Carter goes 'over the top'

By The Associated Press
It's all over but the counting. Delegates by the dozens are joining the Jimmy Carter juggernaut, making it nearly certain the Georgia peanut farmer will be the Democratic presidential nominee.

Carter saw his delegate totals climb Wednesday to all but assure his first-ballot convention nomination, and a legion of big-name Democrats added their endorsements in a show of party unity. Many of his primary opponents — George Wallace, Henry Jackson, Frank Church and Morris Udall — proclaimed Carter a certain winner. The scorecard at the Democratic National Committee showed Carter with 1,514 delegates, nine more than needed for a convention victory in July.

A landslide victory in the Ohio primary Tuesday, and second-place finishes in New Jersey and California, catapulted Carter to the fabled tipping point; by today the opposing field had dwindled away.

As dozens of uncommitted delegates pledged support for Carter, he was within grasp of hundreds more now officially committed elsewhere or still uncommitted.

While the delegate roundup continued, Carter's tasks became the selection of a running mate, solidifying party unity, and planning a general election campaign against either Gerald Ford or Ronald Reagan.

According to the Associated Press survey of publicly committed delegates, Carter already can claim a definite 1,206, with enough more to bring him the nomination expected to join the bandwagon in the weeks before the mid-July Democratic national convention in New York.

Chicago Mayor Richard Daley, barred from the 1972 Democratic convention, studied the Ohio results and said he'd vote for Carter. Adlai Stevenson III released the bloc of 86 Illinois delegates committed to him and most were likely to go to the former Georgia governor.

George Wallace, crippled by a gunman while seeking the nomination four years ago and routed in the early Southern primaries by Carter, endorsed Carter and asked his 168 delegates to follow suit. It ended the Alabama governor's fourth and final try for the White House.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, seeker of the presidency since 1960 who hoped the party would come to him this year, refused to authorize a campaign in his behalf, saying Carter was "virtually certain" to be nominated.

Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington, well financed as the campaign began but badly drubbed by Carter in the Pennsylvania primary, told supporters he will endorse Carter and try to deliver his 248 delegates.

Sen. Frank Church of Idaho and Rep. Morris Udall of Arizona, who also challenged Carter, as much as acknowledged the race was over.

Liberal party leaders, such as Sen. George McGovern and Edward Kennedy, also noted Carter's victory and pledged support.

Wallace, cool to previous party nominees, said all he asked of Carter was "to try to make all the people of his country one of the finest presidents we've ever had."

Only California Gov. Edmund Brown Jr., who started late but beat Carter in every primary where they met, insisted the race remained open.

The Republican chase was neck-and-neck, and was not likely to end before the party's national convention in August.

Reagan won 167 delegates when he stomped Ford in California's winner-take-all primary. But Ford countered with a 67-delegate sweep in New Jersey and a 94-3 margin in Ohio.

Ford now takes a 965 to 862 lead in total delegates into the climactic series of GOP conventions and delegate-awarding meetings in 13 states where nearly 300 delegates are at stake.

COVERED UP — Protest signs draped the face of the Statue of Liberty in New York, Wednesday. The signs were hung by members of the Vietnam Veterans Against the War protesting the loss of education benefits of the GI Bill. After an 18-hour siege, the National Park service police arrested fifteen veterans.

Couple injured by flames as mobile home destroyed

By JAMES WERRELL
A mobile home 1/4 mile west of Coahoma was destroyed by fire around 3 a.m. today.

Mike Logsdon, the owner of the home, and a companion, Miss Debbie Davis, were temporarily trapped inside by the flames. In desperation, Logsdon punched out a window with his fist and jumped to safety.

Hearing cries for help, he turned and "unceremoniously pulled (Miss Davis) from a window in the upper berth in the trailer," according to State Trooper Bill Priest, who was on the scene.

Logsdon received first and second degree burns on his back, face and hands, according to Coahoma Fire Chief Wayne Drewery. Both Logsdon and Miss Davis were treated and released from Malone and Hogan Hospital.

Drewery was the first to be notified of the fire this morning, but it is still undetermined how the fire started.

Willie Nelson, Ray Price 'singing the blues?'

Ex-car dealer quizzed in dope probe

By JOHN EDWARDS
A former Big Spring new car dealer and his shop foreman have appeared before the federal grand jury which subpoenaed country and western singers Willie Nelson and Ray Price in an international drug-smuggling investigation.

Joe Hicks, former owner of Joe Hicks Motor Company here, now of Plano and Jacksboro, Tex., appeared before the grand jury in Fort Worth Tuesday.

Coleman Ray Bandy, 28, Hick's former shop foreman here, now an Argyle, Tex., resident and Jackie Norwood Kennedy, 35, Fort Worth, appeared when the grand jury was meeting in Dallas May 26.

Kennedy was carrying $1 million worth of cocaine when he and Bandy were arrested at Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport Feb. 6, officials said.

Kennedy faces trial for the offense in state district court June 28, a Tarrant County District Attorney spokesman said.

Bandy and Kennedy had returned from Bogota, Colombia, via New York City, police believe.

HAPPIER DAYS — Jimmy Anderson (left to right), Willie Nelson and Joe Hicks pose at a new car show in Big Spring. Hicks, at this time, was a Pontiac dealer, and Anderson was his sales manager. Country singer Nelson and Hicks have appeared before a federal grand jury investigating drug smuggling.

The 7.2 pounds of cocaine was destined for distribution in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, officials said.

OUT ON BOND. Bandy was arrested April 15 at a San Francisco motel and charged with delivery of one kilogram of cocaine, a federal violation.

"A kilo" of cocaine may be purchased for about $10,500 in Columbia, a federal official said.

Bandy posted $500,000 bond in San Francisco and was released.

The jury returned two sealed indictments Wednesday before Nelson and the drummer for his group, Paul English, were called. Both men were in the grand jury chambers about five minutes each and declined comment on their appearances.

Ray Price and his son, Cliff, 17, appeared May 27 before the panel in Dallas.

The investigation extended to Miami, Fla., where police confiscated $1 million worth of cocaine and arrested two other men earlier, the Associated Press reported.

One was arrested in September 1975 in Miami and the other in April this year, a federal spokesman, who asked not to be named, said.

THE NARCOTICS traffic investigation was started by Drug Enforcement Administration agents more than two years ago, not long after Hicks left Big Spring.

Ray Price sang for the grand opening of Joe Hicks Motor Co. in Big Spring March 4, 1971.

On Sept. 23, 1971, Hicks posed for the Big Spring Herald with Willie Nelson, other country and western singers and Jimmy Anderson, then sales manager. The occasion was a new car show.

The elder Price and Hicks were said to have been longtime friends.

While in Big Spring, Hicks obtained a luxury car and utility vehicle for Ray Price, a source said.

Hicks' shop performed work on vehicles for members of the Nelson band several times here, the source recalled.

Autographed photographs of Price, Nelson and other singers were displayed in Hicks' office, the source noted.

A HOWARD COUNTY grand jury on April 9, 1973, started investigating cars sold without titles.

Hicks was gone. His wife told the district attorney's office Hicks was in Saigon, South Vietnam, in the scrap metal business.

"He was in Saigon, but we don't think it was on that type of business," a federal government source said today.

Anderson, who succeeded Hicks as the Pontiac dealer, did testify, as did officials of the General Motors Acceptance Corporation.

No indictments were returned in the car-title investigation.

Bill Neal Jr. filed a suit in Howard County's 118th District Court in April 1973 against Anderson, his dealership, a Garland dealership and the General Motors Corporation.

Neal contended he traded a 1973 luxury sports car to the dealership in

Margolis misspells 'beaujolais'

New York lad captures National Spelling Bee

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tim Kneale, an eighth grader from Nedrow, N.Y., won the 49th annual National Spelling Bee today by correctly spelling "narcolepsy," a compulsive tendency to fall asleep.

Kneale, 13, edged out runnerup Rachel Wachtel, an eighth grader from Wooster, Ohio, who misspelled "yarrowbough," a bridge hand containing no card higher than a nine.

Kneale correctly spelled "yarrowbough" and then went on to win by spelling "narcolepsy."

After all other contenders had been eliminated, Kneale and Miss Wachtel duelled in a head-to-head battle. They correctly spelled such words as sauerbraten, disalcated, hagiology, demulcent and panjandrum.

Interviewed by reporters following his victory, Kneale said that he never had heard of the word narcolepsy and "I just took a guess at it."

The two-day spelling bee was sponsored by Scripps-Howard Newspapers.

Sponsoring Kneale's participation was the Syracuse (N.Y.) Herald-Journal American. Miss Wachtel came to Washington under the sponsorship of the Akron (Ohio) Beacon Journal.

A total of 87 city and regional spelling champions took part as finalists in the National Spelling Bee.

Glenn Margolis of Big Spring, in his "last hurrah" as an entry in the National Spelling Bee, lost out in the sixth round of competition at the Mayflower Hotel here Wednesday.

A word which describes a certain French wine, "beaujolais," eliminated young Margolis, winner of the Regional Bee at Lubbock this year.

When the event recessed Wednesday evening, only 27 contestants remained in the event. The contest was to draw to a close around noon today, Washington time.

The original field included 87 entries and 442 words had been given to the contestants.

Glenn conceded he had never heard the word over which he tripped but added he knew the words given to contestants preceding and following him.

Margolis, who enters high school this fall after two years at Goliah Junior High, correctly fielded such words as "island," "evangelical," "clientele," "aphasia" and "criant."

Glenn was one of only two repeaters participating in the national finals. Glenn represented the region and Big Spring in 1974. That year, Margolis finished 63rd in the national event.

Only two Texas entries, Becky Wood of Houston and Sharon Hughes, Fort Worth, remained in competition after the first day.

Glenn and the 86 other contestants will attend an awards banquet at 6 p.m., Big Spring time, in the Mayflower Hotel's Grand Ballroom, where the actual competition is being held.

During the banquet, cash awards and certificates will be presented to each of the contestants.

Glenn, who was accompanied to Washington by his father, Dr. Jack Margolis, and his brother, David, plans to return to Big Spring Saturday.

DIGNITARIES AT CONFERENCE HERE — A weather modification project conference, which got under way in the Colorado River Municipal Water District headquarters building here this morning, attracted water experts from throughout the western United States. Pictured here, from the left, are Lloyd Steubinger and Dr. Bernie Silverman, both of Denver, Colo., and both with the Bureau of Reclamation; C. R. Baskin, Austin, chief of the Technical Division, Texas Water Development Board member; and O. H. Ivie, general manager of CRMWD. The group is seeking a more effective coordination of the HIPLEX program, which is functioning in the Great Plains area, with Big Spring as the southern anchor.

Action/reaction: Bike, jogging laws

Q. What is the proper or legal side of the street or road for a bicycle rider, or a pedestrian walking or jogging?

A. "I believe the law requires bike riders to use the same side of the street as automobiles, the right side," said Susan Thomas, Big Spring traffic engineer.

With joggers and other pedestrians, the left side of the street is safer, according to Thomas.

"There is no law for pedestrians, but they are better off facing the traffic," she said.

If you have a question for Action-reaction, call 263-7331.

Calendar: Free film

TODAY

Gospel singing and drama at the City auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Thursday with over 500 youths attending the Original West Texas Sunday School expected to take part.

Coahoma City Councilman convene at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the City Hall.

"In Search of Ancient Mysteries," a film about the possibility of visitors from outer space, will be shown at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Howard County Library, free of charge.

Two films will be shown during a meeting of the Prospectors Club to be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Reddy Room, Texas Electric Company building.

First meeting of the Howard College Skeet and Trap Club, 5 p.m. Thursday at Webb Trap Range.

FRIDAY

LeRoy Bell, Abilene, president of Texas Association of Life Underwriters, will be guest speaker at an installation meeting of local TALU members at 7 p.m. Friday at the Holiday Inn.

Offbeat: Leave me alone

DARRINGTON, Wash. (AP) — O. C. Helton simply wanted to build a log cabin.

It took a fight in court against the Snohomish County Building Department to build it. But since he won, Helton said Tuesday, he hasn't had much time for work.

Fame won in the nationally publicized dispute has attracted too many visitors, Helton said.

"I got 6,000 letters and that's just about how many people I had through here after the trial," said the 6-foot-5 Helton. "I'd just get up to go to work," he said, pointing to the unfinished home. "Then some folks would drive up and I'd have to come down and visit with them."

Best bet on TV: Mac Davis

The Mac Davis show on NBC at 7 p.m. is worth the viewing if only for the antics of mime duo Shields and Yarnell. They are truly magnificent in their portrayal of robots. Also on tap for the show is Mac Davis, of course, all of Dolly Parton, and singer-composer Paul Williams.

High court won't let reporters in hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today refused to order a Colorado judge to admit news reporters and the public to a preliminary hearing on a manslaughter charge against entertainer Claudine Longet.

The court acted a few minutes before 11 a.m. EDT, the time set for the hearing to begin in Aspen, Colo.

Lawyers representing 12 Colorado news organizations asked Justice Byron R. White for an emergency order opening the hearing to the media and the public pending a full-scale appeal to the high court.

30th suit filed in truck crash

Fourth of July fireworks

'Let Freedom Ring' pageant shapes up

An old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration is being planned in Big Spring that will encompass the entire weekend.

Highlighting the Sunday activities will be the annual fireworks display from the top of Scenic Mountain. It follows the "Let Freedom Ring" pageant in the park.

The pageant, which will depict the first signing of the Declaration of Independence, will again be chaired by Mrs. Mamie Lee Dodds.

It will be held in the amphitheatre and at the conclusion a huge community-wide birthday cake will be served by members of the Howard County Home Demonstration Council.

The fireworks will be detonated at the top of the mountain during that time. The Retail Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, headed by Richard Atkins, is planning many events beginning the Wednesday prior to July 4. There will be prizes to be announced by the various stores and a possible Freedom Wagon display on Saturday.

The Evening Lions Club will host a three-day softball tournament to be held at the Webb Air Force Base hosting 16 teams from area towns on July 2, 3 and 4.

There will be a community-wide barbecue in the park at noon Monday, July 5, hosted by the Jaycees and Evening Lions. Games and contests sponsored by the Jaycees will also be held in the park on the 5th, along with the annual beard-growing contest judging.

There has been some discussion of a parade in the park, with no details yet available by the Chamber of Commerce.

Gary Job Corps Center will begin accepting women for enrollment

Ellis Britton, manager of the local office of the Texas Employment Commission, announced today that the heretofore all-male Gary Job Corps Center located in San Marcos, will begin accepting women for enrollment beginning Wednesday.

The center, normally accommodating 2,200 male enrollees, will admit over a period of time 600 female enrollees while at the same time allowing male enrollment to be reduced to 1,600. The women will be housed in separate dormitories from the men, however, they will be offered training in any of the academic or vocational programs available at the center.

Texas Employment Commission offices accept applications from eligible young men and women for admission into Job Corps. Job Corps is a program designed to assist disadvantaged youth between the ages of 16 through 21. Academic and vocational training for a variety of occupations is offered and youth are assisted in qualifying for gainful employment.

Interested young men and women are requested to call or go by the local TEC office at 406 Rannels for more information or assistance in enrolling.

Police beat Yeggs steal merchandise

Housebreakers climbed through a window in the home of George C. Cox, O.K. Trailer Park, and left with $365 worth of merchandise.

The burglars, who entered the home sometime within the last two months, took a pair of binoculars, some fishing equipment, a metal detector, an eight-track tape player, a $75 money order, and a variety of coins.

Burglars stole the battery and battery cables from a brand new pickup on the lot of Bob Brock Ford Inc., 500 W. 4th, Wednesday.

Officer V. Y. Garcia became suspicious when he noticed, while patrolling the area last night, that the pickup's hood was open.

Upon closer inspection, Garcia found that the items were missing. They were valued at $73. Police found no fingerprints left by the intruders at the scene.

Mrs. David Reynolds, 4109 Parkway, reported that the antennae from her two cars had been stolen sometime Tuesday night. In addition, the windshield of one car had been chipped with a small rock or BB gun.

Only two mishaps were reported in the city Wednesday.

Cars belonging to Ina Davis Hamlin, Vealmoor Route, and Eutonio Ortega, 609 N.W. 8th, collided on Lamesa Drive, 6:52 p.m.

Cars driven by Juan Rodriguez, 600 NE 10th, and Johnny Talamonte, 212 NE 10th, collided at 303 NE 8th, 10:16 p.m.

FRED KASCH

Fred Kasch, contractor, dies at 56

Arthur Fred Kasch, 56, died at his home on Todd Road in the Tubbs addition south of Big Spring at 6:30 a.m., today, victim of an apparent heart attack.

Services will be at 3 p.m., Friday in Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel. Officiating will be Dr. William Fleming, pastor of the First United Methodist Church. Burial will occur in Trinity Memorial Park.

Mr. Kasch had arisen at about 6 a.m., to turn off an alarm clock, then went back to bed. His wife went in to check on him shortly after 7 a.m. When she could not rouse him, Mrs. Kasch summoned the family doctor, Dr. P. W. Malone.

Mr. Kasch suffered a heart attack about ten years ago but members of his family said he had been feeling well in recent months.

Mr. Kasch, a prominent general contractor here, was born March 2, 1920, in Mart, Tex. He attended Big Spring public schools and graduated from Texas A&M University in 1947 with a degree in economics. He served in the U.S. Army Air Corps during World War II.

The Kasch Brothers Construction firm was well known throughout Texas, having built some of the best known business and education buildings in the state.

He married Miss Maudine Majors July 18, 1946, in Bryan, Tex. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church, and was vice president of the West Texas chapter of Associated General Contractors of America.

Fred moved here at the age of ten years with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kasch. His father opened a wholesale plumbing and heating firm here and the family lived above the place of business at 107 Gregg Street for a number of years.

Survivors include his widow, of the home; a son, Don Kasch, Big Spring; two daughters, Mrs. A. L. Lain, Big Spring, Austin; a brother, Paul Kasch, Clear Brook, Minn.; and two grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to the Heart Association or a favorite charity.

Certification due by July 15

All cotton must be certified by July 15 by area farmers. This announcement came from the office of Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

Each field of cotton is to be certified separately. Farmers are requested, when they feel settled about their stand of cotton, to come in to the office and certify to avoid the last minute rush.

If farmers overplant the cotton allotment, a certification for wheat, hegar, maize or barley must also be made, ASCS committeemen state.

Any farmers who have not planted cotton should go to the office and certify "O" planted in order to keep the yield allotment from being reduced.

There are separate applications due to disasters which prevented planting. An application must be signed during the period between June 15-21. Feed grain unable to be planted must be certified during July 1-5.

The office is also needing information concerning beekeepers in the county by July 15. If the wheat crop has not been harvestable, the office is also in need of this information so that the crop can be appraised and credit applied.

The office hours of the ASCS office are 8-12 and 1-5 Monday through Friday, according to Tim D. Hall.

No divorce for Burton

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — Actor Richard Burton has left Haiti — still married to Elizabeth Taylor, Haiti's Office of Tourism says.

He was denied a divorce because he failed to produce a notarized document proving that Miss Taylor approved of the legal separation, the office said Wednesday.

Burton, who arrived here last Saturday, left aboard a commercial flight to Miami on his way to California, where he is making a film. He was accompanied by Susan Hunt, former wife of English race driver James Hunt.

Miss Taylor said in a statement earlier this week she would have done nothing to stand in the Burton's way but that she had not been asked for her signature.

U.N. honors princes

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Two Saudi Arabian princes have been honored at a General Nations luncheon attended by Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim and nearly 100 ambassadors and secretariat officials.

Ambassador Jamil Baroudy, who was host for the banquet, praised Prince Majid bin Abdulaziz and his brother Abdul Iah as "hard workers who earn their living on the fruits of their labor, and not just thrive on their titles."

Majid bin Abdulaziz is Saudi Arabia's minister of municipal and rural affairs. He was on his way home from Vancouver, Canada, where he attended the U.N. Conference on Human Settlements.

Cease fire agreed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Syria and its Palestinian and leftist Lebanese foes agreed on a cease-fire today. But one Lebanese Christian leader, President Suleiman Franjeh, opposed creation of an international Arab force to end the 14-month-old war in his country. There was a marked reduction in fighting on all fronts, Beirut Radio, controlled by the alliance of Yasir Arafat's Palestinians and Kamal Jumblatt's leftist Lebanese Moslems, said Syrian President Hafez Assad ordered his estimated 12,000 troops and 300 tanks in northern, eastern and southern Lebanon to observe a cease-fire in place at daybreak.

Privacy panel wants tax return curb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Deep inside Internal Revenue Service buildings are stored thousands of rolls of computerized tape, carrying the financial, and to some extent personal, details on the life of every American taxpayer.

The information is extracted from income tax returns submitted each year by almost all U.S. wage earners. Most taxpayers believe the information goes no further than the scrutiny of the tax collector.

The Federal Privacy Commission said Wednesday a disturbing trend has developed under which each individual return has come to be regarded as a "generalized government asset."

Commission to redo commission's work?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eight years after a blue-ribbon commission made recommendations on what to do about the nation's mail service, another commission is being proposed to study the situation again.

President Ford and leaders of the postal committees of Congress reportedly agreed Wednesday to pump more taxpayer money into the deficit-ridden Postal Service to keep it from becoming insolvent while a new commission studies its financial problems.

"A blue-ribbon commission is the best chance for updating and modernizing the postal system," said Sen. Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., chairman of the Senate Post Office Committee.

McGee and Sen. Hiram Fong, of Hawaii, the senior Republican on the committee, announced the agreement. A White House spokesman said of their description of an agreement with the Ford administration, "I don't think that is far afield" but he declined to elaborate.

The study commission proposal bears a striking resemblance to one in April 1967 when then-President Lyndon B. Johnson appointed a commission to "conduct the most searching and exhaustive review ever undertaken" of the American postal service.

In June 1968, the commission issued a voluminous report entitled "Towards Postal Excellence." The report urged Congress to charter "a government-owned corporation to operate the Postal Service."

This proposal became the basis for the Postal Reorganization Act of 1970 which abolished the governmental Post Office Department and created the quasi-independent Postal Service in its place.

The new postal agency was supposed to be supported by its users rather than by the federal treasury. But in its first four years of operation, it racked up a deficit of $1.6 billion and the agency expects to lose nearly that much in the current fiscal year alone.

Under the agreement announced by McGee and Fong, the Postal Service would be given another $1 billion in addition to the $1.5 billion annual subsidy already authorized for the next two years.

The department and other law enforcement agencies are required to obtain court orders before gaining access to tax returns in non-tax law prosecutions. In 1975, the department and U.S. attorneys requested tax returns on 6,724 taxpayers suspected of non-tax law violations.

State governments are required to pass laws narrowly restricting access to federal returns if they are to continue receiving them for their own income tax collection purposes.

A close watch should be placed on a new government program allowing parents from welfare families to be tracked down through IRS records if they skip town and refuse to support their children.

Only the President be permitted to obtain tax information about prospective federal appointees, unless the person under consideration for the job gives his or her permission.

The Justice Department and the Securities Exchange Commission have vigorously opposed most of the recommendations, which must be approved by the Congress. A tax reform bill which includes some privacy provisions comes up before the Senate next week.

Judy Alexander gains degree

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — Judy Lynn Alexander of Big Spring received a bachelor of arts degree from the College of William and Mary at commencement exercises held May 16 in William and Mary Hall.

The commencement address was given by David Mathews, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare.

Big Spring State Hospital staff changes announced

Supak's former position of business manager has been filled by George R. Colvin, a longtime employe of BSSH, who previously served as staff services officer. Colvin's association with the hospital began in 1956 and has continued since that time except for two years spent in the U.S. Army.

A graduate of Turkey High School, Colvin earned an associate arts degree at Howard County Junior College in 1967. His memberships include professional organizations as well as Big Spring Civitan Club of which he is a past president.

Adolph Supak, who has been named assistant superintendent of Big Spring State Hospital, this week announced several changes in staff which have taken effect as part of a realignment of hospital personnel.

New administrator of the Admissions Unit is Charles M. (Chuck) Condray, a psychologist and former director of special programs on the Adolescent Unit. Condray first worked at the hospital in 1971, returning in 1973 following his graduation from Texas Tech University.

Assuming the post of administrator of the Adolescent Unit is Gary W. Zimmerman, Ph.D., who earned his degree in counselling and guidance at Washington State University in 1974. Dr. Zimmerman received his MS degree at Ball State University, an MA degree at the University of Southern California and the BA degree at San Jose State University.

Completing military service as an Air Force officer in 1970, he took a supervisory position with the Learning Resource Center College of Education, Washington State University and, in 1973, became a research assistant for the National Dairy Council. Since June, 1974, he has been a clinical psychologist at BSSH.

Cliff Stovall, an Air Force veteran who attended schools in Oklahoma, has been advanced from plant maintenance technician to acting plant engineer. Before being employed at BSSH in 1954, Stovall was deputy director of Rural Enterprises Community Action Program Inc. in Frederick, Okla. William B. Hodges, an Ackerly High School graduate and Army veteran, will serve as laundry manager. Hodges lived in Austin before returning to West Texas last year to accept a job with BSSH.

"We feel fortunate to have obtained Mrs. Lorna Miller as hospital dietician," said Supak, noting that this is a newly-created position and that Mrs. Miller will be working as part of the treatment team staff. Mrs. Miller will assume duties here after returning from a workshop in Austin.

Time-table on Webb is changed

The one-month delay in the Air Force's plans to make public the first draft of its environmental impact statement is interesting, though it may or may not be significant.

In the original timetable for the proposed closing of Webb Air Force Base, the Air Force was to release the first version of the impact statement in mid-June.

WITHIN 45 DAYS, a public hearing was to have been held in Big Spring. This was announced to be in mid-July. The final decision of Webb's closing was to come more than 90 days later, probably in early December, the Air Force had said.

But Mayor Wade Choate told the Century Club Monday that the timetable has been changed. July 16, one month late, is now the projected date for making the impact statement public.

This will mean the public hearing should come in mid-August.

However, one more curious change has been discussed. Mayor Choate says he has heard that the final decision on Webb may come in September, earlier than expected.

What does all this mean? It could be that environmental impact statements are a little harder to assemble than the Air Force previously thought and the first draft is simply behind schedule.

Or it could mean that the Air Force is giving a more serious look at alternative missions for Webb — or other bases.

Mayor Choate is in Washington, D.C., this week to appear before Senate committees prior to the confirmation of his presidential appointment to the National Credit Union Board. But he's staying two extra days to work in behalf of Webb.

ONE OF THE questions that the mayor hopes to answer is when would the year's notification on base closings begin? Congress appears almost certain to pass an amendment requiring this notification and detailed justification as a rider to the military construction bill. It has cleared the House and the Senate Armed Services Committee and is due a vote by the full Senate any day. It should pass.

The feeling on Capitol Hill now is that the year would begin when, and if, President Ford signs the military construction bill. Should this prove true, the earliest possible closing of Webb would then be mid-summer of 1977.

Mayor Choate said there is evidence the Air Force feels the earliest closing would come 14 months after, and if, President Ford signs the bill. This would time the earliest Webb closing for the fall of 1977.

I SAY "IF" President Ford signs the bill because there is reportedly a strong lobby effort being made by the Pentagon to have Ford veto the bill. The Pentagon does not want Congress involved in the use or nonuse of military bases, and military leaders are apparently willing to give up their own military construction bill to prevent it.

The base notification amendment has passed through Congress by such wide margins and is such a popular bill that it is difficult to imagine the President daring to veto it. His veto might be immediately overridden.

Worse yet, the public might really get angry with him on the defense issue, one of the soft spots in his administration.

IN A RECENT story, the Federal Register commented that the announced proposed closing of bases this spring paved the way for Ronald Reagan's challenge to the President on defense. It noted the President has had trouble in each state where closings were announced.

The time may be coming for the Congress, the Pentagon and the President to compromise this question. There are some subtle indications the Pentagon's mood on base closings may be changing.

These developments are more indication that there is still hope in altering the original Pentagon decision about Webb.

Around the rim

James Werrell

Recently my wife and I entertained some good buddies from out of town. While they were here, we sat up into the wee hours passing the time in the fine art of conversation.

WE HAD HEARD my record collection (both records) several times. We had listened to the national anthem on all the TV stations. Sally (our friend who is a nurse) had told us the grisly details of some of the grisliest operations she had been through.

In short, the conversation had reached nearly its most tasteless low. But not quite.

One of us (I am trying to forget who) brought up the topic of "what was the first dirty joke you ever heard?"

This brought on an onslaught of off-color humor dating back to grade school snickers and high school locker rooms.

Most (none) of these jokes can be reprinted verbatim. But if I tread lightly, I may be able to relate some of the best punch lines of the evening.

Remember, we were pretty far gone. Without further ado, the punch lines: "Well, General, most of the men use it to ride into town."

"... and you picked the ugliest one."

"Boy, can she drive."

"Help me find my keys, and we'll drive out."

"Ring, ring, you fool."

"Ever since I found out your father was a pharmacist."

"Where's my lemon cookie?"

"I'M GOING TO catch you if I can."

"Tomato juice."

"I didn't know we had a navy."

"... buttered corn."

"No, but hum a few bars and I'll see what I can do with it."

"... and it looked so good I ate it myself."

I apologize if any are offended by these rib-ticklers, but if you are, I bet you've laughed at the joke before. As far as the jokes are concerned, only bamboo shoots under the fingernails could get me to repeat them.

Guess who's coming?

Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Everyone is doing something about the Bicentennial. The Dinner's Club is running an informal survey amongst Americans asking them who in history they would like to celebrate the Fourth of July with and why. Where would they take them for dinner and, finally, what would they order in the way of food and drink?

The answers have included such varied people as Thomas Jefferson, Teddy Roosevelt, Al Capone and Richard Nixon — NECESSARILY in that order.

ALTHOUGH I HATE questionnaires, the survey is rather intriguing and I've been mulling over my answer for days. I've finally decided the only person I want to have dinner with is "Deep Throat," the one of Watergate fame, not the lady from the X-rated film. I have nothing against her, but on the 20th anniversary of our country I believe an American should abstain from sex in tribute to the founders of our country, because if it hadn't been for them there might not have been any sex in America as we know it today. (Even after 200 years the British still don't know how to do it right or so I've been told.)

In any case I think "Deep Throat" would be fun to have dinner with. I would like to take him to the Sans Souci, but knowing his proclivity for wanting to stay out of the limelight I would select the C level of a garage somewhere on the outskirts of Washington.

First, I would stop off at a Kentucky Fried Chicken place and pick up a bucket of chicken and French fries and a six-pack of beer.

I'd find a nice quiet place in the garage where we wouldn't get run over, and I'd spread out the Washington Post on the floor so we wouldn't get our clothes and food dirty.

THE FIRST QUESTION I would ask him, which I've always been curious about, would be "What was Bob Woodward really like? Did he look anything like Robert Redford, or was Woodward much better looking?"

Once we got over the amenities I'd get down to business. I would question him about his role in the Nixon Administration. Did he blow the White House cover story about Watergate because he had been mistreated by Haldeman, Ehrlichman or Colson, or was he mad at Nixon personally because he had never been invited to Sunday morning church services at the White House?

Then I'd ask him about his personal life. Was he married? If so, how did he explain his absences at night to his wife? Did she believe he was really meeting with a reporter from the Washington Post, or did she accuse him, when he came home, at those early hours in the morning, of being up to no-good with some secretary on Capitol Hill?

IN THE book and the movie, "All the President's Men," "Deep Throat" told Woodward to fly a red flag from the potted plant on his apartment balcony when the reporter wanted to see him, and then "Deep Throat" would mark the hour of appointment on page 20 of Woodward's New York Times. I would ask him if Woodward ever got mad at him for messing up his New York Times before he had a chance to read it?

Dear Editor:

In Sunday's Herald, there was a picture of Elvis Presley that said no pictures were allowed. Would you please straighten out that caption writer. Everyone was taking pictures, but no movies were allowed. Also, I truly resented his description of Elvis as the "now fat rock star." He couldn't mention that Elvis is singing better than ever or that he's still handsome even if he does have a little belly.

Enclosed is a poem for that person who wrote that caption to read. I am so fed up with people talking only about how fat Elvis is.

NO MATTER WHAT SHAPE HIS STOMACH'S IN Elvis Presley is still the King, no matter what his shape;

And every girl who hears him sing is sure to just go ape.

I'm sick and tired of those ignorant folks who only put him down.

All they do is make stupid jokes about his added pounds.

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: How can a Christian wife relate Biblically to an unbelieving husband (according to 1 Peter 3:1-4), if at the same time she hopes to win him to faith in the Lord (as indicated in verses 1 and 2)? Surely there will be a conflict between obedience to the husband and obedience to god. — E.L.A.

DEAR E.L.A.: This subject is also dealt with in I Corinthians 7:12-17, where great hope is expressed that the Christian member of a marriage may be the means of winning his or her partner to Christ. The emphasis is that this will be done by conduct rather than by argument — "may be won without a word by the behavior of their wives" (1 Peter 3:1 Revised Standard Version). It's a real challenge to the Christian to show the beauty of the Christian life by her nature — love, understanding, patience and all the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22,23).

It is true that there will be conflicts between obedience to God and submission to the husband. It is important therefore to keep in mind 1 Corinthians 7:17 (Revised Standard Version): "Let every one lead the life which the Lord has assigned to him; and in which God has called him." The kind of life we lead is ordered by God rather than man. Our first allegiance must always be to the Lord, and when a conflict of opinion arises, a simple expression of what we believe should be respected by any man who claims to love his wife.

The main task of the Christian partner is to live for Jesus and to keep praying in faith. God honors the life lived in obedience to Him and answers the prayer of his faith.

Torture ship

Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — Chile's military dictatorship is sending a torture ship to participate in the U.S. Bicentennial.

The "Esmeralda" will be one of over 200 handsome vessels from 35 nations that will participate in "Operation Sail," a seagoing salute in New York Harbor on the Fourth of July.

President Ford may even be among the 3,000 dignitaries who will review the waterborne parade from the deck of the U.S. aircraft carrier Forrestal.

HUNDREDS OF CHILEAN men and women were mercilessly tortured aboard the Esmeralda following the military coup of September 1973, which overthrew Marxist President Salvador Allende.

Spokesmen for the dictatorship denied to us that the Esmeralda was a torture ship. The evidence to the contrary, however, is overwhelming.

In the fall of 1974, for example, the Organization of American States sent a team to Chile to investigate the status of human rights there. They were not permitted to see the Esmeralda, according to the OAS report, on the grounds that it was a "military area." They interrogated many prisoners, however, who testified with "significant unanimity" that the Esmeralda was a torture site.

"I was stripped to my shorts and my hands were handcuffed behind me," swore one prisoner who was aboard the ship. "They applied electric shock on my skin, on my testicles, on my chest and back. Also the officers who were interrogating me hit me 50 times... with their fists. All of this left me black and blue, as the Red Cross verified when they came..."

Another man testified that he was beaten with a rifle butt until "I began to urinate blood." One prisoner was taken on the Esmeralda to an island concentration camp and "arrived with a piece burned out of his tongue."

Luis Vega Contreras, a Chilean lawyer now living in Israel, has signed a sworn statement attesting to his treatment aboard the Esmeralda. Contreras, once an attorney for the Chilean Ministry of the Interior, said he was beaten with a rifle, kicked, put under a high pressure jet of sea water, and given electric shocks on his tooth fillings.

At one point, said Contreras, he was told to stand over a prisoner who had been shocked and whose back was raw with wounds. "He had salt on his wounds, sea salt. I was forced... to grind the salt with my feet so that it would seep into the wounds... I had to do this under the pressure of blows and machine guns."

THE SHIP, CONTRERAS concluded, "had been for me and for 10,000,000 Chileans, the White Lady, the National Pride," he wrote in his statement. "It represented Chilean democracy, manhood, the chivalry of Chilean officers and sailors. Today it is a torture chamber, a flagellation chamber, a floating jail of horror, death, and fear to Chilean men and women under the hands of soldiers and officers who... belong to an occupation army..."

On the Fourth of July, ironically, this ship of horrors will sail in honor of America's freedom.

Pep pills: Poor diet plan

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: A year and a half ago I weighed 220 pounds. I am a female, 25, and 5-foot-2. I now weigh 135 pounds. The problem is I've been on amphetamines the entire time and still am.

This is the second time I've lost weight, both times on amphetamines. The doctor wants to take me off them and he has suggested hypnosis. I'm so tired of going up and down. Do you recommend hypnosis? — C.G.

Well, anything is better than those extended amphetamine (pep pills) trips you've been going on.

I don't intend to get into any scolding. You had a severe weight problem, no doubt of it, and the doctor probably thought it was serious enough to try amphetamines with you. It worked. That's good. But it didn't last. That's bad.

The doctor, realizing this, has wisely decided to try other methods. This amphetamine thing could keep you on a seesaw the rest of your life.

I have no specific recommendation regarding hypnosis. I have heard reports of hypnosis working in such matters as cigaret smoking and in overeating. It is probably worth a try. Obviously, you have relied on amphetamines and have not learned how to eat — or rather how not to eat. With willpower you should be able to watch your calorie intake without pills or hypnosis.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Our four-year-old son has been wetting his bed. What we worry about is the strong ammonia smell of his urine in the mornings after he has wet.

Is there some condition that could cause it to smell in this way? Sometimes he complains that his penis hurts. — Mrs. R.

Normally there is very little ammonia in urine. It would increase and cause a strong odor if it were too concentrated. The usual cause is an infection in the urinary tract.

Does his urine smell this way the rest of the day? I ask this because often urine can smell strong after it has been around a while. Bacteria on his skin or pajamas and sheets can actually produce ammonia by acting on the urine. This could account for the strong odor in the morning.

This ammonia could irritate his genitals and account for his complaints. If so the doctor can recommend a soothing powder. It is important to keep the area as fresh and free of irritation as possible.

As to the bedwetting itself — it is not a serious problem in youngsters his age. However, the possibility of a structural defect in the penis or an allergy causing it should be investigated. You seem to be taking a

Dognapping now nationwide racket

MOUNT PROSPECT, Ill. (AP) — Stealing pedigree dogs and holding them for ransom has become a nationwide operation by organized gangs, says a specialist who tracks down lost pets.

"Teenagers, adults and even entire families are dognapping throughout the country. In the Chicago area alone more than a hundred dogs a month are being stolen for ransom," said Bob Frank, who runs the nonprofit Society of St. Francis hotline for missing pets.

Ransom asked for U.S. POWs by Pathet Lao

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP) — A private detective says he was offered the chance to ransom two American prisoners of war from Laos two years ago and was told then that up to 300 others might be held in the Asian country.

Theodore R. Grevers, who runs the Fatman International Detective Agency, said he decided to talk about his secret mission after North Vietnam insisted this week it no longer holds any Americans captive.

Grevers said he agrees the North Vietnamese probably have no American prisoners. "I believe they are in Laos near the Chinese border," he said.

The detective said he met three times in May 1974, with Pathet Lao officials in Vientiane, Laos, before negotiations broke off after the American Embassy there learned about them.

"It just died because I was no longer private," Grevers said about the negotiations he said he conducted with a woman and three men he would not identify. He said the woman was the wife of Pragna Khamsouk Keola, vice chairman of the Pathet

Lao party and of the then newly formed National Coalition Political Council in Laos.

Grevers said he was told he could ransom two Americans for $225,000. Later, there were indications others might be freed without ransom.

"They had almost a burning desire to negotiate with someone who had the ability to unburden them from the care of these POWs in an honorable, private,

Vessel sinks, Texan rescued

MIDLAND — Nineteen men were rescued Sunday night when a wooden oil research vessel sank off the coast near San Diego, Calif.

One of those saved was Blake Weissling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Weissling, Midland. Blake is a junior geophysics major at Texas A&M University, who was doing research work for the summer aboard the vessel, named the Agasition.

A U.S. Navy missile carrier, the USS Leahy, carried out rescue operations. No casualties were reported.

Spanish government confronts parliament

MADRID, Spain (AP) — The Spanish government prepared today for a new confrontation with the ultra-conservative parliament after it approved a law legalizing political parties but delayed legislation to liberalize the penal code so they can operate.

Informed sources said the government would push for speedy action on the proposed amendment of the penal code, which the Cortes (parliament) voted Wednesday to send back to committee for further study.

The government won the vote on political parties 338-91. But before the second vote news of the assassination of a government official in northwest Spain, presumably by Basque separatists, set off an angry reaction among the deputies.

Justice Minister Antonio Garrigues assured the Cortes the proposed changes contained nothing that would impair the government's fight against terrorism. But fearing a heavy "no" vote, he agreed to further study of the proposal.

Only one political organization, the fascist Phalange party and its successor, the Movement, was allowed during the 36-year rule of Generalissimo Francisco Franco, who died in November.

The new law allows two or more persons to form a political association. Government officials predicted more than 120 organizations will be formed.

The law was passed without a proposed ban on "totalitarian parties," the government's term for the Communist party. Officials said privately the party might be permitted in a year or two.

Military

Training merely primitive initiation rites, Doc says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former chief psychiatrist at the Marine Corps base on Parris Island describes training of recruits as primitive initiation rites that confirm the masculinity of those who make it through the course.

Dr. Jonathan Cohen said that for those who are unable to live with the stress, "the Marine Corps doesn't know when to stop... and tries to subject them to more harassment and punishment."

He told a House Armed Services subcommittee Wednesday of recruits "being punched, often repeatedly; being knocked to the ground; being kicked or drop-kicked; having their ribs broken; being choked, being gouged in the eyes; being hit on the head with a rifle butt..."

"It was the exceptional recruit who did not receive serious physical punishment, the rare recruit who did not witness it in his platoon, and the very rare training in which this kind of physical maltreatment did not occur," said Cohen, now a psychiatrist in Denver.

"The training procedure at Parris Island is like an initiation ritual such as is seen among primitive peoples... It is characteristic of all initiation rituals. For them (recruits who graduate) it is all worth it and confirms their manhood," he said.

Cohen's charges of physical abuse were denied by Lt. Gen. Robert Barrow, Marine Corps deputy chief of staff and commandant of Parris Island between 1972 and 1974, the same time Cohen served as chief psychiatrist. Cohen, in his statement, had high praise for Barrow.

The general said, however, that he knew of no instances nongovernment manner," Grevers said.

The Pentagon currently lists 816 Americans missing in Indochina.

Besides Americans, Grevers said he heard the Pathet Lao was holding 600 or 700 Thai prisoners, whom he said may have been mercenaries hired to fight in Laos by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency.

Grevers was in the news last year when his long-standing claim that a Navy plane with 10 men aboard was downed in the Baltic in April 1950 was confirmed by the Pentagon. His agency has offices in Los Angeles, Detroit, Zurich and Hong Kong.

TALU president Bell to speak here Friday

Jail escapee shot to death

HOUSTON (AP) — One of four escapees from the Grimes County jail in East Texas was shot to death by police near Houston early today. Three others were captured Tuesday in a stolen car at Fort Stockton in West Texas.

Authorities identified the dead man as Thomas G. McGaha, 36, of Houston, being held for investigation of burglary in Grimes County and sought on a habitual criminal warrant from Harris County.

Sheriff's deputies and city police, keeping watch on his wife's car, found McGaha in a motel on the north outskirts of the city. Officers surrounded the motel room and charged through the front door. McGaha fled out a back window, where Policeman L.A. Baker was waiting.

Baker said McGaha came at him with a knife. Baker fired once with a .12 gauge shotgun.

such as those described by Cohen. He also said the training was not abuse of recruits but "challenging, demanding, even stressful."

"I'm willing to accept we have a problem. I'm not willing to accept someone proclaiming it's widespread," said Barrows.

Air Force gassing incident 'accidental'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The Air Force says a "pure and simple accident" caused the gassing of 17 basic trainees at Lackland AFB here last month.

But an investigation of the May 23 incident also said the two training instructors used poor judgement in mixing together cleaning agents that created the chlorine-type gas which overcame the trainees during a barracks cleanup.

The investigation, conducted by Lt. Col. James B. Fackenthal, found "both trainees and their instructors responsible" for the incident.

The trainees all were released from a hospital after 24 to 48 hours of treatment. None was seriously injured.

The two training instructors have been relieved of their duties pending an administrative review.

The report on the gassing incident, issued Wednesday, said in part, "the instructors used poor judgement in mixing together certain cleaning agents, which was in violation of Air Force directives."

The Air Force investigation found that the trainees had purchased unauthorized cleaning agents, which they partially used and then concealed in a false ceiling of their dayroom.

The training instructors found the cleaning agents and poured them down the drain. Later, according to the probe, another batch of cleaning agents was prepared and dumped on top of the previous solution, releasing the noxious fumes.

A spokesman for Lackland AFB released the study.

QUINLAN MOVED — Attendants at Morris View Nursing Home, Morris Plains, N.J., remove Karen Anne Quinlan from ambulance after she was brought to nursing home from St. Clare's Hospital in Denville. Karen has been in a coma for over 14 months. Policeman at left keeps newsmen at a distance.

Houston search policy ruled unconstitutional

HOUSTON (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that a University of Houston policy of searching spectators at Hofheinz Pavilion and Jeppesen Stadium is unconstitutional.

U.S. District Court Judge Carl O. Bue Jr. said Wednesday that the current policy of permitting campus security officers to inspect handbags and packages for "alcoholic beverages, bottles and cans" gives "impermissibly broad powers" to security officers.

Bue said the policy violates the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution by permitting searches without a warrant or probable cause.

The ruling stemmed from a two-year-old civil case filed by a UH student who said her purse was searched against her will at a rock concert held at Hofheinz Pavilion.

Deborah Ann Collier, then student government vice president, said the searching officer told her he was looking for "alcoholic beverages, grass and weapons." She said nothing was found in the handbag inspection.

reduced.

"Unlike bombs and other weapons, cans and bottles can have many proper uses and only through their misuse does injury result."

UH officials said they would have no comment on Bue's ruling.

Hawaii jet aborts with bad engine

DALLAS (AP) — Braniff Airlines' only 747 jumbo jet was expected to be back in service today after successfully returning to the Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport Wednesday when an engine malfunctioned.

A Braniff official said the daily flight to Hawaii was aborted 10 minutes after takeoff. There were no injuries among the 300 passengers and crew.

Flight 501 to Hawaii was canceled Wednesday and the jet underwent a maintenance inspection. Braniff spokesman Jere Cox said he was "sure" the plane would be back in service today.

Cox said the flight aborted because the fire warning light came on in the No. 3 engine, apparently due to a malfunctioning hydraulic pump. The crew was forced to shut down the engine while the plane was in the air.

The jumbo jet landed amid emergency vehicles with the passengers and crew prepared for a crash landing. According to one passenger, Woodrow Glascock of Corpus Christi, the passengers were given pillows and blankets and told to brace for a crash landing.

Karen Quinlan moved from hospital

MORRIS PLAINS, N.J. (AP) — Karen Anne Quinlan, the comatose woman whose right to die became a celebrated court case, has been moved under tight security from St. Clare's Hospital in Denville to the Morris View Nursing Home here.

Miss Quinlan was moved by ambulance late Wednesday. At least two patrol cars escorted the ambulance in a slow five-mile trip to the nursing home, where about 25 Morris County sheriff's deputies waited to keep away reporters.

The young woman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Quinlan, preceded the ambulance by a few minutes. Lights in the nursing home were put out as the couple arrived by car with their attorney, Paul Armstrong.

The ambulance backed up to the front door and deputies huddled as a stretcher covered by white sheets was carried into the county-run facility.

Miss Quinlan, 22, who has been in a coma for more than a year, was removed from the hospital through a seldom-used exit to a waiting ambulance manned by volunteers from Jefferson Township. The Quinlan family lives in Landing, which is some distance from Jefferson Township.

In a statement to reporters at the nursing home, Armstrong said: "The transfer was decided upon by Mr. Quinlan in the exercise of the authority granted to him by the state Supreme Court in its humane and farsighted judgment rendered on March 31."

In its landmark decision, the high court ruled Miss Quinlan's father could make arrangements to disconnect the hospital respirator that sustained her breathing. The respirator was removed May 22 and Miss Quinlan has been breathing on her own since.

Miss Quinlan entered the coma April 15, 1975, after apparently ingesting a combination of tranquilizers and alcohol. Doctors have said she has irreversible brain damage and is in a chronic vegetative state.

Her parents said they initiated the court action to allow her to "die with dignity."

Thixton attends summer camp

Wesley Thixton, Sterling City Route, is attending the Muscular Dystrophy Summer Camp at Brownwood Lake this week as a volunteer.

He has attended for the past two summers as a volunteer and this year is a unit leader. A graduate of Forsan High School, he attended Howard College.

Thixton is employed by the Forsan Independent School District and is using his vacation for this volunteer activity. On Sunday, Thixton and his sister, Sara, will attend the Muscular Dystrophy camp in Amarillo for the second year. Another Big Spring boy, Robert Smith, 4206 Walnut, also attended this camp last year.

Attendees at the camp are each assigned to a victim of muscular dystrophy on a one-to-one basis and care for the camper's needs as well as assisting the camper in various recreational activities.

Most campers are confined to wheelchairs and require assistance. Muscular Dystrophy Summer Camps are sponsored by the Muscular Dystrophy March and the Jerry Lewis Telethon.

Volunteers are currently being contacted in Big Spring for the residential drive here and in the surrounding area. It will be held June 14-20, according to Howard Dodd, local Muscular Dystrophy president.

Burleson, Sullivan to attend honors seminar in San Antonio

James Burleson and David Sullivan of Big Spring High School will attend an honors seminar in business at Trinity University in San Antonio June 13-18.

The seminar will be attended by about 50 Texas high school leaders who are in the top 25 per cent of their entering senior class. The students will be introduced to business enterprise and entrepreneurship. The seminar's purpose is to combat economic and business illiteracy by providing the students with accurate information about business.

The intensive week of activities will include subjects like "Private Enterprise and Business in Modern Society," "Keeping Score in Business," "Business and the Consumer," "Creating Goods and Services," "Management and Planning," "Computers in Business," and "Future Challenges of Business."

Students will experience lectures by San Antonio businessmen and Trinity business professors, films, case discussions, field trips, role-play exercises, management simulations and a computer game.

The seminar is directed by Dr. Robert Fulmer, George R. Brown professor of business at Trinity.

Students attending the seminar will receive a $400 scholarship to cover their expenses, as well as three hours of academic credit. They will also be eligible to win a $2,000 scholarship, which will be awarded to the top participant.

Pat Bender calls league action

By CAROL HART
Big Spring is a big place with a lot to do, according to Airman Pat Bender, Webb Air Force Base.

An active schedule of sports events is one of the reasons Pat keeps busy. She is the athletic specialist at Webb, and is also Big Spring's only active female umpire, according to Staff Sgt. Randy Pringle. Pringle is the umpire in chief for Miss Softball America in Big Spring. Miss Softball America, a national organization, is the heading for girl's softball action. Pringle is also the director of NCOIC athletics. He estimates that there are 40 men umpiring in Big Spring at present.

Pat is certified to umpire for Miss Softball America and the Amateur Softball Association in Big Spring. She officiates at games on the base, and for women's teams in town.

Pat is the daughter of Mrs. Ernest Bender, Orwell, Ohio. While in Ohio, Pat attended Lakeland Community College, to pursue a major in physical education. She joined the Air Force in 1975, and came to Webb in September. She is single.

Pat has been active in athletics for many years. While in junior high school, she planned track meets for her team. In high school, she coached basketball, softball, cross-country and track.

While at Webb, she has coached a baseball team and a volleyball team.

Pat is also certified to officiate basketball games. When the base swimming pools need an extra lifeguard, they can call Pat. She is also a certified lifeguard.

When asked if there were any sports she disliked, she named football. She said she did not like the play the sport because it was too dangerous.

Although Pat is very sports-minded, she has various other interests. She plans to continue her education at Howard College this fall. She is considering having a double major in athletics and math. One of Pat's other hobbies is the guitar.

Pat's only complaint was the weather in Big Spring because she said it was too dusty for her. She said that she likes the community, and thinks the people are nice. With her abilities in sports, it is easy to understand why she keeps active in Big Spring.

WATCHING ACTION CLOSELY — Airman Pat Bender, left, Webb Air Force Base, watches as catcher Ann Cadenhead reaches for a play during a recent softball game. Airman Bender is the only active female umpire in Big Spring. She is certified to officiate for games conducted by Miss Softball America and the Amateur Softball Association in Big Spring.

ACRYLICS are one of today's most popular carpet fibers. Modacrylics are simply a type of acrylic modified for flame retardance. Different carpet manufacturers have brand names, such as Creslan, Orion, Acrilan or Dynel, but they are all acrylics.

This man-made fiber has many special virtues in fine carpeting. The fiber is bulky but relatively lightweight. It is noted for its springy resilience and crush-resistance. The pile will spring back into place even under heavy foot traffic.

Acrylic fibers are said to resemble fine carpet wool more than any other fiber, both in its softness to the touch and its look of luxury. Being pure white to start with, the fibers take beautifully to color dyes, so there is a broad color selection.

Like most of the man-made fibers, acrylics are easy to clean, generally soil-resistant and nonallergenic. (Because the fibers are very smooth, dirt won't cling to them.)

Acrylics your choice? You won't find a better range to choose from than our showroom displays. Dazzling colors, varied textures, lengths from smooth plushes to multi-levels. Come in and get the full story from the carpet people!

Resents way neighbor 'cared' for family

DEAR ABBY: My very good friend and neighbor helped my husband care for our two small children last year while I was hospitalized for two weeks. I thought I would never be able to repay her for her kindness, until three weeks ago when my husband broke down and confessed that during that time, they had had an affair. He said it was all over now and he is terribly ashamed, and he begged my forgiveness. (Yes, I forgave him.)

This "friend" doesn't know that my husband has told me, and now I cannot stand the sight of this two-faced woman. What should I do when she appears at my door with her sweet smile and a chocolate pie—my husband's favorite? We own our home, and I don't want to move.

HURTING

DEAR HURTING: I presume that your husband knows this woman well enough to speak to her, so ask him to tell her that he has made a full confession. If you can't find it in your heart to forgive her, as you did him, your actions will reveal it, and she'll know whether or not to present her sweet face and chocolate pie at your door again.

DEAR ABBY: A girl I work with is uniform-crazy. When she sees a man in a uniform she just flips. She has lost her head over policemen, airline pilots, ushers, servicemen and even bellhops. I saw her tip a doorman a dollar once for opening a door for her just because she liked his looks. She's not a kid. She's a 28-year-old woman and should know better. How can I talk her out of it?

SANDY

DEAR SANDY: Talking won't do it. She has a fixation—brass buttons. Introduce her to a Salvation Army man. Maybe he can save her soul.

DEAR ABBY: In the debate over people who wear dark glasses, CINCY READER wrote: "Fish who live in caves and donkeys who work in mines eventually become blind." As far as mine animals are concerned, this is an old wives' tale. We were taught in the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., public schools that the mules used in the deep anthracite mines became blind.

In the autumn of 1920, the Susquehanna coal subsidiary of the then Pennsylvania Railroad shut down operations temporarily for maintenance work in the mines and brought their 800 mules to the surface. As a young cub reporter on the Wilkes-Barre Record, I was assigned to do a feature story about it.

In my story I scuttled the blind-mule tale when I disclosed that not one of the 800 mules was blind, although many were foaled underground and lived their entire lives there!

One personal-experience fact demolished a textbook fabrication.

ALEX H. WASHBURN, President and Editor, Hope (Arkansas) Star

DEAR ALEX: You may have "scuttled" the blind-mule tale in Wilkes-Barre over half a century ago, but I bought the blind donkey argument on the theory that, anatomically speaking, if you don't use it, you lose it.

Tech gives honorary doctorate

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Ray attended commencement ceremonies for the Texas Tech University School of Medicine Sunday with their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Overton, Austin.

During the ceremonies, eight women and 34 men received doctor of medicine degrees. The graduation convocation, which was held in the Lubbock Municipal Auditorium, marked the first time an honorary degree was awarded by the school of medicine.

Dr. Overton's father, Philip R. Overton, was awarded a Doctor of Science Honoris Causa by Grover Murray, Tech president. Overton, an attorney, and the general counsel for the Texas Medical Association, is the son of pioneer Lubbock physician, Dr. Phillip M. Overton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray also attended a reception, dinner and brunch in Lubbock given in honor of Mr. Overton.

Surgery creates new world for child born disfigured

NEW YORK (AP) — Ida Hays stole a glance in the mirror, her first since they took the bandages off, and laughed for joy.

She had made a pact with herself not to look until the swelling went down but she could not resist. After all, what she beheld was not just a 15-year-old girl with a new face but Ida Hays with a new life.

She studied the face: "I like it," and contemplated the life: "Now no one will

Bailey home is shower site

A bridal shower honoring Miss Debra Williams, bride-elect of Tom Bill Kuykendall, was held Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Walker Bailey, 500 Scott Drive.

The honoree greeted guests with her mother, Mrs. Charles Williams, her fiancée's mother, Mrs. Bill Kuykendall, and his grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Forrest. The guests were registered by Miss Valerie Stevens.

Mrs. Raymond Holguin and Mrs. Dub Day served refreshments from a polished table centered with an epergne containing pink and white spring flowers, flanked by crystal candelabra holding pink lighted tapers. Other appointments were of crystal and silver. Rooms throughout the home were decorated in shades of pink, the bride-elect's chosen colors.

Others assisting Mrs. Bailey as hostesses were Mrs. Howard Dodd, Mrs. Jerry Garrett, Mrs. G. C. Broughton, Jr., Mrs. Terry Forrest, Mrs. Don Stevens, and Mrs. J. R. Bizzell. Their gift to Miss Williams was an electric mixer.

The couple will be married Saturday in the Kuykendall home on the San Angelo Highway.

As the worm turns
Area fishing news

By Danny Reagan

It's been a good week for fishing news, all the area lakes have one thing or another to offer. I caught a few fish, and veteran angler Wyatt Eason finally found someone to fix his pride and joy 54-year-old Garcia saltwater reel.

Here's the news:
LAKE THOMAS
"The weekend was really something," said Mrs. Tidwell from Lake Thomas Lodge. According to her, quite a few extra large crappie have been caught from the bank and from boats.

"There have been quite a few good-eating catfish and large bass caught, mostly on minnows," she said.
The trotline fishing has really been picking up, with cats weighing between nine and 22 pounds being taken off of lucky fishermen's lines.

Mrs. Tidwell reported that her business is really growing, school is out and more and more "blistered people" are turning up at the lake.
At the lake, there are four rentable cabins, three rentable houses, boats to rent (no motors), and skis to rent. The Tidwell's also have all kinds of bait and run a rather large cafe that also has a jukebox, pool table, pinball and foosball machines and all kinds of fishing equipment.

Mrs. Tidwell said her biggest-selling new item is the large trotline minnows.

LAKE COLORADO CITY
Mrs. Luie Luttrull from her husband's Lakeside Lodge excitedly reported that the black bass are biting like crazy, even on the trotlines.

A number of small channel cat are beginning to show up more and more, but the yellows are still scarce. The crappie are pretty slow, but fishing in general is improving.
Despite the rain and wind earlier in the week, the crowds are increasing and the season is getting under way... finally.

LAKE SPENCE
Despite the inclement weather, a couple of fishing buddies and myself went to Spence Saturday.

We got there about 7:30 in the morning, just in time for the rain. But being the true anglers we were, we went ahead and trolled for about 15 minutes before it really started pouring down.

Rushing back to Y.J.'s Marina, we spent an hour or so in the car waiting out the shower. It finally cleared up for quite a full (but mostly unsuccessful) day of fishing, which ended rather abruptly as an enormous thunderhead came tearing across the lake about 5 p.m.

The incoming boats choked the channel (about 30) to Y.J.'s until it looked like all of them would not be able to fit. But almost everyone beat the big white-caps into the sheltering cove.

There were a few notable events on the poor fishing day. We met Cecil Cherry, the man from Odessa who broke the striped bass record last week. He caught a 23-pound striped bass, and I believe I found out how he did it.

When we saw him on the lake later, he was "slabbing," about 100 yards from the neck of the cove to Y.J.'s. There were two other boats around him, and as we went to investigate, one of the men caught hold of a big one. The fish had to be in the 15-pound category, from the looks of the man's reel, but it got away right as he got it to top water.

Dean Holland, one of our party, caught almost one of everything while we were trolling, including a channel cat. Bill Norris, the other member, caught everything he did on a whiteshysterspinnerlure.

Another lake record was set this past week. Bobby Lohse, of San Angelo, caught a 40-pound yellow cat on his trotline which was placed up the river. His bait was trotline minnows.

A number of other anglers had some luck:
WHO CAUGHT WHAT

Lois and Bill Schwager, Odessa — 12 crappie to 1 1/2 lbs., 2 blacks to 2 lbs., & 2 strippers at 5 and 2 lbs. C. W. Freeman, Odessa — 36 channel cat, total weight, 52 lbs. Ralph Woods and Linda Harris, Odessa — 28 cats to 10 lbs., 8 crappie to 1 lb., 2 strippers to 7 lbs., 6 channel cat to 7 1/2 lbs. Ike and Bernie Bailey, Jal. N.M. — 1 stripper and 5 black, total weight, 7 1/2 lbs. H. A. Henson and C. L. Smith, Hobbs — 12 channel cat to 10 lbs., 1 yellow cat at 9 1/2 lbs.
Lewis Niblett, Odessa — 7 crappie to 1 1/2 lbs., 4 blacks to 2 1/2 lbs., 6 catfish to 2 lbs. Jack Hinson and Mark Humbert, Bryan — 1 yellow cat, 6 1/2 lbs., 2 channel cat to 7 1/2 lbs.
Ronnie Scott, Lamesa — 1 stripper, 7 lbs. Lonnie Keith, Jimmy Needham, Odessa — two 8-lb. strippers and two 7-lb. strippers, 3 yellow cat to 14 lbs., 8 channel cat to 2 lbs. W. W. Morris, Robert Lee — 3 1/2-lb. cat.
Mr. and Mrs. Milson, Odessa — 7 blacks to 1 1/2 lbs. Ray Edwards, Odessa — 46 crappie, 1/2 to 1 1/2 lbs., 22-lb. yellow cat, 12 channel cat, 2 to 5 lbs. Willie Demur, Abilene — 10-lb. yellow cat, Jack and Judy Hogan, Midland — 50 whites to 2 1/2 lbs. and 7 strippers to 7 lbs. Scotty Turner, Ken Cole, Phil Elliott, Texico — 45 whites to 3 lbs., 3 strippers to 7 lbs. (Bait — Per-O-Pop)

And now a word from that Country Girl Reporter, Konny Service:

Konny says

"If you are in the right place at the right time, you can hit very large schools of white bass. Fishermen who have hit these schools say that foam covers the top of the water where these fish are.

"Top water baits are your best bet. These whites are not only numerous, but they are quite large in size. Fishermen have remarked that these whites are some of the largest they've ever seen.

"The strippers also make for some good fishing. Top water baits are being used here also, and have pulled in quite a few strippers this week. Fishermen are having luck with the early morning and late evening fishing, but strippers have been caught at other times also.

"The catfish are really great now, especially the yellow cats. These fish are biting live baits this week and can be found up the river. Some rumors have been spread that oxygen is thin in deeper areas which has caused the larger cats to come from the deeper parts of the lake to the top.

"The crappie and black bass fishing has been off and on all week. Some good catches have been made, but there weren't very many."

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"The time to stop fishing and go home is when your beer tastes like wine and your wife resembles Raquel Welch."

Yours Truly,
Konny

One last word about Lake Spence. For the most part, the anglers and sportsmen out on the lake are real gentlemen, even record breakers like Cecil Cherry gives you hints on how he catches the big ones.

But a great number of "boatmen" who have 85 and 115 hp engines feel that they have to enter and leave the cove at Y.J.'s hell-bent-for-leather.

On more than one occasion, I've seen small boats almost hit by these speed-demons. There are 5 mph buoys placed in the channel and they should be observed. There now, I feel better.

See you at Lake Coleman this weekend. Good luck.

Astros cage Cardinals

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros helped Manager Bill Virdon celebrate his 45th birthday in style.

Riding the seven-hit pitching of J.R. Richard and Greg Gross' four-hit performance, the Astros clipped the St. Louis Cardinals 5-2 Wednesday night for their seventh victory in the last eight games.

"It was a good win," said Virdon. "The pitching has been real good and we've been getting just enough runs."

The Cards took a 1-0 lead in the first inning off Richard on a walk, a stolen base and Lou Brock's double down the left field line.

Houston came back to score three times in the bottom of the inning against loser Lynn McGlothen, 5-5.

Rob Andrews' single, a walk to Cesar Cedeno and Jose Cruz' RBI single tied the score. After Ed Herrmann walked, Enos Cabell laced a two-run single to center, giving Houston a 3-1 advantage.

The Astros added a run in the second on a pair of singles, a walk and Bob Watson's double play ball. Cardinals reliever Mike Wallace wild-pitched the final Astros run home in the eighth.

St. Louis scored its other run in the ninth on a double by Reggie Smith and Willie Crawford's single.

"We could have made it a lot easier," said Virdon, in reference to Houston's 13 men left on base. "Even though we're playing 500 ball I don't think you're ever satisfied."

Gross, who collected three singles and a triple in five times at bat, believes that pitching has been the key to Houston's recent surge.

"Good pitching makes winning an awful lot easier," Gross said. "You just can't argue with the success we've been having."

"The pitching has come on pretty good," echoed Richard, 7-5. "You can relax after you get a lead like that and that helps."

The victory was Houston's 11th in its last 14 contests while the reeling Cardinals lost for the sixth time in their last eight starts.

Steers hire basketball mentor from Pecos to coach baseball

By FRED BREWER

Big Spring High School athletic director Donald Robbins announced Wednesday the hiring of Charles Pattillo of Pecos to take charge of the Steer baseball program.

Pattillo, 38, has been a coach and teacher since he graduated from Howard Payne in 1960. He was in London and Burnet before he went to Pecos in 1966 where he saw duty as a head basketball coach and head baseball coach — wearing both hats simultaneously for a spell.

The Eagles, presently in the state 3A baseball finals, made their first trip to the finals in 1973, under Pattillo. After that season, however, he had to divest himself of baseball duties and concentrate solely on basketball. He found that while his mind was on the court his heart was on the diamond.

When Robbins offered him Big Spring's head baseball coaching position Pattillo accepted a chance to come back to his first love.

"We were very fortunate to get him," Robbins said. "He (Pattillo) comes highly recommended by the Pecos school administration and by numerous baseball and softball fans in West Texas. He's quite active in summer softball programs."

CHARLES PATTILLO

Took Pecos to state finals in 1973

Pattillo will teach government and besides his baseball duties he will be an assistant football coach. Accompanying him to Big Spring will be his wife, Jeannette, who will teach in the elementary program, and their three children, Teresa, 13, Tim, 10, and Tamara, 8.
Pattillo is a Baptist and he's been music director of his church for the past seven years. He is a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Messersmith hurls three-hit shutout

Only last month, Andy Messersmith was worried about winning a game. Now he's thinking "no-hitter" with each start.

"Sure, I was thinking 'no-hitter' again," the Atlanta pitcher said Wednesday after shutting out the Chicago Cubs 2-0. "I always do. Why not?"

The celebrated free agent signed a million dollar contract with the Braves earlier in the year, but was unable to win a game until May 17. Since then, he's won four of five, including three shutouts.

In his last appearance, he came within two outs of a no-hitter against Montreal and finished with a one-hit beauty. On Wednesday, he only allowed three hits, one of them a bunt single in the ninth.

"Right now I'm throwing as good as I ever did and just can't pitch any better," said Messersmith, who improved his record to 4-5.

Messersmith's second straight strong performance spoiled the National League debut of veteran right-hander Joe Coleman and handed the Cubs their sixth straight loss. Catcher Steve Swisher got two hits off Messersmith, who faced three batters over the minimum of 27. Messersmith walked one and struck out six.

Giants 6, Expos 2
Jim Barr pitched 8 1-3 innings of six-hit ball — including a no-hitter for the first six — and belted a two-run single to lead San Francisco over Montreal. Barr, 44, held the Expos hitless until Andy Thornton opened the seventh with a line single to center.

The Giants peppered loser Don Stanhouse, 3-2, throughout the early innings, chasing the Expos' starter in a two-run fifth.

Reds 6, Pirates 1
Gary Nolan pitched a five-hitter and Tony Perez drove in three runs, two with a 400-foot home run, to lead Cincinnati over Pittsburgh. The Reds gave Nolan, 5-3, all the support he needed in the opening inning when they scored twice off loser Jerry Reuss on a run-scoring double by Ken Griffey and an RBI single by Joe Morgan.

Nolan set down the Pirates on a total of only 77 pitches, and merely 20 of them were balls.

Dodgers 3, Phillies 2
Burt Hooton hurled a two-hitter through eight innings while pitching to the minimum number of batters, then needed last-out relief help from Charlie Hough to help Los Angeles whip Philadelphia.

Until the Dodger right-hander came unglued in the ninth, he had given up only a second-inning single to Greg Luzinski and a seventh-inning base hit by Larry Bowa and both were erased on double plays.

Padres 3, Mets 0
San Diego left-hander Randy Jones outdueled Tom Seaver and shut out New York with a seven-hitter as the surging Padres extended their winning streak to a club record five straight. Jones' victory was his 10th complete game of the season and ran his record to 11-2 as he continued rolling as baseball's winningest pitcher.

Miss Softball America Boomers bop Belles

Boom Boom beat the Boomer drums, as the Sonic Boomers of the Miss Softball America snapped their losing streak and won their first game of the season 19-16 over the First Federal Belles.

Tianna Moore, (1-3), the winning pitcher, belted a home run.

Templeton hurls 2-hitter

Karen Templeton hurled a two-hitter and rapped out a double to lead the Odessa No. 2 team to a 28-2 rout of Big Spring No. 2 in the Senior League of Miss Softball America.

T. Walraven smacked a triple and homer for the winners while I. Walraven

Smith beats Green

P. Edwards belted two triples to lead the assault for the Odessa No. 1 team in its 15-13 triumph over Big Spring's No. 1 team in the Senior League of Miss Softball America.

Smith registered the win while Cassandra Green suffered the loss.

Webb Women Softball Panthers exude Charisma

The Webb Federal Credit Union's Pink Panthers continued their undefeated ways by winning 20-10 over Charisma.

Jan Harrison (7-0) was the winning pitcher, striking out five and walking only two.

The Pink Panthers now have the championship wrapped up, boosting a 7-0 record with the last game coming up Sunday.
Ginny Kelly and Margo Branham both had a home

Little League Cards quell Rebels

The Cardinals of the National Little League defeated the Rebels 21-7, in a free-wheeling contest Tuesday night.

The Cardinals scored in every inning. Kip McLaughlin pitched and hit the Cards to victory. Kip got four hits and Chris Austin got three hits. Teammates Matt

Hawks drub Colts

Tom Cudd and Tony Shortes teamed up to hurl a no-hitter and Blake Rosson and Steve Rodricks drilled three hits apiece to lead the front-running W. R. Grace Hawks to a 21-3 drubbing of the Coca-Cola Colts in American Little League play.

The Hawks (13-2) put the game out of reach by scoring 10 times in the first frame and they kept it out of sight by scoring in every other inning. Cudd (5-0) received credit for the win and Shortes chalked up a save.

Randy Adamez smacked two hits. Two of Rosson's hits were doubles. Russell Churchill and Tony Kennedy each had a double.

Score by innings:
Hawks 10 4 1 2 4-21
Colts 0 0 0 1 2-3 0

The American League standings: (1) Hawks 13-2, (2) Pirates 11-3, (3) Oilers 5-9, (4) Cabots 4-11, (5) Colts 4-12. The Hawks play the Cabots Friday and they conclude their regular season with their fourth try with the Pirates next week.

Westerners stand third in JuCo golf tournament

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — Butch Girard and his Brebard Junior College teammates from Cocoa, Fla., led the way into today's third round of the National Championship Junior College Golf Tournament.

A three-under-par 69 by Girard and the Brebard team's three-under 285 Wednesday gave the Florida team a 583 for 36 holes and a seven-stroke edge on Alexander City Junior College of Alabama at 590. Western Texas Junior College of Snyder stood third at 593.

Doug Black of Alexander City carded a one-under-par 71 for the second day in a row and held the individual lead at 142, three strokes better than four golfers tied for second.

Postmaster General investigated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department is investigating allegations that Postmaster General Benjamin Bailar got a cut-rate deal on rare stamps in return for awarding $7 million in postal contracts, according to an informed department official.

However, the staff director for a House subcommittee says he already has investigated the same allegations and found no evidence that they are true. The Justice Department official says he has not yet determined whether there is any truth to the allegations.

The investigation involves charges that Bailar purchased rare stamps at a fraction of their real value from Jack Taub, chairman of Scott Publishing Co., a New York-based firm which has sold $7 million worth of philatelic materials to the Postal Service.

In an interview Wednesday night, Taub flatly denied there was any payoff involved and offered to take a lie detector test to support his denial. Bailar was out of town, but a Postal Service spokesman said "this allegation was looked into in 1974 and nothing untoward was found."

Taub said he never sold any stamps to Bailar although he served as an adviser in helping the postal official build up a stamp collection worth an estimated $20,000.

Taub also acknowledged that in 1973, when Bailar was senior assistant postmaster general, he delivered a packet of stamps to Bailar's office. Bailar had bought the stamps from Taub's brother, Bertram, who runs a stamp store in New York, Taub said. He added that he had no financial interest in his brother's business, and had delivered the stamps to Bailar as a means of gaining an introduction.

George Gould, staff director for the House Post Office subcommittee which originally investigated the allegation, said he had been "unable to confirm any of the allegations" and found "no evidence that Taub and Bailar had made an exchange of any stamps."

Gould said the investigation was prompted by statements made by Conrad Trayhern, a former postal procurement official who "had an axe to grind" because he was fired from his job.

Trayhern, a veteran of 10 years with the FBI, also relayed his allegations to the Justice Department and received a reply in April from Asst. Atty. Gen. Richard Thornburgh assuring him that his charges are "being given appropriate attention."

Taub said he also has been accused by his former wife who claims she overheard a conversation between him and Bailar in which he offered Bailar cut-rate deals on stamps in return for postal contracts.

Taub said his ex-wife claims the conversation took place in 1970, three years before he first met Bailar. Taub's ex-wife now living in Torrance, Calif., refused to answer a reporter's questions, saying only that she has retained an attorney.

FDR MASTERMIND DIES — James A. Farley, right, sits beside a hatwearing President Franklin D. Roosevelt after watching the Washington Senators play in Washington, D.C., in April, 1940. Farley, former postmaster general and political mastermind who engineered Roosevelt's ascendancy to the presidency, died Wednesday night in New York. He was 88.

FDR advisor Jim Farley dead at 88

NEW YORK (AP) — James A. "Big Jim" Farley, elder statesman of the Democratic party who engineered Franklin D. Roosevelt's rise to the presidency in the 1930s, then broke with FDR over the issue of a third term, is dead at 88.

Farley, onetime Democratic national chairman and FDR's postmaster general for more than seven years, suffered a heart attack Wednesday night in his suite at the Waldorf Towers, where he lived alone.

Hotel security officers found Farley, who suffered a previous attack in 1972, lying across his bed after a maid notified them she was unable to get into the suite to turn down the bed.

Thousands of Americans will view Magna Carta

By OMAR BURLINSON, M.C.
17th District

WASHINGTON, D.C. — As a result of ceremonies held in the U.S. Capitol last week and in London the week before, we now have a gold-embossed copy of the Magna Carta for display as part of our Bicentennial. The original will be brought by Queen Elizabeth to this country in July.

The Magna Carta, sealed by King John at Runnymede in 1215, and our own Declaration of Independence have some threads in common. Both documents, separated by half a millennium, were essential steps to limit political power by law. Running through both great documents is the fundamental idea that those who exercise power are accountable for the manner and quality of government to those who are subject to it; that rules must pre-exist and are not to be made up on whim as some contest of strength arises.

Our own Declaration of Independence has a turbulent history. Not only was it in controversy during its formation but the document itself has had many physical ventures during its 200 years.

Contrary to legend, the declaration was not signed on July 4, 1776, but, rather, on August 2 of that year. Not all members of the Continental Congress were present to sign, when after a month scribe Matlack had completed the document in large fanciful script. In the following days, the document was unrolled, signed, and rolled again as members showed up. Due to the movements of the British, the Congress adjourned to Baltimore, back to Philadelphia, then to Lancaster, Penn., and next to Princeton, Annapolis, Trenton, New York City, and finally back to Philadelphia, with the document taken along. History indicates it was stuffed into a barrel and pushed along in a cart in all kinds of weather.

In 1800, the government moved to Washington and the parchment was stored in different buildings until Secretary of State Monroe, in 1814, had it moved to a barn in Leesburg, Va., to hide it from British invaders.

When it was returned to Washington, it was in a decrepit condition and John Quincy Adams decided the Declaration should be printed for posterity. Printer W. J. Stone took what was known as a wet-pressing from the original, damaging it to an extent from which it has never recovered.

After the print was made, it was decided that the parchment was beyond restoration and should be kept under cover.

At that time, the Department of State was placed in charge of it and placed it in a dark vault. Scholars and researchers were always wanting to see the original and, armed with letters from their Congressmen, insisted on having it brought out into the light. In the end, the decision was made to turn the manuscript over to the Library of Congress. The librarian had it photographed but lost the negatives. He also had it enshrined in a marble case which now stands vacant in the Library of Congress.

When World War II was declared, the Declaration was packed in a sealed bronze case and taken to Fort Knox for safety. In 1951, it was returned to Washington and sealed in a thermopane glass case filled with humidified helium to prevent further deterioration. A year later, it was transferred in an armored car, under armed escort, to its permanent home in the National Archives where it can now be viewed by the public.

At night, along with the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights, the documents are lowered 20 feet into a steel and concrete vault.

In this Bicentennial year, thousands and thousands of Americans will view these documents and acquire a sense of history which they might not otherwise have.

Texas cowboy big winner in rodeo at Fort Smith

DENVER, Colo. — Butch Bode of Brenham, Tex., was the big winner at the Arkansas-Oklahoma rodeo in Fort Smith, Ark., which ran May 31-June 5, and paid a total of $24,423 in prize money.

Bode took first in calf roping for $1,799, and moved up to ninth in Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association calf roping standings with $9,981 for the season. Bode's total time on two calves at the rodeo was 19.6 seconds.

Don Gay, reigning world champion bull rider from Mesquite, Tex., took first in his event, scoring 86 on a seldom-ridden bull for $1,376. Another reigning champion, Monty Henson, also of Mesquite, took first in his specialty, saddle bronc riding, for $1,150.

Former steer wrestling titlist Tom Puryear of Leander, Tex., split first and second in steer wrestling with Mike Saltsman of Eufaula, Okla. Both cowboys placed in both go-rounds and wound up with ten seconds flat on two steers. Puryear won $1,187 while Saltsman took $1,232.

Jack Ward of Springdale, Ark., winner of the National Finals bareback riding each of the last two years, took first in his event for $909 at Fort Smith.

Reigning all around champion Tom Ferguson of Miami, Okla., is the leading winner this season with $37,035 in earnings.

Wacey Cathey, Big Spring, ranks third among the RCA bull riders with winnings totaling $8,796. Denny Flynn, Springdale, Ark., is second behind Don Gay in that event with winnings totaling $11,566.

When it was returned to Washington, it was in a decrepit condition and John

CAM maps program

LUBBOCK — The Lubbock Apartment Association has scheduled a Certified Apartment Manager (CAM) course on economics of apartment management for June 24.

The CAM program is administered by the National Apartment Association through 70 local affiliates. It allows the apartment industry to develop its own continuing supply of competent, well paid, resident managers with nationally recognized credentials.

Students receive complete nationally standardized teaching and testing standards, and a nationally recognized certification approved by HUD to manage HUD multi-family projects. Courses in legal aspects, marketing, human relations, maintenance, and basic management are also available through LAA.

All persons interested in getting into or currently in the apartment management business are urged to attend this course. The LAA has free job placement available to those who take these courses. For further information, one can contact Larry R. Morgan, executive director of the LAA.

Prospectors Club to meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Prospectors Club will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Reddy Room, Texas Electric Company building. The program will consist of two films, loaned by Howard County Public Library, "Amazing New Zealand," which shows a fantastic mountainside of jade, and "Echoes of Gold" which shows old-time mining for gold in British Columbia.

There will be a discussion and formulation of plans for the newly organized junior members club. All members are urged to attend and bring a friend, and the meeting is open to the public.

Lubbock 'Okies' give land for prison

HOMINY, Okla. (AP) — A Lubbock, Tex., couple was identified Tuesday as the donors of 60 acres of land near here to be a site for a $12.8 million prison.

Richard W. Henton, 37, and his wife June are native Oklahomans. Both currently teach at Texas Tech.

"Hominy is my home town and I grew up in the rural area right where the prison will be built," said Mrs. Henton, an associate professor of family studies.

Henton grew up in Bartlesville and, like his wife, was graduated from Oklahoma State University. He teaches interior design.

"We still have a lot of Oklahoma in us, even though we've been in Lubbock nine years," Henton said.

They decided to donate part of 240 acres they own north of Hominy after Gov. David Boren said the prison would have to be built either on state-owned land or on donated land.

"We didn't want Hominy to lose an opportunity for an institution of this kind which can mean jobs and a general upsurge in the local economic climate," Henton said.

"Both June and I agreed it might be one way we could help some — by donating the 60-acre tract."

The donation was made last week, but the Hentons weren't identified until Tuesday when the deed was delivered to Boren.

"They have owned the land for about five years after purchasing it from Mr. Henton's father, E. L. Marcum, a longtime area rancher and co-owner of the Oklahoma Auction Yard in Hominy."

Mr. and Mrs. Marcum still reside on sprawling ranch land just a short distance from where the prison will be built.

"Having a prison out here will certainly not bother me," Marcum said. "I'm happy about something going up out here to help Hominy."

The land was valued at $725 per acre, or $43,500 for the 60 acres.

READYING FOR THE DEMOCRATS — Workmen at New York's Madison Square Garden keep busy Tuesday as they prepare the Garden for the Democratic Convention which will be held July 12-15. At left will be the main speakers' platform.

Corregidor memories

with Marj Carpenter

Tul Ray Louder can discuss Corregidor without bitterness, although there are some things about those days in that Japanese prison camp that he prefers not to discuss.

The Stanton businessman runs an attractive gift shop along with his electrical shop on Main Street in that community. His years in the Japanese prison camp and the months when he helped defend Corregidor were 34 years ago, but at times must seem like yesterday.

His explanation of the amazing feat of battling the Japanese five long months at Corregidor was highlighted with a diagram showing the weaknesses of the position of the Americans. "They paid dearly for Corregidor,"

Louder recalled "They were smart enough to come at us from behind by land when our big guns faced the harbor. They sat their guns behind an American hospital where we couldn't wipe out their guns without wiping out our hospital. But still they had to fight and fight and fight again to take Corregidor."

The former radioman in the signal corp told of their tunnel they built on top of the tunnel "because we had to be outside with our antennas."

He told of the night General MacArthur finally gave up and left "We highly respected MacArthur. And he understood Orientals. I hate to be critical but I firmly believe that if President Truman had let MacArthur go ahead and finish at Korea, we never would have had a Vietnam."

He also recalled his days in the prison camp in Japan in which they worked in the mines. They were in a prison camp where there were mostly British prisoners. The 27 Americans were put together in one group.

He said they were lucky to have a mining engineer in the group who could warn them of the pitfalls in the mines. Louder recalled that they had no inkling after three years that the war was over.

Finally one day, they told them they had a holiday from the mines because they had run out of dynamite. "We knew this was wrong because they'd been bringing in that dynamite. When we got a holiday the next day too, one of our group managed to get hold of a Japanese newspaper. Two of our men could read Japanese and we learned that the war was over and we had won. Boy, were we ever excited."

"By afternoon, they had us hear a recorded speech from General MacArthur telling us not to wander and loot until they could get there to get us out. We didn't loot, but we wandered."

"They paid us some money, supposedly for our work in the mines. We hadn't had any beef in three years and we bought an old water buffalo and boiled him. We all got sick. We also borrowed a piano from a school so one of our group could play the piano, but we took that piano back before we left Japan."

The Evening Lions when they heard Louder really heard an excellent speaker. But it's more than that. The men who went through the days as prisoners during the World Wars, the Korean conflict, and the Vietnam conflict have a special stamina.

They have already survived something which most of us are fearful to think about—the removal of our freedom and separation from family, home and loved ones.

They have some memories that they tuck away and try not to recall but they also come out with a special appreciation of freedom that those of us who only listen never fully understand.

But they are really worth listening to—out this week when I was ridin' fence around the Evening Lions Club.

Sailor nabbed for selling Navy pistols

ATSUGI, Japan (AP) — Japanese police have arrested a U.S. Navy seaman for allegedly selling a Japanese gangster organization seven Navy pistols for $900 each.

A police official said two of the gangsters were also arrested.

A U.S. military spokesman said the sailor was Seaman 2 c Franklin Rodriguez, 26, who is assigned to the maintenance division at the Atsugi Naval Air Base 20 miles west of Tokyo.

The sailor's home town was not available. He is being held by the Japanese police.

The police said Rodriguez stole the pistols from the base arsenal during the second week of April.

Record month for auto sales taxes

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — An all-time monthly record of more than $30 million in motor vehicle sales taxes was collected in April, state comptroller Bob Bullock reported Tuesday.

Tax collections in May should be even higher, Bullock said.

"People are playing catch-up and making the car purchases they had previously put off. And they're paying more money for cars than ever before—which means more money for the state," Bullock said in a statement.

The motor vehicle sales tax is a four per cent assessment against the sale of cars, trucks, motorcycles, motor homes and most trailers.

JUMBLE — that scrambled word game

Unscramble these four Jumbles, one letter to each square, to form four ordinary words.

STURY VOYIR

CLIPSE REJUN

Now arrange the circled letters to form the surprise answer, as suggested by the above cartoon.

Put in the surprise answer here:

(Answers tomorrow)

Yesterday's Jumble: AROMA GUARD IMBIBE HUNGRY
Answer: It's an opinion — she's the one who had the puppies — "DOG-MA"

DENNIS THE MENACE

"LOOK OUT!"

"WHEW! YA BOTH HAD A NARROW ESCAPE!"

NANCY

ROLLO THE RICH KID IS WORKING... HE HAS A NEWSPAPER ROUTE

I DON'T BELIEVE IT

IT'S TRUE

"Whatever you do, don't default on your loan."

PEANUTS

ARE YOU SURE YOU WANT TO PLAY AT WIMBLEDON?

YOU'D PROBABLY COME UP AGAINST PLAYERS LIKE ASHE, OR CONNORS, OR OKKER OR BORE...

THAT'S TRUE... I HATE PLAYING GWS LIKE THAT

THEY KEEP HITTING THE BALL BACK!

EXTRA GOOD EYE-SIGHT MIGHT BE REQUIRED FOR THE FOREMAN'S JOB.

BUS SAWYER

I WANT TO KNOW YOUR DAD, MARYLEE. IS HE COMING TO OUR WEDDING?

HE CAN'T, JIM.

HE'S TOO NEEDED AT THE MISSION SCHOOL... HE'S THE MOST DEDICATED MAN I'VE EVER KNOWN.

THE NATIVES ARE SO DEPENDENT ON HIM, I DIDN'T WANT TO URGE HIM.

HE COULDN'T COME FOR JUST A DAY OR TWO?

MARY WORTH

YES?... WHO IS IT?

IT'S ME, WADE! ... HURRY UP AND OPEN THE DOOR!

WHY DIDN'T YOU USE THE KEY I GAVE YOU, MONEY-BUNNY?

WHEN I LEFT THE THEATER I FOUND I HAD TAKEN THE WRONG BAG... AND I DIDN'T DARE GO BACK!

NO MATTER! THE IMPORTANT THING IS THAT WE ARE AS THEY SAY... 'ALONE AT LAST' BABY!

I'M STARVED, DARLING! BEFORE WE... SETTLE DOWN, COULD YOU CALL ROOM SERVICE?

LIZZ LABORS

DESPERATELY TO BRING THE CAB BACK ON THE ROAD.

AND SUCCEEDS - BUT -

THE IMPACT CRASHES THE CABBIE'S HEAD AGAINST THE DASH, AS PUCKER PUSS PLANTS A VICIOUS KICK TO LIZZ'S THROAT!

REX MORGAN

MY PARENTS ARE DIVORCED! I LIVE HERE WITH MY FATHER... BUT HE'S IN THE HOSPITAL, IN CORONARY INTENSIVE CARE.

I'M SORRY, MISS BARRETT!

WOULD YOU PLEASE TELL ME WHAT YOU KNOW ABOUT BRICK CUTLER?

NOT VERY MUCH! I DATE HIM OCCASIONALLY.

WHEN DID YOU GEE HIM LAST?

LAST NIGHT! I MET HIM AT A NIGHT CLUB FOR A DRINK! THAT WAS ABOUT MIDNIGHT! I LEFT HIM SHORTLY AFTER THAT!

L'I'L ABNER

MAMMY SAID THAT NO -

MATTER HOW 'HOOMIN ANY HOOMIN BEIN' WAS - HE HAD TO HAVE A SPECK O' HOOMIN DEGENCY -

FLEEGLIE!! - DO ME ONE L'I'L FAVOR, AN' AH'LL WORK FO' YO' FO' TH' REST O' MAH LIFE, AN' SEVERAL - SOB!! - WEEKS THEREAFTER!

BLONDIE

I'M SELLING THIS HANDY HOUSEHOLD FIX-IT BOOK

YOU PAY $5 FOR IT AND YOU GET A $6 REBATE

BUT IF YOU DO THAT YOU LOSE A DOLLAR ON EVERY DEAL

IT DOES KEEP ME MUSTUNG!

B.C.

DOES IT MATTER WHICH END OF THE RAFT YOU FISH FROM?

NOT REALLY.

GOOD! LET'S CHANGE ENDS.

BETLE BAILEY

WHEN YOU FINISH THAT SIGN, ZERO PUT IT OUTSIDE SO IT WILL DRY QUICKER

RIGHT, SARGE

WATCH FOR FALLING ROCK

ANDY CAPP

WHAT ARE YOU GOIN' TO DO THIS EVENIN'?

OH, DO A BIT OF KNITTIN', AVE A LOOK AT TELLY, ETCETERA, ETCETERA

WELL, WHEN YOU COME TO ETCETERA ETCETERA, DON'T FORGET TO WASH MY SHIRT AN' DARN THEM GOLS IN MY FOOTBALL STOCKIN'S!

WIZARD OF ID

HARVEY DIED, AND I WANT A HUNDRED-DOLLAR EULOGY FOR HIM

I DON'T TAKE MONEY FOR EULOGIES

DID YOU KNOW HARVEY?

...NO...

TAKE IT

GASOLINE ALLEY

Pert pacing the roof?

He's been at it for hours!

He's lonesome! Let's go cheer him up!

RICK O'SHAW

AND SO WE COMMIT THE BODY OF OUR DEPARTED BROTHER TO THE EARTH, DUST TO DUST, ASHES TO ASHES...

SCUSE ME, PARD, I GOT HERE LATE. WHO IS THE DEARLY DEFUNCT WE'RE PLANTIN'?

SOME OLD PROSPECTOR... NAME O' ORIN PLUNWITH.

CLASSIFIED AD THE PLACE TO LOOK

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, JUNE 11, 1976

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You have considerable ability now to extend your activities in new and different directions, especially far from your place of birth. Follow a school of thought best suited to your nature. ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Forget dull routine and engage in something new and inspiring. Making new agreements with others can be helpful at this time. TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Use your hunches to good advantage now since they are quite accurate. Come to a better agreement with the one you love. GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Talk frankly on important matters with associates and come to a far better understanding. Be happy at home tonight. MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Study ways in which you can increase your income. Be willing to do the necessary work. Do something to improve your health. LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) After work, be sure to get together with good friends at the amusements that are mutually enjoyed. Do something nice for one you like. VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Attend to those tasks that need to be done if you want to make the progress you desire. Avoid one who is a troublemaker. LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Plan a better set of conditions so that you can get ahead much faster in the days ahead. Take better care of your health and you accomplish more. SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Use your hunches in conjunction with your good judgment and get excellent results today. Come to a better understanding with mate. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Listen carefully to what an associate has to say even though you may disagree with this person. Civic work can prove successful now. GAPIRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Attend to an important duty and make adjustments that are necessary. Take time to improve your surroundings. Show more devotion to mate. AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Use a different method for handling problems that have you bogged down. Fine day for putting a creative plan in operation. PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) You understand what should be done to improve conditions at home and in business, so carry through and be successful. Obtain the data you need.

LOCAL COWBOY ON UNIVERSITY RODEO TEAM—Tarleton State University's men's rodeo team will compete in the College National Finals Rodeo in Bosman, Montana June 14-19. The team won five regional rodeos this spring, thus entitling it to the national competition. Individual honors were given to Phillip Harrison for placing first in team roping in the Southwest Region, to Jerry Jetton for second in team roping, Max Schneeman for third in calf roping, and Steve Fryar for first in steer wrestling. Members of the team are, standing, Jerry Jetton, Gatesville; Dan Webb, Bridgeport; Junior Williams, Keller; Dale Cobb, Keller; Jack Alexander, Woodson; and Cliff Overstreet, Mansfield. Kneeling, Steve Fryar, Big Spring; Reggie Underwood, Gorman; Iky Akers, Clyde; Max Schneeman, Big Lake; Ralph Harrison, Cisco; Steve Williams, Keller; and Jeff Walker, Waco. Not pictured are Phillip Harrison, Cisco; Tom Epperson, Cherokee; and Steve Bearegard, Stephenville. Fryar, Webb, Schneeman, Phillip Harrison, Ralph Harrison, Epperson, Bearegard, and Akers will compete in Bosman.

Congress eyes federal grand jury system, reform wanted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal grand jury system is coming under congressional scrutiny, and a focus of reformers is expected to be the use of immunity from prosecution to loosen the tongues of reluctant witnesses.

“(Federal) prosecutors can maneuver their targets into jail without going through the bother of a trial,” says former Michigan Supreme Court Justice John Swainson, himself the target of an indictment.

Under immunity procedures, a witness who refuses to talk to the grand jury can be jailed for contempt of court. Political activists, feminist leaders, union officials and organized crime figures have all been jailed under such circumstances.

A House Judiciary subcommittee begins hearings today on proposals to end abuse of grand jury proceedings by U.S. attorneys who, a critic said, have turned the grand juries into “a sword ... against the people.”

Atty. Gen. Edward Levi is scheduled to be the first witness before the House panel to present the administration's ideas on how to deal with the situation.

A Senate subcommittee will begin hearings on similar proposals later this month.

Rep. John Conyers, D-Mich., who has introduced one of the measures designed to end the alleged abuses, said the acceptance of immunity should be voluntary and should not be forced on witnesses.

The grand jury works in secret. The juries in theory are independent bodies, but federal prosecutors in almost all cases have free rein in guiding the proceedings.

Witnesses are not allowed to consult with their attorneys during grand jury appearances and are not necessarily told they may be the targets of the panel's investigation. Prosecutors need not present evidence that might exonerate their targets in addition to evidence that might lead to an indictment.

“The list of grand jury horror stories ... can only continue to grow as long as we allow prosecutors a blank check in the grand jury chamber,” said Swainson, also a former governor. He was exonerated of a bribery charge but convicted of perjury — lying to the jury about a charge of which he later was cleared.

Houston endowment garnered by Colorado High graduate

John Woolsey, 1976 graduate of Colorado High School in Colorado City, has been awarded a $1,250 Houston Endowment Scholarship by the Texas Interscholastic League Foundation.

Houston Endowment has provided funds for 20 of the grants to be administered by TILF and paid in two steps, $750 the first year and $500 the second year of study at the University of Texas.

Woolsey earned eligibility for the grant by competing in University Interscholastic League number sense contests. In 1976 he won first place in district, fourth in regional and competed at State Meet. In 1975 he won fourth place in district and was an alternate to the regional meet.

He also competed in UIL science contests, winning first place in the 1976 district meet. He received letters for his number sense and science wins.

Graduating from high school in three years, Woolsey was a National Merit Scholarship Finalist. He was a member of the All-Region Band for two years and winner in numerous area math contests.

He was voted Most Academic in 1975 and Most Likely to Succeed in 1976.

Woolsey played in the school band for three years and the stage band for two years. He was a member of the math-science team for three years and participated in school athletics as a freshman.

Born in Bastrop, Woolsey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Woolsey, Colorado High counselor. He plans to attend UT Austin to major in mathematics and looks forward to a career in math and computer science.

Chapman newly-elected member of Fort Worth Fat Stock Show

I. B. (Barney) Chapman II, majority owner of Big Spring's three Dairy Queen restaurants, is a newly-elected member of the board of directors of the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, held annually in Fort Worth.
