

San Diego officers assaulted by Tijuana police

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Two Tijuana policemen were in serious condition after a border shootout with undercover San Diego policemen when the Mexican officers apparently crossed the border and tried to shake down the Americans, authorities said.

Police said Sunday that both Tijuana officers received serious wounds in the shootout late Saturday, with one of the Mexicans making it back across the border and the other booked for investigation of attempted murder in a San Diego hospital.

Two U.S. officers wounded in the incident were treated and dismissed.

San Diego Police Department officials explained the incident this way:

The U.S. officers, part of the police department's border task force, were on the U.S. side of the border talking to a pair of Mexican nationals who were standing on the Mexican side when the two Tijuana policemen drove up.

The Tijuana officers arrested the Mexican nationals and ordered the U.S. officers to come toward them. The officers refused, and one of the Mexican policemen "pointed his revolver at them and stated that if they would not return he would kill them," said Sgt. Al Guerin.

The San Diego policemen thought it might be a shakedown and shouted that they had no money, said

Inspector Wayne Burkett. "That's the usual thing," Burkett said. "They (Tijuana policemen) are there to rob aliens trying to get into the U.S."

The U.S. officers then hid in the bushes, prompting the Mexican policemen to cross the border. The officers identified themselves as members of the San Diego Police Department and the Mexican started firing, Sgt. Guerin said.

A shootout ensued and both Tijuana policemen were wounded. In custody was Jesus Bautista Hernandez, 40. In serious condition in a Tijuana hospital was Pedro Ibarra Espindola, authorities said.

U.S. authorities said aliens have told them of being attacked by Tijuana auxiliary officers while crossing the border, though this was the first skirmish involving San Diego police officers.

The incident follows by less than two weeks the firing of several dozen Tijuana police officers by Chief Antonio Escobedo Gomez, who began the shakeup after Mayor Marquez Arce was accused by Mexican officers when he posed as an illegal alien.

It is not known how many illegal aliens sneak into the U.S. across the 8 1/2-mile border near San Diego, but 27,882 aliens were arrested in the area in June alone. San Diego Police Department's border task force, many of whose officers speak Spanish and work undercover, was designed to augment the U.S. Border Patrol in monitoring the area.

Traffic mishaps claim 24 lives

By the Associated Press
Violent death rode the streets and highways in Texas during the weekend.
Traffic accidents claimed 24 lives and other causes boosted the overall toll to at least 41 — including eight drownings and seven homicides.

The tragic count covered the period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday. These were among the victims:
State police said Patrick Cockrell, 35, Johnny Love, 50, and Hattie McCann, 52, all of Dallas, were killed in a fiery three-car smashup on Texas 276 in Hunt County. Investigators said two cars were eastbound and one westbound when one of the vehicles swerved across into the path of the other. Cockrell and Ms. McCann were thrown from their car. Police said Love was trapped in his vehicle and burned to death.
Two swimmers drowned Sunday at different points in Canyon Lake near New Braunfels. They were Bill Genman, 26, from Kelly Air Force Base at San Antonio and Ben Proscelle, 15, of San Antonio.
Terry Lee Plake, 19, of Beaumont was killed Sunday in a collision of his car and a dump truck two miles west of Austin on Ranch Road 2222. Two others in the car were injured. Officers held the truck driver for questioning.
A two-car crash three miles east of Gladewater on U.S. 80 late Sunday night killed Jesse Dockery, 36, of Longview and Steven Dockery, 9, of Gladewater. Two other persons suffered serious injuries. Officers said the Dockery vehicle ran a stop sign and hit another car while being pursued by police.
Curley Harvey, 22, of Vidor died Sunday of injuries suffered Friday night when his car hit a bridge west of Orange on Farm Road 1130.
Floyd Earl Miller Jr., 40, of Garland, died Friday when his car went out of control on Interstate 30, crossed the center median and hit a tractor-trailer rig.
A Dallas man was shot to death there Friday night at a residence. He was identified as Curtis Bailey, 37.
Mark Sager, 16, of Lakeside died early Saturday in a two-car accident at Tyler Friday night claimed the life of Mark McCoy Johnson, 23. Officers said his pickup truck slammed into the rear of a parked tractor-trailer.

'Trash bag' suspect freed

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — David Douglas Hill, one of two men originally charged with the "trash bag murders," was set free after a grand jury failed to indict him.
Officials said they didn't know where Hill had gone after his release, which came Thursday after the Riverside County Grand Jury ruled that evidence was too skimpy to indict him.
However, the grand jury did indict Hill's former roommate, Patrick Wayne Kearney, on three counts of murder. After his indictment, Kearney appeared before Riverside Superior Court Judge E. Scott Dales, who set a July 28 arraignment date.
Sheriff's Capt. Roger Denman said Hill, 34, was met by his nephew, who left in a car with Hill and a member of the public defender's office.
Dist. Atty. Byron Morton dropped the charges against Hill after the grand jury refused to indict him Wednesday.
Riverside sheriff's deputies say they are investigating 28 murders of young men and boys based on information from Kearney.
Victims of the "trash bag" killings have been found dismembered and nude in plastic bags along Southern California highways.
The 37-year-old Kearney was charged with the slayings of Albert Rivera, 21, of Los Angeles; Arturo Marquez, 24, of Oxnard, and John Otis LaMay, 17, of El Segundo.

Two warring Indian tribes gathering to make peace

IGNACIO, Colo. (AP) — Two hundred years after their battles began, and 100 years after they first tried to end them, two warring Indian tribes are gathering to make peace.
The ceremony will be appropriately lengthy — four days. The Indians will smoke peace pipes, exchange handshakes and dance the ritual dances that go unperformed for generations.
The Southern Utes and Comanches, cousins by language and custom, had been at war for more than a century in the late 1870s when they gathered to make peace at a Comanche meeting ground on what is now the West Texas panhandle.
Led by Southern Ute Chief Buckskin Charlie and Comanche Chief Quannah Parker, the two groups agreed they were tired of fighting. The decimation of the buffalo herds had left little to fight over.
But the meeting was disrupted when someone — no one knows who — fired a shot. The tribes resumed their fighting.
They have not actually fought for decades, but tribal leaders made certain that their descendants knew they were technically at war.
Perry Heath, an Oklahoma Comanche who works on the Southern Ute reservation here for the Bureau of Indian Affairs, learned of the state of war from a Ute tribal councilman who heard it from Antonio Buck, the son of Buckskin Charlie.
Heath confirmed the story with Comanche tribal leaders in Oklahoma, and they said they were willing to discuss a peace treaty. The two tribes met last year in Oklahoma and agreed to conclude the process this year.
"We want to do this for the sake of our young people," said Heath.
As a result, this reservation headquarters town, population 600, will hold as many as 5,000 people this week — Utes, Comanches, and Indians from other tribes around the country who have been invited to take part.
For four days they will powwow and dance in the parched mesa country of southwestern Colorado. The Comanche Dance will be performed for only the third time since 1918.

Representatives of the two tribes will meet next weekend in the same 24-foot teepee they used last year in Oklahoma.
Nothing has to be signed. Eventually, rawhide scrolls will be exchanged. But by Indian custom, the peace pipes and handshakes will end the two-century war.

Housewife with gall stages bed hijack

NORTHAMPTON, England (AP) — Housewife Rita Ward, who took over a hospital bed to demand immediate removal of her painful gallstones, today smuggled down between the sheets and announced: "I've won — they're going to operate."
Mrs. Ward startled nurses and patients Saturday by walking into a ward at Northampton General Hospital, climbing into an empty bed, and refusing to move.
"She has suffered from the stones for 18 months and had been told she would have to wait at least a year for an operation under Britain's free national health service."
She decided she could not wait.
"Now they've told me I can have the operation later this week," Mrs. Ward said. "I know I jumped the queue and other people need operations too, but I was in too much pain to wait. If other people are in as much pain as I was and they can find a spare bed, then I say good luck to them."
A hospital spokesman refused to confirm that Mrs. Ward is to be operated on this week. "Doctors are examining her, and a decision will be made later whether to operate," he said.
A spokesman for the Patients' Association, a pressure group for improved health care, said: "We applaud her individual action. No one should have to wait as long as she did. It's absolutely monstrous — but if everyone did the same thing it would be chaotic."
Mrs. Ward said she was told she could have the operation privately right away, but it would cost her the equivalent of $850.
"And I couldn't afford that," she said.

Charley Pride will return

LUBBOCK — Country Charley Pride, top box office draw in the history of the Panhandle South Plains Fair, is being returned to the 60th annual exposition, Steve L. Lewis, general manager, has announced.
The signing of Pride, along with the popular trio Dave and Sugar, completes the lineup for the Sept. 24-Oct. 1 fair. Pride will appear here for two shows, at 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on the second day of the exposition, a Sunday.
Earlier, Lewis announced these attractions for Fair Park Coliseum:
Sept. 26 — Danny Davis and the Nashville Brass, 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.
Sept. 27-28 — Mel Tillis and the Stateriders, 7:30 p.m. shows only.
Sept. 29-30 — Barbara Mandrell and Ronnie Prophet, 7:30 p.m. shows only.
The popular fiddlers contest will be on stage in the coliseum on opening day and a free entertainment package will be arranged for the closing Saturday, Lewis noted.
Tickets for all shows will be available next month.

Cow wows

VIENNA, Ohio (AP) — A 12-year-old Holstein cow named Breezewood Patsy Bar Pontiac has again ambled off with the world champion butterfat title.
Her owners, Herman and Henry Gelbke, who farm near here, reported Patsy produced 47,500 pounds of milk and 2,230 pounds of butterfat in 365 days — about five times the production of an average cow.
Patsy's mom held two national butterfat records and her grandma held the national title for 13 years.

Tasteless remark about rape Admits he made mistake

NEW YORK (AP) — Veteran TV weatherman Tex Antoine made a tasteless remark about rape during a broadcast eight months ago and even his on-the-air apology couldn't stop the resulting uproar. Today he's looking for a job and confessing he feels hurt and "a failure."
"I feel I have something left to give, I wish to give," says the 54-year-old broadcaster. "My wheels are spinning — that's what's driving me nuts. I want to work. I love to work."
His troubles began on Nov. 24 during the 6 p.m. news broadcast of the American Broadcasting Co.'s flagship station, WABC. After an item was read about the alleged rape of an 8-year-old girl, the camera shifted to Antoine for his weather report.
"With rape so predominant in the news lately," Antoine remarked,

"If I offended you with the Confucius saying," he said, "I apologize."
During the 11 p.m. news, an anchorman read a statement from the station's management, which said that Antoine had been suspended indefinitely for "an inexcusable lapse of judgment" in making a comment that was "insensitive and offensive."
Women picketed WABC and the incident was hashed out in columns of letters to editors.
After Antoine returned from a vacation in the Virgin Islands, the station announced it was reinstating him — but confining his duties to off-air work.
After 25 years as a highly paid weatherman, Antoine's contract was not renewed when it expired in March. There was no public explanation.
Antoine questions whether his Confucius remark, made under the pressure of a so-called "happy talk" format, was in bad taste.
"Over 34 years I've said worse things than that," he said, recalling the time he blurted out a four-letter word.
The comment, he said, reflects police advice to women who are attacked not to resist.
Claiming that corporate assessment of reaction to the remark, not the actual reaction, was his problem, Antoine concedes, "I made a mistake. I gave them a target. I failed."
He says he holds no rancor for the station: "I'm hurt. Not bitter — hurt."
Asked whether he blamed WABC for letting him go, Antoine replies, "Under the circumstances, no."
After he left WABC, he advertised his availability for employment in the show business weekly Variety, but remains jobless.

Influence peddling by Korea

Rep. Wright denies wrong doing

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill and Democratic Leader Jim Wright today denied a report alleging they are involved in the South Korean influencebuying scandal.

Wright accused ABC News of irresponsible journalism by airing the report, which quoted an unnamed source. If ABC will name the source,

Wright said, "I will tell him to his face he is a categorical liar."

An aide to O'Neill also denied the story, saying O'Neill's only connection with the affair was that he attended two parties given by South Korean businessman Tongsun Park before the allegations surfaced that Park tried to buy political influence by giving congressmen cash and gifts. "He (O'Neill) never took any money from Tongsun Park. Park never asked him for anything," the aide said.

ABC said its source is in London.

Park is in London. Philip A. Lacovara, who resigned Friday as chief investigator of the House probe into the allegations, is in England on vacation.

Wright said ABC refused to identify the source or state "just exactly what that person was implying that I had supposedly done."

"I am one member of Congress who has not at any time accepted any money, any gift or any campaign contribution from any person involved in this investigation," Wright said.

Lacovara refused to comment on any possible involvement by Wright or O'Neill. He said that although he had resigned, he was still bound by obligations of confidentiality.

"I can go no further than to say that there have been some public reports of the involvement of a number of congressmen."

Asked if Wright and O'Neill were among that group, he replied, "Yes."

Lacovara quit, complaining the slow pace of the investigation had hampered his work. He also said "the relationship of mutual trust and confidence that must exist between lawyer and client no longer exists."

U.S. Rep. John Flynt, D-Ga., committee chairman, called Lacovara's remarks "arrogant, self-serving, misleading and grossly inaccurate."

The Washington Post also reported the Justice

(AP WIREPHOTO) NO GIFTS? — House Majority leader Jim Wright, of Texas, denies that he ever accepted any gifts from the South Korean government as he is interviewed on ABC's "Good Morning America" television program today in Washington.

Department has found a ledger belonging to South Korean businessman Tongsun Park that apparently details payments to several congressmen.

The Post emphasized the listings did not necessarily indicate that cash actually had been delivered, but said the Justice Department is using the ledger entries for leads.

Common Cause wants Flynt to be removed as chairman, saying he is incapable of leading the panel's investigation.

But Flynt declares he will not quit. "I'm 62 years old and have never run from a fight. I don't intend to tuck my tail and run now," he was quoted as saying.

In a telegram to all Democratic House members, David Cohen, president of the self-styled citizen's lobby, said:

"His performance in the Korean investigation has again demonstrated he is totally incapable of carrying out this crucial responsibility."

"Rep. Flynt's removal is absolutely essential if the House of Representatives is to have credibility in the country."

Cohen's remarks on Sunday followed Lacovara's resignation.

Bishop demands settlement of Rhodesia's racial war

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP) — Bishop Abel Muzorewa, cheered by the biggest crowd ever seen for a black nationalist leader here, has demanded a quick settlement of Rhodesia's racial war and has said he will never enter into a "sell-out deal" with the white government.

At a news rally Sunday that drew between 100,000 and 200,000 blacks, the bishop also denounced Joshua Nkomo, his main rival for leadership of the nationalist movement. He said Nkomo had "started a civil war" between black nationalists in Rhodesia.

Nkomo and Robert Mugabe, the joint chiefs of the Patriotic Front, a nationalist coalition, said at a news conference in Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, Sunday that they had made progress toward uniting their two guerrilla armies.

"Firm and concrete decisions" have been reached "on unified military programs calculated to bring down the Rhodesian racist regime much sooner," they said.

Nkomo, whose guerrillas are based in Zambia, and Mugabe, based in Mozambique, rely heavily on Communist arms and aid in the four-year-old war to topple the white-minority regime and establish black rule here.

Bishop Muzorewa, president of the African National Council, is generally regarded as a moderate and has virtually no guerrilla backing, although he is believed to have the greatest popular support within Rhodesia.

In war action, the Rhodesian military command reported Sunday that a remote police post 130 miles northwest of Salisbury had been pounded by rocket, mortar and machine-gun fire from neighboring Zambia. Damage was minor and there were no casualties, the command said.

Bishop Muzorewa returned Sunday from an African tour in which he sought the support of black African states.

He failed in his principal objective when the Organization of African Unity earlier this month gave its exclusive endorsement to the Patriotic Front. There is speculation here, however, that the government of Prime Minister Ian Smith may try to freeze out the Patriotic Front and negotiate a political settlement with Muzorewa.

The United Methodist Church prelate rode in a motorcade from the airport to the rally in the black township of Highfield, hat the Salisbury, where he spoke to the huge crowd amid a sea of black power salutes.

He declared he was not interested in "having talks about some kind of sell-out deal."

He promised to "personally guarantee" that the interests of the white minority would be safeguarded in an independent Zimbabwe, the nationalists' name for Rhodesia.

He said he would meet with Smith only if it was "to transfer power from the minority to the majority."

Rhodesia has about 6.2 million blacks and 272,000 whites.

American and British diplomats have been shuttling among southern African capitals recently in a new attempt to win support for a plan to end the war and establish blackmajority rule.

Parole rules may be eased

Harte-Hanks Austin Bureau AUSTIN — Parolees who have shown evidence of progress on the road to rehabilitation may soon operate under more lenient supervision.

The Board of Pardons and Paroles Tuesday unanimously approved a new procedure for releasing parolees who have successfully served a portion of their parole time from yearly reporting requirements.

Currently, parolees must report to their parole officers monthly for one-to-two years, depending on their length of sentence. After successfully completing that initial period, they may be allowed to report annually, if their parole officer recommends the change and the supervision division of the board approves it.

Under the new procedure, a parolee who has been on annual report status for at least four years and has kept a clean arrest record may be considered for nonreporting status.

SUTTON, Mass. (AP) — Ray Floyd, saying he was "mentally and physically drained," heaved a weary sigh. "I hope it doesn't take as long to make the second million dollars as it did the first. Fifteen long years," he said. Julius Boros wasn't even thinking about it. "It's been a good career," said the 57-year-old idol of golf's senior citizens. "I might just retire and go fishing." Floyd and Boros had become the 14th and 15th golfers to reach the $1 million mark in career earnings on the pro golf tour. Floyd won with a frontrunning victory Sunday in the Pleasant Valley Classic, Boros with a placing of 59th. Floyd, who held off Jack Nicklaus' last-gasp challenge, collected $50,000 from the total purse of $250,000. Boros won $488,000. Floyd pushed his earnings to $1,011,605. Boros, winner of two U.S. Opens and the 1968 PGA championship, has had his goal in sight for two years. He now has $1,000,147 and may have completed a career that started in 1950. Nicklaus, the game's all-time money winning leader with more than $3 million, was a disappointed loser. He just missed on a pitch for an eagle on the 18th hole that would have tied him with Floyd. Nicklaus, who lost to Tom Watson by one stroke in the British Open last week, lost by the same margin to Floyd. In each case, his total score was far better than the previous tournament record. Floyd scored his 10th career victory and second of the season with a closing 69 and a 271 total, 13-under-par and five strokes better than the old record on the 7,191-yard Pleasant Valley Country Club course. Nicklaus had a closing 67, including birdies on three of the last four holes—he made up five shots in that stretch—and a 272 total. Miller Barber, never in the title hunt, did a happy little dance after a long birdie putt on the final hole gave him a six-under-par 65 and third place at 274. Rik Massengale, with a closing 69, was next at 275. South African Gary Player, 70, and Bruce Lietzke, 69, were tied at 276. Watson, winner of the Masters and British Opens, had his three-tournament winning string snapped. He finished with a 70-278.

Garland finally has it together

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Wayne Garland, one of the early season busts among the free agent millionaires, took a big step toward reversing that trend Sunday night with a performance reminiscent of his 1976 form. Garland, 10-1 at this time a year ago and an eventual 21-game winner with the Baltimore Orioles, tossed a five-hitter at the Texas Rangers to end a five-game losing streak for the Cleveland Indians with a 6-1 victory. "All things considered—my velocity and control were good—this was probably my best outing of the year," said Garland, who signed a 10-year contract worth an estimated $2 million with the Indians. "Opposing players and coaches have stated openly that Garland, now 7-9, was not throwing nearly as hard as last year, but Sunday night he said, "This was my best fast ball of the year and it effectively set up my screwball." The 26-year-old righthander said he still feels the pressure of close scrutiny by fans and media mindful of his large contract, "because I still get asked about it." "Wayne had more velocity tonight than he's had in a while," said Cleveland Manager Jeff Torborg. "But velocity is not really the biggest thing with him. The big thing is that he was keeping his sliders down. In his last two starts, the Yankees and Boston were hitting bad sliders for homers." Most of Sunday night's game was a pitchers' duel between Garland and Rangers starter Dock Ellis, 5-8. Cleveland took a 2-1 lead after two innings and for the next six frames it looked like Garland would have to pitch flawlessly to win as Ellis retired 20 of 22 batters. Garland did blank the Rangers after the second,

John Fought triumphs in Trans-Miss tourney

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP) — John Fought, the new champion of the 74th Annual Trans-Mississippi Amateur golf tournament, says his eagle on the 30th hole of Sunday's championship round couldn't have come at a better time. The eagle on the par-five, 538-yard hole sewed up the title for Fought of Portland, Ore., as he downed Scott Simpson of San Diego, Calif., 3 and 2. Of his shot, Fought said, "Scott was making his move, and you can't give him any kind of an opening." Fought, a former World Amateur team member, and Simpson, the current NCAA champion, were tied after the 18-hole morning round. Simpson bogied the first two holes in the afternoon event and was three down after the fourth hole.

secret? get Two games open play

Competition in the District 3 Little League Tournament, originally scheduled to be unreeled in Lamesa, gets underway in two local parks this evening. The champion in the week-long meet here qualifies for the bi-district series in San Angelo against the District 4 titlist, starting Aug. 1. Lamesa was to have hosted this district meet for the first time in history but LL Commissioner Jack Barber moved the tournament here because of the inability of the Lamesa people to get one of the playing fields in shape. Numerically, Midland is the strongest in the meet, with seven teams entered. Big Spring has four teams eligible, Lamesa one. Two local teams see action this evening. The Big Spring Nationals oppose the Midland Eastern All-Stars at 8 p.m., in the National Little League park south of town just off US 87. At the same hour, the Big Spring Internationals tangle with Midland North Central on the American League diamond, located on the Howard College campus. Winner of the Big Spring National-Midland Eastern contest will clash with Midland Central, which drew a first round bye, at 8 p.m., Tuesday. The survivor in the Big Spring International-Midland North Central outing returns to competition at 8 p.m., Wednesday against Midland Southern, which also received a first round bye. Lamesa and Midland Western clash at 8 p.m., Tuesday in the National park. The winner there squares off with Midland Tower Thursday night.

Cardinals win 2 games, upping record to 5-1

HOBBBS, N.M. — The Big Spring Cardinals swept a doubleheader from Hobbs here Sunday afternoon, winning 6-1 and 7-3. Frankie Rubio accomplished a 90 degree turn from his last game, which he lost, 7-0, when he hurled a three-hitter in the opener. Rubio fanned 13 in going the route. Rubio lost his shutout in the final inning when he yielded a double. A ground out sent the runner to third, from where he scored on a wild pitch. The Red Birds led from the third when they banked, banking three runs. They added the other three in the sixth. In the second contest, regular shortstop Sammy Rodriguez charged the hill for Big Spring. He was very much in command all the way, following a shaky first inning when he walked the leadoff batter and yielded a home run to the second man in the lineup. After that, he shut out Hobbs until the sixth. The Cards gave Rodriguez good bat support, scoring one each in the third and fifth, then capping off a productive afternoon by erupting for four tallies in the sixth. They added an insurance run in their final time at bat. Rodriguez wound up with a four-hitter, fanning seven. Jessie Zapata, who recently joined the Big Spring lineup, drove out three runs in four trips to bat. The Cards, now 5-1 in second half play, meet the Kermit Merchants on the road next Sunday.

Dick Allen eyes Japan

OAKLAND (AP) — The stormy career of slugger Dick Allen — a paradox of brilliant play and personal controversy — once again has taken an odd twist. He has quit the Oakland A's and has indicated he may want to play in Japan. A's owner Charles O. Finley said Sunday he received "a very cordial" letter from the infielder Saturday which said he is "retiring from baseball for the rest of 1977." Finley said Allen, 35, asked about taking his talents to Japan. "He asked me what the arrangement was for that," Finley said. Allen joined the A's this year, signing a contract for roughly $100,000. He was suspended by Finley June 21 when the owner caught him taking a shower before a game was over. Finley said he was disappointed with Allen's decision, but said he is not planning to contact him. In the 54 games he played for Oakland, Allen hit at a .240 pace with five home runs and 31 runs batted in. Allen's career has been marred with scraps with management — troubles which are contrasted by his consistently potent bat.

Fighting to save Captain Bligh

LONDON (AP) — Capt. William Bligh, who lost his ship in one of history's most notorious mutinies, may now lose his final resting place to a parking lot.

The commissioners who oversee the finances of the Church of England have decided that London's Church of St. Mary's, whose churchyard holds the grave of the hapless commander of the HMS Bounty, should be torn down and the site used for another purpose.

A campaign has been mounted to save the church. The preservationists claim the commissioners plan to convert the site into a parking lot for tourist buses, but a spokesman for the church commissioners said nothing has been decided yet.

St. Mary's, closed for the past five years, sits on the right bank of the Thames River just across the road from the embankment where thousands of summer tourists gaze at the Houses of Parliament across the river. Lambeth Palace, official London residence of the Archbishop of Canterbury, adjoins the church.

If the site is cleared, Bligh's bones probably would be reburied in consecrated ground elsewhere, the commissioners say.

"How they can think of pulling down such a historic church is amazing," said Rosemary Nicholson, a London housewife who launched the fight to save St. Mary's.

"I was horrified when I first saw the church. Half the roof had fallen in and the churchyard was overgrown and full of trash. Tramps and alcoholics were sleeping there and empty milk bottles littered the porch — all next door to the archbishop's palace," she said.

KEEP IT CLEAN — A woman gardener cleans up the tomb of Capt. William Bligh, who lost his ship in the famous Mutiny on the Bounty, in the graveyard of St. Mary's Church in the London borough of Lambeth. The commissioners who oversee the finances of the Church of England have decided that St. Mary's should be torn down and the site used for another purpose. But preservationists have mounted a campaign to save the church. They claim the commissioners plan to use the site for a parking lot, although the church commissioners say nothing has been decided yet.

She persuaded the church commissioners to delay demolition and founded a trust seeking to convert the church into an international garden center. The plan would leave the tombs undisturbed.

A Church of England spokesman said that "in an age of declining church-going" it cannot possibly keep all 17,500 of its buildings.

"Our policy is to let redundant churches for a nominal rent, if we are satisfied the applicants can maintain them for a suitable purpose," he said.

The trust's preservation plans, requiring almost $500,000, will be sent to the church commissioners this week.

Helped by local government officials, nurserymen, garden societies and historical groups, the trust has replanted the churchyard for a visit today by the Queen Mother, an avid gardener.

Bligh died in 1817 at the age of 63 holding the rank of vice admiral and honored for his services as a naval commander in the French wars and as governor of New South Wales, Australia.

He is remembered now, however, for the mutiny early in his career, when he and 18 loyal crewmen were put to sea in the South Pacific by rebellious sailors led by Fletcher Christian. The castaways reached land at East Timor after crossing 3,500 miles of ocean in a 45-day ordeal.

New way cheaper

READING, Pa. (AP) — The ways of the "good old days" are not the cheapest nowadays.

An ice company here reports that it has one family left that insists on using an old-fashioned ice box. The ice company delivers a 50-pound cake of ice three times a week. Each cake costs $1.50. That amounts to more than $200 a year.

The cost of electricity for an electric refrigerator to replace the ice box would be about $75 a year and the electricity needed to freeze a tray of 16 ice cubes costs about 1.5 cents, according to the General Public Utilities Corp.

Fires out of control in forest

By the Associated Press
Fires burned out of control in Utah's Ashley National Forest today, including a wind-whipped, 1,200-acre blaze that claimed the lives of three fire fighters. Other fires devastated thousands of drought-stricken acres in Montana and Wyoming.

The federal government's Boise Interagency Fire Center was to send a crew of 20 firefighters into the Jackson Hole area of Wyoming near the Idaho border today. A fire there has burned more than 40 acres in an area hard hit by forest fires earlier this year.

The three firefighters died Saturday when winds suddenly changed direction and fanned flames over a smaller area already burning, said a forest service spokesman. They tried to run through the wall of fire, but "They were trapped on the line and couldn't outrun the fire," the spokesman said.

About 280 ground firemen were aided by bulldozers, five helicopters and five bombers dropping fire retardant.

Three other fires were being fought in the same forest, including one in Timber Canyon contained Saturday night but still burning in spots early today. Another burned in heavy timber 10 miles north of Hanna, and a third was on Horse Ridge 30 miles southwest of Duchesne.

Another 600-acre fire was reported on rangeland northeast of Nephi in central Utah and was threatening forests on Mt. Nebo.

Heiress to Texas oil fortune died of overdose of drugs?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A nine-member coroner's jury was expected to decide today whether the death of Sandra Ilene West, the Beverly Hills millionairess who was buried in her favorite Ferrari, was a suicide, an accident, or a homicide.

Dr. Joan Shipley, a pathologist, testified last Friday during a coroner's inquest that the 37-year-old heiress to a Texas oil fortune died of an overdose of drugs. However, Dr. Raymond E. Weston, Mrs. West's doctor for seven years, testified that she was denied access to drugs and several other witnesses said she had not talked of suicide.

He said since Mrs. West had a tendency to abuse drugs, the only person authorized to have possession of her medication was her nurse.

Mystery malady kills two Navajo Indians

MADISONVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Chemists worked through the night in laboratories trying to identify an undiagnosed illness from which doctors said two Navajo Indians died and five were under hospital treatment.

The outbreak occurred among workmen on a railroad construction project near Iola, Tex., about eight miles south of Madisonville in the southeast part of the state.

E.G. Clark, administrator of the Madison County Medical Center, said early today. "The laboratory tests have established no real pattern (for the disease). It's some unidentified toxic matter."

He reported one man died before reaching the hospital Thursday night and another died Saturday night after being admitted there. There were five other Indians in the hospital — one in critical condition, he said.

About 60 Indians and 20 non-Indian workers were asked to stay near their work site pending further tests, Clark said.

He reported the tribesmen were from the area around Gallup, N.M. They were working on a job for the Rock Island Lines and the Fort Worth & Denver City Railway Co.

Bridges, bells and batteries

NEW YORK (AP) — Door bells, flashlight batteries and the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge, the world's largest suspension bridge, all have something in common. They owe their existence to Andrew Wittman.

Wittman, a surveyor, is believed to be the first American to have made zinc metal. In 1845, he produced two ounces from ore discovered on a farm four miles south of Bethlehem, Pa. Now a mine, owned by Gulf & Western's New Jersey Zinc Company, the "farm" produces 2,000 tons of zinc ore each day.

Door bells and battery casings are made of rolled zinc, smelted from the mine. And the Verrazano-Narrows Bridge cables, which span New York Harbor, are protected against rust by 2,316 tons of zinc galvanizing.

Don Yarbrough will draw no retirement pay

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Employees Retirement System said today that former Supreme Court Justice Don Yarbrough will draw no retirement pay for his six months service on the high Texas bench.

However, according to Everett Davenport of the retirement service, Yarbrough will get back the six per cent he contributed each month to the pension fund of his $47,400 annual salary.

Davenport explained that a state judge must serve 10 years in a judicial position before official retirement age in order to draw a pension. If he retires before retirement age, as Yarbrough did, he must have

"What about 'The proud pizza with the golden crust?'"

"That feels a little uppity. We wanna say something nice and simple like

'We've got a feeling you're gonna like us.'

But how can we say it?"

"????????????????????"

"Well, keep working on it."
