Police, fire chiefs ask for pay raises

Big Spring Police Chief Stanley Bogard wants $100 more a month for all department employes, and Fire Chief Alvie Harrison wants equal pay for local firefighters.

The proposed salary increases were submitted to the city council at today's regular meeting, and they will appear formally on the agenda for the next council meeting two weeks from today.

"We must compete with other law enforcement agencies for qualified personnel. Not only do we have to compete with other agencies, we must also compete with the local labor markets. wrote Bogard in his proposal was jailed in Howard County He and charged with resisting arrest and fleeing an officer. His bond was set at $200 for each offense. He was then transfered back to Martin County and charged with excessive speed and an additional charge of fleeing an officer with $200 set on each offense there.

In addition to a raise in pay for present police employes, Bogard has asked the council for 10 additional officers. One of these would be assigned to the criminal investigation division, another to the identification division, another as a full-time undercover officer and six as patrolmen.

He was driving back from Midland to Big Spring and went through Stanton on old Highway 80, past the home of Police Chief J. Rogers, and the chief reported that he was "flying low

He contacted his officer, Gilbert Barraza who took up pursuit inside the city limits of Stanton and followed him all the way to Big Spring.

He was going up to 110 miles per hour, according to Barraza. The patrolman also reported that he was passing vehicles on the right shoulder when there were two in front of him.

The police radioed ahead and State Troopers Bill Jennings and Ken Koyce were waiting with a road block at the 177 mile marker on IS 20.

He ran through the road block before he came to a halt, jumped out of his vehicle and fled on foot. He was captured by the highway patrolmen and Deputy B.K. McCartney from the sheriff's office.

Since he was unable to make bond here, he was transfered to Martin County on charges there. He is still in Martin County jail, according to Sheriff Dan Saunders

Altogether, the pay increase and added manpower would cost the city $196,158 more per year, estimated the chief.

Present salary for police officers ranges from $600 per month for a probationary patrolman I, to $1,000 for a captain of police. Bogard's proposal would raise the pay scale $100 per month at each of nine-rank levels

Salaries at the fire department range from $656 per month for a trainee fireman, to $855 per month for a fire captain. The proposed increase would bring salary scales to a rough equivalent of those at the police department.

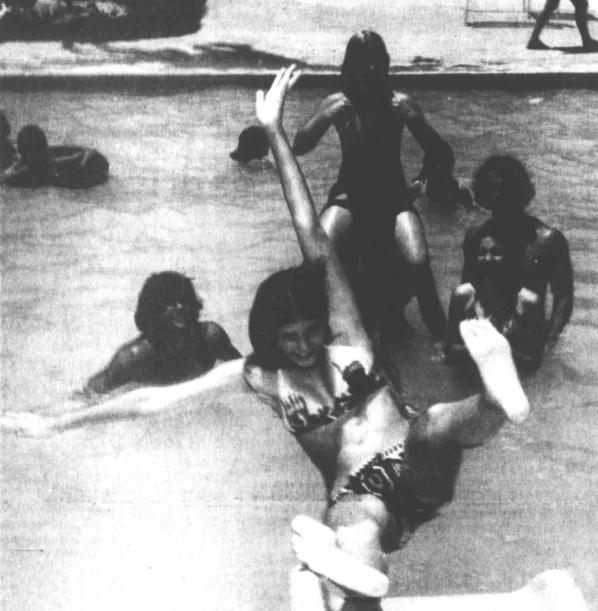

Under the proposal, trainees would make $700 per month, while step three fire marshals would make $1,100 per month. Harrison also suggests the addition of four more men to the department, which, including pay raises for the present 47 employes, would cost the city $164,086.87 more pear year, he estimated.

By BOB BURTON The Howard County Commissioners Court Monday afternoon agreed unanimously to call an election which would create a Board of Development. The action was proposed by Roger Brown and Bill Albright from the Chamber of Commerce, under a state law which permits counties to appropriate five cents of every $100 property valuation to create a fiveman board charged with promoting the industrial development of the county.

approved by the voters in the special election scheduled for August 13, the $61,000 the newly-created Board would get from the county would not mean a raise in taxes, but would be pared from the General Fund of the county

The commissioners, worried that they could be forced to give up the money even if it meant serious curtailment of the county budget, were reassured by Brown that they need only give the money as it became available in the budget

'If you don't have it, don't give it,' said Brown.

"Well, Roger," replied County Judge Bill Tune, "I'm just afraid that the day that election passes you'll be up there asking for that $61,000.'

'That could be,'' smiled Brown. He told the court that the election could provide "enabling legislation" for the county. Presently, the county could not contribute to an industrial development board if it wanted to. After the election it will have that capability.

"If you're ever going to walk a bridge, now's the time to do it," said "We're fighting with Brown. everything we've got. This is your best chance to get a return on your investment, because if the money you spend now is successful, you will be getting back cash in taxes from the industries which locate here.

The Court held a long discussion with Jimmy Ray Smith and Jack Watkins over the structure of the tax assessment program. Smith and Watkins were protesting a move by the tax appraiser's office which they contended would have Smith paying increased taxes four years before some others in the town.

14 PAGES 2 SECTIONS

The argument revolved around a 'depth scale'' used by the Appraisal office to provide a percentage adjustment for irregularly sized lots. The scale was dropped, apparently at the behest of the Tax Appraisal Board, for the 20 per cent examined this year. Smith, who owns property affected by the move, maintains it is unfair for him to pay the changed values before the rest of the community

Watkins told the Commissioner's Court, now in session as the county Board of Equalization, that although he had no property involved in the new taxes he was not there to stir things up. ''I'm just interested in what's fair,'' said Watkins.

Watkins told the commissioners that he was "tired of all the innuendoes, hanky-panky, and ripoffs." Watkins said the Tax Appraisal Board needed to be open to review and protested that it and its actions were not. "I'm tired of talking to people who don't know what's fair," he said.

Zirah Bednar, a member of the Tax Appraisal Board, pointed out that the 20 per cent method had been upheld as fair in other Texas cities, including Dallas, Houston, and Waco. She told the commissioners that if they acted without coordination with the cityschool Board of Equalization it could seriously impair chances of a joint collection agency being established.

The commissioners agreed to meet Wednesday at 2 p.m. to further discuss the problem.

Oil rig tips

MORGAN CITY, La. (AP) - An oil drilling platform began listing early today in the Gulf south of here, forcing some 45 persons to evacuate, the Coast Guard said.

All escaped in life rafts, and were picked up by boats in the area and taken to a nearby platform, about 60 miles south of Morgan City.

Two persons were injured, and were taken by helicopter to New Orleans.

The Coast Guard said the platform had an 11-degree list, but was holding steady in that position.

Winds were reported at 10 to 20 knots, with four-foot waves.

Congress deals second setback

WASHINGTON (AP) - A House committee dealt another setback to President Carter's energy program today, voting to continue work on a controversial nuclear breeder reactor which the administration had proposed cancelling.

Across Capitol Hill, backers of legislation to remove price controls from natural gas pressed their attack in the Senate on the Carter administration's plan for continued regulation. They had won a preliminary victory on that issue in a House subcommittee last week. Continued work on the Clinch River breeder reactor project near Oak Ridge, Tenn., was approved by the House Science and Technology Committee today on a 19-11 vote. The committee agreed to authorize $150 million to begin actual construction on the reactor, which will produce more nuclear fuel than it consumes Carter had asked Congress to phase out the project, claiming that the fuel it produced, plutonium, could too easily be diverted for use in atomic weapons by terrorist groups. However, the committee rejected.

17-11, an amendment by Rep. Thomas

J. Downey, D-N.Y., that would have accomplished what the administration sought by ending work on the breeder project.

Meanwhile, Senate Republican Leader Howard Baker told reporters he feels there is a good chance that the Senate would also vote to restore funds for the Clinch River plant.

As White House energy adviser James R. Schlesinger sought to defend the Carter plan before a House panel, the Senate Energy Committee was considering a rival plan to deregulate newly drilled natural gas. The Senate voted 58 to 32 in 1975 for a form of natural gas deregulation similar to that approved last week by the energy and power subcommittee of the House Commerce Committee. Schlesinger's appearance before the committee's investigations subcommittee is part of the administration's effort to have the full committee reverse last week's deregulation vote.

The investigations panel also wants to ask Schlesinger about a new congressional study which says the administration overestimated the number of plants that would switch from oil or natural gas to coal under the energy plan.

College getting less

By JIM DAVIS Harte-Ha nks Austin Bureau

AUSTIN - Thanks to decisions made by the 1977 Legislature, many of the state's junior college may face problems the next two years in dealing with inflation and growing student populations.

Called by supporters the best deal in education for Texas, the junior college system came out short when funding decisions were made.

Howard College came out of the 1977 session with a total appropriations of $2,501,286, including $1,288,247 for academic courses and $1,213,039 for vocational courses. This is for the two fiscal years beginning Sept. 1.

The college had requested a total of about $3.2 million for the biennium. Its appropriation for the present biennium was about $1.8 million.

State appropriations for junior colleges are determined by a formula using the total number of contact hours taken by students multiplied by a fixed amount per type of course.

Federal funds set for schools

Congressman Omar Burleson announces a tentative entitlement of $388,562 to the Big Spring Independent School District for fiscal year 1977 by the Office of Education under public law 874 providing financial assistance for schools in federally affected areas.

$271,993.58 has been certified for immediate payment and the check should reach the school district within the next week

In addition the Coahoma Independent School district has been approved for a tentative entitlement of $8,553 with a check in the amount of $5,987.49 to go out shortly for immediate payment.

Big Spring School interim superintendent Lynn Hise detailed the funds, explaining that they are "impact" monies, intended to replace the revenue lost through the students whose parents are living and working on Webb AFB, and thus are taxexempt.

Hise said that, with Webb closing, the funds would not be available next vear.

A. The birds, which are great insect fighters, are very choosy. They usually arrive in this part of the country, if they arrive at all, the latter part of February and immediately start checking out nesting sites. For best results, one should erect a martin house in a completely open area.

Offbeat: Barber poll battle

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) - Will Buchta figures the rotating barber pole is a tradition worth fighting city hall about, and he's winning.

"Once you turn off your barber pole, that says you're out of business," the 54-year-old hairclipper said Wednesday. "It destroys the traditional symbol of the barber shops of America."

This spring the city ordered all 12 barber shops with rotating red and white striped poles to turn them off, claiming they violate a 1969 ordinance that outlaws moving signs in an effort to control advertising in neighborhoods.

'If they get away with this, next they could outlaw outside clocks or maybe stop church bells from chiming. I feel the issue I'm standing on is much larger than just the sign law," says Buchta.

The city attorney has been asked to draft an ordinance to exempt barber poles from the ordinance.

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Composer Paul Williams and his wife are sacrificing $675 and their favorite cocktail to oppose Anita Bryant's battle against homosexuals

Brooke slaps Young

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) - Sen. Edward Brooke, R-Mass., says U.N. Ambassador Andrew Young should confine himself to implementing U.S. foreign policy, and not try to make it.

The nation's only black senator avoided direct criticism of Young's controversial remarks on foreign policy but said that "I look upon ambassadors as generals. They should be very, very careful about what they say." Brooke said the term "racist," which Young recently used to describe former Presidents Richard Nixon and Gerald Ford, was extreme. Brooke said he knew both presidents and couldn't call either a racist.

Asked if he approved of Young's recent pronouncements on various subjects, Brooke said: "I presume he was speaking with prior consent on policy decided by the President.'

Dr. Wallace began writing "Tween 12 and 20" because he enjoys writing and sincerely believes he has the experience and desire to help teens.

"In my evening class, I was surprised at the answer a young lady gave me when I asked her if she read the newspaper.

This was music to Dr. Wallace's ears. "That young lady's answer was the spark," he said.

Publisher's corner— Americans dunces on subject of oil

To a West Texan who lives out among a big chunk of the nation's petroleum reserves, the average American's ignorance on energy is unbelievable.

The latest demonstration of this lack of knowledge came from pollster George Gallup whose organization interviewed 1,506 sample adults from 300 scientifically selected parts of the nation. The first paragraph of his news column on the results read:

GALLUP SEEMED amazed to find that even after President Carter's televised messages on energy, an amazingly large number of Americans do not know about U.S. dependence on foreign oil or how much oil the country must import to meet its needs.

Across the nation, only 52 per cent of the people questioned knew that domestic production was insufficient. An incredible 33 per cent of those questioned said the U.S. produces enough oil. Another 15 per cent had no idea

MACKEED THE RICHWOND HEWGLENER OH 77 BYCH KARO TROUME.

Actually, for the first quarter of 1977 the U.S. has imported 47 per cent of its oil from foreign sources.

Gallup found that even among more highly educated people the answer to this question was not known. Of those who have attended college, three in ten said the U.S. produces enough oil. One in ten had no idea.

WHEN ASKED what percentage of oil that the U.S. imports, only 17 per cent could answer that it is between 40 and 50 per cent.

Twice that many (34 per cent) would not even make a guess.

So how are we going to make the average American aware enough of the energy problem to solve it before it devours us? If they don't follow the press, if they don't listen to the president, what can we do? Congress will not move seriously to address the problem until the public support, if not pressure, is there to force it. And unfortunately, too many Americans will not pay any attention to the problem until their lights go out,

-the cost of training rookies would be reduced, because theoretically, there would be a lower turnover rate among patrolmen.

WASHINGTON - The Communist-

A Supreme Court ruling last year will also turn over to the Communistbacked church $5 million worth of religious property in the United States. The court settled a dispute between the mother church in Yugoslavia and the anti-communist faction in the United States, with a decision in favor of the mother church.

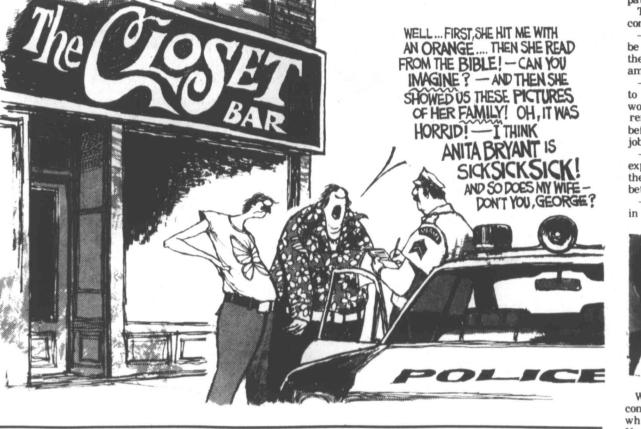

WE HAVE now obtained documents and testimony showing that Yugoslavia's UDB, the feared secret police, installed its choice as head of the church in 1958. Authoritative U.S. intelligence sources have told us that priests are cleared and briefed by Communist officials before they are sent to America. Some may be little better, said our sources, than spies in frocks the vote on the new patriarch, as one eyewitness described it, a carload of UDB agents roared up to the monastery and demanded Father Makarije's ceremonial vestments. Frightened priests surrendered the sacred articles to the secret police.

Broken by mistreatment, the jailed Makarije obediently dressed in his formal cassock and donned the vestments. Then he was hustled from prison to participate in the voting. He followed the UDB's orders and voted for its candidate, Bishop German.

But afterward, an anguished Makarije returned to the monastery and tearfully produced 200,000 dinars (about $666) that the UDB had paid him for his vote. "I feel like Judas," he cried. He tried unsuccessfully to give the money away to his fellow monks than the Senate.

Four years after the partiarch had consolidated his hold on the church in Yugoslavia, the secret police turned their attention to the United States and began a backstage effort to oust the presiding authority, Bishop Dionisije. The FBI learned about the plot from a confidential source, whom we have now identified as an important UDB official. Reported a secret FBI "Efforts have been unmemo: dertaken by representatives of the Uprave Drzavne Bezbednosti (UDB) Belgrade to discredit Bishop Dionisije, head of the Serbian Orthodox Shurch in the U.S. A secret cable from the Yugoslav authorities to their embassy in Washington, describing a blackmail pioy against this bishop, was intercepted by U.S. intelligence. The cable was translated and paraphrased in a secret U.S. report, which we have obtained.

WHAT MAY be the semi-final round of negotiations on the treaty is now underway here, but lack of preparation of Congress for an eventual loss of U.S. control over the canal is definitely hurting the treaty's chances. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, the senior U.S. diplomat who began the negotiations in the Nixon administration, is highly regarded on Capitol Hill, but Mr. Carter's assignment of Sol Linowitz, a liberal, as his top man on the new treaty weakened the negotiations in the eyes of congressional conservatives, however unfairly.

A footnote: Mr. Carter surprised his congressional audience when he cited the attack on him by TASS, the Soviet news agency, the day before the White House session. The President said it proved that Moscow was "feeling the heat" from "world" criticism of its human rights violations. He carefully refrained from giving the Carter administration's human rights crusade any credit and said that soviet concern over its human rights violations had been achieved without any "internal interference" in Soviet affairs.

Now to the other parts of your letter. There are three kinds of strokes. One type can be caused by brain hemorrhage as a result of high blood pressure. Ordinary activity should do no narm but in light of your recently increased pressure strenuous exercise should be avoided, at least until you get a better fix on the blood pressure status. Your weight does not seem to be a problem, but salt should be avoided.

Your first order of business should be to follow up with further blood pressure readings to ease your mind and to get treatment if needed. Blood pressure such as yours can be easily controlled. Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 17 and have bowlegs. I would like to know what causes this, and if there is anything I can do to make them straight. Should I go to a doctor, or what? - P.P.S.

Few people have perfectly straight legs. It's difficult to comment on a letter like yours. Young girls (boys, too) often imagine deformity where none exists. From infancy on, legs go through a definite pattern of development; bowing occurs in the first few years followed by a tendency toward knock-knees up until the beginning of puberty. After that they usually straighten up, unless their owner has an inherited tendency toward an irregularity. The skilled pediatrician can detect specific abnormalities quite early in life, when corrective surgery is most effective.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Thanks for printing the letter from Mrs. E.O. about pyelonephritis. My husband didn't understand what was bothering me for all the years I had it, and I didn't seem able to explain it to him well enough for him to understand. Now he does. I took two years of treatment to overcome it. - Mrs. I.F.

I hope you're getting your share of sympathy - retroactively. Thanks for the nice note. Pyelonephritis is a serious form of kidney infection.

Did you know that 80 per cent of stroke victims resume to some degree their former lives? In "Stroke Recovery - Hope and Help," Dr. Thosteson describes the causes and treatment of stroke. For a copy write him in care of this newspaper, enclosing 25 cents and a long, stamped and self-addressed envelope.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

The UDB has also blackmailed and harrassed U.S. citizens of Serbain discent. Similar charges have led to a Senate investigation of Chile's DINA, Iran's SAVAK, Russian's KGB and South Korea's KCIA.

The chilling story of the Communist takeover of the Serbian Orthodox church in Belgrade is told in secret FBI memos and intelligence reports. These documents also describe an ugly campaign to discredit the anti-Communist leader of the church in the United States, with contrived evidence about his alleged love life.

According to the testimony, the UDB sought to subvert the church in 1958 by installing Bishop German, a charming but cunning prelate, as the new patriarch. The secret police needed the vote of Father Makarije, head of Yugoslavia's famed Dechani monastery, to make it look legitimate. The courageous cleric was con-

My answer Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: What does it mean to be filled with the Holy Spirit? I want to be filled, but am confused about this. - K.A.

DEAR K.A.: The promise of the Holy Spirit was one of Jesus' greatest promises to His disciples. Shortly before His arrest and crucifixion, Jesus said, "And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you forever; even the Spirit of truth." (John 14:16, 17). Lloyd Ogilvie of the Hollywood Presbyterian Church refers to the Holy Spirit as "The Contemporary Christ." Just as God was present with the disciples in Jesus Christ, so now God is with us - even within us - through the presence of the Holy Spirit.

The Bible says several things about being filled with the Holy Spirit. First, it teaches that the Holy Spirit of God has taken up residence in the life of every believer in Christ. "If any one does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ" (Romans 8:9, New International Version).

Spirit dwelling in them, they may not be allowing Him to control their lives. The Christians Paul wrote about in Corinth were this way: "And I brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal,

What does it mean to be filled with everything. Don't confuse the filling of the Spirit with any particular experience; the Spirit is in control of our lives when we are yielding to Him in obedience. The Greek word implies 'being filled." It is a continual action, plus others. The athletic director at BSHS is not only that, but he is the honorary president of the school board. During the hearing held for Mr. Griffin, not once did they tell the taxpayers why Mr. Griffin was not rehired. The board made excuses one after the other with Mr. (Lynn) Hise (interim superintendent) the main objector.

The board was so afraid that it would be proven wrong that members had to have an attorney present to represent them, when Mr. Griffin had no such person. Why is it that Don Robbins did not deny allegations of reports of what he had said of student athletes. No, he

Dead baby's mom enters guilty plea

NEWKIRK, Okla. (AP) -A plea of no contest has been entered by a 23-year-old Texas woman, charged with misdemeanors in connection with the discovery of an infant's body in a trash can near Tonkawa a week earlier

District Court Judge Lowell Doggett gave Susan Thomas, 23, of Nocona, Tex., a two-year deferred sentence with supervised probation.

The woman appeared with her father in Kay County District Court and entered the pleas to charges of neglect of burial and concealing the death of a child, said Dist. Atty. Joe Wideman.

She had been brought back to Oklahoma after waiving extradition from Minnesota where she had gone following the birth of her baby June 4, Wideman said.

The mother was also ordered to pay triple damages for the cost of burial, amounting to $450, obtain a delayed birth and death certificate and erect a suitable marker for the infant's grave in Tonkawa.

Wideman said it was apparent from doctor's reports that the child died minutes after birth of a blood clot in the head caused by trauma during natural childbirth.

The woman had been treatment at a under hospital in Waseca, Minn., for severe infections which set in after the baby boy was born at a Pauls Valley motel, Wideman said.

Wideman said the woman had just finished school and had been on her way to a friend's home in Minnesota to have her baby when she stopped at the motel in Pauls Valley

The district attorney said the woman panicked after the baby died and disposed of the body in a trash can at a rest area near Tonkawa. A truck driver found the body the next day.

'Shipwreck'

SOUTH PADRE ISLAND, Tex. (AP) - State archeologists are out in strength this summer, searching the sea bottom for shipwrecks, probably remnants of ships that went down in the last century

Twenty to 30 possible shipwreck sites are under examination near the point where Laguna Madre empties into the Gulf of Mexico, says Barto Arnold.

Arnold is director of the Texas Antiquities Committee's Underwater Archeological Research Section.

Fifteen professional and student archeologists are at work under his supervision in the TAC's summer operation, which began June 1 and continues through mid-August.

A machine sucks in clear water from the surface and shoots it at the selected location on the sea bottom, gently cleaning an area from 10 to 30 feet across. Divers then work the area in 30-to 45-minute shifts. They bring up the small objects and attach bouys to the heavy ones, which will be raised by lifting machinery.

Sites were located with magnetometers that register the presence of metal.

The initial summer projects focused on a 1554 Spanish shipwreck.

This year, Arnold says he believes the sites "may be found to represent 19th Century Anglo shipwrecks.'

DEAR READERS: Immediately following Mother's Day, and for several weeks thereafter, I received numerous letters concerning that special day we set aside to "honor" Mother. Some excerpts: "...As far as I'm concerned, Mother's Day is a crock of cranberries! All my kids are married and have their own lives, which is fine with me, but weeks can go by and none of them thinks to call me, but on Mother's Day they all fight over me

CHICAGO MOM

"...I had only one child, and I regret to say that it was a boy. He is married now, so every holiday he spends with HER mother. Whoever said: 'A son is a son until he takes a wife, but a daughter is a daughter all her life' sure said a mouthful.

MILWAUKEE MOM

... My husband gave me a card for Mother's Day, and I told him I wasn't his mother, so we got into a fight over it. I happen to be six years older than him, but I am not old enough to be his mother. Was I wrong to get steamed? NOT HIS MOTHER

(I told her she was indeed wrong-that she was probably overly sensitive to the age difference, and that provoked her anger.)

When my only daughter sent me a check for $25 with a note telling me to buy myself something for Mother's Day, I felt so bad i cried all day. If she's too busy, or lazy, or lacking in imagination to pick out a present, I certainly don't need her charity."

HURT IN WALPOLE, N.H.

.My son who lives in another city forgot me again on Mother's Day, but he called me the next day and fell all over himself apologizing. The damage had already been done, and my Mother's Day was ruined. This is the third year he's done that. Next year I'm taking my phone off the hook EVERETT, WASH. What do you do with a mother who sends back the Mother's Day gifts her children give her? She says, 'I don't received need anything and I don't want anything, so please take it back'!" D. AND S.

Among therapeutic values of the pool, Gatewood said, are those that would increase motion, improve circulation and allow weakened muscles to move joints. He said the facility would improve patients' morales by providing socialization with those more able and alert and allow for achievement which may not be found elsewhere. The pool will also have a deeper end for recreational swimming for the more able patients.

According to A.L. Gatewood, director of rehabilitation services, the pool will have a very shallow end for non-ambulatory patients.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. Bartow's resignation from UCLA was announced in Los Angeles Monday night by Athletic Director J.D. Morgan and his hiring by Alabama-Birmingham was to be announced at a press conference early today.

"Gene will serve as athletic director and head coach of the UAB basketball team we hope to field during the 1978-79 seasons," said school President Dr. S. Richardson Hill.

"He is one of the great coaches and leaders of young people in the country today, and we have confidence he will continue his outstanding leadership at UAB." Hill added.

Midland swimmers set World records MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) - Seven members of the City of Midland swim team swam a total of 436 miles, 900 yards in seven days to set a new world swimming endurance record.

The week-long swimming session ended Monday with four new world swimming endurance records. No member of the seven-man relay team slept more than a total of 28 hours during the marathon that set the new Guiness Book of World Records marks.

The seven days in the water earned the team a record for the longest time swimming by a relay team, breaking the old mark by 24 hours, coach Doug Ingram said

The team also set new speed marks for the 100-mile and 300-mile swim and a record for the longest distance covered by a relay team in a 24-hour period - more than 70 miles.

The team got help from 13 other team members in setting the 100-mile record, but established the others

The call came about the time Kerrigan, the over-worked Expos reliever, was saving Alcala's second victory of the season since joining the Expos.

"I don't know anything except that I have a son," an excited Alcala said. "I didn't even know my wife was going to the hospital.

The Expos had settled comfortably into a 3-0 lead, the result of a five hit spree in the fifth inning, when Cruz finally pulled Houston back into the game with a two-run homer over the rightfield fence in the eighth with one out.

Ed McEnanev then relieved Alcala. McEnanev walked Willie Crawford and yielded a single to Joe Ferguson. Expos Manager Dick Williams then brought on Kerrigan, who walked Cliff Johnson to load the bases.

Kerrigan escaped the inning by striking out Art Howe and getting Ken Boswell on a harmless groundout to second base. Kerrigan, who picked up his fifth save, retired the side in order in the ninth.

The Expos scored three runs in the fifth inning off Houston starter and loser Mark Lemongello,1-10, on runscoring singles by Tony Perez and Andre Dawson and a sacrifice fly by Gary Carter.

Lemongello's loss made him the first pitcher in the National League to lose 10 games this season

"All the time I worry when I pitch," said Alcala, who came to the Expos after the season started from Cincinnati. "Tonight I just said, if you beat me you have to hit my fast ball and I didn't worry. I relaxed and just pitched.

Kerrigan, pitching in his fourth game in three nights. preserved Alcala's victory after loading the bases. He struck out Howe on an outside pitch "that sank pretty good and he went for it.

"The three and one pitch to Boswell was the toughest pitch of the game," Kerrigan said. "I thought he would take it. It was a borderline pitch. It could have gone either

Cruz saw little good about his two-run homer, his fourth of the season, all in the Astrodome. "It didn't make any difference did it?" he said. "We lost the game anyway."

But for Alcala, the evening was a double pleasure "Tonight it was two happy times," he said.

Mickey Howard, Texas Electric lineman.

"All of us at Texas Electric get electric bills too, and they're up.That's why I'm trying to use less."

"My electric bills have gone up like everyone's.

Of course, working for Texas Electric, I'm more aware of how expensive new plants are and how high fuel is. But that won't solve my problem at home.

That's why I'm checking the weatherstripping around all my doors and the caulking around the windows.

I mean I could feel air under the door and I'm paying for it. So I put storm doors on and that really made a difference.

Gives me four inches of dead air. And that's a lot better than Service nothing."

Electricity. You count on it today. We're working to keep it that way.
