

Shivers Asks Higher Taxes, Spending Cuts

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers Thursday warned the Legislature it must spend less, tax more and cut state projects dimmed under "the long shadow of another world war."

The governor's biennial message to the Legislature on the third day of its fifty-second general session bluntly underscored the urgency of girding against sabotage and of defending "our own lives against a possible enemy attack."

Balancing the budget without crippling schools, state hospitals and public welfare demands new taxes in the face of an expected $110,000,000 deficit, the governor said. He forecast heavy defense spending.

"I hope you will protect the slender balance in our general revenue fund for civil defense," Shivers solemnly told the lawmakers. Specific civil defense legislation will be offered as soon as possible, he said.

No Sales, Income Levy

Shivers called for drastic reduction or elimination of every state project not necessary to building a strong, sound, home front. Inevitable federal demands for more taxes, more material and more manpower "will have to be given priority over similar state and local demands."

The question no longer is whether or not new taxes will be needed, the governor said, but how large or how small the new levy will be. He turned thumbs down on a sales or an income tax.

Shivers suggested the answer to the question of how to meet the deficit lies within the ability and willingness of the Legislature and the people to separate the essential from the non-essential.

The governor said the Legislature faced an immediate outlook of uncertainties, but of this much is known: "The size of our tax bill is going to depend on appropriations for state departments, hospitals and special schools, education, the judiciary, the prison system, public welfare, highways and civil defense.

"These are the 'musts' of state government. Generally speaking, we can not dispense with any of them and continue to operate. They ought to be considered as early as possible in the session x x x in the light of the national emergency."

He urged exploration of the pre- (Continued On Page Seven)

NE Howard Venture Testing Ellenburger

Standoil Oil & Gas Company No. 1 Buchanan estate, 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 25, block 31, T-1-N, T&P survey and in Northeast Howard County, topped the Ellenburger at 9,258 feet, elevation 2,474 feet.

The wildcat is now drilling testing that formation from total depth of 9,280 feet.

The samples from the Ellenburger top to total depth did not show signs of petroleum.

Operator reported that water was breaking through the formation and cutting the drilling mud.

The No. 1 Buchanan has not logged any shows of possible commercial production from any formation drilled.

Spraberry Tests Slated In Upton

Blackwood & Nichols Company of Midland has staked location for two Spraberry wildcats in Southwest Upton County.

The pair of tests will be on the northeast edge of the Benedum multiple field.

The firm's No. 1 W. L. Pickens and others will be 528 feet from south and 833 feet from west lines of section 2, EL&RR survey and 12 miles north of Rankin.

It will also be 1,503 feet from east and slightly south of the same operator's No. 1 Humble-Eager, project which is now testing the Spraberry.

No General Wage-Price Freeze Now

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Plans for nationwide price and wage controls have been set aside, at least for the present.

Alan Valentine, head of the Economic Stabilization Agency (ESA), has accepted the judgment of those advisers who believe general price controls would be unwise until there is a bigger staff to administer them.

Sitting beside his price director, Michael V. DiSalle, Valentine told reporters Wednesday night: "We have come to the decision that we do not plan any present across-the-board general freeze, ceiling or stabilization of prices."

Supporters Disagree

Nevertheless, it was learned supporters of DiSalle believe the current wave of price increases is sufficiently serious to warrant taking the matter up with Truman. They hope to do so shortly.

In rejecting DiSalle's plan—which would have required every seller to give 30 days' notice before boosting a price—Valentine reportedly had the advice of James Brownlee, a businessman-consultant and former OPA deputy administrator, and the assent of Chief Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson.

They were said to fear a premature action might invite violations and thus undermine the stabilization effort before it got well started. DiSalle bowed to this judgment.

Wilson's part in Wednesday's decision was not completely clear. As (Continued On Page Eight)

Officers Reelected For Stock Show To Be Held March 14-16

Dates for the staging of the 1951 Midland Livestock Show were set and show officers were reelected at a meeting of the General Show Committee Wednesday afternoon in the Midland County Courthouse. Thirteen members were present.

This year's show will be held March 14, 15 and 16, with the county show scheduled the first day, the district show the second, and the auction sale the final day. The district show includes Midland, Martin, Upton, Glascock, Crane, Andrews and Ector Counties.

A. G. Bohannon was reelected president of the General Show Committee. Other 1950 officers, with the exception of the recording secretary, also were reelected. Kelley Lowellen was chosen recording secretary, replacing R. C. Vest, Jr.

Other Officers Listed

The other officers are: Charles W. Green, Midland County agent, secretary; R. L. Miller, vice president; Kit Carson, treasurer, and Les Floyd, general superintendent.

Committees which served the 1950 livestock show, generally were left intact to arrange for this year's show. The committees and their chairmen are: club calf division, Raymond McCarter; fat barrow division, Eugene Jones; fat lamb division, Warren Skaggs; publicity, Delbert Downing; grounds committee, Future Farmers of America, Alumn; display pens committee, L. T. Sludge; finance committee, Forrest King; sales committee, Sam Preston.

The committee discussed the number of animals which may be shown by the 4-H Club and FFA members, trying to reach a tentative figure so accommodations can be planned. The committee also arranged for hay which will be needed by the groups bringing stock.

The committee also agreed upon judges for the show, listing a first, second and sometimes a third preference. Green was authorized to arrange for judges, following the list approved by the committee.

Wranglers Club Launches C. Of C. Membership Drive

A rapid-fire, 10-day campaign for Midland Chamber of Commerce memberships was launched by members of the Wranglers Club, following a "chuckwagon" breakfast held Thursday in the Private Dining Room of Hotel Scharbauer.

Foreman Bill Gollyns presided at the early morning session, and Chamber of Commerce Manager Delbert Downing distributed prospect cards.

The Wranglers Club, organized in 1946, is the membership division of the Chamber of Commerce. Members of the Western-type organization have accounted for hundreds of new C. of C. memberships in the last four years.

The "Top Wrangler of 1950" will be honored at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet January 23.

Midland Lions Club Accepts 'March Of Dimes' Assignment

Selection of the Office Buildings Committee in Midland's 1951 March of Dimes drive was announced Thursday by Ray Lynch, campaign chairman. The Lions Club will supervise office buildings solicitation.

Ed Prichard, president of the Lions Club, said plans for the solicitation are complete, and that a thorough canvass of all office buildings will be made.

"The acceptance by the Lions Club of this phase of the campaign is another step in our plans to make this year's drive a successful one," Lynch said. "The response in the drive against polio is excellent, signifying the complete support and cooperation of all service clubs, and citizens."

Organizational plans for the drive, January 15-31, now are complete. Other committee assignments will be announced later, Lynch added.

Price Boosts Burst Out Again With Records Set By Basic Commodities

NEW YORK—(AP)—Price hikes are bursting out again all over the place. New records in some of the basic commodities are being set as the government admits it is in no position now to enforce general price controls.

The most spectacular jumps are in foreign markets beyond the reach of Washington's voluntary price control plan. In one day striking increases were reported in tin, rubber, wool and long-staple cotton.

But the commodity price structure moved up at home in many lines, too. Turpentine jumped 10 3/4 cents a gallon, for example.

The Agriculture Department expects meat prices to continue to climb for the next two months. Economists say there isn't much help for it as long as people go on eating so much meat.

The Associated Press wholesale commodity price index sets a new all-time high.

Predictions are no more cheerful. A leading clothing manufacturer says that by Fall the wholesale price of men's suits will be $4 to $5 higher.

Grand Rapids and Chicago furniture markets say the new furniture will range 10 to 15 per cent above the pre-Korean prices. The (Continued On Page Eight)

County Employees To Get Pay Hike, Say Commissioners

Pay increases for most Midland County employees were promised Thursday by the Commissioners Court.

Details of the new wage schedule, worked out at a meeting Wednesday of the administrative group, have not yet been announced, however.

County Judge Clifford C. Keith, chairman of the Commissioners Court, said Thursday the new schedule provides the increases for "most" of the officials and employees.

Details of the new schedule were held up pending approval by W. M. Stewart, commissioner, who was unable to attend Wednesday's meeting because of illness.

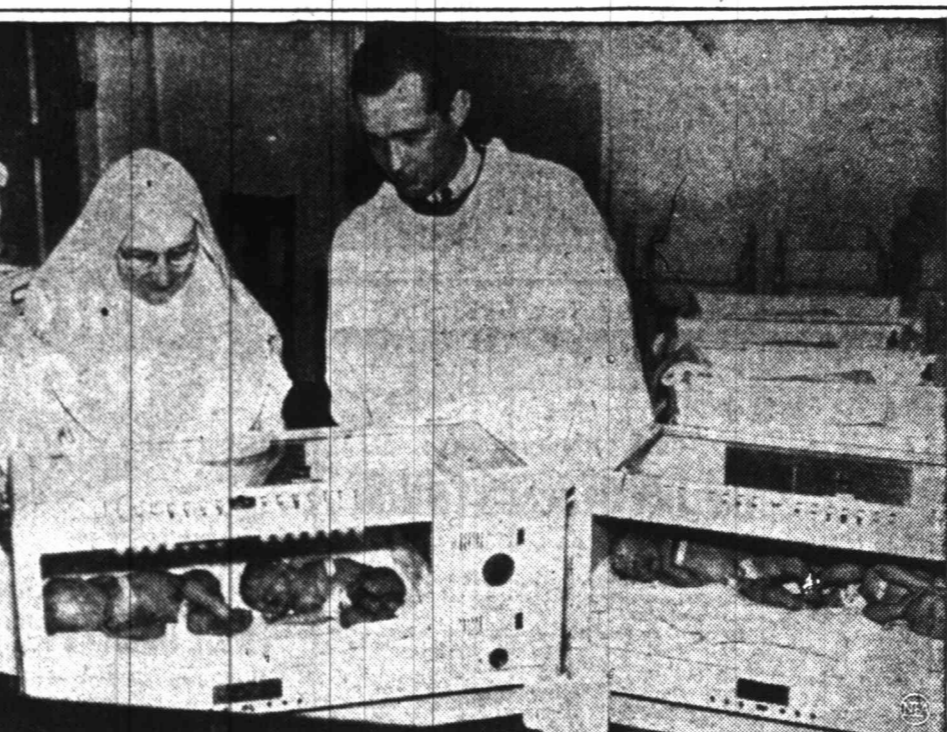

C. Of C. Elects 13 New Directors By Mail Ballot

The Midland Chamber of Commerce has elected 13 new directors for three-year terms. They were selected by a majority vote of the membership in the organization's first mail ballot election.

They are: Dr. C. S. Britt, John Dublin, Jr., Earl Chapman, J. H. Herd, Robert M. Payne, Pat Stanford, Irby Dyer, G. E. Mazabon, James L. Daugherty, Frank Monroe, Tommie Wilson, Jr., Russell Conkling and W. Dave Henderson.

The new directors were selected from 26 nominees listed on ballots sent to Chamber members. More than 300 ballots were voted. Three men received one write-in vote each.

Results of the election were announced Thursday by R. D. (Bob) Scruggs, chairman of the Ballot

Reds Mass Planes, Men In Osan Area

TOKYO—(AP)—American, French and Dutch troops clung stubbornly Thursday night for a salient on the critical Central Korean front in the face of 100,000 Reds massing in the Wonju area.

United Nations positions were stabilized amid a cracking of small-arms fire two miles south of the wrecked and empty town of Wonju, which is 55 miles southeast of Seoul.

Except for that sporadic fire the front was quiet after a seven-hour battle in which 2,100 Korean Reds were estimated killed or wounded.

The Allies abandoned Wonju Monday. On Wednesday, a tank-led patrol of the U. S. Second Division pushed back into the town from the southeast.

Finding no Reds there, the patrol looked around for a while, then voluntarily withdrew toward the overlooking hills in the south.

South, on the road towards Chongju, the company-sized patrol was jumped by more than 7,000 North Koreans. At one stage the Americans fixed bayonets and charged.

After other Allied forces reinforced the patrol, the Reds broke off the battle Wednesday night. Chinese Build Forces

But the greatest menace to Allied arms was shaping up in a 50-mile stretch between Chungju and Redheld Osan in Western Korea.

Chinese and Korean Red forces estimated at 285,000 were in the area or moving toward it in an apparent bid to cut off the main forces of the U. S. Eighth Army on the road south of abandoned Seoul.

In that area roads fan out through the hills, affording many avenues of approach to the Allied forces.

AP Correspondent John Randolph said the Chinese evidently hope to force the Eighth Army to accept battle in the rough country suitable for swarms of night-fighting Red infantrymen.

Six Chinese armies were in the general western area, south of Seoul, and seven armies were north and west of Wonju. This force included wary Mongolian cavalrymen. Intelligence officers said 500 Chinese planes and 200 tanks are available to back the push.

Another hint that the Reds may be about to challenge Allied mastery of the Korean skies came in (Continued On Page Eight)

Manpower Policies To Be Outlined

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Mrs. Anna M. Rosenberg Thursday said President Truman plans to issue a new "national manpower mobilization policy" within the next few days.

The woman assistant secretary of Defense said the presidential directive would ask industry, agriculture, military and civilian groups to conserve available manpower.

Mrs. Rosenberg, who was brought to the Defense Department as a manpower expert, mentioned the prospective new order at a Senate hearing in response to a question from Senator Stennis (D-Miss) as to plans for draft deferment of young men engaged in farm work.

Give No Details

Stennis wanted to know whether sufficient young farm workers would be deferred to produce the increased food and farm crops that will be needed for the expanding mobilization program.

Mrs. Rosenberg did not elaborate to the senators on her statement and would give no details to reporters who questioned her later.

She did say that in general the order will require that "we do our job and do it right."

She said that would involve each group viewing its own manpower needs against the overall needs of others.

Mrs. Rosenberg was before a Senate Armed Services subcommittee for further discussion of Administration proposals to draft 18-year-olds into the armed services and set up a universal military training program. She and Secretary of Defense Marshall disclosed the plan to the committee Wednesday.

The Defense Department officials said then a bill containing the new program would reach Congress next week. They added that it was backed by President Truman.

Merchants Unhappy Over 'Parallel Parking' Order

A spokesman for a group of Main Street merchants who frown on parallel parking on Main Street, said Thursday the businessmen plan to continue their opposition despite the City Council order to institute parallel parking, on an experimental basis, on the busy thoroughfare.

A meeting of interested merchants was to be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in the district courtroom of the Midland County Courthouse to consider further steps in the campaign.

A petition, signed by 31 merchants, asking that angle parking remain in effect on Main Street, was submitted to the City Council two weeks ago.

Members of the council, at a Tuesday night meeting, rejected the petition and ordered parallel parking to be instituted on a trial basis in an effort to speed up the flow of traffic in the business district. The order will become effective Monday.

Shows Fall On Coast, But West Texas Stays Dry

By The Associated Press

Freezing temperatures held Texas from Amarillo to Lufkin and Bryan early Thursday as light showers pecked at the lower coastal area.

The weather was mostly fair throughout the state, except for clearing low clouds and fog in the Brownsville area.

Temperatures ranged from 22 at Amarillo to 62 at Brownsville. Dallas had 28, Wichita Falls 26, Presidio 31, Ozona 25, and Lufkin and Bryan 28. Corpus Christi had 51, while most other temperatures were in the 40s.

The high temperature Wednesday was 82 at Brownsville and Corpus Christi. The low maximum was 46 at Dalhart.

The official forecast for East Texas called for more showers in the south portion late Thursday, with partly cloudy skies and warmer temperatures Thursday night. No rain was forecast for West Texas.

Video Cameraman Receives The Unkindest Cut Of All

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Mrs. Brown watched Mrs. Smith's hubby decapitate the holiday turkey with one well directed blow of the axe, reports Alan Wilson. "Your husband is wonderful," enthused Mrs. Brown to Mrs. Smith. "He cut that head off clean as a whistle."

"Oh," said Mrs. Smith, "it just comes natural to him. He's a television cameraman."

John Wayne, Maureen O'Hara and Barry Fitzgerald are the stars who are almost certain to top-line John Ford's "The Quiet Man," a yarn about a prize fighter who kills his opponent in the ring and flees to his ancestral Ireland.

MGM and Howard Hughes are bidding for outright purchase of Arch Oboler's atomic bomb film, "Five." ... Insiders who've seen the footage on Columbia's "The Magic Carpet" say that Pat Medina's role is larger than Lucille Ball's. But flame-topped Lucille drew $55,000 for playing second fiddle to Pat. ... There's studio dickering for Richard Llewellyn's novel, "A Few Flowers for Shiner." He wrote "How Green Was My Valley."

Barbara Whiting is denying that she played June to Dan Dailey's October or that wedding bells will ring for them when Dan returns from the Menninger clinic. The 20-year-old kid sister of Margaret Whiting told me:

"Look, I've known Dan all my life. That's all there is to it. I haven't heard from him since he left Hollywood and there's no reason why I should hear from him." Barbara, who has her guns trained on a musical role, wailed: "My trouble is that everybody knows me in Hollywood. I'm the last person they think of when they're looking for a young actress."

Hollywood's reason for the suspensions, supporting roles and wait-until-option-time warnings being dished out to temperamental stars: "Rant Control."

Betty Hutton is ready to cut loose again in a new record, "Who Kicked the Light Plug Out of the Socket?" ... Dick Contino's insistence on TV rights has the MGM contract experts in a tizzy. Accordian pleaser Contino is opined: "I like TV. I'd hate to sit around for a year doing nothing while TV's going full blast." ... Joan Crawford will draw hefty percentage of the grosses from her forthcoming Wald-Krausa RKO film, "Clash By Night."

Not in the script: Robert Walker, working on a night location for "Strangers on a Train" ordered a hamburger "with everything" from Willie King's on-the-set sandwich stand. In a rush of business, Willie handed Walker the bun "with everything" except the hamburger. Half an hour later, Walker was back with: "Make me up another, Willie. Best I ever tasted."

This time Willie included the meat with the philosophy: "Actors don't know what's happening to them. They concentrate too much on acting."

The whisper from Italy is that shapely Sylvano Mangano, the star of "Bitter Rice," has posted a "Not Interested" sign for Hollywood studios who come knocking at her door.

Masked Bandits Take $8,350 From Muleshoe Farmer

MULESHOE, TEXAS. — (P) — Two masked men who robbed a farmer of $8,350 and left him tied to his tourist court bed vanished without a clue.

Glenn Teal, owner of farmland near here and at Abilene, said two men met him when he opened the door of his cabin early Wednesday as he prepared to go to town. They ordered him back into the cabin, then tied him spreadeagled to his bed. It took him almost four hours to work free of the ropes. Teal said the money was "to pay bills and buy some stuff" and most of it was rolled in a rubber band in his trousers pocket.

Russia Aims To Conquer

Until recently Douglas Larsen, NEA Washington correspondent, conducted a reader column of questions and answers on service problems. A high percentage of the inquiries were from women, mostly mothers of boys who faced a service call.

More often than not, these queries seemed to add up to: "How can I keep my boy at home?"

The other day, however, Larsen got a letter of a different sort. Like many of the others, it was from a mother—this time of two boys. But her questions didn't have the same tone. Indeed, they didn't really seem like questions at all. They were more a challenging message, a message that every American might listen to in these times.

Here's how this mother feels:

"Q. Have only two sons whom we love very dearly and for whom we have entertained great hopes. One, now studying for his Ph. D., expects momentarily a call from the Naval Reserve. The other was in the Marine Corps three years. . . He started back to college only to be recalled to the Marines last September.

"Is there any possibility that these boys will NOT be allowed to fight for their country and continue to make sacrifices for a land which has given them so much?"

"Is there any danger that these boys will be infected by the loose talk of selfish and unthinking Americans into letting down the men who suffered and died in Korea, and their brothers in humanity who are held in the harsh chains of slavery all over the world and cry out to them for help?"

Mothers and fathers everywhere in America could well ponder these words. For there are disturbing reports from many sections that lots of boys of draft age do not understand either the peril the nation faces, or the justice of their being called to help meet it.

Many young men have the notion they are being asked to shelve their individual plans and hopes and perhaps risk their lives because a few men charged with the conduct of our foreign affairs have committed some mistakes.

Certainly mistakes have been made. And no matter who holds high office in this country, they will probably continue to be made. Never infallible, human beings are particularly not so when confronted with a world so complex it taxes the greatest minds to the very limit.

But the basic thing we have to remember is that our peril is not primarily a product of such errors on our part. Our danger is being contrived in the Kremlin by a group of men who are bent upon conquering us, one way or another, if not now then later.

Even if our top-rank leaders had not made a single major mistake, the peril would be there. For Russia's purpose is unalterable. It is the Soviet Union, not some willful or unintentional slip by an American official, that has plunged us into this crisis. Our avoidance of mistakes might have changed the shape of Russia's plans. But it would not have changed the plans.

If all parents can grasp this overriding fact as does the mother quoted here, then they will understand why their sons are needed. And they can make their boys see it is right to put aside personal plans until the safety of their nation and the whole free world is assured.

DREW PEARSON ON The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Current Korean retreat is carefully planned withdrawal; European press reports U. N. failure to contact enemy; Friction between Second Division and South Koreans.

WASHINGTON — The UN retreat in Korea now has gone through two distinct and separate stages. Retreat No. 1—Which began when we were caught up near the Manchurian border was a genuine, almost headlong retreat—a distance of 120 miles back to around the 38th Parallel. Another phase of this retreat was a valiant, mile-by-mile battle by the 10th Corps to reach the sea at Hungnam.

Retreat No. 2—Which began at around the 38th Parallel last week has been a carefully planned withdrawal, with supplies loaded up and ready to move back even before the enemy hit. It was hoped to give the impression that UN forces were retreating in the face of heavy odds, but this has not really been the case. Our withdrawal is following a calculated plan to evacuate most of Korea.

What the American public doesn't generally realize, however, is that both retreats have had an extremely bad reaction in other parts of the world. Furthermore, war stories published in Europe frequently are quite different from those published in this country—especially when it comes to the reasons for retreating and the size of the Chinese Communist army.

British Press Dispatches. British newsmen, for instance, at one time referred to "Mao's ghost army" and said that British forces had not seen the enemy for a week. This was during retreat No. 1 of the 8th Army when UN forces raced 120 miles southward.

General MacArthur's own confidential dispatches to the Pentagon give credence to some of these British news accounts.

During one point in the retreat of the 8th Army shortly before Christmas, MacArthur actually sent his field commander, the late Lieut. Gen. Walton Walker, a blistering cable ordering him to make contact with the enemy and be "aggressive" about it. MacArthur even used the command "I direct" in his message to Walker; also ordered him to "give high priority to bringing in prisoners."

It is most unusual for a headquarters commander to give such blunt orders as "I direct" to a field commander.

Attacks Exaggerated. Another significant point brought out in MacArthur's reports to Washington is that, during the evacuation of the Hungnam beachhead, never were the UN forces attacked by any Chinese force stronger than a company.

Press dispatches from Hungnam made it appear that the Chinese were throwing masses of troops at UN lines which fought desperately to hold the beachhead. However, MacArthur's own reports to Washington do not bear this out. He states that no more than one Chinese company attacked the beachhead, and that not a single American casualty was suffered during the evacuation.

Although the 10th Corps fought one of the most valiant withdrawals in history to Hungnam, the real story of the 8th Army's retreat is not so glorious. Its difficulties were due in part to poor liaison, poor command, and to the inevitable problems which arise when troops of different nationalities are fighting side by side.

Have a Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE

An old lady had been shown through a museum by an attendant who had explained the history and uses of the different objects. The old lady said, "I understand that tipping is forbidden." The attendant replied: "Yes, ma'am; but so was apples in the Garden of Eden."

A man entered a hotel dining room one morning and said to the waitress: "Bring me a cup of coffee—and be sure to slash half of it into the saucer." "Then bring me two eggs, straight up—and break both the yolks." "Let me have two pieces of toast, badly scorched and then scraped." "Then sit down across the table and nag me; I'm homesick as hell!"

Tapping Contractors Out To Get Rich

SEREMBAN, MALAYA.—(AP)—Chinese tapping contractors in the Northern Malaya state of Negri Sembilan are out to get rich quick while rubber prices are soaring. They've already bought up 450 acres of old rubber holdings belonging to Indians, and are looking for more.

The Chinese plan to get busy fast re-planting old lands, knowing that while the price of rubber is rising, there's a strong tendency to ignore such work.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service. One reason some bridge players don't progress very far is that they forget the problems of a declarer when they happen to be defending, and vice versa. For example, probably every experienced player has been faced by the problem that confronted South in the hand shown today. However, very few defenders would have the imagination to create this problem for declarer.

West opened the jack of diamonds, and South won with the king. It is hard to see at first how South can possibly lose this contract, but it was all reasonable enough.

Declarer drew three rounds of trumps, discarding a diamond from dummy on the third trump. He then led the ten of clubs from his hand and let it ride for a finesse.

East won with the king of clubs and—since East was Larceny Lou—he promptly gave declarer some-ing to think about. To be specific, Lou returned the queen of hearts.

This is a situation that is familiar to every experienced bridge player. South must somehow manage to win a heart trick in order to avoid defeat. If East is leading from the Q-J of hearts, South must play low on the queen of hearts. If East then continues with the jack of hearts, South can play the king, thus driving out the ace and establishing dummy's ten. If East continues with a low heart, South can play low, and then West will have to play his ace to win the trick.

South was aware of the fact that Larceny Lou might be staging one of the deceptive plays for which he is so well known. But it seemed really possible that Lou's hearts really were headed by the queen and jack. He therefore played a low heart on Lou's queen.

Lou did not betray any surprise when his queen of hearts held the trick. After all, it was possible that his partner had the king. He continued with the deuce of hearts, and South played low again, hoping that Lou had led from the jack of hearts.

As it happened, of course, West was able to win the second heart trick with the jack. He then returned a heart to East's ace, defeating the contract.

RED BARN. Most barns are painted red because, early in the last century, farmers recognized that natural earth pigments of the red iron oxide were readily available and when mixed with oil, made good, long-lasting paint.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Extent Of Defense Arming Hinges On Manpower Program

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Department of Defense is having a tough time trying to justify its position on the speed of mobilization. It is accused of having a "siesta" attitude—taking a midday nap while the Commies are overrunning civilization.

From all over have come charges that the country isn't mobilizing fast enough. That defense contracts aren't being let fast enough. That cutbacks and controls aren't being applied in tough enough fashion.

In Washington, the complaint has been that nobody can find out what the armed services want. The size of military requirements has become the multi-billion dollar mystery. And the delay has not been explained satisfactorily.

There is a certain amount of justification for this criticism. But the Department of Defense does have some valid arguments defending its present gradual mobilization policy.

When Defense Secretary George Marshall was testifying in closed session before Senate Appropriations Committee, all the senators present took time out for a 10-minute speech telling the general that we should have all-out mobilization in a hurry. How Many And How Much?

General Marshall stood about as much of this as he could, and then turned rather sharply to one of the senators and asked in effect, "What do you mean by full mobilization? Do you mean armed forces of 15,000,000 men? How long would you and the country be willing to support that big a force?"

The senator said, no, he didn't mean that big a force.

General Marshall persisted. The country now was trying to get a 3,500,000 man force, plus 2,000,000 National Guard. Did he want 10,000,000? Or just what? Define the terms of what full mobilization meant.

The senator ducked, saying, "I'm here to ask you questions." That ended the argument.

Assistant Secretary of Defense W. J. McNeil, comptroller of the armed forces, had a similar experience in a private session with a congressman whom he prefers not to identify.

This congressman started making the speech about the need for full mobilization. It so happens that this congressman has a 17-year-old son.

"I tell you what I wish you'd do," Secretary McNeil said to the congressman. "I wish you'd go to the House tomorrow and introduce a bill—clearing it with Chairman Carl Vinson first—to make sure that it gets passed. In this bill, I wish you'd provide for universal military service of seven years for every boy of 18."

The congressman said he thought that was a bit extreme. McNeil then went on to explain why that would be necessary, if the United States was to maintain armed forces of 10,000,000 men, to match Russia. Began With Mighty Crash. The explanation begins with the depression. There wasn't very much production in the United States from 1932 to 1939. This applies to babies as well as to food and factory goods.

The result is that today there are only a little more than 1,000,000 physically fit boys babies reaching age 18 this year, and for the next five years or more. So if the United States is to build up and maintain an army of 10,000,000 men, it will have to draft 1,000,000 men a year and keep them in service for as long as the emergency lasts, or for at least seven years, permitting them to resign at age 25.

Well, the mathematics of the thing is that if 1,000,000 18-year-old draftees a year are to be kept in service for only two years, there can be at the most not more than a 4,000,000 man defense force. And this would mean that 2,000,000 older men would have to stay in service as professionals.

In other words, manpower is the first consideration in any calculation for a mobilization program. How big a defense force is the United States going to build up? How long will it be kept in service? After those determinations are made, then the calculations can be made on how much equipment they will need.

It would be nice to have one tank, one airplane or one jeep complete with bazooka and trailer for every man in service. But are they necessary? The answer is of course not. So why waste the money ordering all this equipment?

Within the next week or so, Department of Defense will send to Congress its new manpower program. It will consist of three main parts:

- 1. A new universal military service bill. 2. A new Reserve Officers Training Corps program. 3. New legislation on handling of reserves.

This will be the biggest defense measure before the new Congress. Every other part of the mobilization program depends on that.

THE STORY: Paul Twing took justice in his own hands when he kidnapped Judy Twing, small daughter of his dead brother from her unworthy mother. Now the net is closing in on himself, Judy and May Jenkins, a girl who insisted on accompanying Paul because she felt that Paul was unjustly accused, in New York, after Paul separated from Judy and May, the girl had retreated to her home on a subway when she saw Paul's picture in the paper. May manages to escape, but later she reads that a dragnet of the city had been ordered. Then she reads the headlines in a newspaper: TWING GIRL SEEN IN SUBWAY.

landlady? Had she seen the papers and did she suspect?

All of the assurances May had given Paul that the people of the country were for them dissipated, leaving nothing but nerve-twitching fear. She wondered if Paul had seen the papers. What would he think?

The door to the room flew open. May jumped and ran to Judy who was playing on the bed. It was Harry. With a tremulous sigh May went back to her window chair and let herself fall into it. With shaking hands she lit a cigaret in an effort to steady herself.

After considering a dozen wild projects, she decided that her original idea of staying in the room until it was time to meet Paul was best. It was only 1 o'clock. That meant four more hours.

THE children lay across the bed on their stomachs reading a comic book. She was grateful for their quiet occupation. She read the newspaper article a second and then a third time. Finally she decided to change her dress and rearrange her hair. When she was through with that, she made Judy change her clothes.

Judy protested that her clothes were clean, but May tempted her into compliance with a new outfit boasting long pants that she had purchased in Wheeling. Harry was disgusted but steered himself in the comic book and paid no attention.

That had taken less than a half hour and the elongated minutes and hours that remained before rejoining Paul spread themselves before her tauntingly. Thinking of Paul in the abstract, not in connection with the new difficulties that confronted them, proved to be an excellent sedative.

May found that she was hungry just to see him. Since the night she had met him her life had been so full of new, vibrating activity she had had little or no chance to think of anything other than problems of the moment.

Without surprise she faced the revelation that she loved Paul. He was everything she felt a man should be. His courage, sincerity and the winning simplicity of his easy manner and speech had won her collaboration when first they had met. The confidence and respect he had implanted in her had grown to something much deeper any warmer. She didn't question it. She loved him.

She looked out of the window.

A CAR pulled up in front of the window. May stiffened and watched two men climb out. She saw the lanterns flash down the street and go up to them. May's heart missed a beat. Slowly she rose and stood at one side of the window looking down at the group through the dust gray curtains.

The landlady was talking to the men with great emphasis. Twice she pointed up to the second floor window and the men's eyes followed the gesture.

Two stout women who had been gossiping in front of the house next door joined them.

May's knees sagged. She clutched the frame of the window and leaned heavily against the wall. Her breathing was strained and shallow. She was acutely conscious of the sudden trance-like immobility that had seized her, but she was unable to throw it off. Then she saw the men detach themselves from the group and start up the stone stoop.

With a violent thrust May pushed herself from the window. Her frozen eyes swept the room. The sudden movement startled the children. They stared at her in wonder.

Heavy tread on the steps reached May. It accelerated her thinking, her action. She seized Judy and pushed her into the hallway and closed the door. She was a burled house whisper. "Not a sound till I call you! Not a sound!" She pushed the door shut and wheeled on Harry who had slipped off the bed and was gaping at her in wide-eyed astonishment.

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Every girl can use some beauty pointers. Sometimes what is lacking in beauty of face can be made up for in disposition, grooming and personality.

We all know beautiful girls who wince when they are described merely as "pretty" called "attractive." These girls while fair of face and perfect of features are too self centered to understand that they must combine these given assets with concrete charm factors which give them real character.

The girl with personality always draws other people to her. She is interested in people and is sympathetic and understanding. This can be developed merely by forgetting about yourself and concentrating on making others like you.

Magnified Beauty Problems

Sometimes the girl with beauty problems—blemished skin, large mouth, big hips or large ears—becomes a wallflower because she hugs corners on account of a single defect. Most of these things are magnified, and are easier to cure or camouflage than the charm problems of the gorgeous girls.

Usually one visit to a doctor who can supply the reason for blemished skin is all that is necessary to clear up that unwanted condition. Diet and exercise usually are recommended and many girls have found that the candies and cakes they consume while commiserating with themselves are responsible for their bad skin.

Outdoor Sports Help

If you haven't discovered what outdoor sports can do for the complexion, now is the time to whip out your ice skates or skis. You'll be invigorated by your winter bout with Mother Nature and that wonderful feeling of relaxation after a day of outdoor exercise. Too many young girls develop the habit of sitting around indoors and moping when they haven't got dates. Even if you can't round up a companion, don't miss the fun of winter sports. You'll be surprised, also, how many new friends you will make on these excursions.

Ice-skating, in particular, is wonderful for reducing the hips—providing of course you do not consume twice your usual calories after your day on the ice.

Another hip-reducer for the chubby girl can be done right at home. Here's how: Lie on the floor, bend the knees so that the feet are flat on the floor and then get yourself in position so that by balancing yourself on one arm, you can spank yourself by bumping your thighs and derriere up and down on the floor. Do this first on one thigh and hip and then on the other.

Take Exercises

The bulging abdomen, very often the result of poor posture, can be helped by this posture exercise: stand against the wall with shoulders and spine at waistline touching the wall. Keep the feet close together. You will notice that this exercise will raise your bust, flatten your stomach and derriere.

Plain old hip bends also will help reduce stomach and waistline. Stretch legs apart, raise arms overhead, bend down touching right hand to left foot about ten times. Do the same with left hand to right foot. Good time for this exercise is first thing in the morning.

If your mouth is large analyze yourself to discover whether it is something you can correct naturally. Do you purse your lips or pout? Do you have a habit of rolling your lips in any fashion which would make them appear larger? Do you grin too broadly?

Make Lips Thinner

If you will curl your lips inward and under whenever you think of it during the day and be conscious of keeping them in a thinner line when you talk, you can help yourself. Also, if you use lipstick, first apply a foundation makeup to cover your lips and then make them up in a thinner line than their normal shape.

Full lips always are more attractive than very thin lips, so do not strive for a very thin, drawn line. As a matter of fact many thin-lipped girls accomplish voluptuous mouths merely by using additional lipstick.

The girl with unattractive ears should, of course, always wear a hairdo that will cover her ears. If her ears merely are large for her face, big earrings often can make ears appear smaller. Sometimes ears can be flattened by using adhesive tape to hold them back but one must be faithful to that routine for a long time.

Beauty isn't beyond your reach if you will just appraise yourself honestly and decide how you can help yourself.

Nail polish, smoothed on as an extra coat over the enamel handles of your cooking utensils, will give them added protection against chipping or discoloring.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Children With Mental Illness Need Real Understanding

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Too many youngsters who run away from home, refuse to eat what they are told, snatch food from a peddler's pushcart, or do other things contrary to grown-up standards still are treated without much sense. A few are hopeless, of course, and some are mentally irresponsible, but in a lot of cases it is not the youngster who is to be blamed but the parents or society.

It should not be forgotten that the standards which children are expected to follow were not made by them but were set up by adults. Naturally therefore, a youngster sometimes feels this and his "bad" behavior is nothing more than a rebellion against authority.

Some youngsters are just bored; some have been neglected by their parents and other given too much indulgence. Being a good parent is quite a job and even the best cannot be sure that their children will not get into trouble. Intelligent discipline—not too strict and not too mild—certainly helps, and it is extremely important to keep growing boys and girls busy and interested in what they are doing.

Youth is not always free from real mental difficulties which produce behavior problems. One form of true insanity—dementia praecox—is fairly likely to develop in the teens rather than later. This of course, requires expert care. And there are many children who are mentally retarded and just do not have the intelligence to keep up with their contemporaries.

This discourages them and they may try to make up for it in stealing or some other kind of unfortunate behavior. But retarded children can be handled better now than formerly, and often they can be fitted into a life where they can do a pretty good job and stay out of trouble.

Different Problems

Subnormal children present one kind of a problem, mentally diseased ones another, and normally intelligent ones who behave badly still do not have the mental capacity of normal youngsters and they cannot be taught to go farther than their intelligence allows.

The intelligence of idiots, for example, is less than that of a normal three-year-old; that of morons doesn't go higher than that of the normal 12-year-old. But by no means all the mentally handicapped children need to be in institutions.

Better understanding of all these mental problems is a responsibility of parents, teachers, and in fact everyone. We could do a lot better job than we are doing.

"No more slipping on the soap—my husband fixed it so he can take his shower sitting down!"

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Baby Giant

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, was up in the land of the giant boy with Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf. Daddy Ringtail was with them, and now they were looking at a big, big building as big as a church. "It must be the giant's castle, it must," whispered the Huffen.

But no, Daddy Ringtail explained that the giant's castle was over on the other side of the mountain, and the great big building they saw was only the playhouse for the baby giant.

"Daddy Ringtail," said Mugwump, "I thought a baby giant was a fire-cracker." "Here kitty!" said Mugwump, and what the cat did in the story I'll tell you tomorrow. (Don't worry. The cat is a friendly cat.) Happy Day!

"Is he really baby-size?" asked Mugwump. "Baby-size for a giant," said Daddy Ringtail, and he meant that the baby giant was as big as two or three elephants put together. But Mugwump tiptoed and tiptoed up to the baby giant's play-house. The Huffen tiptoed and tiptoed with him. Now they were climbing up a vine to get to the porch, because the steps were much too tall for them to limb without a ladder.

"Look!" whispered the Huffen, "a great big, big, big door as big as the side of a house."

Mugwump said "I saw it, but what oh what was the door in the bottom of the big, big door? Why, the door in the bottom of the big door was as big as an ordinary door at home. Our friends thought and thought about this. At last they decided that maybe the giant's baby had a cat—a giant cat, of course—and it could be that the door in the bottom of the big door was for the cat to come in and out. "Anyway, that's what I think, I do," said the Huffen. "Uhuu," said Mugwump, "and I think you're right, because there the cat now is coming out."

"Ooooooh!" said the Huffen, because there peeping through the door was a cat's head as large as Mugwump and the Huffen were.

Legislature Sends Pay Bill To Shivers

AUSTIN —(P)— Gov. Allan Shivers' biennial report on the condition of the state was the Legislature's big business Thursday.

A working copy of a bill to re-district the state for senatorial representation became Senate bill No. 1. It was offered by Rogers Kailey of Edinburg, long a red-hot advocate of redistricting.

A similar measure is expected to be among the first introduced in the House of Representatives when the doors are opened for bills next week.

House Speaker Reuben Setzer-fitt announced Wednesday that members will hold a drawing for bill numbers Monday. That was his method of equitably giving each an opportunity to obtain one of the preferred low numbers.

The session's first bill was passed by both Houses and sent to the governor for his signature before the 52nd Legislature was 24 hours old. It was a measure providing $750,000 for the lawmakers salaries and expenses.

Staggered Terms

The small ballot, staggered term election procedure was adopted by Chamber members at a general meeting last month. Directors previously were elected for one-year terms by C. Of C. members at the organization's annual meeting in January of each year. Under the new procedure one-third of the directorate is elected each year by mail ballot for three-year terms.

To comply with the new procedure, the terms of the forty 1950 directors were determined by lot.

The 1951 officers and directors will be introduced at the Chamber's annual banquet January 23.

Two Foremost Aces Of World War II Vie For Honors In Korea

By WILLIAM JORDEN

TOKYO —(P)— Two of America's top World War II aces, once friendly rivals in battles against Hitler's Luftwaffe, are competing with each other again against the Red enemy in Korea.

They are Lt. Col. John C. Meyer of Forest Hills, N. Y., and Donald J. M. Blakeslee of Fairport, Ohio.

They lead units equipped with America's latest types of jet fighter planes.

Both fliers made amazing records over Europe.

Johnny Meyer is America's leading living ace from World War II. As commander of the 56th Fighter Group, Meyer was credited with 37 1/2 victories. His group accounted for 1,011 enemy planes.

Don Blakeslee commanded the 4th Fighter Group in Europe. The outfit was credited with 1016 1/2 kills. Blakeslee himself piled up more combat time than anyone has ever flown in a single engine plane—more than 1,200 hours.

Blakeslee beat Meyer to the punch by taking his 27th Fighter Group out on its first combat mission in Korea December 7. Meyer, who now commands Blakeslee's old Fourth Fighter Group, was nine days behind.

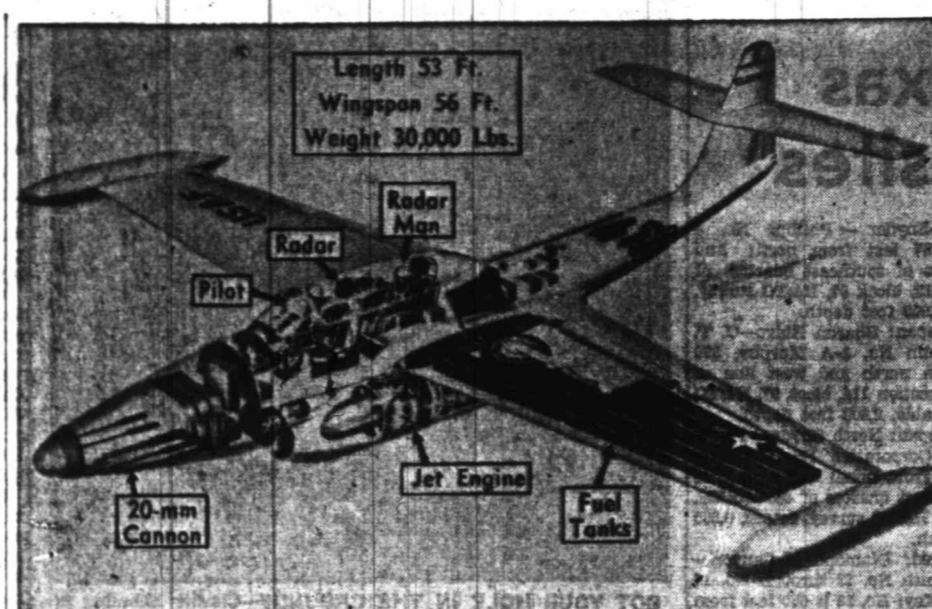

The two aces have reversed their loyalties to aircraft. During World War II Blakeslee flew an F-47 Thunderbolt. He has switched to North America's F-86 Thunderjet, which he calls "the finest fighter plane I have ever flown."

The two fighting airmen now are in the air over Korea hammering hard at Communist targets. Meyer already has scored a victory over one Russian made MIG-15 jet. Blakeslee has taken his Thunderjet group out on many a close support mission, flying low over the front and raking enemy troops and supplies.

1950 Highlights Of Buffalo Trail Council

Scout Executive P. V. Thorson of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, Thursday listed 18 highlights of the council in 1950, which included the largest membership and greatest number of units in the council's history.

But Thorson did not release the highlights in a boastful vein.

"The highlights are actual facts and not intended as boasting, but to give credit to the many volunteers who have worked so loyally and so diligently," Thorson said. "As a council we are well aware of the tremendous challenge before us and we have no intention of becoming complacent," the Scout executive added.

Membership Gains The membership in the council reached 7,918 boys and leaders in 1950, which is an all-time record, according to Thorson. The number of units, including troops, packs and Explorer units, reached 180—another new mark.

New boys members during the year increased 2,658, a council record. Other highlights included: the largest run-up ever held; record number of sponsoring institutions; progress in holding and registering units; largest and best swimming and first aid meets in last 10 years; and the largest budget with best results in the council's history.

"In the interests of the contribution Scouting can make to our boys and the future of the nation, we earnestly beseech the continued wholehearted cooperation and assistance of all who 'care enough,'" was Thorson's concluding comment.

Two More Victims May Be Added To Desperado's List EL CENTRO, CALIF. —(P)— Desperado William E. (Bill) Cook may have added two more victims to the list of killings attributed to him, Sheriff Robert W. Ware, theorized Thursday.

Formerly charged with murder and kidnaping in Oklahoma, Cook still is being hunted in California's Imperial Valley and across the border in Mexico.

Sheriff Ware's theory is that the 22-year-old Joplin, Mo., ex-convict may have done away with two missing El Centro prospectors and seized their automobile for his flight.

The prospectors, Forrest Damron, 32, and James Burke, 33, left home last Saturday, expecting to return next day.

The sheriff said he had information they were seen at San Felipe, Mexico, a fishing village on the Gulf of Lower California, Saturday night. Other information indicates Cook also was seen at San Felipe Saturday night.

Doctors Inform Mother Her Child Won't Lose Eyes

ROCHESTER, MINN.—(P)— Four-year-old Carolyn Purcell isn't going to lose her eyes, and cancer, believed threatening her life, doesn't even exist in her case.

That was the joyous report given by Mayo Clinic specialists Wednesday to Carolyn's mother, Mrs. Frank Purcell of Alphanova, Ga., after eight hours of examination at the medical center.

Mrs. Purcell brought Carolyn here by plane late Tuesday with a grim choice tormenting her mind. She had been told by doctors in Atlanta that Carolyn must either undergo surgery to have her eyes removed or die of cancer.

Refuse To Consent The 38-year-old mother and her husband, an unemployed stationer, refused to consent to the operation. Days of anguish followed. Examination at the Mayo Clinic was suggested, but the Purcells had little money.

The Shriners in Atlanta stepped in and supplied money for the plane trip.

Early Wednesday Carolyn and her mother reported at the clinic. Mrs. Purcell followed the little girl step by step through eight hours of examination. When it was all over, clinic doctors said there was no evidence of cancer.

They said there was an inflammatory reaction within the child's eyes which has impaired Carolyn's sight. They indicated it can be corrected by treatment.

Price Boosts—

Vegetable oil trade predicts prices are due for another rise.

Wholesale commodity prices show what has happened to prices since Korea. Here are a few examples, comparing this week's wholesale prices with those on June 25.

Rubber up 44 cents a pound— from 29 to 73 cents.

Tin sparring 94 1/2 cents a pound— from 78 1/2 to 121 1/2.

Silk going from $2.85 to $5.20.

Wool jumping from $2 a pound to $3.83 1/2.

Cotton up 10 cents a pound, and rayon 11.

Cattle prices have gained $6.25 a hundredweight, at the present price of $38.50. And lamb is up $5.50 at the current quotation of $34 a hundredweight.

Wheat has risen only from $2.13 1/2 to $2.58 to $2.47 3/8. But flour is up 55 cents to $6.25 a hundred pounds. Coffee beans are up seven cents a pound at 55 1/4 cents.

Hide prices — foreshadowing trends in shoe prices—have gone from 23 to 37 1/2 cents a pound.

Tin jumped eight cents a pound Wednesday to its new high of $1.75.

At the start of this century it averaged 31 cents a pound. It touched $1.10 during World War I. During the second war the government controlled the price, letting it rise from 52 cents to $1.03. But just a year ago tin was selling at 75 1/2 cents a pound.

The Associated Press wholesale price index as a whole stood at 169.56 (the average price for 1926 equals 100) when the Reds struck at Korea. Wednesday it hit 208.90, a record.

All of these wholesale prices quoted are in the legal, legitimate markets.

But from across the fence came word of inflation in the blind pig set. Baltimore reported that five gallons of bootleg whiskey, which could be had for $25 in February, now costs $33.50. The government's trying to control sale of that, too.

11 Persons Escape Serious Hurts When C-47 Crashes, Burns
ALBUQUERQUE.—(AP)—A crippled, twin-engine C-47 crashed and burned near Albuquerque Wednesday night but all 11 persons aboard parachuted to safety. Seven were injured.

Ground search parties found the three crewmen and eight passengers clustered around two fires in a rugged, barren area about 30 miles west of Albuquerque. Early Thursday, the searchers brought them to Albuquerque, where the seven injured were taken to hospitals at Kirtland Air Force Base and Sandia Secret Weapons Base.

Rescuers reported none of the injuries were serious. Only two of the men were kept in the hospital at Kirtland although all were given a checkup there or at Sandia. The most serious injuries were a wrench-ed back and a bruised leg.

The men, all military personnel including at least one lieutenant colonel and a Navy man, bailed out of the plane after the crew radioed Kirtland that one engine had failed and they were abandoning ship.

The plane was on a flight from Norton Air Force Base, San Bernardino, Calif., to Wright-Patterson Air Force Base, Dayton, Ohio.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, JAN. 11, 1961-9

Three Unbeaten Quints Go Down

NEW YORK—(AP)—Someone's unbeaten record had to go but you couldn't tell whose until the buzzer sounded. Princeton's basketball five went into its game at Columbia Wednesday night with a record of 18 straight victories over a two-season span. Columbia had 17 straight.

Columbia won the Ivy League test 53-52, coming from behind on Substitute Bob Sullivan's field goal with 49 seconds left.

Columbia (9-0) ranks eighth nationally in this week's Associated Press poll, Princeton (8-1) twentieth.

Penn State and Bucknell gave a good demonstration of what's been an interesting topic of conversation this week among basketball coaches Hank Iba of Oklahoma A&M, Nat Holman of CCNY and Jack Gray of Texas.

Penn State froze out Bucknell 25-15. The winners led at half-time 5-3, using a zone defense and zone offense—Cente. Joe Plorkowski stood out in midcourt holding the ball.

Neither team scored in the first 16 minutes. Then courageous Bill Strella broke away for a goal, the only one Bucknell scored in the first half.

Phillips Clips Hamline
Two other unbeaten, Hamline and Washington & Jefferson, also lost.

Hamline (11-1) moved out of its class in taking on Phillips 66, the National AAU champion. The Pipers faded in the last two minutes to lose 64-61 to the heavily-manned all-star independent squad.

Waynesburg won 73-63 to stop the Washington & Jefferson streak at eight straight this season.

Louisville won its twelfth game in 13 starts, defeating Xavier of Cincinnati 63-55. Western Kentucky (8-4) downed Evansville (10-2), 75-63.

Baskets in the final seconds decided three Eastern games.

Ed Tucker's goal in the last 12 seconds gave Army (4-0) a 59-58 victory over Rutgers. Ray Rudinski drove in for a layup in the last minute for a St. Francis (Brooklyn) upset of Fordham 65-63. Fred Kosar scored in the last four seconds for Brown's 59-57 upset of Rhode Island State.

Navy staved off charging Maryland 51-47. Siena (12-1) defeated Creighton 58-40. Villanova (11-1) whipped Rider 63-48. LaSalle (10-2) drubbed Geneva 87-58.

Texas Western defeated Arizona State at Tempe 91-77, and Nevada took Ricks 58-52.

Bradley (15-0), the No. 1 team in the country, takes on St. John's (10-2) in Thursday night's top game.

Lee Pogolin, Chicago Black Hawks' defenseman, is considered to be one of the best "holler guys" in the National Hockey League.

King's Row

By LARRY KING

An irate fan wants to know why we are slamming the Midland High School basketball team. The answer is: We aren't. We pointed out Wednesday that the team may take one of two courses: Either go forward and improve, or give up and lose the remaining games.

Of course, we don't expect Midland to win all its games—maybe not even half of them from here on in.

But this fact is evident: Midland has not been outclassed by any foe. The Bulldogs are capable of defeating any team they have played by giving all they have and wanting to win.

Too long Midland has been tagged as a "soft touch" in sports. The 1961 MHS football team tore that label off and stuck one on reading "Danger, High Explosives."

They did it by fight and spirit. It would be a shame to see the Midland basketball team adopt an inferiority complex. Those days should be gone forever.

Like we said, the question is up to the Bulldog basketball team. No, we aren't "down" on the Bulldogs.

And we hope they won't be down on themselves.

Talking some more about the high school all-star game to be played in Odessa January 17:

It seems that the game shall be known as the "Permian Bowl." And the Odessa Kiwanis Club is sponsoring the clash. Odessa wanted the Texas Coaching School, but couldn't land it. So the Kiwanis decided to get together and produce an "all West Texas" affair. The result is the Permian Bowl—and we think it is more attractive to West Texas than the coaching school would have been.

Midland boys who have a good chance to land places on the team include Center Jimmy O'Neal, Tackle Bob Wood, Guard Bob Burks, Ends Graham Mackey and Duane Bush, Backs Jack Burris, Charles Crowley, L. C. Thomas and Reed Gilmore.

Of course, all these boys won't make it. With the five 3-AA teams, the 10 teams from 5-A and the seven teams in 2-B, the West probably will limit each school to a certain number of players.

But Midland should get a boy or two on the squad. We'll do all within our power to get at least one Bulldog on the West squad.

At the risk of being beheaded and having cries of "treason" called out way, we're going to brag a little on—of all things—Odessa.

Like it or not, Odessa lands more attractive post-season and extra sport activities than any city in West Texas. The Broncho city all ways comes up with some Golden Gloves, good track meets and play-off football games, and usually lands a college basketball and football game or two.

That creates interest in sports. And that's one reason why the Bronchos are double tough to beat and have such fine spirit behind their clubs.

It's the truth, Midland. And we need to copy. Now, go ahead and shoot.

Tommy Hart of Big Spring is the lad who reported Jess Neely was going to be in Midland in February to address the "B" club, an organization of Rice Institute lettermen.

So we sent a telegram to Neely wanting to know the particulars. He replied with: "Because of Spring

'C' Bulldogs Draw Bowie In Tourney

The Midland Bulldog 'C' team will tangle with Bowie Junior High of Odessa at 1 p.m. Friday in the first round of the Odessa Junior High School Invitational Tournament.

Fourteen teams will enter the double elimination event. Play will continue through Friday and Saturday, with consolation and championship finals being played Saturday night. Site of the tournament is the new Odessa fieldhouse.

Teams entered include Odessa Crockett, Odessa Bowie, Robert Lee of San Angelo, Edison of San Angelo, Big Spring, Lamesa, Crane, Andrews, Kermit, Seminole, Monahans, McCamey, Denver City and Midland.

Coches Pat Patterson expects to take a squad of 15 boys to the meet. Bill Mims, Rust, Rutledge and Jimmie Mashburn have been mainstays of the team thus far.

The Midland 'C' has won two of three contests, taking Andrews 'C' 27-23 and Coleman Junior High 38-20. The lone loss was to Edison of San Angelo 42 to 27.

New Fighters Join Midland Boxers; Walson Impressive

The Midland boxing team lost one fighter but gained five new mittmen Wednesday, according to reports from Bill Gildewell.

Open Lightweight Duane Bush quit the team in order to work, Gildewell said. But Ralph Brooks, Midland High School football ace, joined the team. Brooks will compete in the novice heavyweight division.

Four Latin American boys also joined the squad. They are Moe Lerma, 112 pounds; Joe Alvarez, 150 pounds; Pidal Ramirez, 140 pounds, and Joe Chavez, 120 pounds.

Midland may lose Heavyweight Howard Bennett to the Navy, although it is not definite yet. Bennett is working in the open class.

Open Heavyweight Jimmie Watson is particularly impressive in workouts. The six-foot, two-inch former MHS and Texas University football star is rounding into shape and expects to give the Odessa favorite, Don Thompson, quite a time of it for open heavyweight honors.

The Midland team will compete in the regional Golden Gloves meet in Odessa January 17, 18 and 19.

Twenty Cage Teams Enter Stanton Meet

STANTON—Ten boys teams and ten girls teams were to begin play Thursday afternoon at Stanton in a super double elimination basketball tournament in the Stanton High gym.

Ben Hogan's Rally After Crash Voted 'Comeback Of Year'

NEW YORK—(AP)—Bantam Ben Hogan's phenomenal, movie-script rally from a near-fatal accident to regain his old golfing heights was rated Thursday the greatest comeback in sports for 1950.

Sports writers and broadcasters, participating in the year-end Associated Press poll, had little trouble making up their minds in this category, giving an overwhelming vote to the plucky little shotmaker from Texas.

On Feb. 2, 1949, Hogan was injured critically in an automobile accident while returning home from a tournament in Phoenix, Ariz. For weeks his condition remained serious.

There was doubt that the sneaky veteran who the year before had scored professional golf's U. S. slam—the PGA, Open and Western—ever would walk, much less play, again.

But by mid-Summer of 1949 Hogan was hobbling around on crutches and in December he played his first round of friendly golf.

Amateurs Golf World

There was a flurry of excitement when it was announced Hogan would attempt his comeback to competitive golf in the rich Los Angeles Open January 6. Could Hogan do it? He replied quickly.

Walking stiffly on legs held together by balling wire, Hogan amazed the golf world by finishing in a tie with Sam Snead for first place, shooting a remarkable 280. It was immaterial that Ben later lost to his old rival in a playoff.

Hogan won the Greenbrier Open in May with a record-tying, 21-under-par 259 and then climaxed his spectacular comeback by winning the National Open at Philadelphia in June.

Hogan received 112 first place votes from the 214 who cast ballots and piled up 393 points on the basis of three for a first place vote, two for second, etc.

Waltkus in second place. Second place went to another whose career almost was cut short by tragedy—Eddie Waltkus, first baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Waltkus was shot and wounded seriously in Chicago June 15, 1949, by a 19-year-old girl who explained she just had an "urge to kill somebody."

He came back last year to play 154 games for the Phillies, help win the Army Forces Cup. And then to the National League pennant and play in the World Series. He batted .284.

Here are the leading comebackers with points awarded on the basis of three for a first place vote, two for second, etc. (First place votes in parentheses):

1. Ben Hogan, golf (112) ... 393
2. Eddie Waltkus, baseball (29) ... 160
3. Navy, football (7) ... 58
4. John Mize, baseball (8) ... 52
5. New York Giants, baseball (5) ... 46
6. Joe DiMaggio, baseball ... 37
7. Princeton, football (3) ... 30
8. Ewell Blackwell, baseball ... 29
9. Michigan, football ... 28
10. New York Yankees, baseball ... 27

Eight Teams To Enter Pecos Meet

PECOS—The Pecos High School Invitational Basketball Tournament Friday and Saturday will feature eight top teams.

Teams entering are Pecos, Alpine, El Paso High, Van Horn, Bowie El Paso, Wink, Ysleta and Monahans. Pecos and Alpine will get together in the opening game at 3 p.m. Friday.

El Paso High School and Van Horn are paired for a game immediately after the initial tilt. Bowie El Paso and Wink tangle at 7:30 p.m. with Ysleta and Monahans tangle in the nightcap at 9 p.m.

Consolation play begins at 9 a.m. Saturday, with the Pecos-Alpine loser playing the El Paso High-Van Horn loser. The winners of the two championship tilts will tangle at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Play will continue Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. The championship bracket will play its final at 9 p.m. Saturday. Consolation finalists will fight it out at 7:30 p.m. for the championship of that bracket.

Engineers Slam Big Spring Quintet

The Rotary Engineers came from an early 10-4 disadvantage and swept to a 88-53 victory over the Big Spring VFW cagers Wednesday night in the John M. Cowden Junior High School gym.

Leland Huffman led the Midland team with 25 points. Frank Collins scored 16, Paul Haskins and Bennie Rutherford 14, and Jim Watson and Charlie Kelly 10 points each.

Martin led the Big Spring team with 14. Barnett tallied 13 for the losers.

The Engineers journey to Andrews Friday night for a game with the Andrews Independents.

AMERICAN NATIONAL TO MEET IN FORT WORTH SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—The American National Cattleman's Association will meet next year in Fort Worth.

Until Wednesday, the group was called the American National Livestock Association. It changed its name as it closed its convention.

UNDERDOG—Lee Oma will be the underdog in his battle with heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles Friday night in Madison Square Garden. A 1-6 favorite, Charles is listed as a 1-2 choice to win by a knockout.

Wink took Kermit in another rivalry contest. Kermit had worked out but two times prior to the contest due to a long football season, and it was evident. The Jackets committed 26 fouls. Paul Jette paced the Wildcat attack with 16 points. Wayne Culvahouse grabbed 17 for Wink.

Wednesday night in Seminole the invading Andrews Mustangs copped a 41-34 game from the Indians. Bob (Trees) Summerfield paced Andrews with 11 points, and Jack Smith scored 10. Jackie Gothard's 10 points led the losing Indians.

Sam Boyd To Speak At Crane Banquet

CRANE—The annual Crane High School athletic banquet, sponsored by the Crane Lions Club, will be held January 22. Sam Boyd, former Baylor University football star and currently the freshman coach at Baylor, will be the guest speaker.

Not only football boys, but basketball boys and track men will be honored at the event, along with the Crane coaches.

It also will be "Ladies night" for the Lion's club and the public is invited to attend. Advance sale of tickets and prices will be announced at a later date.

Films of Baylor football games played against other Southwest Conference teams during 1950 will be shown.

Ezz Charles 1-6 Choice Over Oma

NEW YORK—(AP)—Calm, confident Ezzard Charles remained a solid one to six favorite Thursday to retain his heavyweight championship against the challenge of unorthodox Lee Oma at Madison Square Garden Friday night.

The sharp-punching Cincinnati champ also was listed as a one to two choice to stop the Buffalo fighter before the 15 rounds are over.

There was very little betting here on either the outcome or a knockout. But interest in the fight has picked up and there is a good possibility the International Boxing Club's predictions of a 12,000 crowd and a $65,000 gross will be fulfilled.

Charles' sixth title defense will be telecast and broadcast.

The 29-year-old champion wound up his boxing preparations Wednesday with a flashy four-round workout. He looked fast and fit when he completed his fourth and last round.

Asked if he planned to go for a knockout, Ezzard said "I'm going out to win. If I can knock him out, I'll do it. I'll see what happens in there."

Charles has made no special effort in training to copy with Oma's puzzling style. The Buffalo scrapper fights with his hands down and walks away from opponents in a style somewhat similar to that of Jersey Joe Walcott, who was beaten by Charles.

Oma, who finished boxing Tuesday, just limbered up Wednesday. "I'm in good shape," said the 34-year old Oma. "I've never trained like this before. I'm ready."

Sammy Baugh Years For Grid Coach Job

HONOLULU—(AP)—Sammy Baugh says he'd like to coach football here when his Washington Redskins days are over. He's a West Texas rancher between seasons now.

Baugh, the old TCU star, said he had no coaching offers. He is here to play in two all-star games.

Big Spring Man Named To El Paso

The employment of L. E. Milling, YMCA secretary at Big Spring, as executive secretary of the El Paso Presbytery, Presbyterian Church, U. S., was announced Thursday by Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor of Midland's First Presbyterian Church and chairman of the Church Extension Committee of the El Paso Presbytery.

L. E. Milling

In his new position, Milling will direct the promotional programs in all churches in the El Paso Presbytery, which extends from Colorado City to El Paso and from Fort Stockton to Clovis, N. M. The Presbytery has a membership of more than 6,000 persons.

Material Shortages
To Result In Wispy
Fashions For Gals

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—The threat of material shortages is going to result in some slightly wispy clothes for women this summer.

Complete costumes, including top-coat, on display at the California Apparel Creators' Spring Fashion Week Show, often weigh less than three pounds.

Individual items—made of sheer nylon, rayon or silk—range in weight from a one-ounce brassiere to a reversible overcoat, wool on one side and silk on the other, that tips the scales at one pound, 11 ounces.

The trend toward paper-thin fabrics is keeping pace with the trend toward lower necklines and higher skirts. Manufacturers are out to conserve cloth, which daily is becoming more expensive and harder to get.

Here are a few samples of the lightweight stuff:

A one and a half-ounce panty girdle; a three-ounce slip; a four-ounce halter blouse—similar model with sleeves weigh six; a 10-ounce pleated nylon skirt; six-ounce pleated play shorts; seven-ounce silk dress; a filmy black nylon night-gown at four ounces and a nine-ounce strapless bathing suit of two-way stretchy nylon.

Nighties and foundation garments are virtually transparent. Other fabrics, however, are so tightly woven as to be indistinguishable from heavier fabrics.

PRESBYTERIAN MEN TO MEET THURSDAY NIGHT

The January meeting of Presbyterian Men of Midland will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Fellowship Hall of the First Presbyterian Church, with laymen of the new St. Andrews Presbyterian Church attending as special guests.

Al H. Vineyard, president, said a surprise program of interest to all laymen of the two churches will be presented.

Civil Service Has

In addition, they must have completed appropriate college education, or they must show a combination of such education and experience.

The positions to be filled from the veterinarian (trainee) examination are in the Bureau of Animal Industry in the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, D. C., and throughout the United States.

The meteorological aid positions are in the Weather Bureau and other Federal agencies in Washington, D. C., and vicinity, and in Alaska.

Application forms may be obtained from Wayne Campbell at the post office.

Texas Schools Take Smaller Bite Out Of State's Tax Dollar

AUSTIN—One-half cent less of each state tax dollar went to support Texas' public-schools last year than in 1939-40 despite the tremendous strides made in the school system since the Gilmer-Aikin laws went into effect.

"Not only has Texas climbed from very low on the national ladder to near the top in public school education in the first year under the Gilmer - Aikin program, but the state accomplished what amounted to a near-revolution in education without taking a bigger bite out of each tax dollar," Dr. Mortimer Brown, president of the Texas State Teachers Association, said here.

"In 1939-40 the public school support totaled 30.31 cents of each state dollar expended. During the last school year the schools' share of that dollar was 29.67, or exactly 54 of a cent less.

"At the same time, enrollment increased greatly, the number of teachers employed went much higher and the average daily attendance skyrocketed.

THE MARK OF JESUS—FORGIVENESS OF INJURIES

We have spoken of shrinking from the brand. But when we see what is being branded into us we shrink no longer. For we are being branded with "the marks of Jesus." Could anything be finer than that? A quaint preacher prayed and thanked God for each member of the Trinity, and when he came to Jesus he said, "O God, even you couldn't do any better than He did." He was right. Christ-likeness is to be stamped into you. You cannot have too much of that. What were some of the marks of Jesus?

1. Forgiveness of injuries. The sublimest prayer that was ever prayed, for it embodied the sublimest spirit ever shown, was the prayer, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." Sir John Seeley says that the outstanding distinguishing mark of a Christian is willingness to forgive injuries. A bandit held up a man who gave him his wallet. "Do you need money as badly as that? I will give you some more," the man said, handing over his other wallet. "If you will take a job I'll help you to get one." The bandit dropped his gun and said: "I can't take your money; you're a Christian."

Ralph was a converted prisoner serving a sentence. A fellow prisoner said of him: "No one can hold a grudge any more when Ralph comes into the room." That was the authentic sign of being a Christian. A missionary lady in Japan was walking along the safety zone when her coat, blown by the wind, caught in the knob of a passing car and she was dragged and injured. In the hospital she begged that the driver of the taxi should not be prosecuted, or his insurance taken away, as it was an accident. The taxi driver was so moved by her attitude that he attended her funeral and became a Christian.

Now you are to be branded—branded, mind you, with the spirit of forgiveness of injuries. It is going deep, deep—never again will you retaliate or harbor resentments. Retaliation and harboring of resentments belong to a dead past—gone forever!

O Christ, brand me deep. I surrender all hurts, all resentments, all retaliation. From henceforth I am free—free from corroding hate and cankered resentments. I shall love everyone—friend and foe—those who do me good and those who do me ill. By Thy grace I can do this, but only by Thy grace. From henceforth let no hate trouble me. I bear Thy brand, Amen.

'Work More, Travel

DALLAS—(AP)—Baptists could get 250,000 new church members this year if they spend as much time at it as they ordinarily do in "coming and going to and from conventions and conferences" said Baylor University President Dr. W. R. White.

He spoke Wednesday at the final session of a three-day evangelism conference here.

Vandenberg Home
After Six-Month
Stay In Hospital

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.—(AP)—After almost six weeks confinement, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) is home from the hospital.

The 66-year-old Republican veteran of Congress, thrice hospitalized since the Fall of 1949, was released from Butterworth Hospital here Wednesday.

Vandenberg, advocate of a bipartisan foreign policy for the United States, entered the hospital here in mid-November for what was described as a re-examination of his condition.

Twice in the previous 15 months the senator had undergone operations. A lung was removed.

There was no announcement as to when Vandenberg would return to Washington. Previously he had said he hoped it would be "soon."

Vandenberg, a familiar GOP voice in international affairs, has been conspicuous by his absence in the present U. S. foreign policy debate on Korea and other problems.

In a statement from the hospital earlier this week, however, he pleaded for American unity. He warned against permitting a deadlock in foreign policy in view of what he called "ruthless aggression aimed at us."

MAT Now Installing New High-Intensity Lighting System

Construction of a high-intensity lighting system—making Midland's Municipal Air Terminal visible at night from 30 to 50 miles away—was started here Wednesday.

The new lighting system which will outline the air terminal's runways, is being installed by the Rogers Construction Company.

Financed by the city and the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the new lights will permit airplanes to land here under dusty or other unfavorable weather conditions.

"At present," said Clyde G. Sharcity aviation director, "you barely can see the lights at night from five to 10 miles away—if you know what you're looking for."

The high-intensity lighting is being installed on the long East-West runway while medium-intensity lighting is being installed on other runways and taxiways.

It will be the third airport in Texas to be equipped with the lighting system, which already has been installed at Houston and Corpus Christi.

Corn Husking Pegs Still Manufactured

DES MOINES —(P)— A Shenandoah firm still manufactures corn husking pegs, although the corn picker has largely replaced husking of corn by hand.

About 40 such items as husking pegs and hooks are turned out by the Raldt Manufacturing Company, believed to be one of the few firms now making such equipment. A company spokesman said the firm has seen business in husking pegs hit a volume of $35,000 a year. It has shrunk in recent years to about $2,000 annually. The company also manufactures other items.

A Tip First-Hand We Would Say

HAGERSTOWN, MD. —(P)— The young couple seemed disappointed when the Hagerstown Daily Mail editor told them he already had received a tip on the fire. The fire had destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kendle, and the first tipster won a cash prize from the paper.

"I'm Bob Kendle," said the man. "We thought if we could win a tip prize we'd salvage something out of the fire."

They got the prize.

Dinette Sets Go Modern

SIMULATED WOOD GRAIN features the plastic top of this new dinette table.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Many Americans eat two, often three, meals a day in dinettes. So the choice of a dinette set becomes very important. I just saw a practical and quite beautiful set in metal with simulated wood grain top.

It combines the tough wearing qualities of chromed furniture—it is heat, stain and scratch resistant—with the beauty of pastel colors and simulated wood grain finish.

This coloristic dinette table has a simulated wood grain plastic top that comes in such colors as gray, green, chartreuse and limed oak.

Complementing the top, which has all the warmth of real wood furniture, are the trim and legs of the table which are covered with a plastic coating of silver gray and bronze. The four chairs are upholstered in harmonizing pastel shades of washable plastic.

Now, for something to eat on that new dinette table.

Grandma's Pumpkin Pie (6 servings)

Two-thirds cup sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoon flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/8 teaspoon cloves, 1/3 cup molasses, 2 cups mashed pumpkin or squash, 3 eggs, 1 cup undiluted evaporated milk or light cream, pastry for 9-inch pie.

Heat oven to 400 degrees F. (moderately hot). Mix first six ingredients. Add molasses, pumpkin or squash, eggs, and milk or cream. Pour into a 9-inch pie pan lined with unbaked pastry. Bake 40 minutes or until knife inserted in center of filling comes out clean.

Here's One Way To Kill A Deer

BOERNE, TEXAS —(P)— Ever hear of a deer being killed by a boulder?

Well, it happened near here and Mayor Gammon Davis of Boerne shot it—indirectly.

Puzzled?

Mayor Davis was out hunting with Jack Davis, Arlan Rust and V. V. Lawrence. He saw a big, beautiful buck. He fired but the smoke had cleared he found he had missed.

But the shot hit a nearby hill and knocked a good-sized boulder out of it. Going over to inspect this, the mayor found a seven-point, 80-pound buck lying at the foot of the hill—dead. There wasn't a bullet hole in the animal but a section of the rock had penetrated the deer and severed an artery. The rock still was lodged in the deer.

Sweet Potato Pie

Reduce sugar to 1/2 cup; replace pumpkin or squash with mashed sweet potatoes.

Frozen Liquids Can Form Rocks

LOS ANGELES —(P)— Certain rocks were formed through the "freezing" of molten liquids, says Dr. George Tunell, University of California professor.

"Laboratory geologists are reproducing some of the processes which created minerals in the earth many years ago, but information thus uncovered has not yet been put to its full use," he says.

Dr. Tunell says that leading field geologists working with metal ores have stated that in order to learn the nature of hot solutions through which many metal ores have been deposited, the cooperation of both field and laboratory workers is needed. Discovery of ore deposits depends in the long run, he said, on how they were formed.

Tangerines Put Zip In Salads

TANGERINES, on the plentiful list, make sharp salads.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Oranges, grapefruit and tangerines, all first-grade sources of essential vitamin C, are way up in the January plentiful list of foods. Therefore, this is a good time to make the wise resolution to get adequate amounts of citrus fruit into your family menus EVERY DAY of the year.

Serve citrus fruit juices, citrus fruit sections or citrus fruit salads at least once every day.

Here are some fresh ideas using tangerines, the kid-glove fruit from Florida. Being members of the vitamin C family in first-rate standing, they can play an important role in family pleasure and nutrition.

Tangerine Desert Cups (6 servings)

Six tangerines, 1 grapefruit, 2 tablespoons sugar, optional, 6 pitted dates, cut.

Cut tangerine peel into 8 sections; peel about 2/3 of the way. Carefully remove tangerine sections from tangerine "cup." Cut sections in half with scissors. To section grapefruit, cut off peel in strips from top to bottom. Go over fruit again, removing any remaining white membrane. Cut along side of each dividing membrane from outside to middle of core. Remove section by section. Cut sections with a scissors into thirds. Combine with tangerine sections; sprinkle with sugar if desired. Arrange fruit in tangerine "cups"; top with date pieces.

Even Blackmarket For Newspapers

BELOGRADE —(P)— Westerners may find this hard to believe. But, although Yugoslavia has a controlled press and the people know that their government allows to be published only what it thinks they should know, a blackmarket in newspapers has developed here.

The scramble for papers becomes so wild even the western press correspondents established here miss out. This means they have to borrow from each other and papers get double or triple usage. There are three major reasons for this condition:

First, there is a newspaper shortage. Second, there is a greater demand for papers since the war because literacy has been sharply reduced. Third, a Yugoslav family needs a newspaper because they publish what rationed foods are available in the stores.

Tangerine Slaw (6 servings)

Three tangerines, 4 cups shredded cabbage, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 1/2 teaspoon celery seed, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1/2 cup mayonnaise.

Peel tangerines; remove white membrane. Cut sections in thirds; combine with cabbage and chopped pepper. Add celery seed, salt, mustard and vinegar to mayonnaise; blend. Pour dressing over salad and toss well.

'Volcano On Ice' Described By Prof

BERKELEY, CALIF. —(P)— A "volcano on ice" several thousand years ago in southern British Columbia was described here by a University of California assistant professor of geology.

Dr. William H. Mathews told of the eruption of Mount Garibaldi when that area of present-day Canada was under a great glacial sheet of ice covering everything up to 5,000 feet.

The "volcano on ice" was created when the eruption threw up masses of molten matter. The hot ashes gradually built up a cone covering more than 10 square miles, Dr. Mathews said. Through this cone avalanches of lava poured out onto the surrounding ice causing awesome clouds of steam and hot volcanic dust to rise, the geologist said.

Basic Danish Book Publication Due

COPENHAGEN —(P)— A book on basic Danish is due to be published soon by the Scandinavian Book Club. The author is Khud Mogens, a Copenhagen anthropologist, who has been working on the book for two years to make it possible for all English-speaking people to learn the most necessary Danish words.

The book contains 3,000 Danish words, in three chapters, each of one thousand words. A foreigner can easily get along in Denmark if he masters the first chapter. If he can learn 2,000 words he can carry on a conversation with an average Dane.

PUBLIC DONATIONS PAY FINES OF NEWSMEN

MANILLA —(P)— Public donations have paid the fines of two newsmen convicted on a charge of printing obscene language. Columnist Pedro Padilla and Editor Vicente F. del Piarro of a small Manila daily were fined $150 each for quoting from John Steinbeck's book "To a God Unknown," which a court held to be obscene.

The fines were upheld by an appellate court. To start the fund a Philippines senator contributed $25, and soon more than enough to pay the fines and court costs had been collected. The remainder, sponsors of the campaign, decided, would be used to establish a permanent fund for newspapermen who may be similarly convicted.

Canned Grapefruit Is Useful Item

LIVELY RING MOLD SALAD is made from canned grapefruit sections, juice and stuffed olives.

By GAYNOR 'IADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

In your attempts to cut food costs, be careful not to cut the foods that are rich in vitamin C. Your family must have them to stay well and vigorous.

All the citrus fruits—oranges, grapefruit, tangerines and lemons—are leading vitamin A carriers. So, of course, are tomatoes. Fresh, canned or frozen concentrated, they are all essential factors in balanced menus.

Canned grapefruit sections make vitamin-rich fruit cups, salads and desserts. There is no waste, remember. That is an important consideration in any food purchase today.

Grapefruit Ring Mold
(8 Servings)

One No. 2 can grapefruit sections, 1 No. 2 can grapefruit juice, 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin, 8 stuffed olives, sliced.

Drain grapefruit sections well. Add drained syrup to grapefruit juice; measure. Add water to make 3 1/2 cups. Soften gelatin in 1/2 cup of the cold liquid. Heat remaining liquid. Add softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Chill until consistency of unbeaten egg white. Arrange some of the drained grapefruit sections and sliced olives in the bottom of 5-cup ring mold. Spoon over enough of the chilled mixture to cover sections and olive slices. Chill until almost firm. Repeat procedure. Chill until firm. Unmold on serving platter. Fill center with salad. Surround grapefruit ring with salad greens and grapefruit sections. If desired, garnish with additional olive slices and grapefruit sections.

Here's another good combination: Combine sour cream and cottage cheese. Season well with garlic sauce and freshly ground black pepper. Serve on individual plates on a bed of crisp lettuce and garnish liberally with canned grapefruit sections. Serve French dressing in separate bowl.

61-year-old 'Flier' Debunks Posters

ABERDEEN, MD. — (AP) — In those Air Force recruiting posters, the young flier—always very young—stands clean limbed and straight against the horizon.

Well, M Sgt. John E. Fox, of Phillips Field, Md., can tell you those posters are a lot of prop wash. He's still on flying status—and he's 61 years old.

Sergeant Fox is a mechanical inspector of Army Air Force planes. And he's probably old enough to be the grandfather of some of the pilots he flies with.

Fox enlisted in the Army on Nov. 26, 1910, at Ft. Slocum, N. Y. He's a veteran of the Mexican border campaign, and he saw service in the Philippines in 1915.

Switch In Crops Is Benefit To Soil

DELTA, UTAH — (AP) — Heavy alkali soils in Utah are being made more productive by a switch in crops. In the Delta area, soils have poor drainage and the salt content of irrigation water is high. Yields fall off as the salt increases and the grounds become hard and crusty.

Despite good seeding practices, roots of the important alfalfa crop here become shallow. More frequent irrigation is needed. Some farmers experimented with wheat-grass and found that this plant sends countless roots down into the tight, salty subsoils. The roots loosen or break up the ground, permitting better movement of water so that high concentrations of salts can be leached out.

Tall wheat grass can be grown for seed, pasture or hay. Its decaying roots add organic matter to the soil. Or the plants may be plowed under to further loosen and fertilize the soil. It is reported that wheat grass will also grow on non-irrigated areas and that near Tooele, Utah, it was used to overcome dust bowl conditions.

Cooperative 'Phone Project Completed

DES MOINES — (AP) — Plymouth County farmers working with the Northwestern Bell Telephone Company of Sioux City in a cooperative project, have established 81 telephones in the county. The farmers dug holes for poles, trimmed brush and trees, and placed the telephone poles. The company strung the lines and installed the telephones.

For the project, the farmers organized into 10 groups and worked about two and one-half days each under the supervision of telephone company foremen. The lines of a mutual telephone company which had served the area, were destroyed by a sleet and ice storm two years ago.

Proposed Aliens Camp Rejected

MANILA — (AP) — Secretary of Finance Pio Pedrosa has rejected a proposal to establish a camp for housing aliens who have been ordered deported.

The Bureau of Immigration recommended the camp on the grounds that persons ordered deported for violation of immigration laws are largely Chinese, who probably would be persecuted if returned to their native land.

Pedrosa said the government could not spare funds for such a camp.

SINGLE-ENGINE TAKEOFF—Aided by the tremendous thrust of a JATO (jet assisted takeoff) unit, an Ethiopian Air Lines Convair takes to the air on a single engine in a demonstration flight at San Diego, Calif. The Ethiopian line is the first commercial airline to install the JATO device as a standard equipment. It is used as a safety precaution when operating from high-altitude airports, such as Addis Ababa's, which is 7700 feet above sea level.

New Delhi Industry Needs Assistance

NEW DELHI — (AP) — Representatives of the iron and steel industry say they will need government assistance to implement plans to expand installed capacity by 450,000 tons.

They stressed this point at a meeting here with the national planning commission, which is coordinating various development projects. The steel men estimated the expansion would cost $70,000,000. Present capacity was placed at 1,071,000 tons of finished steel and 1,878,000 tons of pig iron.

STORE CAKE MIXES IN DARK

Keep homemade cake mixes stored in the dark. Tests show that these mixes keep as long as a year when stored in a cool dark place, but when stored at room temperature they keep only about six weeks.

DRESS UP BROCCOLI

Dress up broccoli with a savory topping. Cook the broccoli until just tender-crisp, drain and place in your serving dish. Melt butter or margarine in a skillet, add fine dry bread crumbs and stir over low heat to brown a little. Sprinkle the buttered crispy crumbs over the broccoli and serve at once.

LUNCHEON SALAD

For a hearty luncheon salad, team cooked lima beans with crisp celery, cooked peas and carrots. Moisten with mayonnaise or other creamy salad dressing and serve on shredded lettuce. Preface the salad with a bowl of steaming soup and crisp crackers and you have a nutritious good-tasting meal.

Youth Center Chatter

By JOYCE HOWELL
Hi Folks! How about coming into a Teenagers world for a few minutes? We are ready and willing to tell you about the things which have been happening around the Youth Center and the other teenage hangouts during the last week.

We have quite a few congratulations to hand out this week. During the month of December, Betty Marie Nix and Jimmy Kennedy were married. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy are graduates of MHS and they often have been seen at the Center. Dorothy McQuerry and Luther Mooney also were married recently. Mooney graduated from MHS last year and Mrs. Mooney will graduate this year.

Congratulations also are in store for Mr. and Mrs. John Yancy. Mrs. Yancy, the former Wanda Mashburn, often has visited the Midland Youth Center.

Of course, we also have some congratulations to hand out to those who have become engaged. Shirley Pulliam and Charles Crowley have not decided upon the wedding date. Sue King is another teeny who is planning to be married soon. Sue and Don Miller plan to be married January 20.

We now have the names of two more teeners who are or soon will be taking orders from Uncle Sam. Bill Little, MHS graduate of '48 now is a member of the United States Navy. As we mentioned last week, a lot of the college students were afraid they might not be able to complete this year of school—Richard McColium is the first we know of to receive his notice. Richard is a member of the NROTC.

Attention everyone! Beware of Ann Hughes! This girl has been seen engraving initials on the arms of several persons. Why is this so unusual? Why, because she enjoys engraving names on people with a knife blade. We noticed Ann and Barbara Whitson comparing initials a few days ago. Naturally we asked them if it hurt to cut one's self with a knife. "Of course," they replied—"but that is half the fun!" Monopoly rapidly is becoming one of the most popular games around the Center. Sandra McNath, Nona Lynn, Carol Tompkins, and Marilyn Dunagan were having a wonderful time last weekend. We noticed Margaret Gibson helping the players with her "expert advice." (Margaret's own statement.)

Cooperation Is Anti-Red Weapon

NEW DELHI (AP)—India's police officials claim they are beating the Communist terrorists of Southeast India with a new weapon—the cooperation of loyal villagers. This was disclosed at an exhibit of arms and munitions captured from Communist insurgents of the Telengana area—a jungle-matted region of Hyderabad state similar to that in which the Malayan terrorists operate.

Premier Pandit Nehru led high government officials and members of parliament in their inspection of the exhibit. They saw weapons ranging from Sten and Tommy guns to century-old muzzle-loading rifles and pistols with which Communist extremists operated in Hyderabad and the neighboring Madras state. Increasing support from the villages—whose residents once feared to resist the Reds—is producing results in the campaign to eliminate armed opposition to the government, an official told Nehru.

The Holloway Carmel Bar, sticky caramel on a stick, is another Youth Center item which is going up on the teenage hit parade. At least, that is what we decided last Saturday after taking a look around the Center. Nancy Steadman, Jane Stuart, Mary Nell, Marjann Forrest, Agatha Tabor, Don Forrest and Pat Douglas are a few of the teeners who were eating them.

Have you lost anything lately? (It seems as though we ask this question 52 times a year!) Lost and Found articles have been placed on one of the tables at the Center. Billfolds, compacts, scarves, purses, several pairs of ear screws, two sweaters, and even a pair of white boy's tennis shorts are there. A lot of these things haven't been claimed for several months. Please come on down and collect anything belonging to you.

Work has been underway several days on props for the annual High School Coronation. We often see members of the art classes struggle wearily over to the Youth Center after school with their hands and faces well-covered with paint. The coronation will be held February 9 in the High School Auditorium. There will be a dance afterward for high school students and their dates.

"My, I'm glad the robes will be white!" "But blue would have been much prettier—and easier to keep clean." Yes, these were a few of the comments heard at the Youth Center Tuesday, during lunch and after school. The Senior Class had a meeting and the graduation robes this year will be white instead of the customary purple or black.

We understand Pat Douglass has been the victim of quite a bit of ribbing lately! Say, Pat, just who did write you that letter on pink paper?

Have you ever noticed the way boys shirts often hike up in back when they are just a little over-energetic? Mr. Bone, MHS chemistry teacher, has found a new word for this. He just politely says, "Hey, your midriff is showing."

The movie "Harvey" really made quite a hit with the Midland teeners. Ever so often we see someone looking up in the air, just talking away. After having several teeners give us dirty looks after we asked them to whom they were talking, we just decided they needed shots.

We were sorry to lose two of our most faithful members last week. Joan and Sue Finn, who moved to Midland last Summer, have moved again. Their new home is in Chicago. We really do hope to see you all during the Summer months.

We don't know the name, but a popular new game has been invented. Mr. Glidewell throws a balloon up between two boys—just like basketball—and the two players then try to get the balloon to one end of the Center. Bobby Proctor, Bobby Standley and Don Forrest were three of the boys we noticed playing this game.

New items really have been added to the Center lately. The volleyball court was put up several weeks ago, but we now have a new badminton court, as well as a new basketball basket. For the inside of the Center we have several games. Electric football and basketball games are two of the newest contributions.

That's about all for this week, but before saying good-by, I would like to express my thanks to Gloria Anguish, who helped with this week's column.

It's Fish Baked In Pickle Sauce

DISH THAT'S DELICIOUSLY NEW, baked halibut with fluffy pickle sauce.

By GAYNOR MADDOX,
NEA Staff Writer

Now here's a fish dish almost anyone will like. Use steaks about 1/2-inch thick of halibut, cod or haddock and spread the special sauce over the fish before you bake it.

Baked Halibut With Fluffy Pickle Sauce
(Makes 4-6 Servings)

Two pounds halibut, cod or haddock steaks (1/2-inch thick), 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sweet pickle relish, 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 2 drops tabasco sauce, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 egg whites.

Cut fish into serving pieces, if desired; sprinkle with 1/2 teaspoon salt. Place in greased shallow baking dish. In a bowl combine relish, mayonnaise, onion, parsley and seasonings; stir thoroughly. Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into pickle mixture. Spread sauce over top of fish. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Serve immediately.

Salmon Stuffed Peppers
(4 Servings)

Four medium peppers, 1 small onion, chopped; 1/3 cup finely chopped celery leaves, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 3/4 cup tomato juice, 1 1/4 cups canned salmon (about), 1 cup cooked rice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon lemon juice, dash Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 cup buttered bread crumbs.

Cut large peppers in half lengthwise or cut a slice from stem ends. Remove seeds. Boil in salted water until almost tender and drain. Saute onion and celery leaves in fat until tender. Blend in flour, add tomato juice and cook until thickened. Add salmon and rice. Season to taste. Pile salmon mixture in peppers and sprinkle with buttered crumbs. Arrange stuffed peppers in a shallow baking dish, add water barely to cover the bottom of the dish and bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 20 minutes, or until crumbs are brown.

Czech Railways Announce New Trains

PRAGUE (AP)—A new train called the "Muscovite" will be introduced next May on which passengers can ride between Czechoslovakia and the Soviet Union without changing coaches, the government-owned Czechoslovak Railways has announced.

It will run between Moscow and Prague in Winter and Carlsbad in Summer. Passengers now must change from Soviet broad-gauge to Czechoslovak medium-gauge coaches at Cerna in eastern Slovakia. On the new train, the undercarriages of the coaches will be changed instead. The Moscow-Prague run takes about three and a quarter days.

Serve South African Lobster

SOUTH AFRICAN LOBSTER TAILS with watercress, heated potato chips and Hollandaise sauce—a wonderful treat.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

For a special de luxe party try frozen South African lobster tails. They are all meat with a minimum of waste, and for that reason are far more economical than you'd expect for such luxury eating.

Rock Lobster 'N' Chips
Allow one 8-oz. South African rock lobster tail for each serving. Boil according to directions. Remove meat whole from shell. Plunge into boiling water for 1 minute. Drain.

Arrange on platter, garnish with ring of watercress and surround with heated potato chips. Pass Hollandaise sauce at table.

Directions for boiling: Place South African rock lobster tails, either thawed or frozen, into large kettle boiling salted water (1 tsp. salt for each quart of water). When water reboils, lower heat so water boils gently and begin counting time. Keep covered. Boil tails 1 minute longer than their individual weight in ounces.

For instance, boil an 8-oz. tail 9 minutes. Add 2 minutes to all boiling times when tails are cooked frozen.

To remove meat easily from shell, drain off hot water, drench with cold water. Using scissors, cut lengthwise through center of membrane covering flesh and insert fingers under meat at open end and pull meat out.

South African Rock Lobster Supreme
(4 Servings)

Four tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 1 1/2 cups of milk, 2 egg yolks, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 cups diced, boiled South African rock lobster meat, toast points.

Melt butter or margarine. Stir in flour and seasonings. Stir in hot milk gradually while cooking over low heat. When sauce is thick, remove from heat. Beat in egg yolks, one at a time. Stir in lemon juice and add diced boiled South African rock lobster meat.

Repeat while stirring gently, but do not allow to boil. Serve with toast points. A chafing dish may be used for reheating and for service at the table. Note: A 1-pound rock lobster tail supplies about 2 cups diced meat.

It's a dangerous and uneconomical habit to run lamp cords or electric wires under your rugs or carpets. Not only does the resultant ridge tend to wear a line into your floor covering when walked upon; it also constitutes a fire hazard.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"Whenever I play three-hand Canasta," writes a San Francisco reader, "the evening ends in an argument. For example here's the incident that started the fireworks last night.

"I froze the pack to avoid giving it away to my wife, who was at my left. Two plays later my wife made a discard that gave the pack to my son (the third player in our family game).

"Now I wouldn't have minded this, except that it was obvious that she was giving the pack away deliberately. In fact, she admitted it quite cheerfully when I taxed her with it.

"I said quite a few things about what was sporting to do and what wasn't. My wife took the other side of the argument, and my son just laughed at both of us.

"What is the expert view of this situation? Is it sporting to give the pack away on purpose?"

It certainly is. In fact, this involves the most important feature of three-handed Canasta. The game is completely cut-throat. Like Ishmael, your hand is against every man, and every man's hand is against you.

No player is your partner, and therefore no player has the duty of cooperating with you. If you make a play that puts you out on a limb, you must expect one of the other players to come after you with a saw, and smile as he saws that limb off.

Let's examine the case of a freeze. My friend froze the pack to keep it away from his wife. If she cooperated with his play, she would be acting against her own interest. She'd never get the pack herself, so it would eventually go to friend's husband.

From her point of view, it made good sense to give the pack away deliberately—especially if this could be done before it got too big. Then nobody would benefit too much from the play that had been directed against her.

As a matter of fact, let's change the situation a bit, and we'll see that the same principle applies. Husband sees that wife is having trouble finding safe discards. He freezes the pack to make it easier for her to discard safely. Is it sporting for her to give the pack away deliberately when it has been frozen for her benefit?

Yes, even then. Each player must play his own hand and decide for himself what will serve his interests. No other player has the right to make you play for his benefit. If a player tries to help you, and you think his idea is a poor one, you have every right to ignore his unwelcome help.

If these principles are understood, three-hand Canasta becomes a fascinating game. You never blame another player because you don't expect anything of him. The game becomes a battle of wits, in which everybody lashes out in both directions at once.

Great fun, if you like a good fight.

Death Duties Called Menace To Enterprise

LONDON—(P)—Death duties, which run as high as 95 per cent on big fortunes, are a menace to business enterprises in Britain, says a report by the Engineering Industries Association.

Payments of duties wring the capital of a businessman's concern when he dies and often force sales. The association expressed apprehension about "the serious effect the present death duties may eventually have upon the productivity and continuity of medium sized and small businesses."
