Nixon would have burned tapes

Nixon says that if Martha Mitchell's emotional problems hadn't preocwould have been no Watergate.'

He said also that he "sure as the dickens" would have destroyed those damning White House tapes had he thought they contained criminal conversations. And, he said, he did not see or touch the tape with the 181/2-

"If the tapes had been destroyed, I believe that it is likely that I would not have had to go through the agony of the resignation," the former president told David Frost in a television interview to be broadcast Sunday. Nixon added that he wished aide H.R. Haldeman had destroyed all tapes 'except those that had major significance from a policy standpoint.

The Frost show is the fifth and last in a series for which Nixon was paid a reported $600,000 and a percentage of the profits. The first four programs were shown over a special network of 165 stations in May. The last was bought by 55 stations for broadcast on different days locally between now and the end of September.

The discussion did not touch on Mitchell's reported approval of the Watergate burglary by agents of the Nixon re-election committee or Mitchell's conviction for lying about the break-in afterward.

During the 1968 campaign, Nixon

Jeb Stuart Magruder, Mitchell's top assistant at the 1972 Nixon re-election committee - and the one who said Mitchell gave the go-ahead for the Watergate burglary — was one of the first insiders to expose the Watergate coverup to prosecutors. He served a short prison sentence.

> "Now, am I saying here, at this late uncture, that Watergate should be blamed on Martha Mitchell?" Nixon asked Frost. "Of course not. It might have happened anyway. Other things might have brought it on.

Although the fifth show was patched together with leftovers from the earlier series, filmed in the spring, Frost opened it with the first question he had asked Nixon: "Why didn't you burn the tapes?

The former president replied: 'First, I didn't believe that there was a reason to destroy them; I didn't believe that there was anything on them that would be detrimental to have proclaimed this to be "Full Employment Week," seeking to stir public sentiment for new job-creating programs.

Rallies, meetings, teach-ins. parades and petition drives are planned for Washington, New York and more than 50 other cities across the country. The campaign is aimed specifically at generating support for the Humphrey-Hawkins employment bill, a controversial proposal that would guarantee "a decent job at a decent wage" for every American willing to

This has been one of organized labor's key legislative goals, but the bill has been stalled in Congress since last year, opposed by business groups, which argue it would be inflationary.

President Carter has said he sup ports its basic principles but has not given it a firm endorsement.

However, more than 100 mayors and governors have joined in backing this week's demonstrations and with the government's latest report of rising unemployment, especially among blacks - the pressure for congressional and White House support is expected to intensify.

The Full Employment Council coordinating the demonstrations is headed by Murray Finley, an AFL-CIO vice president and head of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, and Coretta Scott King, widow of the slain civil rights leader.

The Humphrey-Hawkins bill is sponsored by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., and Rep. Augustus Hawkins, D-Calif.

The plan of Howard College officials is to centralize its entire industrial arts program at the base. College President Dr. Charles Hays told the committee that at least one more building would be needed to do this.

We understand the need for revenue producing property, and we don't want to take something that may have a greater priority than ours. But the college will play an important role when you think of all the people that will have to be trained for industries that move here," he said.

Granting use of the maintenance facility was a necessary first step in setting up the industrial arts program at the base, according to Hays. This would have been the only acceptable area in which to establish the auto repair training center, said the president

The mext step will be to locate a building to house the body repair and welding instruction centers

We may even be able to move a building into that area to make it more accessible," said City Manager

Harry Nagel. The committee requested that Hays and college board members come up with specific space required to house the facility. The committee would then make every effort to find a building to meet the need.

Martin cotton crop failing By MARJ CARPENTER

Four area cotton producing counties predict that this year's crop will be above average, while Martin County experts say their crop has fallen off due to dry weather. Howard, Dawson, Glasscock and

Mitchell County agents all say they could have used a little more moisture in early August, but still predict that the crops in these counties will be above average at the harvest.

Over in Martin County, however, the rainfall was lighter than in other parts of the area and they are predicting only around 85,000 bales

It is a federal holiday and all federal offices will be closed. All schools and Howard College will also be closed and it is a holiday sanctioned by the Chamber of Commerce so most merchants will be closed. Banks also have a holiday on Labor Day, as well as all city and county offices.

Preston Faris, Martin County agent, said a group of farmers met Friday morning to discuss their woes and the fact that the cotton "just didn't fruit out like it should."

They have estimated one half bale to the acre rather than the close-to-abale that they got last year when they ginned 131,000 off 138,000 acres.

We have 150,000 acres in cotton this year so we're guessing a little over half at 85,000 bales. They said there were some spotted areas in the county out near Tarzan and Lenorah that are still in good shape.

The northern end of Martin County got 11/2 inches of rain last week, but the cotton is already fruited out:

Bruce Griffith, Howard County agent, said that this county may have a yield just a little bit above average. Last year there were 73,000 bales in Howard County and with the increase in acreage this year it is thought they might have as high as 88,000 this

"It looks real good," Griffith stated, 'but of course we'd like to see the He added that there are some spots dry, some of which are near the edge of Martin County and having some of the same problems farmers are having there. Griffith also said, "We sure could have used rain the first two weeks in August." And added," "and our ranchers always need rain. Out at Glasscock county, Oliver Werst reported, just before he retired, that the cotton crop looked good in the St. Lawrence area where they are busy stripping. The cotton in that area is a little bit ahead of some of the surrounding counties. No estimate of the crop was given but it was expected to be as good as last year or better. Joe Wise, county agent in Dawson County, said that the recent farm tour showed the northern part of the county as a little bit dry but that an above average crop is expected. Last year, it topped the nation with 240,000 bales in the county. They anticipate from 200,000 to 210,000 this season which is above the 180,000 of two years ago.

Three years ago, Dawson County had a disastrous year with only 10,000 bales which they have not forgotten. In comparison, this looks like a great "A lot of our farmers are defoliating but there is very little stripping yet,

Wise added He, said that moisture at this time would not really help this year's crop but it wouldn't hurt. "In West Texas I never say I don't want rain, because it's always moisture in the ground for next year. Bob Benson, Mitchell County agent, said that he is anticipating an aboveaverage season. "Last year we had 42,522 bales and this year we are predicting around 50,000 bales," Benson stated. He said that the southeastern part of the county missed some July moisture but as a whole they were in good shape. "The northern edge got almost too much rain last weekend when the bottom fell out and they got six inches. It tore up some terraces and waterways," Benson added. Farmers in all of the counties are watching the cotton prices which currently are sitting at $.37 to $.39, down near the government loan price. They are hoping for a rise prior to the time of harvesting their crops.

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Can you tell me what gold shots given for arthritis are composed of? Is there really gold How effective is relieving rheumatoid arthritis?-Mrs.

The material administered is a gold 'salt,'' that is a mixture of actual gold and other substances. The technical name for the gold salts is gold sodium thiomalate. The gold content is about 50 per cent of the mixture.

The solution is administered by injections (usually once a week). Most of the material is released from the body, but a certain amount is retained and accumulates. thinking is that when the gold in the body reaches a certain level the arthritis will be suppressed. The object is to maintain that level. It's not clear just how it works, but in some cases it

The improvement is quite gradual and it may be many months before any is noted. When effective, the symptoms of fever, fatigue and weakness decrease.

That's the good part of the story But gold therapy must be given with continuing medical supervision because there are potential side effects from the shots. Itching, rashes, and sore mouth and tongue are not uncommon results, and treatment may have to be interrupted. The patient on gold therapy should report the first symptoms (usually itching) to the doctor so the program can be evaluated. Gold is not to be used on persons with liver ailments or those who have shown allergies toward

While the gold may be used at any stage of arthritis, it is usually most effective on those who have had it less than a year. It is of doubtful value for those in an advanced stage of joint disease

Gold is useful when other medications fail, but it is a powerful medication that must be respected.

This and other arthritis control methods are discussed in greater depth in my booklet, "How You Can Control Arthritis. If you want to read further, you can have a copy by mailing 35 cents and a stamped, selfaddressed envelope to me care of this

An allergy can be a direct cause of an acute joint problem. Any factor that interferes with a general feeling of well-being can make arthritis appear to be more severe. I, too, oppose the drainage of the lake not because I'm overly concerned about birds or wildlife but simply because it offers a rare and lovely view, especially from Scenic Mountain and from the sick beds of Malone & Hogan Hospital; water seems to have a calming effect on most people and especially West Texans. Some months ago I talked with two members of the City Council and expressed my objections to the drainage. I was told by both that they too shared my objection but that there enjoy my blood too!) I reminded both council members that if we were to follow that logic then it should follow that we drain Comanche Lake and all the swimming pools in the city. I thought then that there had to be some other reason for the proposed drainage (I am not expert on mosquito life but I do know that there is no such thing as a neighborhood mosquito!) After the developments of the past few days I am more convinced than ever that there is much hidden agenda by those who propose to destroy the lake, and I believe they owe it to the citizens of this community to tell us the truth. Thanks to the good investigative work and reporting by Mr. Jim Werrell, we now know that the lake is not the source of the mosquito problem. I am quite convinced that there is indeed a mosquito problem and a drainage problem south and east of the lake. That should be obvious to anyone. And it should be corrected. No, it should have been corrected years ago and the question is why was this not attended to by the city administration in the past? Now, since the city is stymied in its efforts to destroy the lake, the concern is no longer that we have a mosquito problem but a problem with our drinking water. I have lived through ten Augusts in Big Spring and in each of them we have been subjected to horrible drinking water. If memory serves me correctly, the statements of the past week were the first expression by the general manager of CRMWD of any concern for the quality of our water. And it seems ludicrous that after fifty-odd years, all of a sudden the source of our water quality problem is One Mile Lake. The watersheds of both Lakes Spence and Thomas are enormous and it is absurd to attribute the salt content in our drinking water to One Mile Lake alone. I know Mr. Ivie knows better than this for he is an intelligent and honorable man. But the remarks attributed to him in the August 30th issue of the Herald betray a let-the-public-be-damned attitude and that same attitude has been expressed by the city administration in both the issue over the lake as well as the issue over the proposed building of a skateboard park (I am very much in favor of a skateboard park . . . our children need it!) I have no particular feeling one way or the other about the location of the skateboard park. What is alarming is that a group of citizens exercised their rights by opposing that particular location. Because they expressed that opposition, they now are threatened by a zone change for the property adjacent to their homes: this change will make it commercial property. We now face the prospect of expensive court cases in both the lake issue and the skateboard park issue which the community can ill afford. We have better places to spend our money and we don't need to breed further division in the community by such legal battles.

Here are questions I believe the city manager and others in the city ad-ministration should answer, publically and without equivocation.

1) What are the real reasons for the proposed drainage of One Mile Lake? 2) Who are the individuals who will benefit directly and personally from the drainage (and I won't consider "the public" an adequate answer.) 3) What will become of the late basin? How will the insect problem created by the drainage be dealt with? Are there plans for development? If so, by whom? 4) Has there been any thought given to cleaning and beautifying the lake and if not, why not? 5) Why haven't the drainage ditches east and south of the lake been maintained over the past several 6) Information has come to me from a city employe that there are pipes under the railroad which were designed to allow drainage from the south and southwest areas of Big Spring. I understand these pipes are clogged up and inoperative and have been for quite some time. Why has this not been attended to when it increases the possibility of flooding downtown Big Spring?

7) Does the Texas & Pacific Railroad have any responsibility in seeing that adequate drainage ditches be maintained?

8) If there is an odor problem in the lake area, could it be due to a lack of sanitary facilities and a lack of adequate accessibility to the city sewage system?

Both the city manager and the general manager of the CRMWD need to realize that they enjoy their offices and salaries because of their expertise as well as their duty to act in the capacity of public servants. They are employed neither to dictate nor to

The people of Big Spring need to realize that all citizens of this community have a large stake in what happens to this city. The future direlction and shape of this city is not the private domain of a select few!

Despite the closure of Webb we have a unique opportunity in Big Spring which very few communities ever have. That is, we have a chance to ask such questions as "What kind of community do we want Big Spring to become?" "What kind of industry do we want in this community?" "What kind of industries do we not want in this community?" "What kind of attitudes do we want to project to prospective citizens?"

It is my contention that the attitudes projected in recent weeks by some of our civic leaders are unhealthy and unattractive and do not adequately represent the good citizens of this community. It isn't too late to make some changes and we all have too much at stake to continue the trend of pettiness, vindictiveness and arrogance which have been displayed in the past.

WASHINGTON - It's very hard to come back from anywhere during the summer and try to catch up on the news. I always depend on my druggist, Harry Dalinsky, to brief me. Dalinsky's store is in Georgetown, so he not only gives me bits and pieces from the press but stuff he's heard from his talkative customers.

"You heard about Vance?" Dalinsky said.

"Yeah, he made a lot of bad loans in Georgia. 'That was Lance,'' Dalinsky said. Vance went to the Middle East. He had a lousy trip. "And that's why the President wasn't talking to him?" I asked.

THE PRESIDENT was talking to Vance — he wasn't talking to Lance. While Vance was talking to the Arabs and the Israelis, it turned out that Lance was accused of a lot of fiddlefaddle with overdrafts and loans in Georgia. So the President thought it best not to speak to him until it was cleared up. "I thought Sen. Ribicoff cleared Vance of any wrongdoing.'

'Vance was never accused of any wrongdoing. Lance was accused of wrongdoing, and Ribicoff did clear him. But that was in July. Then came August and Ribicoff had egg all over his face.

"Then as far as August is concerned. Vance is okay. "He is except he couldn't get anywhere with China. "I should think if he couldn't do that, the President would be madder at Vance than he was at Lance.

DALINSKY SAID patiently, "Lance's banking problems and Vance's China problems are two different things. The President can handle Vance, but since he's a bosom buddy of Lance's he had to keep him at arm's length in case he was tainted with any kind of scandal.

'Okay, I think I got it straight,' I said. "What else happened in August of national significance?"

"Chip Carter has moved out of the White House.

What a pity. Did he get behind in paying for his meals? No, it had something to do with his wife. No one is quite sure what it's all about, but Chip has moved back to Plains with his wife and baby." People magazine said the President was really mad at him. 'What's Chip going to do in Plains?

'Run the peanut farm," Dalinsky said. "At least that's what the White House said.' "The peanut farm? I thought that was in a blind trust." "It is. Billy Carter was running it. But he decided to give it up, so Chip is taking it over. Since the President isn't talking to Chip, there won't be any chance of him finding out what's going on down at the farm. 'Was the President talking to Billy?' 'More than he was talking to Lance, but less than he's talking to Vance. 'So then what happened?" I asked.

Carter not talking to Lance that the President decided he had to do something about it. 'What did Carter do?'

"THERE WAS so much talk about

'He played tennis with Lance, which squelched all the rumors that he thought Lance had done something wrong by being overdrawn on his bank accounts in Calhoun, Georgia. 'So Carter started talking to Lance

"Well, he had to tell him the score didn't he? Then the comptroller came out with a report saying Lance hadn't done anything criminally wrong with all the loans he made to buy his stock. And the President said on television he was happy the matter was cleared up once and for all, and now the country could devote itself to Vance instead of Lance.'

When life is bent to the altars of accounting sheets, working all day on Sunday, using up the last ounce of energy in order to fuel the fires of mammon, ther something happens inside a man's soul. This is present day obsession. Modern education must come in for its share of blame for teaching techniques without doing much for the technician, for giving rise to a generation of nuclear giants who, in many cases, are moral infants. DALLAS (AP) - A zenrater, doing research in theology professor, who says his interest in the life of John Wesley was spawned by a discussion of Wesley's love life. believes he has broken the centuries-old code in the founder of Methodism's diaries. Dr. Richard P. Heitzenrater, a professor at the Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology, said he found the key to the code in a diary kept by a Wesley associate in the 18th century

The professor said the discovery could give insight into Wesley's theological development

During a class discussion at Duke, a professor related a passage from a Wesley diary that was partially in longhand, said Heitzenrater. "It related to Wesley's associations with a young female friend in Georgia and how it caused him to flee to England with a warrant issued for his arrest.

Wesley kept the diaries for 65 years, beginning in 1725 when he was ordained as a minister of the Church of England

But many volumes were burned and some were disassociated with the core of material surviving to this day," Heitzenrater said.

The professor began trying to unravel the code in 1967, concentrating on the first few years of the diaries. "I don't think Wesley intended the general public to be able to read them. But while he was at Oxford he had a close association with several other students. All the members of the group used the same code in their diaries," he explained.

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP) -Despite high and low rumor, fact and fiction, the fate of millionaire Cullen Davis hinges almost solely on the credibility of his estranged wife, Priscilla

The curvaceous, iceblonde jet-setter, says a defense attorney, is not unlike the mythical Tar Baby: "Once you've touched it you can't let go."

Thus, after 10 days of appearances, some stormy, Mrs. Davis will be back on the stand Tuesday for round No. 11 in her husband's capital murder trial.

Although overshadowed by lurid revelations, innuendo and intrigue, Davis is on trial for the slaying last summer of his 12-year-old stepdaughter, Andrea Wilborn.

Testimony, however, has focused on the shootings of Priscilla and her live-in lover, Stan Farr, 30, and the dubious lifestyle of the freewheeling friends with whom

Perhaps more damaging, Haynes has inferred Mrs. Davis enticed a former husband into a sexual encounter to enhance a divorce action settlement, and that she attempted a similar ploy after separating from Davis. With the jury out, Haynes told the judge he wanted to pursue a line of questioning intended to show that Mrs. Davis is a "woman capable scheming, design and chicanery.'

He would illustrate, he argued, that her motive for fabricating stories against Cullen Davis is personal greed. Although State Dist. Court

Hill's ruling came Friday in a suit filed by Great Western United Corp., a firm controlled by Nelson Bunker Hunt and W. Herbert Hunt. They filed the suit in conowns the nation's largest silver mine near Kellog, Idaho

The suit originally challenged the takeover statutes of Idaho, Maryland and New York, since Sunshine has corporate offices in both Maryland and New York.

Maryland was removed from the suit because it did not seek to enforce its takeover statute. Judge Hill said the New York portion of the suit should be dismissed as moot, since that state did not seek to enforce the statute, either.

Judge Hill said the Idaho statute is preempted by the Williams Act, part of the Securities Exchange Act of 1937 under which tender offers are regulated. The Williams Act allows tender offers to go forward for the Forsyth started thinking about becoming a journalist before leaving the RAF and caught on with Reuters, mainly because he knew and was able to converse in five languages. Freddie worked in Paris, East Berlin and Africa before ultimately deciding he could piece together a novel. He bought 500 sheets of paper, moved into a friend's house and went to work on Day of the Jackel. He set himself a quota of ten pages a day. In 35 days, he knocked out 425 pages on his first and only

He had no idea where the book was going or what the climax would be. With the 425 pages he started making the rounds. The book was turned down five times by publishers, before it was finally accepted by a company willing to ante up a thousand pounds now and half nine months later.

Suddenly foreign publishers began to nibble. Ultimately Viking Press purchased the U.S. rights for ten big ones ($10,000) and Forsyth was in the chips to 85 degrees

But there couldn't have been a sweeter kiss in the land, as it meant that the locals had scored a moral victory over the third-ranked Class 3A team in the state of Texas. And even though it didn't exactly start the 1977 season on a winning note, its just might as well have.

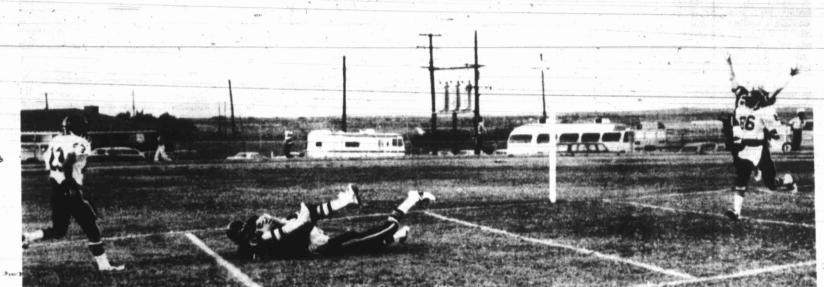

Andrews, no doubt destined to keep their loss column free of chicken scribblings this year, brought in their man of the hour, Booger Brooks, as quarterback. And he was all he was cracked up to be. He and the highly-touted Mustang offensive backfield compiled an ordinarily back-breaking 291 yards across the ground on the Steers.

But the locals had a few men of the hour themselves, and though Andrews huffed and puffed and blew as hard as they could, they could not make the feisty Longhorns go away.

Big Spring's Lance Perry put the first nickel in the jukebox with less than four minutes gone in the cheerleader-squealer. Perry thudded onto a Brooks' bobble and set his teammates up for the next dance on the enemy 13-yard marker.

Not being one to waste time, Bovine signal-caller Mike Abreo dropped back on the first play and hit Greg Moore over the middle for the bacon. Robert Wrinkle kicked the extra point, and the Steers led a baffled Mustang herd 7-0.

Brooks and crew could only manage one first-down in the initial stanza, and that one was shaky. The visitors tightened their loose screws

STEER TOUCHDOWN — Big Spring Steer tight end Greg Moore (lying on ground clutching ball) catches a 13-yard scoring toss from quarterback Mike Abreo as one unidentified Andrews Mustangs fights to tear the ball away from him. Mustangs Eldon Jones (23) and Kenny Hearne (86) arrive much too late in the beginning of the second quarter, however, as runs by Joe Don Barnes and three consecutive Steer penalties had the Mustangs within striking distance. Brooks settled the question on an 11-yard scoring strike to ex-Big Springer Eldon Jones.

About two minutes after the Ponies' scratching and an exchange of punts by both squads, Andrews' Rony Bohannon booted a pretty good looking 38-vard punt.

It looked pretty good to Big to be of assistance. Steer flanker Del Poss' hands can be seen behind Hearne indicating his pleasure at the catch. Big Spring fought the third-ranked 3A school in the state to a 14-14 tie Friday night in Memorial Stadium.

good and that was all the pointmaking for the night. Though the Steer offense was through for the night, thanks to a relentless Mustang defense in the second half, the local defense had a few heroics left for the muscle-men from near the Pecos.

The Mustangs had possession of the pigskin six times in the second half, and on one drive held the ball for almost seven minutes. But the surprising and sparkling Bovine brick wall, built with mortar this year, made the Mustangs punt once, intercepted a Brooks' aerial, blocked an attempted field goal, held the potent rushers on downs, recovered a fumble and watched the clock run out on the visitors another

Perhaps the Steers' finest moment was with a little under six minutes left in the game. Andrews had just driven the length of the field, from their own 11-vard line to the Steers one-vard marker on 13 plays.

The Bovine defense was tired, but even though the Mustangs had a first and goal from the half-yard marker, four plays later they were settling for a field goal from the four-yard line. They had to settle for zilch however, as Steer defensive back Kent Rice came streaking around from left end and deflected the boot so that it barely cleared the heads of on rushing linemen and fell to the ground like a gut-shot duck. Rice also intercepted the Brooks' pass with two minutes remaining.

"We were thrilled with the kids" efforts," said Head Coach Don Robbins. "They showed a never-saydie attitude, they had a chance to let down, but they kept on battling in there, especially in that goal-line

"They were aggressive and went out there to win. With a few breaks we could've won too, but we didn't lose our poise and it was just a great team effort," the Steer mentor concluded.

The Steers travel to Hobbs, N.M. this Friday for their next game against the Eagles, 33-7 winners over Lovington last Friday night. More about the Steer game on p. 3B in "Through the Fieldglasses.

Tahoka came back with a lengthy drive to take the advantage, 8-6 in the second period, and that score stood until the third quarter. Stanton had the ball on the Tahoka five-yard line in the waning moments of the first half, but lost it on a fumble

Stanton came back with a determined drive in the third period to pull back in front, as Jones crashed over from the one-yard line. Tommy Morrow, who quarterbacked the Buffs in the absence of the injured Todd Smith, faked a handoff and spun into the end-zone for the two-point conversion, which gave Stanton a 14-8

Tahoka came right back, however, scoring after a long drive early in the fourth period. The Buffalo defense stopped Tahoka's two-point attempt, and the score was fied, 14-14.

Swinson then set the Buffaloes up in great shape when he recovered a fumbled punt on the Tahoka 18-yard line. Jones scored on a three-yard run on the abbreviated drive's fifth play to put Stanton in front. The two-point attempt failed and Stanton led 20-14.

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) - George Scott's sacrifice fly in the seventh inning scored Fred Lynn, giving the Boston Red Sox a 2-1 victory over the Texas Rangers Saturday night. Jim Rice smashed his 34th homer of the season for the Red Sox

Bill Campbell, who relieved Mike Paxton, 8-4, in the seventh, chalked up his 23rd save of the year to preserve the Red Sox victory. Dock Ellis, 7-12, who allowed only four hits during his 7 1-3 innings, was the loser. Lynn started the winning rally when he reached on an error by short-stop Bert Campaneris. Forsan Buffs roll past Bronte

FORSAN — The Forsan Buffaloes came from behind twice to corral the Bronte Longhorns in the season opener here Friday night, winning 18-

The Buffaloes eased through last season with a defense so stout that they were rarely scored upon. This is another season, but they showed enough fight in the opener to predict a good season for Forsan. Ron Roberson, Gary Martin, and Randy Cregar collected their first game touchdowns.

The Longhorns looked a lot stronger than they did early last season when Turney Coulter was back and the Buffaloes got a lot of defensive experience containing the strong running senior.

Donnie Jackson who put the Horns first on the scoreboard. The Buffs were down on the 40 scrambling around trying to find a way to the goal line. Spunky little Angel Miranda, at the helm for Forsan, hurled out a pass that was picked off by Jackson as a warning.

But it was a sophomore named

On the next play, an angry Rusty Henderson pounced on a fumble to get the ball back for Forsan. Martin carried, then Cregar carried and then the Buffs made the mistake of playing that pass play again. Jackson picked it off and went 59 yards for a score with 1:07 left in the first period. Their attempted kick went off the right.

Forsan took the ball and began a drive toward paydirt. They were going along pretty good until they had an offsides penalty that forced them to punt back to the Horns.

The Horns moved a few plays and then Craig Clark hopped on a fumble to recover for the Buffs: The Forsan crew began to move with Henderson marching down field on eight carries, and Alan Hollandworth, and Tom Posey making him some running room. They seemed to be gaining momentum, but suddenly bogged down behind an inspired Longhorn defense The Horns again had the ball three downs and then were forced to punt with Hollandworth; Posey, Don Roberson, Dennis Baggett and Kevin Low refusing to let them go anywhere.

Bronte punted to the nine and Martin carried it back to the 20. The Buffs began to move with Martin, Henderson and Cregar alternating on the carry. Again the Horns held. Bronte carried twice, then lost a fumble to Martin. Henderson went 24 yards on the next carry.

When they got within view of the goaline, the Horns had become used to watching Henderson and Martin. It was then that Cregar fell back with a halfback pass to Ron Roberson in the end zone for paydirt. Henderson attempted to run for two and failed.

The teams came back at the half with a tied football game and again the Horns took the lead. The Buffs had the ball in the opening part of the quarter, but suddenly got thrown for a 20-yard loss. On the next play, Coulter burst down the left side for a 65- yard run to the goal line. One Buffalo came close, but an expert block took him out of the running

The Bronte quaterback, Randy Parker scampered around the left side for two and they were out front 14-

The Buffaloes had been pushed back

Cregar had gotten them out of trouble all night, once with a 53-yard punt, once with one placed on the one, plus another lengthy boot and the Buffs were tired of going backwards.

The rest of the game was Forsan's. They kept the ball six plays and lost it on a fumble. They dug in and held and forced the Horns to boot and got backed up on their own 12.

On the next play, Gary Martin broke through and found himself in the clear and put on an extra push to take off 88 vafds for a score. The long run almost did him in, and he folded up in the endzone with a pulled leg muscle. Cregar tried for two and failed. The score was

14-12 in favor of the Bronte Donnie Hamilton took the kick for Bronte and began to look like he was going all the way when he was caught from behind by Ron Robertson. The Horns gave it a try but the Buffs held. forcing a punt.

That was the most important punt of the contest for Forsan. The punt went into the arms of Gary Martin and just as he saw the tackle closing in, he pitched it out to Cregar who went 60 yards for a score and victory for the Buffaloes The rest of the game was a defensive effort for Forsan. Clark made an important interception on the threeyard line which spelled the end of hope for Bronte to revenge last year's loss.

The two consecutive victories for Forsan over Bronte are the first after many defeats. Coach George White said, "I went home feeling good about the team and also a little bit lucky. The Forsan team journeys to Gail next week to meet a strong Borden County squad.

Cowboys find Oilers too slick

HOUSTON (AP) — Beleaguered Skip Butler booted field goals of 20, 43 and 20 yards and Don Hardeman broke out of a slump with touchdown runs of eight and 18 yards Saturday night to lead Houston to a 23-14 National Football League preseason victory over Dallas

Hardeman, a disappointment since being drafted No. 1 by the Oilers in 1975, bulled eight yards in the first quarter and Butler kicked a 20-yard field goal in the second quarter to propel the victory-hungry Oilers to a 10-7 halftime lead.

The Cowboys, who dropped to a 2-3 preseason record, drove 71 yards with the opening kickoff with Robert Newhouse a flat pass from Danny White and scoring from 15 yards out. Pro football scores

Bulldog defense tough, but Wall stands

By BOB BURTON

COAHOMA — Coahoma's Big Red Bulldogs faced all-state candidate Clayton Weishuhn and the Wall Hawks Friday

It was opening night for the 'Dogs and everyone agreed that this year Coahoma was an unknown quantity. New Athletic Director Roy Winters had said, "Our best bet is a low scoring game" before the tilt began, meaning that his defense was the strongest part of the Bulldog game.

When the evening was over, it had been a low scoring game, but Coahoma had lost by one minute and an eyelash, 14-6.

The Red defense had certainly done its share, holding Weishuhn to a total of 74 yards on 18 carries and a 4.1 average. They took away four fumbles from the green Hawk offense and stuck some hits on the 'Bird backfield that they'll remember for some time. Defensive standouts included John Mulkey, Mike Ritchey, and Randy Phillips.

But the Bulldog offense, while generating enough steam in the form of bruiser junior fullback Tracy Frazier to roll up 125 yards on the ground, could only score once

The Red faced trouble early in the game. spending the first twenty minutes in their own territory, fending off Wall runners and getting pinned against their own goal line by the accurate toe of Wall punter-Barry Broadnax. But a 37-yard punt by Gary Paige set the Hawks on their own 26 to start a drive and when a fumble came up in the Bulldog's hands, the offense heated up fast. Thrusts by halfback Dusty Douglas, quarterback Tim Greenfield, and halfback Ronald Sundy put the Bulldogs on the Hawk 29 when on fourth and two Frazier crunched through the Wall wall and scrambled up the center to draw first blood at 2:51 in the half.

Two minutes later, however, the Hawks took to the air. Wall quarterback Sharkey found Broadnax in the end zone through Greenfield's waving arms. The drive had been set up by Weishuhn's suddenly successful slashing attack, and the Bulldogs went into the locker room behind by the eyelash, 7-6.

The third quarter found the Hawks hard pressed as the 'Dogs took advantage of the same kind of territorial play that held them through the first half. Bulldog drives started on the Wall 49 twice and penetrated as far as the 21. Wall started on their 22, 13, and 6 yard lines, trying to dig their way out. Key interceptions by both sides thwarted strong drives. Dog back Gary Gee picked off an aerial to stump Wall's best drive of the game, but then Wall managed to produce a 53-yard punt that turned the battle around.

They began their next drive at their own 40 and pushed down to the 25 yard line behind Broadnax and 230 pound fullback Roger Strube, before being thwarted by Mulkey's sack of Sharkey.

The Bulldogs gathered their hopes at the 15 with three minutes left, but slashes by Greenfield and Douglass could not burst through the Hawk net. Coach Winters showed some tenacity when he tried a fake punt from his own 19, but the strategy backfired when Wall took over on the 23 and powered over their second score of the night, this time by Weishuhn with one

Robbins had hoped to use junior quarwas needed exclusively on defense, due to the injury to Vasquez.

Stanton Coach David Thompson was just as thrilled about his team of Buffaloes as Robbins was of the Steers. "The whole bunch of them looked good," Thompson stated proudly. "We were real pleased with the play of the offensive and defensive lines. And the offensive backs were blocking for each other extremely well.

"We played a real physical ballgame and hit them harder than they hit us," Thompson continued.

We felt like we had to throw the ball more," the coach said, referring to the only three passes by his squad, "but we were running so well, we didn't need to." Thompson allowed that there would be a time when the Buffs would need to throw the ball more. We were just very pleased. The officials told us that the game was as good a first game, condition-wise, as they've ever called," Thompson commented. "Our kids were ready.

Despite the one-sided defeat, Coach Travis Molinex said he was impressed by the fact that his Sands boys never gave up. He had particular praise for right halfback Bill Wigington, fullback Jackie McDonald and right defensive tackle Edward Guillen. Guillen also plays nose guard on occasions.

The Shallowater team rushed 40 times for 300 yards, completed two of five passes for 77 yards, made 17 first downs and intercepted two Sands passes for touchdowns.

Sands failed to penetrate the 50-yard line during the contest. Coach Molinex said he felt his running game would improve.

The resident Mustangs will host Garden City in an 11-man game next Friday. Sands escaped the game without serious injury. In all, Molinex and his aide, Jimmy Fullingim. are working with a squad of 18 players.

Oh sets homer mark

TOKYO (AP) - Sadaharu Oh smashed the 756th home run of his 19-year pro baseball career before 50,000 roaring fans here Saturday night, blasting his 40th home run of the season and breaking the American record held by Hank Aaron.

The 37-year-old left-handed slugger connected for the historic home run in the bottom of the third inning off pitcher Kojiro Suzuki of the Yakult Swallows

Oh sent the sixth pitch over the right-field fence and circled the bases for the 756th time before the roaring throng at Korakuen Stadium. It was at this park, home of the Giants, that Oh tied Aaron's lifetime major league record of 755 on Wednesday.

Aaron retired from active playing in october, 1976. The record-breaking shot came on Oh's 7,878th career trip to the plate and in his 2,428th game.

Some baseball experts in the United States and elsewhere challenge Oh's mark, arguing that American major league ball is of higher caliber and that fields are smaller in Japan. So far as the baseballhappy Japanese were concerned, however, Oh was the home run king of the world.

Oh, known as Japan's Babe Ruth, was the second man to break Ruth's lifetime record of 714 homers. He accomplished that feat in October, 1976, just 30 months after Aaron broke the mark in Atlanta on April 18, 1974. Oh recorded his first home run in this same Korakuen Stadium, home park of the Giants, on April 26, 1959, off Genichi Murata of the Kokutetsu Swallows-now the Yakult Swallows.

Rains help area lakes

Showers brought some slight increase to the levels of Lake J.B. Thomas and Lake E.V. Spence, and it slowed fishing to some degree.

Lake Thomas picked up .70 of a foot, which amounted to only 1,500 acre feet of water. Lake Spence did a little better with nearly a foot for some 6,000 acre feet of water. There was something of a mystery why Lake Thomas didn't catch more, because rains ranged from two inches to nearly six inches in some spots on the lake shed. One theory was that livestock tanks in the basin were all but empty and had first to be refilled before there would be the usual runoff. Lake Spence benfitted by extremely heavy showers in the Dunn area of northwest Mitchell County.

At Lake Thomas there were reports of some good bass catches of black bass and crappie, as well as yellow catfish. A few northern pike were caught along the rocks at the dam and around the island. M.S. Callaway, Snyder. hooked a 16 1/4-lb. yellow cat.

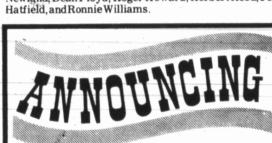

Red Pikerton won the recent tournament of the Snyder Bass Club at Lake Thomas with a total string of 14 lbs. 11/2-ozs. of fish. He also had the largest bass at 5 lbs 2 ozs. Maxy Ware had the second largest fish at 4 lbs. 14 ozs., and Vernon Barrick was third with a 4-pounder. Among others weighting in were Larry House, Don Parsons, Roland Newland, Dean Floyd, Roger Howard, Herbert Reed, Jerry Hatfield, and Ronnie Williams.

All-American futurity runs Monday (AP) — Ivan Ashment says there's more to winning the "World's Richest Horse" "You can always use that kind of money," said Ash-ment of the $330,000 that will (AP) — Ivan Ashment says

Blyleven's gold stuff stretches Bosox, 6-4

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP)- Texas Ranger Manager Billy Hunter thinks pitcher Bert Blyleven needs to start using his head to go with his golden arm.

'I'm going to work on his mind in spring training because anybody with his kind of a stuff who is a .500 pitcher...well, it's a bleep-bleep shame," said Hunter after a 6-4 victory over the Boston Red Sox Friday night. Blyleven permitted two hits in five innings before a twinge in his groin muscle injury sent him to the showers.

"I told Bert to let me know the minute the injury bothered him," said Hunter. "I told him not to save anything ... give me all you can, because we have some good arms in the bullpen.'

Blyleven is now 13-11 but his so-so record in 1977 is one reason the Rangers are four games behind Kansas City in the American League West.
"Bert has a tendency to coast when things are going good," said Hunter. "At times, he doesn't drive at you. Maybe it's not a conscious thing.

Have you ever seen what he does after he gets stung with a home run? Well, he comes back and just wipes out the side which leads me to believe he hasn't been giving Blyleven was booed by the crowd in the second inning when he walked three Red Sox batters. He tipped his cap

'That's what I mean...something like that tip of the cap," said Hunter. "Somebody who isn't sure of himself

It wasn't certain whether Blyleven, who got relief help from Nelson Briles and Roger Moret, would miss his next turn on the mound. Catcher Jim Sundberg knocked in two runs with a sacrifice fly and a perfect suicide squeeze bunt.

"Jim has sort of taken over as the team leader," said Hunter. "It's something that has just developed." Butch Hobson struck his 27th homer for the Red Sox who also got run-scoring singles from Carl Yastrzemski, Rick Burleson and Bernie Carbo. Red Sox Manager Don Zimmer said "Fergie's throwing error hurt us when Texas scored twice in the second. That Boston is four and one-half games out of first place behind New York in the AL East.

Jenkins threw wild on a sacrifice attempt after two singles in the second inning and the ball sailed into leftfield, scoring Mike Hargrove. Sundberg hit a sacrifice fly and the Rangers broke a 1-1 tie and were on their way. Moret was credited with his second save of the year go to the first place horse in Monday's $1.03 million All-American Futurity.

"But that's not par-ticularily why I would like to win. It's a thing of feeling like a success in something you like to do," he said.

Ashment, an Idaho farmer who has shifted his horseracing operation to a ranch at Apple Valley, Calif., is the owner of Town Policy, The speedy colt set the top qualifying time in last weekend's trials and likely will go off as the betting favorite in the 440-yard scramble.

"It has to be the biggest race there is for quarter horses," Ashment said of the final leg of quarter horse racing's Triple Crown for two year olds. "I red imber reading about it when I first started racing," he said. "I was very happy to come and see it for the first time, let alone be in it

The 61-year-old Ashment, who began breeding horses as a hobby 25 years ago, said, "It's kind of a dream to run in it. I want to win in the worst way. I want to win this very badly

But Ashment said he is tempering his high hopes. "You have to have a lot of luck," he said. "I've had two big disappointments. I don't want to get too high. I want to try to be prepared for whatever happens Ashment's first disappointment in connection with the All-American was in 1975 when his Bobby's Angel finished sixth. Then earlier this year his big hope for 1977, Band of Angels, came up sore after being bumped coming out of the gate in a race and couldn't run in the All-American trials.

Town Policy, which Ashment said he had planned to enter in the All-American trials anyway, became his chief hope. Ashment had to pay $15,000 to get the speedy horses in the 10-horse field

HORSE OF THE HOUR — Town Policy, with a perfect five-for-five record and top qualifying time of $22.06\frac{1}{2}$ seconds for 440 yards, looms as the horse of the hour in Monday's \$1,030,00 All-American Futurity at Ruidoso Downs. The gelding is shown by his trainer, Blaine Schvaneveldt.

was a late entry.

'He's campaigned against a lot of good horses," said Ashment of Town Policy. "I have a lot of confidence in him. I feel very good with him. I like my chances. But then, you know, anything can happen. You never know

Ashment said he didn't know which of the other colt in the trials because he would pose the greatest the two horses rated most threats to his hopes for an All-American victory.

> However, it appears the filly Stoa Minga, owned by C.L. Siewart & Sons, Inc., of Lubbock, Tex., will be the one Town Policy will have to outrun to get to the wire first.

Remodeling of school building finally finsished

Forsan High School this year can be summed up in a single phrase many say "At least it's better than last year! The most notable improvement is the school building itself. At this time last year the building looked like a warzone and finding class was like maneuvers under heavy enemy fire. I kept having this uneasy feeling that the roof was going to collapse at any moment. This year, however, everything looks very nice. There was a heavy turnover in the faculty, so there are plenty of new faces at the Welfare is here to stay, chief says

Acting commissioner Chapman of the Department of Human Resources predicted Saturday welfare is here to stay but state medical programs may be taken over by the federal government.

Chapman, named temporarily to replace Raymond Vowell, who resigned, said President Carter's welfare proposals should provide millions of additional dollars for Texas.

Many more Texans also would be eligible for welfare under Carter's proposal, Chapman said.

radio program State Capitol Deadline, Chapman said: "We'll never get to the point when the (welfare) programs aren't needed. They may go in a different direction. I think personally ways off yet — when we will have national health insurance or some type of federally administered medical program instead of being state administered."

He noted that the population of the aging is "growing dramatically" and more aid is being provided for children. "These kinds of problems in our society will always be with us," he said.

On Carter's proposed welfare overhaul, Chapman said, "Frankly it might be good for Texas in terms that it would bring a good deal of additional dollars flowing into the state, which always stimulates the economy. There's no question Texas would get substantially more dollars than they're getting at the present time, and there would be a substantial money, Chapman said, "Multi-millions per year."

"I think it is a program that will work in Texas in terms of meeting the needs of our very needy people, Chapman said He added, however, that the "depart-ment as a whole and I personally have some real problems with the program

UT helped CIA with mind

experiments

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The University of Texas says it has been informed by the Central Intelligence Agency that unnamed UT employes did research for the CIA in the 1950s or 1960s on altering human behavior

The CIA, however, did not identify the school, and Associate Deputy Chancellor Bob Hardesty said UT has requested that information. Hardesty said the CIA notified UT that the research was "designed to identify materials and methods useful in altering human behavior patterns. Although the more highly publicized portion of this activity concerned the testing of the various types of drugs on humans, most of the research did not involve such testing but rather only far less controversial investigations into aspects of human behavior and its determinants.

Hardesty said CIA director Stansfield Turner told Congress last month that 44 colleges had been involved in the human behavior project. The UT project was known as "Project MKULTRA," Hardesty said, but the CIA did not say specifically what it involved or who the researchers were.

He quoted the CIA as saying it destroyed the bulk of the MKULTRA records in 1973, sparing primarily financial records that "do not provide more than a fragmentary picture of the various research projects.

The CIA said the Privacy Act may forbid release of the names of the researchers involved in MKULTRA, and it is seeking an opinion on this from the Department of

Hardesty said the CIA stated that its involvement in research projects was usually concealed, and most of the people and institutions involved are not aware of agency spon-

Suits filed against treaty

WASHINGTON (AP) - A lawyer for attorneys general in four states today filed suit in the U.S. Supreme Court against the Panama Canal treaty which President Carter is scheduled to sign in less than a week.

Atty. George Leonard, representing the four, filed a petition asking that President Carter and Secretary of State Cyrus Vance be ordered to show why a preliminary injunction should not be issued. The treaty would give control of the waterway to the Panamanians by the year 2000. But a separate treaty would give the United States permanent power to canal's the ensure neutrality.

The four attorneys general contend it is illegal to dispose of U.S. property by treaty. and that any such action should require an act of Congress.

The suit was filed on behalf of Attys. Gen. Richard Turner of Iowa; Ted Sendak of Indiana; Wayne Kidwell of Idaho, and William Guste Louisiana, a court

Day care center encourages independence

By SUSAN HAMPTON & EILEEN McGUIRE

From the moment a child leaves his mother's car to walk the distance of the sidewalk leading to the front door of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Pre-School and Day Care Center, he begins to learn. Mrs. Joan Rock, founder of the center, explained that having the child leave his mother, rather than have the mother leave him, imparts a feeling of independence to the proud child who walks the distance by himself. The child is met at the door by one of the staff, presently consisting of Jobeth Corwin, director, Dorcas Bedford, teacher, and Linda Ornelas, teacher's

The pre-school and day care center was started from an idea Mrs. Rock suggested to the parish council when decisions as to what to do with the convent were being made: Several alternatives were presented to the board, such as a senior citizens special time. center, a religious education center for youth and a retreat center.

However, she said she decided on the preschool and day care center because "the building was close to the regular school."

Transforming the convent into a child care center was not difficult. Mrs. Rock said. In fact, she said she wonders why more day care centers in Big Spring are not "The church does help out, but it's not church-supported. We make our own way," she said.

The center is an eight-room facility, with each room used for a different purpose. An "activity room" which bears the sign "Caution: Children live here. Handle with care," is littered with toys for the children to play with. Along with the activity room, the unique concept of a "feelings room" and a "decision chair" are incorporated into the center.

The "feelings room" allows the child to freely express himself, Mrs. Rock said, in any way he wants, without disturbing the others. A large mirror is on the room's wall so the child can focus his attentions solely on himself during that

'On second and third offenses, the teacher, not the child, decides when his punishment was enough," she said.

Mrs. Rock equates the deciding chair to standing in the corner, "except that it is more comfortable and the child is never in solitary.'

The center was furnished with donations. Mrs. Rock explained that it would not have been possible without the generous donations of furniture, toys, equipment and even carpeting received from those interested in making the center a success.

Licensed for a capacity of 48 children, the center now consists of 22 pupils and an additional eight are anticipated for the school year. The center strives to maintain a staff of one adult per every 10 children.

Mrs. Doss, who has been in business for 12 years, says every type of person brings in their dogs to be groomed. She said, "We do poodles, mainly, and the most popular breed of dog after them that are brought in for grooming is the schnauzer.

Allen agree that pet owners tend to spoil their pets a bit. The biggest problem, Mrs. Doss said, is overfeeding. 'And trying to put a poodle on a diet is like trying to slim down a human — when they're hungry, they're hungry." Another problem, she added, is lack of exercise

The usual grooming procedure is to first brush out the poodle's hair, shave the face, feet and neck in the pattern selected by the due to the rising popularity owner, bathe the dog, dry him, clean out his ears, dip him if needed for flea or tick infestation and clip and file his nails. Some owners like their pet's nails painted and if so this is done too.

> They can choose any color of the rainbow from blue or green to black or red.

Other options include applications of "poodle perfume" or bows matching the nail polish. Styles of clips that owners can choose from are the Puppy, English Saddle, and Continental Clips for showdogs. If the dog is not for show, owners also have their choice of the Royal Dutch, Kennel, Shawl, and Terrier Dutch clips.

Mrs. Allen said that she has never been bitten while working with a dog yet. "If the owner tells us he's a biter, we refuse to take him, and if the dog becomes agitated we put him back in his cage.

Mrs. Doss and Mrs. Allen said the grooming business has built up with experience. Mrs. Allen said that they are usually booked a week ahead now. Mrs. Doss pointed out that inflation hasn't really affected her prices, explaining that grooming prices began at $5 12 years ago as compared to $7 now. There are three pet rooming businesses in Big Spring. The nearest cemetery is in Midland.

Miss Nix, Walker unite Stork club in marriage Saturday

Gregory Beaty Walker were united in marriage Saturday evening in the First Baptist Church in Coahoma with the Rev. Guy White Sr. and the Rev. Monroe Teeters of-

Miss Nix is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cherry, Gail Rt., and Mr. and Mrs Høyle Nix, Gail Rt. Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Walker of Coahoma are the parents of the groom.

The couple stood before an altar decorated with a large sunburst arrangement of pink and white gladiolas and pink carnations centered under an archway of greenery topped with white doves. Two baskets of gladiolus and carnations and spiral candealhrums stood on either side. Seven-branch candelabrums were used in front of the altar. A large arch candelabrum was centered directly behind the archway. Two markers of greenery topped with votive cups were placed on every other pew. An eternal candle completed the setting.

Miss Nancy Wood ac companied Mrs. Pat Hudgins as she sang "We've Only Just Begun' "Evergreen", and Lord's Prayer' Hoyle Nix, father of the bride, gave her away.

The bride selected a traditional-style gown of white silk organza adorned with re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice was overlaid with lace accented by pearls, sequins. It featured a Vneckline bordered with pearls and long full sleeves finished with lace cuffs. The dress had an A-line skirt decorated with two bands of lace. The chapel-length train draped down the front panels of the skirt, and a band of lace encircled it. A fingertiplength veil of silk illusion edged in identical lace fell from a lace Camelot headpiece accented with pearl beads and sequins. She carried a nosegay of pink and white miniature carnations and baby's breath accented with a touch of burgundy, atop a white mother-of-pearl Bible borrowed from a

Army study aims research at women

WASHINGTON (AP) -The Army is conducting a major new study which could result in women serving under fire in a future war, officials say.

The study, the most detailed of its kind ever conducted by the Army, is aimed at establishing how women can fit best into the service structure and how many can be used ef-

officials said Thursday there is no intention change to longstanding policy barring women from a direct combat role - as an infantry soldier, machine-gunner, or member of a tank crew. But they said they are looking at how women might serve in what they call a "combat environment As the officials explained the concept, women even-tually might be assigned to signal, military police, transportation, maintenance or medical units with a role Traditionally, soldiers have been kept far to the rear in higher headquarters or hospitals, although women nurses sometimes have been exposed to shellfire in past under pressure," she said.

Meanwhile, leaders of women's organizations appealed to Congress on Thursday for more jobs for women in the armed forces. Testifying before a Joint Economic Committee panel, they said expanding participation of women in the armed forces would result in greater military fectiveness. One witness, retired Col.

Mary A. Halaren, a former director of the Women's Army Corps, testified that WACs served in London during World War II bombing raids. "No one ever asked for a transfer to a safe billet," she said.

'There are women, as well as men; who crack under stress, who cannot take pressure, but working with

50 years, both in and out of the Army, has convinced me that it is the individual and not the gender that determines a person's strength

The Army study is being carried out in several sections, with most of the results due for consideration next spring by Army Secretary Clifford Secretary Clifford Alexander and Gen. Bernard Rogers, Army chief of staff.

One of the most important tests involves about 200 women who will go into the field with units in Western Europe this month. The purpose is to judge how women stand up under rough conditions of extended field

Although women started serving with the Army in numbers during World War II, they were limited strictly until recent years to medical or clerical jobs. But 92 per cent of the skills in the Army

Couple solemnize vows Hyperactive children not helped by special diet in August ceremony

The wedding vows of Miss Linda Ann Bell to John Howard Lipscombe were solemnized in an Aug. 20 wedding at the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Austin. The 5 p.m. ceremony was presided over by the Rev. Harland Birdwell of Big Spring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Bell of Austin, and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Lipscombe, 2404 Allendale Rd.

The couple stood before an altar decorated with white flowers and a candelabrum. Music was provided by Betsy Warren at the organ playing traditional music.

The bride wore a white organza gown accented by Chantilly lace with tracings of seed pearls on the bodice. The full skirt was edged in front with wide bands of Chantilly lace as was the chapel-length train. The chapel-length veil of organza fell from a pearl-encrusted halo headdress. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Maribeth Stolle, Austin, was maid of honor. The bridemaids included Miss Meta Dobie, Miss Janie Kluna and Mrs. Douglas Bibus, all of Austin.

MD, a medical journal that is unique in that it was conceived to meet the physician's "professional, social and cultural interests" is celebrating its 20th birthday

In an article that reviews important advances in medicine during the publication's lifetime, the authors observe that which grew up in MD's time has been obliged to devote more attention to the social and economic aspects of health and disease." Also, that "medical research during the past two decades has been largely superseded by the team approach, using laboratory work coordinated with tests and treatment at the patient's bedside or in thephysician's office.

Predictions for the future include: there will be more women physicians, an increased emphasis on technological medicine and a growing convergence of resources in hospitals. reduction in the incidence of communicable diseases, a better understanding of causative factors of cancer and developments in the fields of transplants and prosthesis.

Ten years ago Judy Clark others that date back to the turn of the century.
"Dolls from that era are old doll at an auction for only usually worth several hundred dollars, depending on their condition and scarcity," she says. Many of her dolls she constructs from scratch by pouring porcelain into molds to form the head and body, then adding glass eyes and wigs and dressing them "It seems like I've spent a fortune on 'do-it-yourself' books 'since I first bought that injured doll," Mrs. Clark says. "One of the first things I did was join a dollcollectors' club, which had about 3,000 members. Eventually. I learned to dress dolls for other people in exchange for kits which contained heads, arms and legs to use in making dolls for my own collection.

A few years later, when the Clarks were assigned to Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., Mrs. Clark enrolled in a porcelain and chinapainting course at the base ceramics shop. "Shortly after that, I bought some spends much of her spare molds and then really got time making and collecting into doll making," recalls

Bengal has dreams of becoming D.J.

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Playing football for the Cincinnati Bengals is Vernon Holland's livelihood.

Playing disc jockey is his escape and his dream. "I don't want but three hours really," the offensive tackle said. "If I can get me a show at a little station on Fridays and Saturdays. But I want the late shift when people go out and kiss their boyfriends, maybe 11:30 (p.m.), because I ain't doin' nothing at that time of night in Sherman (Texas) anyway.'

While he waits to break into the world of broadcasting, a corner of his room at the Cincinnati Bengals training camp has been turned into an imaginary studio, complete with $1,240 worth of stereo and cassette recording equipment.

Every day, the offensive tackle slips on a pair on bluejeans, a T-shirt and a headset and plays disc jockey, spinning records and speaking low and slow into a microphone to an imaginary audience.

His call letters are SUKI, his nickname, and his call numbers are .076, his uniform number.

The 29-year-old bachelor has another $7,000 worth of stereo equipment back home in Sherman and at last count over 1,100 albums.

"If I don't have a record somebody wants, I feel bad," he explained.

There are however 20 soul albums one should own to be ready for all occassions, Holland explained.

'This list is for somebody who can't afford, but 10 albums," Holland said. "With these, you could entertain Jimmy Carter."

Holland continued about why he wanted to go back home and be a disc jockey. We have several good radio stations in Sherman, but none with black disc jockeys," he said. "Blacks listen to radio too, and right now they have to tune into a Dallas

SNACK BAR - Clark Allard, a member of the new U.S. diplomatic mission to Havana, inspects an old snack bar in the basement of the former U.S. Embassy building, abandoned by U.S. diplomats in 1961 when relations between Havana and Washington were broken. In the background is Couglas Langan, administrative officer of the U.S. Intersts Section, taking a look at old soft drink dispensers. Above left is a portrait of the late Dwight E. Eisenhower, who was president at the time relations broke off between the U.S. and Cuba.

I have not been whistling in the wind. Not prattling, as group of parents about to though I ignored the evils of life. Indeed. I have been saying, over and over again that we can turn things around. That we can change our behavior. That we can curb, nay, even manage, our aggressions. I did you not. It happening in Howard Getting County.

In recent years we have learned that one of our major national social problem is parental abuse of children. This abuse includes un-believable physical abuse and the harder to identify emotional abuse.

What is perhaps a startling discovery to many is that abusing parents also suffer from their abusive acts. One result of this suffering is the organization of abusing parents into a group called Parents Anonymous. In this group parents who feel that they are about to abuse can call on other parents who will help them stay their hurtful actions.

Howard County, like any other representative community, knows child abuse. In fact, over 20 reports of child abuse are made each month

DETROIT (AP) - More Americans go to and from their jobs in privately owned vehicles than in any other form of transportation, according to the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers' Association

The organization said the U.S. Census Bureau's 1975 survey of 140,000 households in 21 metropolitan areas showed 86 per cent of all commuters take private cars Cuts glare and you or trucks to work. Twelve per cent use public transportation, while another two per cent ride motorcycles or bicycles or find some other way to their places of business.

In comparison with 1970. the association says, the dropped 21 per cent

'About time' for hurricane

For six seasons now, Texans have kept a wary eye toward the Gulf of Mexico, wondering when the next hurricane might strike. There was a feeling smong some veteran coastwatchers that Texas was overdue such a visit.

Hurricane Anita, with winds of more than 100 miles per hour, became that unwelcomed visitor this week.

But she certainly does not set precedent.

Other non-grata guests in the past have included the likes of such killing storms as Carla, Beulah and Celia. Since 1818, at least 21 known hurricanes' have clobbered portions of the Texas coast. Records educated guesses at best fix the death toll to date something over 8,000 with damages easily in the

In 1953, the National Weather Service decided to give all tropical disturbances short womens' names to avoid confusion when two or more storms were active simultaneously. Men had a good laugh.

But nobody laughed in September 1961 when Carla stormed ashore at Port O'Connor with 175-mile-perhour winds. Before it was through 34 Texans died, 465 were injured and property tended

The most destructive Texas hurricane on record has no name. It was called simply the Great Galveston Storm of 1900. At least 6,000 unsuspecting coastal dwellers died in an age when hurricane warning systems were synonymous with how loud you could shout.

The list, before and since, is long and tragic. Five recorded hurricanes precede 1900. Fifteen followed including the great storms of 1915 and 1919 when 559 Texans died. The names only added a macabre glamour.

The intensity of the storms varied, but all spelled Americans dig damage.

There was Audrey in June 1957 — the first storm of the season. Eleven Texans along the upper coast died. Property damage was initially put at $6 million. In Louisiana, some 500 died.

In July 1959, Debra arrived along the Middle Texas Coast almost unannounced. There was no loss of life. Damages were put at $6 million. For almost six years, Texans watched and waited but the whirling winds stayed away. Then on Sept. 1967, Beulah shoved ashore just east of Brownsville with 150 mph winds. Thirteen died.
