

Record trade deficit of $2.6 billion reported

By R. GREGORY NOKES
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Imports of oil, coffee and transportation equipment contributed to a record monthly trade deficit of $2.6 billion in April, the Commerce Department reported today.

The nation's trade deficit for the first four months of 1977 totals more than $8.5 billion, eclipsing the previous 12-month record deficit of $6.4 billion in 1972.

Carter Administration

officials blamed the huge deficit primarily on oil imports, saying U.S. trade in other goods and commodities is healthy.

C. Fred Bergsten, an assistant U.S. Treasury secretary, said in a speech in New York today that the nation could have a deficit of $20 billion this year, which would be more than three times the record 1972 deficit. The amount of oil imported in April declined from March. But petroleum still was the biggest single expense by far on the U.S. import list.

The Commerce Department said the nation last month imported nearly 288 million barrels of oil at a cost of about $3.9 billion.

Weather

Storm smack South Plains

Severe thunderstorms, some packing tornados and hail of serious damage. Hail covered the ground at times in some areas of the South Plains during the night and into the early hours of today, size from very small to golf ball size.
There was some patchy low cloudiness in West Texas early today, but most of the state had only a partial cloud cover.

Early morning temperatures ranged from the 50s in the mountains of Southwest Texas to the 70s in South Texas. Some early morning readings included 64 at Amarillo.

WEST TEXAS: Scattered afternoon and night time thunderstorms through Friday. Thunderstorms possibly becoming locally severe this afternoon and tonight. Continued rather warm and humid. Highs today and Friday upper 70s Panhandle to the mid 80s south and the upper 90s Big Bend. Lows tonight mostly in the 40s except lower 50s mountains.

WEATHER FORECAST — Showers are forecast today from West Texas into the northern Plains. Rain is expected from the upper Mississippi Valley to the mid-Atlantic coast. Cool weather is forecast in the West and Northeast but the rest of the country is expected to be mild.

Anti-cigarette action

WASHINGTON (AP) — A number of organizations opposed to cigarette smoking are trying to force the Food and Drug Administration to regulate the sale of cigarettes as strictly as the agency plans to regulate saccharin.

The anti-cigarette Action on Smoking and Health, along with other groups and individuals, prepared today to file with an FDA hearing officer a petition that asks the agency to prohibit the sale of cigarettes containing nicotine, except by pharmacies.

The FDA has maintained that it does not have jurisdiction over the sale and use of cigarettes, but the petition by the anti-smoking groups challenges this on legal grounds.

"This is one of those funny petitions that nobody says will work," said John F. Banzhaf III, a law professor at George Washington University and the executive director and general counsel of ASH, the smoking and health group. "I think it will work. Nobody has proved to me that it won't."

He recalled in an interview that in past campaigns his organization won the right to free air time to reply to cigarette commercials, won an eventual ban on cigarette advertising on the air and got separate sections for smokers on airplanes, trains and buses.

But a spokesman for the FDA said "it is our clear understanding that Congress never intended for us or any other federal agency to regulate the use of cigarettes."

Banzhaf's group was joined by 10 other organizations and by two former U.S. surgeons general: Dr. Jesse Steinfeld and Dr. Luther Terry.

The FDA plans to ban the use of the artificial sweetener saccharin as a food additive, but permit its sale over the counter. It recently held public hearings on the ban, now scheduled to begin in July.

The saccharin ban is based on tests in which rats were subjected to massive doses of the artificial sweetener.

The anti-cigarette groups' petition said the FDA had based its saccharin ban on "unproven assumptions." The petition noted the FDA "has suggested that the exposure of 200 million Americans to a reasonable amount of saccharin could result over a lifetime in 12,000 cases of cancer."

Agency shops valid, Supreme Court rules

WASHINGTON (AP) — Public employees who choose not to join a union that bargains for them may be required to help pay for union services, says the U.S. Supreme Court.

By unanimous vote, the high court ruled Monday that so-called agency shops are valid.

An agency shop is one in which all employees who benefit from the collective bargaining efforts of a union selected by a majority of workers are required to pay dues even if they don't join the union.

However, the court said a nonunion employee who is forced to pay dues can insist that his or her dues not be used to advance political or other causes undertaken by the union.

Dues collected from nonunion workers can be used to help finance activities such as contract administration and grievance procedures, the court said.

The decision came in a case from Detroit, where more than 600 public school teachers and counselors filed suit in 1969 challenging a union agreement that required them either to join the Detroit Federation of Teachers or to pay the equivalent of dues each month.

The union president, Mary Ellen Riordan, said Monday she was "delighted" with the high court ruling. A spokesman for the Board of Education had no immediate comment.

The Detroit teachers who challenged the union agreement had argued that it violated their free speech rights under the First Amendment.

But, in an opinion written by Justice Potter Stewart, the court said "the differences between public and private sector collective bargaining simply do not translate into differences in First Amendment rights."

The agency shop is a kind of middle ground in unionism. An "open shop" leaves employees free to choose whether to join the union. If they choose not to join they face no obligation to pay dues. A "union shop" requires union membership for all employees.

School funds 'impasse'

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — House and Senate conferees on school finance meet again this morning in an effort to resolve what Rep. Tom Massey, D-San Angelo, calls the two "gut issues": local fund assignment and teacher pay raises.

Massey said Wednesday afternoon after the conferees recessed following two quick votes.

"If we don't agree on those (two issues), we don't have a bill," Massey said.

The Senate bill, pegged at $820 million, includes $335 million for pay raises. The House bill will cost only $685 million, but the House handles pay raises, $392 million, in a separate bill not before the conference committee.

Massey said the Senate version of the bill emphasizes pay raises, while the House version emphasizes reducing the local fund assignment — the amount local taxpayers must provide.

The House bill calls for $368 million in local fund assignment, compared with the Senate bill's $492 million.

Massey said he thinks teacher pay raises ought to be held to 30 per cent of the total bill, which means $246 million if the Senate insists on limiting total cost to $820 million. But Massey says there is more money available than that.

"Time's running out," warned Sen. A.M. Aikin. "We're going to have to get a bill out."

The panel meets again Thursday morning.

BOTTLE BABY — Sandra, a baby camel born recently at the zoo in Berlin, goes avidly after a guzzle of milk from a bottle in the hands of a warden recently. It might not have been Mother Nature's way, but zoo keepers said that Sandra's mother just refused to accept her and so there was no other way.

Bad water complaints labeled 'nit-picking'

KLEBURG, Tex. (AP) — It's not just lugging plastic jugs of tap water from friends' homes that bothers David Story. The water in his new $16,000 house in this Dallas suburb just doesn't seem to perform any task right.

Story began to notice after he moved in that his house plants were keeling over. His new dishwasher stopped washing. And when he tried to bathe, the water felt like it was mixed with sand.

Then one his neighbors dropped by and told him his children's teeth would turn brown if they drank enough of the water.

According to a report from the State Department of Health Resources, Kleburg's water contains excessive amounts of chloride and fluoride. The report stressed that there isn't enough of either chemical in the water to pose serious health problems.

"The whole thing's kind of screwy. We've tried to get somebody to do something about it but nobody ever has. Most of us out here are poor and we can't afford a new dishwasher every year. It's a mess," Story said.

While surrounding communities use surface water from lakes and reservoirs, Kleburg pumps its own from a 20-year-old artesian well.

Maurice Stroud, a director of the Dallas County Water Control and Improvement District No. 7, brushes off water complaints as "nit-picking."

"The fluoride in the water may be bad to some plants, but I don't think it would hurt a dishwasher. And I've been drinking it for years. I love the way it tastes, but I realize some say it tastes different."

The water district will meet June 2 to discuss the possibility of a bond issue to either upgrade the system or try something new, Stroud said.

Regarding fluoride, Don Thurman of the state health department said medical studies show that token amounts of fluoride in water retard tooth decay. But when more than a small amount is found in the water, the compound causes brown tooth stains.

Founding father

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The first known Father's Day "card" was written in Babylon about 2000 B.C. It was in the form of a clay tablet which asked the gods to grant good health and long life to the father of the individual named Elmesu, reports Hallmark historian Sally Hopkins.

Later, the ancient Romans, though not known particularly for their sentiment, celebrated Feb. 13-22 as the Feast of Parentalia, honoring departed fathers and mothers.

Submarine will be used to search for bodies

LEBANON, N.J. (AP) — A three-man submarine, normally used to explore for oil, has taken on the grim task of searching for bodies in a treacherous man-made lake.

The tiny Mermaid II was lifted by crane into the Round Valley Reservoir here Tuesday and will begin looking today for six fisherman and canoeists believed to have drowned since 1973.

"God, I sure appreciate what they're trying to do," said Warren Stier of Ewing, whose son Craig disappeared while canoeing last March 12. "I hope they find him. We know he's there. They found his bedroll. I don't think he ever made it."

The reservoir was scooped out from farmland in the 1960s after a prolonged drought, but has never been connected to a water-supply system. Used instead for recreation, it has proven dangerous when strong winds cut through the surrounding mountains and churn up the water. The reservoir has proved too challenging for New Jersey state police divers, who gave up the search for bodies this year when they found 185-foot depths and near-freezing temperatures inhospitable.

The victims disappeared in three incidents between 1973 and last March.

Relatives of the missing men turned to Gov. Brendan Byrne, who reportedly was turned down when he asked the Navy for help. Then they talked to Rep. Edward Patten, D-N.J., who contacted Andre Galerne, president of International Underwater Contractors, Inc., of New York City.

Galerne, a former associate of oceanographer Jacques Cousteau, donated the submarine and the services of the crew. The state of New Jersey gave $15,000 to pay for housing the submarine's crew in a nearby motel. The state police will cover other costs.

Galerne was on hand Tuesday and warned that the search would be difficult.

TESTING SUB — Crewman stands aboard miniature submarine that will be used to search for bodies of persons believed to have drowned in Round Valley reservoir near Lebanon, N.J. The sub was put in the water Tuesday and after testing and final adjustments are made the search of the 2,400 acre reservoir will begin.

Wealthy widow six arrested

ATLANTA (AP) — FBI agents plan today to ask for a warrant to search the mobile home of a woman taken into custody Tuesday, the sixth person arrested in connection with the million dollar robbery and slaying of Indianapolis heiress Marjorie Jackson.

Robertina Harroll, 53, of Ringgold, Ga., was arrested at the Ponderosa Camp Park about 25 miles northwest of here. She was taken to be arraigned today in U.S. District Court in Atlanta on a charge of receiving stolen currency in excess of $5,000, the FBI said.

Mrs. Harroll's apprehension ended a nationwide police search for her and her 10-year-old son, Timmy. Reports said she could have as much as $1 million in her possession.

The hunt for Mrs. Harroll began in Arizona, where her sister, Marjorie Pollitt, 49, and Howard Willard, 38, both of Indiana, were arrested Friday. Police had been tipped when the pair tried to buy a mobile home for $35,000 in cash.

Three alleged accomplices to the Jackson slaying were arrested when they paid cash for a $13,000 car, then tried to return it because of a scratch.

Mrs. Harroll's mobile home was bought in Tempe, Ariz., for $21,115 in cash by a woman who identified herself as Robertina Anderson, officers said.

Charged with first-degree murder in the case are Willard; Mrs. Pollitt; Willard's ex-wife; and Manuel Lee Robinson, 29, of Indianapolis. Annie Young, 22, of Indianapolis is charged with possession of stolen property. John Williams, 38, of Indianapolis is charged with theft and is free on $1,000 bond.

The body of the 65-year-old Mrs. Jackson, the widow of a wealthy grocery store owner, was found in her burning house May 7.

Farm Peach, apricot building workshop

Howard County gardeners will want to mark May 31 on their calendar. The event is a peach and apricot budding workshop and horticultural clinic.

The budding workshop will feature the T-bud and participants will have the chance to practice the budding themselves. Immediately following the workshop, the clinic will begin.

Activities will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the Reddy Room of Texas Electric Service Company at 409 Runnels in Big Spring.

During the clinic, gardeners and homeowners are invited to bring plants, disease, insect gardeners and homeowners are invited to bring plants, disease, insect specimens for identification and treatment recommendations. The public is also invited to come and discuss your gardening problems informally with the specialist.

Present for the program will be Dr. Bill Peavy, area horticulturist, Dr. George Philley, area plant pathologist and Charles Neeb, area entomologist. All three are with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service from Fort Stockton.

The public is invited. There will be no charge. For further information contact Bruce Griffith, county extension agent at the county extension office (basement of courthouse) or call 267-6671.

Certification of wheat asked

Due to a possible change in the 1978 Farm Program, farmers are now being asked to certify 1977 wheat and barley crops.

Tim Hall, county director for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said the new change is because a set-aside on 1978 crops may be implemented for surplus commodities which presently exist in wheat and possibly corn and other feed grains, depending on how the 1977 crop fares.

The certification which is being asked for these crops may be the basis for the set aside called for in 1978 if it comes to pass.

The certification will not be used for purposes of establishing allotments.

Woolly bears attack cotton

Seeding cotton in the area is receiving moderate to heavy damage from salt marsh caterpillar or woolly bears. The caterpillars are moving into cotton from nearby pastures, fence rows and waste areas. Damage is more severe around the edges of fields.

In most cases where caterpillars are present, chemicals should only be applied to the borders of the field. The entire acreage of smaller fields should be treated if large numbers of worms are present.

Chemicals labeled for salt marsh caterpillar control and their rates are, listed with actual pounds per acre to apply:

- Bidrin, 25-.5; Methyl parathion, 5-1; Toxaphene - Methyl, 2-1 or 1.5-.75; Dylux bait, see label.

Producers should check the label for grazing restriction, and be cautious of spray drift near pastures. None of these materials is registered for use on pastures.

Moshe Dayan finds job

By MARCUS ELIASON
 Associated Press Writer
 TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Moshe Dayan, a stalwart of Israel's Labor party and an architect of Israel's battlefield victory in 1967, says he has agreed "in principle" to be the new foreign minister.

Dayan, defense minister in Labor governments from 1967 to 1974, confirmed in a telephone interview with the Associated Press that he had agreed to join a government headed by rightwing Likud bloc leader Menahem Begin.

Likud officials announced the offer after Dayan visited Begin at a Tel Aviv hospital where he is recuperating from an inflammation of the heart membrane. Begin's doctor pronounced him fit for the premiership on Wednesday.

The Labor party, which has ruled Israel since it was founded 29 years ago, angrily denounced Dayan's defection. One party official accused Dayan of "political prostitution and treachery."

A Likud spokesman called the move an important step that "will strengthen the government both inside and out."

Yigal Yadin, leader of the Democratic Movement for Change (DMC) which had hoped to get the foreign ministry portfolio, announced he was suspending negotiations to join a Likud coalition.

Dayan was returned to the Knesset, or parliament, as a Labor party candidate in the May 17 general election while his party lost to the Likud coalition.

It was not immediately known if Dayan, the unofficial leader of Labor's right wing, would have to leave his party to serve in a Likud-led coalition government.

Labor party leader Shimon Peres was quoted in Israeli newspapers today as saying he would demand Dayan vacate his parliament seat to someone else on the party list.

Energy

Consumers asked to 'sacrifice'

DALLAS (AP) — Another call for consumers sacrifice was sounded Wednesday by a Federal Energy Administration official plugging for what he called a peaceful transition to energy sources other than oil.

Clement B. Malin, assistant administrator for international energy affairs told delegates to the International Trade Conference of the Southwest that such a transition is the key to continued economic development.

Malin said the energy crisis is one of energy management.

"The energy crisis calls upon us to do things now from which we can expect no immediate benefit," Malin said pointing out that depletion of oil supplies is still years away.

"If we are prepared collectively to face the transition to other energy sources, to make the necessary adjustments and sacrifices in the short term, and to move deliberately to more efficient energy consumption patterns, the transition can be a smooth one with continued growth and minimal dislocation of the global economy."

Malin noted the shift in control of the world's energy resources to a group of small oil producing countries. "Price stability and moderation can no longer be assured," he stated.

"Consumer countries cannot continue to rely on traditional sources of oil supplies for assured, long-term flows of oil at moderate prices."

Malin said the United States is caught in the energy crisis and added that President Carter's recently announced National Energy Plan is aimed not at eliminating total dependency on foreign oil, but at reducing economic vulnerability resulting from that dependency.

The cornerstone of the plan, he stated, "is clearly conservation. Indeed, it is an immediate response that we can make relatively cheaply... We have now time to allow adjustments to be made voluntarily, if we act in an orderly, realistic and prudent way."

He said the plan provides incentives for new production by allowing the price of new oil to rise to the 1977 world oil price, adjusted for inflation.

Mailbox week observed here

Spring is the time the U.S. Postal Service urges customers to tidy up the nation's 25 million mailboxes.

In keeping with this tradition, Big Spring Postmaster Frank Hardesty today announced that the week of May 23-28 will be observed as "Mailbox Improvement Week."

This annual event serves as a stimulus for postal customers to repair, repaint and make other improvements to the millions of rural, curb-line and star mail boxes. Hardesty says this is a good time to identify one's box by painting the name and box number on the receptacle, which will make correct delivery of mail easier when a substitute carrier is on the delivery route.

According to Hardesty, more Americans today received their mail on rural routes than ever before. Each day, rural carriers travel approximately 2.2 million miles to serve 13.8 million families along 32,616 rural routes zigzagging across America.

In the Big Spring area, approximately 1,894 families are served by two rural and four star routes, Hardesty said.

Rural service began in 1896. In those days, many make-shift receptacles were used as mailboxes including tin cans nailed to trees.

Today, a variety of commercial mailbox designs are provided for use with decorative posts. Customers who prefer designs other than the traditional mailbox may check with the Big Spring Post Office, Hardesty said.

TEST CRASH — Sandia Laboratories scientists crashed a locomotive into a tractor trailer rig carrying a nuclear fuel cask to test the casks near Albuquerque, N.M. The test Tuesday was the third in a series.

Howard County heart unit receives award

The Howard County Division of The American Heart Association received the Outstanding Program Award for 1976-77 at the Region 13 Annual Meeting in Odessa on last week.

Howard County ranked ahead of all other counties in the region, including Midland and Ector Counties, in the areas of hypertension screening, cardiopulmonary resuscitation courses, nutrition counseling, and heart information. This exceptional level of activity in the area of program service to the public placed Howard County third in the State of Texas.

The Division also received an Honorable Mention Award for its work in the Public Information Field.

Dr. David Rickey, president of the Howard County Division, accepted the awards on behalf of all the 1976-77 volunteers. He paid special tribute to past president Dene Sheppard and Marianne Simpson, R.N., for their efforts in helping the Division win the awards. Also attending the regional meeting from Howard County were Secretary-Treasurer Bobbie Thomas and Campaign Chairperson Shirley Gilliland.

The Heart Association needs your help to continue its work. If you would like to volunteer to help in the crusade to prevent cardiovascular disease contact Dr. Rickey at 267-2035. You need not be a health professional. The only requirements are a desire to help people and some time to give. If you would like to make a donation or a memorial gift to the Heart Association contact Mrs. Bobbie Thomas at 263-7661.

J.C. Penney earnings told

PITTSBURGH — J.C. Penney Company, Inc., has reported net earnings of $29.9 million for the 13 weeks ended April 30, which equaled the earnings of the comparable 1976 period. Net income per share amounted to 46 cents compared with a record 47 cents in 1976, when there were approximately 1.3 million fewer shares outstanding.

As previously announced, the department store and catalog chain's sales for the 13 weeks rose 7.4 per cent to a record $1,862 million from $1,733 million last year.

Discussing the first quarter performance at the annual stockholders' meeting here, chairman Donald V. Seibert pointed out that matching 1976 first quarter earnings was difficult in light of the 47.4 per cent increase in net income achieved in the first quarter last year. While gross margin continued to improve, the sales increase was not sufficient to offset the upward pressures of personnel and occupancy related costs.

Tips on how to survive twisters

Mother nature has many faces. In spite of all her gentleness there is a destructive side as well. Consider, for example, the tornado, one of the deadliest phenomena in nature.

Many of these violent storms occur during the springtime, when the earth is waking from its winter slumber. The destructive, whirling wind may strike almost without warning and seemingly at random, sweeping everything out of its way with a whiplash tail that moves in a narrow path across the land.

At one time, about all that people could do to guard against being killed or injured by a tornado was to be on the alert for tornado weather and to move underground — into a storm cellar — when conditions warranted.

While oldtimers had to rely on experience to assess the possibility of a tornado, electronics plays a major part in today's alert system. Radar storm warning sets are used in almost all major cities in the state. These stations are connected by teletype and radio. Any station is able to instantly apprise all other stations of tornado activity and the path of a tornado. Then, all communities in the vicinity of the twister can be warned of the tornado's approach through normal channels of communications, or through special warning devices.

The Texas Department of Health Resources has joined with other state and federal agencies and medical associations in efforts aimed at disaster preparedness. It is ready to go into action in any emergency.

If worse comes to worst, and a tornado does strike a community, the state's public health agency, can provide vaccine, public health engineering, medical emergency nursing know-how, and other vital services, to stem the threat of disease or further complications while disaster relief is under way.

One of the best examples of public health action following a highly-destructive tornado occurred in Lubbock, several years ago.

Although storm warnings were in effect, the tornado which actually hit the city appeared out of nowhere — forming just above the downtown section at 10 p.m. One of the first things knocked out was the emergency warning system. With much of Lubbock's communication system knocked out, the health department staff and other city personnel were on their own in following the emergency procedures that had been established in advance. Vaccines and other medical supplies were dug out of the demolished health department building for transfer to an emergency clinic.

State health department engineers and other personnel arrived on the scene early the next morning. Food and drug investigators were assigned to Lubbock immediately and within a week had disposed of all spoiled foods and drugs. A large supply of tetanus vaccine was sent by the Health Department laboratories. Rapid insect control activities were vital because of the large amounts of rain.

As in all similar disasters, the one great lesson learned was the value of being prepared. Today, public health personnel throughout the state are better prepared than ever before to respond to any disaster — natural or man-made.

Over the years, the National Weather Service has developed a system to accurately report severe weather conditions. The public is informed by radio and television advisories.

For tornado activities, the terms used are "Tornado Watch," indicating the possibility of a tornado; "Tornado Warning," meaning that a tornado has been reported in the general area; and "Tornado Alert," meaning to act fast, that a tornado is known to be in the area.

What can you do in the face of a tornado alert?

If it's daylight, or if you can see the funnel advancing toward you, you may have time to move out of its path. If you have a storm cellar, you should move into it. If you can't get out of the way and you don't have a storm cellar, you can still protect yourself.

In homes, open some windows and then keep away from them. Get to the center of the house, or to a basement if there is one.

In schools, move to prearranged shelter areas. Post a lookout if it can be done safely.

In shopping areas, go to designated shelter areas.

In mobile homes, evacuate the area. If no shelter is nearby, leave the trailer park for low protected ground.

In open country, move away from the twister's path. If there isn't enough time, lie flat in the nearest depression with hands shielding your head. If heavy rains accompany the twister, be alert for flash flooding.

Let some things alone

By BURLESON, M.C.
177th District, Texas
WASHINGTON, D.C. — In many instances, government is the problem and not the solution to our problems. The Federal Government knows that much more oil and gas are to be found offshore but the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches have thrown up a string of roadblocks to rapid development of offshore oil and gas. As for the environmentalists, we remember that they delayed construction of the Alaskan pipeline for five years and caused the price of construction to be almost doubled. The pipeline could have been in operation in the latter part of 1973, the year of the Arab oil embargo.

The administration has now accepted notions advanced by the anti-nuclear lobbyists, foes of the automobile, opponents of deregulation of natural gas and the extremists who want to prevent the speedy development of new coal mines. Serious in the long term is the abandonment of the development of the nuclear breeder reactor which, according to some of the best scientific minds, could be the source of tremendous energy in just a few years. After the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars, the President has announced the indefinite deferral of the reprocessing and recycling of plutonium produced in the U.S. nuclear power programs. The announced purpose of this action is to reduce the risk of the spread of the process which could be turned into atomic weapons.

The proliferation of nuclear weapons capability is and should be a legitimate concern of all Nations.

Reds' rookie rooked

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

A single, two doubles, a walk and a home run. How's that for a major league debut?

Pitching... not hitting.

"I don't know if that's ever happened to me before," said a chagrined Tom Hume. "If it has, I can't remember it."

Cincinnati's rookie pitcher was only able to get one out in his first start Wednesday night, and because of it, the Reds eventually lost a 6-5 decision to the San Francisco Giants.

"Everybody got hits against me except the guy who should have," said Hume, whose only success was with the dangerous Willie McCovey. The Giants' first baseman, batting .318, hit a deep fly to center in the first inning.

"He went 0-for-4, didn't he," said Hume. "I guess he just had a bad game."

Despite Hume's inauspicious debut, the Reds still had plenty of chances to win. They slugged three home runs and outthrew the Giants 14-6.

"It's been the same old thing all year," sighed Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson, "we just can't get the big hits. We get all those hits, and we still lose — same old thing."

In other National League games, the Chicago Cubs beat the Montreal Expos 7-3, the Philadelphia Phillies edged the St. Louis Cardinals 2-1, the San Diego Padres nipped the Atlanta Braves 6-5 in 12 innings, and the Houston Astros shaded the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-6.

Hume, a right-hander, was greeted by Derrel Thomas' single. Bill Madlock and Darrell Evans then smacked doubles, Terry Whitfield drew a walk and, after McCovey flied out, Gary Thomasson homered into the right field stands.

Cincinnati's George Foster hit two homers, a solo blast in the second and a two-run shot in the fourth, off Giants' starter John Curtis. Charlie Williams relieved Curtis after four innings, gave up a bases-empty homer to Pete Rose in the seventh, and got the victory, his first of the season.

Cubs 7, Expos 3

Jerry Morales slugged a bases-loaded double to highlight a four-run first inning and launch Chicago over Montreal. Montreal pitcher walked all four batters he faced, and exited after walking Bobby Murcer to force in a run.

Phillies 2, Cardinals 1

Larry Bowa and Ollie Brown delivered sacrifice flies in the fifth and sixth innings, lifting Philadelphia over St. Louis. Winner Steve Carlton pitched 8 1-3 innings before getting relief help from Gene Garber and Tom Underwood, who pitched out of a bases-loaded situation.

Padres 6, Braves 5

Pinch-hitter Jerry Turner drove in Mike Ivie from third with an infield single in the 12th inning, giving San Diego its victory over Atlanta.

With one out in the 12th, Dave Winfield tied the score 5-5 with his ninth homer of the season.

PIED PIPER OF TIMES SQUARE — Heavyweight champ Muhammad Ali, foreground, attracted a following Wednesday as he walked through New York's Times Square area after an unannounced visit to a movie theater where his film is playing. Ali, who is in town to promote the film about his life, attracted a cheering crowd that stopped traffic in the congested area. "I'm the onliest man in the world who can stop traffic in New York City," Ali proclaimed.

Little League results

Devils pitch Yanks

The Devils tortured the Yanks 18-3 in the National League Wednesday. Ace hurler Tommy Guitierrez boosted his perfect slate to 6-0 and his team's to 7-1 and slugged two homers to lead the Devil's to the cake again. Losing pitcher for the Yanks was Scott Eggleston who dropped to a 2-2 record with a team mark of 3-5.

Other Devil sluggers include Roy White with four hits, Loy White with four hits, Dee Cagle with three, Rick Daniels with five, and Guitierrez with four.

Angels wing Giants

The Angels dusted the Giants 11-1 Wednesday night to pull out to a 6-1-1 record in the National Pee Wee League. The Giants dropped to 2-4-1. Winning pitcher was Thad Thomas, 1-0. Loser was Robert Rodriguez.

Angel catcher Todd McKinney powered a two-run homer for the Angels, Curt Henry had two singles for the Giants.

Cabots plunk Hawks

Cabots explored the Hawks Wednesday in the American Major League 5-2. Winning ace was Jamie Thompson, boasting a 4-0 record. Loser was Tony Shortes, 1-1. The Cabots are 7-2, the Hawks 3-6. Jeff Dierck pitched some good relief for the Cabots.

Big batmen were Jay Pirkle of the Hawks with a double and Thompson of the Cabots with two hits.

Elks make Sports

The Elks buried the Sports 16-6 Tuesday in the American Minor Little League. Winning pitcher was Mike Leuchner, loser was Kenneth Whitehead.

Elk triples belonged to Sammy Munez, and Leuchner, doubles belonged to Todd West and Leuchner. Randy Harper, Munez and Leuchner each had two hits, Jack Owens had four. Also Jimmy Rodgers and John Richardson had two hits apiece.

Cubs, dodgers battle

In a game in which the score was not reported, Carl Green won to post a record of 9-2, and Joey Herrer lost to drop to 3-7. The Cubs and the Dodgers in the Texas Little League were the battlers, and whoever had Gerald Wrightsil and Halston Banks Jr. probably won because both those sluggers had homers. In addition, teammates Pernel Parker and Tony Randel had doubles. On top of that, Parker had three hits, Dawson had three, Green and Banks has three, and Wrightsil had four.

T-Birds clang Sabres

The T-Birds bombed the Sabres 16-3 Wednesday in the International League. Johnny Mata hurled his first win and Glenn Slate picked up the loss. The T-Birds are 6-4 and the Sabres 0-11.

Triples belonged to Bret Crenwedge, and doubles to Todd Lloyd, John Recke, Doug Cowling, Crenwedge, and Lloyd had two hits.

Mustangs ford Panthers

The Mustangs bucked the Panthers Wednesday 8-6 in the American Pee Wee League. Taff Wenneck posted a 3-1 record after the win, and Joey Delmonte dropped to 1-3 after the loss. Mario Gonzales had two hits for the Panthers.

Miss Softball America

Retrievers recover Rooters

The Golden Retrievers decided the Rooters 10-7 Monday night to win the first game of their season. Darla Witte was the winning hurler, Sandra Arellano the loser.

Hitters for both teams included Sandra Arellano (2B), Kim Clanton (3B), Rosie Garcia (hr), Melissa Hernandez (2 hr), Alice Lopez (hr), and Holly Walker.

Knights crown Orioles

Behind the no-hit shutout pitching of Mark Harris, who struck out 14 of the 17 batters he faced, the Knights skunked the Orioles 10-0 Wednesday night.

David Coffee was on the mound for the Orioles. Ben Watson, Knights' catcher, got a triple and two doubles for four RBI's. Mark Warren (2), Mark Knight, Russell Stukel, George Padilla and Wayne Hilliard had the other Knight hits.

The Knights, who finished fourth in state last year, will meet the Yanks Saturday night at 8 p.m.

FCA elects new officers

A new slate of officers have been recently elected for the Coahoma Fellowship of Christian Athletes, according to Sandy Sandlin, sponsor.

New officers for the coming year will be Tracy Frazier, president; Mike Ritchey, vice president; Randy Phillips, secretary; and Tim Childers, treasurer. The organization holds its meetings at the fieldhouse in Coahoma.

This Friday, the fellowship is touring the Texas Tech Olympic Weightlifting Program in Lubbock, and will meet three times a week throughout the summer implementing what they have learned.

The same program at Tech last year aided defensive star Eomet Bailey in losing two inches off his waist, while gaining 30 pounds, according to Sandlin.

Super Sonics find recipe
SEATTLE (AP) — The Seattle SuperSonics went shopping for consistency and intimidation.

They think they found those ingredients in Marvin Webster, Paul Silas and Willie Wise.

In a move to bolster a weak front line, Seattle engineered a major five-player National Basketball Association trade that sent center Tom Burleson, guard Bobby Wilkerson and a second-round draft choice to Denver for Webster, a second-year center, and veteran forwards Silas and Wise in the three-team trade Wednesday.

Shortly after the Seattle-Denver trade was announced, the Nuggets sent the 7-foot-2 Burleson, the Sonics' No. 1 draft choice from North Carolina State three years ago, to Kansas City for guard Brian Taylor and the Kings' first-round choice in next month's college draft.

"We feel this is a major deal that will help the SuperSonics tremendously. It will give us a front line that can play right now," said Lenny Wilkens, Seattle's new director of player personnel.

employed as the plant electrician at Fiberglass Systems Inc. Cooking is only one of a variety of hobbies for him.

Variety key word for Bob Harrison

By CAROL HART

Working with sound systems, water skiing, camping, hiking, square dancing and cooking are a few of the hobbies that keep Bob Harrison, plant electrician for Fiberglass Systems Inc., busy when not involved with his job. Harrison has lived in Big Spring over a year, and came from El Paso, where members of his family still reside.

Harrison's interest in sound systems is not related to his job as an electrician. "They are entirely different," he said. He built his own stereo system, learning most of what he knows about the equipment through "reading up on it."

Harrison's interest in sound systems and his love of music are related, and he has over 300 records in a collection (testifying to this fact "I buy everybody that I like," explained Harrison about the record collection. "I just like music in general.")

Another of Harrison's hobbies is square dancing. He is a member of the Colorado City square dancing group, the Do-Si-Dos. He explained that a friend of his, Ms. Danna Hudgins, got him involved with the square dancing group. The Do-Si-Dos slate a dance every Wednesday and two Saturdays a month at the Colorado City Civic Center. "I enjoy dancing very much," Harrison said. "It's good exercise."

Harrison enjoys "anything outdoors," and will have more of an opportunity for outdoor activities now that summer is arriving. He said he enjoys traveling to the Gila Wilderness in New Mexico and to the Guadalupe Pass and surrounding areas to camp out. He also enjoys water skiing, and spends much of his time at Lake Colorado City. He said that one of his ambitions for the summer is to parasail, because "it seems exciting."

Harrison is also looking forward to the arrival of his sons, Bobby, 10, and Ricky (Turtle), 8, this summer. The boys live in El Paso, and are coming to Big Spring for a part of the summer.

When Harrison's sons arrive for their summer visit, they can be assured of plenty to eat, because cooking is another of their father's hobbies. Harrison explained that his mother taught him to cook, often using recipes passed down from his grandmother. He said Mexican food was his specialty, as well as lasagne and all types of outdoor cooking. Several of his favorite recipes are printed here.

Harrison said that his long range plans include staying in Big Spring. He plans to stay with Fiberglass Systems Inc. He said he enjoys Big Spring because "I've met a lot of good, good friends here."

Microwave cooking saves time

Venture into the world of Microwave Cooking where versatility, time and simplicity make meal preparation an exciting adventure. Most foods cook in less than half the time of conventional cooking, so variety and flexibility can be major factors in meal planning. Preparing on-the-spot meals becomes less of a drudgery. Even the problems of cooking special diets are minimized. A shorter cooking period coupled with easier cleanup means less time is spent in the kitchen, thus allowing more opportunities for other home and outside activities.

Add convenience with oven cooking bags and glass cookware to insure time-saving benefits and culinary success. By using oven cooking bags, foods stay moist and retain their natural flavors and juices. They eliminate oven spatter and mess — making cleanup a breeze. Glass cookware lets you tastefully prepare food, conveniently serve food all in one dish. The microwave oven and these accessories are essential ingredients for today's active, on-the-go lifestyle.

Mrs. Eisenhower seeks to change old identity

NEW YORK (AP) — Julie Nixon Eisenhower is trying to establish her own identity after years of being known only as the daughter of Richard M. Nixon.

"I want to be accepted as a writer," she said in an interview Monday. "I want to feel that I'm a contributing member of society and not just one of the people who has lived in the White House."

At 28, former President Nixon's younger daughter has just written her first book, "Special People," which is to be published June 6.

The book contains six profiles of famous people she has known, including Prince Charles, heir to the British throne; the late Chinese leader Mao Tse-tung and author Anne Morrow Lindbergh.

Mrs. Eisenhower is quick to admit that the profiles, which deal with marriages, tragedies and problems in the limelight, reveal almost as much about her as they do about the people she interviewed.

Of Mrs. Lindbergh, an author and widow of Charles A. Lindbergh, Mrs. Eisenhower writes: "We talked about marriage and the seemingly unavoidable mistake of expecting more of the one you love than others, expecting men to meet your needs effortlessly, to share your goals."

Asked if her marriage to David Eisenhower was strained by the public life they led when her father was president, Mrs. Eisenhower said: "Yes, I think it has undergone great changes. I think that the last White House years were a greater strain on us than we realized, and in the decompression period, there were many adjustments to make."

"Not only was it gearing down from being on the phone all day and all of the demands on our time, like mail and public appearances, but it was getting to know each other again."

David graduated from law school last year, and is working on a book about his grandfather, the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He has not yet taken the bar examination, his wife said.

The Eisenhowers recently moved from New York to a three bedroom beach house overlooking the Pacific in Capistrano Beach, Calif., about a 15-minute drive from her parents' retreat in San PROMOTING NEW BOOK — Julie Nixon Eisenhower, in town to promote a new book she wrote, gestures during an interview in New York, Monday. Mrs. Eisenhower, whose book is a series of six profiles about famous people she has met, said during the interview that she is concerned that her mother may not recover fully from the stroke she suffered last July.

Clemente.

Mrs. Eisenhower said she is afraid her mother will not recover completely from the stroke she suffered last July. "They say that if you're not recovered within a year, you never have a complete recovery, and it's almost a year now," she said. "Mother has a little difficulty walking and can't use her left hand completely, but her spirit is good."

In a choked voice, she said her mother is in pain most of the time because since her stroke she has suffered from arthritis.

"I ask her how she feels, and she'll say, 'Oh, I'm so sick of myself. I'm not going to complain,'" Mrs. Eisenhower said.

Asked for her reaction to her father's interviews with television personality David Frost, Mrs. Eisenhower set her jaw stubbornly, the way she had when she vehemently defended Nixon during the days before he became the only man in history to resign the presidency.

"I don't want to comment on it," she said. "He expressed himself much better than I could. He has to speak for himself. I'm proud of my father."

When our first child was born, I hired an ugly old woman in her sixties to help me. I thought surely my husband could be trusted with her, but I was wrong. He was with her every chance he got.

Everybody tells me I am nice looking. Is there something wrong with me? Or is it him?

Wants To Kick Older-Man Habit

DEAR ABBY: I am a 20-year-old college girl with a high I.Q., but I have a big problem concerning men. I relate very well to older men, but college men seem so immature that I can't work up any romantic interest in any of them. Believe me, I've tried.

This year I've had two affairs with older men. I never thought I'd be "that kind of girl." It would really hurt my parents if they knew, so I'm very discreet about it.

These men weren't just men I'd picked up somewhere, but people I'd known a long time.

Abby, I want so much to be held and loved, but I don't want to be on the receiving end only. When a man gives me his love I do everything possible to give as much as I get.

Right now I'm flirting with a married man who is 47. I'm sure nothing lasting can ever come of it, but I can't seem to help myself.

Lately I've been having recurring suicidal thoughts and that scares the daylight out of me. Please help me.

WANTS TO BE LOVED

DEAR WANTS: You're normal. EVERYBODY wants to be loved, but you may have some deep-seated emotional problems that need to be resolved.

If there's a Suicide Prevention Clinic in your town, call them. They offer excellent counseling. Or call your mental health clinic for an appointment. If your college has a counseling service, take advantage of it.

Please write again and tell me which of these recommendations you've pursued, and let me know how you're doing. I care.

DEAR ABBY: Over drinks, my friend of 25 years informed me that the cocktail I was drinking contained more alcohol than the bottle of beer he was drinking.

I told him I thought there was as much alcohol in his bottle of beer as there was in my cocktail. An argument followed, and now we have a bet on. I'm sure I'm right, but I can't prove it. Can you help me?

A BET AT REILLY'S

DEAR BET: One shot of whiskey (one and one-half ounces), a glass of table wine (five ounces) and a pint of beer (16 ounces) all contain approximately the same amount of ethyl alcohol.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the same age, but he prefers older women. I don't know why he married me. He didn't have to. Soon after we were married, I found out he had been living with a woman in her forties since he was 38. (He was then 23). He wanted to keep on seeing her, but I put a stop to it. Then he started seeing a neighbor's wife. She was in her early fifties. We had to move away from there before she broke up our marriage.

When our first child was born, I hired an ugly old woman in her sixties to help me. I thought surely my husband could be trusted with her, but I was wrong. He was with her every chance he got.

Everybody tells me I am nice looking. Is there something wrong with me? Or is it him?

VEGAS

DEAR VEGAS: It's him.

Over 40 graduating seniors attended. Prophecies for those attending were read. Mrs. Valdes made name tags for everyone attending picturing daisies and a diploma.

Club reviews duties, laws

A review of the duties of the officers and of the club's laws and by-laws were among the items on the agenda for the May 19 meeting of the 1970 Hyperion Club.

Club members gathered for the closed planning meeting at the home of Mrs. John Latham. A lunch prepared by Mrs. Latham and cohostess Mrs. Dan Allen followed the meeting.

The next meeting is scheduled for Sept. 6, 1977.

Patient assistance discussed by Spring City women

Hospital volunteering was the topic of discussion at the May 24 meeting of the Spring City Chapter of the American Business

Women's Association. Randy Huey, assistant volunteer coordinator at the Big Spring State Hospital, discussed several volunteer programs that started the Circuit Riders, Circuit Parents Program and Patient Rights Council.

A Patients Rights Council volunteer, Huey said, visits each unit and talks to patients in various hospitals. The volunteers operate a store that has various toilet articles, games and puzzles. They also run a fashion shop where patients can shop for themselves, Huey said.

Currently the volunteers are raising money for a swimming pool, he said.

The newest program is the "Adopt a parent" program for groups or individuals. The parent would visit, send cards on holidays, send patients their home town newspapers and take the patient shopping, he added.

Vice President Ms. Ramona Molina of the Spring City ABWA presided during the meeting at the Western Sizzler, where Ms. Alyce Butler gave the invocation and Ms. Louise Fletcher, owner of Cathy's Canine Coiffures, gave the vocational.

Ms. Majorie Jordan gave the benediction.

The group agreed to conduct an additional Struggling Artist Sale in August. Time and place will be announced later.

A scholarship for Cruz Salazar, who is currently working toward a nursing degree at Howard College, was approved by the club members.

Party given for Miss Burgess

Miss Cindy Burgess, who will graduate Thursday from Big Spring High School, was honored at a luncheon Sunday at the home of Mrs. Auriel LaFond.

Mrs. John Burgess, Cindy's mother, also attended.

Adults should assert selves

COLLEGE STATION — Today's "submissive adults" should assert themselves more, so self-respect could replace the anxieties that trouble them — and there is a "no-fail" formula for it, a family life education specialist says.

Do you feel people often take advantage of you?

Do you feel embarrassed over complaining about poor quality goods and services for which you have paid?

Do you have trouble expressing your ideas and feelings?

If you do, then you need to learn to assert yourself.

At least that is how Mrs. Ilene Miller with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, says it.

"Each of us has the right to stand up for ourselves, our ideas and our best interests — but seldom are we assertive enough," she charges.

Green home shower site

The home of Mrs. Don Green, 1302 Mt. Vernon, was the site of a bridal shower Monday evening honoring Miss Cynthia Ann Smith, bride-elect of Gary Lawson.

Hostesses included Mrs. Green, Mrs. E.Y. Buckner, Mrs. Ed Shive, Mrs. Ernie Boyd, and Mrs. Don Ellis.

Others were: Mrs. John Bagnall, Mrs. Keith Swim, Mrs. E.O. Breckenridge, Mrs. Jim Holmes, Mrs. John Annen, Mrs. Lynn Hise, Mrs. Don Crockett and Mrs. Roger Tucker.

Corsages of spring flowers were presented to the honoree, her mother, Mrs. John F. Smith and Lawson's sister, Mrs. Larry Russell.

The serving table was covered with a white organza tablecloth. A white basket of spring flowers centered the table. Crystal and silver appointments were used.

Senior girls recognized

Mrs. G.W. Martin Jr. and Miss Lisa Martin were hostesses at a party honoring Sands High School senior girls. The event was a combination graduation party and grocery pounding for four girls who are to be married soon.

A green checked gingham tablecloth and napkins accented the table. The centerpiece was a bouquet of pastel gingham flowers.

Pizza and ice cream sundaes were served.

Laetrile bill on its way to house

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A bill to remove restrictions on supplying Laetrile to terminally ill cancer patients was on its way back to the House today after being overwhelmingly approved by the Senate.

The Senate gave the measure a 47-1 vote Wednesday, with Sen. Rodger Randle, D-Tulsa, casting the dissenting vote.

The bill, which must return to the House for consideration of Senate amendments, provides that doctors can treat cancer with the controversial substance in certain circumstances.

It also removes restrictions on hospitals administering Laetrile.

Laetrile treatments could be given after a "written informed request" provided by the State Health Department was executed.

The legislation would have no effect on the supply of Laetrile, which is banned by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

U.S. District Court Judge Luther Bohanon has ruled that terminally ill cancer patients can bring the drug into the country if they have a doctor's certificate stating their condition.

One Senate amendment, by Sen. Ed Berrong, D-Weatherford, provides that doctors and hospitals will not be held responsible for permitting the use of laetrile by a patient.

BLACK'S BEACH — The nation's only municipal nude beach, Black's Beach in the La Jolla section of San Diego, celebrates its third anniversary Sunday. The president of the city's Nude Beaches Committee says residents of the fashionable beach-front neighborhood on cliffs above the "swimsuit optional" area finally are starting to accept the situation. Here, a young man involved in a recent body painting contest at the beach pokes fun at a city sign. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Aikin's office Paris bound

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A copy of Sen. A.M. Aikin's office — lock, stock and filing cabinets — is going to his hometown of Paris.

The Senate voted Wednesday to authorize the administration committee to sign a contract to set up the replica at Paris Junior College.

"We won't move it until Sen. Aikin wants it moved," said the sponsor of the resolution, Sen. Don Adams, D-Jasper.

Aikin, 71, is the dean of the Senate with 40 years of service.
