exists an FBI file captioned 'Plans to Assassinate Cuban Leaders.'"

AM LASH was the code name of a highly placed Cuban official who met with a CIA officer in Paris the same day Kennedy was killed and received a poison pen device to be used in killing Castro.

Sen. Robert Morgan, D-N.C., a member of the old and new intelligence panels, has been quoted as calling AM LASH "a double agent" who kept Castro informed.

GEODESIC DOME UP IN FLAMES — The former United States pavilion at the Expo '67 site on Ste. Helene's Island in Montreal goes up in flames in this spectacular view Thursday taken only minutes after fire began. Photographer Doug Leiman happened to be taking serial photos when fire broke destroying the geodesic dome in only 10 minutes.

City manager plays music censor

Nagel says 'Opus pocus' and they're gone

By JAMES WERRELL

Johnny Cantrell and Opus III will not be seen in a farewell concert at the Amphitheater in Comanche Trail Park Sunday, according to City Manager Harry Nagel.

"We feel ripped off, but it's just one of those things," said Cantrell, speaking for the group. "We heard that somebody gave a concert a couple of years back and it really got out of hand. Now everybody suffers," he added.

"WE WANTED to say thank you to the folks here for all their support, but it just isn't feasible. The people here mean a lot to us," said Cantrell. Nagel said, "No one is allowed to use amplified sound in the park without the permission of the city, and I have turned down this group's request. We have an ordinance to cover this. There were a lot of complaints about the noise the last time there was amplified music out there and it won't happen again," he added.

NAGEL WENT on to explain that in the past when rock groups played, the audience became rowdy and caused a disturbance.

"We had to send policemen out there, and when they got there the crowd was drunk and causing trouble. As I remember, one officer was struck with a bottle. I won't subject them (the police) to that again. It's too dangerous," said Nagel.

Nagel also explained that there is no ordinance covering the use of un-amplified, acoustic instruments in the park.

"IF THE BAND used unamplified equipment we wouldn't object. We just don't want the noise or another disturbance," said Nagel. Does this mean that no amplified sound may ever be used in the amphitheater?

"No," said Nagel. "There are exceptions. When I feel that the noise will be at a minimum and the crowd will not be unruly, I will allow amplified sound."

AND YOU MAKE the final decision and take the responsibility for it? "Yes," said Nagel.

Opus III will re-release their national hit, "Changes," later this summer in a "beefed-up" version, according to Cantrell. The flip-side of the single will be a cut entitled "Could It Be I'm Asking Too Much."

"Asking Too Much" will be a disco number. It may change our image," said Cantrell.

Plans for the release of an album, to be called "Introducing Johnny Cantrell and Opus III," are also under way for later this summer.

Storm triggers fires, flooding

Rain dumped from .2 of an inch to five inches on different areas in and around Howard County in a sudden spring thunderstorm Thursday night. It was accompanied by lightning and flash fires, flooding in the streets, and stalled vehicles.

Heaviest rainfall was around the Sulphur Draw area in Martin County where five inches were reported. West of Knott, there were up to three inches of rain and 3 1/2 inches fell near Patricia at Three League.

Coahoma, Luther and Sand Springs recorded only .2 with Mrs. John Couch at Luther, and Lloyd Underwood at Gayhill both reporting this amount.

Mrs. J. W. Webb, 2 miles northwest of Luther had 3.5 inches with the land washed away. Bill Creager at Elbow reported 2.6 which fell in 1 1/2 hours with high water flooding the road.

Worst street flooding reported was along the railroad on East Second Street, especially at East Second and Birdwell and at North Second at Douglas and San Antonio Streets.

There was also flooding on Parkway at Alamesa where at the height of the rain, one group was trapped in a car and had to wade out waist deep.

The flooded area along the railroad got as high as two feet at one point with water all the way back to East Third Street on Birdwell. This area has been under study for years by the city and the Corps of Army Engineers, which have estimated that controls necessary to halt flooding in the area would cost millions of dollars.

Street barricades were put up. One street department employe first told city police that no barricades were available, but his superiors changed that philosophy a few moments later. The highway department, in the meantime, had obtained barricades for the East Second Street area.

The city of Ackerly reported only .7 of an inch but over west of Knott, the rain got heavier. Forsan and Garden City reported no rain at all.

Flooded highways included the Snyder highway on the curve just north of town, US 87 near Fairview and in front of the Fiber Glass Factory, and the Andrews highway near Sulphur Draw.

These highways were considered dangerous but not impassable. The Snyder highway did have a barricade for about 20 minutes.

The Big Spring Experiment Station reported 2.3 inches as the official rain measurement and Boyce Hale recorded 2.05 inches.

Stanton recorded only .5 inch with a little heavier rainfall in the Lenora and Grady areas. Dawson County Agent Lee Roy Colgan reported that the heaviest rainfall was near Ackerly in the southwest corner of the county and out near Patricia. Other areas had from .3 of an inch upward.

Replacing will be necessary on spotted farms in Howard, Martin and Dawson County. All three counties had 95 per cent of the cotton planting complete.

"Those who had planted earlier and had their cotton up to a good stand are in the best shape," according to Colgan. "Some of those whose cotton had just been planted will have to go back and scratch to get the crust off the top," according to the agent.

It appeared this morning from spot checks with three county agents that around 20 per cent of the cotton in the area will have to be completely replanted.

Police dispatchers and wrecker services worked feverishly for close to three hours in towing stalled vehicles out of low water areas. The dispatcher also handled six fire calls and many emergency calls between 7:30 and 10:30 p.m.

There were no injuries and no heavy fire losses in town. Worst fire damage was the tank at Klondike and a home southwest of Ackerly. Utility crews from Texas Electric and Southwestern Telephone also had calls and workmen out during the night.

Oil storage tank ignited

Lightning strikes seven unlucky sites

By MARJ CARPENTER

Lightning fired out of the sky across West Texas Thursday night causing damage in at least seven locations.

These included a house near Ackerly, a haystack at Fairview, a storage tank at Klondike and four locations in Big Spring.

The home which burned 12 miles southwest of Ackerly on the edge of Martin County belonged to Bennie Hughes and suffered fire, smoke and water damage.

Hughes was in the back of the house and heard a popping sound. When he heard it a second time, he went to the living room area, and was met by flames all over the room. He rushed to the phone and contacted somebody on the line and asked them to call a fire truck.

Then he went outside and got on his CB radio asking for help. Ray Long and another neighbor came to the scene immediately and the Ackerly fire department was not far behind. Hollis Kenemer left his son's graduation exercises at Sands High School to come with the fire department.

The house was saved, except for the living room area and a lot of fire and smoke damage. Many windows were also broken from the heat. "It was feared that the hardwood floors might buckle from the water," relatives said today.

A few miles away, five and one half miles west of the Fairview Gin, a haystack burned on the T. J. Castle farm in the middle of a "lake of rainfall." Members of the Silver Heels fire department went to the scene. Charles Wilbanks stated, "There was no way to get to that fire without the truck bogging down. One deputy was worrying about the possibility of it spreading, but there was nowhere for it to go. There was water all around it. So we just let it burn off."

Up at Klondike on the farm of Alvin Harris an oil storage tank was caught on fire. Damage was estimated at $15,000.

The tank fire was six miles from the Klondike school in an area that had close to two inches of rain.

Back in Big Spring, a two-story house at 808 Main caught on fire when lightning struck the upper corner of the house. It was quickly extinguished by the fire department with minor damage reported. The house belongs to Mrs. Doris Cole.

Lightning struck transformers at 2609 Wason Road and near Moss Creek Lake. Electricity was off at the lake for two hours and in other areas for shorter periods of time.

A tall television antennae was struck by lightning at 1403 E. 19th. All of these fires were close together and the fire department was kept busy for nearly an hour rushing to several locations. Some were false alarms.

Ford considers fed funds to avoid busing

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford, denying that his offensive against court-ordered school busing is connected with upcoming primary elections, is considering ways to use federal money to help school districts avoid extensive busing, administration sources say.

Ford is also considering seeking new legislation as part of "a whole range of approaches" to limit the use of busing as a desegregation tool, according to a White House source.

The source declined to give details on how federal funds could be used to reduce busing ordered by federal courts.

Though officials are reviewing administrative and legislative proposals to curb busing, the first action in the Ford campaign will come on the judicial front if Atty. Gen. Edward H. Levi decides to use the Boston school case as a vehicle for seeking new Supreme Court guidelines on busing.

Levi was to explain his views on government intervention in the Boston case at a meeting with Ford this afternoon. Justice Department spokesman Robert Havel said Levi had reached no decision as of late Thursday and that he may not do so until after the session with Ford.

Six terrorists hijack jet

MANILA, The Philippines (AP) — Six men described as Moslem tribesmen hijacked a Philippines Airlines — PAL — jet with more than 100 persons aboard today and forced it to land at Zamboanga on the island of Mindanao, military authorities said.

The hijackers demanded $375,000 ransom and a DCB plane to fly them to Libya, sources said.

Soldiers surrounded the plane and punctured its tires to keep it from taking off. Officials were negotiating with a hijacker who held a .45-caliber pistol to the pilot's head, authorities said.

Offbeat: Hole(y) Duo steals dough

A couple of con artists made a check-out attendant feel like a nut when they made off with the dough Thursday night.

According to police reports, two men walked into the Big Dipper Donut Shop, 1600 Gregg, ordering two doughnuts and paying for them with a $20 bill. The men then asked the attendant to make change several times from the money they got back from the twenty, and left.

After they had gone the attendant took tabs of the exchange and found that Big Dipper had been swindled out of $17.

Best bet on TV: Old movies

A classic in comedy appears on the independent channel 11 at 9 p.m. in "A Day at the Races." The Marx Brothers try to save a sanitarium from going broke by risking everything they have on a horse race.

For the nostalgic and insomniac, Saturday night and Sunday morning offer thrills and scenery galore. Starting at 8 p.m. on the PBS channel 5, classics in theatre and comedy air. "South Pacific" opens the all-night program, followed by "Oklahoma" at 10 p.m. Then four Charlie Chaplin movies follow in quick succession in their entirety: "The Immigrant," "A Night at the Show," "Work," and "Dough and Dynamite." The program, which ends at 5:50 a.m. Sunday, is interspersed with highlights from Laurel and Hardy movies.

Brown favorite in home state

Carter concedes California

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jimmy Carter, Morris Udall and Frank Church have signaled they will not make massive efforts fighting California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. in the June 8 California primary because of Brown's home-state power.

Udall and Church bowed out of a televised debate with Brown in Los Angeles next week, spokesmen said Thursday. Carter said he would concentrate on New Jersey and Ohio which also have June 8 primaries.

UTPB maps registration

Registration for the University of Texas of the Permian Basin courses will be held from 6-9 p.m. Tuesday, May 25 in Building 603 at Webb AFB Force Base.

Udall also indicated he will make major efforts in those two states — and did mention California — while Church is concentrating on the smaller primary states before June 8 to seek momentum for the California voting.

Carter aides said he planned to spend at least $300,000 in the California fight.

Udall said in a New Jersey campaign appearance Thursday that he plans to spend $150,000 to $200,000 of the federal matching funds he is due in that state. He added he would spend as many days seeking the 108 Jersey delegates as he will spend in search of the 152 Ohio delegates.

Church press secretary Bill Hall also denied the Idaho senator is bowing out of an active fight in California.

State GOP Chairman Richard Rosenbaum called the 154 convention delegates — most of them now uncommitted — to a meeting in Albany on Monday. He said he would ask them to back Ford.

Church is pinning his hopes on doing well in the next two weeks' primaries, including ones in Oregon and his home state of Idaho, and carrying some momentum into California.

Ten-foot cotton for the future?

LUBBOCK — Ten-foot tall, wild cotton plants from Old Mexico may become the parents of a new line of cotton varieties for the High and Rolling Plains.

Dr. J. E. Quisenberry, cotton breeder, and Dr. Bruce Roark, plant physiologist, say the material will take several years to develop. But if their goals are reached, area cotton producers may not have to start irrigating as soon when they enter a prolonged dry period during the growing season.

The wild seedlings, which grow into large trees eventually, have characteristics of special importance to High and Rolling Plains cotton producers. That is, they are tolerant to drought or long periods of moisture stress.

IN TALL COTTON — Dr. J. E. Quisenberry, cotton breeder, and Dr. Bruce Roark, plant physiologist, examine a 10-foot-tall, wild cotton plant from Old Mexico. A descendant of ancient cottons from Central and South America, the plant's drought tolerance is of special importance to High and Rolling Plains producers.

The USDA-ARS scientists say the wild cottons are descendants of ancient progenitors that were discovered by European explorers in Central and South America. These tree plants are thought to have originated from species found in India and north-eastern Africa.

A team of USDA-Agricultural Research Service scientists based at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock believe the germplasm found in the wild cotton can be bred into lines suitable for cotton production on the Texas plains. But they won't be 10 or 20 feet tall. They will look like the other short, stam-poon varieties currently grown in the area.

The research is of special significance to dryland cotton-growing areas where producers are totally dependent on rainfall and winter moisture. Prolonged dry periods during the growing season in these areas essentially wipe out cotton production if there is not enough deep moisture available to get the plants through critical stages.

Farm markets

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton futures No. 2 were higher by as much as $2.65 a bale in midday dealings today. Cotton consumption during the month of April was listed today by the Census Bureau at 5,358,209 bales at a 26.910 daily average. That volume is down from a month ago, when consumption was 711,950 bales and 28,478 on a daily average. Year ago consumption was 525,045 bales.

Quisenberry has collected reveal several morphological, anatomical and physiological characteristics useful in the development of drought tolerant cottons. These characteristics will be selectively bred into plants that can be grown in this area.

Cattle feeders give grant

COLLEGE STATION, — The Texas Cattle Feeders Association of Amarillo has made a $1,395 grant to the Texas 4-H Foundation to conduct a special leadership training workshop for the members of the Texas 4-H Council.

As irrigation water continues to decline in irrigated cotton producing areas, Quisenberry adds, "drought-tolerant crops could take on much more importance for those producers, as well. We're looking at drought-tolerant varieties for all the High and Rolling Plains areas, whether or not those areas are presently irrigated or dryland."

Quisenberry and Roark have found unexpected characteristics in these wild

Plaintiffs have filed suits against Nowlin alleging he paid for cotton warehouse receipts with worthless checks totaling around $375,000. The receipts are used to transfer ownership of cotton stored in warehouses.

Original complaints came from several farmers in King and Cottle Counties. Essentially, they want their checks redeemed or return of the warehouse receipts for their cotton.

Overall inflation down

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite recent price fluctuations, government economists are holding to their prediction that overall inflation this year will be near 6 per cent. Although consumer prices so far have increased at a rate much less than 6 per cent, most economists think the inflation indexes will begin showing a rising trend in months ahead. The consumer price index for April was to be released today by the Labor Department and several economists said it could show a small increase over the two-tenths of 1 per cent gained in March.

Busy gunman surrenders

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — A gunman wanted for nearly 30 armed robberies surrendered to authorities after he allegedly seized seven hostages during a $30,000 bank stickup and held FBI agents and police at bay for an hour and a half. The robber, identified by the FBI as Jerry Bray, 26, of Mount Vernon, N.Y., grabbed the six employees and one customer about 11:30 a.m. as police responded to a silent alarm activated at the Barclays Bank branch. Bray freed the hostages unharmed at the urging of FBI agents and by 1 p.m. he was convinced to surrender, police said.

Troops man city's walls

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli troops manned the castle-like walls of Jerusalem today, firing tear gas at roving demonstrators. Black smoke hung over Arab towns, where swarms of children lit protest bonfires of oil-soaked tires. But there were no new incidents in the West Bank where 10 Palestinian Arabs have died in four months of riots. Israeli officials admitted the clashes have stirred sympathy for the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Truce action delayed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Bolstered by pledges of support from radical Arab states, leftist Moslem forces delayed action today on a new truce to end Lebanon's civil war. Scattered fighting was reported between Moslem and Christian militias overnight, including battles with rockets and mortars around Moslem enclaves in the Christian-held part of Beirut. Police said the clashes killed at least 23 persons.

FCC delays rate hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Federal Communications Commission has suspended until Aug. 20 a planned increase in private, leased-line telephone rates. The FCC ordered an investigation during that time of "the lawfulness" of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. rates, which were to go into effect Wednesday.

Major customers include the news wire services, which estimated the new rates would raise their line costs by 60 per cent. The rates affect wires and microwave beams and are in addition to other rate increases granted the phone company.

Those who objected to the rates contended that some supporting material which AT&T had not yet submitted was so crucial that the rate increase should be blocked until the material could be examined.

Also, they said, some supporting material for the rate increase already submitted was erroneous, misleading and inadequate.

AT&T said the rate plan would result in rate increases for 15,314 customers, decreases for 4,134 customers and unchanged rates for 727 customers. The largest increases would be imposed on users of relatively short lines.

Briscoe offers Concorde flights

HOUSTON (AP) — President Valery Giscard d'Estaing of France winds up a Houston area tour today after praising Texas as a state that has become synonymous with great deeds, endeavors and dreams fulfilled.

Giscard said Thursday night that is the major reason for his wanting to visit the state during his American Bicentennial tour. The French presidential party ate western game hen at a black tie dinner for which Houston Mayor Fred Hofheinz was host. Giscard chatted during the dinner with Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, widow of the late president, who sat on his left in a ballroom crowded with about 1,000 invited guests.

Giscard was leaving early today for a short flight to Lafayette, La., and will wind up his United States tour Saturday at New Orleans. "France feels a strong sense of affinity with Texas, which symbolizes confidence in the future and the creative energy of the end of our 20th century," Giscard said in prepared remarks at the Houston dinner.

"For France is already a modern nation and intends to become more so. She is still committed to her traditions but she is able to seize the opportunity to change, when such change will prepare a better world, and she is capable of meeting competition from any quarter."

He used energy as an example of how he said France is forging ahead in the high technological sectors of industry and research.

"There is no major sector of research or high technology in which France is not engaged, be it exploration of outer space or the sea bed, medical research or high energy civic," he said.

SEE DANCE — French President Valery Giscard d'Estaing, right background, Thursday watching Mexican dancers go through a number during his visit to the ranch of L. F. McCollum which is near Bellville. The French President wanted to see a Texas ranch during his visit in the United States.

"We have neither oil no coal reserves, but we have gained an international reputation, and one well known here in the oil business because of the contributions our experts have made to the technical progress in each of the various phases of the industry from geophysical explorations to offshore drilling to the liquefaction and transport of gas."

The French president concluded his talk by describing Texas not only as a land of wide open spaces but "also the land that best expresses in today's American, vitality, boldness and confidence in the future."

At the dinner, Hofheinz presented Mrs. Giscard a china plate painted by Frederic Remington and Giscard a silver plate with a Remington painting. Some 1,000 persons were on hand to welcome Giscard Thursday afternoon at Houston's International Airport when the presidential plane arrived. Texas Gov. Dolph Briscoe and Hofheinz were among those greeting Giscard, and Briscoe immediately offered an invitation for the French president to begin regular Concorde jet flights between Paris and Texas.

Briscoe extended the Concorde flight invitation after reminding Giscard that France was the first major power to "extend a helping hand" to the new Republic of Texas in the 1830s.

Giscard did not respond to the invitation extended by Briscoe but noted in his brief remarks that Texas history is "full of special ties and understanding with France."

Security was tight as the second Concorde Jet to land in Texas arrived at an airport private terminal. Police helicopters hovered over the airport as the craft taxied and officers with police dogs kept watch during the welcome ceremonies.

"I extend to you appreciation for the support and encouragement France gave the new Republic," Briscoe said in his welcoming remarks.

"We salute you and the people of France on the technological achievement of the Concorde and personally extend to you an invitation to establish a Concorde flight from Paris to Texas."

Giscard said he had not known in advance "that there would be an exchange of words on my arrival" and that he faced certain problems in making an impromptu speech because of "blunders and in a language that is not mine."

The French president, speaking only in English, said visions of the past, present and future, prompted him to participate in the American Bicentennial.

"I want to improve the understanding between the French people and the American people and I think the best way is to have personal contact," he said.

"We know the importance of Texas for the future of the United States because of your widely known abilities and accomplishments in various fields of technology and development."

Briscoe presented Giscard with a picture of the old French Legation building of the Republic of Texas and he received the keys to the city from Hofheinz.

From the airport the French presidential party made a 70-mile helicopter flight to the 900-acre ranch of oilman L. F. McCollum.

Kissinger says U.S. backs Eastern Europe independence

OSLO, Norway (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger has told Washington's European allies that America supports the independence of Eastern Europe from Soviet domination and will never accept the sphere-of-influence concept for Europe.

U.S. officials said the secretary of state told North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) foreign ministers in a closed meeting Thursday that America is committed to encouraging the independence of Eastern Europe and has taken positive steps in this direction.

But they said Kissinger cautioned the NATO ministers that any alliance action should be within the limits of what is possible. This meant, they said, that there should be no effort to encourage revolt or a major shift away from Moscow by Eastern European nations.

About 20 youths demonstrated outside the heavily guarded meeting hall Thursday while 5,000 leftists marched in the streets. One group shouted "Out with the war criminal Kissinger" near the U.S. Embassy.

Youths booed delegates headed for a dinner party given by the Norwegian government but there were no incidents.

The demonstrators carried signs denouncing both NATO and Moscow's domination of the Warsaw Pact nations. The U.S. officials told reporters that Kissinger reviewed the U.S. program of challenging Soviet efforts to impose its ideology on the non-Communist world while still seeking detente. He asked if this was still NATO policy and the other 14 ministers confirmed Kissinger's analysis, the officials reported.

They said Kissinger told the session that the use of Soviet military supplies and Cuban troops to help the pro-Moscow Popular Movement in Angola's civil war violated the concept of coexistence and was an example of ideological aggression. The Popular Movement group defeated two Western-backed factions this spring.

Before today's closing session, Kissinger scheduled a breakfast meeting with Turkish Foreign Minister Isihan Caglayangil to discuss Cyprus.

The secretary met Thursday with Dimitri Bitsios, the Greek foreign minister, on the Cyprus stalemate.

Turkish troops occupy 40 per cent of the Mediterranean island which they invaded nearly two years ago after a pro-Greek coup.

Kissinger also scheduled a talk with British Foreign Secretary Anthony Crosland. The two will have more extensive meetings next week when Kissinger goes to London.

Law enforcement education at HC

Howard College is getting back into the law enforcement academy program beginning June 1.

The college had a police academy once before, but it was lost when area local governments did not join the Permian Basin Council of Governments.

THIS LOSS had turned what could have been a plus factor for the college and the community into a negative drain on local taxpayers.

New law enforcement officers in Big Spring must presently go to Midland to receive their course work for certifications.

John Massey, a former Lubbock policeman who is now director of law enforcement education at Howard College, said that it costs local taxpayers about $3,000 to train an officer by sending him or her to Midland when all factors are considered.

WITH HOWARD COLLEGE having an academy, this training can be done for perhaps as little as $170 tuition, and even that may be paid by the applicant if he is seeking a police-type job.

Another plus, Massey said, is that the community does not lose the use of the officer if he is needed at night or for an emergency.

Massey outlined plans for what will become four separate academies for different types of police work when he spoke to the Big Spring Rotary Club last week.

Law enforcement education is getting to be a big thing. Not only does state law recognize the need for a policeman or deputy to have more knowledge than just how to use a handgun when he goes on the street, but local police chiefs and sheriffs are beginning to emphasize education.

SIX STUDENTS were involved in law enforcement education last fall at Howard College; this spring there are 79; and Massey predicted more than 100 will be involved next fall.

JOHN MASSEY

The college also is getting involved in the training of security officers from Webb AFB.

Even since academies were organized, training for officers has not been as good as it should be. "If he (the officer) attended class," Massey said, "he passed."

Massey, with nine years of police experience, has high hopes: "We hope to train officers better than any academy I know of," he says.

The Howard College academy will serve an area west to Stanton, east to Colorado City, south the San Angelo and north to Lubbock, Massey said.

A LAW ENFORCEMENT officer must make split-second judgments on the law and all its life-and-death implications. Society asks so much of the officer that it owes him the best training possible.

Hughes will

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — It could easily be predicted, but there are now more last wills and testaments of Howard Hughes than there are Pentagon Papers. It seems to me that this year's favorite fantasy for most Americans is that somehow, someday, each one of them was the sole beneficiary of the entire Hughes estate.

I have carried around my own fantasy ever since I heard the sad news of the passing of "Dad." This is how I imagine Howard Hughes' last will and testament — the true one — really reads.

"I, HOWARD HUGHES, being of sound mind and body, leave all my worldly goods to my dear friend Art Bookwall who really was the son I never had.

"I only met Mr. Buckwell once on an airplane flying from the Bahamas to Nicaragua, but I was so impressed with his astute knowledge of business affairs, as well as his belief in a strong, no-holds-barred capitalistic system, that I was almost tempted to tell who I was. But I was afraid if I revealed my true identity I would discourage him in continuing our delightful conversation.

"I remember asking him at the time: 'If you had two and a half billion dollars, what would you do with it?' and he immediately replied, 'I'd keep it.'

"I liked that kind of answer.

"Then I said to him: 'Mr. Bockwald, how would you keep it?'"

"HE REPLIED, 'I'd buy tax-free bonds, invest in oil and gas, set up my own foundation and work out some kind of deal with the CIA.'

"I couldn't believe it. The boy thought just like I did. 'Al,' I said, 'this is just a hypothetical question, but what would you do if you owned seven Las Vegas gambling casinos and all the land to and from the airport?' He thought about it for a moment and then replied, 'I would increase the jackpots for the one-armed bandits, personally select every chorus girl we put in any of our shows and use the cash from the casinos to buy off any politician I wanted to.'

"Amazingly, these were the very ideas I had been toying with myself.

"DO YOU KNOW who I am?' I asked him.

"No,' Brucknell replied. 'To me you are just a nice kind man whom I enjoy talking to. You could use a manicure and a haircut. But outside of that, you're the perfect traveling companion.' I chuckled. The boy reminded me of myself when I was young and spoke my mind.

"When we landed in Nicaragua, Burckwell said, 'If you ever get to Washington, Dad, look me up.'

"I COULDN'T believe it! This stranger, who had only met me once, called me Dad."

"And so I am now sitting in my hotel room, writing this will. Although I have relatives, as well as a foundation, this chance encounter on a plane with Art Buchwald of 1750 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006 has made me decide that he should be the heir to my fortune. I know he will use the two and half billion dollars wisely and not squander it on wine, women and food. The only thing I regret is that I shall not be there to see the look of surprise on his face when he is informed that the bearded, long-haired man who sat next to him on the plane was Clifford Hughes. Eat your heart out, Clifford Irving, wherever you are."

Surgery can correct wrinkles

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 49 years old and in good health. My problem is not serious, but important to me. In the last year I have gotten wrinkles around my mouth and nose.

I know I should be getting wrinkles, but not as bad as mine. My friends don't have as many as I have, and they are into their 60s, some of them. I have a slim face, and I think this ages me more. Can something be done? What kind of doctor should I talk to about this? — Mrs. M.W.

Thin people tend to get wrinkles more easily than the chubbies. Face skin is thinner than that in other parts of the body. So it is often the first to show changes with age. The loss of fatty deposits under the skin leaves the outer layers less taut. The result — wrinkles.

The deep mouth wrinkles are called nasolabial folds, deep grooves from the outer edge of the nose down to the corners of the mouth.

Recently silicone injections have been used to smooth out such deep lines. A plastic surgeon can tell you if this is possible for you. I don't think the silicone is generally available at this time, but you should check.

If your lines are very extensive (or likely to become so), then you might want to consider that old cosmetic standby, the face lift, especially if the loosened skin has left a jowly look.

The cosmetic procedures available to surgeons today are almost limitless, and if you are in a position to afford it, more power to you.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Thanks for the article on hypoglycemia a while back. For me it was timely. I had no idea what it was. Now, through the tests they found out I have it. Can you answer another question? Does one get over it? Or is it like diabetes? — C.M.B.

Wonderful that you found out about it.

The only similarity to diabetes is that sugar is involved. With you there is an abnormally low level of it in your blood — the reverse of diabetes.

Yes, it can usually be overcome if the basic cause is corrected. But the causes can be so varied it's difficult to say if yours can. In fact, it can be kept under control, as can diabetes.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: The eye doctor recently said my husband has cataracts in both eyes, but said no surgery for six months. My husband is 54.

We have heard of a new technique in which the surgeon places lenses inside the eyeball and they never have to worry about removing them. What can you tell me about these permanent lenses? Do you recommend them? — Mrs. B.M.

The procedure is still being investigated. There are various techniques for cataract surgery, and I suggest you follow the one your eye surgeon recommends, because it is usually related to the individual patient's needs. The lens implant surgery is not being done by many surgeons. The obvious advantages must be weighed against potential complications.

Of course, such lenses would have to be permanent.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: For about a week I have had a spell of very dark stools, not blood at all, just very dark in color.

Will you please advise about the probable cause? — Mrs. B.L.

Blood doesn't have to appear as blood in the stool. Bleeding far up in the digestive tract can show up as dark stool.

I suggest you have the stool tested to find out if it is blood or not.

Often, some of the iron medicines, as well as spinach, greens and red meats, will cause a darkened stool without its meaning anything.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: How do you determine if a man is sterile? — J.R.U.

Only one sure way — a microscopic examination of the sperm to determine the quantity and quality of it.

Low blood sugar is often the cause of faintness, headaches, visual and emotional disturbances. To learn how it can be identified and brought under control, write to Dr. Thosteson, in care of this newspaper, for a copy of "Help for Hypoglycemia," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Would you kindly tell me if bands which pull the skin of the face taut while wearing them can actually improve the muscle tone of the face? — Mrs. R.R.

I can't imagine how.

How to get rid of leg cramps and foot pains? The answer may be simple — write to Dr. Thosteson, in care of The Herald for a copy of his booklet, "How to Stop Leg Cramps and Foot Pains." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

"You Can Stop Sinus Trouble!" is the title of Dr. Thosteson's booklet, explaining what sinus trouble really is and what can be done about it. For a copy write to him in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: Over the past 10 years, I have learned more about religion from reading newspapers and watching TV than from church attendance. How do you explain that? — F.W.M.

DEAR F.W.M.: If you are speaking of some of the excellent religious programs on radio and TV, I agree. But if you refer to secular programs about "religion," that is something else. Religion is man reaching out for God. The Christian faith is God reaching out for man. We learn about this through the Scriptures, prayer and Christian fellowship.

Given mankind's natural inclination to appease some deity, it's not surprising that thousands of religions have sprung up. The media can certainly provide you with the latest developments in mythology or philosophy, viewed as sociological phenomena. But it's the church that shares the life-changing Gospel.

Read what the prophet Isaiah said about religious people who fashioned their own gods (Isaiah 2:8). Read also his portrayal of the pathetic impotence of such deities. Chapter 46, verse 7, reports, "If one cries to it, it does not answer, or save him from his trouble" (RSV). Proverbs 14:12 reveals that all man's religious efforts, even if they seem authentic, are doomed to failure. It remained for Christ to show the world the difference between a religion that manipulates life from the outside, and a true faith that transforms life from the inside (John 3).

When you're done merely chronicling man's spiritual quest, go to a Christian church where you'll hear God's spiritual cure.

Rural, city tax tiff

Around the rim

John Edwards

Tax appraisal board members were busy denying the instructions of Richard Fleener, the former tax appraiser, to reclassify undervalued homes. And tax appraisal workers were busy returning these homes to their previous value classifications.

In the midst of controversy over reclassification of Big Springs houses under a 1958 construction schedule, the allegation of discrimination between urban and rural land values seemed forgotten.

THE SUIT filed by the owners of the Permian Building, in which the allegation was made, however, is pending in 118th District Court.

And the contested rural land tax schedule, as presented in the suit, remains about the same.

The tax appraisal office uses three categories for cultivated land and three other classifications for grazing land.

THE 100-PER-CENT or "true market values" used by Howard County and Forsan schools for farms are $70 per acre, $60 and $50.

The values used in appraising farm land in the Big Spring Independent School District are $80, $70 and $60.

The Coahoma I.S.D. taxes on the basis of $65, $52 and $39 for cultivated land and of $23, $19 and $15 for pasture and range land.

Both the Forsan County Line I.S.D. and county government are following the same grazing land schedule of $25, $15 and $10.

The Big Spring school system utilizes $30, $20 and $10 for grazing land.

FOR MOST tracts of one acre or less far from a city, the value of $200 per acre is used, Carlton Harry, senior tax appraiser, said. In some instances, $100 per acre is used in taxing these small tracts in the Coahoma and Forsan school districts, Harry said.

Referring to county and school rural land values, the trust which owns the Permian Building alleged in the first petition:

"That this classification system in no way reflects the true market value of rural lands in Howard County and, in fact, reflects only a small fraction of the rural lands' true value."

FLATO REALTY Investments, a common law trust based in Corpus Christi, wanted the "current plan or scheme of taxation to be declared to be null and void."

County Attorney W. H. (Bill) Eysen Jr. said county officials have negotiated a tentative settlement with Flato but noted this settlement depends on city and school officials being able to compromise with the trust, also.

Records in the city, county and Big Spring school tax offices show Flato paid 1975 taxes based on a 100-per-cent value of $295,760, officials said. But

Computer spies

WASHINGTON — Some of our most sensitive national secrets could be tapped by a few bright computer experts with access to a telephone.

A startling government report, which has been declassified but not released to the public tells how a group of Navy scientists cracked a Univac 1108 computer system using an ordinary telephone. Yet the system was supposed to be "secure."

The 1108 is in widespread use throughout the government. The White House, all the military services and several federal agencies use this system to store sensitive information. Not only top defense secrets but personal details the government gathers about private individuals are contained in 1108 computers.

THE NAVY SCIENTISTS write that they inserted "trap doors" in the system. "At the user's expense, we were able to covertly copy their files. Had we wanted to, we could have destroyed or selectively rewritten them."

What an enemy could do with this access to highly classified information is alarming. It also has grave privacy implications since the files on private citizens would also be compromised.

The scientists who engineered this computer break-in wrote that they believe "penetration of large (operating systems) can be performed at very low cost. However, because there are few well-documented examples of such penetration, there is a false sense of security among system managers, many of whom believe that holes in their systems exist in theory but are, in practice not possible to exploit."

The government now claims to have plugged the holes described in this report. But the scientists claim "that no individual can understand such large and haphazardly constructed systems and the systems are bound to have holes."

The General Accounting Office (GAO), in a private study, found that some government employees have already turned their knowledge of these "holes" to their own profit. The GAO investigated 69 cases of criminal computer fraud, which cost the government more than $2 million in losses.

the 1974 taxes on the Permian Building remain delinquent.

THE TAX appraisal office for local governments has a card prepared by previous appraisers with the figure $253,010 after a series of scratched figures.

The Permian Building, which has 42,000 square feet of floor space, was built in 1953.

Across the street, the Cosden Oil & Chemical Co. building, erected in 1929, is listed for $269,820 in the tax appraisal office. Outside measurements indicate the Cosden office building remains 27,000 square feet of floor space, according to tax appraisal office records.

THE Coahoma Independent School District and City of Coahoma boards of equalization met Tuesday, attracting three landowners who wanted their taxes "clarified," Harry said. No tax values were changed, the appraiser said.

IN FORSAN, the boards of equalization will consider school and city tax value May 27, Harry said. Howard County, Big Spring school and Big Spring city tax appraisals will be considered by boards meeting June 23-25.

In Washington, D. C., I've read they have a saying: "Nothing for nothing." But mayor Wade Choate will be serving on the National Credit Union Board without pay, a Webb Air Force Base Federal Credit Union spokesman said.

Expenses incurred by Choate in attending quarterly and called meetings will be covered, the spokesman said. Choate is general manager of the Webb financial institution.

What others say

The trouble with bigness — in government, labor, business, religion and you-name-it — is that it takes a heavier and heavier framework to support the body as it grows. Ask any biologist.

Paperwork is the skeleton of institutions. When they get too big the paperwork, and its human appendage, the bureaucracy, gets too heavy for the institutions. They spend all their time administering themselves.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture is a case in point. The other day its Secretary, Earl L. Butz, distributed an official order in the form of a memo which said that a previous memo which had declared certain earlier-yet memos obsolete was now itself obsolete. If you follow us . . .

Government to save money, uses private mail

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is telling its agencies to try to save money by sending some mail through private delivery firms instead of through the more expensive U.S. Postal Service.

The General Services Administration made the statement about the government's own mail agency in a bulletin circulated last month to federal agencies.

The bulletin, entitled "Reducing Mail Costs," was released Thursday by Rep. Paul Simon, D-Ill.

One of the 10 recommendations contained in the bulletin was: "Use commercial small-parcel carriers as a cheaper alternative to priority mail and U.S. Postal Service-insured parcels."

United Parcel Service, a Connecticut-based company has surpassed the Postal Service in recent years in the parcel field. Its rates average about 20 per cent below those of the Postal Service.

For example, a two-pound parcel sent from Washington to New York costs 93 cents by the government's parcel post and 75 cents by United Parcel.

A Postal Service spokesman, commenting on the GSA bulletin, said "Government agencies are mandated by law to use the most economical means available to them."

The GSA bulletin said "increases in postage rates have significantly increased mailing costs" in recent years.

Simon, a critic of the Postal Service, said he found the GSA bulletin while looking into the extent of government use of private alternatives to the Postal Service.

"It's another example of how the Postal Service, with its inefficiency and increasing rates, is pricing itself out of the delivery market. There's something seriously wrong when public agencies have to abandon the public mail service in order to save money," he said.

Senate delays B1 production

WASHINGTON (AP) — After voting to delay production of the controversial B1 bomber, the Senate now faces decisions on whether to approve other weapons requested by the Pentagon.

Votes are expected Monday on proposals to deny $322 million for production of 60 additional Minuteman III missiles and to delay building of additional Airborne Warning and Control System aircraft until NATO decides to buy the AWACS for European defense.

Reversing an earlier decision by the House, the Senate Thursday voted 44 to 37 to delay production of the B1 bomber until next Feb. 1, which is 12 days after the next presidential inauguration. Production of the first of a 244-bomber fleet could then proceed only if the president certified that it is in the national interest.

Sen. John Culver, D-Iowa, sponsor of the delaying amendment, said the proposal would allow "the next president" to review completed test data on the B1 and make a judgment "free of election year politics."

The House voted 210-177 on April 8 against a similar proposal to defer spending $860 million in B1 production money until Feb. 1.

The issue now goes to a House-Senate conference and will be subject to final votes in both chambers.

After the Senate vote, Pentagon spokesman William Greener said, "It was a shame that almost one-fifth of the Senate was not present to participate in the vote."

DAV picks officers

The regular meeting of the Disabled American Veterans and its auxiliary was held Monday night at the VFW Hall on Driver Road.

The regular order of business was given, and the highlight of the meeting was election of officers for the next year.

Officers elected were: Commander — C. B. O'Neal; Sr. Vice Commander — Fred Scott; First Jr. Vice Commander — Norman Burkhardt; Second Jr. Vice Commander — Raymond Furguson; Adjutant Treasurer — M. H. Spivey; Public Relations — George Kimble; and Judge Advocate — Harold Rogers.

Other officers included Officer of the Day — Jesse Manuel; Chaplain — George Dreher; Hospital Visitation Chaplain — Jewel Taylor; and Sgt. of Arms — Elbert Meeker.

These officers will be installed at the next meeting, June 21. That meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. at the VFW Post home. A salad supper will be served by the auxiliary at 7 p.m. prior to the meeting of local chapter 47.

Ft. Hood honors Army retirees

FORT HOOD — Fort Hood officials have made arrangements to honor more than 750 Army retirees and dependents on Saturday for the 3rd annual Retiree Open House.

Activities begin at 10 a.m. in Theater 1. The commander of III Corps and Fort Hood, Lieutenant General Robert M. Shoemaker will welcome the visitors to Fort Hood and introduce this year's keynote speaker, Martha McSteen.

Ms. McSteen is the regional commissioner for the Social Security Administration. She is one of ten such regional commissioners within the United States Social Security Commission. The region she serves includes Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, New Mexico and Louisiana.

At 11:30 a.m., events move to the Whittington Community Center, Bldg. 108. Approximately 15 booths will be set up in "County Fair" fashion. Various information will be made available to the retirees in this manner. Representatives from CHAMPUS, legal aid, VA, job opportunities and ID card issuance and renewal, among others, will man the booths.

A bus tour will be offered during the afternoon to point out some of the various points of interest on the reservation. Sites to be pointed out include the new commissary and Post Exchange, Darnall Army Hospital and the new barracks. Stops will be made

Solid Shield participation

Navy Electronics Technician Seaman Apprentice Jack H. Buckley, 20, son of Mrs. Bobbie Buckley of 1406 Stadium Ave., Big Spring, is participating in Operation "Solid Shield '76" aboard the guided missile destroyer USS-William V. Pratt, homeported at Charleston, S.C.

The two-week joint exercise off the North Carolina and Georgia coasts involves 36 ships and more than 50,000 men and women from all branches of the Armed Forces.

The exercise will include air, surface and submarine operations and an amphibious assault. It is designed to test command and control plans and to provide training in the procedures for emergency evacuation of non-combatants from a simulated battle zone.

A 1973 graduate of Putnam City West High School, Oklahoma City, he joined the Navy in September 1973.

CANCELS SHOW — Television personality Johnny Carson, left, canceled his Thursday night "Tonight" show during a taping session in Burbank, Calif. Carson, visibly upset, kicked a malfunctioning audio speaker and canceled the show after actor John Davidson, right, threw his microphone to the floor when it went dead while he was singing. A spokesman for NBC, which produces the show, said they will use a show that had been banked.

Exxon won't tell payoff recipients

BOSTON (AP) — Under questioning by stockholders, the chairman of the board of Exxon Corp. has refused to name three foreign countries where the company admits paying about $755,000 to government officials.

The payments were made from 1963 to 1975. "We're still operating in these countries with people who maybe were parties or recipients," said C.C. Garvin Jr., board chairman, at the annual shareholders' meeting Thursday.

Garvin said an Exxon subsidiary has contributed $25,000 to try to defeat a referendum in the June 8 California election on nuclear power plants.

A coalition of church organizations with holdings in Exxon had sponsored a resolution to force the corporation to make disclosures of all overseas payments.

"The management of this company has stonewalled on this issue... We cannot sit by as stockholders not knowing whether our company was involved in the buying and selling of governments," said Timothy Smith, spokesman for the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility in New York.

Garvin said disclosure of political contributions was not necessary because the firm had taken steps to prevent recurrences. He said Exxon has turned over information about the payments to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Last year the corporation revealed the former managing director of Exxon's Italian operation made $29 million in authorized payments to Italian political campaigns and government officials.

The corporation also admitted last year that its Italian subsidiary contributed $27 million in payments authorized by the company. Corporate campaign contributions are legal in Italy.

Along the Potomac River... close to the Pennsylvania border... and near Washington, D.C., our nation's capital...
It's fun to look at the whole world, and then put your finger on the place where YOU live. It makes you realize how important you are!
During this Bicentennial year we know that EVERYBODY in our nation is important. People can own land and houses and tractors. They can read the truth. They can think for themselves, and say what they think. They can assemble together to celebrate, or plan - or protest.
And they can worship God... in the church they choose... and bring their children... and support their church... and volunteer their talents in its work.
Nobody can padlock God's House - or turn it into a museum!
Here's where I live, THANK GOD! We thank Him best by using ALL our freedoms...

Parole hearing next month

Mass murder companion may be freed

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Caril Fugate, who at 14 accompanied mass murderer Charles Starkweather on a rampage that shocked the nation, gets a chance for parole next month after spending more than half her life in prison.

Miss Fugate, 32, will be considered for parole June 20 by the five-member state Parole Board. Her freedom could come then.

Relatives of some of the victims have fought against Miss Fugate's release, and Parole Board sources say a new identity and residence have been prepared for Miss Fugate in another Midwestern state.

She accompanied Starkweather on a 1958 killing spree that claimed 10 victims. Starkweather, who was executed in 1959, also was implicated in a gas station robbery which left one man dead.

Miss Fugate went to prison

CARIL FUGATE ...willing or not?

in 1959 — she was tried as an adult — and a series of unsuccessful appeals followed. She has never received a disciplinary citation in her years at the York Women's Reformatory, where she has studied to be a geriatrics nurse's aide.

Despite protests from victims' families, Nebraska's Pardon Board — composed of the governor, attorney general and secretary of state — commuted her life sentence in 1973, making her eligible for parole.

The murders started in Miss Fugate's home. Her mother and step-father were shot, her 2-year-old sister clubbed to death. It was right after Miss Fugate's mother told Starkweather she didn't think he was a good influence on her daughter.

Their bodies were found on Monday, Jan. 27, 1958, and the body of a bachelor farmer, August Meyer, was discovered the next afternoon at his farm near Lincoln.

That same day — Tuesday — Starkweather's car became stuck in the mud on a rural road, and Robert Jensen and his girlfriend, Carol King, stopped to give Starkweather and Miss Fugate a ride. Their bodies were found later that day in the storm cellar of an abandoned school house near Lincoln.

It was for Jensen's killing that Miss Fugate was convicted of first-degree murder and sentenced to life in prison.

When the bodies of C.L. Ward, his wife, Clara, and their maid, Lillian Fencel, were found in their Lincoln home on Wednesday, the governor called out the National Guard.

A search of the frightened city failed to turn up Starkweather, who was on his way to Wyoming. He killed a salesman on a rural road there before a citizen and a police officer captured him near the town of Douglas.

After Starkweather was captured, Miss Fugate said Starkweather would have killed her if she had tried to escape.

Capital murder suspects recaptured after escape

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. (AP) — Three prisoners who escaped the Nacogdoches County jail are back there today after only a few hours of freedom.

Highway Patrolman J.R. Allen said the trio was captured near Rockland, a small community 15 miles north of Woodville in Tyler County by sheriff's deputies and Allen. The escapees were in a stolen car, but were not armed and offered no resistance, Allen said.

Captured were Jimmy Lee Page, 22, who had been convicted of capital murder and sentenced to life imprisonment this week.

William Robert Stotts, 19, charged with capital murder in a slaying in southeast Nacogdoches County; and Michael Molandes, 20, charged with capital murder in the killing of a Melrose man.

The three had been the object of an intensive search throughout East Texas after they were found to be missing from their cell Thursday morning about 6 a.m.

Officials theorized the prisoners escaped from their second floor cells through a courtroom and out a back door. Authorities said they did not know how the prisoners opened their cells.

CBS news accused of computer break-in try

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department has opened an investigation into accusations by a computer specialist, once jailed for using a computer to steal supplies, that CBS News asked him to break into the accounting system of a New York City bank electronically.

Atty. Gen. Edward Levi has given approval for FBI agents to interview Jerome Schneider, an electronics specialist who served 40 days in prison for stealing the supplies from the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. in 1972.

A Justice Department spokesman said Thursday that as of now only Schneider is to be interviewed in the investigation.

The spokesman said after an initial look at an affidavit Schneider gave before a House committee, Justice Department lawyers decided "there could be a violation of bank larceny statutes."

Schneider had first gone to the House Ethics Committee, which turned his statements over to the Justice Department.

In New York, Paul Loewenwarter, producer of CBS' "60 Minutes," said Schneider was interviewed on film for two days in Los Angeles for a story on the weaknesses of electronic banking systems.

"In the course of our filming we stayed well within journalistic standards and violated no laws ...," he said. Schneider told the ethics committee that CBS asked him to crack the electronic accounting system of the Chemical Bank of New York City by transferring money from an account held by CBS reporter Dan Rather to another account without the bank's knowledge.

One source familiar with the incident said Schneider tried and failed to make the transfer. Schneider reportedly told the committee that CBS then asked him to befriend a bank employee to obtain information to carry out the operation.

Loewenwarter would not comment on specifics of Schneider's allegations, except to say that he (Schneider) "demonstrated how bank systems can be violated and discussed security precautions they might take to reduce this form of threat."

"We stand by our journalism," he said.

Schneider earns his living as a consultant on the weaknesses of computer systems. A movie about him reportedly is planned by Paramount pictures.

It was not clear why Schneider initially turned to the ethics committee, which was established to investigate allegations of wrongdoing by members of Congress.

Two Big Spring students win 'Gas Can Award'

ODESSA — In an informal ceremony immediately following commencement exercises at The University of Texas at the Permian Basin May 15, two Big Spring students were presented the "Gas Can Award" for the longest drive to receive a degree.

Kip Massey and Sara Tipton had driven approximately 20,000 miles each from Big Spring to Odessa in round trips in earning their degrees.

Seven other graduates were given awards by the Life Science Faculty at the ceremonies.

Pablo Briones of Kermit was presented a book for his work in establishing the UT Permian Basin Herbarium.

Mike Calmes of Odessa and Stella Loftis of Midland were each presented a book for outstanding student in the Class of 1976 and having achieved the highest grade point average in the Life Science discipline.

Helen Reyes of San Antonio was given a certificate as the Life Science major in elementary education with her service and GPA.

Joel Ross of Quail and Viki Yates of Monahans were recognized for their service and GPA with a certificate.

Arlene Ritter of Midland was honored with the Pika Award given annually for field biology.

Faculty presenting the awards were Dr. E. B. Kurtz, professor and chairman; Dr. Charles McKinney, assistant professor; Dr. Stanley Hillyard, assistant professor; and Dr. Charlene Wisdom, assistant professor.

Luncheon meeting closes club year

The After Five Garden Club met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. John Hughes, Center Point Road. Mrs. Fannie Clark served as hostess.

The group held a covered dish supper with members bringing their favorite dishes.

Mrs. Charles Porch opened the business meeting. The members heard reports on Cottonwood Arbor. A letter was received from the Jaycees asking for support with the July 4 picnic at the Comanche Trail Park.

Mrs. Rex Greenwood reported that cookies had been delivered to the Big Spring State Hospital. The club will take cookies again in October.

Mrs. John Knox, Big Spring Garden Club, installed officers for the 1976-77 year.

Elected to serve were Mrs. Henry Dirks, president; Mrs. Rex Greenwood, vice president; Mrs. John Hughes, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Sheedy, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Dee Thomas, treasurer.

Two guests, Mrs. Nema Welch and Mrs. Catherine Maier, attended the meeting.

The group presented Mrs. Knox a gift in appreciation of her support of the club.

The group will meet again on Sept. 21.

Dear Abby

Reader suggests window building in nursing homes

DEAR ABBY: I just returned from having visited an elderly friend in a nursing home, and it was so depressing to see all those old people sitting in their rooms just staring at the bare walls I could have cried.

The windows are so high they couldn't look out unless they stood up, and most old people cannot stand for very long—if they can stand at all.

Abby, why can't they build the windows in those homes low enough for people to look out of while sitting in their chairs? To see the leaves turn colors, the flowers blooming, the seasons changing, the people and automobiles pass, or even an occasional bird or squirrel would mean so much to them. It couldn't help but reduce their feeling of isolation and loneliness.

I hope you care enough to print this.

SOMEONE WHO CARES

DEAR SOMEONE: I care, too. Thank you for a wonderful letter.

DEAR ABBY: About the "NERVOUS WRECK" whose husband taught their 15-year-old son to mistreat his mother: The poor woman said, "Our preacher is very young and says he's had no training in marriage counseling, so he can't help me. Besides, he won't even talk to people who do not tithe, and my husband is one of them."

First, what kind of lily-livered nincompoop can that preacher be? Ask him how he would have dealt with the Samaritan woman at the well of Sychar (John 4, N.T.)! The Savior this pastor claims to serve broke Jewish tradition by daring even to speak to the woman; I wonder if she "tithed"?

I further wonder at the attitude this hypocrite would take toward the woman taken in adultery (John 8:1-11) or the widow who cast a mite into the treasury of the temple (Mark 12:41-44)? That smart aleck needs to be "shepherding" a flock like I need a hole in my head, and you can see from this letterhead that I am a preacher.

Let's call a spade a spade. That hypocrite pastor should be brought to his knees.

Thanks, kid!

Les Girls discuss stocks

Members of the Les Girls Investment Club met in the Veterans Administration Hospital conference room Monday evening to consider stocks to purchase.

Members reported on various companies. Ms. Luene Robinson reported on Gulf and Western; Ms. Ruth Bennett reported on Great Lakes Chemical; and Ms. Mary Joy Cowper reported on El Paso Natural Gas, Forest Oil and Tenneco. The members voted to buy 20 shares of Gulf and Western Company.

Stocks suggested for study next month were Warnaco, GATX, and Levi Strauss Company.

The names of three prospective members were submitted for the membership waiting list.

The stocks study committee will meet at 7:30 p.m., June 10 in the VA conference room to analyze the growth potential of these stocks. Results of the committee meeting will be discussed at the next regular meeting, June 21, in the VA conference room.

Garden club officers take office

Recently elected officers of the Rosebud "How to Grow" Garden Club took office at the club's meeting Tuesday.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Guilford Jones, 1709 Harvard.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. James Johnston, president; Mrs. Stanley Lewis, vice president; Mrs. Guilford Jones, secretary; Mrs. Billy King, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert Simica, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Albert Hohertz was guest speaker at the meeting. She gave a lecture and demonstration on flower arranging.

Mrs. Odell Womack gave a speech concerning the upcoming youth day in the city park. She urged support from area youngsters in the day-long clean-up campaign. She also made an appeal for plants at the West Side Center.

Other guests at the meeting were Mrs. Robert Wheeler and Mrs. Guilford L. Jones III.

Marcy PTA installs officers, plans end-of-year events

The general membership meeting of the Marcy PTA was conducted Tuesday in the school cafeteria.

Colors were presented and the pledge led by the safety patrol, under the direction of E. C. Roberson Jr.

Gordon Jackson gave the invocation. Ted Chumley presented a film entitled "Hello Up There."

Bill Radcliffe reported that a bid of $1,670 was received for sidewalk construction. The school board will pay $800 of the expense and the Marcy PTA will pay the balance.

The remainder of funds will go for audio-visual equipment.

Jackson presented Mrs.

Daughter born to Campbells

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richard Campbell, 900 Park Avenue No. 3, West Mifflin, Pa., announce the birth of a daughter, Susanna Freyvogel Campbell.

The infant was born at 8:47 p.m., May 12. She weighed 8 pounds, 5 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas James McTigue Freyvogel, Pittsburgh, Pa. are the maternal grandparents. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Winfred R. Campbell, Big Spring.

Mrs. Rountree summarizes book for AAUW members

Mrs. Clarice Rountree gave excerpts from her book, "Shadows of the Unseen" during the May potluck supper meeting of the American Association of University Women.

Mrs. Rountree is a sophomore English teacher at Big Spring High School. She told of interesting superstitions and strange mystical occurrences in West Texas.

Members and guests met at the First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Sue Simonic and Mrs. Megan Legas were cohostesses.

Students to perform in recital

The piano students of Mrs. Ann Gibson House and her assistant, Mrs. Brenda Harland Bedell, will perform in a recital Sunday in the Howard College auditorium.

Younger students will begin the recital at 2:30 p.m. Performing will be Tessa Underwood, Kay Pollard, Tyme Kay Brooks, Susan Farquhar, Carol Davey, Vicky Baggett and Teresa White.

Also playing in the first part of the concert will be Dawn Underwood, Clark Johnson, Louise Shive, Peggy Cook, Wylene Pots, Linda Daniel, Scott Moore, Elise Wheat and Dawn Estes.

Older students will continue the recital at 4 p.m. Playing in this portion will be Sandra Rogers, Jerri Davey, Kathy Huskey, Suzanne Shive, Jaylene Saunders, Beth Boeker, Beverly Nichols, Cassandra Green, Shauna Henry and Larry Wheat.

Also playing will be Michelle Coffee, Laurie Bethel, Debra Baker, Lynette Coffee, Annabeth Deats, Mrs. Brenda Thomas McQueen and Mrs. Bedell.

Miss Fellows is honored

Miss Denita Fellows, bride-elect of Roger Kionka, was honored Tuesday with a display gift shower at the Big Spring Country Club.

Parents of the couple are M. Sgt. and Mrs. Darrell Fellows, and Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kionka. The honoree and mothers were presented with corsages.

A white embroidered cloth covered the serving table. An arrangement composed of yellow and white spider mums and irises decorated the table's center.

Miss Cindy Carlile registered guests.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Julian Patterson, Mrs. John Knoepfel, Mrs. Earl Ezzell, Mrs. Russell Dorsey, Mrs. Adolph Swartz and Mrs. H. C. Ernsting.

Others were Mrs. Roscoe Cowper, Mrs. Marvin Miller, Mrs. C. R. Wiley, Mrs. Joe Bond, Mrs. R. W. Thompson, Mrs. Wayne Bartlett, Mrs. Jack Powell and Mrs. A. G. Edmonson.

The couple will be married June 12 in St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Pioneer asks panel for scrutiny

AMARILLO — Pioneer Natural Gas Company, a Division of Pioneer Corporation, today submitted an application to the Railroad Commission of Texas, requesting the commission to review Pioneer's cost of gas for its West Texas system and to "verify the correctness of its current cost of gas and the methods, techniques, policies and practices employed by Pioneer in obtaining a gas supply."

In announcing the action, K. B. Watson, Pioneer president said, "The present highly competitive conditions involved in the purchase of gas supply have created a sensitivity in the rising cost of gas."

He noted that there have been requests from customers and others for general public hearings on the matter.

Watson pointed out that the cities on the West Texas system have been notified that the cost of gas for April was down from the previous month. In March, the cost of gas was 95.02 cents and the April cost was 93.52 cents at delivery pressure. This amounts to a saving of one and one-half cents per MCF for all customers.

He went on to say, "We have taken this voluntary action because Pioneer feels that its customers are entitled to have the Railroad Commission and other participants at a public hearing scrutinize its gas supply, contracts for new gas and renegotiated contracts for old gas, and to view the methods which Pioneer has employed in maintaining its gas supply at the lowest reasonable cost."

Pioneer intends to file with the commission in advance of the public hearing, copies of its gas purchase contracts which will be representative of the purchase contracts for each source of its gas supply on its West Texas system and at the public hearing. Pioneer will present detailed testimony on each of the contracts and on the methods, techniques, policies and practices in obtaining gas.

The petition to the Railroad Commission asks that all of these gas acquisition activities be reviewed for the purpose of: (1) establishing the correct amount of Pioneer's current cost of gas at the time of the review; (2) commenting on and determining the appropriateness of the manner, policies, practices, procedures, methods and techniques which Pioneer has employed in and should employ in maintaining its gas supply."

Watson concluded his announcement by saying, "Notification will be given in advance of this meeting and interested parties will be welcome to participate in the hearings."

Psychiatric report due on boat sniper suspect

HOUSTON (AP) — A psychiatrist says a report on his examination of Fulton Lee Schmidt, charged with murder in the deaths of a German couple at Freeport, will be available to the court sometime next week.

Justice of the Peace A.L. Lee of Angleton ordered the examination to determine whether Schmidt is competent to stand trial on the murder charges.

Schmidt, 31, was examined by Houston Psychiatrist Dr. John Nottingham Thursday at Baylor College of Medicine here.

Schmidt is charged with shooting to death last Friday Willi Graeber, 47, and his wife, Gerta, 46, a German couple who had been touring the world on their sailboat and were docked at Freeport.

The Graebers' bodies were found aboard their boat a few hours after Schmidt was arrested in downtown Freeport.

The bodies of the couple will be cremated and the ashes shipped to Bremerhaven, Germany where authorities located a brother of Mrs. Graeber.

Watson new vice-president of Texas Electric Service Co.

FORT WORTH — E. L. Watson was named vice president of Texas Electric Service Company Thursday at a meeting of the company's board of directors here.

Watson has been with TESCO since 1952 following his graduation from Iowa Park, Texas, high school. He started with the company in the Wichita Falls distribution department working part-time while attending the University of Texas at Arlington. He received an associate in science degree in 1955 and continued with the company on a full-time basis.

Watson was chief distribution dispatcher when he transferred to the company's customer service department in Midland in 1960. In 1964 he was named manager at Andrews, and two years later he became Odessa manager.

In 1972 Watson was

promoted to division manager in Wichita Falls, and in March 1976 he was transferred to the company's executive department in Fort Worth as assistant to the president.

Watson was active in civic and community affairs in Wichita Falls. He was a director of the Wichita Falls

Board of Commerce and Industry, the Wichita Falls Symphony, and the Wichita Falls YMCA. He was campaign chairman for United Way in 1975.

Watson was a member of the Floral Heights Methodist Church in Wichita Falls.

Watson and his wife, the former Martha Lambert of Iowa Park, have three children, Mrs. J. L. (Laura) Raleigh of Abilene; Karan, a junior electrical engineering student at Texas Tech; and Jeff, in the seventh grade.

Killer disease

NEW YORK (AP) — The Institute of Life Insurance says heart and blood vessel diseases cause more than a million deaths a year in the United States.

It says a quarter of those deaths occurred among persons under 65.

TESCO chief named to atomic board

W. G. Marquardt, president of Texas Electric Service Co., was elected a vice president of the Texas Atomic Energy Research Foundation at a meeting of the directors in Austin Tuesday.

H. R. Drew, TESCO research director, was re-named executive vice president and secretary.

The foundation, composed of Texas Electric and nine other investor-owned electric companies in Texas, is supporting research in nuclear fusion at the University of Texas at Austin as a possible future source of energy for producing electricity.

Foundation support of nuclear fusion research at the university began in 1963. A major milestone was passed in 1974 by researchers in the UT Fusion Research Center when they were able to heat a plasma briefly to temperatures of 200 million degrees in a device called the Texas Tokamak.

However, the researchers say that much more work is needed to increase the ability to confine the superheated plasmas before the scientific feasibility of fusion power can be proved.

Even if a major breakthrough occurred tomorrow, it would take decades of engineering before fusion could be used to produce electricity on a larger scale than simple demonstration plants.

Free wood

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Taking advantage of a free wood offer by the Jackson County Park Department, hundreds of people turned lumberjacks recently and helped themselves to pine, oak, maple, elm, walnut and other varieties of trees on the county's property.

The department had decided to let area residents chop trees on a part of the land where a 560-acre lake is going to be constructed in the early 1980s.

Gas opener reported in Glasscock county

A gas opener was reported in Glasscock County and potential was scheduled at a Scurry re-opener.

J. C. Williamson & D. W. Underwood, Midland, announced a calculated, absolute open flow at 8.5 million cubic feet of dry gas daily for their No. 3 Clark, 1/2 mile south and east of the proposed three-well Apple Creek (Fusselman oil) field of Sterling County, 1 1/2 miles southwest of the two-well Fusselman oil area of the Garden City multiphase field and seven miles east of Garden City.

PRODUCTION WAS through perforations at 9,665-690 feet which had been acidized with 5,000 gallons.

Drilled to 9,703 feet, it recovered 651 feet of 38.2 gravity oil, along with 30 feet of drilling fluid on a drill-stem test at 7,645-720 feet.

Location is 660 feet from the south and 1,980 feet from the west lines of 7-32-45-T&P.

The project will be a gas pay opener unless the Texas Railroad Commission determines the project should be classified as an oil producer as were all the wells in the proposed Apple Creek field.

TEXAS LAND and Mortgage, Inc., Midland, No. 1 West, in 445-97-H&TC, prospective 7065 re-opener one location east of the depleted 7065 opener in the Cogdell Southeast (6800) field of Scurry County, 12 miles north of Snyder, pumped 12 hours, making 46.92 barrels of oil.

Recovery was from open hole at 7,012-25 feet. Operator was still preparing to take potential.

The 7065 opener, Laria Oil and Gas Co. No. 1 West, was finalized July 1, 1966 to pump 50 barrels of 41.8 gravity oil, plus 60 barrels of water, with gas-oil ratio 376-1 through a casing notch at 7,064 feet.

Ridin' fence

About short subjects ...

with Marj Carpenter

Those of you who are old enough to remember Tom Mix and Hopalong Cassidy picture shows will remember that going to the movies used to be an afternoon experience.

There was the main feature and there were the short subjects. No Saturday afternoon at the movies was complete without the newsreel, the comedy, the advertisements, possibly a travelogue and the serial. Those serials are what kept us coming back.

Out ridin' fence, I've run across several items that do not merit a full column, but they were items I thought the reader would enjoy. So today is short subjects day and from time to time, I'll include this type of comment.

Take Charles McKaskle, out near Lenora. He didn't seem to want to say too much about his newest hobby. He makes items out of copper and brass. This art is becoming increasingly popular. There's a former Cosden employe spends a lot of time with this type of craft.

McKaskle said, "I saw some items I wanted to buy and couldn't afford them, so I just started making them." He had a sheath of leaves of a combination of copper and brass that was in the natural colors "from out of the fire." He's a farmer who likes to dabble in art — and he's good.

Another person who's interesting is Col. Robert A. Owens. I'm sure that military people are not supposed to be interesting. They're supposed to be military. However, Bob and Carvel prove this to be false. He is typical Southwest — raised out around Hobbs and Roswell.

Carvel is native Washington D.C. Very rarely does anybody ever see somebody who's a native of the nation's capitol. They have adjusted so well to Big Spring and Big Spring loves them for it.

They've been out to see their new California home. Military are trained not to comment. And their only comment has been "I think somebody is going to have to pipe us fresh air — it's so polluted."

I was looking through some of the papers over the weekend and came to the sports section. My, oh my, what we expect of our coaches and athletes. Here we sit, the smallest school in 5-AAAA and we groan and moan en masse about our lack of success.

The baseballers just gave us a thrilling season climaxed with the selection of four fine youths for the All-District team. If you looked closely on the same page, it mentioned that Abilene High won state in track and that an Abilene Cooper youth won state in tennis and that Permian, in addition to their success in football, won state in golf. Look, man, we're out here in the wilderness competing with the very best. I think Big Spring athletes are fantastic.

One of the school board members last week expressed a concern that our sports not compete with each other, and that every boy who can, might share in more than one sport. However, he was also concerned that the youth who selects to compete in only one sport — whatever that sport might be — would be allowed his decision with dignity and respect.

While I'm thinking about it, some nice lady told me about a woman who had a very interesting father in Colorado City. I evidently copied the name down wrong, because I cannot find a phone number for the name. Since this is the very first mistake I've ever made (today, anyway) I would appreciate it if you would call me back.

Another success that has had no comment was the recent Howard College production of "They'd Hang You in Dallas." It's been a long time since I've seen such a funny play and it was expertly done.

The play is contemporary and if you haven't been paying attention to today's generation, it would be a shocker. But Kenneth Sprinkle, Cindy McDonald, Steve Corson, Kenneth Baker, John Tauras, John Gordon, Mark Sheedy, Kay Barnett, Tish Tyler, and Jim Wiley Jr. performed with a great deal of skill and should be commended.

They all did great, but I hope you will forgive me if I give a little extra bouquet to John Gordon who played to the hilt the attitude of our generation in the role of the irritated landlord. I notice he was also the director, assisted by the lovely Kathi Spannaus.

And one last short subject, and this one is funny. I got to attend the Heritage Museum Chuckwagon Supper. I love that bunch of people who are concerned with preserving the heritage of Big Spring. Special hats off to Bill Read, president, and Geri Atwell, curator, along with Frances Wheat, chairman of the event.

But they weren't the ones with the humor. I got my laugh of the evening over Jerry Foresyth, parks director, who came in and insisted to his group that they sit at a particular table.

Before the evening was over, we discovered at the next table that as parks director, he knew the building was undergoing remodeling. And he knew that it might rain that night. He also knew that if it rained, the roof was going to leak at that table. So he sat where the rain would fall on him. It didn't rain. Seems a shame, with all those precautions.

Jury says Tarrant County

clerk not fit for office

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A civil district court jury declared Thursday that Tarrant County Clerk Ed Loftin is a habitual drunk and is not competent to run his office.

He will be removed from his job, at least temporarily, early next week.

Dist. Judge Charles Murray said he expects to enter a judgment in the case Monday.

If Loftin appeals the decision, the judge said he will appoint someone to serve as county clerk until the appeal is decided.

Loftin does not appeal, Murray said, the appointment of a replacement will be the responsibility of county commissioners.

The trial in 17th District Court took four days. A jury of nine men and three women deliberated for two hours on two questions — whether Loftin is a habitual drunk and whether he is competent to fulfill his duties.

Their decisions were unanimous. In such a civil case a 10-2 vote would have been sufficient.

Loftin told newsmen he was "rather disappointed" at the outcome.

Asked if he planned to be at work today, he replied, "Certainly."

Loftin referred other questions to Ronald Aultman, one of his lawyers.

"We're going to have a conference in my office now, and we should know about an appeal tomorrow," Aultman said.

Three alcohol-related arrests of Loftin prompted County Judge Mike Moncrief and County Commissioner Jerry Mebus to file the removal suit.

During the trial, Asst. Dist. Atty. Gerald Summerford, Cue Lipscomb and Kerry Armstrong called four Fort Worth policemen involved in the arrests Oct. 4, 1975; Dec. 24, 1975; and Jan. 17, 1976.

Loftin pleaded guilty to drunk driving charges stemming from the October incident. He was fined and sentenced to a 30-day jail term, which then was probated for six months.

YAZ TIES HOMER MARK — Carl Yastrzemski of the Red Sox, an ice pack on his right thigh, relaxes in dressing room in New York's Yankee Stadium Thursday night after he hit a pair of two-run homers against the New York Yankees. Yastrzemski, who hit three home runs Wednesday, tied an American League record with the five home runs in two games. Red Sox won the game, 8-2.

Carl Yastrzemski had his hands up, but he did his hitting with a bat and left the punching to others.

After a bench-clearing sixth-inning brawl that featured Boston's Carlton Fisk and Bill Lee against New York's Lou Piniella and Craig Nettles, Yastrzemski went to work. He slammed a tie-breaking two-run homer in the eighth inning and another two-run shot in the ninth as the Red Sox waltzed to an 8-2 victory over the Yankees Thursday night.

Coupled with the three home runs Yaz walloped against Detroit one night earlier, it gave him a major league record-tying five in two games. It was the first such feat in the American League since New York's Tony Lazzeri did it 40 years ago.

According to Yastrzemski, it also woke the Red Sox up.

"Until the fight, Ed Figueroa was mowing us down and we were very complacent," he said. "But there was a tremendous will to win from the seventh inning on. It was the first time since the World Series I've seen the pulling together attitude that we had last year."

Rick Burleson started Boston's late inning barrage with a two-run homer in the seventh inning. Yastrzemski connected in the eighth and then capped a four-run burst in the ninth with his record-matching blow.

Baseliner Piniella and catcher Fisk battled to a draw after a collision at the plate, although Piniella suffered an injury to his right ring finger and went for X rays. Nettles, however, emerged with a clear decision over Lee and the Red Sox lefthander suffered a serious injury to his pitching shoulder that will sideline him indefinitely.

Royals 8, A's 4

Triples by Fred Patek and George Brett keyed a five-run seventh inning as Kansas City whipped Oakland and plunged the A's seven games behind the Royals in the American League West.

The A's took a 4-2 lead in the top of the seventh on Don Baylor's second solo home run of the game and Phil Garner's RBI double. The Royals then batted around.

White Sox 3, Twins 2

Rich Coggins, Chet Lemon and Jack Brohamer each drove in a run and Rich Gossage scattered seven hits to lead the White Sox over the Twins. Lemon, who also scored a run and stole two bases, put the White Sox ahead to stay when he broke a 1-1 tie in the second inning by singling with two outs after Brian Downing doubled.

HOUSTON (AP) — right time." Winnipeg emerged from an 18-day hibernation Thursday night to beat Houston in the first game of their World Hockey Association championship series but the Jets' Anders Hedberg say the game could have gone either way.

"They could have scored the winning goal just as easy as we could," said Hedberg, who scored two goals in the Jets' pulsating 4-3 victory over the defending WHA World Cup champions.

"It was a good close hockey game. We just managed to score at the Hedberg meant that the Jets' Bobby Hull scored at the right time.

The Aeros had surged back to tie the game at 3-3 at 46 seconds of the final period and the game appeared headed for overtime when Hull took the puck after a faceoff in the Aeros' end and blasted home the clincher at 16:43.

The victory gives the Jets a 1-0 lead in the best-of-seven series with the second game scheduled here Sunday. Games Three and Four will be in Winnipeg Tuesday and Thursday.

Seaver too pacifying From a hawk to a dove

By The Associated Press
Hey, Tom Seaver, where's that Cy Young-winning form?
"I'm just not being aggressive enough," says the righthander.
Seaver's lack of aggression is making pacifists out of the New York Mets. The high-salaried righthander has lost three straight games, including Thursday's 5-3 decision to the Philadelphia Phillies.
Since Seaver has turned from hawk to dove, the Mets have been tailing off — losing seven of their last nine decisions.
The Phillies even teed off on Seaver's best pitches. Mike Schmidt hit a strong Seaver curve ball over the fence.
"It was a good curve ball, down and away," said a disconsolate Seaver, now 4-3.
At one point, the three-time Cy Young winner looked so unlike himself that Manager Joe Frazier walked out to the mound and asked him, "Are you sick?" Seaver replied, "No." To which Frazier replied, "Well, the ball's not getting up to the plate fast enough."

The Phillies jumped on Seaver for four runs in the first inning, two on Greg Luzinski's double, and held on to beat New York behind Jim Lonborg and Tug McGraw. Dave Kingman of the Mets also belted a home run, his 15th of the season, to keep abreast of Schmidt in the home run race.
The unbeaten Lonborg scattered nine hits in 6 2-3 innings to pick up his sixth victory of the season. McGraw, the onetime ace of the Mets' relief corps, pitched one-hit, threestrikeout ball for the final 2-3 innings to get his fourth save of the season.
Cardinals 4, Pirates 1
Mike Tyson's two-run single capped a four-run first inning and sent St. Louis over Pittsburgh. Righthander John Denny, 2-2, scattered 11 Pittsburgh hits — nine singles and two doubles — in registering his first complete game of the season.
Giants 6, Reds 5
Gary Matthews' sacrifice fly in the eighth inning scored rookie Larry Herndon, giving San Francisco its victory over Cincinnati and ending the Giants' four-game losing streak. The Giants, who had lost 19 of their last 23 games, collected 17 hits, but only one was for extra bases — a double by Willie Montanez which did not figure in the scoring.

Expos 3, Cubs 0
Andre Thornton, playing his first game with Montreal after being acquired from Chicago, drilled a two-run homer to spark the Expos over the Cubs. Thornton came to Montreal Monday in exchange for pitcher Steve Renko and outfielder Larry Bittner. Thornton was a first baseman for Chicago, but played right field for the first time since the 1973 season when he was with Richmond of the International League.
Dodgers 3, Braves 2
Steve Garvey lined a single to left with two out in the bottom of the ninth inning, scoring Bill Buckner from second base and giving Los Angeles its victory over Atlanta. The Dodgers' third straight triumph and eighth in their last 10 games moved them 1 1/2 games ahead of Cincinnati in the National League West.

Gold vs. Black . . . er White in Steer spring scrimmage

By FRED BREWER
The Big Spring Steers will conclude their spring practice with a scrimmage game between the offensive team and the defensive team Saturday night at Memorial Stadium, kickoff 7:30.
Normally the game is billed as the Black versus the Gold, but Coach Don Robbins informs that the black jerseys are so bedraggled it will be the White (offense) versus the Gold (defense). The game will be sponsored by the Big Spring Quarterback Club. Proceeds from the $1 donations will help defray the cost of the QB Club's banquets and other functions.
The Steers have 20 lettermen returning, 15 of whom were full or part-time regulars. The returning lettermen are: (name,

Bonds gets to ex-mate Perry
ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — A couple of "firsts" by the California Angels continued the Texas Rangers' slide away from first place in the American League West Thursday night.
Righthander Gary Ross picked up his first American League triumph and Bobby Bonds had his first successful night against former teammate Gaylord Perry as the Angels handed the Rangers their fourth straight loss, 6-3. Going into this week, Texas led Kansas City by three games but five consecutive triumphs by the Royals dropped the Rangers to 1 1/2 games out of first place.
Ross allowed only six hits in seven innings of pitching before being relieved in the eighth frame by Jim Brewer, who finished the game to pick up his second save. Ross is now 1-5 this season after going 0-1 in a short stint with the Angels last year. He had an eight-year National League career as a reliever.
"It was torture, especially since I had been pitching well," said Ross of his long Before joining the Angels, Ross appeared in 234 National League games with Chicago and San Diego, but only 15 as a starter.

"They just put me in the bullpen over there, but when I was traded to the Angels they immediately made me a starter," he said.

Andretti will challenge Rutherford's pole speed

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Mario Andretti is expected to challenge Johnny Rutherford's pole position-winning speed of 188.957 miles an hour when the final weekend of qualification for the May 30 Indianapolis 500 begins Saturday morning.
Janet Guthrie, meanwhile, seemed almost in need of a miracle to get her speed up within reasonable striking distance for a spot in the 33-car lineup.
Andretti, with a reputation as an outstanding qualifier, has already topped 188 m.p.h. in practice in his McLaren and has consistently been the fastest of the two dozen or so cars still hoping to fight their way into the lineup in trials Saturday and Sunday.
"It's fun to run for the pole and have the fastest car," Andretti said after turning in the quickest practice run Thursday. "But I had a commitment to Formula 1 last weekend, so I'm just going to have to be satisfied with getting in the field and doing well in the race."
"If this was the first weekend of qualifying, I would really hang it out and go for the pole. But now it doesn't mean anything, except maybe to your pride. We'll just have to see what happens. I'll do what is comfortable, without taking unnecessary chances — with myself or the equipment."
Andretti said the extra week of practice, which he might not have gotten if he had qualified the first weekend, has resulted in some discoveries that may help build even more speed.

"I feel like I'll be able to race real hard in the race itself," Andretti added. "I'm really looking forward to it."
Andretti set the pace Thursday with a top speed of 185.529 m.p.h., which he said was not a "flat out" lap.
Miss Guthrie managed only 168.004 m.p.h. and had various minor problems, including a tow-in once when she stopped on the course. Teammate Dick Simon hit 173.210 m.p.h. in a test of the car — still well below what observers predict will be needed.
Only 10 spots remain and, so far, Miss Guthrie is not among the 10 fastest cars yet to qualify. The slowest driver already in the field is Jim McElreath at 179.122 m.p.h.
Unqualified cars which have turned in speeds at better than McElreath's speed already in practice include those driven by Andretti, Salt Walther, George Snider, Steve Krisloff, Jerry Grant, Al Loquasto and David Hobbs.
Expected to make his first appearance on the track today was Lloyd Ruby, another driver likely to exceed 180 m.p.h. in qualifying.
The fastest 33 qualifiers will start the 60th annual running of the world's most prestigious auto race May 30.

Hog verdict helps Bears, hurts Texas

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Ed Renfrow made a dramatic decision concerning star miler Niall O'Shaughnessy Thursday which should help the challenging Baylor Bears in the 61st Southwest Conference track and field meet beginning Friday.
Renfrow announced that O'Shaughnessy of Adare, Ireland, would participate only in the mile run and forego the 880-yard distance. He will be a member of the Irish Olympic team at Montreal.
Texas Coach Cleburne Price said that if O'Shaughnessy didn't run in the 880 it would make Texas' chances of defending its SWC title much more difficult. "O'Shaughnessy would have cut into Baylor's point totals in the event in which the Bears are very strong and this would help them without a doubt," said Price.
Renfrow also announced Randy Melancon would only participate in the three mile and forego the mile run, an event in which he is one of the best in the conference.
Running preliminaries were set Friday afternoon after finals in the shot put and javelin.
Meanwhile, coaches and athletic directors met at Baylor Stadium to discuss SWC business.

Faculty representatives join the group Friday and reports on at least three investigations for rule violations may be on the agenda.
The investigations include a check of Arkansas' recruitment of former Dallas South Oak Cliff Roderic Gerald, who signed a SWC letter with Arkansas but later went to Ohio State.
Also under scrutiny will be charges by Texas A&M basketball players Karl Godine and Jarvis Williams that Texas, Baylor and Houston made illegal offers.
Texas A&M lost the services of the two freshmen for the 1977 season for recruiting violations.
Also a committee was expected to report on probe on the University of Texas' off season employment program from athletes. It was reported that a number of Longhorn athletes received pay from the State of Texas for work they did not do.
Cliff Speegle, the executive secretary of the SWC, was tightlipped Thursday about just what the conference had under the microscope.
"Everything printed has been pure speculation," said Speegle.
Speegle did say that the SWC's use of the polygraph as an investigating arm "will come under scrutiny."

room and stole his money-clip, all his cash and his credit cards.
"I wouldn't have given two cents for my chances of shooting a decent round," Pearce said.
The group at 68, four under par and three off Marti's pace, included Gibby Gilbert, Howard Twitty, Gary Wintz, Grier Jones, Bill Rogers and Carlton White.
Lee Trevino, twice a Memphis champion and winner of last week's Colonial National Invitation, Masters champion Ray Floyd and British Open king Tom Watson were at 70. Defending title-holder Gene Littler and Gary Player shot 71s. Four-time Memphis champion Dave Hill struggled to a 74.
All their troubles paled beside the problems encountered by part-time tourist Eddie Thomas. He hit three shots out of bounds, got his next in a lake and eventually scored a horrendous 13 — the highest score of the year on the tour — on the 13th hole. He finished with a round of 81.

Watson pelts poor Padres

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Bob Watson is making a career out of hitting in San Diego and the San Diego Padres are making a habit of staging rallies that fall just short.
Watson collected three hits, including a home run Thursday as the Houston Astros edged the Padres 5-4 to sweep their two-game series at San Diego Stadium.
Knuckleball pitcher Joe Niekro allowed just three hits in six innings before being knocked out of the game in a sixth-inning collision with outfielder Willie Davis.
Thursday's game left Watson 5-for-9 against San Diego pitching, with two homers in as many days. In 10 years, he has compiled a healthy .370 average against the Padres, with 15 homers and 63 runs batted in. Watson says it's the environment.
"I just love to hit in this park," he says. "The background is good. You can see the ball well."
Niekro, an ex- Padre hurler, was knocked senseless for a bit while trying to cover the plate against Davis, who crashed into him and scored on a passed ball.
Catcher Skip Jutze picked up the ball Niekro dropped and threw to second in time to nail ex-Astro third baseman Doug Rader. But Niekro was through for the day.
"Did the umpire call (Davis) out before I dropped the ball?" he asked later. "I don't even remember Jutze throwing it."
Reliever Ken Forsch came in to save the victory for Niekro, now 2-5.

Houston shelled four Padre pitchers for a total of 12 hits, but San Diego was never really out of it, thanks to a towering ninth-inning home run by outfielder Dave Winfield. But it wasn't enough and Padre manager John McNamara was unhappy.
"We've had to try to come from behind too often lately," he said.
Rookie righthander Dave Wehrmeister suffered his fourth straight loss and was optioned to Hawaii right after the game, as was Padre reliever Mike Dupree. They were replaced on the roster by righthanders Dave Freisenben and Ken Reynolds.
Today, San Diego hosts the Cincinnati Reds, with Padre ace Randy Jones, 7-2, facing fellow righthander Gary Nolan, 3-2.

Little League—Lions rack Rangers

In National Little League action, Terry Spears of the Lions ripped two triples through the Ranger defense to lead the Lions to a 13-7 victory.
Other leaders in the Lions seven-hit attack were Kevin Asher and Bingo Martin with two hits apiece including a double in each case. Danny Gupman registered the win by upping his record to 2-0 and the Lions record to 4-2.
Dominquez (2-1) was charged with the loss — the first of the year for the Rangers (4-1). Pete Valenzuela blasted two triples and Dominquez rapped out a three-bagger.
Bryon Kelly of the Lions did an outstanding job in relief. He was backed up by good defensive play by Dean McKenzie and Martin. Eggleston and Perea were standouts on defense for the Rangers.

Survives 13 years without win Mystery man leads

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — "I think it's a lot tougher to make a living, year after year, out here than in a golf tournament," said old pro Fred Marti.
"There's a lot of guys who've won tournaments that couldn't make it. They aren't on the tour any more. The tough thing is to keep on making a living."
And Marti, who has precipitated one of the tour's great mysteries, has made a living for 13 long seasons on the pro tour. He's yet to win. And therein lies the mystery.
Ask any veteran and he'll tell you it's a complete mystery how Marti could play as well as he has for as long as he has and not win.
He put himself in line for still another shot at that elusive first victory with a brilliant, seven-under-par 65 in Thursday's first round of the Danny Thomas-Memphis Golf Classic.
It included the best finish of the year: birdie-birdie-eagle-birdie.
"It kind of surprised me," understated the broady-grinning, 35-year-old veteran from Baytown, Tex. "I was playing good and I chipped in twice. Anytime anybody's playing that good and then chips in a couple of times, it's gonna be a low score."

This was a record 30 on the back nine of the 7,193-yard Colonial Country Club course, including six under on the last five. It staked Marti to a two-shot lead over Eddie Pearce, who shot a 67 a few hours after a sneak-thief broke into his hotel

Local team wins Okie Relays, qualifies for all-time top 20

A team of local long distance runners calling themselves the West Texas Munchkins won the Okie Relays — The longest Relay in the World — which covers 41.2 miles with a time of 3 hours 59 minutes 2 seconds. Kim Wrinkle, of Big Spring, broke the all-time record for high school division with his time of 57 minutes 42 seconds (for his 10.3 mile segment). The old record of 59.23 stood for six years. The other members of the Munchkins and their times for their 10.3 mile legs are: Robert Wilson, of Midland, 56.11, Johnny Witherspoon, of Odessa Permian, 61.59 and Wayne Fewell, also of Permian, 63.10. Wilson also broke the old high school record with his 56.11 time and is now the all-time current record holder in the high school divisions. The Okie Relays are nationally sanctioned for Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico and Arizona. The race begins in Elkhart, Kansas and finishes in Texhoma, Texas. Forty-one miles across Oklahoma.

CROSS COUNTRY FOR CHRIST
... group to appear here

Cyclists are due at two churches

Five Southeastern Bible College students who call themselves the "Spirit Riders" have banded together for a summer endeavor and will appear at two Big Spring churches Sunday.

They will be at First Assembly of God Church at 11 a.m. The Rev. Randall Ball is pastor.

The group will appear at Evangel Temple Assembly of God at 7 p.m. The Rev. Terry Wilson is pastor at this church. Both churches invite the public to attend.

The five young men, Dave Auterson, Mike Bartik, Rick Berlin, Dan Hudson and Steve Pike are going across the country from Lakeland, Florida to Los Angeles, Calif.

The riders relate their purpose in making the trip as follows: "Since this is the Bicentennial year, and people throughout the country are planning their parties and celebrations for the upcoming Fourth, we five got together and decided on our own celebration. In viewing America today, we see our society being drawn further and further away from the real meaning of the Bicentennial.

"Our nation was founded on some very important credentials back there in 1776, the main one being 'One Nation Under God,' but we seem to be forgetting this very basic concept of our forefathers. So the main purpose of our trip is to put God back in America."

The quintet was especially favored by a donation of five bicycles from a shop in Lakeland. They began their trip May 1 and hope to arrive in Los Angeles June 15.

Sister Amabilis serves Big Spring

By MARJ CARPENTER
Sister Mary Amabilis Schilling looked wistfully out across the patio at the Sister's residence at Immaculate Heart of Mary. "That mulberry tree was planted the year after I came to Big Spring. I have watched it grow. How I will miss that tree, and how I will miss Big Spring." She sighed, then smiled her quick happy smile that has made her so many friends here.

The 74-year-old nun will return to the Mother House in Patterson, New Jersey, since the Sisters will be leaving the Big Spring location. She has served as "house mother" at the residence of the Sisters and said "It has been my favorite post."

The nun will be honored Sunday by the Altar Society and men's group of Immaculate Heart Church with a service at the church at 8:30 a.m. and a reception at the residence starting at 12:30 p.m.

FIFTY YEARS SERVICE
... as Catholic nun

phage as a child, she lost track of many of her brothers and sisters. "I kept up with my two brothers, but I lost them. One of them was killed in battle. The other was killed with his entire family during a bombing. I lost track of some of my sisters. I knew where my younger sister was and was given permission to return to Germany to see her in 1960. She died right before I was to go, so I never went home," she said sadly.

"When I came out here, I was really wanting something to care for and I found it. Everyone was good to me here. I had days off from the kitchen when the other Sisters cook and I spent my time doing volunteer work at the Veteran's Hospital," she added.

SISTER MARY is what she is called at the Veterans Hospital, where she has given over 1,000 hours volunteer service. "I like to help in the ward of the elderly. They are so glad to see you," she smiled. "I will take them cigarettes or candy or diabetic cookies. It is wonderful to feel wanted."

She touched her veil. "I've always worn the veil. I want people to know that I am a Catholic Sister. I would be again, given the chance."

She also helps out at the Big Spring State Hospital. The Father there, who is working with these people says, "When Christ said 'Even the least of these,' he meant these people whom so many do not want to help."

Sister Amabilis looked back toward the patio and the flowers. "I used to do the yard work too while I was able. I have a lot of energy. That may be the German in me. I want to work and help."

And she added longingly, "Big Spring is such a wonderful place. Everybody in the community accepts you. You can work and serve and have something to care for — how I will miss it. How I will miss it," she repeated. Then she smiled. "Bless Big Spring." And you felt the concern and feeling in the blessing.

IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF APRIL EASTER TOWNSEND AND MICKEY DON TOWNSEND AND IN THE INTEREST OF TAMERA LEANN TOWNSEND, A CHILD IN THE DISTRICT OF HOWARD COUNTY, TEXAS 118TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT CITATION BY PUBLICATION THE STATE OF TEXAS TO APRIL EASTER TOWNSEND, Cross Respondent.
GREETINGS:
YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to appear and answer before the Honorable District Court 118th Judicial District, Howard County, Texas, at the Courthouse of said county in Big Spring, Texas, at or before 10:00 A.M. of the Monday next after the expiration of 20 days from the date of service of this Citation, then and there to answer the First Amended Cross Action of MICKEY DON TOWNSEND, Cross Petitioner, filed in said Court on the 17th day of May, 1976, against APRIL EASTER TOWNSEND, Cross Respondent, and the said suit being NO. 22,168 on the Docket of said Court, and entitled "IN THE MATTER OF THE MARRIAGE OF APRIL EASTER TOWNSEND AND MICKEY DON TOWNSEND AND IN THE INTEREST OF TAMERA LEANN TOWNSEND, A CHILD," the nature of which suit is a request to dissolve the marriage relationship between the Parties, to appoint Cross-Petitioner MICKEY DON TOWNSEND as Managing Conservator of said minor child, and for a division of the community property of the Parties.
The Court has authority in this suit to enter any judgment or decree dissolving the marriage and providing for the division of the property, as well as appointing a managing conservator for said minor child, which will be binding on you.
ISSUED AND GIVEN under my hand and seal of said Court at Big Spring, Texas, this 17th day of May, 1976.
SIGNED:

AS LONG AS YOU'RE INTO JOGGING, I THOUGHT YOU MIGHT LIKE TO HAVE A REAL JOGGING SUIT.

IT MAY BE A LITTLE BIG.

PUCKER PUSS - WHERE ARE YOU?

OH-- I THINK I SEE HIS JACKET. THIS IS HORRIBLE!

I'LL BELIEVE IN THE BALANCE OF NATURE WHEN GUYS LIKE HIM BECOME EXTINCT!

You had a bad fall! We're taking you to the hospital!

Forty dollars! I'll walk!

YOU THINK THE FELLER WHO KILLED ORIN HERE WAS A VAMPIRE? HOW COME, ROGER?

THAT'S JES' HOW HE WAS WHEN I POIN'D HIM. STIFF, COLD, AN' STARIN'. AN' HE DON'T HARDLY WEIGH TEN POUNDS!

PAW-- MY BIG TOE'S ACHIN'-- THAT'S A SHORE SIGN IT'S FIXIN' TO RAIN.

OH-- THEY FEEL FINE. THAT MAKES ONE-OUT-OF-TEN CHANCES IT'LL RAIN.

DADDY! YOU LOOK JUST LIKE I KNEW YOU WOULD-- WAVY HAIR AND FLASHING SMILE.

AND YOU ARE JUST AS I EXPECTED-- ONLY PRETTIER.

UNLESS IT'S BECAUSE... FOR ONCE IN YOUR LIFE... A MAN WAS ATTRACTED TO ME INSTEAD OF TO YOU!

THE MATTER IS CLOSED!... DO YOU HEAR?

LOOK, I REALLY DO APPRECIATE WHAT YOU DID FOR ME TONIGHT!

WITH ALL THE LIGHTS ON, I KNOW MY FATHER'S UP! I'M SURPRISED THAT HE'S NOT AT THE OPEN DOOR! GOOD NIGHT!

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, MAY 22, 1976

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Get into practical phases of undertaking. Listen closely to suggestions made by sensible and intelligent associates, using those which your instinct and judgment tell you are the best ones.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Talk over projects with those who can assist you. Be practical. Plan more time to be with loved one.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Contact good friends who can help you gain your most cherished personal aims and get their cooperation quickly. Reply social obligations.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Find better ways to handle your affairs for improved operation. Your mate can be helpful to you in some business deals. Show you are clever.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Investigate interesting new projects. Adhere to proven systems for best results. Make the evening a charming social one.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Bigwigs can help you handle your affairs more efficiently and should be consulted early. Your mate can be of assistance with advice, also.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Please your allies more to gain their cooperation for greater success. Plan to take a trip necessary to help bring home the bacon.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Study your work and get suggestions for handling it efficiently. Improve your emotional ties by more thought and affection. Be careful of strangers.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make plans with associates for whatever pleasure you want to enjoy in near future. Find the right outlets for your skills.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Create more pleasant and constructive conditions at home. Do not fail to pay some bill you owe. Prove your reliability.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Contact those who can help you develop your ideas, plans. Handle correspondence. Avoid one who is always pestering you about something.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Handle monetary matters more intelligently and get better results with them. See that you get your family's approval, also.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Discuss your ideas with partners to reach a better understanding and gain their future cooperation more quickly. Enjoy the social in p.m.

Whooping crane eggs in sandhill nests

GRAYS LAKE, Idaho (AP) — Federal wildlife officials begin the second phase today of their attempt to build a second wild flock of rare whooping cranes by transplanting whooper eggs to sandhill crane nests.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, in cooperation with its Canadian counterpart, is flying 16 whooping crane eggs from Wood Buffalo National Park in northern Alberta to Grays Lake National Wildlife Refuge.

Grays Lake lies amid the mountains of eastern Idaho, 20 miles from Wyoming and southeast of Grand Teton National Park.

About 50 whooping cranes make up the single wild flock in existence, said John Sayre public information officer for Fish and Wildlife's north-west region. They winter on the Texas Gulf Coast, then return to Canada to build their nests.

A captive flock of about 20 birds is kept at the federal Patuxent Wildlife Research Center in Maryland.

Four young whoopers survived last year from last year's transplant batch of 14 eggs, although none has returned to the lake yet after wintering in New Mexico.

The eggs for transplant come from two-egg nests.

Sayre said the whooping cranes care for only one chick when they hatch and the dominant chick often pushes the weaker one from the nest. Only one survives.

Sayre said the eggs will be placed on sandhill crane nests by conservation officers from the Fish and Wildlife Service and the Idaho Department of Fish and Game. The sandhill crane eggs removed to make room for the whoopers are taken to Wisconsin and hatched there.
