'No more war'

CAIRO (AP) — President Anwar Sadat of Egypt ended his historic journey to Jerusalem and returned to Cairo today after pledging with the leader of Israel: "No more war." Millions of Egyptians lined the route from the airport to Cairo, hailing their returning president as a "hero of peace."

In his final statement to Israel's cabinet members in Jerusalem, Sadat said: "Let us raise two slogans — no war, and security."

"No war. Let every girl, every woman, every mother, here and in my country, know that we shall solve all our problems through negotiations around the table rather than start wars."

"We've had enough — four wars in 30 years," said the Egyptian president who risked his political future and the unity of the Arab world to speak in the capital of his enemies.

Israeli Prime Minister Menahem Begin echoed the sentiment: "We have decided, no more war between our nations. We will establish peace and live in peace."

He then gave Sadat a gift of nine ancient candlesticks and said: "From time to time, have a glimpse of it and remember your friends in Israel."

At a news conference earlier in the day, Sadat said it was now Israel's turn to take "hard and drastic decisions."

"I have already taken my share of risk in my decision to come here," he said. But he repeated that there could be no compromise on Arab demands for the return of all territory captured in 1967 or on the creation of a homeland for the Palestinians.

Begin pronounced the visit "a real success for both countries and for the cause of peace."

Sadat left Jerusalem in his special Boeing 707, flanked by four Israeli Kfir jet fighters, at 4:14 p.m. A 21-gun salute thundered over Cairo Airport 40 minutes later as his jet touched down.

HARLAND BIRDWELL

Birdwell is new trustee

The Rev. Harland (Steve) Birdwell, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church here, has been named a trustee of the Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest, located in Austin.

Birdwell is one of nine members of the board, which meets regularly four times a year in either Austin or Houston.

Birdwell sat with the board in its last meeting Nov. 2 in Houston. The board president is the Rev. Melton Richardson of Houston while the seminary dean is the Very Rev. Gordon Charlton.

The Austin seminary is one of 11 supported by the Episcopal Church throughout the United States and currently has about 75 students.

Contract to Odessa firm

All signs 'go' for center

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the yet unnamed Episcopal Church's retirement center, which will be built at 17th and Lancaster Streets, likely will be held Dec. 12, Guil Jones Jr., president and chairman of the St. Mary's Episcopal Church building board, announced this morning.

Contract for construction of the $2.5 million project has been awarded to Cooper Construction Company.

FORE GOODNESS SAKES — A winter storm rolling across the Northern Great Plains brought an end to golfing season at Rapid City, S.D., and opened the winter sports season for these girls trying out cross-country skiing on Meadowbrook Golf Links. Snow depths ranged from 3 to 20 inches and in open areas, blizzard conditions prevailed.

R.E. McClure is seeking change of venue in trial

A pre-trial hearing in Judge Bill Tune's county court will hear a request at 2 p.m. Tuesday for a change of venue on a charge against R.E. McClure, head of Trans Regional Airlines here.

The charge is on a complaint filed by Imogene P. Rickabaugh, who claims she was harassed by McClure on the telephone.

McClure's attorney has filed a motion to quash the charges but has also filed a motion that the county judge disqualify himself to preside.

McClure claims that he and Judge Tune have been involved in a controversy for over a year between Trans Regional Airlines and the Howard County Commissioners Court and that this year-long disagreement would prejudice the judge as a presiding officer.

Judge Tune indicated today that he could see no difference between this and any other case, but would make his decision in court tomorrow.

Subpoenas were issued to all four commissioners and to a former commissioner, Si Terrazas, to appear at 10 a.m. today. These were issued Friday.

On Saturday, new subpoenas were issued to three of the commissioners requesting them to appear at 2 p.m. Tuesday. However, Louie Brown did not receive a new subpoena so he appeared today and there was nobody there. He received an apology from Miller, attorney for McClure for the misunderstanding.

Other cases scheduled for pre-trial hearings this week include several cases of driving while intoxicated, speeding, simple assault, running a red light, entering and remaining on posted property, and an obscene gesture in a public place.

units will embrace one bedroom. There will be 35 efficiency apartments plus five two-bedroom units.

The complex will be built on a 3.6 acre plot within easy walking distance of major shopping areas. There will be ample parking in the rear of the structure for tenants and guests. Food for a noon meal will be catered by Howard College under the supervision of a professional dietician.

Final plans will have to be cleared by the Department of Housing and Urban Development but that should be only a formality.

St. Mary's Church has already had inquiries from all over the Southwest about the center.

Jones said a system for rental fees would be announced at a later date.

Minister slain, wallet missing

DALLAS (AP) — There were no services Sunday at the small First Baptist Church in East Dallas. Police were still looking for the man who killed the pastor, the Rev. Delma J. Price, whose body was found in the church's meeting room.

Price, 68, who was described by his daughter, as a "humble kind of man" had been shot once in the upper chest. Police said his wallet was missing and furniture in the meeting room was strewn, indicating there had been struggle.

"We have had a little trouble before with people breaking into the church, trying to steal a piano and things," said Mrs. Lucille Price, the pastor's widow. "Somebody just wanted some money to buy dope."

Price's body was found shortly before midnight Saturday by police after they received a report from a woman who said she was walking by the church in a residential area of East Dallas at about 8:30 p.m. when she noticed the lights were on and a door was open and Price's pickup truck was parked outside the church.

Price and his family had moved to Dallas from Tyler 13 years ago. Earlier he had served as pastor of a congregation in Allen.

The congregation has approximately 150 members.

Nolan Voight crash victim

Nolan Voight, 34, was killed in a plane crash near Lincoln, Nebraska shortly before 6 a.m. Sunday.

Voight, who was in the United States Air Force Reserve and was making a weekend flight, and his navigator, were apparently both killed instantly.

Voight was working for the public schools in Lincoln. He had retired from the active Air Force at Webb AFB and he and his family moved to Lincoln.

His wife is the former Sherry Aton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Aton, of Big Spring.

The Atons and her mother, Mrs. Elmer Boatler, were in Lincoln visiting the Voights when the tragedy occurred.

They were flying back to Big Spring today bringing their daughter, Sherry and her two children, Brian and Wendy. Services are pending at Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home here and will await shipment of the body by the Air Force.

Voight's only other survivor, in addition to his wife and children, is his father, who resides in New Brannfels, Tex.

Lockheed officials are due next week

Officials of Lockheed Aircraft Co., will fly to Big Spring within the next few days to finalize the option for leasing Webb AFB facilities from the City of Big Spring. Such an option would be contingent upon Lockheed's bid to obtain a government contract for refurbishing military aircraft engines.

The final contract will be in the hands of city officials no later than Monday, according to Harry Nagel, city manager.

Sun Oil plans to close Colorado City office

COLORADO CITY — Sun Production Co. and Sun Gas Co., Dallas-headquartered operating units of Sun Co., Inc., announce a major restructuring of their organizations, including the closing of the Colorado City district office.

The closure was made in order to manage a planned division of Sun's oil and gas assets on a field-by-field basis, a Sun spokesman said.

Under the restructuring, Sun Production will have operating responsibility for all of Sun's domestic properties primarily related to oil production. Sun Gas will operate all Sun domestic properties primarily related to gas production.

The consolidation, which is being done by many companies due to anticipated decisions in Washington, included the shutdown of three offices. One was in Delhi, La., another one at McAllen and the third in Colorado City.

District offices will be in Corpus Christi, Lafayette, La., and in Oklahoma City. The regional office for offshore Gulf of Mexico operations will remain in Houston.

The Colorado City district office will cease operations by early summer of 1978. Closing of the office will necessitate the relocation of 25 families now residing in the Colorado City-Lorraine area. The operation began in the area in the early 50s.

Union says plan 'unacceptable'

Union officials, who declined to comment Friday, issued a statement today on the layoff of 22 employees at the Cosden Refinery.

Cosden management and the Cosden Refinery Local 826 Workmen's committee met several times in an effort to avoid a layoff.

"Cosden management presented proposed changes that were totally unacceptable to the union," Kenneth Howell, business manager, said here today in an official statement.

Howell said that the company's proposals included reduction of manpower by combination of units which in the worker's opinion would result in unsafe operation of the units.

The union spokesman also said "the company proposed a 42-hour work week which would result in their needing fewer employees, thus increasing the company's desire to lay off employees."

The company also proposed to delete the agreement with the union to accelerate summer vacations and the union spokesman said "thereby reducing the number of required employees."

Howell also stated, "The company also proposed a 12-hour shift schedule for employees and requested the union to accept a reduction in base rates because the company has to operate under the Walsh and Healey requirements."

The union also contended "and still contends that the company is top heavy in its number of non-represented employees, does entirely too much contracting and generally follows inept management practices."

Howell further stated, "The company's proposals, if accepted, would have led to much larger, drastic layoffs in the immediate future. Local 826 Cosden Refinery members unanimously rejected the company proposals, plus the fact that Cosden management would not guarantee that employees would not be laid off past Nov. 30 even if the union accepted the company's proposals."

Ken Perry, Cosden president, said "We offered every proposal we could think of trying to keep from laying off people at his time and to simply go by attrition, but there was no apparent possible agreement."

Perry also said, "Non-union contractors, such as pipeline workers presently working at the plant are doing jobs that the other employees are not qualified to do."

Perry also pointed out, "Expenses are up for an inland refinery and 1978 will be a difficult year. We kept trying to tell them that something would have to give."

All 79 aboard plane feared dead

BARILOCHE, Argentina (AP) — A chartered Argentine jetliner with 79 persons aboard crashed in stormy weather near this southern resort early Monday and all aboard were feared dead.

A spokesman for Austral Airlines said the BAC-111 twin jet carrying 74 passengers and a crew of five, left Aeroparque Airport at Buenos Aires about 10 p.m. EST Sunday on a direct flight for Bariloche, a lake resort in the foothills of the Andes 1,000 miles southwest of Buenos Aires.

Aviation authorities declared an emergency after the plane failed to arrive on time Sunday night.

An airline spokesman said the plane was carrying tourists but their nationalities were unknown.

Focalpoint

Action/reaction: No replacements

Q. Why did they cut down the trees that for years provided shade for motorists who viewed swimmers in the city swimming pool? Will any trees near the pool be planted before next summer?

A. The elm trees were cut down because they were dead from a disease. No new trees will be planted at that location. The swimming pool was designed primarily not for watchers but for swimmers, park officials remind.

Calendar: Band boosters

MONDAY

Coahoma Band Boosters, 7:30 p.m. band hall.

Band Marching Banquet, 8 p.m. Howard College Cafeteria.

Offbeat: She fainted

ATLANTA (AP) — While Philip Robertson stewed outside in the car, his wife was tied up in a restaurant robbery — as an unwitting victim.

Police said it happened this way:

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, of Pittsburg, returned to the restaurant Sunday a few minutes before it opened to look for Mrs. Robertson's eyeglasses, which she thought she may have lost there the night before.

Instead, she walked in on two masked gunmen.

Three painters, apparently working when the robbery began, had already been handcuffed to a serving cart and soon Mrs. Robertson was tied to a chair.

Growing impatient, Robertson finally walked into the restaurant and found his wife and the painters. By this time the robbers were in another part of the building forcing the kitchen manager to open the safe.

While Robertson was gone to call the police the robbers brought the manager out, handcuffed him to the serving cart with the painters and ran out the back door with an undisclosed amount of cash.

The painters managed to untie Mrs. Robertson, who ran to the front door just as police stormed in with shotguns.

She fainted.

Tops on TV: Rare night

The airways should be full of shows worth watching this evening. Columbo (Peter Falk) returns with the first of five such shows, supported by Ruth Gordon and Mariette Hartley. This one starts at 8:30 p.m., over NBC. Dotty Lucille Ball offers her special, with Ed McMahon, Gale Gordon and Vivian Vance all in support, starting at 7:30 p.m., over CBS. For the hopeless football addict who hasn't taken the cure, Washington's Redskins and Green Bay will play. Once mighty Green Bay has been to the well nine times this season and won only twice. That one is down for 8 p.m., over COSELL-TV, sometimes known as ABC.

Inside: From girlies to Bibles

"HUSTLER" publisher Larry Flynt has announced he has seen the light and will turn the girlie magazine away from nudity and sex and toward religion — and it's all due to President Carter's faith-healer sister. See p. 2A.

FRANK BRISCOE and Jim McConn end their million dollar campaign for mayor Tuesday after trying to lure reluctant voters to the polls with charges and countercharges. See p. 2A.

130 die, 34 survive

Airliner overshoots runway

FUNCHAL, Madeira (AP) — Survivors of a crash that killed 130 of 164 persons aboard a Portuguese jetliner say the pilot apparently realized he landed too far down the runway and tried to take off, but the plane plunged 200 feet down an embankment and burst into flames.

TAP, the Portuguese national airline, said the Boeing 727 that crashed Saturday night in a rain was carrying 91 Portuguese passengers, 65 foreigners and eight crew members on a flight from Brussels, Belgium, and Lisbon.

No Americans were reported aboard.

The forward section of the plane cartwheeled onto a rocky beach, throwing some of those aboard into the surf.

"The pilot could not find the position for the final approach and circled three or four times," said survivor David van Beetz of Amsterdam. "At the last moment he came down, overshooting the field. The plane was going far too fast. I saw half the plane ripping open. I passed out."

The 62-year-old department store executive said when he regained consciousness, the plane was burning around him and he crawled out.

"I came in water up to my waist," said Marie Paule Oosterlinck of Antwerp, Belgium. "I tried to get my mother out of the water but couldn't because of my broken arm. Then my son ... well, I had to get out of the water myself. I was near the fire and couldn't stand it."

Her mother and three-year-old son were listed as missing. Her husband survived.

Six of the eight crew members were killed including the pilot, Joao Costa, and his copilot.

The Portuguese government ordered an inquiry into the crash.

The runway extends across a narrow neck of land that juts into the ocean on the south side of the mountainous Portuguese island 400 miles west of Morocco.

Whooping cough siege is noted in state

A nationwide whooping cough outbreak has hit Texas. The outbreak, which reached epidemic proportions in Atlanta, Ga., has almost almost doubled the number of Texas cases reported.

The disease is rarely very serious in adults and older children. But it causes pneumonia in about 10 percent of the cases in very young children. Severe cases also can cause brain damage.

Unless they are immunized, small children do not have any protection from the disease, the Texas Medical Association says. Immunization does not provide absolute protection from whooping cough but it can greatly decrease chances of getting the disease at all or of having a serious case.

Although this schedule can vary, children usually are given whooping cough shots in this sequence of ages: 2 months, 4 months, 6 months, and once between ages 3 and 6. Above age 6, children

Aliens should offer reports

District director William J. Chambers of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service said the period within which aliens must report their addresses is almost at hand.

The month of January has been set for the address reporting period. All aliens in the United States, with few exceptions must report addresses to the Government during that period.

Chambers said that forms with which to make the report will be available at all post offices and offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January.

Chambers urges all aliens to comply with the reporting requirements, as willful failure to do so may lead to serious consequences.

Local girl is in Tech cast

LUBBOCK—Diana Owens, Texas Tech junior from Big Spring, will perform in the Department of Classical and Romance Languages' production of "Il Y a Wait Foule" or "There Was a Crowd at the Manor", which satirizes the abuse of monologues in drama and complications in murder mysteries.

The play, written by French playwright Jean Tardieu, will be performed Dec. 1-4. Owens will play Miss Issipie in the play.

She is the daughter of James S. Owens, 509 Highland Dr.

Council faces short agenda

STANTON — City councilmen face a relatively short agenda when they convene in special session at 7:30 p.m. here Tuesday.

The officials will consider an ordinance approving the placement of traffic control signs within the city and discuss the extension of water lines to East Stanton.

Weather

Thunderstorms warning issued

By the Associated Press

A cold front on its way out of the state today set off violent thunderstorms in parts of Central and East Texas.

The front was responsible for the cloudiness in the eastern half of Texas. The remainder of the state was under clear to partly cloudy skies.

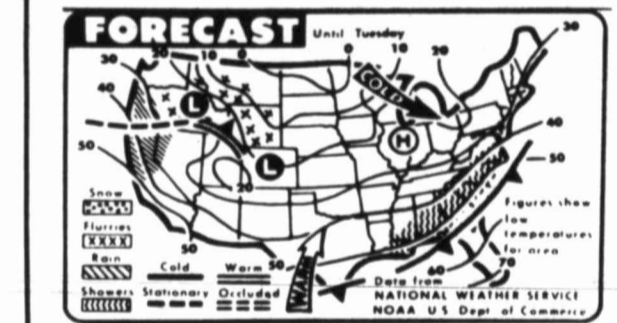

Predawn temperatures included 34 degrees at Wichita Falls under clear skies and 56 degrees in Longview where rain was falling.

Winds across the state were generally from the north at speeds up to 20 miles an hour.

The forecast called for cooler temperatures throughout the state through Tuesday.

Showers are forecast from the central Gulf to the mid-Atlantic region. Warm weather is forecast for the south-central states but most of the country is expected to range from cool to cold.

Reagan Brown to be speaker

LAMESA — The Lamesa Area Chamber of Commerce banquet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday will feature Reagan Brown, Texas commissioner of Agriculture as the speaker.

Dinner music will be provided by the Texas Brass and Strings including the Dale Merricks, A.C. Jensons and Bobby Stewarts.

Special music will be provided by the Lamesa High School "New Song" under the direction of Larry Wesson. Tickets are $7.

Decorations are being handled by several businesses and groups. New officers will be recognized including Charles Bratcher, incoming president. Jerry Harris is outgoing president.

Outbreaks of scabies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Outbreaks of cattle scabies, a skin disease caused by tiny mites, continue to plague herds in parts of the country, according to the Agriculture Department.

Officials say that 13 outbreaks occurred last month in Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska and New Mexico. So far this year, 118 outbreaks have been confirmed, compared with 59 in the same 10 months of 1976.

Federal and state quarantines are imposed to keep cattle moving from infested herds into other areas until the disease can be treated by dipping the animals in pesticide solutions.

Tennessee Ernie sought for tourney

The world championship domino tournament next summer may put Big Spring on the map.

It could well become one of the biggest events in West Texas.

George McAlister, a co-author with Lloyd McLeod of the new book entitled "Dominoes Texas Style," briefly outlined plans for the first-ever world domino championship Tuesday before the Big Spring Rotary Club.

McALISTER SAID THAT the competition will be held on a Thursday, Friday and Saturday in July or August of next year. It will be staged in the new coliseum and wind up with a big entertainment event on Saturday night.

He said that an entry fee of about $50 will be charged, most of which will be returned to the players in prize money.

GEORGE McALISTER

For example, the author said, first prize is expected to be about $3,300. The tournament will be sponsored by American Petrofina, the parent company of Cosden. Paul Meek, president of American Petrofina and a former Big Spring resident, is quite a domino enthusiast, McAlister said, and he has been instrumental in the planning.

The uncertainty about the date comes from Meek's efforts to recruit domino lover Tennessee Ernie Ford as both a player and an attraction for the event. The tournament will be planned about Tennessee Ernie's schedule — if he can make it to Big Spring.

McAlister said they decided to have a world championship in Big Spring because there isn't one and there should be. "We wrote the rule book," he said, "now we'll have the tournament."

WHILE THERE HAS been no publicity about the proposed competition other than the release of the book "Dominoes Texas Style," McAlister said that the tournament is already attracting attention.

He said that a Lamesa man telephoned him to reserve 10 spots for the event. Lamesa, the man said, would field at least ten teams, with some including women.

So if this thing keeps growing, it might become one of the biggest events ever in Big Spring. It might annually attract hundreds of players and spectators to town — along with lots of publicity.

Intrigue over Burns

WASHINGTON — Flagger hopes of business that President Carter might yet avert another self-inflicted wound to the economy were heightened a little Nov. 14 when Rosalynn Carter lunched privately with Dr. Arthur Burns, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board.

Although her viewpoint is wrapped in mystery, nobody denies the First Lady's status as a serious adviser to the President. Thus, advocates of Burns took hope that the Monday luncheon covered more than its announced subject of "voluntarism." If she reported favorably to the President on Burns, it would break the present pattern which points to more Carter trouble with the economy.

THAT PATTERN: BLANKET opposition to reappointment of Burns as chairman of the Fed from the President's own advisers (except for Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal, who is ambiguous); blanket insistence from outsiders in the business world that forcing Burns out Jan. 31 is one piece of bad news not yet discounted by money markets.

Such news will be interpreted as proof that the administration is eyeing the inflationary course and does not want Arthur Burns around to blow his whistle. Reverberations at home and abroad are why even frequent critics of Burns — economist Eliot Janeway, economist Pierre Rinfret, economic pollster Albert Sindlinger — publicly urged that he be retained.

This position has surprising support among congressional Democrats — such as Rep. Thomas Ludlow Ashley of Ohio, a rising figure in the House thanks to his gritty performance as chairman of the ad hoc Energy Committee. Ashley, highly regarded in the White House, this week privately urged the President to reappoint Burns.

A FLICKERING POSSIBILITY that Ashley's advice might be taken exists because the President has neither made up his mind nor discussed the subject in formal meetings. Still, unless Mrs. Carter was so charmed over lunch that she becomes a Burns booster, the President is far more likely to hear a negative message on Burns wherever he turns today.

There has never been doubt that chief domestic aide Stuart Eizenstat and Chief economic adviser Charles Schultz want Burns out. Less well known is how deeply anti-Burns feeling is rooted in the President's inner circle. Contending that the 73-year-old central banker now is the product of old press clippings, one senior adviser told us: "Burns can't fill his own shoes." A key political aide, with no pretensions to economic expertise, tells the President that Burns must be replaced or Jimmy Carter will face the wrath of organized labor and Democratic politicians.

The influential Jody Powell fits this category. After the President praised Burns at his last press conference, press secretary Powell toned it down at the next day's press briefing. When the President lunched with Burns and Treasury Secretary Blumenthal that day, Mr. Carter informed the Fed chairman: Jody said I was too nice to you.

But being "too nice," say White House insiders, is just part of a White House tactic of pacifying business and the money markets with pro-Burns rhetoric until the time comes to dump him — a tactic with unfortunate time limitations. Whether Blumenthal's pangenic on Burns before the Senate Banking Committee is part of the same tactic is less certain.

Weather can't cause a cold

Dr. G. C. Hosteson

Dear Dr. Hosteson: Whatever happened to the old-fashioned idea that you can catch cold or influenza from exposure to cold or wetness? Do doctors still believe this? If it's not true, can such exposure have any effect at all, direct or indirect, on the sickness? — D.B.

I was waiting for this perennial question. You're right, it is an old-fashioned idea — and incorrect to boot. Yet believers far outnumber doubters despite all the evidence against it. Studies with human volunteers who exposed themselves to all sorts of drafts and coldness have shown you just cannot get a virus infection that way. The medical reasoning is sound. Colds and flu are caused by any one of dozens of viruses, and if the virus isn't around you can't get sick. Humidity is a more realistic factor, making membranes more prone to infection.

I can almost hear your next question: How does this square with the fact that many people report symptoms of a cold so suspiciously soon after exposure to elements? And I must frankly admit this has appeared to be true with myself and members of my family. You just have to lay it to coincidence and some common sense factors. For example, colds and flu symptoms crop up at the time of year when we become most susceptible to virus exposure — in the fall and winter months. Children are exposed in close quarters at school, and we ourselves are indoors more and closer to children and others in the family. It's just a coincidence that all of this happens at the time of year when the weather becomes nasty in most parts of the country. But it's just that — a coincidence.

You ask if exposure to elements can make a cold worse. Again, I would have to say no, it won't. But I have to qualify that. No one denies that general comfort and rest are important for recovery in any ailment. For this reason, no one would suggest that you can expose yourself without any effect. The virus infection must run its course. For the fastest recovery, nutrition, rest, and lots of liquids play greater positive roles than the weather.

I have no good definition of "resistance," a term you hear often in connection with this subject. I suppose it means that if you are in good physical condition, you'll weather a virus infection better. I'll buy that.

Dear Dr. Hosteson: What is a trophic ulcer, and what is the treatment for it? — J.T.N.

The word ulcer means death or deterioration of tissue. Trophic refers to nutrition. A trophic ulcer is one caused by poor nourishment of that particular area. Bledsoes are an example. They form because of poor blood supply. Poor nutrition, such as lack of vitamins, may contribute to it. This is why it is important for bedridden persons to get proper nourishment.

Also, the disruption of blood supply to any pressure area must be guarded against. Cleanliness is important, and the patient should be rotated off his or her back when possible. Heels and ankles should be supported by cloth "doughnuts." If there are varicosities (sluggish veins) these must be watched as well.

Understanding C.C.K.

William F. Buckley, Jr.

TAIPEI. — Every time I interview a chief of state, I go to bed with the bitter truth that I am not C.L. Sulzberger. He has an uncanny knack for getting chiefs of state to say new things, and I swear, I do not know how he does it. Perhaps in his youth somebody taught him hypnotism.

Written message

Around the rim

Danny Reagan

While the wife and I were hiding in the kitchen one evening last week, whispering and waiting for Gretchen Werrell to quit knocking on our door, a white blur of lightning came busting through our window. It was smoking and howled like the queen banshee herself.

It was our cat, "Starbuck." He had a thin sheet of aluminum tied to his tail by what looked like a highly flammable string bean. I dumped my glass of "Ripple" on Bucky to douse the flames, and Pearl removed the aluminum sheet from his smoldering tail.

There was a message written on the paper-thin aluminum in unearthly, but English script. Here's what it said:

Dear Big-nosed Earthling, TWENTY MILLION years ago, on the outskirts of the Andromeda Galaxy, a space vehicle approximately 1.34 kilometers in diameter began its journey that ended 123 light years later, searing through the Earth's atmosphere and landing with a tremendous crash right on top of Fred and Betty Lou Hardfield's Volkswagen, as they drove home from the Lubbock County Fair at approximately 63 mph.

Only Jed Thrasher, driving behind them in a faded '63 Pontiac knew the significance of such an action. Unfortunately, he rammed his dented, early-model auto into the rubble that was the remains of the Hardfield vehicle and was killed instantly, and no one knew what the hell happened.

Big Joke Earthling! I having been materialize the tale out of low-oxygenated atmosphere. Just to grabbing your attention. Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt! Big Joke. Copy it from "Texas Monthly."

But, taking all verbiage into total seriousness now, my name having been Zoltargus, supreme third commander of the scouting force of Bartunians, almost currently circling your blue planet by day, and hanging out at concrete drainage complex on FM 700 and Goliad by night. We read with greatly interestedness that which having been written about us, whether it be scientific theorizings, non-fiction commentaries or merely the kind of "zart" (Bartunian for leavings of small pig-like creature) that emits from the end of your pen, like neutrinos shattering into sun's core. Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt! Please having been excusimize our, how you Earthling say, raucous humor.

SERIOUSNESS AGAIN Danny, we are not bipedal and vaguely similar to human beings. We are indescribable, dripping with creamy caramel and covered in a thick candy shell. Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt! Oh myness. My "balderrings" ache. Actualnessity, caramel is what powers our ion ships. Oh Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt!

As you having been seen by nowness, we Bartunians have senses of humorosity. Take my "shringle", please! Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt! Speaking of my "shringle", she is Walt Finley groupie. Ask Walt if not yesterday purple and red Trans Am have thrown from it onto his passing car five pounds of shredded carp meat (Bartunian fertility symbol).

We like it very much your Art Linkletter rip-off rim of kids. Know what Bartunian kid say? "I am rather unclear about sing sang and sung. If I do it right now I know it is that I sing. But if I did it, say yesterday, I am not clear what I did." Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt! Hmm. Maybe I say it wrong. Okay. We having the ways of making you laugh. Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt!

Hey Earthling. Know how to strike it a happy medium? Do it this way. First pay the fortune teller, but then hit her right after. Ha. Ha. Zzzt! Zzzt!

Tatum O'Neal lookalike still knocking at your door. We go now. See you at Big Spring showing of "Brief Encounters of the Third Kind."

Ex-Nazis

Jack Anderson, Les Whitten

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Army provided a military band and a chaplain — the music and the prayers — for a macabre meeting recently of U.S. veterans with former Nazi shock troops at an SS graveyard.

The Nazis once belonged to Adolph Hitler's dread Waffen SS, which was hated even by the regular German army. The Encyclopedia Britannica notes that Gestapo chief Heinrich Himmler, the Nazis' most ruthless exponent of racism and terrorism, founded the SS.

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I am 13 years old, and I would like to be a minister when I grow up. What do I have to do to become a minister and tell people about Jesus? — A.G.

DEAR A.G.: I am thankful that you want to tell people about Jesus. Millions of people do not really know about Him. They do not know that God loves them, and that He sent His Son to die for their sins on the cross. They do not know that by simple faith and trust in Him they can be saved. They do not know the wonderful truth of John 1:12: "as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." It is the responsibility of Christians to tell others about Jesus, so they too can be His children.

However, your question makes me wonder if you think you have to become a minister before you can tell people about Jesus Christ. If that is your idea, I want to assure you that the Bible tells us we can all be witnesses for Him. There are young people in your school who probably do not know Christ, and you are in the best position to tell them about Him. You may have brothers or sisters who do not know Him, and you can tell them. Often they will listen to you more carefully than they would listen to a minister.

At the same time, you will want to pray about God's plan for you. It may be that God wants you to be a minister or a missionary, and if so, you will want to be open to His leading. If that time comes, your own pastor can tell you more about what you can do to prepare yourself for this responsibility. But in the meantime, seek to do God's will now in every area of your life.

Footnote: At the Pentagon, the U.S. Army did not hold back on the facts. But a spokesman said the participation of the band and chaplain was the extent of official U.S. involvement.

SOLAR BLACKOUT — Rep. Mike McCormack, D-Wash., apparently doesn't like too much sunlight. The scholarly, bespectacled former nuclear scientist isn't eager to generate electricity from the sun. In place of solar energy, he would prefer to use the nuclear power that is produced at the Hanford Project where he used to work.

NOTES were published in U.S. Army Reserve publications. All veterans of the 70th Division, known in World War II as the Trailblazers, were invited. About 80 signed up for the trip to their old battlefields in France and Germany.

The notices mentioned only that they would meet with the Sixth Mountain Hunter Division, without adding it was an SS unit. Some of the former GIs, therefore, may not have known they would share their reunion with ex-Nazi shock troops. But this seems unlikely since the SS unit opposed the 70th in both France and Germany during the war.

The Americans met the Hitler veterans formally for the first time in the French town of Epinal. The SS men laid a wreath on U.S. graves in a military cemetery near a battlefield where they had once fought.

Then the Americans, who had invaded Germany to free Europe from Nazism, journeyed with the Fuehrer's finest across the same border to Bucholz, where the high point of the reunion occurred.

First the mayor of Bucholz threw a reception for the former enemies. Then they gathered together at the graveyard. This was followed by a dinner-dance where the men of the 70th whooped it up with the SS veterans.

Gen. George Blanchard, the U.S. Army commander in Europe, must have been aware of the odd reunion since he met the next day with the 70th Division veterans. The highest ranking U.S. officer at the SS meeting, retired Brig. Gen. Theodore Mataxis, told us: "All it was was talk among people who fought 30 years ago."

MATAXIS IS now assistant superintendent of the Valley Forge Military Academy in Wayne, Pa. He told us he was aware the Germans were an SS unit, but noted that they had been combat troops. At the Nuremberg trials, the SS was condemned en masse with few exceptions, as a criminal organization. And for years, meetings of SS veterans were banned in postwar Germany.

Most hospitals don't comply with proposal

The Texas Hospital Association (THA) has released the results of a statewide survey of hospitals. The survey indicates that well over 90 per cent of the hospitals in Texas cannot now comply with the proposed "National Guidelines for Health Planning."

This survey was conducted by THA to determine if Texas hospitals are currently in compliance with the proposed "National Guidelines for Health Planning" that were published in the Federal Register by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare (DHEW).

O. Ray Hurst, president of THA, said, "This survey indicates that if these guidelines are finalized as published, most of the hospitals in Texas will be forced to drastically reduce services or close. In this day of outstanding medical advances it is tragic that our federal government wants to deny our citizens quality health care in the local community."

The survey results indicate that the impact of these proposals will fall most heavily on the smaller hospitals (100 beds and under). Over 96 per cent of these smaller hospitals would be closed because of annual occupancy below 80 per cent if the proposals are carried to their ultimate end. Almost 96 per cent would be forced to close the obstetrical unit and send mothers-to-be to distance facilities for delivery.

Hurst went on to say "we can't believe that our elected officials will permit the bureaucrats to deny health care to our citizens. However, this could happen based on these proposals unless the public joins with hospitals and physicians to oppose these drastic limitations of beds and services."

THA is the Austin-based trade association of over 700 hospitals and health care institutions in Texas.

Lillian Carter is back home

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — Lillian Carter is finally back home in Plains after a three-day delayed journey from Ireland.

The first delay came Friday when union workers in Ireland refused to service the charter plane in which she was supposed to fly directly to the United States. That caused a three-hour delay.

There was another brief delay when that plane had a blowout as it taxied down the runway after landing at Bangor International Airport in Maine early Saturday.

Five seized in alleged murder, bombing plot

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Five people believed to be members of the Weather Underground terrorist group were scheduled for arraignment today on charges of planning to place a bomb in a state senator's office, authorities said.

The five, arrested here and in Houston Saturday, were accused of planning a series of assassinations and bombings that would have started with an explosion Sunday in state Sen. John V. Briggs' Orange County office, FBI agents said.

Ted Gunderson, special agent in charge of the Los Angeles office, said searches following the arrests Saturday turned up more than 100 pounds of explosives in five Los Angeles locations. Numerous weapons also were uncovered, he said.

All five people were charged with conspiracy to violate federal firearms laws and possession of unregistered explosive devices, Gunderson said. Arraignment was scheduled before federal magistrates in Los Angeles and Houston.

Briggs, who is seeking the Republican nomination for governor, said Sunday that the FBI warned him last month that he was an assassination target.

Briggs said he was told by the FBI that he had been chosen as a target because of his strong stands in favor of capital punishment and against homosexual teachers.

"I don't think it was anything personal," Briggs said. "I'm a highly visible target representing anything they oppose."

The two people arrested here were identified as Thomas Michael Justensen, 27, and Mark Perry, 29.

John Huston out of hospital

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor-director John Huston has been released from hospital after a two-month stay following heart surgery.

Huston, 71, who has worked on more than 50 motion pictures since 1930, was released from Cedars-Sinai Hospital on Saturday.

The winner of two Academy Awards entered the hospital Sept. 25 for the elective surgery. A month later, a second operation was performed to relieve complications resulting from the first.

Brewer named by AMVETS

The Department of Texas American Veterans of World War II, Korea, and Vietnam (AMVETS) have announced the appointment of Don Brewer as AMVETS National Service Officer.

Brewer will be stationed primarily at the VA Regional Office in Waco where he will work to help veterans in the counties and medical facilities located in the area being served by the Waco regional office. He will also assist veterans who file claims, appeals, and other requests for benefits and services at the VA facility.

Prior to being named to his new position, Brewer served as the Brown County Service Officer. He is a retired Air Force veteran with over 20 years of military service, including duties as technical and military training instructor, communications expert and personnel processing. Brewer joins Dave Abrams, the only other AMVETS service officer in the State of Texas, who is located at the Houston regional office, in the challenging task of extending the arm of VA services to veterans.

Local man is elected veep

Gilbert Gimble, El Paso, had been elected president of the 89-county West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation. A licensed physical therapist, Gimble in his acceptance speech pledged to accelerate programs designed to discover the cause, cure and prevention of arthritis. He also urged the Chapter to improve its information program and other services to the 125,000 West Texans who suffer from arthritis.

Elected vice-president was William Riley, M.D., of Big Spring. Elaine Damron of Muleshoe was re-elected secretary and Penny Willhite of Midland was again elected treasurer. Katy Linehan of Midland was re-elected assistant treasurer.

Charles Caveretta, M.D. of El Paso is the new chairman of the Medical Committee.

Elected governing board members are: Bob Hutchison, Phyllis Seward, Toby Carr, Jim Keister and Charlotte Bauder, all from Amarillo and from El Paso; Bill and Nera Coulter, Rene Fourzan and Bassel Wolfe.

The West Texas Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation has offices in Midland, Lubbock, Odessa, El Paso, San Angelo and Amarillo.

 LOS ANGELES (AP) — Evel Knievel, scheduled to begin serving a 60-day jail sentence for assault Monday, says he's planning his next stunt — a 40,000-foot dive from an airplane without a parachute and into a haystack.
 Knievel, 39, claims he's been offered $20 million dollars to pull the stunt in Las Vegas, Nev., next July 4. He won't identify his backers.

Anti-American party makes gains in Greece

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Premier Constantine Caramanlis and his conservative party won reelection today with a reduced but safe majority to maintain Greece's pro-Western policies. But Andreas Papandreu's anti-American, anti-Western party made big gains.
 With 95 per cent of the votes in Sunday's general elections counted, Caramanlis' New Democracy Party had 42.2 percent of the vote and 174 of the 300 seats in the single-chamber parliament, a majority of 48.
 The New Democrats got 54.3 percent of the votes and 220 seats in the 1974 elections, a majority of 140 seats. Papandreu's Panhellenic Socialist Movement took 25.2 percent of the vote and became the major opposition party with 91 seats, up from 13.5 percent of the 1974 vote and 15 seats.
 Caramanlis' victory meant he could continue his campaign to get Greece into the European Common Market and his efforts to seek a solution to the bitter dispute with Turkey over Cyprus, which caused Greece to withdraw from participation in the military programs of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

 Papandreu, a former American citizen who headed the economics department of the University of California at Berkeley, waged a well-organized, nationwide campaign opposing membership in the Common Market and NATO and American bases in Greece. He called for a social revolution for the benefit of the agricultural and working classes.
 Much of the Socialists' gains appeared to be at the expense of George Pavros' Union of the Democratic Center, which waged a low-key campaign. The party got only 12 percent of the vote.

Farm — Weevil control program on Plains successful

LUBBOCK — The 1977 High Plains Boll Weevil Control Program drew to what officials termed a "successful conclusion" Nov. 8 after meeting and overcoming a challenge not seen before in the program's 14-year history.
 The earliest maturing crop in at least two decades caused weevils in the infested area to fan out over more acres than in previous years, explains Ed Dean, Field Service Director for Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., the program's coordinator.
 "But good weather and additional aircraft for insecticide applications made it possible to keep the weevils in check and prevent excessive numbers from going into hibernation — and that's the program's objective," Dean states.
 Weevils prefer to feed on and deposit eggs in cotton squares and young bolls. When a scarcity of this young fruit develops, as happens in mature cotton, migration from field to field is greatly accelerated, entomologists note.

 About 435,000 acres along the eastern edge of the High Plains were sprayed at least once, Dean figures, the largest base acreage ever compiled. Some fields were sprayed as many as five times and the aggregate acreage total came to just over 1,250,000. This compares with 1,161,500 acres sprayed in 1976 but is well below the all-time high of 1,512,000 acres treated in 1965.
 The first application of weevil-killing malathion covered only 132,000 acres, with treatment of some infested acreage being deferred to avoid aggravating an unusually serious bollworm threat. Most acres sprayed in any one application this year was 377,500. As cotton was defoliated and harvested, this figure dwindled to only 53,000 in the final application.
 A total of 25 spray planes, under contract from three companies, spread 118,000 gallons of malathion at an estimated total cost of $1.8 million, roughly the same as the program cost in 1976.
 Cost of the program, initiated by PCG in 1964, is borne jointly by High Plains cotton producers, the U.S. and Texas Departments of Agriculture. USDA matches funds contributed by producers and the TDA.
 Infested acreage was found and treated in 16 counties during 1977, including Andrews, Borden, Briscoe, Crosby, Dawson, Dickens, Floyd, Garza, Hale, Hall, Howard, Kent, Lubbock, Lynn, Martin and Motley.
 "Considering that we were able to kill the maximum practical number of weevils before they could go into winter hibernation sites, we are optimistic that weevil emergence in the spring of 1978 will not be excessive," Dean stated.

Will Soviets continue to buy grain?

WASHINGTON (AP) — One of the big questions on the minds of farmers and many others today is whether the Soviet Union will continue buying U.S. grain as it did last week or whether it may be nearing the end of its current round of purchases.
 A week ago the Soviets kicked off the first new round of purchases since Sept. 19. By the end of business Friday the Agriculture Department reported that about 1.6 million metric tons of U.S. wheat and corn had been sold for delivery through next Sept. 30.
 The purchases disclosed last week raised to about 4 million tons sold to the Soviet Union for delivery in 1977-78, the second year of a five-year pact committing it to buy a minimum of six million tons annually.
 In the first year of the agreement which ended last Sept. 30, the Soviets bought about the minimum amount, six million tons. A metric ton is 2,205 pounds and is equal to 36.7 bushels of wheat or 39.4 bushels of corn.
 The agreement also lets the Soviet Union buy up to eight million tons of wheat and corn annually without further consultation with the United States.

Poor crops in Vietnam

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Agriculture Department foreign trade analyst said today that poor crops in Vietnam may force it to import as much as 1.5 million metric tons of grain this year, the most since a similar harvest debacle in 1973.
 Moreover, foreign aid which helped after the war ended in April 1975, has virtually disappeared. Thus, Vietnam has had to run up a large trade deficit in order to import grain to feed its people.
 The report was written by Marion R. Larsen of the department's Economic Research Service and was in a weekly issue of "Foreign Agriculture" published by the department.

Merit Cigarette Sets New Taste Standard.

Tests confirm low tar MERIT delivers flavor of higher tar cigarettes.

There is a way to get real taste from a cigarette without high tar.

Technology created it.

Taste tests proved it.

Smokers are confirming it. In fact, 75% of all MERIT smokers are former high tar cigarette smokers — the toughest taste critics of low tar smoking.

MERIT — the cigarette packed with 'Enriched Flavor' tobacco — seems to be solving the smoker dilemma of having to choose between high tar or low taste.

Seattle smashed

SEATTLE (AP) — If you deny the Seattle Seahawks their bread and butter — the forward pass — you likely will deny them victory.

On Sunday, the Houston Oilers' relentless defenders not only denied the youthful Seahawks yardage through the air, they dared them to seek relief on the ground. And, of course, Seattle lost.

"This is one of our better defensive efforts of the year," Bum Phillips, the Oilers' coach, said in understatement following Houston's 22-10 National Football League victory before a Kingdome crowd of 61,519.

Phillips' defense held Jim Zorn and Steve Myer, Seattle's two second-year quarterbacks, to just 27 yards passing between them on just five completions in 24 attempts. Both youngsters threw one pass into the arms of an Oiler defender.

The Seahawks picked up 102 yards rushing on 29 carries, but stopped themselves twice on fumbles.

Meanwhile, Houston quarterback Dan Pastorini was throwing over, under and around Seattle's defenders. The seven-year veteran finished with 21 completions in 36 attempts for 237 yards, including a 13-yard TD pass to Ken Burrough with 46 seconds left in the second period that staked the Oilers to a 10-3 halftime lead.

"Seattle was pretty tough on the run. We just try to keep people off balance," Pastorini said. "I just throw the ball as much as I have to. We just did what we had to do to win."

Despite the loss, Jack Patera, Seattle's coach, said his team's defense played well.

"I think defensively we probably played well enough to win if we had scored," Patera said. "They did a pretty good job of upsetting our passing game with a good rush. The passing game was almost non-existent."

Zorn, Seattle's No. 1 quarterback, completed only 2 of 15 passes for 19 yards before leaving for Myer early in the third period. Myer fared little better, completing 3 of 8 passes for 36 yards.

Tom Dempsey, signed by the Oilers last Friday to replace injured placekicker Toni Fritsch, booted a 27-yard field goal that tied the game at 3-3 with 5:37 left in the second period. He added a 37-yarder that boosted Houston's lead to 13-3 midway in the third period. Both kicks followed Seattle turnovers.

Dempsey, a nine-year veteran who played out his option with Los Angeles last season and wasn't signed by anyone else, missed his first two field goal attempts from 31 and 46 yards. Both were partially blocked.

Houston, now 5-5, got its other touchdown on Ronnie Coleman's 1-yard run early in the final period, his first rushing TD of the season.

ALL WRAPPED UP — Dallas Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach gets sacked as Steelers defensive end Dwight White wraps his arms around him during second half action in Pittsburgh Sunday afternoon. The Steelers beat the Cowboys, 28-13.

Skins check Pack QB

WASHINGTON (AP) — This time a week ago, Washington Coach George Allen knew little about Green Bay quarterback David Whitehurst. He knows now.

"I don't know whether we can rattle him or not," said Allen who admitted watching 500 feet of film on Whitehurst in the past week. "He looks good. I'm impressed with his poise. We're just going to play good sound football and not take any wild gambles — make them earn everything they get."

Whitehurst, 22, an eighth-round draft choice from Furman, will make his debut as a starter tonight when the Packers take on the Redskins in a nationally televised National Football League game.

Whitehurst, who has completed only two of five passes in his two mop-up roles, got the starting assignment after regular quarterback Lynn Dickey broke his leg a week ago against Los Angeles.

Whitehurst took a cram course last week. "His progress has been good," said Packers Coach Bart Starr. "He just gobbles up coaching. He's a sharp young man and he is obviously extremely thrilled with this opportunity. But he's going to be nervous. Anybody would.

"It's the epitome of pressure to go into the nation's capital on Monday night television and face a team as formidable on defense as the Redskins have been," said Starr. "It would pressure anybody and he will play well."

The Redskins, with a 5-4 won-lost record, hope to control the first-down situations against the Packers, 2-7.

Dorsett: 'They deserved to win'

Steelers going up, Cowboys falling down

PITTSBURGH (AP) — They won Super Bowl IX and Super Bowl X, and the Pittsburgh Steelers smell money again.

"We played like champions," Franco Harris said Sunday after rushing for a career-high 179 yards and two touchdowns, one on a 61-yard dash off tackle, to lead the once-struggling Steelers to a 28-13 victory over the suddenly twice-beaten Dallas Cowboys.

"We're gettin' that old feeling back," echoed Terry Bradshaw, who passed for two touchdowns.

"We win when it counts," said defensive back Jim Allen.

"When things are tough, that's a pretty good trait to have," appraised Coach Chuck Noll.

All those comments were made with big smiles. And there weren't a lot of those in the Steelers' lockerroom in weeks past as they labored through contract holdouts, grumbled about officials, cursed their league-leading turnover totals, and endured injuries they escaped in seasons past.

Yet the victory over Dallas keeps them tied with Cleveland atop the American Conference Central at 6-4, and the Steelers are assured the title if they win their last four games with the Jets, Seattle, Cincinnati and San Diego.

While Pittsburgh is riding high following wins over Cleveland and Dallas, the Cowboys have dropped two in a row after winning their first eight. And their National Conference-East lead is now just one game over onrushing St. Louis, which beat them Monday night.

"They whipped us this afternoon," Cowboy Coach Tom Landry said here.

"We got so far ahead (in the division race), we lost the competitive instinct. We've got to get it and get going again."

The defeat spoiled the homecoming and first NFL start for Cowboy rookie Tony Dorsett, who rushed for 73 yards on 17 tries in his first game here since he led Pitt to the national collegiate title a season ago.

"I don't think I've got anything particularly to be happy about," Dorsett told reporters after finishing the game with one touchdown and a fat lip.

"They really deserved to win," Dorsett added. "We've been playing lousy offensively the last month."

The Steelers have played their best offensively the last two games, though they started shakily Sunday as Harris lost a fumble at the Pittsburgh 37-yard line in the first quarter.

Dorsett followed with a 13-yard touchdown run that gave Dallas a 6-0 lead after the extra-point kick was blocked.

The next Steeler play opened the second quarter

Harris cut off the left side, and stepped away from a shoestring tackle try by Ed "Too Tall" Jones on his way to a 61-yard touchdown run.

Harris was untouched after he eluded Jones, and he flashed rare speed for a 230-pounder.

"I felt bad when I fumbled, but Terry called the very same play when we got back on the field and I broke it," said Harris.

Hayes throws right, critics counterpunch

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Woody Hayes' punching of a national television cameraman has stirred another storm of criticism from the media.

The Ohio State football coach, livid over quarterback Rod Gerald's fumble in the waning minutes of a 14-6 loss at Michigan, struck ABC-TV's Mike Freedman, "I make no apologies."

Hayes told his weekly Columbus television audience hours after the incident Saturday. "I'm doggone tired of cameras being pushed in my face."

Freedman said Hayes swung a right-handed blow at his stomach. The cameraman said he blocked the punch with his elbow while he was operating a hand-held camera near the Ohio State bench.

"I'm not pressing charges," said the Los Angeles-based Freedman, "unless somebody can tell me how to get $8 million."

"I'm just an ordinary guy trying to make a living. I have as much right on the sidelines as he does."

Sports writers and broadcasters did not dismiss the incident so lightly. One writer asked Big Ten Commissioner Wayne Duke if he planned any action. A roadcaster suggested Ohio State Athletic Director Hugh Findman do something.

Columnist Joe Falls of the Detroit Free Press termed it a pitiful performance "for a man who is supposed to be a leader of youth."

Falls, in his Sunday column, said he witnessed the incident through his binoculars and later asked Duke about it in the Michigan Stadium press box.

"Duke said he hadn't seen it and offered only three comments: 'No comment, no comment, no comment,'" Falls wrote.

"If ABC tolerates such action," added the columnist, "it should be ashamed of itself. Its man was only doing his duty."

Jerry Green, a Detroit News columnist, wrote in Sunday editions, "... it was a day when Woody Hayes should have returned to the nursery playpen to twiddle with his rattles."

Hayes did not escape the pens of Ohio writers, either.

"I felt sorry for the old boy," wrote Hal Lebovitz, sports editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer. "I almost forgave him when he went after an ABC-TV cameraman who was focusing on him. In that moment of anguish, he wanted privacy."

"Of course, he couldn't be forgiven completely because he isn't in a private business.

But he had to swing out at somebody in his frustration — and in typical Hayes fashion he did."

Sports Editor Tom Melody of the Akron Beacon Journal said of Hayes, "The man who preaches the flag, motherhood and apple pie at every chance displayed none of these qualities Saturday. He was, well, a disgrace. What else can be said of his action ...? It cannot be defended."

Hayes, when asked his version of the incident afterward, said, "Awww, go ahead and write it." He abruptly ended an interview and stalked from the room.

Melody's reaction to that was, "Neither can his asinine reaction to a reporter's question, a question he knew was coming, a question that had to be asked."

Finley-Duke of Dixieland?

CHICAGO (AP) — A Texas millionaire and Oakland A's owner Charles O. Finley have opened negotiations that could result in the American League team moving to New Orleans.

Robert L. Moody of Galveston, Texas, flew to Chicago Sunday to begin the negotiations. Finley said talks would begin over dinner Sunday night.

"Nothing will happen tonight, I can tell you that," Finley said. "But if things go right we might be meeting ...

(Monday) and something might happen.

"If he doesn't like the way things look, Mr. Moody may take the next flight out of Chicago. That's all I can tell you."

"It's just an exploratory session," added Jim Clinton, former Superdome manager who is working with Moody.

"I think Mr. Moody and his family have some ideas as to how the organization should be set up and he wanted to discuss those with Mr.

Finley. But I don't think anything final will come out of this session," added Clinton, who was reached in New Orleans.

Moody could not be reached for comment. The A's have signed a long-term contract to use the stadium in Oakland, and attempts to move the team in the past have resulted in legal battles.

The American League owners who have to approve the sale and transfer of the A's, if Finley and Moody agree to terms.

Steers club Cubs

Steer cagers triumphed over Brownfield by 10 points Saturday with a 96-86 victory.

"We looked good. Mark Poss and Steve Fleckenstein, our backup center, had their best game yet," said Coach Tommy Collins. "But we still have a lot of work to do to prevent turnovers," he added.

The Steers took a 24-19 edge in the first quarter and hung onto it throughout the game. The score at the half was 55-40, and 70-61 at the end of the third quarter.

Local cagers had put together a 21-point lead going into the last five-and-a-half minutes of the skirmish, and second stringers had a chance to show their prowess at the backboards. But things began to unravel, according to Collins, and the regulars were sent back in to finish off the Cubs.

The Steer Junior varsity fared equally well with a 67-59 thrashing to the Cubs. James Magers scored 18 points, Luis Rodriguez, 16, and Danny Crosby, 12.

"Tony Rubio had a good floor game," added the coach.

The Steers will have their last home game for several weeks 8 p.m. Tuesday when they go against Snyder in what Collins calls their toughest match so far this year.

SETS NEW NFL RECORD — Chicago Bears' Walter Payton (34) eludes Minnesota Vikings Jeff Wright (23) as he picks up ten yards and a first down before being brought down during the first quarter of Sunday's game in Chicago. Payton gained 275 yards in 40 carries to wipe out O.J. Simpson's single-game NFL rushing record of 273 yards. Chicago won 10-7.

Bulls drain Lakers

The Los Angeles Lakers couldn't do anything right against the Chicago Bulls — not even play a zone defense.

The zone, of course, is illegal in the National Basketball Association. The Lakers were hit with a technical foul for playing it Friday night and were warned about using it again Sunday night.

But even when they had the thing in operation, it didn't do them any good. The Bulls shot 43 per cent from the floor and breezed by Los Angeles 102-80.

"We felt we had to beat their zone defense by not standing around and moving the ball," said Chicago Coach Ed Badger. "I like the formation myself. I'd vote for the zone if it came to a league vote."

The Laker defense wasn't the only thing that went bad. Their offense was almost nonexistent, especially in the first quarter when Los Angeles scored only six points, an all-time low for the club.

In other NBA action, the Portland Trail Blazers beat the Detroit Pistons 119-101; the Denver Nuggets stopped the New Jersey Nets 125-118; the Phoenix Suns turned back the San Antonio Spurs 134-112, and the Cleveland Cavaliers whipped the Seattle SuperSonics 115-108.

Artis Gilmore scored a season-high 38 points to lead Chicago's victory over Los Angeles. The Lakers committed nine turnovers and made only three of 24 field goal attempts in the first quarter. The Bulls, meanwhile, made 12 of 26 floor shots in the opening period to take a runaway 28-6 lead. The Lakers' previous low for a period was nine points on two occasions.

Payton runs, and runs, and runs . . .

Trail Blazers 119, Pistons 101

Bill Walton scored 32 points as Portland rallied to beat Detroit. Reserve Corky Calhoun added 24 points as the Blazers took their 27th straight home victory over two seasons.

Nuggets 125, Nets 118

David Thompson had 33 points and Denver outscored New Jersey 37-23 in the final period to beat the Nets.

Thanksgiving Day it's Chicago at Detroit and Miami at St. Louis.

"I don't like my teammates running up to me and telling me I've done this or that. It breaks my concentration," Payton said after his explosive 40-carry performance that included Chicago's lone touchdown on a 1-yard burst in the second period.

"The holes were there and I just ran. All I can say is that this was a day when everything went right and we got a big win."

It pulled the Bears (and Detroit as well) within one game of the first-place Vikings in the National Conference's Central Division. "The victory means more to me than the record because we tightened the playoff race," Payton insisted.

Bob Thomas kicked a 37-yard field goal to give the Bears a 10-0 halftime lead and the Vikings, without Fran Tarkenton, could only muster one touchdown, when Matt Blair blocked a third-period punt and ran it 10 yards for the score.

Bear outrushes Juice's record

Chargers 12, Raiders 7

For the second time this season, Denver grabbed first place in the American Conference West. This time it was compliments of San Diego, which kayoed Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler with a first-period knee injury, then beat the Raiders on rookie Rolf Benirschke's field goals of 22 and 46 yards.

"You hate to see it happen," Oakland Coach John Madden said of Stabler's injury. And what he didn't expect to see was replacement Mike Rae's inability to move Oakland.

Broncos 14, Chiefs 7

The play that got Denver its winning points was a 23-yard TD pass from Craig Morton to Haven Moses with about 4½ minutes to play — but the plays that made them stand up were made by cornerback Louie Wright and the rest of Denver's defense.

In the final minute, the Chiefs tried a fake punt

Sands teams shine

Sands boys' and girls' varsities cleaned up in the Levelland tourney last weekend.

The boys took the championship with a 42-32 defeat of Dawson, while the girls axed Snyder, 43-40.

Both teams began their winning ways with defeats of Witharral teams in second round action. The girls won theirs 67-46, and the boys took theirs 60-55.

Standouts on the girls' team were Susan Martin with 35 points, Jill Floyd with 18, and Jodie Kemper with 14. Top cagers for the boys were Martin Nichols with 29 points, Larry Feaster with 14, and Stan Blagraves with 10.

In the girls' finals with Snyder, identical players shone. Susan Martin had 22 points, Jill Floyd, 12, and Jodie Kemper, 9.

In the boys' final match, Martin Nichols again shot well with 19 points. David Long and Van Gaskins had six each, while Stan Blagraves put five on the scoreboard.

Susan Martin and Suzie Brashear were named to the girls' All-Tourney Team, while Martin Nichols and Larry Feaster were tapped for the boys' All-Tourney Team.

Sands will travel to New Home for a 5 p.m. game

SALES
 Sure Pitney Bowes Sales Representatives Earn A Lot.
 They Wouldn't Work For Us If They Didn't.
 One of the risks in hiring a powerful sales force is that everybody else gets them. But they stay. Because at Pitney Bowes they have several things going for them that few other companies can offer. First, a line of diversified products and systems... copiers, postage meters and related equipment that most businesses need. Secondly, the line has versatility. They can legitimately cut corporate costs and benefit programs in a variety of ways depending on the nature of the business. It is up to the sales representative to learn what the client's needs are and to develop more effective ways to solve them.

Veterans Day report given

The Gold Star Mothers met Thursday morning in the home of Mrs. F.H. Talbot, 1505 Canyon Rd., for their regular monthly meeting. Special guest and member was Leola Hale, from Andrews, who really added to the time of fellowship. A report on Veterans Day programs was given by Mrs. Truett Thomas who attended both the 10 a.m. observance at the high school and a program at the V.A. Hospital in the afternoon. Mrs. A. W. Moody reported on the serving of refreshments to veterans at the V.A. Hospital Nov. 16. She reported that 56 patients enjoyed this time of volunteer service. M. A. Williams and D.E. Morris were winners of free Canteen Books.

The Community Service Report showed 18 trays of food served, 13 vases of flowers to shut-ins, and gifts totalling $301 to charity. The Gold Star Mothers will decorate two Christmas trees on the sixth floor of the V.A. Hospital Dec. 2 and distribute Christmas gifts to patients the evening of Dec. 19. The next meeting will be the Christmas meeting, Dec. 2, following the decorating of the trees at the V.A. Hospital.

Dora Roberts Community Center was the site of the Nov. 16 meeting of the Texas Bouquet African Violet Club. Vice president Mrs. Paul Gray presided at the business session. Guest Speaker Mrs. A. C. Moore gave a program on how to groom African Violets. She instructed the group to pull all damaged and old leaves from the plant, as well as old buds, in order to have a healthier, prettier plant. Mrs. J. Holford from South Africa wrote a letter telling about the national convention she attended in St. Louis, Mo. Regarding the perfection of the African Violet, she said, "I came, I saw, I was conquered."

Congresswoman inspires convention with keynote address

HOUSTON (AP) - Rep. Barbara Jordan told the National Women's Conference on Saturday that the battle for women's rights needs more "foot soldiers, not kamikaze pilots." If the federally funded conference ends without a resolution of differences between factions, Ms. Jordan predicted, "we will have wasted much more than money." She is the first black woman ever to keynote the nominating convention of a major U.S. political party. "In all women's movements, racism must be replaced by interdependence and mutual respect," Ms. Jordan said, declaring: "This is the time for foot soldiers, not kamikaze pilots."

The congresswoman's call for unity followed similar pleas by first lady Rosalynn Carter and former first lady Betty Ford, as the conference formally got under way here. Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson, the widow of former President Lyndon B. Johnson, joined Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Ford in calling for equal rights for women. Ms. Jordan addressed some 13,000 women in the Albert Thomas Convention Center, while other groups of women, contending their views weren't being represented, held a protest rally five miles away. She cautioned the conference delegates that if the session ends without healing having occurred, "we will have wasted, lost, negated an opportunity to do something for ourselves and for generations that are not here. Not making a difference is a cost we cannot afford."

Dr. Gloria Scott, president of the National Girl Scouts, opened the conference by calling it "the most significant and far-reaching event in this century. We are in passage and our fates are bound together." Mrs. Carter, who has carried President Carter's human rights campaign to South America, said the goal of U.S. women is "equal participation."

Charter undraped

The Charter was undraped for Mrs. Gene Eads when John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge No. 153 met Tuesday. Mrs. Odell La Londe, assisted by Mrs. Cass Hill, Juanita Hamlin, Elizabeth Beck and Mrs. W. C. Cole, directed the program. Mrs. Charles Leek conducted a School of Instruction. Participants in the discussion were Mrs. L. S. Bonner, Mrs. Elmo Martin, Pauline Petty, Mrs. Francis Loftis, Mrs. Odell La Londe, and Mrs. W. C. Cole and Mrs. Pat Kilmer. Noble Grand Mrs. Cass Hill announced that there would be a nomination of officers on Nov. 22. The new officers will serve during the January-July 1978 term.

They and their alternates are debating a 26-item political platform for women's rights. Former Rep. Bella Abzug, D-N.Y., told the delegates that women are speaking for themselves these days. "And I believe, the whole nation will have to listen to what we say," said Ms. Abzug, who chairs the federal commission sponsoring the conference. "After this weekend, the whole nation will know that the women's movement is not any one organization or set of ideas or particular lifestyle," she said. "It is millions of women deciding individually and together that we are determined to move history forward."

Liz Carpenter, a former press secretary to Mrs. Johnson who is a member of the women's commission, spoke to the diversity of the women represented at the conference. "Who are 'we the people' gathered here in Houston? We are the female people left out in Philadelphia," she said. "And the irony - the real irony - is that there would have been no America without us. So we are here to stake our claim on its past and its future."

She said women have seen their own dreams shattered and shortchanged, however, by "insecure men and women fearful of a world of equality." "Are we so dangerous? So alien to this land we have founded? Are we so threatening? So 'forward' and 'brash' and 'pushy' to ask for fairness?" she asked. The women roared back with a resounding "No."

DELIVERS KEYNOTE SPEECH - Rep. Barbara Jordan (D-Tex.) addresses the opening session of the National Women's Conference in Houston, Texas Saturday.

His 'No. 1' Hopes To Be His 'Only'

DEAR ABBY: I'm an attractive, self-supporting divorcee. (No children.) I've been dating a gorgeous, middle-aged, well-to-do bachelor for six months, and I think I've fallen in love with him. The problem is that he dates several other women. I know I'm No. 1, but he dates others as a kind of "protection" against marriage. He doesn't lie. He always tells me when he's going off on a weekend with another woman. I think he envies himself as some kind of "sexual social worker" who dates a whole string of unfulfilled divorcees and widows. Should I continue dating him in hopes that he'll eventually marry me? He's the only one I see because I want to be available in case he calls—even at the last minute. From what I've told you, what are my chances of winning him?
 PLAYING TO WIN

DEAR PLAYING: Slim. Date others. If you're not available when he calls, he'll appreciate you even more. Set a deadline. If he doesn't pop the question in three months, let the other "unfulfilled" charity cases have your piece of his action.

DEAR ABBY: I am a father who is trying to raise two motherless daughters, ages 10 and 12. My problem concerns some of the stuff they read about in your column. Can't you soft-pedal the sex, Abby? There's enough of it on TV, even in daytime programs. There's hardly a movie they can go to anymore, but do they have to get it in the newspaper, too? Please don't identify me or the town from which this came. They'd never forgive me. I'm not square; I'm only trying to raise my daughters right.
 TRYING HARD

DEAR TRYING: I admire your attitude, and respect your good intentions, but you're on the wrong track, Dad. Nothing your daughters can read in the newspaper is going to harm them—at any age. If they're old enough to read, they're old enough to know the truth. They will, eventually, so why not now? Keeping things hidden from children is no way to "protect" them.

DEAR ABBY: I sent for your booklet "How To Have a Lovely Wedding," and never in my life did I get so much for a dollar. On page 26 you wrote, "Now, for some unasked-for advice. Don't make the mistake so many couples make. Do NOT rely on Cousin Jake to take all the wedding pictures, even though he's a 'good' amateur photographer and has a lot of expensive equipment. Hire a professional! It's not inexpensive, but at least you'll be assured of having some lovely pictures; after the wedding it will be too late to wish you had heeded this advice."

Abby, we have a "Cousin Jake" in the family who insisted on taking our wedding pictures, but thank heavens we took your advice and hired a professional anyway. Well, you guessed it. Something was wrong with "Cousin Jake's" film (all of it!) and not one of his pictures came out! That one paragraph in your booklet certainly saved the day for us. Please print this for other couples who are contemplating marriage.

The Texas gypsy

with Marj Carpenter

The little Big Spring girl above is not a gypsy. She is simply a local headstart child who won a prize this Halloween for being the prettiest, when dressed as a gypsy.

But I had an urge to write about Gypsies, which we seem to see very few of out around Big Spring. Anyway, maybe I'll at least be lucky enough that there isn't a Gypsy American Council.

I won't make the mistake this time of looking up any historical facts in the Encyclopedia Americana that somebody can then say are wrong.

But what interests me is a recent article that I read that said Gypsies comprise an astonishingly large segment of the Texas population.

However, does anybody know any Gypsies around here? Researchers agree that Gypsies came from Northern India originally, and it is believed that they were once a part of a small Indian group known as "Dom."

During the course of their nomadic life, the D was replaced with an R and today Gypsies refer to themselves as "Rom," or Romani.

The Spaniards call them Gitanos. The Mexicans call them Gitanos. The French call them Bohemians and the Swedes call them Tartars. The Russians call them Tziganis. In the U.S. and Britain, we call them Gypsies.

I'm almost afraid to call them anything at all. I borrowed the phrase "Tex-Mex" from my good friend and federal judge, Raul Garza of Brownsville who always said we all talked Tex-Mex in South Texas. Like I say, I borrowed his phrase but I will be glad to give it back to him after all the furor it caused. But back to the Gypsies.

The first known Gypsies arrived in America in French Louisiana in 1600.

SUSIE PAREDEZ

The world Gypsy population is now estimated at six million with one and a half million of them in the United States.

Sometimes Gypsies have been portrayed as thieves and murderers and other times as carefree vagabonds. These are fantasy. You can no more become a Chinese. The Gypsies, with a knowledge of one of several Gypsy dialects and Gypsy blood coursing through their veins, don't usually trust any other ethnic group much.

They are very independent and often gets them trouble. Over a half million of them are supposed to have been gassed during Hitler's term.

Because of their natural suspiciousness, they often stay on the move and their professions are often horse trading, fortune telling and peddling. These are all jobs that can move with them.

Dr. Ian F. Hancock, assistant professor of English at the university has come up with a lot of information on Texas Gypsies. He is General Secretary of the International Gypsy Committee.

He says Texas Gypsies today are indistinguishable from the rest of the population. Many have dark skin, black hair and brown eyes but some have fair skin, blue eyes and blonde hair.

Among their favorite jobs are musicians, car salesmen, insurance agents, paving contractors and college professors.

Some Gypsies have distinguished themselves, including Ava Gardner and Yul Brynner, who have Gypsy blood. Others include jazz guitarist, Django Reinhardt, dancer Carmen Amaya, violinist Ion Voicu and others.

The Gypsy wagons are gone and those who still travel usually use trucks. They still believe that Gypsy women can see into the future. Maybe they can.

Real Gypsy weddings still have the bride dance up and stand by a pole with all the single girls dancing around her.

Who knows? We probably have Gypsies in Big Spring without knowing it. I hope so. They would give a carefree air, a little knowledge of the future, and a little bit of "pizazz," to our culture—where I haven't knowingly seen any Gypsies while out ridin' fence.

College will start phasing men out again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Lone Mountain College, a one-time women's school which had joined a national trend toward coeducation, will start phasing men out again next fall.

"It all involves a major change psychologically to provide a situation where women can have the chance to be competitive without worrying what young men think of them," said Joan Barr, vice president for corporate planning and development at the college.

The 100 or so male undergraduates currently enrolled will be allowed to finish their studies at the 350-student campus perched on a hill in the heart of the city, Miss Barr told a news conference Friday.

But no new male undergraduates will be admitted to the regular four-year degree program, and the school will eventually be renamed the Lone Mountain College for Women. Men will still be welcome in master's degree and creative and performing arts programs, she said.

Lone Mountain had broken a 70-year tradition in 1968 by admitting male students to its undergraduate program. Many other formerly one-sex colleges, including the prestigious all-male Yale in New Haven, Conn., and all-female Vassar in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., have gone coed in recent years.

Miss Barr said the college will seek to "address the new roles women are going to be playing, and are indeed playing, in the business and corporate world."

It will not be "designed for career preparation per se, but will encourage women to become well-rounded in the sciences, liberal arts, mathematics and the various areas considered men's domain."

The school, which was formerly affiliated with the Roman Catholic Society of the Sacred Heart, now considers itself non-denominational. "But we continue the Catholic heritage," Miss Barr said.

Tuition — currently $2,700 — will go up next year, she said, but the amount has not been determined.

Overhaul tough task

Tax code 'disgrace to the human race'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two past architects of much of the nation's complicated tax code observed the other day that President Carter faces an almost impossible task in trying to overhaul the tax system.

Wilbur D. Mills and John W. Byrnes, the former chairman and ranking minority member, respectively, of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, spent a combined 60 years on the committee working with the nation's tax laws.

The results may not always have been ideal, they said, but they were what people wanted — or at least what was wanted by special interests who were organized enough to convince Congress to enact them.

"The timing (of changes) and what you can do — all of it is politics," said Mills, 68, an Arkansas Democrat who probably still would be chairman of the committee had not personal problems forced him to resign and to retire from Congress last year.

Carter has pledged to overhaul the tax laws to make them more simple and more fair, as well as to stimulate business investment. As it now stands, he says, the tax code is "a disgrace to the human race."

But Byrnes, 64, a former Republican congressman from Wisconsin, said Carter's aims are contradictory and therefore may be doomed to failure.

For example, he said 70 percent to 80 percent of the content of the code increases its complexity but results almost entirely from attempts to make it fair. "Equity breeds complexity," he told a tax conference here last week.

While Carter wants to stimulate investment, he also is proposing to increase the fairness of the tax system by eliminating the tax preference now given to investment income, called the capital gains tax.

"It is difficult to see how he will improve the climate to stimulate capital investment and at the same time make the system more progressive by a new tax on capital," Byrnes said.

Byrnes served on the Ways and Means Committee for 26 years until his retirement five years ago. Mills was on the committee for 34 years, including the last 16 as chairman, a period when many changes in the tax code were made. Not all of them were good, he admits.

"I'm not too proud, frankly, of how we left it, but it's better than it was when I came to Congress," he said.

He said his "proudest moment" was when the maximum tax on income was reduced to 50 percent, establishing the principle that the government should "not be more than a 50 percent partner in anybody's pocketbook, no matter how much they earned."

The tax on so-called unearned income still can go as high as 70 percent.

But another Mills' proposal ran into trouble in a hurry. That was to eliminate most tax deductions and lower the tax rates to between 5 percent and 30 percent, depending on the income bracket.

The object was to raise to same amount of revenue at lower rates, while improving the fairness of the income tax.

Carter is working on a similar proposal.

But Mills said when public hearings were held on his plan in 1957, groups that benefit from charitable contributions were among the first to speak against it, arguing that with a maximum tax rate of only 30 percent, "people won't give anything away."

Byrnes also favors a go-slow approach to tax reform because, "The more grandiose the design, the more conflict and uncertainty" are created.
